MONTANA STATE GRID SQUAD TAKES IDAHO VANDALS INTO CAMP

Boats Come From Behind to Defeat Gem State's Senior Educational Institution's Eleven on Moscow Gridiron

(By The Associated Press) MOSCOW, Sept. 29.—The Montana State Bohems came from behind and defeated the University of Idaho Vandals, 15 to 13, in a nip-and-tuck contest here today.

Idaho scored first, with Hutchinson going over for a touchdown, but Burgher, captain and end, failed to convert. A few moments later Montana blocked Burgher's punt, and the Idaho Captain scored a safety. Montana scored first in the second period when Burgher managed to guard on Idaho's 47-yard line and the Montana dasher for a touchdown. Wellington failed to convert. A series of passes and bucks carried the ball to the visitors' one-yard line in the third period, and Hutchinson went over for his second touchdown and Sumpter converted. Montana's winning offensive came with five minutes to play and ended with two still to go. A forward pass and a series of bucks brought the ball within scoring distance, and Richards, substitute half, passed to Wellington, left half, over the goal line. Wellington converted.

LOCAL ATHLETES WINNERS OVER VISITING SHOWMEN

Ralph D. Schurr, Twin Falls, Former Atlantic Fleet Champion, is Victor Over Cyclone

Events mostly went against the showmen at the Athletic arena on the Pacific States Show grounds here last evening.

Cyclone George Thompson, veteran wrestler and one-time middleweight wrestling champion, lost his finish match to Ralph D. Schurr, Twin Falls, lightweight wrestling champion 10 years ago of the Atlantic fleet, and Battling Hernandez, Shoshone, put Tommy Shamus out for the count in the third round of a scrappy boxing bout.

On the other hand, Sallor Basso, boxer, and wrestler with Cyclone's string, defeated "Kid" Oheen, Twin Falls, with a knockout punch in the third round of a scheduled 10-round battle.

In his match for a purse with the Twin Falls ex-rob, Cyclone Thompson scored the first fall in six minutes. Schurr came back strong and pushed the veteran through the ropes to win the second fall in seven minutes, and took the third fall in four minutes.

Cyclone hurt his left knee when he struck the post in his tumble through the ropes. Schurr clamped the hold on the veteran for the winning fall.

Shamus went through the ropes to take the count in the third round after he and the Mexican boy from Shoshone had traded vigorous punches for two stirring periods.

SPEEDY FAT MAN ON IDAHO VANDAL LINE

Harvey C. Sumpter, Tips Beam at 225 Pounds; Educated Hoop May Play Big Part

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, Sept. 29 (Special to The News).—One of the speediest fat men in football is the title that fits Harvey C. Sumpter, Mullan, who after winning his first letter at guard last year, stepped into a regular line position for Idaho this year, contributing 225 pounds to the Vandal weight total. And what's more, Sumpter is a kicker!

Last year when Idaho played St. Mary's college at San Francisco, the score stood 3 to 0 against the Idahoans as the fourth quarter wore on. Sensational punts by Darwin Burgher, Rupert, captain and end this year, put Idaho within the 30-yard line of the Californians, but here St. Mary's held and Idaho made only eight yards in three tries. Idaho's hopes were low, and in desperation a hurried consultation resulted in withdrawal of a lineman into the backfield. Sumpter, husky guard then booted the ball more than 25 yards squarely between the St. Mary's goal posts to lock the score. He was the coolest man on the whole

DEER REFUGE FOUNDED IN REMORSE IS CLOSED

WASHINGTONVILLE, Pa., Sept. 29 (AP).—Biller's park, for 35 years a deer refuge because the founder, a grocer taking the life of one, is no more.

The automobile brought other pleasures and scenes nearer home, and this about place of central Pennsylvania has been closed.

Alexander Biller, a representative in congress, founded his park in a spirit of remorse for a single deer he had once killed. No admission was charged to the refuge, and from distant points came families on their flying wagons and youthful swains on horseback.

At one time 100 head of deer were harbored there and as many as 20 elk.

In the latter years of his life, Biller disposed of the deer, keeping his elk. After his death, when the automobile prevented new scenes to the motorist, the park was deserted on Sundays. His son, Judge Harry Biller, maintained the preserve for several years but recently disposed of the elk.

Twin Falls Title and Abstract Company

Another step forward in the service to real estate owners in Twin Falls and surrounding districts, is marked with the announcement of the purchase of the Twin Falls Title & Abstract Co., (established in 1907) by the Intermountain Title Guaranty Company.

Ralph B. Smith, who has been with the company since 1911, will be the resident vice-president and manager. R. G. Kemp, of Salt Lake City is the executive vice-president and manager of the Intermountain Title Guaranty Company.

A PIONEER

The Twin Falls Title and Abstract Company is a pioneer in Idaho, with a wide circle of business friends and valuable real estate records, accumulated since its organization.

It now offers to its many friends and to every buyer, seller, mortgagor and mortgagee of real estate in Idaho, the modern, effective protection of Title Insurance.

"The old abstract has served its purpose well, and we will continue to offer complete abstract service when desired, but it is not enough," says Mr. Smith.

SPLENDID OUTLOOK

Any-four experience in the abstract business in Twin Falls has convinced me that complete property protection which eliminates worry, expense, and possible loss of the savings of a life-time can only be secured when a strong, financially responsible company shoulders the risk of a defective title in return for a small premium. "An abstract cannot afford a guarantee of protection. It is simply a copy of a copy of the original recorded instrument, and some form of guaranteed protection is a necessity imposed by modern business."

"I have every confidence in the Intermountain Title Guaranty Company to supply this much-needed protection to property owners here. It is a strong home company, ably officered and amply financed. I am enthusiastic over the outlook."

Cardinals Will Meet Yankees In World Championship Series

ST. LOUIS TRIUMPHS

IN HOTTEST BATTLE IN SCORE OF YEARS

Boston Braves Go Down In Defeat by 3-to-1 Score; Chicagoans Perform Brief Obsequies for Giants; Score 6-2

(By The Associated Press) BOSTON, Sept. 29.—St. Louis won the hottest National League pennant fight in 20 years by the Cubs 6 to 2 victory over the Giants at New York today after a one-hour battle. The Cards made assurance doubly sure by defeating the Braves in this city by a score of 3 to 1. To take their only previous National League flag two years ago the Cardinals had to fight until Friday with Sunday finish, but this year's contest held on one day longer.

The 1928 battle will go down in National League records, ranking second only to that of 1903 among all the modern campaigns. The Cubs of 20 years ago finished the regular season with 103 games played, and in a tie with the Giants who had engaged in the same number. The Cubs then invaded New York the day after the regular finish and won from the Giants by 4 to 2. In a play-off of the tie game caused by Merkle's famous failure to touch a second.

Once Out of First The Cardinals assumed the lead in the pennant fight about the middle of June, passed the Fourth of July going strong, struck hard going for the month of August, and then finished up with another winning spurt through the East. They never were out of first place once they gained a lead. The Cards slipped to the fore by a percentage point after taking three straight games and led the pennant fight by a score of 5 to 3. The Cardinals are another vindication of the baseball superstition that the leaders on July 4 will meet in October. The Cardinals' championship. Both the Cubs and the Cards were handsomely ahead on Independence day.

CHICAGO 6, NEW YORK 2. NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP)—Obscures over the Giants today were brief and simple. The Cubs romped through a drizzle to defeat the home forces by 6 to 2, and the young men of John Joseph McGraw were out of the race for good and all. The Cardinals would have clinched the flag about one hour later, anyhow, on their 3 to 1 conquest of the Boston Braves, but the Giants had any satisfaction which may have accrued from losing it in person. The Cardinals jumped into a lead of three full games, and started immediately for the polo grounds where they will finish off the campaign with a single skirmish against the gallant Giants tomorrow.

The Cubs here gave the Cubs the series by three games to one, and then the Cardinals came against New York to tie it in only eight defeats. The Braves, invincible against the Giants in Chicago, showed no ability to halt John McGraw as the pennant series this season until the start of the series just finished. The Cubs are the only team to win the

New Champions and Old Celebrate 1928 Conquest With Little Low Comedy Fun-loving Easterners Please Focus

(By The Associated Press) DETROIT, Sept. 29.—The Yankees, new champions and old, celebrated their 1928 conquest today with a little low comedy which saw the Tigers hammer away with the decision of 19 to 10, or three touchdowns to one, and a field goal. The fun-loving Yankees pleased the Tigers immensely, and the home boys showed their appreciation by snapping gracefully at the quaint offerings of Messrs. Zachary, Johnson, Ryan and Shealy to play up 28 safe hits and a season's major league record. The 11 safeties the Yankees picked from Edman Van Gilder enabled the rivals also to set a season's record for both teams.

IDAHO'S HUNTERS

Ducks Will Fly High; Deer Still in Upper Reaches of Mountains—Free From Snow

BOISE, Sept. 29 (AP)—Hunters of Idaho who venture forth Monday for ducks, deer, mountain goat and pheasant, will be faced with the contradictory problem of lots of game but unfavorable weather in which to hunt.

The weather forecast is for continued clear weather which usually means a high flight for ducks. As for the deer they have been in the high mountain pastures for the past month and except in portions of the Sawtooth mountains, no snow has come to drive them down. The result, as far as the hunter is concerned, will be long hikes—but fat deer at the end of the trail. Reports at state fish and game department indicated that the deer have been in prime condition for the fall season. Shooting will be good in the central counties and for many who venture deep enough into the Boise basin.

Many pheasants pheasant shooting will be allowed in only four counties Monday, the season in the balance of the southern Idaho counties not opening until October 15. The counties concerned—Lincoln, Twin Falls, Gooding and Jerome—are flush with birds, at least three broods having hatched out. The youngest ones are small, but others are in prime shape. Ducks will be found along the entire Snake river, wardens reporting especially big flocks of them on the north stretches of the river. American Falls reservoir will furnish good hunting for many, first reports of serious disease among the ducks, had ing been partially dispensed with further investigation. The Democrat, except formerly the house of Representatives, and scores of hunters, have been drilled so that very little hunting will be available there. The principal supply of ducks will be natives, the northern flight not having started.

40 CHINESE PIRATES COMMANDER CRAFT WITH 1400 PERSONS

Seven Chinese pirates also were taken along to be held for ransom. The desperadoes were in gay humor at the success of their raid and when not guarding their victims made merry and feasted heavily in the saloons and officers' mess rooms. At the ship passed Hong Kong the night on route for Hainan Bay the pirates became very alert. All lights were extinguished and the surviving officers were threatened with instant death if the Anking were challenged. Several vessels were sighted but the pirates defied any challenge. The Anking was steered into Hainan bay and anchored off Roas Head at 1 P. M. After the Chinese crew and third officer had rowed the pirates ashore, they were permitted to return to the ship which immediately steamed for Hong Kong, arriving late today.

ALFRED SMITH URGES FRANK DISCUSSIONS

Majority of the voters give their approval. He renewed his pledge to guard against the return of the tariff, but made no direct reference in his prepared text to the Canadian liquor system, as he did last month at his officiation in Atlanta.

"It must be borne in mind," said the New York governor, "that under my suggestion federal prohibition is preserved in its entirety for the good of the people. It will remain always the duty of the federal government under my proposal to protect the states desiring to retain dry control to alcoholic beverages."

"It retains all the features of the present system, but the organization sustaining it, except that the state itself is in its sovereign power after a vote of its people may decide whether it desires to dispense with alcoholic beverages."

"Now I am fully aware," the Democratic nominee went on, "that the president of the United States cannot bring this about by himself, but repeating what I said in St. Paul, what we need in this country is leadership, and if I am elected president of the United States it will be my duty to lay this matter before every community that I can reach and let them make their own decision. If that is not Democratic government, I must confess that I do not understand it."

"You can expect nothing from the Republican party. The long record of eight years' inaction shows they have used the law for patronage purposes and for political expediency. They have tried to be wiser when they were with the wets and the dries, they were with the dries. They have silently stood by and permitted the paralysis of the whole machinery of government when it comes to carrying out the mandate of the constitution and the statute law. It is because of that that after eight years they are compelled to promise again that they will do something about it, if given a new lease of life by the American people."

BORAH FIRES ON BOURBON FARM AID BATTLEMENTS

the power to compel the payment of such marketing costs as the equalization act declared to be levied. He does not believe any lawyer in this country believes that Congress has that power.

The remedy which he proposes is that of tearing down the tariff walls. Borah continued, adding that on this subject "if farmers of the country instead of seeking to associate themselves with the plunder system of high protective tariff, had made an assault on the tariff they would not be asking this country to do anything."

"This Senator Robinson not only declared against the principle and machinery of the McNary-Haugen bill," Senator Borah asserted, "but also he declared in favor of taking the tariff off of meat products and other farm products."

"This is the farm relief he indicated," he covered by the views he expressed at that time," the senator said. "To what extent or why or whether he has changed his mind is a matter for others to decide."

Governor Smith's published statement on farm relief received ironic comment from the senator, who drew the 11 sacks and raised 20 bushels. In 1926 he again planted and raised a large crop. In 1927 he planted 220 acres and the following fall harvested another large crop.

About this time there were enough beans produced to think of commercializing them and the Idaho Lima Bean and Agricultural Association was formed. At the first meeting Ed N. Pettygrove was elected president and Ray Cozart was made secretary and treasurer. Munson and Smith were chosen as selling agents.

Last year, the first beans were shipped to the markets and at once became so popular that the supply for sale was soon gone. More were in demand but were not available.

In 1928, 600 acres were planted and this fall the prospects are bright for over 12,000 bushels of the new beans.

"They have been given the trade name of 'The Butternut Bean' and bid fair to prove a great advertisement for Idaho."

According to Munson and Smith, the demand this year in Eastern, Southern, and Southwestern markets will exceed that of any year.

The Butternut bean resembles a Lima bean in shape, and in size is about midway between the 'Lima' and the regular lima bean. When prepared with the appropriate seasoning, they have a flavor that is different from any bean that can be bought on the open market. When baked, they are the most delicious

Bean Association Is Outgrowth Of Pioneer Family's Provisions

HANSEN, Sept. 29 (Special to The News)—Back in the days when the West was young and the pioneers were fresh, there was the Cozart-Gunn territory, a certain family which journeyed from its Eastern home to make their home in what is now part of the Twin Falls country brought among their other provisions a pair of beans. Some of these beans were planted the following spring. After years of plantings and harvests, present day ranchers saw a commercial value in this particular variety of bean and have organized an association for its cultivation and marketing.

When Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Kottel came to Idaho 20 years ago to settle a tract of land near Hansen, they brought along a half-sack of a pair of these beans. The beans were planted from year to year, just a few rows in the garden, and every fall were threshed out by hand to get enough to supply the table at their home.

In 1924 Ray Cozart, a son-in-law of the Kottels, planted a half-acre of these beans in his garden over on the North Side and from this raised 11 sacks of beans. In 1925, he planted the 11 sacks and raised 20 bushels. In 1926 he again planted and raised a large crop. In 1927 he planted 220 acres and the following fall harvested another large crop.

About this time there were enough beans produced to think of commercializing them and the Idaho Lima Bean and Agricultural Association was formed. At the first meeting Ed N. Women Like to Ride In Air Corps Planes

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (Special to The News)—The belief of army officials that not many women would care to go up in Army planes because of the air corps rules that all passengers sitting in an Army plane must wear a parachute, women the country over seem to prefer service ships to any other.

It also was thought that women would object to wearing the overall, but they seem to like the uniform. A great portion of passengers taken up at Bolling field are women. One woman was so delighted with her experience that she asked to "borrow" the airplane. She was told that the airplane is not available for such a purpose.

TEMPERANCE UNION PLANS RALLY SERIES

Election to Be Preceded by Mass Meetings of "Drys" in All Counties; Score Smith

Mass meetings of the "drys" in every county in Idaho will be held prior to the November election, according to plans outlined at an annual convention of the state Women's Christian Temperance Union in Caldwell last week.

The next state convention is to be held in Twin Falls next year, it was decided.

The Caldwell convention went on record in resolutions adopted, a banquet session Thursday evening in endorsement of the candidates of Herbert Hoover and Charles Curtis for president and vice president, in condemnation of the proposals of Alfred E. Smith, Democratic nominee for the presidency.

The Smith proposals, the resolutions stated, "directly nullify the intent and purpose of the Eighteenth amendment, restore the saloon and its evil influence upon another name and create additional problems in law enforcement."

Uphold "Dry" Laws

The Republican candidates, on the other hand, the resolutions recite, "by party platform, by their own action and by public declarations are committed to the observance and enforcement of the prohibition law."

The convention re-elected all officers of the state organization: President, Mrs. J. L. Brady, Blackfoot; vice-president, Mrs. Nettie R. Clump, Boise; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mollie L. Vance, Boise; recording secretary, Mrs. May E. Blake, Twin Falls; treasurer, Mrs. Myrtle D. Purvis, Nampa; directors, Loyal Temperance Legion, Mrs. J. E. Roberts, Star.

Is National Delegate

Mrs. Blake was designated to attend the national convention in Boston in November.

Members of a state campaign committee named by the convention were Mrs. J. L. Brady, Mrs. Mollie Vance, and Mrs. E. D. Hylop, Nampa.

Reports to the convention told of the organization of new local unions at American Falls, Jerome and Nootka, and of a total membership of 140 as compared with 100 members three years ago.

RED CROSS SOCIETY OUT TO GAIN $1000 RELIEF FUND GOAL

Pastors of Churches and Newspapers Enlisted in Campaign to Collect Finance for Aiding Destitute in Storm Path

Twin Falls churches and newspapers have been enlisted in the campaign for collection of $1000 quota in the American Red Cross fund for relief of storm disaster victims in Florida, Porto Rico and the West Indies.

Ministers of the several churches have been requested to announce from their pulpits today the objectives of the relief fund campaign and to explain imperative need for immediate help for the sufferers in the path of the storm.

Twin Falls newspapers will publish daily lists of contributions and will also receive contributions to the relief fund. W. E. Nixon, treasurer, said he will continue to receive contributions at the First National bank.

These methods have been adopted to speed the relief fund campaign. In Twin Falls, $1000 up to yesterday had brought in only $100 out of the $1000 quota. Mrs. D. L. Alexander, secretary of Twin Falls Red Cross chapter, announced last evening.

It is up to us all to assist in the relief fund and to get promptly out of the county with which we are blessed, and not make those poor, suffering people beg us for that we ought to be giving to."

The quotas which have been assigned for the West Indies and Florida hurricanes relief fund are the minimum amounts with which the American Red Cross can carry on its relief work based on earlier reports of the disaster in Twin Falls.

A telegram received yesterday stated:

"Latest information from Porto Rico indicates that seriousness of conditions there have not been over-estimated previously."

"Red Cross workers are encountering suffering, such as is unknown in the United States, even in inland districts."

"With nuts gone, banana trees stripped, coffee plants ruined and sugar cane flat, and half million people are literally in destitute conditions and entirely dependent upon the Red Cross for the necessities of life."

"All available trucks have been pressed into service carrying supplies. One hundred and fifty tons of food, 100 cots, 350 blankets were sent into the disaster area from San Juan Wednesday to care for an increasingly serious situation. About 20,000 people are sick suffering from influenza, typhoid, fever and malaria. The Red Cross is instituting a quarantine and health sanitation program with the cooperation of government agencies."

"Health problems continue to have responsibilities and the Red Cross has a big task to control the situation."

THARP DENIES GUILT WHEN ARRAIGNED TO FACE MURDER COUNT

Twin Falls Dairyman; Alleged Slayer of Mother of Three Children; Appears Apathetic On Appearance in Courtroom

Willie Willis
By ROBERT QUILLLEN

Ward-Otis Tharp, in probate court here yesterday, pleaded not guilty to charge of first degree murder of Mrs. Kate Max Bogard, who was shot and killed in her own doorway west of Twin Falls last Wednesday morning, Monday, October 3, at 10 A. M.

No application was made for liberation of Tharp under bond. Brought down from the cell in Twin Falls county jail on the fourth floor, the court here where he has been confined since being arrested a few minutes after the fatal shooting, Tharp entered the courtroom with a pale, haggard face and Taylor, who will conduct his defense.

Appears Apathetic Tharp, although apparently agreed to be one of studied apathy or confusion, but he answered promptly and emphatically with the words, "Not guilty," when the court, after reading the complaint that charged him with "wilful, deliberate and with malice aforethought, causing the death of the wife of a neighbor."

Bandages that had concealed a scratch on Tharp's scalp had been removed before he was brought into the courtroom. This scratch, and another down the side of his face, are alleged to have been inflicted by Waletha Siltha, Bowen, 15-year-old daughter of the slain woman, when she struck Tharp with the man that Tharp is alleged to have used while her mother lay dead a little way distant.

Arrangements for funeral services for Mrs. Bowen were delayed further when a telegram was received here last evening from Mrs. Siltha Critchfield, mother of Mrs. Bowen, who is traveling outward from her home in Lewiston in response to word of the fatal shooting. This message was addressed by Mrs. Critchfield to Charles E. Bowen, a patient at the county general hospital recovering from a flesh wound in the chest that he received when he stood beside his wife in the path of the deadly gunfire.

The message stated that Mrs. Critchfield would attend the stage in Salt Lake City and would arrive here Sunday evening.

BLUE SUBSTITUTING FOR COLOR OF CROW

Corbeau Giving Black Run As Leading Hue for Winter's Street Clothes For Women

By HAZEL REAVIS (Associated Press Fashion Editor) PARIS, Sept. 29 (AP)—Cobalt or navy blue is giving black a run as leading color for winter street clothes. In certain lights it is almost indistinguishable from black.

Crow blue, sponsored by Viennese, is conspicuous in several important collections. Milliners are using it and shoe designers show prepe de shoes in combinations for wear with lace dinner and dance dresses of the same shade. Crepe satin afternoon dresses are more apt to be corbeau blue than black.

Combinations of black and corbeau blue are possible, particularly if the coat is a black broadcloth, dull or shiny, trimmed with one of the many arrangements of shawed or curly lamb. Black trimmings or broadlans are the usual fur trimming for coats of dark blue, although some eyed ermine is used, particularly in 1/2 and 3/4 length shades.

A new combination of black and golden brown is suggested at one of two houses. Louisbouange shows a black satin coat with collar and peplum of beaver fur lined with black satin. There also is a dress of black and golden brown satin. Philippe and Golden also recommend black and brown combinations.

Combinations of black and white satin for afternoon dresses are smart. Black coats with white caracul are a new blase of fashion.

On the whole, more black than anything else is shown for winter street coats. The coat of black smooth finished fabric, wool, velvet, broad cloth or flannel leads all the others. In the main it has fur trimming, with a wide, high collar standing well away from the face. The collar is most often in one with fur bands along the closing. Sometimes the fur continues into a hem. Sleeves are frequently half fur, or have deep cuffs which reach well toward the elbow.

PALE GREEN SLIPPERS

PARIS, Sept. 29 (AP)—Apple green slippers have a lead over every other color as the favorite for wear with evening dresses of white or pastel tint.

The slippers, to be quite correct by latest standards, should be crepe de Chine. Mauve and powder blue are also favored shades for evening shoes and there are some pink slippers worn with white frocks. The shaded shoes are usually court pumps without buckles or trimming of any kind. First handbags, of a shade to match

Where Gene and Polly Will Wed

IN A ROMANTIC little Catholic chapel in Sorrento, across the bay from Naples, Gene Towner, ex-king of the prize ring, who gave up the plaudits of the mob to please a maid, and Miss Josephine (Polly) Lauder, heiress to a $50,000,000 fortune, will be married about October 5, according to advices from abroad. Right, the beautiful old-world town situated on rock promontory overlooking the Mediterranean; left, one of the narrow, crooked streets of the quaint old town.

MODERNISTIC MILLINERY

PARIS, Sept. 29 (AP)—Even hats are affected by the modern trend of French design. One important house is showing close fitting fur bonnets made of two contrasting colors of shined lamb. Black and white are also contrasted in tight hats of cropped mutton or soft caracul. On hats of felt, white caracul applique is sometimes shown and incrustations of brown caracul are considered smart on black hatlets plus.

GRAVEL BUSINESS GAINS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Increased paving, road building and railroad track-laying operations lifted the American sand and gravel business to the level of a $115,529,788 industry last year, the department of commerce reports. Nearly 200,000 tons were produced, representing a gain of 8 per cent in quantity and a 4 per cent in value over 1928, itself a record year.

Cremeries in Iowa Mostly Cooperatives

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 29 (AP)—Fifty-seven per cent of the creameries in Iowa are cooperative enterprises. The total number of creameries operating in 1927, according to the Iowa department of agriculture, was 403, of which 204 were cooperative. Forty-two per cent of the creamery butter produced in Iowa in 1927 was made in cooperative plants. Although the quantity of butter made in cooperative plants has increased during the last five years, its ratio to the total state production has been declining since 1924.

GROCERS INVESTIGATE

CHICAGO (AP)—Representatives of every branch of the grocery business—wholesale, retail, brokers, chain stores and the rest—will meet here October 24 to discuss unfair trade practices, misrepresentation and secret rebates. Commercial bribery, wasteful practices and "free deals" are on the program. News Want Ads reach the people you wish to attract.

Potatoes to Be Pork In Valley in Kansas

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 29 (AP)—Part of the surplus of the second largest potato crop will be marketed as pork. With potatoes so cheap it does not pay to distill them, some farmers in the Kaw valley of Kansas are using them as a substitute for corn to fatten hogs. The potatoes are boiled and dumped into troughs. News Want Ads reach the people you wish to attract.

America Thanks Spain For Pioneer Livestock

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—To Spain, first to send domestic livestock to the country, the United States will express appreciation by exhibits at the International Livestock exhibition in Seville next year. The American commission planning participation, has decided to portray the history of the livestock industry on this continent, beginning with the cattle Christopher Columbus brought to America under the Spanish flag in 1493. Another exhibit will show sheep introduced by Coronado, a Spaniard, in 1541. In connection with the mule-production industry, which at the beginning of this year was valued at approximately $500,000,000, the exhibit will record the fact that in 1785 the king of Spain sent George Washington a fine Spanish-bred named Royal Gift and two Jennies whose offspring at Mount Vernon started a family tree which today has five and one-half million descendants.

CHINESE WOMEN DECIDE FREEDOM HAS DRAWBACKS

BEIJING, Sept. 29 (AP)—Chinese women, eagerly striking out for freedom, have hit a snag. Divorces have appeared as a phase of the emancipation war. Now, that the sexes, among the educated classes, have been mingling socially and professionally, it is inevitable that men who married under the old system of childhood betrothals should meet women who make them forget their wives. Divorces are easy to get in China, but second husbands are not. A divorced wife, therefore, travels a solitary, hopeless path.

Cuba Faces Serious Shortage of Workers

HAVANA, Sept. 29 (AP)—The action of laborers restricting the emigration of laborers has brought Cuba face to face with a labor crisis of first magnitude. The Cuban government recently moved to prevent the influx of field laborers from Haiti and Jamaica. The action was successful but it was not anticipated that the Haitian government would reply with restrictions of its own. Cuba has always depended on the annual importation of thousands of negro laborers for work in the sugar fields. An effort may be made to hold Spanish immigrant laborers who are said to be returning to Spain at the rate of 500 monthly.

VIENNA EXCHANGE, RUINED BY WAR, STILL ON DECLINE

By H. A. NEUMANN (Associated Press Staff Writer) VIENNA, Sept. 29 (AP)—The Vienna stock exchange has degenerated into a mere shadow of its pre-war glory. Since Austria has been reduced to a bare 6,000,000 people it has ceased to play an important part in European finance. The Bourse here is a pathetic reminder of Austria's commercial plight. Its daily average of sales has dropped to 3,000 shares. The stock exchange is sometimes all but deserted. While trading on the Vienna market is steadily expanding and the daily per capita ration of meat consumed by the Viennese is said to be increasing from month to month, the trading on the Vienna stocks and shares market has been steadily dwindling since 1924. In fact, probably the most often deserted portion of the Vienna Ringstrasse is that on which the Vienna Bourse is situated. Bourse trading never gave fame or character to any contiguous street, but time was when the number of shares changing hands in a day on local account reached between 40,000 and 50,000 shares. Many companies when struck by any firm are being thrown overboard because of its rumored insolvency, the market considers itself busy with 3,000 shares. The result of the complete market is manifesting itself in a reduction of its members. There are still 1,200 enrolled for stocks and shares, 600 for dry goods (chemicals, leather, sugar, etc.), some 2,000 on the produce, 600 on the postage stamps and about 400 on the timber market. The last week only once a week, the stock members three times, those of the shares on six days and the produce members on five days a week, foregoed only one day after the last flurry on the Vienna stock exchange in 1924, the orthodox Jews in their long black coats marched excitedly up and down the Ringstrasse, waiting to transact call-money business, but that has likewise ceased.

GRAHAM-PAIGE

You instantly see Your Dollar buys infinitely more with CHRYSLER

CHRYSLER makes it plain, even to the eye, that the price of a Chrysler buys infinitely more than it could elsewhere.

This was never more brilliantly exemplified than in these exquisite cars—the new Chrysler "75" and the "65."

They are more emphatically stamped with smartness and style.

They are more dashing in every big and little detail of performance. They are richer than anything in their class ever has been—longer, roomier bodies with equipment and metal-ware of exclusive Chrysler pattern.

In short, from every angle, they point for comparison with cars far, far above them in price—cars costing hundreds, yes, even a thousand dollars more.

STOP-THREE, BUT IT CONTAINED A VY PROVISION UNDER WHICH THIS THIRTY-SIX THOUSAND WOULD HAVE NOT LESS THAN ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND RELATIVES BRING IN, AND THE ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND WOULD HAVE HAD ANOTHER THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND, AND SO ON.

One question occurs—Who is guilty in this immigration situation of the separation of families that is complained about so bitterly? Is it the man who left his wife at home, or is it the State that has opened the door for the husband?

WHITTIERT: One should read and read again the published extracts from the address delivered in Twin Falls a day or two ago by Dr. Frederick J. Kelly, newly inaugurated president of the University of Idaho.

Dr. Kelly has apparently even deep thought to the matter of the trend of modern education, and it is truly apparent that he is not satisfied with it.

Can it be that our forefathers, who started the three R's, venerated the spelling match, and backed the educational program with a stern rigid discipline—were wiser than we with all our study of the whole broad proposition of education as an aid to citizenship?

Dr. Kelly says we do not seem to have a generation well equipped to meet life's tests in spite of the fact that we are spending twice as much money on every public school pupil as we did a few years ago.

The old customs which no longer count have been supplanted by a completely new philosophy as applied to the growing boy and girl. Parental authority has vanished along with the teachers' rod.

Even religious teaching would coax and reason and never threaten. The wrath of God has no part in modern religion.

Dr. Kelly points this out but, like a wise man, he does not condemn. But he compares the present trend with the established usages of old times.

WHITTIERT: The swing of the pendulum may be depended upon to set us straight in time, but it will be long a way from being an even-keel today.

IMMIGRATION: A good many voters seem to be rather vaguely but, none the less, sincerely concerned over opposition to the United States immigration policy.

SENATOR BORAH AND CHIEF FORESTER ATTEND OFFICIAL OPENING LOOKOUT STATION

SENATOR WILLIAM E. BORAH and Major R. Y. Stewart, chief forester of the United States, were the honored guests at the official opening of the lookout station atop Shafer mountain, 7600 feet elevation.

The senator is in the middle of the fires. In the lower lands, miles away, is the central station, where crews and equipment and trucks are maintained. They are always ready to respond to a call and the city fireman is no more efficient.

The elements beat hard against lookout towers. Many have been struck in Idaho, some disastrously. August, slightly during July and August. Note the heavy cables from the cables to the ground. These are anchors to prevent the wind blowing the little cabin over.

All over the state these tiny dots of civilization surmount the highest peaks in summer and one pair of eyes watches for the dreaded curl of smoke which spells fire and destruction of Idaho's timber resources.

There are 100 stations of this kind in a territory of 100,000 square miles. The forest industry is first in the state. Three hundred sawmills are operated and more than 10,000 persons employed. Annual wages amount to $22,000,000.

Ambassadors

BY REV. GEORGE A. BUTTRICK, D. D. (Minister, Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York) "Now therefore we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God had beseeched you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God."

WHEN we try to penetrate the mystery of our human lot, when we ask "Why am I here? Whence came I?" Paul writes the "Why" thing across the mystery.

Where is that "other country"? It implies on this world of sight and sense on every hand. It is the land of the spiritual. But someone protests: "Now you are using language which cannot be understood."

Flesh does not endure; it rots. Sin does not endure; it kills itself and becomes its own atonement and debt. But conscience endures. Even though it be only a dull note, speaking to us of an eternal right.

Love endures, forever making its pathetic protest against death. Hope endures, sometimes clouded but never destroyed. The persistent outcropping of the human spirit of Jesus that endures may after all.

The country of the spiritual is the country of the enduring. From that land we come into this foreign world of bricks and flesh.

THE LATCHSTRING

Peace within and joy beyond all doubt. Welcome always for the Latch-string's out. BY ROSEMARY

Edible Decorations: When Geraldine pulled the latch-string she caught a great basket of grapes I thought I had never seen a more colorful picture.

And it's true, speaking of grapes alone, not to mention the scores of other delicious and delectable fruits. Geraldine can achieve more variety of decorative effects with grapes than anyone I know.

One of her most successful table decorations was a low-massed centerpiece, a cornucopia spilling over with flame and purple grapes, and garnished with grape wreaths.

Flowers En Masse: I often think we overlook the charming effect gained by the use of stemless flowers en masse.

EMPLOYMENT MOST IMPORTANT FACTOR IN BUSINESS WORLD

Roger W. Babson Emphasizes Necessity of Steady Work for Masses; Commerce Dependent Upon Pay Envelope

(Special to The News)
BABSON PARK MASS.—The most important factor in the business situation today is employment, Roger W. Babson, financial expert, in his weekly column upon business conditions. "Steady work for the masses is imperative. Otherwise business will undergo a severe reaction. Statistics show that people are being held up to the limit of their incomes. The great majority are absolutely dependent on their weekly or monthly wages to meet obligations which they have taken on during this period when they have been reaching for higher living standards.

"As long as there is no interruption in the regular pay envelope, business should continue good. Hence, the first thing to watch is the trend of employment. Any reaction would be very quickly on business. Consequently employers should endeavor to keep their men steadily employed. It is possible to reduce wages, but it is not possible to avoid them.

Data Incomplete.—It is unfortunate that more complete statistics are not available on this vital question. Authorities disagree widely on the number of unemployed at any given time. It is very hard to get accurate figures because of the "floaters." Such men may be employed at one place one week, and idle at another place the next week. Moreover, for several great industries such as building and farming there is no regular monthly data on employment.

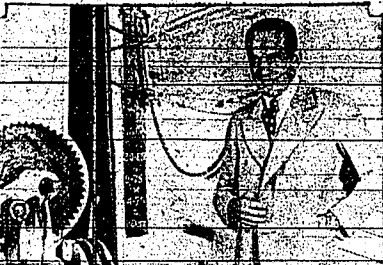

"The United States department of labor figures on the basis of a selected manufacturing industries do, however, serve as a guide to the trend of conditions in certain industrial lines. Latest reports are for August. They show a slight increase from the July figures. The number in July were to some extent seasonal, caused by vacations, inventory shut-downs, and shop repairs. Consequently, the August increase was to some extent a seasonal advance. However, a general increase is found, however, in the fact that this July to August increase was greater than any occurring between the same months for the past five years.

Compare Months.—It has been customary, when studying economic trends, to compare each month with the corresponding month of the year before. On this basis factory employment in August is about 1.6 per cent below last year. This does not mean all lines are employing fewer people. Some industries are employing many more. The total change, however, is relatively slight from last year and may indeed be attributed largely to the normal yearly decrease that has been taking place as a result of labor saving machinery and improved efficiency, rather than to any general falling off in industrial activity.

"Development on the farms is generally good. Large crops are being harvested. While on the whole there is a general scarcity of farm labor, there is likewise no surplus. "Building activity continues in large volume compared with past years, this is securing work for hundreds of thousands of skilled craftsmen and unskilled laborers. There was, however, a decline of 11 per cent in contracts awarded in August compared with July and 6 per cent compared with August last year. This decline may be only temporary, but if it should continue for several months it easily might create a serious surplus of building labor.

Construction Relief.—"Every effort should be made" to launch needed public construction as speedily as possible. The volume of road construction is a very important factor in keeping employment up. Building as a whole is a bulwark of prosperity. That is why it is so important that money rates be kept within bounds. If they advance too high they will tend to check financing for construction purposes just as they did in 1927. Already new bond issues are less numerous. Experience has proven that building continues good just so long as money is plentiful and reasonable. Otherwise it tends to slow down.

"Never have we had more conclusive evidence of the wide difference in prosperity of various industries than at the present time. On the one hand—automobile manufacturing is at record levels, with employment up 10 per cent above last year. On the other hand, cotton textiles are dead with 15 per cent less employment than last year—and last year was a year of good in the cotton business. Plant and other factories have reduced their workers by 14 per cent. Curiously enough pottery making plants show 6 per cent more workers than last year, whereas brick plants show 9 per cent fewer. August is of course a slack season in the dry and glass working industries.

"Other industries reporting more employment than last year are ice cream, printing and book-binding, fertilizers, harness and wagon, women's clothing, millinery and lace goods, glass, enamelled ware, tobacco, and automobile tires. Industries reporting less employment are team fitting, petroleum refining, cane sugar refining, cast iron pipe, cement, railroad car building, carpets and rugs, hosiery, and knit goods, woollens, newsprint and candy.

Opportunity for Youth.—"Opportunities for the young man of character and ability were never greater than they are now. While it is true that greater production is being obtained from a smaller number of men than 15 years ago, nevertheless there are more opportunities for good men than ever before.
