

*The fast get-away -- the quick stop
-- this grinding wear demands*

General's Dual Tread Proper Size Line

WITH PRESENT LOW RUBBER PRICES, what's the use of worrying along with the ordinary tire. Never before has top quality cost so little -- never so easy to pay for -- and never has it meant so much.

What other tire has kept pace with the rapid development in motor cars, particularly in the past two years—their higher speed, extra power, quicker get-away, sudden stopping—punishment that tears down the ordinary carcass and grinds off the tread of any tire not built to meet the new driving conditions.

Built bigger and better through and through. Not merely thicker in tread—not merely more rubber on the surface. Even some of the cheaper tires might copy the thickness of the tread, but it isn't only the amount of rubber that counts with General—it's the kind. Not simply more rubber—and more per tire—but more pure rubber.

That is the sort of tire foundation the modern motor car must have for replacement of the original equipment tire lines that have proved too light for the job.

It is the reason for car owners everywhere changing over to the Dual Tread, Proper Size General line, a swing so tremendous that it has carried General to the biggest sales gain in the industry—the only one of the big five tire manufacturers of Akron credited with an actual tire gain during the past season.

When you find such a percentage of the car owners coming to one make of tire it is pretty good evidence that there is one line and one only capable of standing the wear of this new hard-driving era.

The second set of tires must always be better than the first, for it's the second set that finds the wheels out of alignment, brakes needing adjustment, natural wear throughout the chassis that puts additional burdens on the tires. Where the other tire quits, General takes up the job. It carries the handicap that only such Proper Size, Dual Tread quality can carry and still deliver the greatest uninterrupted mileage—two to one over any other tire.

Guided by a sharp point of land, we followed the shore until we reached a point where the sea was calm. We then turned southward, hoping to find a safe passage.

It was a long time before we saw a sign of land. The wind was blowing from the north, and the sea was choppy.

"If we can find the cable, we can make a good night's stay," said Braddock. "Frazier, trader and blacksmith, was a staunch supporter of the English."

"I'm very tired," she confessed. "It's no longer since I had a good sleep. I don't know, I broke in, for I was all so short. You couldn't do it."

"I'm thinking you're telling a fib, mister," she gravely rebuked, but returned smiling. "A quavering cry up the creek indicated that the boat was coming."

"I'm all right," she said. "I did as she requested, not because I was too weary to carry her further, but because her life was in jeopardy."

CONTINUED ADVANCE PEAK FOR CROP

Unfavorable Weather Factor
With Active Market Making
For Rising Market; Coast
Product in Demand.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 1—Grain markets made further sharp advances during the week ending April 28 and prices reached new high points on the crop for the principal grains, according to the general market situation which was the United States bureau of agricultural economics. Further deterioration in the domestic winter wheat market has caused a delay in the production of the soil and seeding of spring grains by cold and wet weather both in the social strengthening factor. A continued active demand for smaller offerings of most grains also contributed to the advance.

The unsettled situation in the domestic wheat market and the sharp price advances were not reflected in the general market situation which while continuing equally firm was not changed materially from what it reported a week ago. Canadian markets were firm but wheat quotations as reported were advanced only about a cent per bushel for the week compared with an advance of about 10 cents per bushel in May wheat at Chicago. Liverpool prices of May delivery were only about 3 cents higher than in April. Quotations for wheat in the principal European markets were practically unchanged, being quoted at Hamburg at $1.77, Paris at Milan $2.13 and Copenhagen $1.65.

United States wheat was not quoted as prices are above an export basis. It was reported that wheat which can be red winter wheat had been reloaded from London to New York.

European crop conditions are reported to date are also apparently less favorable than last year with considerable winter killing in France and Rumania. Rumania has received a heavy frost in the north and in Rumania however, soil conditions were improved in France.

The Indian wheat crop is now placed at 4,000,000 bushels of which 1,000,000 bushels below last season's crop from which nearly 14,000,000 bushels were exported. Poland has advanced considerably in imports of grain effective April 20.

Turn to Coast Crop

Coast wheat prices advanced with futures and premiums for protein and other quality factors were well maintained. The increasing scarcity of winter wheat has reflected in the high prices being quoted for the limited offerings of this season. Low prices for wheat have been reported from the west and while wheat from the Pacific coast were being substituted for soft winter at St. Louis where No. 2 red was quoted at $1.15. Soft Pacific coast wheats were quoted at $2 to $2.05 per bushel delivered St. Louis. Cash wheat was very firm in the spring market and the volume was estimated only moderate volume as many mills were awaiting the deliveries on their long contracts to determine the quality needed.

Corn Market Unsettled

The corn market was very unsettled but prices advanced 2 to 3 cents during the week influenced by the continued wet and cold weather which retarded planting and made over seed and the high bid. The increasing prices have brought out slightly heavier shipments to primary markets but offerings are sufficient to absorb current demands and cause further reduction of market stocks which are now practically the same as a year ago. Feeders and marketers are buying at $1.00 and No. 2 yellow corn was quoted April 27 at Chicago at $1.01 and No. 2 white at $1.07 to $1.09.

Hay market: Hay market slightly stronger; farmers being disappointed in the crop being observed. Alfalfa in $10 to $20 to farmers shipped at Salt Lake.

NOW

HEARD TO PREDICT

Rev. Mr. Keen said he hesitated to propose in regard to China, where China, where leaders so frequently repudiated announced policies when in power. He declared, however, that Katoch John, liberal general, had shown evidence of being a real believer in democracy. Chang Tso Lin, military head, had shown a more real view and might compromise with the liberal leader if necessary, and Feng Yu Hsiang, the Christian general, has recently renounced his adherence to the doctrines of Christianity, he thought, there is hope for real political improvement, though it is not safe to make predictions.

COMMUNISM RECALLED

Dr. Keen said communism had been definitely repudiated in the former, where there has been a consistent element among leaders. He could not conceive of the system proving effective in the country with the views of the Chinese. Dr. Keen said that the migrants are the most effective propagandists in the world and considerable forces of their enemies by the methods.
