REDUCTION of nearly $750,000,000 public debt during 1928 reported by treasury.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—A treaty for world peace and a bill to build more cruisers for the navy were today after a Christmas recess, and when the day had expired the Kellogg treaty for renunciation of war as a national policy held the floor—with these two measures, both with administration support, have the right of reply in the senate while the house is on the debate about the bill. The supply bill presented today happened to be the measure for the war department, carrying $435,428,418, after the senate had approved that branch of the national government. It provided however, a vehicle for a battle debate over the Kellogg treaty, the treaty-cruiser argument. (Continued on Page 5, Column 2)

IDAHO LEGISLATURE DIVIDES INTO BLOCS

Absence of Strong Democratic Influence Resulting in Splits Along Geographic Lines

BOISE, Jan. 3.—In the absence of strong Democratic influence in the senate, the legislature today divided into blocs along geographical lines. One bloc, announced today, already been made by M. B. Yeaman, representative from Bonneville county, of the formation of the Southeastern bloc. Another bloc, the Southern bloc, formed at last session, will again function this year. It was again mentioned today in a speech made by Governor word came today from Moscow that the North Idaho bloc had been tentatively formed.

Two Weak Blocks Shifted Quite separate from all of these are some pure party divisions from all of them is the soldier bloc which made itself evident at the last session by the wearing of black shirts whenever a united vote was desired by the bloc on any soldier legislation. It so happens that the soldier bloc is made up of representatives of whom come from the mountain and South Central Idaho counties, the so-called "geographical" division of the bloc.

Effect Pure Specialization What effect the various blocs will have on legislative procedure is almost pure speculation. The blocs cover both parties in each county, as both senators and representatives of both parties are included in the bloc.

That the statewide school tax will become an issue is considered certain and its introduction will probably be in the coming session. The blocs in the South and South Central Idaho counties, the so-called "geographical" division of the bloc.

Mr. O. D. Blyer, newly elected president of the Chamber of Commerce, was in the city during the transaction of the social hour and returned to his New Year's resolutions. The program arranged by Mrs. O. Davidson, consisted of readings and musical numbers. The evening was a delightful feature of the afternoon with Mrs. Vernon Scribner at the piano and refreshments served by the social hour. Mrs. A. G. Hendon was a club guest.

The Women's Missionary Society of Twin Falls, Idaho, held a social hour at the church parlors Thursday afternoon with the December and January groups in charge of the program. The program was given by Mrs. Fred O'Connell. One number was given by the ladies' quartet and Mrs. De la Cruz sang an original song. Topics were given by the following: Mrs. J. P. Denny, "Mexican-American"; Mrs. Walter Miller, "People of the World"; Mrs. E. B. Schutt, "Original Americans"; Mrs. J. N. Chaney, "Jamaica"; Mrs. R. H. Brown, "Japan"; Mrs. A. G. Hendon, "The Social Hour." The program was served by the groups one and two.

The Shamrock Club was entertained by Mrs. F. Cook at her home Thursday afternoon. Nine members were present and Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Riekenman were guests. During the business session plans were made for a covered dish dinner to be held at the home of Mrs. Cordes January 11. A "devotional" period was held, followed by a social afternoon at the close of which a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. Mrs. Riekenman was the speaker. Mrs. Riekenman will be announced later.

Members of the Catholic Women's League met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. Burton on Ninth Avenue North. There was a lengthy and interesting business session with the president, Mrs. Patrick Wynn, in the chair. At this time plans were made for the "Lenten" period which will be held at the Ferguson Hotel to be held at her home on Sixth Avenue North. This meeting marks the beginning of the Lenten season. Mrs. Riekenman was the speaker. Mrs. Riekenman will be announced later.

Western Star Plays In Australian Film

Tim McCoy, hero of thrilling Western drama, comes tomorrow to the Idaho theater in a new style of role when he plays the characters of the West to play an Australian Robin Hood in "The Runaway". With starring and supporting McCoys battles his way through a thrilling series of adventures incidental to the charming story. Marian Douglas, herself an Australian, plays the heroine and a notable cast includes Russell Simpson, Arthur Lubin, and Edwin Brady.

McCoys in the role of an Australian stranger, uses for his weapons the Australian skills with which he performs many feats, such as disarming and "tying a man" at long range, and the booming, which he handles with a precision and with which he makes a sensational escape from pursuing troopers.

McCoys was trained in the use of these weapons by "Shook Baker," a brother of the famous "Foxy" Baker, Australian sportsman.

Do these two things to avoid "flu"

Keep your system in good condition; also protect your nose and throat.

There's no need to get panicky, because the papers are full of news of an influenza epidemic. There's no use in isolating yourself because a lot of other people are sick with it. If you take certain simple precautions every day — and then don't worry — the chances are you will throw off any "flu" germs you are exposed to, and keep well.

We're not recommending that you dose yourself with a lot of medicines, either. Just observe two common-sense health rules which can be easily followed.

First of all, make sure your system is in first class order. Don't let it get slowed up or sluggish. See to it that it functions perfectly. The easiest way to get run down and in a condition to pick up disease is to neglect this important matter.

Physicians agree that, particularly in times of epidemic, purging by laxatives and cathartics is not advisable. Many doctors also state that excessive calumination or weakening of the system in any way.

Nujol can't possibly upset you or disagree with you. For it contains absolutely no medicine or drugs.

Get a bottle today at your nearest drug store and start taking Nujol tonight as an easy way to keep fit and to protect yourself against influenza.

That's the first precaution. Now for the second. Keep your nose and throat well protected with Mistol.

Dr. David says: "Mistol is in first class order. Don't let it get slowed up or sluggish. See to it that it functions perfectly. The easiest way to get run down and in a condition to pick up disease is to neglect this important matter."

IDAHO UNIVERSITY'S PRESIDENT DECLARES

Government Not Making Undue Expenditures, Dr. Frederick J. Kelly Asserts; Points Out Merits of Big Institutions

That the financial condition of Idaho is good and the state fund is prospering, that the state is not spending unusually large sums of money on the state government, the local government, or the schools; that a large increase of students is naturally to be expected from the number enrolled in high schools and that the program for the future should be such that the Idaho university will, in its merit attract to the state the best of their courses there, rather than to other states, were high points in the address of Dr. Frederick J. Kelly, president of the University of Idaho, at the banquet tendered to him and to university students and their parents at the Park hotel last night.

The address of Dr. Kelly, and the accompanying musical program were broadcast over station KGIQ.

To Speak in Gooding

Dr. Kelly will go to Gooding today to attend the annual meeting of Idaho Creamery operators, from there to Boise to attend Idaho State Wool Growers' association, which will convene the state poultry meeting at Caldwell.

Newell S. Wight, secretary of the chamber of commerce and chairman for the evening, introduced Superintendent W. B. Smith, who introduced Dr. Kelly in a brief address during which he complimented the president as a man proficient in both the theoretical and practical sides of education.

Dr. Kelly said that he had no use for the plea that parents should send students to any university simply because it happened to be in their own state. The university ought to be as good as the best from the educational point of view, but should aim no less at making the women and teaching them how to live.

Business Status Better

So far as state conditions were concerned, Dr. Kelly said that the yields and lower prices in several crops which cut down the profits of agricultural business, conditions were 740 per cent better for the month of November, 1928, than for a corresponding month in 1927. Retail prices for 13 commodities were 9.9 per cent greater than for the same months in 1927. Postoffice receipts for 1928 increased from $52,000 to $53,000 for the same period. Production of electrical power for Idaho in October, 1928, exceeded that of the same month of the previous year by 25.7 per cent, while in the nation the increase was 14 per cent.

Higher Education

Dr. Kelly then quoted statistics from the survey to show that the number of students in proportion to the population in higher institutions of learning is much below that of other states in the group, and the other hand the population of students attending higher institutions increases much more rapidly in this state than in other Western states during the last few years. He also pointed out that the relative difference of 11 per cent in favor of the other states in attendance in higher institutions of learning is a very significant factor as the students passed from high school upward, with the result that a great concentration of students would be imperatively necessary in Idaho.

Furthermore, while on the average 75 per cent of those who attend high schools and such institutions in Idaho, who prepared when they were students here this condition should be remedied.

Higher Education Budget

The budget for Idaho educational institutions for the present year, which has the approval of the governor, increases the amount of the budget presented to the last legislature, as account was taken for the condition of agricultural depression.

Appeal was made for cooperation in a program looking toward higher and secondary education, and the elimination of evils leading toward divorce and the breaking up of homes.

The musical program for the banquet consisted of selections by the Twin Falls high school orchestra; a clarinet solo, Bob Nixon, with Miss Allen Gahart as accompanist; a violin solo, by Miss Helen Parrott, with Mrs. A. H. Proctor, accompanist.

ENGINEER DISCUSSES IRRIGATION PROBLEM

Return to Apply Upper Snake River Water to South Side Than North, Says Steward

Other things being equal, it would be better to apply irrigation water of the Snake river to the south side than to that on the north side, was the substance of the statement made here last night at a meeting of stockholders of the Twin Falls Canal company by W. O. Steward, hydraulic engineer. Mr. Steward explained that the return flow of the water used for irrigation on the south side of the upper river would get back into the river while the return flow of the water on the other side would run away in underground streams, and while it would eventually reach the river, would not be available for irrigation purposes as water from the south side would.

Mr. Steward emphasized the fact that he was not stating or intimating that the land on the south side should be irrigated in preference to that on the north side since the point he suggested was simply that of the water in the situation, but simply that, other things equal, this would be the better course. He mentioned several points of land on the south side of the upper Snake on which, in the event other conditions were satisfactory, spare water could be used to irrigate.

The tentative suggestion had no reference to water not used anywhere on the north side of the stream, Steward asserted, that those like the Twin Falls North Side segregation would be benefited by return flow to the stream above.

COLLEGE DAIRY DIRECTOR TO ADDRESS CATTLEMEN

E. W. Atkinson, Moscow, director of the University of Idaho, director of dairymen, will address the members of the Idaho State Dairymen's association of which he is secretary and treasurer, at a meeting of Jersey cattle owners, in the office at Twin Falls county fairgrounds, Flier, at 7:30 P. M. today.

Earlier in the day, Mr. Atkinson will address an annual meeting of the Idaho Creamery Operators' association in Gooding.

BROKEN QUARANTINE BRINGS JAIL TERM

J. C. Olsen Must Spend 15 Days in Cell For Leaving Isolation Ward to Attend Dance

Breaking quarantine to attend the opening of the new Mormon tabernacle at Twin Falls, Idaho, brought J. C. Olsen a 15-day term in jail for leaving his isolation ward to attend a dance.

An officer with warrant for Olsen's arrest was waiting for Olsen when he was released from quarantine in the hospital yesterday.

Several hundred persons were present at the dance which marked opening of the new tabernacle.

County health officers last evening promised that the penalty would be doubled for the next person caught breaking quarantine.

KIWANIANS CONDUCT JOINT INSTALLATION

C. A. North Discusses Outlook of Club at Session of Flier and Twin Falls Organizations

Members of Kiwanis clubs of Twin Falls and Flier, Idaho, met for a dinner in Flier last evening, instigated by the two clubs for the coming year. C. A. North, incoming president of the Twin Falls club, introduced by Judge O. P. Duval, Twin Falls, presiding officer, to the occasion.

R. H. Muser, retiring president of the Twin Falls club, reviewed his activities during the last year, and Guy H. Shearer, newly elected president of the Flier club, who has served as its executive since resignation of George E. Dougan, last fall, reported on the work of the Flier club and the aims and ideals of the organization as a whole. C. A. North, Twin Falls, contributed to gaiety of the occasion with a humorous talk.

Burning Comb Brings Visit From Firemen

Overheating of a celluloid comb that had been placed on a heater to dry, caused a fire of smoke that filled the residence of Henry Peters, 624 Second avenue east, and occasioned summons of the fire department at 10:15 A. M. The comb was totally destroyed, but no other damage was caused.

COURT CONTINUES TRIAL OF PROCEDURE IN EQUITY

Trial in the case of O. Tomita, Japanese farmer, against C. F. Johnson, landowner, before Judge A. B. Barcock in district court here was continued last evening until next Saturday after two days occupied with introduction of evidence.

The case now is on trial as an action in equity on one of its phases which has to do with foreclosure of a chattel mortgage given to Johnson by Tomita in the spring of 1927 to secure payment for advances of money and seed.

AL JOLSON TO APPEAR IN TWIN FALLS FIRST TALK

Manager Completes Arrangements for Installation of New Equipment in Theatre

Al Jolson's famous "Singing Fool" is to be the first talking motion picture to be presented in Twin Falls. Al Jolson, manager of the Idaho theatre, announced on his return yesterday from Salt Lake City where he completed arrangements for installation of equipment for presenting the "talkies" in the Idaho theatre.

The talking picture, Mr. Koehler said, will show first on Washington's birthday, February 22, when the Idaho theatre is to re-open after being closed for two days to permit the installation of the Vitaphone and the Movie Tone equipment.

The Idaho is to be the first theatre in the state to be provided with this equipment.

Booking of "Submarine," an extraordinary feature picture, for early showing here also was announced by Mr. Koehler.

SHIPPER CHARGES OF VIOLATION OF LAW

Complaint charging Alvin Harbour, Twin Falls farm products dealer, with violation of Idaho farm products standardization law was filed in district court here yesterday by the prosecuting attorney's office at the instance of the state department of agriculture.

The complaint, which was signed by W. H. Wickes, chief field inspector of the state department of agriculture, charges that Harbour was on or about the first day of January, 1929, offered for shipment and actually did ship outside the state a carload of potatoes which potatoes were packed in containers not then and there branded "U. S. No. 1 Idaho select potatoes" or any other brand, or brands, as provided in the rules and regulations of the department of agriculture of the state of Idaho.

UNDERNOURISHED PUPILS WILL GO ON MILK DIET

January 14 was the date set for the opening of the winter milk program in the Twin Falls schools at a meeting of the general council of the Parent-Teacher association at the house of Mrs. M. J. Ostrander, 429 Fourth avenue north, at 2 P. M. yesterday. Undernourished schoolchildren will be placed on a corrective milk diet.

During the meeting, Mrs. R. W. Hiegele was elected vice chairman of the council. Members voted to include in the diet of the district meeting of the Parent-Teacher association before health conditions. The meeting was originally scheduled for December, and a second time for January.

IDAHO FALLS BURGLARS STEAL MEN'S CLOTHING

Burglars who broke into a ready body's store at Idaho Falls yesterday morning made away with 50 suits of men's clothing and 12 many kinds of various colors and sizes, officers here were advised yesterday.

Theft of a Studebaker sedan, 1928 model, that disappeared from Idaho Falls at about the same time also is charged to the burglars. The burglary is supposed to have taken place at about 2:30 A. M.

The sheriff at Idaho Falls and a posse were on a trail traveling westward from Idaho Falls when word of the burglary was communicated here by telephone yesterday forenoon.

GAME SITUATION IN IDAHO SATISFACTORY ANNOUNCES WARDEN

R. E. Thomas Reports 1928 As Most Successful Period of State Department; Public Favors Enforcement of Laws

(By The Associated Press)
BOISE, Jan. 3.—Idaho game wardens have no reason to complain of game and fish supplies in this state in the opinion of R. E. Thomas, state game warden.
In an annual review of the work of the department, Thomas declared that 1928 "has unquestionably been the most successful ever experienced by the state fish and game department, aside from an advance in the protection and preservation of wild life, the propagation of fish and the stocking of streams, much has also been accomplished in the way of securing important data on fish and game, the development of public sentiment favoring wild life conservation and the enforcement of the fish and game laws."
Game Seek Preserves
Effects of the game preserves on the Payette and Salmon rivers have become increasingly evident in the number of wild animals that have appeared in the timber areas adjacent to the preserves. Hunters have reported increasing numbers of animals where before the preserves were established. The number appeared to decrease and in some sections had become scarce. It is the opinion of the warden that the game department has placed professional hunters in the preserves to kill off predatory animals and during the last two years, 1074 coyotes, 52 eagles, 124 lynx, 26 bobcats and 37 wolves were killed.
Pheasants Beautiful
During the last two years upwards of 10,000 pheasants have been hatched out at the Lupton game farm for liberation over the state and the birds have become very plentiful, especially in southern Idaho.
Virtually the entire state was closed during the last year against shooting of sage hens, blue-ruffed and other tall grouse with the result that a con-considerable increase in these birds has been noted.

Sportsmen's organizations have been zealous in preventing loss of trout through drainage of canals in the fall and hundreds of thousands of the fishy game have been salvaged when the sportsmen arrived.
Further increases in the number of trout in the streams and lakes will come from the improved farming lands, Thomas said. Hatcheries in both North and South Idaho have been materially improved and enlarged so that fishermen are promised ample trout for future sport.

BILL PROPOSES PURCHASE RIGHTS OF PUBLIC LANDS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—After a conference with the commissioner of the general land office and Mr. McGowan, the general land affairs, Congressman Addison T. Smith has announced that he will introduce legislation giving preference right of purchase of unoccupied non-mineral public lands to owners of adjoining land not exceeding 320 acres to any one person.
Under existing law, preference right for grazing is given in national forests, to owners of lands adjoining or near to national forests, and it is believed a law such as Congressman Smith proposes will be a great benefit to land owners adjoining unoccupied public land which would be useful for grazing purposes.
It is not only to the advantage of the country and state in which public land is located that it should pass into private ownership and be placed upon the list but the law would bring into the reclamation fund a large amount of money annually which could be used for the completion of existing reclamation projects, Congressman Smith believes. There are a great many isolated tracts of public land lying between holdings as well as great quantities of land adjoining these holdings which will doubtless be purchased under the law suggested by Congressman Smith if it is enacted.

COOPERATIVE BUTTER MAKERS SET RECORD IN INDIVIDUAL PROFITS

Of Every Dollar Paid by Consumer, Idaho Creamery Returns 89 Cents to Members; Production Costs 11 Cents

BOISE, Jan. 3.—Out of every dollar paid by consumers of butter manufactured by one cooperative creamery in Idaho 89 cents is returned to the producers of butter, members of the association. This is believed to be a world record. Costs of marketing, freight charges, overhead and general outlay for manufacture all amount to only 11 cents. The present year will show even greater figures, for from January 1 to November 1, 1928, the leading aggregated 1499 cases.

Industry's Growth Rapid
In 1921 only 49 cars of butter were shipped. For 1927 the movement was 421 cars shipped in 1927 compared with 421 cars in 1927; 13 cars of eggs in 1921 and 210 in 1927.

Industrial development in Idaho in recent years has been marked as that of dairying and the milk industry and none has been more profitable to those engaged as producers in the industry.

The president made some years ago by A. Kratt of the Kratt Cheese company that Idaho would eventually take rank among the leading dairy states of the union is being rapidly fulfilled.

Since that time in conjunction with the agricultural extension department of the University of Idaho, and the state department of agriculture, and the Union Pacific has operated dairy trains throughout the territory it serves in southern Idaho.

The results as shown by the statistics covering shipments have far exceeded the most sanguine expectations of those who planned this march towards prosperity for Idaho.

Puppet Shows Old
The origin of puppet shows is lost in antiquity. They were introduced into the Orient and thence to Europe. It is significant that the Sanskrit word for stage manager means literally "the head holder." The characters Punch and Judy were well known in England in the seventeenth century, and their origin can be traced to Italy of the late sixteenth century.

CAUCUS TO SELECT SPEAKER OF HOUSE

Fenn, Whitehead, Bottolfson and Sarborn Appear Favorities For Chief of House

BOISE, Jan. 3.—The next speaker of the house will probably be selected at a caucus of legislators late this week and present indications are that one of four men will be chosen. The men are Lloyd Fenn, Idaho county; Don Whitehead, Ada county; G. E. Bottolfson, Butte county; and John Sarborn, Gooding county.

Establish Preference
Selection of Fenn for the speakership would establish a precedent set by his father and grandfather, both of whom were speakers of the house in their time, and one of whom took part in the constitutional convention. Fenn is a versatile man, for besides being editor of the Kootenai Mountaineer in his home city of Kootenai, he is principal of the school there. Moreover he is well informed in several other branches of industry. He is a graduate of the University of Idaho and has extended his education continuously since.

Whitehead, studied engineering while at school but swung his course around in the last year of school to include considerable training in pharmacy. He served two terms in the legislature. In 1917 and 1919, but other than this has been in political life. As a legislator he promoted the good road program and public health affairs.

Bottolfson, editor of the Arco Advertiser, has spent several seasons in the legislature, both as member and clerk. During the last two sessions he has been clerk of the house. He has been upwards of 25 years in his own "game" of newspapering. He is credited with publishing a very active newspaper.

Favors Conservation
Living in the center of the big game country of the state, he has promoted game preservation measures in the legislature and as well has been interested in the state's road program. Much credit is given him for promoting the Craters of the Moon, that volcanic stretch in South-Central Idaho that yearly is drawing an increasing number of tourists and scientific.

John Sarborn, Itagerman, studied law at Columbia university and returned to Idaho, switched occupations and became one of the state's progressive farmers. He has been very active in politics and has served many years in the legislature. He was chairman of the state affairs committee in the last legislature, the ranking committee of the house, and was floor leader for his party. He has been a successful agricultural registrar through his several terms and has been a powerful figure in the house.

All four of the contenders for the office are close personal friends and it is not anticipated there will be any difficulty in settling the speakership in the caucus. And as the veteran legislator remarked: "They're all good boys; any one of them can do the work and after all, what does it matter."

Smith Celebrates Birthday

GOVERNOR SMITH passed his last few hours of his term in the executive mansion in Albany December 30 by celebrating his fifty-fifth birthday. He is shown with Mrs. Smith while cutting his birthday cake.

Christensen, one of the early settlers on the Mindoka tract. He owns a farm six miles southwest of Burley, which has been rented to A. J. Anderson for over 10 years. Since leaving, Christensen has not collected his rent from Anderson, nor has he paid taxes on his place. According to Thalmann, Christensen had been in the habit of wandering from place to place, but has never before remained away for so long a time. He usually carried considerable money home with him, and Thalmann has frequently worked in the mines, and was also familiar with cement work. Friends of Christensen here state he has always kept his taxes paid herebefore, and that he was prompt in meeting his obligations.

The most important ingredients in this oil are geraniol and citronellol, which together make up as much as 83 per cent of the oil.

Geologic Formations
Dummit's are elongated or oval hills of glacial drift. Normally they are composed and unstratified, with the outer layers parallel to the direction of the movement of the transporting ice. These geologic formations abound in Wayne, Cayuga and Oneida counties, New York; in Dodge and Crawford counties, Wisconsin; and in Massachusetts.

Never varies in fine flavor

Whether it is your 1st tin or your 61st -- it never varies. If you think it varies -- your money back -- read it on the tin.

Schilling

A quality that never varies comes only from methods that never vary. That's why cheap coffee-making and fine coffee-making do not belong together. There is one coffee roaster who specializes on fine coffee-making only. No 2nd or 3rd grades--no cheap blends--ever enter or leave those fragrant roasting rooms--the only place in America where that is true. There is no divided interest--no confusion of quality. That's why Schilling coffee is the one that never varies in fine flavor.

WHEAT VALUES TAKE DOWNWARD COURSE

Closing Quotations on Bread Cereals Unsettled; Corn Market Goes Higher; Oats Unchanged

CHICAGO, Jan. 3 (AP)—Wheat that Argentina is underselling North American wheat in Europe by as much as a bushel went far today to send wheat values here downward. In decided contrast, the corn market tended upward, owing largely to evidence of active transatlantic demand for corn from the United States.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled, due to net lower, count on the part of the Argentine wheat, which was a check in wheat quotations at Liverpool, whereas an advance there had been looked for. However, a check in wheat quotations at Liverpool, whereas an advance there had been looked for.

WOOL-GROWERS PLAN ANNUAL CONVENTION

Committee Rapidly Completing Program For State Session in Boise; Expects 500 Men

BOISE, Jan. 3 (Special to The News)—The program for the annual convention of the Idaho Wool-Growers' association, which will be held in Boise, January 9, 10 and 11, is being rapidly lined up. Preliminaries of the convention start Tuesday morning when registration of delegates will begin. The first meeting is at 2:30 P. M. at the Owyhee hotel when the various representatives of the county will meet. They will work out reports on former pastings of three wool and will outline program for 1929. This polling of wool and lambs from the small flock makes it possible for growers to realize market value for their wool and lambs. The reports of this committee will be incorporated in the reports of the regular annual meeting. A marketing committee of the Idaho Wool Growers' association.

Committees to Meet
At 5 P. M. the State-Lake quilters will meet in the lobby of the Owyhee hotel and there will also be a meeting of the Boise orchestra. At 10 P. M. the 10 general committees will meet and arrange their reports, which they will work out the reports and recommendations to be laid before the convention during the next two days.

Wednesday from 8:30 until 10 A. M. registration of delegates will continue. At 10 A. M. promptly, President R. O. Rich, Burley, will call the convention to order in the hall provided in the basement of the Owyhee hotel. After music and invocation, will be the address of welcome. This will be answered by prominent stockman. The president's annual address will then be given, followed by the secretary's annual report. Frederick J. Kelly, president of the University of Idaho, Moscow, will discuss "Interest of Sheepmen in Education."

Health Service Nurse
WEDNESDAY, afternoon—the subject of taxes, cost of production, and wool marketing will be discussed by available speakers. Mr. Draper, of the firm of Draper and company, Boston, will speak on wool. R. H. Hanzbarth, president of the national association, will speak. In the evening will occur the big annual banquet with Jess Hawley, Boise, acting toastmaster, and an outstanding Eastern market man as speaker. There will also be the acknowledgment of visitors, secretaries and presidents from other state wool growers' associations. There will be music, skills and entertainment.

The convention will open on Thursday with the consideration of the forest range and public lands, predatory leasing, land marketing and advertising. D. W. Hartzell, who has been engaged in lamb advertising work for the last year and a half, will give a demonstration and talk. The nominating committee will be appointed during the afternoon and last session of the convention, stock yards and transportation, labor and hay, and resolutions will be covered by the reports of the committees. Election of officers will be held. That night boxing match has been arranged at the Elks Temple which will be followed by the annual woolgrowers' festival ball.

Reduce Fare
The Oregon Short Line railroad and the Oregon and Washington lines of the Union Pacific system have arranged round trip fares of one and one-half rate. These rates will be good from January 3 to the return limit January 15. This will give all sheepmen of Idaho an opportunity to attend the convention and also time for those who wish to attend the Oregon and Washington conventions. There will be a large attendance numbering around 500.

BUHL WILL BE HOST TO WEST END GRANGES

BUHL, Jan. 3 (Special to The News)—Saturday will be Orange day in Buhl. "West End Granges" have invited all granges of the West End to attend a basket dinner and installation of officers. Buhl's Orange Master Deal will be present and deliver an address. Rev. P. E. Bartlett will uphold the affirmative and Miss Alpha Smith the negative side of a discussion of the proposed county unit system of school administration. A program is being prepared for the remainder of the afternoon.

Earth's Gravitation
The Naval observatory says that there is no limit to the distance to which the earth's gravitational pull extends, but its amount decreases in proportion to the square of the distance from the earth's center. At the distance of the moon it is about 1/1600th what it is at the earth's surface.

STATE CHAMBER TO CONVEGE AT BOISE

Result of Referendum Tax Ballot Will Be Feature of Annual Session; Hear Reports

BOISE, Jan. 3 (Special to The News)—The third annual meeting of the membership of the Idaho State Chamber of Commerce will be held in Boise, January 17. It is announced in a statement of Ralph E. Thomas, secretary. An interesting program has been arranged and a large representative attendance is anticipated.

One of the important subjects which will come up for consideration will be the result of the ballot on the various tax questions presented at the general conference held December 13 and 14 under the auspices of the state chamber. A referendum to the people of the state is now being conducted and ballots will be in by the time the annual meeting convenes. On the basis of the opinions shown in the ballots the board of directors of the state chamber will make recommendations to the legislature which will be in session then.

Committees to Report

Reports of permanent committees engaged in carrying on the active work of the chamber will also be made at this meeting. Selection of three directors is one of the important business functions of each annual meeting. The board consists of nine members—three from northern Idaho, three from eastern Idaho and three from western Idaho. Each year the term of one director in each district expires according to the by-laws and after nominations from each district have been made, directors are elected by the vote of the whole membership.

State Chamber Directors

Directors of the Idaho State Chamber of Commerce together with the date of expiration of their terms follow:
Northern Idaho—P. W. Mitchell, Nezperce, January 1929; E. W. Trifman, St. Maries, January, 1930; L. F. Parsons, Moscow, January 1931.
Eastern Idaho—J. T. King, Pocatello, January 1929; John McMurray, Oakley, January 1930; M. R. Yeaman, Idaho Falls, January 1931.
Western Idaho—G. W. Patch, Payette, January 1929; R. E. Shepherd, Jerome, January 1930; T. L. Martin, Boise, January 1931.

Vacancies on the board of directors shall be filled by the board of directors or a quorum thereof, provided, however, that all vacancies shall be filled by the election of members resident of the districts in which the vacancies occur.

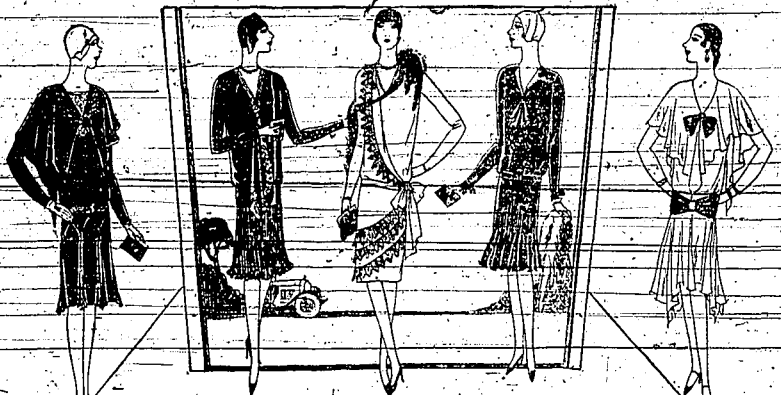

BOY IN BURLEY FAMILY VICTIM OF MENINGITIS

BURLEY, Jan. 3 (Special to The News)—A young boy in the Vasquez family, north of the railroad track in Burley, is suffering from meningitis. County commissioners meeting as a board of health, with Dr. A. P. O. Nelson and Dr. Joseph Fremstad, concluded not to establish a public quarantine. It was decided that the situation was not serious and that it was not deemed wise to establish a quarantine inasmuch as the case was a sporadic one and no epidemic was present.
