KANSAS MISSOURI AND OKLAHOMA ON EVE OF PRIMARIES

National Issues Gain Attention... Question in Limelight; Reed Backing "Wet" For Office

(By The Associated Press.) KANSAS CITY, Aug. 6.—Primary campaigns in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma were wound up tonight as candidates made their final pleas for votes in tomorrow's elections.

National issues "gained attention" in Missouri where sharp battles have been waged between candidates in both the major parties for the nomination for United States senator with the prohibition question being the leading phase.

In Kansas and Oklahoma personalities and state issues pushed into national politics into the background. Only state and congressional matters were to be selected in these commonwealths.

The "wet" and "dry" question enters into both the Republican and Democratic senatorial races in Missouri, with Senator James A. Reed, who is retiring from public office, championing the cause of James A. Collier, leading an avowed "wet" who is seeking the Democratic nomination.

Opposing Collier is Charles M. Hay, but neither is an acceptor of Reed and a "dry."

Three candidates for the Republican nomination for senator declared for modification of the prohibition laws. Nathan Frank, a lawyer, St. Louis; and Henry A. Bunsch, independent. Avoled "dry" law in the race was state Senator David M. Proctor, Kansas City, and W. O. Atkinson, Butler. Bescoe C. Patterson, Dittell, Dittell, attorney at Kansas City, announced he was opposed to "modification of the dry laws."

The Republican constants are Lieutenant Governor Phil A. Bennett, Dittell, who has expressed disapproval of prohibition, and three others, William R. Schneider, Frank H. Wiersma, Dittell, and George W. Hays, all avowed opponents of the "dry" laws.

On the Democratic side, State Senator A. L. McCullay, author of Missouri's "dry" law, is being backed by Francis M. Wilson, Pittsburg City, who announced he would take a firm stand on the prohibition question.

Witness of the Missouri congressmen are seeking re-nomination: George H. Comb, Kansas City, the Democratic member of congress, believes the only representative not after another term.

In Kansas principal interest centers in the race for governor with large fields in both Democratic and Republican races. D. R. Anthony, Jr., representative from the first district, is being backed by the Democratic party.

Hays, B. White, Republican, sixth district, are the only congressmen now running for re-nomination.

In the Oklahoma congressional nomination race, the Democratic party is being backed by the Republican party. Only minor state offices are to be voted on.

HOOVER AND PARTY LEADERS OPEN DAY WITH CONFERENCES

Between conferences, the Republican candidate is giving thought to the address which he is to deliver at his birthplace at West Branch, Iowa, this month. He soon will begin his preparation and expects to have it completed before he leaves Palo Alto by special train August 14 or 15.

The first step en route will be at Los Angeles where a home-coming celebration will be held. It is uncertain now how long Mr. Hoover will spend in that city. He has been told to remain here at least until after the present indications are that his schedule will not permit so long a stay.

At Los Angeles Hoover's special train will be transferred from the Southern Railway to the Santa Fe over which it will move to Chicago by way of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Kansas City and Cedar Rapids, Iowa. While en route at Cedar Rapids, which will be the only one stop, the nominee will make a number of year-end platform talks and during the trip the nation's attention will be riveted on the candidate.

Workmen today put the finishing touches on the special stands erected at the university stadium for the nomination ceremonies and the job of decorating these as well as portions of Preparations are being made to handle a crowd of 100,000 persons in the vicinity of the front steps of the capitol where the nomination will take place.

After his ride up the Hudson through storms last night and his arrival at the executive mansion after midnight, the governor did not leave his quarters until 11:30 p. m.

The war secretary expressed the opinion that there would not be much difference from the republican majority in the farm states. He also predicted a republican victory in Missouri, stating that the republican candidates lost in St. Louis they would more than make up in other parts of the state.

Asked as to where the hardest battle would be fought, Davis named his own state of Missouri and Wisconsin.

"I think Iowa is all right and I think we need not worry much about Illinois," he said. "My general impression is that it's going to be a hard fight. I think it is going to be a battle. At the same time I think that from a republican standpoint, the skies are clearing and that things look pretty good for Mr. Hoover."

SENTIMENT FOR HOOVER CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—(AP)—General Nathan William MacChesney, returning home from tour of the West and a visit with Herbert Hoover, conferred with party leaders at western headquarters of the national Republican committee today, reporting a "capitalized sentiment throughout the territory" for the presidential nominee.

The western tour of General MacChesney took him through Washington, Oregon, California, the Dakotas, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Iowa, where he states he has been showing great sentiment for Hoover.

A. C. Cook, Townsend, Missouri, Republican leader in his state, conferred with James V. Green, western manager today. Mr. Cook said Missouri Republicans were planning a vigorous fight, but expressed no doubt that Hoover would be elected. Mr. Cook also said he believed Joseph M. Dixon would defeat Burton C. Workman, seeking re-election as senator.

Back on the part of Republican organizations would still be necessary before absolute assurances were shown as to results of the election.

The Vermont senator derived little information from his visit with Mr. Coolidge as to the latter's plans for the latter part of the summer and the fall. He came away with the impression, however, that the chief executive was planning to not leaving Washington before Labor day at the earliest, and that at the present suggestion that he go first to Vermont for a short stay.

President Coolidge spent most of the day pouring over the preliminary budget estimates for the fiscal year 1929.

Hellmuth hit his second home run in two days, and a double, and drove in two runs. Although yesterday's batting three could not move him from first place in the "big six" standing, it raised his batting average four points to .325.

To the same group, Cobb appeared as a pinch hitter for Foley in the eighth inning and failed to help the Athletic cause by flying out. This fly cost him one point in his batting average which is now .227.

Ebbe Ruth kept busy during most of the Yankees' 15-inning battle with the White Sox, walking to first base. The Babe had only four official times at bat and got but one hit, a single, which drove in New York's first run. He also lost a point in his average.

I'm mentioning all this now, just as I mentioned it to Joe Josephine last week when she said I had dreamed the whole thing. Funny enough dreaming a triangular dance, I said, you know, I watched and wondered. The music was entirely and my own feet began to keep step to it. With that I realized that in another minute I would probably find myself out in the middle of the dance. The music was a dance with eighteenth-century aspects at an eighteenth-century ball would be something to talk about. I was revived, of course if the music didn't blight me when I stood the minute I appeared. When I looked down at my wrapper and at my stockings, I found: deadhead, blue, grey, and the ghosts had had some 'blame to credit' I was beginning to feel quite 'blame' about this time. The fact was I didn't believe that they were really truly ghosts.

It is Cheaper to Own a Home Than to Rent
The time has passed when it was cheaper to rent than to own a home. One of every three homes are sold and the price of real estate has fallen it will be more difficult than ever to find houses to rent. Sale prices are still low and conditions all favor owning a home. Buy a home and you will be free from the worry of rent and the annoyance and cost of repairs.

QUOTATIONS SINK ON DAY'S GRAIN MARKET

Slump Follows Rapidly Increasing Supply and Extra Favorable Report On Crops

Chicago, Aug. 6.—The new season bottom prices for the most important wheat markets today resulted from rapidly increasing supplies and from extra favorable crop reports. STOCK MART CONTINUES ALONG UPWARD TREND

NEW YORK, Aug. 6 (AP)—Disregarding the efforts of bankers to curtail the volume of speculative credit, the stock market continued to move upward in response to selective buying operations in the oil, motor, mercantile, food, chemical and amusement shares. There were a few soft spots scattered throughout the day, but no evidence of any concerted selling either on the part of "bear" traders or frightened investors. Gains in most of the active issues ranged from 1/4 to 3/4 points, although a sprinkling of speculators were marked up 1/2 to 20 points. Motors moved forward again today under the leadership of General Motors which was bought in expectation of an extra dividend at Thursday's meeting of the directors. Instead of later in the year as reported last week, Coppers responded to the improved trade outlook for copper and Utah reaching new high ground. National Tea soared 20 points to a new high record at 29 1/2. Among the score of other issues to break into new high ground were Allied Chemical, Union Carbide, Sears Roebuck, Grand Stores, Warner-Brothers, American Tobacco, American Sunlight, Sunlight, Motor Wheel, Nickel Elevator, Coty, International Nickel, Electric Auto, and others. Investors preferred, Barnet-Leather and Tobacco Products common and preferred sold at the year's lowest prices. Rails were quiet but firm.

PROSPECTS CONTINUE FAVORABLE FOR GRAIN

Heavy Movement of New Wheat and Improved Outlook For Spring Crop Weaken Market

SALT LAKE, Aug. 6.—Unusually heavy receipts of winter wheat, together with improved prospects for spring grain, both in the United States and Canada, caused continued weakness in the domestic grain market during the week ending August 4, according to the weekly grain market review of the United States bureau of agricultural economics. Generally favorable progress of European crops and lower foreign markets were also weakening factors. Prices on all grains showed further declines compared with those of the previous week but soft winter wheat continued to bring relatively large premiums over the hard wheat. With generally favorable weather during July, crops made favorable progress and private estimates for spring grain, both in the United States and Canada, caused continued weakness in the domestic grain market during the week ending August 4, according to the weekly grain market review of the United States bureau of agricultural economics. Generally favorable progress of European crops and lower foreign markets were also weakening factors. Prices on all grains showed further declines compared with those of the previous week but soft winter wheat continued to bring relatively large premiums over the hard wheat.
