Los Angeles Police Receive Wire Asking That Youth Be Questioned 'Cautiously' as to Movements in Mid-West.

(By The Associated Press) LOS ANGELES, Dec. 28.—A telegram was received by the police from the state of Wisconsin asking that William Hickman be questioned "cautiously" as to his movements from October 2 to October 17 last, declaring that Hickman answered the description of a man who murdered a young girl there October 17 by strangling her. The Milwaukee chief stated he understood Hickman was in Chicago October 17 and also that it is learned if the youth had a Ford coupe during the period and what he did with it. This and information from Kansas City expressing the belief, Hickman might have been the murderer of an old man at Colton, Marion Parkey had written to police detectives for investigation. At a late hour tonight no report had been made on their program.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 28.—District Attorney Asa Keyes late today declared his belief that William E. Hickman, confessed kidnaper and slayer of Marion Parkey, had withheld important facts in his lengthy statement concerning the death of the school girl.

The prosecutor indicated he would seek a new and more comprehensive statement from Hickman which he believes would contain certain details of the story of the crime. Edson McFarland, assistant United States attorney, and a deputy United States marshal, questioned Hickman in his cell in connection with the alleged slaying by Hickman in Kansas City, Missouri, of the thirteen-year-old Marian Parkey, daughter of a federal school-room teacher, and "Annie" Beck, a thirteen-year-old girl, at Hickman's residence in Kansas City, Missouri, on December 17, 1926.

Clash over Death Cause Conjecture as to whether William Hickman would plead guilty or not to the death of the girl, was a controversy which arose between District Attorney Asa Keyes and Attorney Arthur J. Wagner, as to what caused the school girl's death.

Dr. Wagner's report, that he believed the death was due to exhaustion rather than from the blow which Hickman confessed he drew around the girl's neck, was minutes was met by a report from Keyes that the report meant nothing.

WILLIAM E. HICKMAN WRITES CONFESSION FOR BIG NEWSPAPER

Latest Statement Makes No Mention of Death Struggle With Little Parker Girl; Story Written Personally.

(By The Associated Press) LOS ANGELES, Dec. 28 (AP)—The Examiner will print a verbatim copy of a supplemental confession given by its representative to William E. Hickman, admitted kidnaper and slayer of Marian Parker.

The new confession was written by Hickman personally. In its relation to the story of the kidnapping and killing of the child it is virtually identical in sequence and statement with the original statement given by him to Asa Keyes on the train which brought the prisoner back from Oregon.

Today's confession makes no mention of any death struggle between the girl while Hickman strangled her, as reported to have been contained in his original statement. It is stated by Asa Keyes on the train which brought the prisoner back from Oregon.

Placed Towel About Neck "I placed the towel gently about her neck, and she would rest her head. It did not give her a second's chance to doubt, but with a desperate tug at the towel drew it tightly about her throat and she was dead in two or three minutes. I untied her from the chair and laid her on the floor."

Hickman then described the placing of the body in the bath tub and its dismemberment with pocket knives as previously published.

Writing of his motives for the murder, Hickman said: "In the first place I feared that my apartment might be searched on Saturday night and the girl would be found. The search was spreading over the city and I expected that the Bellevue apartments would be searched any time. I was afraid to leave her in my apartment or take her out. My instinct to protect myself and avoid suspicion or arrest at this dangerous time caused me to use this terrible caution. In killing the girl and hiding parts of the body I was hoping to avoid being searched. It would also be possible to safely transfer the suitcase without suspicion and make it possible for me to secure the ransom without being arrested. My extreme sensitiveness and pride caused me to suffer much discomfort from this. This together with my deep thoughts on religious differences and variances between the religions and the doctrine of morality and helps to explain this complex under which I have suffered. I do not think I am crazy or insane but believe this complex is not considered on them and cannot be considered too lightly as a motive in this crime."

will have the effect of materially strengthening the market. He urged Idahoans themselves to ask for and insist upon United States No. 1 Idaho potatoes when ordering for their own use.

In commenting on the governor's statement, Commissioner Welch pointed out that the nation as a whole has a large crop of potatoes and that Idaho would have done well all through the season by lay stress on pushing their United States No. 1 grade. With the idea of getting a better profit out of the crop rather than to risk selling the whole crop at reduced prices.

Large Freight Bill Idaho, the commissioner continued, has a larger freight bill to pay than most of her competitors, and she must pay it by the premium for quality Idaho products can command when properly graded and advertised.

"We must sell the whole idea of United States No. 1 Idaho potatoes and our first step must be to sell the idea to ourselves and our own dealers," the commissioner asserted.

malans had bedecked their automobiles with bunting; others carried banners with appropriate inscriptions of welcome, and every where was to be seen the Stars and Stripes along with the national colors of the country. Plans to extend the honor of fellowship to the intrepid aviator, was Colonel Francisco Amador, speaking for the Guatemalan army. Government officials followed with their welcome, and Arthur Geissler, the American minister, after a warm greeting, thought himself of the anxious mother who had parted with her son at Valbuena flying field a few hours before noon and was here on the way back to her homeland. He sent her a telegram reading:

"The extraordinary speed with which Lindbergh flew from Mexico City to Guatemala City, a distance of about 1,000 miles in 34 hours, is a feat of 100 miles an hour, was beyond even the fiercest moose-anquine expectation. to him. The district attorney was convinced he said that the girl had been choked to death and whether alive or not, he would be held liable for the death penalty on the confessed kidnaper. The autopsy surgeon's report was based on the fact that the conditions usually present for strangulation were entirely absent and that the child had died of heart failure induced by fright.

Friendship Misted Wagner Keyes said that Wagner's friendship for Hickman was not the cause of the murder. The surgeon was the next-door neighbor of the Parker family in the west side district.

Hickman is scheduled for arraignment tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. By that time Jerome Walsh, an attorney here, will have been retained at Kansas City. It is expected to be in court representing the youthful defendant. Though Hickman reiterated today that he would enter a plea of guilty in view of his "complete confession," rumors were current that he probably would decide to take his chances in a jury trial.

Any move for delay on the part of Hickman's counsel would be opposed vigorously, Keyes said. "Hickman will get a fair trial," the district attorney added, "but there is going to be no delay."

An announcement that District Attorney Asa Keyes and County Attorney Surgeon H. P. Wagner would confer this evening at Wagner's home, led to the cause of Marian Parker's death, was made by Wagner. He expressed surprise at the interpretation Keyes placed on his statement when taken the night. In this the surgeon expressed his belief that the girl died of fright and not as a result of strangulation, which would have been put the towel about her neck to strangle her.

There was no complaint that he had not intended to convey any thought whatever in his statement, which is the girl's kidnaper and murderer.

Wagner's statement was supported tonight by County Officer Frank Kanne, who heard a statement as follows:

The autopsy surgeon's statement issued last night seems to have been interpreted in some people not well informed in legal matters. In regard to the cause of death, the truth is being reported. I take the surgeon to state the facts, which he did (terribly and truthfully).

The facts that the physical signs of strangulation were not present but death was due to the act of strangulation, which followed almost immediately.

"In other words she died as the result of the act but before physical violence could develop to sufficient degree to be recognized at the post mortem examination.

"Such a case constitutes murder in the first degree if no one creates the perpetrator of the murder or aids in his defense."

police to kill the entire underground crew." As a result of this discovery national guard units patrolled all well and water reservoirs at the mines in the northern Colorado field while others sought the identity of those responsible for the poison plot.

At Trinidad a total of 110 persons, all admitting membership in the Industrial Workers of the World and the fact they were striking miners, were held in the Las Animas county jail as a result of two raids conducted on their headquarters.

Sunday night Chief of Police E. A. Cleary, three deputies and Acting Mayor James Espey were held at hostages for nearly three hours by Industrial Workers of the World headquarters, when they sought to enforce a health department ordinance banning the use of the hall as sleeping rooms by the strikers.

500 Citizens Commissioned BOISE, Dec. 28 (AP)—Because of nearly 500 citizens of Trinidad, to whom police commissions had been issued following the issuance of a call through the newspapers for volunteers to assist in the closing of the hall.

Descending on the hall shortly before midnight, raiders arrested 41 persons. Early Monday morning, 41 inmates of the hall were arrested by Sheriff J. J. Mary and a crew of deputies who rounded Chief Cleary and his aids.

Following the raid last night the hall was searched by the raiding party and records of the organization confiscated. Later the windows and doors were boarded up. Today state policemen patrolled the territory adjacent to the hall to prevent any attempt to reopen it.

Although national guard officers are without any clues in the poison plot, they are inclined to believe the poison was placed in the drinking water by the water until the search by air and sea had gotten under way on Monday. If the Dawn struck the water at night, he believed it was probably wrecked and sunk immediately.

Meanwhile, a growing list of rumors came from New Foundland outside to spur on the searchers. The Rev. Edward Bishop, an Anglican clergyman at Pouch Cove, 20 miles north of St. John's, revealed today that he heard an airplane motor Sunday noon. Another report was that a Western Union Telegraph company operator at Heart's Content, New Foundland, had intercepted the code message: "Where are we? Can you locate us? This message was said to have been signed "WVU" or "WPU". The call letters of the Dawn were "WVU".

Joe said: "The shots were coming fast," he continued. "Two of us jumped on him and tore the gun away from him but he pulled out another and continued firing. He fired a lot of shots. He kept him away from my father and mother, though he was shooting steadily."

"The 76-year-old father, who lived in the slayer's home, was shot to death and a fourth wounded by one of his older sons, with his sons' was engaged in a cattle raising at the Woods district ranch where the slaying took place."

TRACT SOCIETY GREW TO GREAT BUSINESS From Struggling Little Group of Folk Organization Grows to One of Tremendous Size.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (AP)—A struggling little group of people folk going from house to house in 1825 to spread the principles of Christianity, today has grown to a business organization of tremendous size.

Today it publishes periodicals with a combined circulation of more than two million, and distributes annually 200,000 volumes of religious works of various languages.

When the society was organized in 1825, it was a simple religious society in principle, inter-racial in scope, and international in scope.

During the years before the society was born, there was a frightful death toll from Christian feelings.

The existing denominational tract societies then existing in various cities in the country banded together.

More than 30,000 families have been visited by these representatives, more than 500,000 religious services have been conducted, and more than 15,000,000 volumes, besides innumerable tracts and pamphlets, have been distributed.

Means of Training Many a loss and sorrow would take out of our lives if the power were ours. We have endured them and gone on, but the scars are still there.

Beginning Early Milton, aged seven, was fighting with his father. Evidently his father's occasions were impressed with some of the angling yarns told by his parent.

RICKARD FORECASTS FIGHTERS OF FUTURE

Veteran Promoter Predicts Five New Ring Champions in Pugilistic Activities.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (AP)—Forecasting what he believes will be the chief feature of the 1928 boxing season, Tex Rickard today predicted five new ring champions will be crowned, and that Jack Dempsey's second comeback campaign will offer a profitable one heavyweight championship contest for Gene Tunney.

These predictions were contained in an article under Rickard's signature in the New York Evening World.

Demsey, Jack Sharkey and Tom Heenan are regarded by Rickard as the probable opponents of Tunney in the three fights which he expects one of them to be Tunney's opponent in a 15-round championship bout on September 24 at the Yankee stadium, where $100,000 will be spent improving the seating arrangements so as to accommodate 100,000 spectators.

BABSON GIVES VIEWS CONCERNING TOURIST INDUSTRY OF NATION

Highway Travel One of Most Important Factors in Life of Country, Noted Statistician Finds After Study.

(Special to The News) BABSON PARE, Mass., Dec. 28.—Mr. Babson was today... industry which has come to be so popular throughout the country during recent years.

When discussing great industries the common belief is that America's greatest industries are of a material nature. Yet an analysis brings about the astounding conclusion that the greatest industry of all is the tourist industry.

It results only comparatively few people in the world today to manufacture the necessities of life. The great bulk of people are engaged in the production of luxuries. This includes all forms of entertainment, many forms of recreation and a great many others which make life today much easier than in the time of our grandfathers.

One of the most striking statistics in New England, the tourist industry. This is evidenced by the following figures. A very conservative estimate for the three years ending 1926 shows that England is $250,000,000. The state of Maine alone figures tourists spent about $100,000,000 last year.

It feels that California should enjoy very good business this winter while California is in no sense dependent on the tourist trade it is nevertheless a very stimulating factor in the economy of the southern part of the state.

The Florida is looking forward to a resumption of normal business and a good winter tourist season, and are far from being discouraged by the unfortunate deflation in land values that occurred last year.

100,000,000 in all other countries. Foreign tourists here spend probably around $150,000,000 a year. This tourist business certainly is a great industry and one that we should try more and more to cultivate.

1927 Shows Increase "I have recently made an analysis of reports on the tourist business sent to the Chambers of Commerce of ninety-seven representative cities throughout the country and find that the industry is growing by leaps and bounds.

Two cities report a slight decrease in the number of tourists, but in both cases I find that surrounding cities have witnessed an increase. In my investigation I have made considerable mention of the importance of good roads.

POTATO GROWERS OF IDAHO FACE PROBLEM OF MOVING BIG CROP Between 14,000 and 15,000 Carloads Yet to Be Marketed; Requires Daily Shipments of 120 Cars.

IDAHO FALLS, Dec. 28.—Potato growers were quiet during the week preceding the holidays, with practically no change in prices, stated for weeks before by Wallace Claborn, meet news representative of the federal department of agriculture at Idaho Falls. The carload price at Idaho shipping points was still 80c to 90c for U. S. No. 1 Russets, 45c for No. 2 Russets, and 35c for No. 3 Russets. The Rural demand has been mostly for plain-bag partly-graded stock at 60c to 70c loaded. Fully graded Russets in various all the way between the prices for No. 1 and No. 2 stock, according to the pack.

Prices generally were mostly unchanged. In Chicago, Idaho Russets and Wisconsin Whites continued at the same price range of $1.20 to $1.65. Chicago receipts from Idaho dropped sharply to 89 cars, while the shipments passing to Southern California were 102 cars today. Idaho shipments for the week made a low mark for the season of 37 cars, or 28 per day. This was due partly to inclement weather which delayed haulings, and partly to lack of demand. Shipments during the corresponding week a year ago amounted to 565 cars. Total United States shipments averaged only a few over 400 cars per day.

Track Holdings Moderate Track holdings in the wholesale markets are quite moderate, and in addition many dealers reduce their stocks before taking inventory at the first of the year. So there should be more active trading in the near future, since the amount of potatoes remaining in Idaho, it will be difficult to get much of an advance in the local market at this time. The first of the week the total Idaho shipments amounted to 9200 cars. According to most estimates, 14,000 to 15,000 cars yet to be marketed. From January 1 to May 28 there will be 128,000 carloads to be marketed. This number of cars will require average daily shipments during the next five months of 115 to 120 cars per day. The marketing season will extend through the month of June, but the late shipments will probably not more than offset the decrease in the volume of potatoes remaining in the state is fully 5,000 cars more than has ever been shipped from the state after January first in any previous season. If they are all to be marketed in the movement must be continued steadily throughout the remainder of the season.

VAN EATON TRIAL DATE POSTPONED BY JUDGE

Defendant Will Appear in Probate Court at 10 o'clock December 30 for Hearing.

Date of trial of Walter "Black" Van Eaton, charged with assault with intent to kill, was postponed by Judge H. P. Ensign on the evening of November 25, was postponed from 10 o'clock yesterday morning to Friday morning at the same hour.

Complaint was filed against Van Eaton on December 17 and at his arraignment immediately thereafter he entered a plea of not guilty.

According to the complaint, Van Eaton was admitted to a party being held at the John W. Tobben's residence and fired several shots at a 38-calibre revolver at Jenkins who fell shot through the groin and left leg.

Mrs. Tobben was struck in the right leg by a stray bullet. Following the shooting of the man and woman, Van Eaton turned the gun on himself inflicting a scalp wound and left the scene of the shooting. He was arrested later by Twin Falls officers at his room in school hotel.

Van Eaton was held in the county jail until the extent of his injuries was ascertained.

Spent Christmas with her parents.

Licensed to Marry—George Carl Day of Rockland and Elizabeth Thomas of Jerome received a marriage license late yesterday afternoon from the county clerk and was married immediately after by Probate Judge O. A. Bailey.

CONROY PLEADS GUILTY TO LIQUOR POSSESSION

Defendant's plea was accepted and given a suspended jail sentence of 30 days, following his plea of guilty to possession of liquor.

Conroy was arrested on a charge of illegal possession of 50-ounce liquor. Conroy was arrested in a hotel on Christmas evening.

The arresting officer followed Conroy into the hotel after a brief chase. The defendant threw a one-dollar jug which, the officer stated, contained moonshine whiskey out of a window by the hotel landing in soft place, the jug failed to break and resulted in the conviction of its owner on the illegal possession charge.

Injuries could be learned. He was brought before District Judge H. P. Ensign on the afternoon of December 17 on a writ of habeas corpus issued on motion of his attorney, E. V. Larson.

Upon the statement of Prosecuting Attorney O. W. Whitman that complaint had been filed just prior to Van Eaton's appearance in response to the writ, and upon the assurance that the defendant would be brought to a speedy trial, the proceedings were dropped. The arraignment in probate court followed immediately at which time Van Eaton entered a plea of not guilty.
