DEMPSEY DISCUSSES FIGHTS WITH BOSS OF MADISON SQUARE

"Big Fellow Will Be Begging For Fight," Says Rickard; Manassa Mauler in Condition; Ex-Champion Restless

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—"I've been busy with the smoke of my wild Havana everything pertaining to the fight game except the chance of one fight, and I am not returning to active competition. That was saved for this evening when the boss, Tex Rickard, took the former heavy-weight king to dinner.

The boss of Madison Square Garden talked about his big complexion, the cigar, the check-out-of-the-deck today after six weeks vacation in Florida. His return was the signal for the prompt appearance of Dempsey and revival of the rumors of a comeback attempt, to be staged by the old Manassa Mauler next summer.

More than two hours, Dempsey in a most congenial and receptive mood talked of fights and fighters with Rickard and a host of newspapermen. He analyzed the advantages of Florida as a winter training ground, analyzed the fighting qualities of Paulino Uzcudun and agreed the reason would be an excellent opponent in the event of a comeback.

Dempsey Restless

The former champion was careful to avoid mention of his oft-repeated statement that he was "through with the ring forever." He appeared restless, anxious to find an outlet for the nervous energy that keeps him continually "on the go." When he had left the room, Rickard smiled a benign smile and said:

"A few more months and the big fellow will be begging for a fight. He just said that."

The promoter said he had but two courses open in the event that Dempsey did decide to return to the ring. The first is the announcement of a fight in a title-battle next summer. His other plan would call for withholding of any announcement until the winter and his suitability as an opponent for Dempsey, was determined in the elimination parade.

Dempsey in Condition

Dempsey, in fine shape, after a week of hard training in a local gymnasium, said he was only 10 pounds overweight; at the moment he is most interested in making a sale of his picture and in the picture which is left of the string of race horses he once owned.

Rickard believes that Jack still has the power to lure immense numbers of fight fans to the turf. Dempsey smiles at that, but was ready to demand at least $750,000 for his services once the promoter opened negotiations.

The well-informed about the garden believe that Dempsey will again battle, probably next summer in one of the large Canadian cities, fairly close to the American border.

SPORT SLANTS

BY ALAN J. GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (AP)—It will take the final salvo of the football campaign in a series of engagements that will be played on December 3 to determine the final rating in this year's race for national honors.

It happens that four of the teams most continuously involved in the nation-wide tussle do not close their reports of Notre Dame's invasion of Southern California's stronghold, Georgia Tech's traditional tussle with the University of Georgia at Atlanta and Florida's battle with Tennessee at Nashville on December 8.

California is unbraten, in fact the only major Pacific coast team that has suffered no worse than a tie and that—California—Georgia Tech, Florida and Tennessee are bowling alone at the top of the southern conference heap.

After an erratic stand Notre Dame, if not able to claim any national title laurels itself, appears bent on making it unpleasant for a few others by standing as championship contenders.

The footers upset the Army's hopes last Saturday and will attempt to keep the unbeaten dash of Carnegie this week on their home stamping grounds at South Bend. After that the Notre Dame Nomads will march south to search of Southern California's scalp.

There is a dramatic touch to the Carnegie-Notre Dame affair, for the two met in 1925, the Tartans sprang one of the biggest upsets of recent years, handing the Hoosiers their only defeat of the season to the tune of 19 to 0.

Howard Harper, now captain of Carnegie, was the star of the surprising reverse two years ago. Now Harper, one of the outstanding candidates for all-American quarterback honors this season, is leading as power-

Record Crowd Attends Bruin-Brave Grid Tilt

Approximately 3500 Persons See Armistic Contest; Exceeds Previous Mark by 600

Partial check up of the returns from the football game between Boise and Twin Falls staged Armistic day reveals that the largest crowd packed Lincoln field in the history of football in Twin Falls. An accurate count of the crowd is impossible because season tickets admitted to the game. Conservative estimates of the spectators place the figure at around 3500 people.

The highest previous attendance for the game was around 3000 people. Cars three and four deep backed the north side of the field Monday, while at both ends of the grid spectators jammed the light between the end zone and the fence. The bleachers were packed to capacity long before the game started.

BRUINS MAY BATTLE ELEVEN FROM UTAH

Negotiations Under Way For Gridiron Contest With Salt Lake City High School Team

If Coach E. V. Jones is successful in negotiations the Twin Falls Bruins will meet either Granite high school or Salt Lake City or Logan high school on Lincoln field November 22. Permission to bring an out-of-state team to Twin Falls next week was sought and obtained from the state board of control yesterday.

Coach Rex Sutherland of Granite high school is willing to play in Twin Falls, but the Utah association has forbidden its teams to play out-of-state games for the last two years. Coach Sutherland is attempting to gain special permission for the game. Local officials also communicated with Logan high school officials.

Up until two years ago the Bruins featured an annual game with one of the Salt Lake City high school teams, but the terms of the Utah association put an end to the competition. Teams from Zion are always top-notchers and have given the Bruins hard battles in the past. Local fans will look forward to the resumption of athletic relations between the schools.

The Bruins did not don suits last night, but received a chalk talk in the gym. Practice on the field will resume tonight. Eight workouts will be held in the gymnasium this week. The Boise Braves will meet Nampa Saturday of this week in the Junction city and upon that game depends the Bruins' season. It should be the Boise squad win, it will play American Falls, winner of the eastern district, the following Saturday in the western district. Twin Falls Thanksgiving for the state title.

JOURNALISTS WIN MELEE WITH BOWLING TROJANS

The newspaper men took all individual honors. Riggett, holding high credit, led the Inklingers with 1160 points. Robertson leading in the middle period with an even 2000 counters to his credit, and Kiefler in the final with 100.

AGED WRITER DIES

HACKENSACK, N. J. Nov. 13 (AP)—Miss Agnes Carolyn Sage, 64, writer of juvenile fiction, died here tonight. She had been ill for several weeks.

There is plenty of foot in football this year even if the boys are not doing very well at kicking goals after touchdowns.

Such conspicuous eastern football players as Eddie Hester, Virginia Jim Morrison, Greengrove and Harper, Carnegie, have had a lot to do with the successes of their teams.

It was the brilliant kicking of Scott, Creighton quarterback, that gave a lot to do with his team's success in football. The unbeaten Utah victory of Utah eleven to a tie at Omaha last Saturday in one of the season's biggest upsets.

support of the American people, if during that period it neglected to refer to a constructive program and refer to the honor of the opposition party.

"That cannot be done by the minority party permitting itself to become a party of destruction and opposition for political purposes only. We have seen too much of that in this country and in many of its civil divisions."

"It would be regarded a constructive achievement," he added, "if the Democratic party at Washington were to formulate a program adopted and offered to the congress of the nation and there defend it. A refusal on the part of the majority to accept it or their inability to bring about a party unity for the solution of these problems would then fix the responsibility at Washington, which a successful campaign could be waged four years from now."

"What this country demands," he asserted, "is a constructive and not a destructive criticism; a constructive program embodying the declarations of the Democratic platform."

HOUSE OF COMMONS HEARS DEBATES ON ANGLO-FRENCH PACT

small-saboring, quibbling and other naval vessels.

The liberal spokesman argued that the speech of President Coolidge proved that American opinion of Europe had not been removed. He said that Mr. Coolidge had made no threat, that he found significance in the fact that the American policy of building cruisers was being developed.

Challenges Government

Lloyd George challenged the government to say, frankly what their policy was. He added:

"It is not right that there are times when silence is broken."

It was conceivable to him that one day the United States might try to protect Great Britain against the very evils in which the policy of the Anglo-French compromise would land us.

"We have been guilty," he said, "of something which has driven America through its chief officer," to declare that any concession had been made. He characterized as mere mockery the way in which Germany had been treated in respect to evacuation of the Rhinland. He went into much detail on condemning the entire disarmament course of the Baldwin government.

Emphasizing the honesty of the government's intention, Mr. Baldwin replied in similar detail. He denied that any concession had been made to France on the question of army reserves, saying that all countries which had a conscript system held to the British view.

"We must begin all over again," he said, "in regard to naval disarmament problems."

Then he took up Lloyd George's point of view as to the situation agreed with President Coolidge that there was a lack of mutual understanding between the United States and Europe. He laid the difficulty of arranging for personal intercourse between statesmen from the two sides of the Atlantic and he pointed out that European states had of late years met frequently at Geneva, learning each others points of view and misunderstandings of thought.

"On the other hand," he concluded, "American statesmen do not know European statesmen and European statesmen do not know American statesmen. Their only intercourse is in the form of written dispatches which must travel across 3000 miles of water. In the meantime it is very difficult to get mutual understanding."

A GOOD CAUSE
Twin Falls high school students of the agricultural department livestock judging team who won honors at the recent Portland Exposition and who have been designated finalists' entries in a nation-wide competition at Kansas City, ought, by all means, to be given the opportunity to take part in that event.

The only obstacle is a financial one.
Two or three hundred dollars must be raised to meet the expenses of the trip. Twin Falls County Pomona Association has set the ball rolling with an appropriation to this fund, and other interested persons have contributed. In order to enter, the contest team must leave here Friday.
The money must be raised well in advance of that time.

If there were at any time any objection to contribution of money for this purpose, there should be none remaining now in view of the measures taken by the students' committee. The money is being raised by efforts of the contest itself, in worthwhile ways, but in the meantime they are endeavoring to earn the money for themselves. They have obtained a field of potatoes that they are harvesting to sell and build up the expense fund with the proceeds.

Disposition of that sort, even if there were nothing to be gained by efforting the contest itself, is worthy of reward and the reward, in the shape of enough money to make up the fund, ought to be forthcoming without delay.

the optimism which obtains there car-

A. E. Conberly Believes His Car Involved With Mrs. E. B. Corthell's Machine in Crash

A possible explanation of the automobile mishap in which Mrs. E. B. Corthell, Buhl, and her two sons were injured Monday evening was advanced yesterday morning when A. E. Conberly, 127 Ninth avenue, Buhl, made a statement to the police.

Conberly stated that he was driving his car at the time of the collision. He reported that the other machine was not identified, although he stated that it was a Buick. The collision, according to Conberly's report, occurred on the "round" mile and a half northwest of Buhl.

The same time and place were fixed in reports of the collision in which Mrs. Corthell and her two sons were injured. Investigating officers who arrived on the scene shortly after the accident, found Mrs. Corthell's car at the scene, but the other machine was not identified and the officers found no trace of it.

Hunters in Allendale District Kill Coyotes Lives With Tribulation

Mounted Gunners With Quartet of Stag Hounds Declare War On Elusive Prairie Beasts

The life of a coyote in the Allendale district is one of tribulation, according to C. I. Davis, captain of the Allendale Coyote Hunters' club, who was here last evening attending the meeting of the Salmon Canal company board of directors.

Eight coyotes—hunted by the club, who were here last evening attending the meeting of the Salmon Canal company board of directors—were shot by the club.

Three of the dogs will not tear the hide of the animal, but one, old Hound, who is something of a trickster, insists on ripping up the pelt under one of the front legs. The hunters try to keep near the hound, who will also tear the animal by the tail before he gets in his destructive work.

The hunters killed 14 coyotes last winter between the Robert Ray farm and Hubbs' hill.

NOVEMBER STRAWBERRIES

A remarkable exhibit of Idaho brown strawberries is being shown by Ed Vance who had a couple of boxes containing berries larger in size than are usually to be found in the height of the season and which were picked from the vines just a day or so ago.

Unfortunately the berries were chilled in appearance. The exhibit had been slightly frosted and while this did not affect their appearance it did have the effect of destroying a part of the flavor.

The berries are the result of a series of experiments carried on by Mr. Vance in an effort to raise and over-bearing crop of good size and high quality.

FEEDER COMPANY USES VARIED STOCK RATIOS

BURLEY, Nov. 13 (Special to The News)—About 1000 cattle are being fed at the sugar company yards for feed, and on account of the entire lack of beet pulp available here, feeders—corn and other feeds are being made use of. Due to the sugar beet crop shortage, farmers have applied for all the pulp in the city, and there is no surplus as in ordinary seasons.

Stock carlots, being tried out by the Portland Feeder company, have been very satisfactory results here, as in other feed lots where they are not used. There were not many fields planted to carrots here. The feeder company is also using quite a lot of cut potatoes, with excellent results. The spuds are run through a slicer.

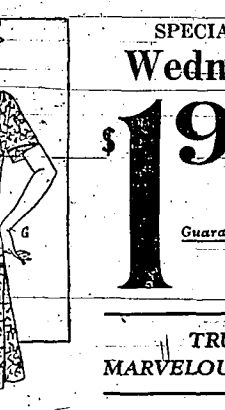

During the last 10 days, 10 head of fat hives have died of botul. This botul is said by veterinarians, is caused by the alfalfa meal which is fed to the hives. So far they have been unable to find a feed that can be added to the ration that will prevent the bloating. When beet pulp was used, the hives were not affected by botul, they say, but this ailment seems prevalent when the pulp is lacking in the ration.

Two companies are feeding in the yards this fall, the Portland Feeder company has now about 900 steers and Lynn and Jensen Livestock company about 200.

POLICE RAID NETS LIQUOR

In a raid on the residence of W. J. Sutton, 345 Van Buren street, yesterday afternoon police officers seized a gallon thermos jug full of moonshine whiskey together with an empty keg, a number of empty bottles, and a bottle cap. Mrs. Sutton, who said she was under a doctor's care, was at the residence when the officers arrived. Sutton was reported to have made precipitate departure without returning home soon after the officers' visit.

The raiding officer carried a search warrant issued on request of O. W. Whelan, prosecuting attorney, after two young men taken up by the police officers earlier in the afternoon were reported to have told him that they had purchased from Mrs. Sutton a bottle of moonshine whiskey which officers found in their possession.
