IDAHO SOLON CAUSE OF WILSON'S DEATH CHARGES DAN MOODY

Texas Chief Executive Accuses Republicans of Corruption and Discrimination Against States of South

(By The Associated Press) DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 27 (AP)—Accusing the Republican party of corruption, misgovernment and discrimination against the South since the Civil War, Governor Dan Moody, Texas, declared here tonight, in his first special message to the legislature, that the normal Democratic majority in Texas will be in evidence in the November election.

Governor Moody admitted, amid cheers, that he did not agree with Governor Smith on prohibition, reaffirmed his own devotion to the Eighteenth amendment, flayed Senator Borah, Idaho, and declared that Borah was "indirectly responsible for the present situation."

The governor laid emphasis on his assertion that the present political campaign is not a battle of individuals, but a battle of parties and that a vote for either candidate is a vote for the party he represents.

Governor Moody charged that "the record of Republican administration contains some of the blackest pages in the history of the nation, especially the record of Republican government during the Wilson administration."

He charged that the Republicans had sent negroes to legislatures and legal benches and that they had continued a policy of discrimination against the South.

FOURIER DEMOCRATIC SWINEHURST AT SENATOR BOHANN ASHVILLE, N. C., Oct. 27 (AP)—Former Governor Cox, Democratic nominee in 1920, attacked Senator Borah here tonight, who termed the senator's "inconsistent campaign speeches throughout the South."

"It is just as humorous for Senator Borah to say in the Senate that Woodrow Wilson is a weak president, as it would be for a man to go to the woods to stalk through the corn fields of Dixie singing the praises of our war president," Governor Cox said.

Aspirants for Presidency Launch Driving Finish; Voters Grow Impatient

Sister of Indian Scout Answers Call to Rest Campaign—Reaches Climactic Week; Candidates Entering Home Stretch—Confident of Victory; Orators Laboring

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—The presidential campaign, at last, has reached its climactic week, with the candidates spurring themselves to a driving finish as an agitated electorate impatiently awaits a turn at the ballot box.

All of the country now has heard almost as much of it as has seen one of both of the party standard bearers and none of it has escaped the denouncing discussion of men and issues. Most of it is reckoned as ready to cast its vote and as the day of decision approaches Alfred E. Smith and Herbert Hoover have marked off the zones to which they will make their last direct appeal.

Hoover packs bags on his chosen ground, bidding for the classically packed electoral votes of the Atlantic seaboard. Hoover, having stumped that arena himself, is packing his bags for a journey through the border states, to halt at St. Louis on November 2, to talk again to the mid-West before going on to California to vote.

Today the by-laws of the association were amended abolishing the provision for the commissioner to appoint a public director, and giving this power over to a vote of the 2000 members.

Hazard Unsettled The third director to be unseated was Willard Hazard, from the Twin Falls district. Turkey growers charged that Hazard was elected from the wrong district but the court ruled in his favor.

Vandals Crush University of California, Los Angeles, by Score of 20 to 6

CRIPPLED CREW OF IDAHO UNIVERSITY DEFEATS INVADERS

Line of Visiting Team at Moscow Fails to Function Consistently; Spaulding Uses Entire Strength But Fails

(By The Associated Press) MOSCOW, Oct. 27—A crippled crew of Idaho Vandals wrecked the University of California, Los Angeles, here today, 20 to 6.

Despite the fact that Idaho had five regulars on the bench and the heavy Vandal back field was not in action, Idaho showed unexpected strength and was able to pierce the foe's line for good gains.

The California line failed to function at times as did the Idaho forward wall, but the Vandals put up the better defense during the whole contest. Coach Bill Spaulding used his entire strength in an effort to stop the Vandals but could not find the right combination.

Fleming and Fritts were responsible for the California score, carrying the ball the length of the field after the first kickoff. An Idaho fumble on its own 5-yard line, which was recovered by the coast team, gave the visitors a chance to score after Idaho had held them on its 8-yard line for four downs.

Idaho opened with Perrins packing the ball. The game, relayed by Robertson in the second period and Owens in the third and fourth periods, but he still remained in the lineup to carry the ball at critical times. Idaho had little difficulty in carrying the ball the length of the field for their first score in the opening period. The second Idaho score came within two minutes after the opening of the second period when a pass came to Burdette, he ratted 20 yards and Burghoff made a 20-yard run to the California goal. Idaho's third touchdown came almost as quickly, six plays taking the ball from the Idaho 47-yard line to the opponent's goal at the opening of the third period. Perrins got over for a touchdown on a 5-yard line back.

MARY ASTOR in "Heart to Heart" today and tomorrow at the Orpheum.

New Actress Plays In Orpheum Picture

Thelma Todd, newest "raucous blonde" in movieton and destined, her directors say, to become one of the cinema's stars, plays an important role in "Heart to Heart," current comedy-drama at the Orpheum theatre here.

Featured in the picture are Mary Astor, Louise Fazenda, and Lloyd Hughes, but Miss Todd and Raymond McFee share romantic honors.

Two school teachers started Mary Astor on her way to cinema fame. They were her father and mother. Contrary to the attitude of many parents, Mary's wanted her to follow her natural bent, toward dramatics. She began making independent, friendly supervision when she was 14 years of age, and made steady, brilliant progress.

Louise Fazenda is proud that she is a Hoosier. She was born in Lafayette, Indiana, and educated there at a convent school, however, coming to Los Angeles, where she finished high school.

She played one short season with a Los Angeles stock company, and promptly turned to motion pictures, beginning in one and two-reel comedies, she forged ahead steadily in comedy roles, and was one of the first comedy actresses to appear in long features.

BABSON DISCUSSES DECLINE OF RENTS IN UNITED STATES

Statistics Show Decrease of 4 Per Cent During Year Ending July, 1928; Stability Apparent in East and South

(Special to The News) BABSON PARK, Mass. Oct. 25.—Statistics clearly show that rents for the country as a whole are declining. Recent averages show a drop of slightly over 4 per cent from July 1927 to July 1928. Moreover, they indicate an accelerated rate of decline this year compared with the previous years. Compared with the year-end peak of 1924, residential rents are about 14 per cent lower, according to information gathered by the national industrial conference.

Individual localities may differ from these figures which are national averages; but the general tendency of rents of small houses and apartments, such as are occupied by families of moderate means, is definitely toward lower levels. "Out of 100 cities, 32 show no rent change from last year, 47 show decreases, and only 13 increases. Geographically, rents appear most stable in the East and South. The majority of the cities in these sections show no change from last year. Even in these steadier sections, however, there are more cities showing decreases than increases. The greatest changes seem to be taking place in the Middle West. Here, out of 42 cities, 22 showed no change, 10 declines, and 10 advances. In the far West, the majority showed no change from last year, but there were increases in 4 cities compared with decreases in 3. These reports indicate that the downward movement is gradual rather than violent but broad and fundamental. Furthermore, they show clearly that the supply of rental houses and apartments has caught up with the advances, and in some instances has considerably exceeded it.

Trend Toward Apartment Living "Advocates of renting point to the lower figures, which would mean that accommodations can now be obtained also call attention to the ease of living in heated apartments. Undoubtedly they have their appeal to many people. In fact, the Department of Labor shows that during recent years there has been a very rapid growth of apartment house living in American cities. Nearly 60 per cent of our cities are now housing in apartment houses, or two family houses, compared with 40 per cent six years ago. We are indeed becoming a nation of child dwellers. In spite of the great number of single family houses that have been constructed in the past six years, the far greater proportion of new units will be found in cities where we are today for more than a million of renters than home owners.

Cheaper to Own or Rent? "The steepness of the mad upward rush of rents and in many instances the reversal to lower levels, revives the old question of whether it is better for the average man to own his home or rent. There is probably no question that comes up for more frequent consideration between husbands and wives in America than whether it is cheaper and better for them to build or buy their own home, or to rent. Certainly, if there are children in the family, it is a question of extreme importance. There are those from our ancestors. In the old days who believe firmly that it is cheaper for them to rent than to buy or build. However, for the same quality of accommodation that is being rented, the cost of owning a home has repeatedly been demonstrated to be lower. Of course, if one is paying rent, which would be about right for a current house and compares this rent, deep within us a longing to own a

Judge Lee

Judge William E. Lee, candidate for re-election as chief justice of the supreme court on the Republican ticket, with the cost of owning a house worth $15,000. He will find that the interest to himself, however, he is content to build or buy more nearly in keeping with the value of the house he has been renting. He will find in the long run that he is better off to own than rent. Let us take, for example, two young couples with incomes of $3,000 a year. One rents, and the other is a home owner. Assume that both houses are worth $6,000. The landlord must rent for 10 per cent gross, or $600 a year. He must consider the interest on his own capital, cause if it were not tied up in the house it could be drawing interest at 6 per cent amount to $360. His interest charges at 2 per cent amount to $120. The taxes of course vary somewhat in different localities, but 2 per cent is a fair average. 1 per cent should take care of upkeep, lower figures, this would amount to $60. These charges together will amount to $720, equivalent to $60 a month. It may be argued that houses depreciate in value in spite of adequate repairs, because of changing styles of architecture or other factors causing obsolescence. A matter of fact, however, the history of the past fifteen years has been one of increasing real estate values. Some of the earlier type houses may not be so much in demand, but the great increase in the value of the land in the most instances will be found to have far more than offset any decline in the value of the house. There is just one question which well situated land in this country, there can never be any more. Consequently, if the prospective home owner selects his location with an eye to the future growth of the community he will find his investment in a home fifteen years from now one of the best that he could have made.

Other Advantages "The question of cost alone, although it works out to the advantage of the home owner, is not the only consideration. There are other advantages. The desire for ownership of land is a natural heritage of the American people. It is an inherent desire in most of us handed down from our ancestors. In the old days the land was practically the only form of investment. Stocks and bonds were built. However, for the same quality of accommodation that is being rented, the cost of owning a home has repeatedly been demonstrated to be lower. Of course, if one is paying rent, which would be about right for a current house and compares this rent, deep within us a longing to own a

APPALLING LOSSES REDUCING EARNINGS OF BANKS IN STATE

Banking Institutions Should Earn $9050 for $500,000 in Deposits, Survey Indicates; Higher Dividends Possible

(By The Associated Press)
BOISE, Oct. 27.— Idaho State banks show a 9050 loss—over $500,000 more if the percentage of losses could be reduced, the state department of finance pointed out today in a study of about 100 state banks.

Losses charged off during the year ending June 30, 1928, reached the appalling figure of $436,771, the report said. "Were it not for the fact that these losses must be absorbed, dividends of 25.24 per cent could be declared. As it is, the amount added to the profit account is only 14.29 per cent of the assets."

Through the careful selection of loans and the prudent buying of securities, this 11.05 per cent could very well be distributed among the stockholders as dividends.

Operation costs, not including charge-offs, for the average bank should run about 6.27 per cent of the total deposits.

Innumerable and peculiar local circumstances govern the earning capacity of nearly every bank, the report pointed out.

In analysis of statements of the banks follows:

Capital	$3,137,500
Surplus	899,100

WORK PROGRESSING ON POWER COMPANY $20,000 STRUCTURE

Sub-Station Equipment Valued at $55,000 to Be Installed:
Twin Falls Firm Gets Contract; Plant to Open Soon

In line with a building program commenced here last summer with the remodeling of its district buildings, the Idaho Power company has under construction on Filer avenue, a half mile west of Blue Lakes boulevard, a modern permanent structure that is to cost approximately $20,000 and that will house approximately $55,000 worth of sub-station equipment.

The building was designed by Wayland and Pennell, Boise, architects. It is California mission or Spanish type of architecture. The walls will be finished in white with red tile on the roof. The entire structure will be of reinforced concrete, including the roof and roof trusses. Steel sash windows are to be used throughout.

Local Bidders Low
The Ernest White company, Twin Falls, was low bidder on the construction work, and received the contract. The company is proceeding without delay and is to complete the building in 90 days.

As soon as construction has advanced far enough, Idaho Power company forces will begin installation of the electrical equipment. All sub-station equipment now installed in the present sub-station at Third street and Third avenue east will be removed to the new building, and in addition a large amount of new equipment will be installed to enable the company to meet the rapidly increasing needs of the community.

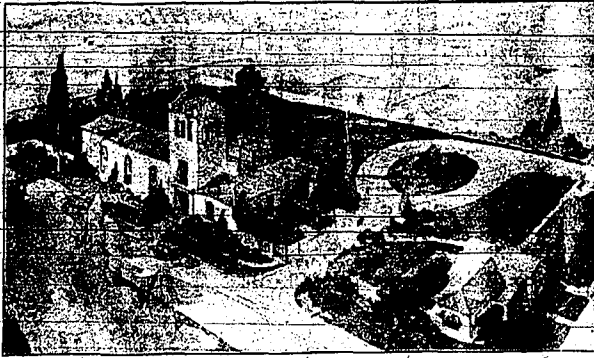

Upon completion of the work at the new site, the present uptown sub-station will be remedied into a warehouse and additional buildings will be erected for garage facilities.

Much Equipment
While the larger pieces of apparatus, such as transformers and transmission line circuit breakers at the new sub-station, are made weather-proof and will be placed outdoors, there is much apparatus, such as feeders, voltage regulators, circuit breakers, switchboards, storage batteries, and control equipment, which must be placed indoors.

The building provided for this equipment consists of a central tower flanked by two wings. The main wing is 51 by 24 feet. It will house the 400-volt circuit breakers, voltage regulators, street light transformers, and attendant switching facilities. The smaller wing, at right angles to the main wing, will house the switchboards and repair facilities. The main floor of the tower is the entrance lobby and staircase, while the second floor will afford quarters for the operator who is required to be on duty at night as well as day. Oil storage tanks will be located on the floor of the tower.

volume or pressure to high value, in this case 44,000 volts. This must be stepped down again before it can be distributed about the city. The first function of the sub-station, therefore, is to step the voltage down from the transmission to the distribution voltage.

The second function of the sub-station is to break up the total power supply of a city into blocks of power of suitable size so that the power may be controlled and continuity of service to all customers secured. In Twin Falls the total power supply is divided into five circuits for general power and four for street lighting. The third function is the metering, voltage regulation, and control of feeders into the city.

The honoree and past presidents were seated at one table and the remainder of the chapter members at small tables. All tables were centered with bud vases holding yellow flowers, and the decorations and place cards carried out the Halloween colors. Places were marked for thirty-one. During the luncheon Mrs. T. H. Erwin in her usual happy vein introduced the past presidents and secretaries and also announced the program, which was given after the luncheon. The program included the following: Mrs. B. W. Jones, Miss Margaret Throckmorton at the piano; two vocal numbers, "Going Home" and "Drifting On," by Miss Leah Dumm, Mrs. Margaret Throckmorton accompanying. Miss Gladys Terhune gave an interesting talk on her experiences as state Republican committee woman. MERCHANTS INSTALL FINGERPRINT SYSTEM

All Strangers Will Be Required to Mark Checks in Lieu of Other Identification

Formal introduction of the Protex-Check system of fingerprinting strangers without identification who seek to pass checks is announced in Twin Falls county with the endorsement of the Twin Falls Credit association. It is also endorsed by law enforcement organizations, by cashiers of all banks of the county and by R. E. Bobber, mayor, and R. E. Leighton, chief of police.

In order to illustrate the method of using the system, the following well known citizens have been fingerprinted: C. B. Lund, E. E. Sullivan, D. D. Foster, Mrs. Louisa Taylor, R. E. Leighton, J. H. Umbaugh, L. C. Os, D. N. Rendahl and J. J. Hughes.

The plan is said to be in operation in all smaller cities in southern California. It was presented to the annual convention of the International Association of Home Owners at Colorado Springs, June 25, 1928, and was adopted. Many chiefs at the meeting said they saw in it great possibilities for stopping crime. The fact that no two persons have exactly the same fingerprint lines is the basis of the Protex-Check system. This feature has appealed to the Associated Retail Credit Men of New York City, Inc., so it is believed by police officials that the operation is destined to become national.

Suggest Door Signs

It is suggested in connection with the operation of the system, that there should be a modest but visible transparency or sign on the main door or in the show windows of the place of business stating that the system is in operation in the place. Strangers without identification desiring to have a check cashed are required to leave the outer mail joint of the index, middle and ring fingers of the right hand placed simultaneously on the reverse side of the check under endorsement, or if it be given in person by the payee, the prints to be placed on the left of the payer's signature on the face of the check. These fingerprints on an honest and honored check will therefore return to the maker with his bank account statement.

Meets General Approval

It is stated that the experience of merchants has been that few people object to being fingerprinted under the system. It is stated that a chronic check forger arrested in Los Angeles, when asked why all of the 170 fictitious checks he gave in a few months were passed in the west part of the county, and none in Pomona, replied that he was not a "boob" as the fingerprint system was in operation in Pomona.

A Pomona merchant is quoted as saying, relative to this system, after the holiday season had closed last

Hereafter, during the rush at this time of the year, we have been taking more or less by the bad check writer. In spite of the fact that the total of checks cashed during the past reason would run into thousands of dollars, yet have not suffered a single loss from this source, and we can attribute it to nothing else but the prominent position of the Protex-Check card throughout our store and the enforcement of the fingerprint rule on all strangers who were unable to furnish identification.

DAM EMPLOYEE DIES AT POST OF DUTY

Harlan B. McConnell Dies Instantly From Blow by Windlass at Milner Reservoir

Harlan B. McConnell, 64, assistant superintendent at Milner dam for the last year and a half, was instantly killed early yesterday when the handle of a windlass with which he was lowering a headgate at the intake of the North End Canal company's main canal at Milner slipped from his grasp and crushed his skull.

The body was discovered at about 10:30 A. M. by a North Side ditcher. It was found in a sitting position against the rail of the bridge over the intake to the canal. Life apparently had been extinct for some time. Both hands were mutilated as though they had been caught in gears of the lowering device. The windlass handle that was L-shaped, was bent almost straight by force of the impact upon Mr. McConnell's skull.

Coroner Investigates

The body, following investigation made by coroner, was taken to the city coroner, was brought to the Crossway funeral parlors here.

Mr. McConnell had been employed as assistant to his brother, W. N. McConnell, superintendent at Milner dam for more than 10 years, and lived with his wife and daughter in the superintendent's residence at the dam. During the absence of his brother, W. N. McConnell, on a vacation trip to Boise, Harlan B. McConnell had been in charge of the dam, and was acting in that capacity when his life was snuffed out yesterday.

Another brother, Charles E. McConnell, has been an employee for many years of Twin Falls street and waterworks department, and a third brother resides in Nampa. Mrs. Emily Gilman, Twin Falls, is a sister.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES CONVENE IN BOISE

Commissioner W. D. Vincent Advocates Yearly Increase in Instructors' Wage Scale

BOISE, Oct. 27.—When a school teacher is satisfactory, advance her salary each year and keep her on the job as she will become more valuable each year, W. D. Vincent, commissioner of education, advised a conference of district trustees held here today in connection with the convention of the southwest Idaho education association.

Commissioner Vincent led off a round-table discussion among the trustees and explained to them the duties of trustees.

During the discussion the trustees were given a chart on which they placed a value on their own qualifications.

Advices Check
"I will give you not only a thorough check on yourself but when you are called on to select another trustee or employe of your district you will know how to judge him. You know what to expect of yourselves," the commissioner said.

Among points of advice given to trustees were:
"When you have a rough, undisciplined school to handle, get a man to do it."
"Increase a teacher's pay and keep her in your school."
"When you hold a board meeting, get directly to business and don't discuss everything under the sun until midnight and then pass all the official duties of the board off onto the clerk."

Advices Budget
"Put your school on a budget."
"Know the school laws that apply to your district. You can learn them in two hours."

He spoke in support of the county unit system, pointing out that under that system, Utah ranked third in the United States in percentage of attendance of school population while Idaho ranked thirty-fifth.

"Of 140,000 children of school age in Idaho, only 100,000 are now in school," he said. He cited other figures to show that the average cost per pupil was $104 in Idaho as against $70 in Utah.

The Republican Legislative Ticket

FRED C. GRAVES
For State Senator

ED N. PETTYGROVE
For State Representative

J. L. HODGKIN
For State Representative

FRED PARISH
For State Representative

The above-candidates are geographically distributed so that the entire County will be represented in the next session of the Legislature.

FEW men are better known in Twin Falls County than Ed N. Pettygrove, who is a World War veteran, and resides at Hansen, and is now engaged in farming upon a large scale. He served in the last session of the Legislature, and by reason of this experience he is a valuable man for Twin Falls County in the coming session of the Legislature in 1930.

With the numerous and divers issues that are coming before the Legislature affecting the welfare of the citizens of Twin Falls County, it behooves this County to have representatives in the next session who are capable of looking after our interests.

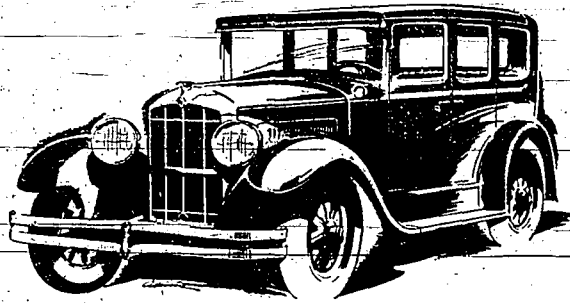

Fred Parish, who resides near Buhl, is engaged in farming upon a large scale, and has made a success of his business. He also served in the last session of the Legislature, and is now in a position to render much more valuable service to his county in the next session.

One particular question that has been before the Legislature in the last three or four sessions is the fight between the Upper Snake and the Lower Snake River, in regard to water. This is an all-important question to the farmers and citizens of Twin Falls County, and we must have a representative body in the next session of the Legislature to take care of our interests.

J. L. Hodgkin, who is now practicing law in the City of Twin Falls, is a World War veteran, and is a keen, sharp, shrewd young man. He is a native son of Idaho, and as such is familiar with the needs in a Legislative way of the State.

The next session of the Idaho Legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican, and it will be folly to send State Senator or Representative from this County who is not a Republican, by reason of the fact that he is not in a position to render service on account of not being able to consult with the leaders of the dominant party, and to secure advantageous positions on committees. With this strong representation of Republican Legislators from Twin Falls County, the farmers and citizens of Twin Falls County need have no fear as to the protection of their rights in the next session of the Legislature.

Fred C. Graves resides at Filer, and has been living in this county for the last 20 years. Few men in the county know its needs as well as Mr. Graves does. He is a sharp, shrewd business man and can render valuable service in the state senate. You can make no mistake in electing him as your state senator.

The Republican State Ticket And The Man Who Heads It

FOR GOVERNOR

Governor H. C. Baldrige

When Mr. Hoover is elected President, it is not at all unlikely that our Senator, Wm. E. Borah, will be in the President's cabinet—a desired distinction and benefit to our state. When that takes place, a vacancy will be created in the United States Senate, thus giving a newly elected Governor the great responsibility of appointing his successor.

When you go to the polls on November 6th to vote for Governor, do not forget the fact that you are in all probability voting on the question of a Senator from Idaho also.

In view of tariff and other considerations in the campaign, who would you prefer to have make the appointment of United States Senator, Mr. Baldrige or Mr. Ross?

At the election to be held on November 6th next, the voters of this state are going to elect an entire state ticket to transact the business of the state for the coming two years. Governor Baldrige has held the office of Governor for one term, and is a candidate for reelection.

During these two years the Governor, and the entire State ticket, have administered the affairs of the State in a businesslike manner, and with credit to themselves and the State of Idaho.

The Democratic candidate for Governor, Mr. Ross, in the numerous and diverse speeches that he has made in southern Idaho, directs his attention to the question of taxation, and claims that the Republican Administration in the last two years has greatly increased the taxes. Mr. Ross, either ignorantly, or with willful intention of deceiving the public, conveyed the idea that the Governor and the State officers were responsible for the expenses of the State. This is absolutely false, by reason of the fact that the Legislature, and the Legislature only, is responsible for the appropriations, and the Governor has nothing to say in regard to the same, except his power of veto. In the last session of the Legislature, the appropriations were increased in the sum of $775,741.00 for educational, charitable, and correctional institutions, as follows:

Increase for University and Southern Branch	$109,728.00
Increase for Albion Normal	90,680.00
Increase for State School for Deaf and Blind	22,132.00
Increase for Industrial Training School	20,482.00
Increase for Lewiston Normal	17,207.00
Increase for State School and Colony (Nampa)	29,186.00
Increase for Northern Idaho Sanitarium (Driftno)	67,700.00
Increase for Idaho Insane Asylum (Blackfoot)	19,355.00
Increase for State Penitentiary	71,210.00

MR. ROSS, in his address, has not criticized a single item of the appropriations, and has not indicated to the voters of this state what appropriation he finds fault with. It is a well-known fact that our educational institutions are gradually increasing their enrollment, and consequently require additional funds for operation. Now, Mr. Ross, are you willing that any of the appropriations for educational purposes, made by the last session of the Legislature should have been eliminated, and if so, what one?

The same is true in regard to the charitable, correctional and penal institutions of the state, and the last legislature in its wisdom, made the above appropriations for taking care of the poor unfortunates in out institutions.

Mr. Ross, the next address you make in Twin Falls County, we want you to point out what specific appropriation you would have eliminated.

Mr. Ross has stated that too much money has been spent in the construction and maintenance of highways. He fails to indicate how he would reduce this expenditure, but passes the subject with the mere statement that if elected he would save the state $1,000,000. This could only be accomplished by curtailing highway construction and permitting our present highway system to deteriorate through lack of maintenance. Every person interested in Idaho appreciates the importance of continued highway improvement to meet constantly increasing transportation demands.

Under the present Republican Administration, a very splendid record in economic highway construction has been made, the cost of which certainly could not be reduced by Mr. Ross. In fact, we doubt Mr. Ross's ability to even approximate the cost of highway work, much less put into effect plans which would reduce present costs.

TWIN FALLS COUNTY has been fairly well taken care of in the construction of its roads through the County during the last two years. We have at the present time a combination of oiled and hard-surfaced road from one end of the county to the other running East and West, and a gravelled road from one end of the county to the other running North and South.

Mr. Ross has also laid some stress in his speeches on the assessed valuation of what he calls the "big interests" claiming that the valuation has been reduced, and consequently the taxes of those interests reduced. Below you will see the valuation for the sawmills, public utilities in the state, and in Twin Falls County, and particularly the value placed upon the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, Idaho Power Company, and Utah Power and Light Company's properties in the State of Idaho; as follows:

The public utilities are the only classes of property that are valued by the State Board of Equalization. This Board has nothing to do with the valuation placed upon other properties except to equalize the same between counties. By referring to the above, you will see that the valuation of these big corporations instead of being decreased has been gradually increased from year to year by the State Board.

The difficulty arising with Mr. Ross is that he makes the blanket assertion that valuations have been increased, without giving any facts or illustrations to sustain his statements. This practice is not becoming to a candidate for the high office of Governor.

THERE is another matter which is of vital importance to the citizens of Twin Falls County, and that is the completion of the Old Oregon Trail Highway between Burley and American Falls. The Highway Commissioner of the State of Idaho and Governor Baldrige have both promised that this road will be completed during the year 1929, which will greatly aid the tourist traffic from the East through our section of the country.

Now, Mr. Ross, are you, or are you not, in favor of the completion of this Oregon Trail Road between Burley and American Falls? The voters of this county are anxious to know what your position is on this important question.

The Chamber of Commerce of the City of Pocatello (your home town) has adopted resolutions opposing the completion of this highway, or rather insisting upon the construction of the road from American Falls to Minidoka, and we wish to know what your views are, as a candidate for Governor, coming from the City of Pocatello.

And another thing which your speeches so far have failed to tell us—are you for Governor Smith or Herbert Hoover? Which of the two candidates for President are you supporting?

Twin Falls County Republican Committee John W. Graham, Chairman
