RANCHERS SEEKING AID FOR EARLY SPRING WORK

Commerce Chamber Serves As Employment Bureau Until Re-opening of Federal Office

Signs of coming spring have been detected by Secretary Newell S. Wright of Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, in development of demand for help among farmers who are looking ahead in their preparations for spring work. A number of applications of this kind have been received during the last few days at the chamber offices where, Mr. Wright stated, employment service will be maintained pending re-opening of the federal employment service office here.

These and other manifestations indicate to the chamber secretary a disposition among farmers of the region generally to launch programs of spring work at the first moment upon conditions permit. Under these circumstances it was advised that persons who were farmers work in touch with the chamber at once.

STATE COURT TO DECIDE VALIDITY OF ATTACHMENT

Idaho's supreme court has been called upon to pass on the question of validity of an attachment levied against a farm crop to secure payment of an irrigation district maintenance assessment. This is the first time the supreme court has been called upon to decide upon the validity of an attachment levied against a farm crop to secure payment of an irrigation district maintenance assessment. The case involves the Miller-Low-Lite Irrigation district sought to enforce collection of a maintenance assessment against Ernest Egan, owner of the property under the district's jurisdiction. B. T. Hamilton, attorney for Egan, raised the question in a demurrer that was sustained by Judge W. A. Babcock in district court here, and S. L. Hodgkin, attorney for the district, yesterday filed notice of appeal from the district court's ruling. The levy was made upon the crop because it was grown on unpatented lands. A similar situation is said to exist with reference to a number of other settlers of the district.

With cast and chorus composed of 75 Twin Falls young people, including some of the community's best known players, singers, dancers and musicians, the musical comedy "The Merry Men" will be presented for the first time in Twin Falls in the high school auditorium this evening.
The play is to be presented this evening and tomorrow evening by the American Legion—Women's Auxiliary for the benefit of the community memorial building fund.
A party of interest in the undertaking, as well as the merit of the offering itself, seems likely to be reflected in audiences crowding the capacity of the auditorium.
Members of the cast and chorus have given much time to preparation for the production, which, on that account, is to be without hitch and with an unusual degree of finish.
Advantage is to be taken of possibilities of the school auditorium for production of beautiful and unusual lighting and scenic effects so that delightful surprises in this respect is promised to the audience, and a number of spectacular scenes which characterize the play will be presented to the best possible advantage.
