Twin Falls Girls Defeat Rupert, 18-14; Bruins Win, 43 to 6

COEDS PARTICIPATE IN BITTER BATTLE; BOYS' GAME UNEVEN

Invading Blue and White Aggregation Walks Away From Contest in East End From Opening; Improvement Noted

Twin Falls high school basketball teams played at Rupert last night and won both ends of a double-header, the girls taking their game, 18 to 14, and the boys running away with their end, 43 to 6.

It was a cold and hungry bunch of Twin Falls girls who took the floor. A long, snowy ride over roads only recently broken through the snow made arrival at Rupert so late that no lunch could be had before the game. By the time the Twin Falls girls could get warmed up Rupert had an 11-to-2 lead, and was still ahead at the half, 11 to 10. In the second half running was so close by both teams that points were few and hard to get. Rupert was ahead until the last minute of play, when Twin Falls tied the score and ran out to win 18 to 14.

Floor slippery
The Bruins took the floor with the chills warmed out and ran away with Rupert. The floor was slippery, but this seemed to trouble the Rupert players more than their opponents. At the half Rupert had a 11-to-2 lead, and was still ahead at the half, 11 to 10. In the second half running was so close by both teams that points were few and hard to get. Rupert was ahead until the last minute of play, when Twin Falls tied the score and ran out to win 18 to 14.

STRIBLING DEMANDS SOUTHERN REFEREE

Dempsey Calls Conference to Settle Matter of Sectional Representation

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 6 (AP)—While Jack Sharkey and Young Stribling look training camp today, problems centering around the ideal man in the ring when they mix it at Flamingo park, February 27, improved as "Pat" Stribling entered a protest against the failure to include a southerner in the list of refs.

Jack Dempsey, the promoter, stepped to the fore and called a conference with Jimmy Buckley, manager for the Boston salaried, and "Pat" Stribling when the matter of sectional representation will be thrashed out.

Sharkey was scheduled for a training bout at his arena in the Miami Beach Royal club this afternoon, but after a crowd of admirers and a group of newspapermen had waited for some time, word came that the Boston salaried had forgotten about his training date and was playing golf on a Miami beach golf course.

SEATTLE BANS BOXING DUE TO BOXER'S DEATH

SEATTLE, Feb. 6 (AP)—Boxing was put under an indefinite ban in Seattle today by Mayor Frank E. Edwards as a direct result of the death here last night of Eddie Cartwright, 22, Portland negro pugilist.

Cartwright was knocked out during a preliminary fight and died in a dressing room 20 minutes later. Doctors said he died as a result of hitting the canvas.
Boxing in this state has no legal status, as it is forbidden by state laws. Efforts have been made at every session of the legislature in recent years to obtain a law which would permit six or ten-round matches.
"Mayor" Edwards later amplified his attitude toward professional boxing by declaring that the ban "probably will remain in effect until boxing is legalized."

BASKETBALL TOURNEY TO BE IN KIMBERLY

Officials Set Time for Sub-District Competition; Notes Teams Go to District Teams

EDEN, Feb. 6 (Special to The News)—With road conditions unfavorable last Saturday, the meeting of coaches and superintendents representing the class-B boys and girls basketball teams of the South Side sub-district was not held as planned. Arrangements for the holding of the sub-district tourney were planned after consultation of coaches over the long distance telephone with officers of the district athletic association. Superintendent Gibbs, Kimberly, president of the association, asked that the tourney be held at Kimberly on February 14, 15 and 16. This has apparently met the approval of the officials of the other schools in the district and plans for the tourney are now being pursued.

Official notice of the tourney is being sent to coaches and superintendents of each school included in the district by Secretary E. H. Smith, Eden, today.

Approximately 250 employees have gone off of the state payroll in conformance with Governor Louis L. Emmerson's retrenchment program, he announced today. The total annual saving will approximate $1,000,000, it was believed.

be the opening of the tourney with one girls game being played at 1 o'clock, followed that evening with two boys games. The following day the games will open at three in the afternoon with two games scheduled. Friday evening two boys and two girls game will be played. The finals will then be played off Saturday.

The winner and runner-up of the boys teams and the winner of the girls will represent this sub-district at the sub-district tournament of class B teams a week later at some place to be selected later.

According to the rules of the tourney a double elimination will be used in the boys games and single elimination for the girls. Each boys team is to be composed of not more than eight players, while the girls team are to be allowed 10 players. All eligibility lists are to be filed with Superintendent Gibbs at least three days prior to the opening day of the tourney.

Superintendent Gibbs' drawing to determine the order in which teams will participate in the first round of play resulted in Kimberly coming first, Gulliflow next, Eden, third, Holister, fourth and Hazelton last.

"I sure was right - I lit a Lucky"

"So many people have made a fuss over me because in rowing back to the 'America,' after we had picked up the 'Florida' survivors, I was smoking a Lucky Strike. I can't see why there should be any excitement about this—it was the natural thing for me to do. Before we started out from the 'America' I made sure that my pack of Luckies was with me—I wanted the comfort and pleasure of Luckies no matter what happened. I sure was right. I'll have to admit that after we picked up the 'Florida' crew and started back, my nerves were completely let down. So I did the thing I always do at such times—I lit a Lucky. As long as I live, I'll never get another kick as I did from the sweet old toasted flavor of that Lucky as we were tossing about on the old Atlantic. I'm a hundred percent when it comes to 'reach for a Lucky instead of a sweet.' I lay off the things that would make me flabby and light up a Lucky instead. There's too much action going on in my life to have me moving around with a lot of excess weight which I don't need. There's another thing about Luckies. The toasting process, in removing the impurities, is a blessing to us who follow the sea. It prevents throat irritation which is a constant nuisance to those who are regularly exposed to salt air."

NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES
FRIDAY, KING AND FRIDMAN, New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles

AN ODD CASE
Juvenile court officers here have been puzzling over what to do about a small boy who voluntarily bequeathed himself to St. Anthony with his own plea for admission to the State Industrial Training School.

The lad is one of a brood of boys and girls who have been reared by inspiring efforts of a devoted widowed mother. Two of his brothers, older than he, have completed terms at the St. Anthony school, both making good records there. One of them developed in the school's shops, a flair for carpentry and building, and is in line for steady employment and advancement in his chosen vocation. With the example of his brothers before him, the younger lad has conceived a keen appreciation of the value of training in the St. Anthony school. It represents to him the way to fulfillment of his own destiny. For a long time he had been accumulating a little fund of money. He had thought it all out for himself and when he deemed the time right, without consulting anyone, he took this money the other day and bought a railway ticket and presented himself at the St. Anthony school as a candidate for admission.

The superintendent ruled that the lad could not be admitted upon commitment by the court, and closed the gates of the school against him. Manifestly such a barrier had no place in the boy's plans and it must have come as a grievous disappointment. But the lad, who has already exhibited the suspicion he has shown may be depended upon to find some other way to his goal.

COSTLY CINDER PATH
New York, with all its lavish expenditure, regular and irregular, is not the most careless spender among American cities. That honor must go to Chicago.

This latest achievement in this line is a four-mile cinder path dignified by the name of "bible path" and intended as a minor detail of an elaborate roadway for garbage trucks to reach the municipal sewage disposal plant.

It might be supposed that such a thoroughfare, laid out over Chicago's level prairie surface and paved with cinders, would cost a whole lot. It develops, however, that the complete four-mile garbage-truck road has cost so far over $3,000,000, of which about $1,000,000 went for cinders and labor on that path. The original engineer's estimate of the cost of the path was $115,000. Lamps to light the trail cost $1,000 apiece. How could so much money be spent on such a simple project? Well, there are 4,000 political employees on the Sanitary District payroll, including clerks, investigators, inspectors, policemen, lawyers and legislators. And there were no contracts made for the work. The money seems to have been just paid out as circumstances determined. And you know how circumstances are, with a lot of hungry and hungry-looking political friends hanging around.

This sort of thing occurs pretty often in large cities. Small cities, as a rule, have more efficient government and get more for their taxes.

MANY FIRST-CLASS FLYERS
The International League of Aviators has been awarding air trophies to the leading flyers for achievements in 1928. The title of world's best aviator went to an Italian, Colonel Perrin, for his endurance records and for his 1928 record of 447 miles flight in 24 hours.

Costes and Lebriz, the two Frenchmen who flew around the world, all came in for special trophies. It is an evidence of the tremendous advance of aviation in all lands that there should be so many world-famed names on the honor list.

Secretary Wilbur immediately expressed regret at the termination of General Lejeune's service as commander.

The second division under General Lejeune had a large share in the St. Mihiel offensive in September 1918. It was the first of the post war units of cannon and military supplies. Later this division, operating with the Fourth French army crushed the famous Hindenburg line at Mount Blanc ridge which had been considered impregnable and forced the enemy to retire 12 miles to the Elmer river.

Sportsmen of Cassia County Save Ducks and Pheasants' Lives

BURLEY, Feb. 6 (Special to The News)—Pheasants have been fed at seven different localities in the farming district surrounding Burley. Clubs and sportsmen have circulated subscription lists to provide funds for the work.

During the first period of feeding, while the pheasants were weak, crows are reported to have done some damage. They attacked the weaker pheasants in relays, killed them and devoured their prey.

Ducks are being fed at two places, and have become tame enough to allow spectators to approach quite close. One mallard duck was picked up, his feet encumbered with baited snow, and carried to a local garage where he was allowed to thaw out his flappers in a tub of water. He was then given all the wheat he could eat for several days, when he succumbed, apparently from over eating.

About two tons of wheat have been fed out thus far to the ducks and pheasants by local sportsmen. The ducks have also helped themselves in one instance in part of a stack of barley that had not been thrashed. They burrowed into the stack like rabbits.

COUNTY AGENT AT BURLEY TO TEST SEED POTATOES

BURLEY, Feb. 6 (Special to The News)—Potato growers preparing to raise certified seed are advised by the county agent that there is a change to be put into effect this season by the method heretofore used in testing vitality and disease resistance of the tubers to be planted in seed plots.

Growers are asked to submit to the county agent not later than February 13, an 18-pound sample of the seed which they intend planting this season. These sample lots will be planted in the lower altitudes of the state, where the disease percentage and vitality of the tubers will be checked. Information as to the quality of the different seed lots will be available about May 1, in time to be of benefit to prospective growers, before their 1929 planting time.

Work will be given by the extension department at that time as to whether the samples submitted indicate that the seed from which such samples were taken is suitable for planting for certification.

Heretofore, these checks were taken at the Aberdeen sub-station, and results were not available in time to be of benefit before planting.

I staggered to my feet with Hugh's arm around me. In the doorway I saw Willing, a nightingale plucking around the fire for a hunk of bread. "Give him a crumb," Nikka said, and I picked up the electric torch which had been lying on the table and was examining by its light the body of a man slumped over on the floor.

FILER'S KIWANIANS HEAR METHODIST AREA BISHOP

Church Worker Recently Back From China Paints Word Picture of Oriental Conditions

FILER, Feb. 6.—At a well attended meeting of Filer Kiwanis club at its Tuesday evening session, W. L. Riedman, district superintendent of the Helena area of the Methodist Episcopal church and recently from China, gave a splendid address on the recent conditions in China and their international relationships. Bishop Brown painted a wonderful word picture of the resources of China and the development which may be looked for from the present trend of relations. His address was full of interest and of the great trade relations which are springing up between the United States and China and the tremendous increase which may be expected with the further development of the Oriental domain. He also touched upon the development of China which is being advanced by the great men of our own country.

ECONOMIC TREND OF AGRICULTURE TOPIC FOR NOTED SPEAKER

Rotarians and Guests Here Address by Dr. Robert Stewart, Nevada University College Dean and Noted Authority

Before an audience of more than 100 persons composed of Rotarians and guests, presided over by Dr. C. R. Scott, president of the Twin Falls Rotary club, assembled at a banquet served by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church in the church banquet hall, Dr. Robert Stewart, dean of the College of Nevada, last night discussed the current economic trends in American farming.

There is widespread discontent among the rural population of America, declared Dr. Stewart. "Approximately one-fourth of the farmers in the United States is engaged in agricultural pursuits, and they receive only 13 per cent of the national income. This is a situation which has never before existed in any nation and varied. The condition is rapidly being corrected by the operation of the fundamental forces, but the process is causing real distress to those most vitally affected. The decrease in land rented to farmers in the area of over 13,000,000 acres during the five-year period—1920-1925—and the marked decline in rural population are the two factors which are the fundamental change which is occurring in agriculture. The condition of agriculture is slowly being improved by better methods of financing management, improved marketing, adoption of more efficient methods, and the formation of larger productive units. Help may be legitimately offered the agriculturalist, such as that which is freely offered other lines of industry by the development of markets, promotion of orderly marketing of farm products and the production of an equitable system of taxation whereby the unjust burden of taxation may be removed from agriculture.

Urges Greater Efficiency Dr. Stewart took issue with the "conception that the ideal farming system is one based upon the intensive production of the small land owning operator, and that centralization is impractical and undesirable." "The larger farm units, in harmony with industrial experience everywhere, are distinctly the more successfully declared. His suggested greater efficiency in agricultural production. To a considerable extent this has been accomplished. The speaker said. A feature of the situation he declared to be the fact that with the introduction of machinery and better methods one farm family produces as much as two families can consume. "This has made it possible for two kinds of the population to do some other kinds of work. The farmer became a purchaser of manufactured articles thus creating a new market for the products of the city civilization. It is to progress, there must still be a continued movement from the farm to the city," he declared.

Urges Improved Financing Improved methods of financing are urged by further extension of credit banks and federal land banks. Declaring that conditions make it impossible to do what is a reasonable profit plus cost of production means, owing to variety of conditions," he added. "On four farms in the winter wheat belt the yield was less than five bushels per acre and the cost of production $5.14 per bushel. On six farms the yield was over 25 bushels and the cost of production $1.47.

What possible machinery, governmental or otherwise, could be established which would permit all farmers to obtain cost of production plus a reasonable profit? The farmer on marginal land and the marginal farmer on good land must give away in the relentless competition.

"I could of told Papa what boy busted the school house window, but he told me not to bother him with my little troubles."

With the efficient producer on good land. As he is slowly forced out of business he adds to the number migrating from country to city. As competition becomes keener more and more of this type of farmer will be forced out of business and fewer farmers will produce more and more farm products.

State Department Engineer Reports Clearing of Roads at American Falls and Albion

Idaho highways that have been blocked by drifted snow for about 10 days have been opened again, John H. Simons, state highway district maintenance engineer, stated here last evening. State plows completed clearing of the road west of American Falls and made a path through to Albion, which had been cut off for several days and where some alarm had been expressed over diminishing fuel supplies. Both of these roads were declared to be passable last evening, although neither one was in first rate condition. It was stated. Motor stage service westward from Pocatello will be resumed this morning, it was announced yesterday.

LARGE INCREASE IN BEAN ACREAGE SEEMS PROBABLE

An increase of from 5 to 10 per cent in the area devoted to bean raising in southern Idaho in 1929 over 1928 is to be expected, according to reports by E. V. Gilson, district deputy federal and state inspector, at the close of a survey of the crop still unmarketed on the North and South Sides of the Snake river.

Relative to the supply on hand, Mr. Gilson said that there are about 175,000 sacks of the Great Northern variety left to be sold, and about 45,000 sacks of 65,000 cars, saved for seed. There are less than 20 cars of Red Mexican beans, 800 sacks of Pintos, and 2000 sacks of Butterfins in the district surveyed, including seed.

An increase of from 5 to 10 per cent in the area devoted to bean raising is probable this year, Mr. Gilson estimates. He says that grading, according to government standard, is increasing in popularity. Three years ago only 212 inspections were made; in 1927 the number increased to 578, while so far 691 inspections have been made of the 1928 crop. Growers and dealers may both have inspection. The survey which was finished yesterday was made at the request of number of dealers and shippers, and everybody cooperated in giving information.
