OFFICER OF VESTRIS DESCRIBES SCENE ON ALL-FEED STEAMER

Senior Surviving Official of Liner Tells of Confusion in Striking Contrast to Popular Conception of Sea Discipline

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—A picture of confusion in striking contrast to the popular conception of sea discipline during emergencies was painted in a federal court room today by Chief Officer F. H. Vestriss of the steamer Vestris, in telling for the second time the story of the ship's sinking nine days ago off the Virginia Capes.

The releasing mechanism on the lifeboats failed in every instance, he said, when the children were put in boats which stood the poorest chance of being safely launched. "The children were taken in the order of their superior and the crew failed to go to their assigned lifboat stations to help in saving the children."

United States Attorney Tuttle, who is conducting the inquiry, brought out the information from the lifeboat releasing mechanism within 45 minutes after the chief officer took the stand. "Johnson is senior surviving officer of the Vestris, Captain William J. Carey, newly appointed commander of the Lamport and Holt line, having gone down with his ship, jumping into the sea, the last moment without a lifebelt.

"Was any effort made to use the release mechanism on the lifeboats?" Tuttle asked Johnson after the chief officer had described the apparatus.

"Yes," answered the witness, a wind-blown little man in seaman's uniform, "but the mechanism on two instances which are supposed to free the boats when pressure is applied to the handles."

"When Tuttle was done with the witness the questioning was taken up by Captain E. T. Jessup, U. S. N., retired, who is the witness' chief naval advisor to Commissioner O'Neill.

"Was there an officer assigned to each lifeboat, he asked, leaning over the witness in the witness' front of the commissioner and Captain Henry McCook, nautical advisor appointed by the British government.

"This has a relation to the fact that the ship was not to be released," Tuttle said, "that some of the children were not released."

"The release of the children was given over to the children of the dead woman, who in telling how he had knelt and wept, while she lay face away in his truck, lost control of her emotions and sobbed openly."

SELLING HURRICANE GRIPS STOCK MART

Final Quotations at End of Third 6,000,000-Share Day Show Long List of Declines

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—A hurricane of selling orders struck the stock market with terrific force late today, sending the market down to a new low level. Final quotations disclosed a long list of declines ranging from 1/8 to 1/2 a share.

Total sales crossed the 6,000,000 share mark for the third time but were well below the record of 6,811,900 shares established last year.

Because of the delay of more than an hour in the stock market and the fact that the bulk of the selling took place in the last hour of trading, the market was over before most traders learned the reaction had taken place. Although rumblings of it became apparent in the afternoon, the closing of a New York stock exchange seat was arranged today at the record-breaking price of $32.00, an increase of $1.00 above the previous record established two days ago.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Henry M. Baken, national relief director for the Red Cross, returned today to the Kansas flood area to direct the organization work aiding the hundreds of people driven from their homes by the rising water.

Relief work progresses in Kansas City, Nov. 21.—While relief and rehabilitation work in the flood-ravaged valleys of Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma was progressing rapidly today, the death toll in the three states was increased to 17 with the discovery late this afternoon of the body of Ambrosio Nava, 58, a Mexican, near Ottawa, Kansas.

Water H. Ghappell, chairman, Kansas, director of flood control in Southeast Kansas today estimated the damage wrought by the flood in Kansas at $20,000,000. Estimates of the damage in Missouri and Oklahoma also run into the millions of dollars. In southern Kansas all the streams (Continued on Page Two)

GROWERS HEAR PLEA FOR ADOPTION OF NEW IDEAS

SPOKANE, Nov. 21.—Potato growers who use old-fashioned methods must either adopt new ideas or fall by the wayside, H. C. McCook, of Oarfield, Washington, told delegates to the seventh annual Northwest Potato Growers' conference here today.

"Potato growing costs far too much to be profitable if conducted along old-fashioned lines," he said. "New and improved methods must be used and with these, greatly reduced costs can be and are being obtained."

A surplus exists this year, he added, which is holding the market to a price where growers are losing money. He declared that if the growers did not cut production costs to a minimum, there could be no profit.

(By The Associated Press) U. S. S. MARYLAND AT SEA. Nov. 21.—Herbert Hoover caught a 13-pound mahi-mahi and a 40-pound bluefish in 45 minutes of deep sea fishing off Cape San Lucas, Lower California, this afternoon. He first went to apparently his largest strike when his line fouled.

IN FAMOUS WATERS

GONZALES, S. S. MARYLAND OFF CAPE SAN LUCAS, LOWER CALIFORNIA, Nov. 21.—Herbert Hoover, who has waded in many trout streams, late this afternoon waded in bigger game on the famous breeding grounds of the sword fish, tuna and jaw fish about 25 miles off the cape and toward the extremity of Lower California.

Before he put off in a motorboat from the battleship which is carrying him southward for a good-will tour of Latin-America, further arrangements of the itinerary were discussed. The president-elect expects to visit Havana and possibly Mexico. He will visit Montevideo and may possibly go to Santo Domingo. Whatever ports he finally decides to include, Mr. Hoover will have a 10-day voyage on the U. S. Utah covering some 3600 miles from Rio Janeiro to Havana or some other port in the West Indies. It seems rather (Continued on Page Two)

BORAH LOOKS FOR EARLY END OF NICARAGUAN TASK

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Senate leaders do not anticipate that Secretary Kellogg will call upon the senate to take any action on the recently published report of William Wilson Cumberland advising American control of Nicaraguan finances.

This belief is held by Senator Borah, Idaho, the chairman of the foreign relations committee. It is the general belief that the Cumberland report was made public merely as a matter of information.

Senator Borah also expressed the view today that the marines sent to supervise the election in Nicaragua should be withdrawn as soon as practicable after the newly elected administration in that Central American republic goes into office next January.

KANSAS SOLON PREDICTS FARM RELIEF MEASURE MINUS EQUALIZATION FEE

DETROIT, Nov. 21.—Senator Arthur Capper, Kansas, predicted here tonight that a farm relief measure similar to the McNary-Haugen bill but without the equalization fee, will be given to the country at the short session of congress. The senator, addressing the Michigan State Farmers' club, said the equalization fee, in which he believes, "which has been opposed consistently by President Coolidge and President-elect Hoover, probably would be eliminated in order to clear the way for some sort of farm relief."

He also urged Land Grant Colleges as being the natural sources of such leadership.

COUNSEL FOR THARP OUTLINES DEFENSE; CONTENTS INSANITY

Ward Otis Tharp, 51, On Trial On Murder Charge, "Suffering From Insane Delusion of Persecution," Attorneys Claim

Falls dairyman, on trial in district court here for first degree murder of Mrs. Lois May Bowen, 32, a neighbor, last September 26, is "suffering from an insane delusion of persecution," James W. Porter of defense counsel, declared in his opening statement of the defense case last evening.

Tharp's defense counsel, James W. Porter stated, "The condition of his mind was such that when his trouble came on, believing as he did that he was the victim of persecution, he wasn't nearly competent to determine the right from wrong."

Defense counsel did not base Tharp's defense entirely upon the insanity defense. He stated that an alternative defense, he asserted that Tharp did not shoot Mrs. Bowen, but that she was fatally wounded in a struggle for possession of Tharp's gun. Defense counsel reviewed a long series of incidents of neighborhood discord tending, he argued, to aggravate Tharp's mental condition, and then declared that the defense evidence would show that Tharp did not shoot Mrs. Bowen but that she had been fatally injured in a struggle for possession of the gun that Tharp had in his hand at the time Mrs. Bowen, wife of E. Bowen, husband of the dead woman, started toward him and put his hand on her hip.

The craft, valued at $75,000, was to have been christened tomorrow before a gathering of aeronautical leaders of the country.

The fire started as the finishing touches were being given the plane outside of its hangar. Some witnesses said that an explosion preceded the fire and others that there had been a mechanical failure. Walter Young and Walter West, who were in the airplane when the fire started, were burned on the hands and face, though not seriously.

FARMERS TO ARRIVE SOON FOR CONTEST WITH BRUIN ELEVEN

Salt Lake City Squad Setting Out for Magic City to Meet Twin Falls Grid Warriors; Jones May Have to Use Cubs

Coach Rex Sutherland and 25 Granite-Farmers will leave the Utah capital this morning bound for Twin Falls to tangle with the Bruins on Lincoln field Friday afternoon at 2:30 P. M.

Although the Farmers lost heavily from graduation last year, Coach Sutherland has put a formidable machine. Captain Frank Christensen will be remembered by Bruin fans for stellar work last year. He is a triple-threat back and it was he who tossed the 20-yard pass across the goal last Thanksgiving day, to the waiting arms of Smith to turn almost certain defeat into a 6-0 tie.

Recall Remarkable Sprint—Fans cannot think of the Turkey day game of last year without recalling the remarkable sprint of Tommy Lucas after the fleet Utahian who was carrying away the Bruin hope for victory. Lucas, expending a last ounce of energy, overtook the ball carrier before he crossed the goal and another thrust from the Farmers resulted in the pass that brought the tying quarter.

Another Bruin fan is talking about a fracture of his elbow tip in the first play against Granite last year. The flashy Bruin guard must content himself Friday with grunting his teeth on the side lines, for while he has almost recovered from his battle with Old Man Flu, he will not be able to play.

The Bruins must face the Granite team minus Braliford and Davis, which leaves two gaping holes in an otherwise formidable forward wall. Kuykendall, cub guard, has been working with the first string all week and will probably start against Granite. Ray Acersand has put in a shut night, but because of his lack of practice he probably will be used as reserve material. Strauss bids fair to handle the vacancy left by Davis at tackle. The husky pole vaulter has been used in almost every line position this season and has developed into a first rate utility man.

Coach Jones is not too optimistic about the chance of the Bruins. Illness and the closing of school has depleted his squad, and practices this week have been conducted without returning players. They were not enough men out to make two teams. However, the Bruins will have had almost two weeks of rest.

TWIN FALLS TO SEE STATE-TITULAR GAME

Unless Other Cases of Meningitis Break Out, No Objection Will Be Registered

BOISE, Nov. 21 (AP)—Unless there are further outbreaks of cerebro-spinal meningitis in the Twin Falls territory there will be no objection to playing the state high school tournament championship in that city, the public welfare department announced today.

Possibility that the championship play would be called off appeared when a number of cases of the disease developed and the schools of the city closed. The incubation period of meningitis is 10 to 14 days. The possibility of deciding game either between Boise and Twin Falls or American Falls and Twin Falls, which will be held a week from Saturday, and unless new cases develop there, will be little danger of the disease spreading. The rivalry game will be played next Saturday between Boise and American Falls at Boise.

BILLY SOUTHWORTH CARDINAL MANAGER

One of Heroes of World Champion St. Louis Nationals in 1926 Will Lead Missourians

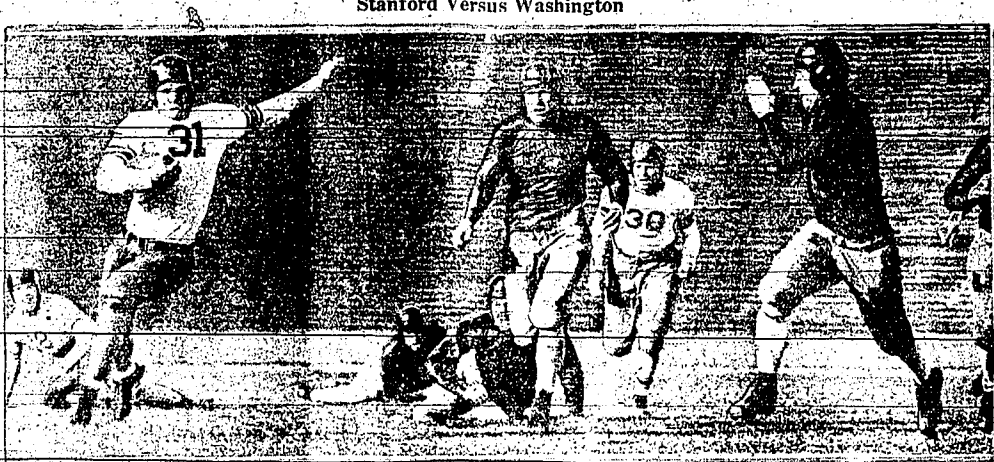

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 21 (AP)—Billy Southworth, one of the heroes of the world's champion St. Louis Cardinals of 1926 and an idol of St. Louis fans, will be named today to manage the team in 1928. Southworth will be the Cardinals' fifth manager in five years and the youngest manager and the only playing manager in the National league. He is 34 years old. Bucky Harris, Detroit pilot, is two years Southworth's junior and the only other playing manager in the two major circuits.

Expecting Diehlpin—In naming Southworth as President Sam Brendon said he expected him to inject more fight and strident discipline in the Cardinal team which under manager Joe Judge had been a mediocre one. "Diehlpin" is a Yankener in the Yankener's place. McKeehan will exchange places with Southworth, who managed Rochester, New York, a Cardinal fan, and led to championship of the International league last season. McKeehan's ability and expressed pleasure he would remain in the Cardinal organization. "It's a great pleasure to return to St. Louis as leader of the great Cardinal team," Southworth said. "I'm pretty hard to beat their record of five pennants and a world's championship in three years; but I believe the fans have good reason to expect the team to remain at or near the top."

Ten Years Experience—Southworth, who has had 10 years experience and has played on five major league teams, came to the Cards in 1926 from the Giants and immediately made regular right-fielder by Manager Rogers Hornsby. He at once became popular with the fans. Whenever he made a clutch hit or a spectacular catch he stirred an ovation. He was the recipient of money showers after each home run, but he turned over every cent to charitable institutions. "It always gave me luck to do that," he explained. "Look at me now."

SOLON GIVES VIEWS ON SHORT CONGRESS

House to Consider Marketing and Senate Treaty and Dam Bills, Believes Addison Smith

Legislation looking toward the increase of marketing surplus farm crops and manufactured products by the house of representatives and consideration of the Boulder dam bill and the multilateral and other treaties by the senate will occupy the short session of congress which convenes December 4, in the opinion of Congressman Addison T. Smith, who accompanied by Mrs. Smith, will be in the national capital this evening on his way to Washington.

He will stop for one day in Pocatello to confer with businessmen and organizations interested in irrigation and other matters and will then proceed to the national capital. He believes the next congress will be called in extra session early to consider farm relief measures.

To Consider Marketing

"Besides passage of the usual appropriations," said Congressman Smith, "the house of representatives will, in my opinion, take steps to provide for the perfection and extension of the cooperative marketing facilities to assist in the disposal of the products of farm and factory abroad. Appropriations for the maintenance of an increased staff of agents in other countries to assist our foreign markets will be maintained.

"The adjournment of the session of congress is unlikely, for the reason that there are only 97 working days for congress between the time of adjournment and the opening of the session, March 4. For the same reason I do not believe that there will be any general farm relief measure enacted this session, but believe that the next congress will be called in extra session, probably early in April, to take up the farm relief question.

Favors Dam Measure

"In the senate the big issues presenting themselves at the opening of congress will be the Boulder dam bill, which passed the lower house last session, and the multilateral treaty. I hope the Boulder dam bill will pass. Its effect will be beneficial to Idaho. This measure is necessary if Lee and other cities of Southern California are to grow. The water in that part of the country has fallen from 100 feet to 100 feet, and the water supply is being cut off. The dam in Boulder canyon, irrigation canals and cheap power generated to build up industry. This will mean a market for Idaho products. With the construction of this dam and cheaper electric rates over the cutoff, now that competitors are made with both the Southern Pacific and the Western Pacific, the market for products of Idaho will be greatly extended.

"Whether the treaty matter can be finished at this time of congress remains to be determined."

RAILWAY APPOINTS NEW MOTIVE POWER OFFICIAL

Announcement has been received here of the appointment of O. S. Jackson to become general superintendent of the newly created position of motive power and machinery of the Union Pacific system, with headquarters at Omaha, effective December 1. He will have charge of all shops and roundhouse forces of the system, numbering about 14,000 men. Mr. Jackson is in every way a self-made man, born on a farm near Huntington, Indiana, 54 years ago. He left school when 14 to become a water boy and later a section worker on what is now part of the Big Four system. Later he entered the mechanical department of the Erie railroad and has moved steadily upward since that time.

WIFE'S MONEY GROUNDS IN ACTION FOR DIVORCE

Convinced that her present, second, husband is concerned more about her money than about her, Mrs. Erret, 1044 E. Main, has instituted suit in district court here for divorce from George P. Erret to whom she was married in Twin Falls, Idaho, in 1924. She asks also that Erret be required to restore to her $2000 of her money that she used to buy fencing and improvements for his land here, together with another $1000 with which he purchased sheep for grazing on land that he owns in the vicinity of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Crucial charges in the complaint against Erret extends to her children of a former marriage whom he is alleged to have abducted. On account of this alleged cruelty, Mrs. Erret says she was compelled to leave Erret and come to relatives here. She also asks to be restored to custody of the three-year-old son born to herself and Erret, and asks to be restored to her former name of Huckman.

In addition to restoration of the $3000 which she says Erret induced her to permit him to invest in sheep and farm improvements, Mrs. Erret asks for $400 attorneys' fees, $100 suit money, and $100 a month temporary alimony.

The complaint was drafted and filed in O. C. here.

On grounds of alleged desertion dating from August 1, 1928, Marvin R. Cole, through P. E. Ashon, attorney, has instituted suit for divorce from Cora Slater Cole to whom he was married in Twin Falls in February, 1925. The grounds are that she has no children and no community property is involved.

REV. KEYZER DISCUSSES WORLD PEACE PROSPECTS

An address on the subject of "World Peace" by Rev. Eugene Bent S. Keyser, of St. Edward's Catholic church, constituted the principal feature of the regular weekly meeting of the Twin Falls Rotary club held Wednesday.

The speaker's remarks were built upon the proposition that the greatest harmonious relations between man and man throughout the world, and that neighborhood, community, state and national peace depends on the best safeguard against international discord and urged his hearers to promote peace and harmony at home as the first step in the general acceptance of peace and harmony throughout the world.

The address was one of the most cultured and thoughtful ever presented on this topic in Twin Falls and was listened to with rapt attention.

CORN GRAIN MARKET LEADER DURING DAY

Big Trading and Prices Over-Topping Season Record Make Yellow Cereal Conspicuous

CHICAGO, Nov. 21 (AP)—Big trading and prices that over-topped the season's record made corn today the market leader. Aggressive buying of corn future deliveries followed word that Germany had cut off import duties on bulk, and that this cut implies increased demand for United States corn during the next six months.

The corn market finished strong at the day's top level, 1 1/2c to 1 3/4c a bushel net higher, with wheat 1/2c to 3/4c up, oats showing a similar advance and provisions ranging from the decline to a rise of 1c.

Wheat and oats borrowed strength from the corn advance. Argentina, referring to unfavorable news, and this was regarded as of significance in the wheat market.

ACTIVE ISSUES DROP ON MIGHTIEST MART

Total Sales Carry Over 6,000,000-Share Mark for Third Time; Ticker is Far Behind

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—This nightfall of all stock markets crumpled with a severe attack of growing pains today which left most active issues down 1 to 12 points. The market was flooded with selling orders, as traders hastened to take their profits while the taking was good, but on the whole offerings were absorbed with remarkable ease, as plenty of buyers appeared at the lower levels.

Total sales were carried over the 6,000,000-share mark for the third time in history, aggregating 6,057,000 shares. Naturally the ticker was more than an hour in arrears during most of the session, which made traders a little panicky as to what bottom prices may have been on the floor.

The day's news was largely constructive for the market, but attributed only to the market's over-bought condition. The correct movement was about what had been looked for and in keeping with commission house advices of the past few days.

Of the other recent high fliers, Case Threading lost nearly 9 of its spectacular gain of nearly 40 points in its history, recovering 10 points, or less than 13 of its gain of about 40 points the day before. DuPont, however, lost only 3 points, and General Electric 5-point advance. Montgomery Ward dropped 12 points.

The copper, strongest group of recent fliers, generally receded. American Smelting, Anaconda and Chile, losing 4 and 5 points each. Bismuth, which had been heavy of late, lost 10 points. American Motors, old-time favorite, lost 4 points and the new stock sold at 100. Chrysler lost 2 and 3 points. Mack Trucks was strong, making an extreme gain of nearly 30 points.

Colleen Moore Cast In Play "Lilac Time"

"Lilac Time," in which Colleen Moore is starred, with Gary Cooper opposite, comes to the Opera House theatre today with an established record as one of the most charming love stories ever recorded on the screen.

Adapted from the celebrated play by Jane Cowell and Jane Murrin, "Lilac Time" is the story of a girl who grows from childhood to young womanhood under the shadow of the World War.

She lives with her grandparents in a village near the Allied front through which day by day troops pass on their way to the front. She jokes and pranks with them.

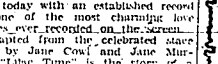

All of the drama, the pathos of a girl caught in the madrom of the great conflict, is said to be admirably depicted by Miss Moore, who, as Jeanette, reaches dramatic heights that far outshine any role of her career.

Gary Cooper, a comparative newcomer to the films, handles the chief antagonist role while the direction of George Fitzmaurice, at a famous establishments him as a supreme genius.
