BRUINS WILL MEET NORMAL GRIDSTERS

Local Lineup Certain With Expectation of Tackle; Albion Team Has Several Veterans

Twin Falls Bruins and Albion Normal football teams will play an annual contest at Lincoln field at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. Cardinals Increase Lead Over Giants; Yankees Pounding On to Triumph

TERRE HAUTE TERROR IBRES CHICAGO CLUB TO 3-TO-2 VICTORY

One Time New York Southpaw Wins Over Karl Hübner and Jack Scott in Opener Before 32,000 Astounded Fans

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Sept. 27—Lil Artha Nehf, the Terre Haute terror, came marching back in his polo grounds today, and what he did to his old friend John McGraw is sad to relate. The former Giant southpaw has won perhaps a half dozen games from his old mates since he was sold down the river as a worm-out two years ago last spring, and never one so devastating as the 3-to-2 triumph he effected here today. Nehf took the lead in the first half of today's double-header before 32,000 astounded fans. Even though the Giant fought back in the second game to overthrow the Cubs by 2 to 0, the Cardinals won their single skinniest in Boston by 3 to 2, and so regained the advantage which accrued to the Giants from the St. Louis defeat in Brooklyn 24 hours ago last night. The Cardinals' first game tonight with two more to go against Boston before they invade the polo grounds for the grand finale on Saturday. In the interim the Giants must associate with the Cubs in two games.

GOATHAM CLUB BEATS TIGER'S TEAM TWICE; RUTH HITS HOMERS

American League Leaders Take Opener From Detroit by 4-3 Score; Second Contest Results in Ties of 8 and 5

(By The Associated Press) DETROIT, Sept. 27—It's all over but the shouting, only the Yankees are in no mood to submit. The Yanks trimmed the Tigers in both ends of today's double-header by scores of 4 to 3 and 8 to 5, although a reeling procession of New York pitchers in the second clash had to have the help of all-day darkness which ended the spectacle at the end of the seventh session. The champions "as advanced" to a point where a San Francisco game or one more Athletic defeat in the same number would make a new York pennant triumph certain. It would seem that even the crippled Yankees should accomplish this much. The Huggen lead tonight by two and one-half games, as the 'Macks had but one to win in Chicago. The first clash witnessed Waite Hoyt's twenty-first triumph and his last of the season unless a couple of earthquakes overtake the Yanks before now and Sunday. Owen Carroll gave him a battle all the way. The least said about the pitchers in the second game, the better. Fred Heimach was officially accused of winning it, but would easily prove his innocence, as also could his successors, Al Shealy and Henry Johnson.

STRENGTH IN MAJOR LEAGUES' RESERVES

Second-Line-Playing-Important Role in Quest for 1928 Pennant; Seem Vital in Series

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (AP)—Baseball clubs, like armies, usually are as strong as their reserves. Seldom in big league history has the second line of troops played so conspicuous a part in the deciding pennant struggle as this year. They may be equally as vital a factor in the world's series. The Yankees, hard hit by casualties and a slump at the same time, are staggering toward the pennant but they would have been down completely, in all likelihood, if it had not been for their reserves. When Tony Lazerri's shoulder forced him out, popper Leo Durocher stepped into the gap at second base. Gene Robertson and Mike Gazella plugged the third base hole left by Joe Judge, while young Stan Johnson and old Tom Zachary have helped meet the pitching emergency created by the loss of Cy Moore and Herbie Pennock, two first-inning pitchers.

None of the four pennant-scraping outfits has as much talent and experience on the bench, however, as the Athletics. Connie Mack has had the equivalent of two perfectly good first division clubs on his payroll. It would be a pity to see the laughter from the multitude a few years ago to even suggest that any club would have in reserve such an array of able-willings as the Athletics. Speaker, Edgie Collins, Sammy Hale, Joe Hauser and Cy Perkins, along with youngsters like Hines and Hineser. Unfortunately, even these reinforcements could not stop the Yankees whenever the clubs got together.

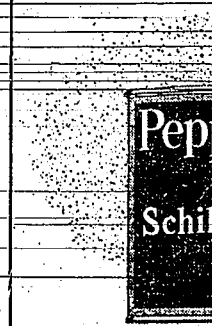

Reverell Infield
The Giants have so much extra talent that McGraw has employed partially reversible infield and outfield arrays. When Edgie Hough pipped out of the picture, Jimmy Walsh took over the job in sparkling style. Jimmy's batting and fielding, in fact, have been decisive factors in the final rush of the club. On either side of him Reese and Mann have attacked with O'Doul and Ott. Here, a handy man on the pinch, has replaced Andy Cohen at second base against right-handed twirlers. During the act, Frank Hogan doesn't need much assistance but if he does, there is Bob O'Farrell, the league's most valuable performer in 1928. The Cardinals are well equipped with reserve pitching forces but otherwise they haven't been so fortunate as their rivals. Rabbit Marvans has worked gallantly to hold down the shortstop post, but the Rabbit isn't as apt as he was when he

Filer Eleven to Meet Gridsters at Oakley

OAKLEY, Sept. 27 (AP)—Ten of the Oregon-Filer Wildcats will come tomorrow afternoon for the first football game of the season. The Oakley team members are mostly veterans with a good reserve behind them and expect to take the Wildcats into camp. IDAHO UNIVERSITY SHOWS INTEREST IN AERONAUTICS

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, MOSCOW, Sept. 27 (AP)—When the Moscow Chamber of Commerce "construed" the proposition of developing a community airport at Moscow, Dr. Frederick J. Kelly, new president of the University of Idaho, said the institution is deeply interested in the development of aviation as an aspect of higher education in the state. With the main campus of the university in northern Idaho and the southern branch in southeastern Idaho, about 700 miles apart, the possibility of aviation to bring the two campuses closer appeals to the president. Faculty members, particularly those engaged in the technical and professional division of the institution—agriculture, mining, forestry, engineering, business admini-

The Open Window

By Hugh A. Studdert Kennedy

For the clouds were banking red and gold on the top of Derryveagh; the sun shone brightly on the water in the bog anner to me.

I looked through my open window at the evening, and I saw the sun just setting over the hills away to the south set me thinking, traveling backwards over the years.

Well, far away and long ago, there lived in this little mud cabin one Michael 'Dara' and his wife Nora. How many times the sun had risen above the mountains of Connemara.

I knew Michael 'Dara' as 'Hersell' well in those days, as when I did not remember that I was a boy, but I know 'Hersell' better. Many a time as he would be riding back from the town.

It was a fine day, and the sun was shining brightly. The wind was blowing from the south, and the water in the bog was rippling.

It is hardly possible for me to believe that, as an Editor in this twentieth century, I should have written a story such as that which I have just written.

FEDERATION GIVES SUPPORT TO WORLD PLAN TO BAN WARS

Dr. Lincoln Wirt, San Francisco, Praises Borah's Efforts Toward Peace; Clubs Elect Officers For Next Year

The dove of international peace hovered over the convention of the Idaho Federation of Women's Clubs at the club hall yesterday afternoon. The atmosphere of international relations under the leadership of Mrs. C. C. Tobias, Nampa, had charge of the program. Mrs. Fred Tubbs, Washburn, spoke on the conference and on the negotiations leading to the signing of the Kellogg-Briand treaty beyond a doubt.

Dr. Lincoln Wirt, San Francisco, secretary of the western division of the National Council for the Prevention of War, endorsed the high conclusions pronounced on the treaty by Mrs. Tobias. This endorsement was the work for the treaty. He declared Senator Borah to be the greatest statesman in America since the president of the United States. He said that Senator Borah and Governor Baldrige endorsed his position on world peace.

Ratification Uncertain
Dr. Wirt said he did not concur in the confidence expressed by Mrs. Tobias as to the ratification of the treaty. There are 11,000 contracts for all sorts of war munitions, signed, sealed and delivered to private manufacturing companies to be operated in case of war. Profiteers want war. The American Legion and most army and navy men want peace. The five big arsenals employ military men want war. He appealed for organized effort, especially by women, to give effect to the sentiment for world peace and for treaty ratification. He urged friendship among peoples and elimination of the practice of reflecting on foreigners.

Mrs. J. O. Ahey of Boise is head of the charge of the program. Dr. Phillip J. Jacobs, New York, representing the National Anti-Tuberculosis Association, addressed the convention.

Discuss Tuberculosis
The war on war was oriented into a war on tuberculosis when the department of public welfare of which Mrs. J. O. Ahey of Boise is head took charge of the program. Dr. Phillip J. Jacobs, New York, representing the National Anti-Tuberculosis Association, addressed the convention.

Governor Smith Says 'Hello' to Denver

GOVERNOR SMITH of New York found a true Western welcome awaiting him at Denver, where he delivered an enthusiastically-received address as part of his campaign speaking tour. Here is Governor Smith bowing to the thousands who filled the streets as he rode from the railway station to his hotel.

Some details of the program were carried over until today. The convention adjourned at 4 o'clock to drive to Duhi for a 5 o'clock picnic dinner in the city park there prepared and served by the West End clubs. The delegates then drove to Great Shoshone falls to see the great illuminated Cataract. They then returned to the high school auditorium for the address of President Frederick Kelly of the university and the musical program under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Rezan. Musical numbers yesterday consisted of a vocal solo by Mrs. W. H. Dwight and a flute solo by Jack Dwight.

The final session will convene at 9 o'clock this morning. Mrs. A. Guilbert, Twin Falls, will give a musical program consisting of four numbers of her own composition: "American Legion," "Dream of the West," "Mother Lullaby" and "Song of the Dutch." New officers will be introduced; Mrs. Alice Oleson will speak on the Red Cross work in Idaho, and Mrs. W. D. Lyman will read the report of the revision committee.

IDAHO MAY ENTER FIGHT AGAINST BLISTER RUST

Plant Plague Found in Dangerous Quantities On Wild Currant Bushes; Declares Official
BOISE, Sept. 27 (AP)—Possibility that the state legislature would be asked for a considerable appropriation to fight the white pine blister rust menacing the Idaho forests was seen here today following upon the statement of S. N. Wycoff, senior pathologist in charge of the blister rust control office in Spokane.

The rust has been found in dangerous quantities on wild currants in the Idaho forests though as yet it has not attacked the 5,000,000-acre tract of white pine running through North and Central Idaho, John S. Welch, commissioner of agriculture, said in outlining the blister problem. One of the problems to be faced in fighting the plague he said, is the spotty of the Canadians across the line to the disease and their aggressive opposition to any attempts to destroy the currant bushes and ruin their supply of currant jam.

The current blast acts as host to the rust in its transmission from one spine to another. Domestic currants have been completely eliminated from Idaho, Welch said and squads have been out all summer uprooting the wild currant bushes.

THRESHERS WORKING THROUGHOUT STATE

Crop Returns Pour Into Offices; Twin Falls Reports

BOISE, Sept. 25.—The whirl of the thresher is again heard in Idaho as the land gives up its crop to man and his machines. Over the vast irrigated tracts one sees tiny smoke curls indicating a stationary thresher at work on some farmer's crop while on larger acreage the power-driven combine cuts, threshes and sacks the grain.

Crop reports are pouring into the newspaper offices and statistical agencies daily telling of the yields. A few of these are reproduced below:

KILLING FROSTS ARE REPORTED IN STATE

Ideal Weather for Farm Work Prevails in Twin Falls Area; Harvest of Potatoes Begins

BOISE, Sept. 27.—Cool nights and warm days characterized the weather in Idaho during the week ending September 25, according to the weekly weather summary issued by the Boise office of the federal department of agriculture weather bureau. Killing frosts were reported in many localities.

Ideal weather for farming prevailed during the entire week in southwest Idaho, which includes the Twin Falls county. Moderate nights, warm days, no rain, and clear skies prevailed generally.

Potatoes are mostly harvested and shipped. Apples of fair to excellent quality are being picked. The third crop of alfalfa is being harvested. A few potatoes are being dug, but most farmers have the bulk of this crop yet in the ground. Clover seed harvesting is well under way. Onions are being harvested. Pastures are dry, but livestock is doing well.

Cool nights with warm days prevailed in southeast Idaho during the week, with light to killing frosts Friday morning. A few light showers fell the first of the week, but not enough to break the drought. Harvesting of grain is about completed and threshing is progressing rapidly. Some potatoes are being dug for market. Beans and potatoes are doing well on irrigated land and suffering some on dry land. The rains are very dry. It is too dry for fall plowing and seeding.

Clear in North Idaho

Clear skies with warm days and cool nights prevailed in north Idaho throughout the week. No precipitation occurred. Killing frosts were reported Thursday morning in the higher sections.

Apple harvest now is in full swing. Plowing and seeding are under way on the Camas prairie, but rain is needed before much plowing can be done. Corn is maturing in the Culebra district and maturing under way. The melon season is practically over. Pastures and ranges are very dry, but livestock is doing well.

Burley Physician Turns Attention To Stubborn-Safe in County Office

BOISE, Sept. 27 (Special to The News)—Citizens having business in the county office were startled Tuesday afternoon when they established a scene one of Burley's respected members of the medical profession squealed in front of a big steel safe; the entire clerical force in expectant attention while the doctor industriously selected a microscope; a witness points on the safe's cold exterior.

Started query evoked the explanation that the three time clocks enclosed within the walls of the massive construction had apparently failed to perform as per schedule. The safe refused to open.

The doctor sadly shook his head, wrapped up his rubber tubes, lowered a suggestion that he feel the "blamed thing's pulse," and silently departed. A truckman was called. And presently the time lock man dropped in. They and the other menfolk tapped the big steel globe for quite a while, kicked it, and uttered various incantations. And still the safe refused to open.

Then they tried lustily with a heavy crowbar, and swatted the thing industriously with an enormous sledge hammer. After a while the 2000-pound circular door slipped open quietly, rolled back, and exposed its interior to the view of the gawking onlookers. Within reposed some $150,000 worth of securities. It is rumored that the big door was scrounged you-wish-to-align.

SPUD-MART CAUSES ANXIETY AT BURLEY

Minidoka Rancher Urges Campaign Against Anti-Potato Propaganda in Publications

BURLEY, Sept. 27 (Special to The News)—Concern over the serious condition of the potato market appears to increase here with the nearing of harvest time. Growers, facing a demoralized market, for one of the staple crops of Snake river valley, are casting about for means of relief. Several plans have been advanced by growers and dealers here to strengthen the market and insure a satisfactory price.

It has been proposed that 20 per cent of the crop be left unharvested. This proposal met a favorable reception in some quarters, but no method has been developed to put it in operation. Plans for advertising have also been advanced, and along the latter line has come the establishment of "Spud day" in Burley as an annual affair, which merchants and others are to haul small packages of Idaho potatoes to friends and associates, hotel stewards, and restaurant men in states where Idaho potatoes are marketed.

Discussion Results

Since the potato-meeting in Pocatello a week ago, much discussion has been had concerning the various plans advanced. And a prominent topic has been the apparent loss in per capita consumption of the one time staple potato. A restaurant man here was heard to say that a great proportion of his customers now finished their meal and left their plates with the potato portions untouched. This is not only here but all over the country, people seemed to have lost their liking for potatoes.

W. W. Cater, prominent Minidoka project potato grower, insisted at the Pocatello meeting that some steps should be taken to combat the anti-potato propaganda that has resulted in an alarming decrease in potato consumption. Mr. Cater asserted that food experts are just beginning to awake to the harm that has been done by erroneous newspaper and magazine articles setting forth the bad qualities of the potato as a food. And they are now giving facts and figures to show that the tuber, far from being a starchy, fat producing abomination, is the most nutritious and necessary article of diet.

Dieticians Approve

Cater cites statements that have been made by a national authority on diet to the effect that the nationalities showing the greatest span of life are the two greatest potato consumers, namely the Irish, Danes and the Irish. Dr. Hinghede, Denmark's food administrator during the war, has carried on experiments on a tremendous scale in that nation, that proved conclusively, it is said, that most of the so-called diseases of civilization can be prevented by proper use of potatoes as a food. Under Hinghede's administration the people of Denmark were forced to consume a much greater quantity of potatoes than customary. The result was that such diseases as diabetes, Bright's disease, gout, rheumatism and tuberculosis dropped almost to vanishing points. From October 1, 1917, to October 1, 1918, the mortality rate of Denmark went down to 304 per thousand, a record for the world.

Dr. Hinghede, now director of the Danish laboratory for nutrition research, was recently a guest of Dr. A. C. Ivy of Northwestern university, and was quoted as saying that the potato is perhaps the best of all foods.

Publicity is needed. It is Mr. Cater's contention that a national system of publicity should be entered into at once to set forth the good qualities of potatoes as a food. He believes that the Idaho Chamber of Commerce is in a position to do much good in this cause. Cater says that the false ideas that are being handed to our housewives in many publications should be corrected. He reminds us that the German nation, in the investigations of their food experts during the war, found that the potato was not fattening and that it was almost a priceless article of diet.

In the meantime, many plans are being advanced here, calculated to correct the "low market value" of potatoes, and it is believed that some methods will be found that can be used to stabilize prices, if not this season at least in future times of overproduction.

Officers elected were: Roy Smith, president; John Galley, vice president; June Wiseman, secretary; Clarence Caton, treasurer. Superintendent D. A. Hiles was chosen as club advisor. Charles McFarland reports a yield of 37 bushels of white beans per acre from a 13-acre field. Reports from this district indicate a better yield this year than last.

The Independent Warehousing company has installed a gravely grader for grass seed. The machine sends a current of air up through a vibrating, linen screen which blows lighter seed to the sides of the machine and the heavier seed passes on to the chimes of this type in the county.

The housing situation is becoming acute in Hansen. Several families have been forced to go to other communities in order to find living quarters, while a number are finding a C. Ivy shelter in the tourist park. H. C. Edwards, new owner of the Overland hotel, is making plans for remodeling the building for occupancy. Joe H. Opposite Types Are Cast in "Hurst Story"

Two beautiful women of absolutely opposite types appear with Richard Barthelmess in his new stellar picture "The Wheel of Chance" which is the screen feature at the Orpheum theatre today.

Lina Basquette plays the role of Ada, a sweet young girl who eventually wins the young attorney, one of twins, each of whom are played by Barthelmess.

Margaret Livingston portrays a girl of the half-world who attracts both brothers in different times and who comes to an unhappy end. Both are accomplished actresses. Miss Basquette is a brunette with hair and eyes of midnight hue. Miss Livingston is a lovely auburn-haired girl.

Their roles are diametrically opposite but each has a highly important part in the working out of two destinies.

"The Wheel of Chance" is an Alfred Santell Production from "Roulette," the short story by Fannie Hurst. It is a First National picture.

English Actor Comes To American Screen

William Austin, who plays the male lead in "Drums of Love," D. W. Griffith's new screen romance, now playing at the Idaho theatre, was born in Georgetown, British Guiana. He is a graduate of Reading college, England. For several years he graced the boards of the English legitimate stage, but greater opportunities soon lured him to America where his flair for light and eccentric comedy roles earned him a place with Margaret Anglin's strutting players.

Austin applies to do dramatic roles, but his marked flair for light comedy roles has so deeply entrenched him in that classification that no one will give him the chance to make that change.

"Forestry Week"

In 1920, the idea of devoting a week annually to an educational campaign in the interest of forests originated in the Pacific Northwest. At first this week was called "Forest Protection week." In 1921, President Harding brought the federal government behind the idea and issued a proclamation. Since that time such a week has been observed each year.
