PRESIDENT COOLIDGE AND NEWSPAPER MEN ASSEMBLE AT DINNER

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 28.—President Coolidge, at the head of a group of prominent persons in public life, gathered tonight at the spring dinner of the Gridiron club to witness its annual celebration of the newspaper press.

Markham and Lincoln appeared as stars of the follies and were accepted even though protest was made that the club had no budget for such a function.

The guests were given a preview of the Kansas City and Houston conventions with a skill that endeared the committee. It ended when the reporter related that Coolidge's picture in the convention hall was turned to the wall in the dark.

CANADA AND UNITED STATES DEADLOCK ON ELECTRIC POWER TREATIES

By GRAHAM STEWART
International Illustrated News Staff Correspondent

OTTAWA, Canada, April 28 (AP)—The international section forming the Canadian boundary along part of northern New York State.

Half of this "white-coat" wealth belongs to Canada outright. The major differences between the two governments, that has resulted in a deadlock, is with the remaining half. Since Canada rejects the proposal of the United States for an immediate beginning on a treaty which would allow the remaining concrete masonry at work, the whole question of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence deep waterway is shelved temporarily at least.

"Public opinion in Canada," said Vincent Massey, Canadian Minister to Washington, in correspondence with the State Department, "is not in favor of the proposed treaty which would allow the remaining concrete masonry at work, the whole question of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence deep waterway is shelved temporarily at least."

Man-Made Weather Aids Science In Planning War on Tree Pests

(By The Associated Press)
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 28 (AP)—New scientific methods of weather-making have been reproduced in a laboratory at Massachusetts Institute of Technology to aid government entomologists in their war on tree pests.

The artificial weather, which in five days moved between extremes of balmy days and frigid nights, was made by means of a special apparatus.

For purpose of comparison, several groups of native insects reared in the same treatment. These included 40,000 eggs of the eastern or apple tree caterpillar, about 15,000 eggs of the tussock moth, and 80 cocoons of the spruce sawfly. In addition to these were placed 100 eggs of the European spruce sawfly.

On the first day of the test the chamber containing the insect rearing form, was cooled to a temperature slightly below the outdoor thermometer reading. Each succeeding day the room was made colder until on the fifth morning thermometer registered 30 degrees below zero.

The process, however, was not continuous and steady loss of heat. Since such conditions never occur in nature, the greatest care was taken to simulate natural conditions as closely as possible. This was accomplished by slowly lowering the temperature to reproduce the conditions of night, and then allowing it to rise as it does in nature during the day.

FUEL AND OIL SAVING EQUALS HIGHWAY COST

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—Last year more than 20,000 motor vehicles were responsible for nearly 150,000,000,000 gallons of fuel in travel in the United States.

Scientific investigations show that road improvements have resulted in tremendous reductions in the costs of operating motor trucks and automobiles. The federal bureau of road surveys is confident that the saving in fuel and oil and in wear and tear on vehicles is much more than the annual expenditures for improved roads.

AUTOMOBILES FOR SPAIN GO ON BOAT AT DETROIT

An innovation in export shipment of automobiles—from the mid-west to Europe will be introduced early in May when a steamship load of Studebaker and Erskine cars will clear from Detroit for Spain.

Arrangement of this interesting departure in export shipping practice was made by Howard S. Welch, export sales manager of the Studebaker Corporation of America.

By this plan, it was pointed out, the expense and complications of the conventional railroad shipment of automobiles to the seaboard, unloading and reloading at salt water, will be substantially reduced.

The S. S. Tractor of Hamburg, Germany is now on the Atlantic and is due to arrive at Detroit on May 5. It will immediately be loaded with boxed and unboxed cars and the liner will begin its voyage from the Great Lakes to Europe at the earliest possible moment.

Studebaker is the largest individual user of the method of shipping unboxed cars—the plan which will be used for the greater part of the S. S. Tractor's cargo.

In December, 1927, a shipment of 500 unboxed Studebaker-Erskine cars was made from Detroit direct to Germany on the S. S. Eberstein—the first of its kind ever made.

In the unboxed method of shipping automobiles, the cars, standing on their own tires, are arranged in long lines on the decks. This arrangement resulted in the S. S. Eberstein's cargo reaching Germany in perfect condition, not even the heaviest finishes bearing the slightest scratch.

Alaskan Reindeer Man Visits With Relatives in Twin Falls

"Eskimos have forsaken the old snow igloos for frame houses made of spruce lumber," according to Herbert Johnson of the Lomen Reindeer Corporation, Casper, Alaska, who is in Twin Falls visiting at the home of his brother, Duncan M. Johnson, manager of the Con-W-V. House and jewelry store here. Mr. Johnson made the trip from Casper, which is 210 miles northeast of Nome on the Arctic circle, to Twin Falls by way of Nome by airplane. From Fairbanks he went to Seward over the government railway. The trip from Seward to Seattle was made by boat.

The plane which carried Mr. Johnson from Casper to Fairbanks was the ship which Captain Wilkins had originally intended to use in his flight across the north pole. It accommodated five passengers before the pilot, and carried mail and freight in addition. Nine and one-half hours were required to make the trip from Nome to Fairbanks, a distance which would take a dog team about 30 days to cover.

Prospectors throughout Alaska are lurching by airplane, rather than by dog sleds," Mr. Johnson said. Not only does the plane conserve time and energy, but it also provides a much swifter mode of travel experience than proven. Cost of travel by airplane in Alaska averages about 90 cents per mile.

There are now 10 commercial planes in Alaska," Mr. Johnson stated. Three planes are used to carry passengers, freight and mail, and transport the sick to hospitals or carry doctors to the scene.

There is considerable travel by dog sled in some localities and dogs and reindeer are used by the natives. About 30 miles per day can be averaged.

Audit Discloses Shortage But, Also Host of Friends

EVERYBODY in the borough of East Newark, N. J., knows Jimmy Degnan, guested war veteran and tax collector.

When an audit of the books showed a shortage, the audit must be wrong. Even if it is right, Jimmy's loyal friends are sure that he was just careless.

Now, they are taking extraordinary measures to make up the shortage. Jimmy Degnan, now thirty-five, was a Captain in a fighting infantry outfit.

Jimmy has a very real estate business for the support of Mrs. Jimmy and their three children. As a notary public he is entitled to collect a fee of 40 cents, but for more than 1000 times he has acted as he has never accepted a penny.

Jimmy resigned a week ago when the shortage was reported. His friends recently arranged a lawyer and the lawyer has put together accounts to work on an independent audit.

Clara Post has voted to turn over its building fund, amounting to about $2500, if Jimmy really is short. The Ladies Auxiliary also has voted to support the party to raise an additionary sum.

RABIES QUARANTINE IS AUTHORIZED IF DEEMED NECESSARY
Commissioners Give Power to County Physician to Take Any Action—Required in Case of Outbreak; Salaries Are Fixed

Authorization to establish a rabies quarantine over the whole county or to restrict any of its districts in the event of outbreak of this epidemic has been granted to Dr. C. D. Weaver, county health officer, by Twin Falls county commissioners acting as a board of health. This action was taken after a session with the health board on Saturday. In the event that the quarantine should be proclaimed it will have to owners the station of any animal, or vaccination of the dog.

The board recently advised all persons to watch their dogs carefully and to report any suspicious animal to the health officer. Dr. Weaver said that the health board has been informed that one cow had been affected with rabies. One cow killed was found not to be affected and had not been reported. Several cows had been under conditions which seemed to indicate hydrophobia. In one case a dog was suspected of being mad in the mountain view district had been under observation but no report had been received.

Discuss Disease
The health board will include in its recommendations a county-wide quarantine on all dogs. The health officer of the county is unqualified. It has always been difficult to sell this idea to other farmers. He said that the health board should have authority for the health officer to follow a pretty straight line. They should bite an animal which is found in either side of their track, but would not divert their general course to anything else, traveling through the county.

Making Certain That You Will Be Satisfied
When you go shopping for a new automobile, what you are really seeking is not so much a car, as satisfactory car performance—pleasant miles of economical transportation.
You examine different makes and different models, but always you are thinking: "How can I be sure that I will be satisfied?"
The assurance of satisfaction in ownership must come from the dealer who sells you the car. He is the one who is locally responsible for the performance of that car. He and none else is obligated to see that all your wants and all your car's requirements are promptly and economically met as they appear.
We assure car shoppers that our line of Buicks will satisfy, because we have anticipated all their wants and made friendly, helpful, honest service an inseparable part of this business.

Men and Events Connected With the Latest Transatlantic Flight

MAJOR FITZMAURICE, and Duke Schiller, Canadian pilot, as they stepped out of their plane in Murray Bay after their flight from Greenely Island. "Fitz" made it plain that he would rejoin his German colleagues as soon as he got spare parts for the damaged Bremen.

THE GERMAN-IRISH FLIERS now join the list numbering 150 who have crossed the Atlantic by air, including the crews of the British and German dirigibles. But they are the first to make the dangerous westward flight. Left to right, Captain Hermann Koch, Baron von Huenefeld and Major James Fitzmaurice. BABSON SHOWS MANY WHOLESALE LINES HOLDING OWN WELL

Statistics Clearly Show Reported Death of Industry is Greatly Exaggerated; Condition Better Than Year Ago

(Special to The News) BABSON PARK, Mass., April 28—In his weekly interview today, Mr. Babson discussed wholesale conditions in various lines and said that over the country as a whole the picture is favorable. Mr. Babson also pointed out that the prevailing notion that the wholesale business is being strangled by the chain stores is an exaggeration. He said that the functions of the wholesaler have not been displaced.

Wholesale lines are better than the retail trade. The retail trade is being strangled by the chain stores, but the wholesale trade is holding its own. Babson said that the wholesale trade is better than it was a year ago. He said that the wholesale trade is being helped by the fact that the retail trade is being strangled by the chain stores.

thereby preventing market glut and demoralization of prices. In brief, the wholesaler is the shock absorber of distribution. Trade Shows Improvement. A study of nine major lines of business shows that wholesale distribution this spring is ahead of last year at this season by about 2 per cent. The retail trade is ahead of last year at this season by about 10 per cent.

One important line of business not included above is farm implement and agricultural machinery. Reports are that the active spring building campaign has done much to help furniture. An important line of business not included above is farm implement and agricultural machinery. Reports are that the active spring building campaign has done much to help furniture.

wholesale properties and hardware are averaging somewhat smaller than last year at this time. Mapping out wholesale trade conditions geographically, we find an increase in volume in nearly all sections. Especially noticeable is the improvement in the Minnesota district including the states of North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota and western Wisconsin. Wholesale trade there is distinctly improving for shoes, hardware, groceries, and agricultural implements. Distribution of shoes is reported to be 20 per cent ahead of last year. In the southwestern states of New Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma, conditions are generally prosperous with improvement in wholesaling for agricultural implements, drug hardware, groceries and dry goods. In New England, wholesale trade is best for shoes and groceries. In the central western state of Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan, improvement has been rather moderate and is most noticeable in groceries, dry goods, hardware, and drugs. In the Pacific coast states good wholesale business is reported in shoes, and above last year in groceries, dry goods, hardware and drugs. In the southern states including Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, and Florida the handling is somewhat spotty. A few lines are selling very well such as furniture, paper and stationery, and drugs. But other staples have been below normal. The middle Atlantic states' wholesale trade has been only fair for most lines, but has shown some recent improvement.

Reports coming to me from Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati are better than the old saying. Don't kick down the ladder on which you climbed up. Many a successful retailer today owes his success to some wholesaler who carried him through the hard times when he was starting his business. In fact, if it were not for the wholesalers, thousands of small independent retailers could not stay in business. They have not grown bank credit on which to do business. The wholesaler extends the necessary credit, gives valuable advice, and helps the "little fellow" through his troubles. Moreover, the wide awake progressive wholesaler who has kept abreast of the time, and changed his methods to meet changing conditions.

MONTANA USES TURKEYS TO FIGHT GRASSHOPPER
CHARLOTT, Mont., April 28 (AP)—Laying chiefly on insect pests, Turkey raised by a newly formed corporation will roam the Montana prairie this spring this year. A 400,000 crop of the birds is expected and it is believed they will virtually eradicate grasshoppers and crickets which have been destroying the ranges. Herdsmen will guard the birds as they graze over thousands of acres leased for the purpose. Farmers are said to be eager to lease land because other methods of eliminating the pests have been found ineffective.

CHIEF COUNSELOR FOR INDUSTRY PUTS HIS ADVICE TO PRACTICE

From Office in Washington He Directs By Mail Affairs of 220-Acre Ranch in Kansas; Visits Place During Vacation.

(By The Associated Press) MANHATTAN, Kan., April 28.—Chief counselor for six million farmers, William M. Jardine, puts into practice the advice he offers—and makes it pay.

From his office in Washington he directs by mail the affairs of his 220-acre farm near here, and whenever he returns to Kansas all activities with Guy Scott, his tenant.

His Good Knowledge Scott, Jardine's expert knowledge, particularly of agronomy, has placed him in Kansas as a place to place more than $6000 annually for the last six years.

Last year, $4000 was obtained from sale of live-horned grain and hay. Landlord and tenant shared the money equally, while the income from poultry, eggs and cream went to Scott's wife.

The secretary of agriculture, who advises farmers to buy land now because he believes it may never be so cheap, bought his farm ten years ago when prices were near the peak. He paid $20,000 for the 220-acre tract, and he paid $20,000 cash rental, desiring an income of about 8 per cent on the investment, and he preferred to operate the farm on a share basis.

He would not be $4000 ahead if I had accepted Mr. Jardine's offer if Scott says.

Crop Rotation

Crop rotation is carried out according to Jardine's plan, and Scott says that herein he gets the benefit of the cabinet member's knowledge of agronomy. Alfalfa or sweet clover is grown on all the land for the first ten years, and these legumes have enriched the soil so that corn last season yielded 85 bushels per acre, while the wheat made 38 bushels.

All of the crop except wheat are fed to livestock on the farm and the market on the hoof.

A herd of 44 Hereford steers from the Jardine farm recently topped the Kansas city cattle market. The steers were bought last spring, fed on pasture all summer and then fattened for 120 days on a mix of alfalfa hay and cottonseed meal. The average weight of the animals increased in the 11 months from 625 to 1125 pounds. Eleven months later they were bought for $825 a hundredweight or $58 a head, the steers sold for $445 a hundredweight, or $165 a head.

Dairying Not Part Dairying is not a part of the enterprise. There are only two milk cows on the farm.

Horses and mules still play their part in providing motive power, although there is a tractor. Scott insists that mules are essential for general field work, but he agrees that the tractor is useful for plowing and grinding grain.

Secretary Jardine was president of the Kansas State Agricultural college at Manhattan before he became a member of the Coolidge cabinet.

THEFT OF COAL COSTS BURLEY MEXICAN FINE

BURLEY, April 28.—Charged with stealing half a ton of coal from the railroad company, Abram and Manuel Montoya and Herbert Moutrie were held into Justice Arthur Dunn's court Friday.

A ROYAL GREETING in a rare atmosphere was accorded Major Fitzmaurice by newspaper and photographers when he landed at Murray Bay from Greenely Island in the plane of Duke Schiller, Canadian pilot. At left—Fitzmaurice, the happy center of Old Eggn; right, Duke Schiller, first aviator to reach the strange island; center, the machine in which Schiller brought Fitzmaurice to Murray Bay.

ROADSIDE INCIDENT DISCLOSES GOLDEN HAired GYPSY MAIDEN

By LEW SWEETSER
BURLEY, April 28.—A man, looking like a Gypsy, backed out from the camp of many colored tents until his packard blocked the roadway that ran down toward the country club. Then the big car stalled.

A knot of dark visaged men came toward to help. They rapped the hood, jabbered in a strange jargon, prodded here and there into the vitals of the motor without success, and then stood away from the further progress while the passengers within gasped and looked interested in the gypsy camp and its queer inmates.

Across the fence, where the sun club members hold their meetings, two negroes picked up a boy and girl. These little tots were having lots of fun. Two discarded steel pans, cleaned from a neighboring dump heap, these "fire stone" pans filled with shells, chanced had heaped with empty shotgun shells, the sedan. Then she rose up to her feet. There were simply thousands of these shells. The tots had piled the shells feet. The boy with her looked up in little heaps, had set them up to his breast. The gypsy girl, meanwhile, had built miniature corns and nuts and tents with these lovely play-ward the sedan, her face glued to the features of the girl within. She came toward the fence, crawled through, dragging her pan of treasures with her, and came directly to the big touring car.

In the sedan looked down at the little girl. She started with surprise. The little stranger's dirty face was sunily white, the face of the other kids, and there were scores of them, were dirty too, but dark and swarthy like the gypsy men and women who lined the fence, organized and pulled on the stalled car.

The little light faced girl on the road put down her pan of shells, fringed a dirty nap from off her forehead, filled the cup with some of her frosted toys and held it up to the little lady in the big sedan.

And then there came a sharp command in a strange tongue. The gypsy girl's companion, close at her heels, grabbed the playmate's cap and emptied it, then pulled it back upon her head.

CASTLEFORD STUDENTS STAGE CLASS OUTINGS

CASTLEFORD, April 28.—On Thursday, the seniors "stepped" to the Snake River canyon for the day. The students gathered and followed. The following day the freshmen and sophomores went picnicking, the former to the Alkali river and the latter to the Thousand Springs. They all stopped at the Barbary naturium for a swim on the hot bath.

Business sessions were held on Wednesday evening. After a short business session the following program was presented: Vocal duets, "Darling, My Darling," by the "Dixie" quartet, "The Song of the Lark," by the "Dixie" quartet, "The Song of the Lark," by the "Dixie" quartet.

Everyman's club met Thursday in the grand hall. It was decided to change the date of the election of officers from the last meeting in June to the last meeting in April.

The road was now clear. The faintly purring sedan slipped by the scores of kids engaged in their wild play on both sides of the fence that lined the road. None of them had caps nor hats. The heads were topped with coal black hair.

The little girl, though, who had offered to share her toys with the other little light faced lady in the big sedan, had half as golden as her own.

Reduction of Harvesting Loss: Made Possible by "Combines"

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 28.—In conjunction with a reported increase in the use of combines this season, studies by the department of agriculture reveal that harvesting losses for the winter wheat region are materially reduced by the new method, particularly as compared with binder losses.

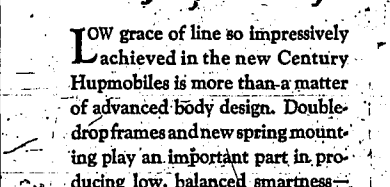

Where 300 or more acres are to be harvested, the use of the combine is the more economical than a binder if more than 100 acres are to be cut and more economical than a header if 150 acres are to be harvested.

Can't Get Measurements There are only estimates of the volume of lighting strikes. These measurements were counted sheets from a few hundred thousand to nearly the actual loss of grain cut with the steel fluted rolls, depending upon the combine but 22 pounds per acre, as compared with 40 pounds with the maters. No measurements have been made.

Despite the saying, authorities do not recommend the use of a combine on small acreages. Where 50 or more Newt Aid wash the people you more acres are to be harvested with wheat to attract.

CROPPING PLANS CHANGED BECAUSE OF CORN

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—In a survey of methods to keep the European corn borer in check, Jesse W. Tapp of the federal division of farm management has found that farmers in the invaded portions of Ohio and Michigan already are modifying their methods of handling corn.

Tapp says some are going so far as to consider the reduction of their corn acreage, at least for the present.

The extent to which cropping systems will be changed, Tapp believes, will depend on the advance of corn over other crops, either for feed or sale, and the ease or difficulty with which methods of corn production may be modified so as to prevent borer infestation reaching proportions that will cause serious damage.

Irish Peasants Over Half Farmers

DUBLIN, April 28 (AP)—Of the population of the Irish Free State 53 per cent is engaged in agricultural occupations. But less than 13 per cent of the land is cultivated, and the industry is mainly pastoral. Of Ireland's agricultural workers 74 per cent are the farmers and their families, and only 15 per cent are permanent wage earners.

The Free State imports much of its food. The average annual import of wheat and flour is $27,783 tons. The country itself produces only 30,000 tons of wheat on an average in a year.

Whale Not Really Fish

Although it is shaped like a fish, and lives in the sea under the same general conditions as fishes, the whale is a warm-blooded mammal, which comes to the surface of the water to look for, breathe air. It apparently is a leviathan in its natural form of some type of land animal of ages early in the earth's history.

ROAD SKIRTING CANYON'S RIM DISCLOSES SCENIC GRANDEUR

A road skirting the rimrock for a distance of two miles that has lately been built through Mary Alice park, three miles northeast of Twin Falls, affords some unexampled views of the grandeur of the great Snake river canyon.

With Blue Lakes and the great Twin Falls-Semore bridge at the west, the road spread out along the route includes the only available view of the Imperial Pillar Falls and extends with panoramic sweep for the Snake river. Great Shoshone Falls is jostled out against the background of massive lava rock. At intervals gaps in the rimrock wall form clear cut sighted views of the great bridge, of Pillar Falls or the giant sweep of the mighty canyon.

A trip on foot or in motor car over this scenic road is a revelation, without which appreciation of Snake river canyon's scenic riches is incomplete.

In building of the road Edwin Damman, owner of the park, is bringing to fulfillment without assistance of his dream for the beautification of the property, and with the proceeds of a nominal charge that he collects from travelers over the road he purposes to bring nearer that realization.

The scenic road is only one of the things that Damman has planned for the transformation of what a few months ago was only a barren waste of lava rock and swamp land jutting back from the grim canyon wall.

Already he has brought into being the artificial lake covering 800 acres of land, and now he is engaged in building a series of seven smaller pools leading from the lake for the delight of bathers and picnickers.

The big lake is a haven for myriads of wild duck and other water fowl, and in his own hatchery Damman is rearing this season 100,000 trout that are to find homes in the lake for the streams running through the park.

At the east end of the park a golf course, laid out last season is frequented by athletes of that pastime, and facilities for boating and shooting on the lake are provided.

Gradually Damman is bringing his dream to realization, and with work on the road and the bathing ponds, with setting of young trees and sowing of grass, his days are busy ones, while hundreds of Idahoans and their guests have reason for gratitude to him for his part in making available the wonders that are disclosed by the scenic road.

Land of Windmills

Holland is made traditionally picturesque by its windmills. Hundreds of them stand the low-lying Dutch landscape, growing ancient and dignified to the silencing winds of the years, but the windmills still indispensable to the work of reclaiming the marsh tracts that have been turned into arable land.

Free State Extends Credits to Farmers

DUBLIN, April 28 (AP)—In the Irish Free State public credit has been formed under act of parliament and with the support of the state to extend loans to farmers.

The capital is $2,500,000 and of this the various Irish banks have subscribed two-fifths. The government appoints several of the directors. Subscribers are guaranteed by the state a fixed dividend of 1 per cent. The company has authority to borrow up to $37,000,000, the money to be advanced to farmers for permanent improvements in buildings, stock and machinery.

A Faculty of Genius

Expert power boatmen say a power boat will make better speed on salt water than on fresh water. This is explained by the fact that a boat displaces less water in salt water, thus reducing the "skin" friction and consequently increasing the speed.

POLISH FLIERS PLAN FOR HOP TO AZORES

Flight Described as Test for Transatlantic Venture Concludes in Forced Landing.

ABBEVILLE, France, April 28 (AP)—After hopping off from LeTourneur early this morning on a flight which led to some belief that they might have started across the Atlantic, Major Louis Karkowak and Major Gaston Kubala, Polish aviators, now preparing for a hop to New York by way of the Azores, landed here at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The flight, described as a final test for the transatlantic venture, ended in a forced landing at Mantes, four miles from Paris.

The Polish aviators while preparations have been shrouded in mystery took off from LeTourneur about 3 o'clock this morning for an all-day test flight over France and along the coast and LeTourneur had not expected to hear from them again until after lunch, because the plane carried a full load of some food supplies. There was some thought that they really were off for America. This afternoon they sent word here a faulty radiator pipe had forced them down. In landing a fire burst out and the plane was otherwise undamaged and will be flown to the Villa Couva flying field near Paris tomorrow.

The Fast Get-Away—
—the Quick Stop
of Modern Motors
Demand Modern Tires

What OTHER tire has kept pace with the rapid development in motor cars, particularly in the past two years—their higher speed, extra power, quicker get-away, sudden stopping—punishment that tears down the ordinary carcass and grinds off the tread of any tire not built to meet the new driving conditions.

Built bigger and better through and through. Not merely thicker in tread—not merely more rubber on the surface. Even some of the cheaper tires can copy the thickness of the tread, but it isn't only the amount of rubber that counts with General—it's the kind. Not simply more rubber but more pure rubber, more per tire—and not only more in the tread but more inside.

Bigger, thicker tires and more quality in the rubber—that is the sort of tire foundation the modern motor car must have. It is the reason for car owners everywhere turning to top quality—

Protection That Cannot Be Duplicated By Any Other Tire

It's not only the second 10,000 miles that makes the big hit, but the uninterrupted service that carries through to the last mile—the protection that can be given only when it is built into the tire—

Not the protection that dodges the question of natural wear and insures against accidents by promising free repairs—

Not the sort of protection that you collect on only by having trouble—But the "top quality" protection that means avoidance of delay, of dirt, of soiled and sometimes spoiled clothing, of ruined tubes through going flat.

These are the real protections that car owners want today, particularly since reclaimed rubber in tires has proved such a troublesome experiment for millions of users by causing tires to go out prematurely.

*Always Foremost In Value-Giving—
This Year Bigger Than Ever*

Sale Starts Tomorrow 8 A.M.

Low rubber prices and the added benefit of our special full-value allowance for your old tires enable us to offer an unparalleled opportunity in this year's event—savings in first cost equalled only by the final economy of General's extra mileage.

Cash in your worn tires at their highest worth.

Everyone can take advantage of this Trade-in Sale, no matter how much or little the tires are worn.

Every Make, Every Size, Old or New,
Will Be Taken In

We'll buy your old tires and pay liberally for the miles left in them—the blowouts and road troubles in the old tires, too. Get rid of your doubtful tires before they go out. They're worth more to you off your wheels than on. You trade in the old tires for more than they're actually worth to you today and get in exchange new Dual Tread, "Proper Size" Generals that will run through several seasons in comfort, safety and style at the lowest cost you ever paid.

Never Before Has Top Quality Cost So Little—Never So Easy To Pay For

When the Trade-in Sale opens tomorrow morning, car owners who have thought Generals too high for the average pocketbook are going to be surprised.

We know that once they ride on GENERALS there will never be a question of the cost again, even if tire prices should go to the highest peak.

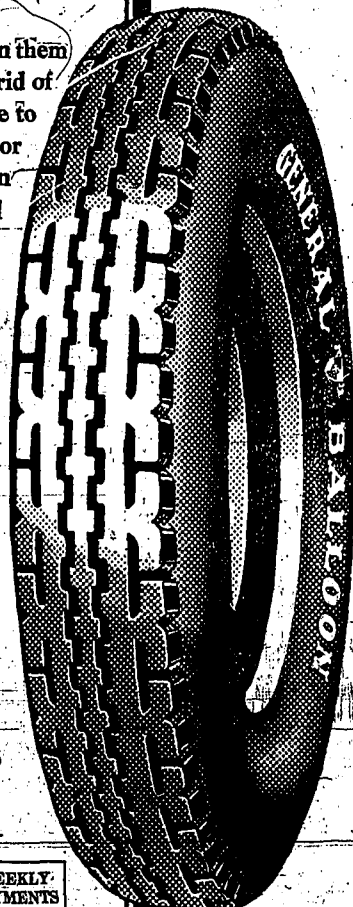

We want every car owner in the city and vicinity to know what it means to run on Generals—how little it costs to enjoy top quality mileage ANYTIME and particularly now with the special opportunity this Trade-in Sale offers for getting started.

*During This Sale the Friends We Make
Are More Important Than Profits*

No other occasions in the rubber industry have so stirred the wholesale response of the car owning public as have these annual spring trade-in events.

Created originally by General in 1925, it has been widely imitated, but after all, General's top quality is the one possible basis for success, for giving to the public the genuine values of the Trade-In Plan.

Without that feature of quality leadership which only General can give, the Trade-in Sale would not pay us. We can afford it only because of the assurance that customers taking advantage of this sale will "roll with us" for years to come.

Our one big object is new customers by the hundreds. We count upon the long term patronage that top quality wins.
