Spring Showing of Early American Historical Events in

MALLISSONS SILKS

Reproduced on Pussy Willow or Crepe

Life of George Washington

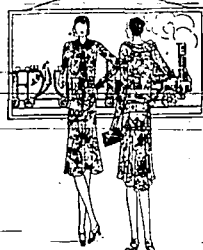

In this inspiring pattern, the father of our country is shown in connection with such historic incidents as

- Washington taking command of his army "under the elm" in Cambridge, Mass.
- At Valley Forge.
- Washington and his mother, Leavins, Mount Vernon.
- His arrival in New York for inauguration as president of the United States and the inaugural ceremony at Federal Hall, corner of Wall and Broad Streets.

Incidents and figures in this exceedingly interesting period in the early development of our country are artistically worked into the Betsy Ross and Liberty Bell pattern. In the design you will be able to find the

- The ride of Paul Revere to alarm the patriots of the British advance.
- Signal from the belfry of the old North Church by lantern to indicate that the British were advancing by sea.
- In climbing the ladder to the belfry, the sexton disturbs the pigeons which fly around in fear.

SPRING

Spring's return brings to Twin Falls citizens, individually and collectively, another opportunity to claim generous rewards on judicious investments.

Advantages of growing things about a building are pretty well recognized as well from the material as from the aesthetic point of view.

Much in this direction already has been accomplished in Twin Falls, but it is certain that great opportunity remains for further improvement.

JUSTICE

The law is often rendered a ridiculous thing but perhaps never more so than in the case of a New York taxi-driver, who after depriving a would-be helpup man of his gun, was arrested for illegal possession of a weapon when he turned the captured pistol over to a policeman.

But the arrest was a matter of record and upon the magistrate's decision that he was compelled to hold the prisoner in default of a five hundred dollar bond.

MARRIAGE MARKETS

"Greina-Greens" are usually associated with romance. The Russell Sage Foundation, after studying this class of institution as found in America, calls them, more practically and truthfully, "marriage market towns."

"Fully seven such towns have been found in 22 states and draw more than half their matrimonial candidates from outside districts."

SETTLERS IN COURT WITH ATTACK UPON DEEP CREEK LEASE

Salmon River Canal Company's Board Called Upon to Defend Deal for Water Rights and Supplementary Supply System

Salmon River Canal company directors, Deep Creek Land and Water company, A. F. Craven and the Bank of Health, have been summoned to court in district court here next Friday to defend a lease and option to purchase the Deep Creek company's water rights, irrigation system and other property alleged to have been entered into by the Salmon River company last January 19.

In the meantime, a temporary restraining order was issued yesterday by District Judge Hugh A. Baker, Ruper, holding all proceedings under the lease and option. The order to show cause and temporary restraining order were issued upon application of Hugh Dodd and other Salmon River project settlers, through Porter and Taylor and E. L. Rasmussen, attorneys who appeared yesterday for cancellation of the lease and option, which, it is alleged, was executed through fraud and collusion and without authority of a majority of the Salmon River company's stockholders.

Rental Called Exorbitant Terms of the lease, which runs for 10 years and requires the company to pay $6000 a year rental, are attacked in the settlers' complaint as being exorbitant. Actual value of the property is alleged to be not over $10,000 and annual rental value would not exceed $200. Deep Creek water rights, it is asserted, have no appreciable value as a supplemental water supply for the Salmon River project, and purchase of the Deep Creek rights and property, it is contended, would constitute an additional expense and burden upon the Salmon River project.

The average depth of water available under the Deep Creek rights, it is asserted, will not exceed 400 second feet, and this amount, it is argued, is insufficient for irrigation of 800 acres of Deep Creek lands included in the property covered by the lease and option.

According to the complaint, the Salmon River company's directors already have deposited in escrow in the Bank of Health $5000 of the company's funds in payment of the 1929 rental under the lease and option.

Want Money Returned In addition to a restraining order of the lease and option restraining orders to prevent carrying out of its provisions, demand is made for any order requiring the bank to return this money to the canal company.

The suit has been instituted in behalf of themselves and all other persons similarly situated by Hugh Dodd, C. M. Gates, J. P. Belleville, Robert Rapp, E. Ingraham, Oliver Steward, F. C. Sanders, R. K. Alexander, H. C. Humphries, O. C. Paulson, H. L. Maxwell, O. A. Woge, C. H. Crays, Otto Warkner, Raymond Jones, E. H. Johnson and Glenn Thibbitt.

Salmon River Canal company directors named as defendants are Murray Brookman, Nelson Hayward, B. O. Davis, H. Troendly, W. W. Powell, C. I. Davis, Martin Knudson, L. E. Joelyn, Howard Holmstrom.

A meeting of all persons interested in issues involved in the suit has been called to be held in the Hollister schoolhouse Tuesday at 10:30 P. M.

COUNTY WILL BUILD HOME FOR INDIGENTS

Commissioners Award Contract for Material; Work to Begin As Soon As Weather Permits

Definite steps toward construction of new building on Twin Falls county general hospital grounds were taken yesterday when the county commissioners awarded contracts for furnishing building materials to the Ostrander Lumber company on its bid of $934. The bid was the lowest among those submitted by all Twin Falls lumber dealers.

Although designed primarily for housing indigents, the new building is to be erected as an addition to the hospital isolation wards and will be used as such whenever necessary.

The new building will contain eight two-room apartments.

When used for housing of indigent persons, the new building is expected to effect substantial reduction in the draft upon county funds for the care of indigents, out of which appropriation has been made heretofore for payment of rent on house occupied by persons receiving aid from the county. Upon completion of the new building, all indigent persons insofar as possible, will be housed under its roof.

Construction of the new building is to be begun as soon as weather conditions permit excavation and work on the local plank. A new boiler and return system is now on hand and will be installed within the next week.

COUNTY CONTINUING WAR AGAINST WEEDS

Board of Commissioners Declares Lines of Battle and Drafts All Holders of Land

Marking renewal of hostilities in Twin Falls county's continuing war on noxious weeds, the county commissioners yesterday issued an order for extermination of the prohibited weeds during the campaign opening June 1 and continuing to November 1.

The order calls for destruction of the weed by means of flooding or use of acids or other substance or by continuous cutting or cultivation.

It drafts into the service owners and holders of all infected lands within the county and demands active cooperation in the campaign under penalty provided by state law, which is quoted in the order.

The list of weeds against which the campaign is to be directed is as follows: Canadian thistle, quack grass, creeping spurge, Russian or tick seed, hoary cress.

Albion and Declo Teams to Fight for Class B Hoop Title

Upset Features in Series of Brilliant Games at Hazelton

Kimberly, Favorite Because of Showings in Tournament Unexpectedly Meets Defeat in Final Contest; 23 to 14

(Special to The News)
HAZELTON, Feb. 23—The last day's play of the B class basketball tournament centered on a decided upset when Declo defeated the Kimberly five in the final game, 23 to 14. This leaves Albion and Declo to fight for the championship in a later game, under the agreement that the loser of tonight's game was to be eliminated. The Eden girls took their championship hands by defeating the Paul sextette, 23 to 21.

In the earlier games of the day, preparing the way for what was expected to be a close contest, Kimberly overcame Albion 32 to 21, and Hazelton stepped on Castleford's heels by a count of 16 to 12. The Albion team Hazelton out, 34 to 16, and there remained Declo, which had drawn a bye, Albion, with one defeat at Kimberly's hands, and Kimberly.

When the big game opened Kimberly looked on the strength of previous games, and have the edge. Albion twice defeated Declo in the East End play, and Kimberly had had rather an easy time with Albion in the morning game. But the result was not impressed by the dope. They took Kimberly into high speed play from the start, broke fast, drove hard, and at the quarter had the score tied at 7 each, then went out to a single-point lead at the half, 12 to 11. Kimberly could not seem to get going in its usual way, and after the intermission Declo came back to rather 9 points in the third quarter to Kimberly's 1. That made the score 21 to 12, in Declo's favor, and as the best both teams could do in the last section was a pair of points each, Declo led the victory away, 23 to 14. The game was fast and sharp, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the spectators.

The Eden girls took their championship by turning in a nicely played and steady game that the Paul girls could not check. Eden had the advantage of the tip off rather consistently, and made the most of it, and when the ball did get away the Eden guards checked most of the efforts of the Paul forwards. Paul had a single point advantage at the quarter, but were caught quickly when play resumed, and from that point Eden drew steadily into an increasing lead.

In the morning game Hazelton and Castleford renewed their feud, this being Hazelton turn to win. Hazelton broke into a long early lead, having the west enders 10 to 0 at the quarter, and a runaway game was in prospect. Castleford did not like the prospect, and went back to work so earnestly that they held Hazelton to 6 points for the rest of the game, while gathering in 12 for themselves. That was not enough, and Hazelton won, 18 to 12.

In the afternoon Albion and Hazelton played. Albion got away fast and outpaced the Hazelton squad, 24 to 16. Horley, center for Albion, hit a scoring streak, running up 15 points for his team. Hazelton sent in Hawley to offset this, and Hawley got 10 for Hazelton. The east end players proved to have the most strength and took the game 34 to 16.

Kimberly's unexpected defeat is another instance of the upsets that a game of basketball can produce. There are two factors that can, and very often they do, send the apparently stronger team to defeat. Over-confidence and loss of fighting edge from lack of stiff competition. The Kimberly boys had an easy time in their own tournament, and in the morning game defeated Albion, which had twice defeated Declo. No hard, preparatory games to keep up their fighting edge. Once that edge goes away it is hard to recover.

Buhl Prepares to Receive Teams at District Tourney

Officials Improve Gymnasium For Battles to Be Staged at West End City; Squads Train for Stiff Contests

District Tournament week—and the court at Buhl is ready. The Buhl authorities have given the big gym a fine, new suit of paint that lightens the playing field so that it should be a real help to sharp fast vision. Those big beams of brownish red, against which a ball can't merge, and the ceiling and side walls, now show clear white. Back boards have been dressed, and finished so that the basket rings stand out as inviting targets for the ball shooters. As far as physical means can aid, the Buhl people have prepared well for their guest teams.

There remain, in the matter of attending teams, some uncertainties as to entry. Gooding is not yet sure whether they can overcome the trials of illness, pick up their interrupted play, and go on. If they cannot, then the Jerome girls will go to Buhl as the North Side entry.

Rupert withdrew from the East End sub-district has developed the tangle forecast a week ago. Snow and illness prevented the scheduled playing season—contests between the girls teams of Rupert, Burley and Oakley, and the result is that Rupert has played with Burley, and Burley with Oakley, but Rupert and Oakley have not played. There is no clean cut sub-district champion and winner yet. The agent of control, forced to this action because the sub-district had not worked out its own problem, prescribed what should be done by the district referees. He did not meet with Rupert's approval, for the reason that it would impose too heavy a series of games on their team—and it was "times" but a "condemning" day night between Oakley and Burley will decide the champion of the tournament. The game set for Monday night will be the last of the game will meet the Twin Falls girls Wednesday night on some neutral floor.

Brain Girls Determined
 The runner up honor in the Twin Falls district came to Twin Falls after a sharp argument with Piler on the Buhl floor. The Bruin girls showed increased strength as compared with the game they played that Buhl took away from them. Far from being disheartened by their defeat at the hands of the Indian maidens the Twin Falls squad came back to their work with a fine determination to make the most of the lessons learned, and to strengthen the weak spots disclosed by the Buhl game. In the game against Piler they were able to develop an attacking power good enough to win over the team that had tied Buhl ten days before. This game gave them new work to do, and the team went to Jerome to try out their further progress, and won by the largest total of any game this season. With the few days to concentrate on the things yet to be done, and a game coming with the East End runner up to put the game edge on the progress, the Bruin girls, if they reach the tournament, should be able to give a good account of themselves.

The boys' teams, except Twin Falls and Piler, have rather been marking time. Twin Falls went to Jerome to try out their defense. Piler took on Rupert and beat the team that bested them in their previous debate, and by a comfortable margin. Piler is the puzzle team of the district. At times it plays good ball, strong and fast, but the players have not been in all of the games, and have not hit the same speed when they were in. If all are available at tournament time, and if the team is in one of its playing streaks, Piler can cause much trouble.

Coaches Prepare Teams
 Against Jerome the Twin Falls boys found some wobbly spots in their defense that will be the subject of some careful work. The game was not too startling in scoring results, and looked "rugged" at times, but a "condemning" defensive policy is apt to cause rigid looking play. Defensive play, when strong enough, is less exhausting than the offense, and in any double defeat, elimination tournament, with the team personnel limited to 8 men, all legitimate measures for saving team strength—or may be important. Coaches are quite properly reticent as to plans and the conflicting tactics they are putting on their teams, but before the tournament opens, but it may safely be guessed that each coach and team is working in the light of what the seasons play against each of the teams has taught, and that game strategy and style of play will be carefully shaped against each opponent.

The matches, as drawn for the first day of the tournament, February 26, are:

BUIH vs BURLEY
OAKLEY vs TWIN FALLS
PILER vs JEROME
RUPERT vs GOODING

If the Rupert boys' team be withdrawn, as announced by Mr. Tweedy, that will be a source of regret, for the boys have been doing well, have fairly earned a right to be counted as a tournament factor. With Rupert out, it may be that some other team outside of the listed teams will be invited to fill out the list.

Nurmi-Disqualifies in Garden Race; Purje Sets New World Record

Flashy Finn Fails To Explain Reason For Not Appearing

European Wins Two-Mile Steeple Chase Championship Setting Time of 9 Minutes 55.25 Seconds in New York Garden

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 23—Paavo Nurmi of Finland failed to appear for his scheduled start in the two-mile steeplechase event at the national indoor track and field championships at Madison Square Garden tonight and was immediately disqualified for further competition in this country by the American Athletic Union registration committee.

Word was received at 9 o'clock from Nurmi that he is unable to compete. No reason was given. The committee met at once and took the drastic action which will keep the seven times Olympic champion from doing his stuff on American tracks until he explains his withdrawal to the union's satisfaction.

Nurmi previously had withdrawn from a two-mile flat event in which he was to have faced the redoubtable Edwin Wide, Sweden, deciding upon the steeplechase instead.

His place in the latter event was taken at the last minute, by Eino Purje, his youthful countryman, who had been scheduled to race it out with Wide over the two-mile flat.

Purje won the two-mile steeple chase championship, setting a new world's record of 9 minutes 55.25 seconds.

He then living up to advance notices that heralded him a second Nurmi, Purje clipped exactly 4 seconds off the world's best previous time made by Willie Fitch, New York, in 1925. Apparently tireless, he ran the rest of the field into the ground to finish 50 yards ahead of Ove Ahlerson, also of Finland, who was second.

A new champion was crowned in the very first event of the indoor title games.

Jimmy Daly, elite young sprinter from Holy Cross, returned Earl Wildermuth, Georgetown, as champion in the 60-yard dash, beating him out by inches in a hard fought final.

Ray Conger, conqueror of Nurmi here in the Millrose games, gained another brilliant victory, successfully defending his 1000-yard championship against the challenge of Sam Martin of the Boston Athletic association.

Conger won in 3 minutes 12.5 seconds, more than 2 seconds faster than his time of last year and only two-fifths of a second behind the world record held by Lloyd Hahn.

Running Leo Leonard, American's best standard-bearer, entirely off the track, Edwin Wide, Sweden's lone striding schoolmaster, carried off the two-mile championship on 9 minutes 7 seconds. A new record for the title meet.

Lernmond, defending champion, who has been suffering from a severe cold, dropped out after a mile and a quarter.

The championship record which Wide erased tonight was set at 9:10 3/4 seconds by Hie-Fish-Nurmi in 1925 at Louisville, Kentucky.

In one of the most hair-raising finishes the event has seen, Charles Engle, Yale, succeeded Laurence Rosa, a non-defending Eli ex-teammate, as 300-yard champion. The time was 33.15 seconds.

Charley Major, negro high jumper, who formerly competed for St. Bonaventure college, was crowned champion in his specialty with a leap of 6 feet 3 inches. Hal Osborne, Illinois Athletic club star, was second, 5 inches below this mark and George Wolf of Yale third with 5 feet 11 inches.

Jack Sharkey and Stribling Indulge In Fast Workouts

Batters Speed Up Training As Cool Weather Prevails; Bill Carey Concerned Over Madison Square Garden Deal

(By The Associated Press)
MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 23—Cooling breezes and an overcast sky, the answer to a gladiator's prayer in the Southland, injected new life into the drills of Jack Sharkey and Young Stribling today and probably kept doughty Bill Carey, now guiding Linden of Madison Square Garden court-operation, from giving in entirely to the harassing disclosures of the day.

Now that the battle of the everglades is just around the corner, with the fighters in perfect physical trim, unhampered by injuries, the arena built and the lighting system installed for the games Wednesday night, the even trend of events was broken by unofficial announcement here that the Garden corporation is arranging for the purchase of the New York Giants ball club in the National league and disclosure of a controversy over broadcasting of the coming heavyweight struggle.

Carey feels however, that publicity may spell the giant deal.

Deal Not Completed
 While Garden officials were willing to say unofficially that the deal for the purchase for $4,000,000 of the 75 per cent of the stock in the ball club, owned by Charles A. Stoneham, Francis X. McQuade and John McCraw, had been all but completed, word that the Sharkey-Stribling bout will be broadcast by the National Broadcasting association will not be made known officially until Monday.

Carey announced when the match first was made that there would be no broadcasting.

Cooler weather brought both batters to their workouts this afternoon full of fight. Sharkey was especially impressive in the two rounds he boxed with Johnny Gresso, New York heavyweight, while Stribling gave the finest display of his training period in two round workouts with Paul Cavalier, Paterson, New Jersey, and Marty Burke, lanky red head from New Orleans.

Bulldogs Gain Victory After Idaho Basketeers Take Lead in First Half of Fast Tilt

SPOKANE, Feb. 23 (AP)—Gonzaga University came from behind and defeated the University of Idaho, second place winners in the northern division of the Pacific coast basketball conference, 34 to 28, here tonight. The score at half time was 15 to 14 for the Vandals.

Leveaux and Bertila, Bulldog guard and forward, counted for 11 points at the start before the Vandals got under way, but Idaho rallied and scored 11 points before the Bulldogs counted again. In the last period, which developed into a rough and tumble contest, Gonzaga took the lead early and held it to the final whistle.

For no matter how much you are told about the wonders of this way of combating catarrhal conditions, or of the thousands who have been given complete freedom by its use—a real test—a chance to actually try it and its reaction—in your particular case is better than all explanations.

This treatment for catarrh—far freedom from that condition, relieves and forestalls many feared and distressing situations. A real test is better even than the real testimonials from those who have been given that wonderful relief. And when the offer of treatment has been tried, you will wonder why this wonderful method was never called to your attention before.

Dr. Coffee was national renown as a nasal catarrh and deafness specialist. His treatment for nasal catarrh, deafness and head noises and many of its complications, innumerable testimonials failed to better his condition.

Is This Your Condition?
He experimented until he found a way that gave him real and actual relief in a permanent way. Following this, he treated literally thousands of sufferers in the same manner. Many have written, after completing the treatment, expressing thanks for their recovery from their various troubles from colds, nose, bronchial and throat discharges, from poisoned systems, foul breath, bronchial troubles and even rheumatism and intestinal troubles. All due, as they say, to their catarrhal condition.

Catarrh is a Handicap

Dirt and dust, from contaminated sections are deposited in the nose and throat with every breath. Much of it finds its way into the mouth, for nasal catarrh causes the disgusting, offensive nasal breathing. The impurities in this fluid which are deposited in the catarrhal fluid—the mucus—soon it finds its way into the body—and it is a strong condition indeed that can withstand the light, once it is started.

Thousands Recommend Dr. Coffee's Treatment

Don't miss this chance to make the acquaintance of this logical, scientific and purely medical catarrh treatment. A treatment, the worth of which is attested by so many who have written of their relief.

A treatment which has given complete freedom to thousands of sufferers as grateful letters will prove. It is the result of 45 years of active medical preparation and practice. More than four decades devoted to eye, ear, nose and throat work.

Slowly and carefully it was developed—until at last, after many thorough, painstaking tests, Dr. Coffee was convinced that he had the best treatment, the most effective course he had ever found. Its success in the past proves that it complies in its purpose. And it is free on trial to you, just send the coupon.

Free Trial Treatment

Dr. W. O. Coffee, for many years an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist in the middle west, developed this Home Treatment which has greatly benefited thousands of sufferers.

Sidelights on this Treatment for Ear Tubal Deafness, Head Noises and Nasal Catarrh

Literally thousands of people from different sections of the United States have used this special, original home treatment, and relief very readily. The peculiar relief from distressing head noises and restoration of good or normal hearing as well.

Contrary to the general belief, deafness and head noises due to ear tubal catarrh often find themselves to treatment and relief very readily. The peculiar construction of the ear in its relation to the nasal passages, both creates a condition which results in deafness and makes possible a ready relief when that is introduced. This was the basis of the home treatment as perfected by Dr. W. O. Coffee which has resulted in relief to thousands of sufferers from deafness and head noises from ear tubal catarrh, and from nasal catarrh itself.

Those who are just beginning to notice the hearing loss, their hearing in one ear and with the coming of a cold find the other ear affected are especially urged to try Dr. Coffee's Home Treatment. Many who are now stone deaf may have been able to hear again if their cases had been properly cared for at the first showing of disturbance of hearing.

Insurance authorities place deafness in the list of those defects which add to the risk of the insured life. Many railroad accidents, accidents in the street with automobiles and in practically every business, are due to deafness or dulness of hearing. This condition in many cases can be corrected—by the application of the Home Treatment. This form of catarrh is responsible for many, many cases of the deafness today, authorities state.

There is no obligation attached to this Home Treatment plan. It is simply a means of proving to the world that such a relief is possible. It is a relief from hearing and head noises from ear tubal catarrh and nasal catarrh itself. It is possible to try this treatment without any obligation. It is a relief from hearing and head noises from ear tubal catarrh and nasal catarrh itself. It is possible to try this treatment without any obligation. It is a relief from hearing and head noises from ear tubal catarrh and nasal catarrh itself.

Deaf Since Childhood; Hearing Greatly Benefited This Way

Mena Melville

Chronic and Acute Deafness Ends
Mrs. Mena Melville of Illinois, says, "This is to certify that since having acute fever when a little girl, I have been hard of hearing, and for the past four or five years I have been almost entirely deaf. A few months ago my left ear began to discharge. I found it to be abscessed and discharging a foul fluid. Nothing seemed to stop it and finally I tried Dr. Coffee's treatment. To my surprise and delight the hearing in the ear which was partially deaf for nearly 20 years has returned and the abscess has healed. Now I can hear a conversation six feet away. I believe it is the only time that I have been able to hear anyone speaking with deafness to try this treatment. I obtained relief in a short time."

Ear Tubal Deafness Successfully Treated by Simple Home Method

25,000 Trial Treatments Given Free for the Next 30 Days to Sufferers from Deafness, Head Noises and Catarrhal Conditions

Dr. W. O. Coffee, for many years an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist in the middle west, developed a treatment for deafness and dulness of hearing from ear tubal catarrh and for catarrh itself which has resulted in the restoration of hearing to hundreds.

Resting his treatment on the fact that in practically 90 per cent of the cases, loss of hearing is due to a catarrhal condition, Dr. Coffee by concentrating his efforts in that field proved that restoration of hearing is not a myth. Literally thousands of people from all sections of the United States have taken this original home treatment and have been benefited. Letters from hundreds of these people attesting to the effectiveness of the method are on file here.

Dr. Coffee never claimed that his original treatment would restore hearing to all cases of deafness, but he said it the deafness or head noises are caused from a catarrhal condition and the tissues of the middle ear are not damaged, the hearing should be restored to real good or normal. Basing his experiments in his office on this practical relief of these conditions, he positively demonstrated that the restoration of hearing to many severe cases is an easy, practical thing for the sufferer to accomplish for himself at home.

Literally thousands of people from different sections of the United States have used this original home treatment and many found relief from distressing head noises and restoration of good or normal hearing.

Tells of Development

Years ago, Dr. Coffee, himself, began to suffer with head noises, dulness of hearing and with catarrh. He was rapidly losing his hearing. It was bad in one ear and with every cold he would get bad in the other. Slowly but surely his hearing appeared to be leaving him. He naturally tried every treatment that he knew of, as deafness in his profession would have been fatal to his success. After a great loss of time and when two operations had failed to give permanent relief he calmed his fears and began to analyze the cause and effect of the trouble.

Having his treatment on the results of this study, he believed a system which he believed would remove the handicap of deafness if anything would. There was nothing magical about it. It was a logical method of treatment, and when a short time he began to improve. After some time, he was normal again.

If he did nothing spectacular, all he did was to slowly but surely remove the causes of the deafness and when the causes were removed, he was able to hear again.

Treatment Sent to Thousands

Acquaintances and friends of the doctor's lived here and taking away their cases, he was overwhelmed with requests for the method. To treat this number of people in the allotted to office hours would have been impossible and so he started to develop a home treatment. After careful consideration he effected a course which he believed to be effective. He allowed a number to try it at home with the assistance of a physician, and found that they could do the work with almost the efficiency and the good results that a doctor could.

Tells of Home Treatment

Changing the treatment and developing it further here and taking away their cases, after several years, the "home treatment" was perfected. Now it is possible for anyone who is suffering with just ordinary household surroundings, to treat themselves for relief of deafness, dulness of hearing or head noises from ear tubal catarrh.

500,000 Treated for Ear Tubal Deafness and Catarrh, by Home Method

A remarkable record was established by Dr. W. O. Coffee, for many years an eminent eye, ear, nose and throat specialist at Davenport, Iowa, who originated this treatment for deafness, head noises from ear tubal catarrh, and for ordinary nasal catarrh.

During his 45 years as a practicing physician, he probably established a record which no other physician in the country can match. The records show that more than 500,000 people suffering from deafness, head noises from ear tubal catarrh, and from nasal catarrh, have used this treatment. These people live in all sections of the country and have been treated, in the majority of cases, at home, using the home treatment for this distressing condition, as developed by Dr. Coffee.

The results of these different cases have been gone over and compiled, and the beneficial effects of this home system of treatment have been proved. When the average physician has treated fifty cases with one definite system of treatment, it is sufficient to demonstrate what it will do. Dr. Coffee treated thousands of such cases. Letters from people who have used this home treatment are on file here as proof of the wonderful results.

Explains Free Offer

To prove that this treatment is effective—that deafness, dulness of hearing and head noises from ear tubal catarrh, and nasal catarrh can be treated and relieved at home, 25,000 trial home treatments will be given away. The announcements are being made in newspapers throughout the entire country and quickly the free demonstration packages will be gone.

Those who are suffering with deafness, dulness of hearing or head noises from ear tubal catarrh, may try free, at no cost to them whatever, this original treatment. Even the parcel post charges are prepaid and the parcels arrive at the homes of the deafness sufferers free of all cost or obligation.

It Is Sent Free

So send the coupon in today. If you are a sufferer from deafness or head noises, from ear tubal catarrh, or simply nasal catarrh, which may cause you to become deaf, you will receive a free treatment for this distressing condition. Do this now—while this offer is before you.

Deafness Due to Catarrh of Air Passages

Authorities Blame Ear Tubal Catarrh for 90 Per Cent of Deafness Throughout the World

Free Trial Offer to All Sufferers

According to authorities who base their assertions on years of research and actual medical observation and practice, 90 per cent of the deafness in the world today is due to catarrh—ear tubal catarrh.

Not only is ear tubal catarrh which is really a development of nasal catarrh, blamed for deafness, but at its door are laid many other diseases, such as stomach catarrh, poisoned conditions of the body, and a generally diseased condition.

This May Be Relieved
This condition may be relieved. Dr. W. O. Coffee, a widely known specialist in the middle west for many years, developed a home treatment for deafness, head noises from ear tubal catarrh, and catarrh itself. Through his method, it is possible to remedy the catarrhal condition in many cases and make hearing practically normal once more. It has been proved that in many cases this is true.

A huge number have reported complete satisfaction.

Most of these sufferers have been people whose hearing was bad in one ear and was rapidly getting bad in the other. With every cold the hearing grew worse. This condition was relieved for many; relieved not only for the time but the catarrhal condition was bettered and in many cases all traces of disease were gone.

Deafness strikes at all ages and Dr. Coffee's home treatment has been used by people of all ages. By this method many who were apparently destined to go through life with the handicap of impaired hearing were made normal once more.

Dr. Coffee's Home Treatment for Deafness has been used by over 500,000 persons. It will benefit you likewise provided you are not totally deaf from disease of any kind, or from shock, or from any cause where the whole hearing apparatus has been entirely broken down.

Bills to Regulate Moral Issues Confront Idaho Legislators

EFFORT TO SHARPEN PROHIBITION LAWS' TEETH SEES DEFEAT

Senator Freehafer, Democrat, Payette, Runs Full Gamut of Majority Leadership to Win Partial Success in One Issue

BY PRESTON L. GROVER (Associated Press Staff Writer)
BOISE, Feb. 23—An inevitable as time, almost, this legislature has been asked to regulate moral issues by statute.

The issue came up under two headings—minor—and advertising of cigarettes. Both issues were raised by Senator Freehafer, Democrat, Payette, and the fiery legislator ran the full gamut of the majority leadership to force one of his issues part way to success.

The senator's attempts to sharpen the teeth of the prohibition laws met little favor during the week, for two of his measures were sent to their death under the title of "indefinite postponement," while similar measures were withdrawn in the house because sponsors of the measures, all republicans, decided the democratic measures in the senate would give the prohibitionists an opportunity to test their wares.

Fights Valiantly

Senator Freehafer fought valiantly for his two measures, declaring even the "split" of the constitution should not interfere with the kind of prohibition he wanted to see in the state. One of his bills would make possession of liquor-making equipment a misdemeanor, or otherwise would give enforcement officers authority to invade private premises on a warrant supported only by an affidavit of an officer that he "believed" the premises in question harbored a violation, either in the way of liquor or equipment.

constitution could not become law while he remained in the legislature. A similar fate met the other measure which would set up a special fund from liquor prosecution to be used in gathering more evidence to get more convictions. From a prohibition standpoint, Senator Freehafer insisted it was almost ideal but other legislators said such a fund should not be left in the hands of the sheriff without the county commissioners having some voice in its spending. So it joined its companion.

With his clearest bill, Senator Freehafer had more good fortune. The bill should not rightly be credited entirely to the Payette senator for 24 other senators attached their names to it as sponsors. The weight of this argument carried it over a passive report of the state affairs committee and another attempt to "taboo" it. Freehafer insisted that it be printed in the legislature might know its contents and his motion was carried over opposition of majority leadership.

The bill prohibited advertising of cigars either on billboards or over the radio. Jeering recommendations of some senators that the bill compel national broadcasters to "use short wave lengths so they wouldn't reach Idaho" were drowned upon by Freehafer. Suggestions that a similar measure in Utah had been held unconstitutional by the state's supreme court met with Freehafer's challenge.

"Surely the rights of property cannot be more sacred than the right of a man to walk along the streets without having the false lures of cigar advertising flaunted in their faces."

That feeling of distinction that comes to a man with a free pass to a prize fight or an opera doesn't seem to carry over to free use of a state automobile, it developed in the senate this week.

Attempts of some democrats to force across a bill providing that all state owned automobiles be branded "Property of State of Idaho" met with strong resistance from majority leadership, all republicans, decided the democratic measures in the senate would give the prohibitionists an opportunity to test their wares.

COLLARS SET FORTH YOUTHFUL DESIGNS

Secret of Slim and Simple Little Sports Dress Centers Around Wearer's Shapeliness

There is something decidedly youthful about these collars. As a matter of fact they present such a wide variation on the marine theme that they may be made becoming to a number of feminine types. Sometimes they are of capelike proportions, falling well over the arms at the front, and attaining greater width at the back. Occasionally they are regulation sailor collars on sports frocks. In other presentations the collar is recessed with the squared-off section at the front, and the knotted scarf at the back. And sometimes they are small and snug-fitting, with slightly flared cuffs, to finish a frock.

The secret of a slim and simple little sports dress is: Don't wear unless you have a good figure. Plainness of alpaca of a fancy weave, the straight skirt and plain pull-over blouse are finished with fringed—tulle collars, and cuffs garnish the neck and sleeves. All there is to the costume. Except for a slight draping around the hips, the dress is perfectly plain in the back as well as the front. The note of plainness is the spring revival of the favorite theme of smartly dressed women.

And while the collar and cuffs are a small item, they give the frock the chic that is so necessary.

Four Feminine Air Rivals

HERE ARE FOUR RIVALS of the air. Marvel Crosson (center), altitude flyer, is waiting for the official reading of her biograph to learn whether she bettered the record of Louise McPhetridge (below). mas holidays are under way. The people who make styles are almost as sure as the seasons in their unceasing production. Come peace, come war, good times or bad—the ideas for feminine adornment keep bubbling up, like an eternal underground spring.

While it looks so easy when the clothes pass in review in the front salons, the process behind them is a long, complicated one. The creation of a seasonal collection begins with selection of fabrics. In each establishment there is a designer, personally known as the couturier. Sometimes the couturier is a genius and sometimes not.

soft fall of rainbow silks and feather-light woolsens. With the job of material selecting done, designing commences. The big houses keep a staff of designers the year around. Sometimes the head of the house utilizes their ideas, sometimes not. Often they are used as the basis of suggestions. But the most original dressmakers work with silks, materials and mannequins, creating as the material drapes.

With their work perfect, a cotton pattern is cut to correspond to the dress or coat. That pattern is sewed up in the work room, tried on the mannequin for reconsideration. If it passes the model is cut from actual material. Then it goes to the work room, which is to be responsible for bringing it to life. Once finished it goes down to the head of the hive again, who accepts or rejects it.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23 (AP)—Bobby Trout, comely 22-year-old aviatrix, who once held the women's endurance flight record, looks forward to the time when all girls will fly. This day would be brought appreciably closer, she feels, if some woman would make a non-stop flight across the continent.

"I'm quite sure I could do it. Anybody could," says the girl who set a world's record after less than a year's flying experience and whose sustained flight of 12 hours and 11 minutes brought her total hours in the air to only 718.

SKIRTS TO CONTINUE AT REGULAR LENGTH

Styles at Early Spring Shows Remain Unchanged; Women Follow Dictates of Own Ideas

By BARBARA BEAUFORT (Associated Press Feature Writer)

PARIS, Feb. 23—For the first time in several months there is no talk of changing the length of skirts. Spring style shows held late in January exhibited skirts at the same level they have maintained for the past six months. While these January shows do not set a definite stamp on fashions for spring, their influence usually is sufficient to prevent later changes. Un-even hem lines kept their places in the scheme of things and evening dresses were marked by dipping even longer in the back than in winter fashions.

EUROPEANS DOUBTFUL IF MINORITIES EVER MAY BECOME PACIFIED

Indigestibility of Territory Transferred by Treaty of Versailles Source of Greater and Greater Uneasiness

By F. S. WADER (Associated Press Staff Writer)

PARIS, Feb. 23.—Indigestibility of much territory transferred by the treaty of Versailles is a source of greater and greater worry in European capitals. The treaty left 10,000,000 persons of minority nationalities under foreign flags. The recent decision of autonomists by big majorities to the French chamber of deputies from Alsace is said by close political servers to be a sign of what exists among peoples of other redeemed territories but which comes to the surface with less facility than in France.

Jugo-Slavia is pointed to as the country which after France is having the greatest trouble in bringing about harmony between the old and the new populations of the country. Aspire to Freedom The reasons are much the same in the two countries. The Croats, like a considerable element of the Albanian population, aspired to freedom from imperial domination. They promoted the union of different branches of the Slav family as an arm against the Austria-Hungary, but they did not put into their adhesion to the new Jugo-Slav government the enthusiasm with which they greeted their deliverance. The explanation most frequently given is that if, under Austrian rule, the Croats were held with a rather heavy hand, they did have their own parliament and their own local government. These they were obliged to give up when they joined their cousins, the Serbs, and they

German Finds True Meaning of Billion

GENEVA, Feb. 23 (AP)—A prominent German with a brain that runs to figures, asked a friend whether he knew how much German money must pay in reparations. "Do you guess how much one billion is?" he asked. "It is a thousand million," answered the friend. "It is more," said the German. "It is the number of minutes since the birth of Christ. They want us to pay in German marks 130 times the number of minutes since the beginning of the Christian era."

chanted under what they considered to be a too great centralization of the affairs of the kingdom of Belgrade. Linguistic and religious differences also entered into the problem in Jugoslavia. They do in Alsace. The Alsatisans also had their parliament and local government under the German empire. The loss of these local institutions, in the opinion of well informed people, had less influence on the development of autonomy in Alsace than in the problems of religion and the schools.

Wrested From France Alsace was wrested from France while Catholicism was still the state religion. She was allowed to practice that religion without hindrance by Protestant Germany. France, however, ever had since the loss of the province abrogated the concordat with the Vatican and separated the church from the state.

French political leaders, headed by Poincare, their president, have repeatedly found it expedient to reassure the Alsatisans after the armistice respecting the practice of their religion. Poincare at Strasbourg made the formal promise that the customs and traditions of Alsace, religious and otherwise, would be respected by France.

This promise was kept until 1924 when Edouard Herriot, on taking power, declared that the laws of the country, including separation of church and state, must be applied to the whole country without exception. He also declared that there must be an end to religious instruction in the schools. Italy has a grave problem in the

GOLDEN GATE, 1500 YEARS OLD, CRACKS

Constantinople's Greatest Historic Treasure Doomed Unless Repairs Can Be Made

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 23 (AP)—The famed Golden Gate, Constantinople's greatest historic treasure, seems doomed to destruction unless capital for repairs can speedily be found. English experts who made recent investigations reported that the triumphal arch of the Byzantine emperors, which has stood for more than 1500 years at the entrance to the city of the Golden Horn, is in a perilous state. Immediate bolstering of the great edifice and mighty blocks of marble is needed if possibly to preserve this jewel of architecture and monument of history.

Quake Fatal

One slight earthquake and earthquake are common in this region, and the Golden Gate will collapse, say the experts. They have approached the Turkish authorities who are sincerely anxious to act but who say that it is absolutely lacking for the necessary repairs.

Through this ancient triumphal arch, constructed about 308 A. D. by the Emperor Theodosius I, whose imperial eagles still stretch their wings in marble on the columns, many famous men passed during the centuries of Byzantium's glory. Emperors who were crowned and acclaimed at Hebdomon outside the city, passed in triumph through this arch as has Rumania in Transylvania. In these regions no difficulties are largely the treatment accorded to minorities. The treaty of Versailles and special treaties between the interested powers were supposed to have safeguarded the rights of minorities left under foreign rule, but the application of the agreement seems to meet with insuperable obstacles.

English Girls Spurn Old Fashioned Names

LONDON, Feb. 23 (AP)—Maudie, Tami, Madge, Vaunty, Alys and Erika are the names of a few girls who will vote for the first time in Britain's coming election. Sordid names for "dappers" are legion in the recently published register lists for the 1,500,000 newly enfranchised women.

The preponderance of women voters makes the next general election an uncertain affair. In the borough of Hammersmith, the first London borough to complete its new register, about 48,000 women have been added to the electorate and in consequence women voters have a majority of 10,000.

Golden Gate on their way to the Sacred Gate of St. Sophia within the city. The Pope Constantine visiting the city in 708 entered in pomp through the triumphal arch, and the icon of Christ, brought from Edessa, was carried beneath the arch with mighty manifestations.

Physician Combats Tuberculosis With Labor Prescription

LEYSEN, Switzerland, Feb. 23 (AP)—The noted tuberculosis specialist, Dr. Rollet, Leyden, has successfully demonstrated manual labor as a means of combating tuberculosis, even in its chronic forms.

The Swiss village of Leyden has been for many years a Mecca of tuberculosis patients from all over the world. In particular it has acquired a reputation for the treatment of various forms of tuberculosis of the bones. There are many types of clinics at Leyden, ranging from palace-like sanatoria which during the winter months installed glass galleries where well-to-do patients bathe in the sun, to humble "chambers" sheltering poor sufferers supported by their hard working families or charitable institutions.

It was his solicitude for the latter which led Dr. Rollet to experiment with his "manual labor cure." Dr. Rollet possesses not only a wide medical experience but a profound knowledge of the region. He has been accustomed to endure days of immobility and idleness. His sympathy for the moral depression caused thereby, which hampers mental recovery by unerving the patient, suggested to Dr. Rollet the idea of relieving the will to live.

"The first experiments of the labor cure, strictly individual and medicinally controlled," said Dr. Rollet, "soon yielded the results we expected. As soon as the patient affected by a chronic form of tuberculosis, embracing from the state of apathy into which he is sunk, pluckily takes to his feet, his vitality, his energy of brain and muscles, restores to the worker his self respect and sense of usefulness. Moreover, even small earnings contribute to relieve his anxiety of being a burden to his family and bring new confidence and the hope that he can.

Coolidge Still Calm and Unruffled As Term Draws To Close

Slender, Unbowed Shoulders Will Shift Burdens To Wider, Bulkier Frame Of President-Elect Hoover

For Six Eventful Years Son of Vermont Storekeeper Stands One of Towering, Pivotal Figures in Current World History With Faith in Himself and Countrymen Without Sign of Wear

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23—A steady-eyed, calm little man of sandy hair, with face little furrowed for all his 39 years of almost continuous public service, on March 4 will become again just Calvin Coolidge, private citizen.

From his slender, unbowed shoulders will shift to the wider, bulkier frame of Herbert Hoover the heaviest burden of executive responsibility the world has yet devised to lay upon an individual—the presidency of the United States.

For six eventful years Coolidge has carried it with calm, unflurried confidence; with faith in himself and his countrymen; without sign of physical wear and tear or the ravages of care.

For six years this son of a Vermont country storekeeper has stood, one of the towering, pivotal figures about whom current world history turns.

For six years, steady-eyed, unhurried, almost impressive in demeanor, he has been at the storm center of mighty conflicting forces.

Yet on that March day he goes back to become one again of the people of the common lot from whom he sprung, still a man almost unknown aside from the official, public aspects of his three decades of office holding and political advancement.

Little revealing brevity that forbade probing inquired.

Little revealing

In all the eight-year span of his brief but splendid adventure along the great roadway of national political ambition, there is little that is revealing of the man himself, of the human, everyday emotions that stir him.

The first two years were lived in the semi-haze of obscurity that is the lot of vice-presidents unless tragic events call them to higher duty. He seemed a quiet, unemotional, frugal New Englander, cool in judgment, steady of purpose, keenly observant of men and events, quick to seize opportunity to forward his mounting ambitions.

Then he seemed, too, in the hour of his destiny. At midnight, in the hampshire parlor of his father's New England farmstead, where he took his oath as thirtieth president of the United States as Harding lay dead in the White House, Coolidge was as impetuous, as calm as on the day he strolled home alone from his inauguration as vice-President.

Affairs Fluster

World affairs flustered under the shock of Harding's death; warrier out of the words of his successor. Amid it all Coolidge stood cool, collected, undismayed by the responsibility thrust upon him.

The very look of him was an antidote for panic; a tonic for depression.

In the six years that followed Coolidge as perhaps no president before him, talked of public affairs. Twice a week he met White House news writers; a hundred of them at a time. He seemed sometimes almost to be thinking aloud in answering their written inquiries.

Never was he moved to hasty action. Invariably, almost, his views had crystallized and been made known indirectly through the medium of the press well before the action they foreshadowed was taken, be it the veto of a farm aid bill or an invitation to other governments to join in world conferences.

The president retained rigid control of these interviews. He would discuss only those matters he deemed right for discussion. Other inquiries were brushed aside—completely ignored.

There was not much to be made out of press conferees and there was almost the fact that he had so treated them.

In all this systematized use of the nothing to reveal the human being inside the shell of New England reserve on private affairs. He talked of issues, hopes of men and their motives. He told almost nothing of his own plans or hopes, political or domestic, while they were forming. When he was ready, such things were announced with a terse

WILL HE FAIL to pass because you failed him?

Poor boy! Now he's back again to the unfair struggle! Will YOU boy have the sense to prospect of doing last year's work all over? Or will he just barely "get by" with the constant threat of failure—because you failed him?

Is he naturally dumb? No, but necessity. Three out of every ten children who are "slow" in school need glasses. That's all. If he fails, the chances are three to one that it's because you have failed him. End the unfair struggle! Save his eyes examined.

and Italy from the five-power naval limitations conference he called; but that did not hold him back an instant from pressing on with the three-power alternative.

He strongly resented the failure of that conference to forward the scheme of "limiting and, if possible cutting down, auxiliary naval armaments. Yet he accepted the result and moved it on to increase American carrier strength decisively.

Whether he regarded this as a move to arm his successor in the White House with the means to urge again for limitations by treaty, or as a definite decision to build the American cruiser fleet up to the 8-5-3 ratio, he never said, although he talked freely and often with the press on the subject.

The other side of the picture, the personal side, lay in the absolute silence of the president on his plans in 1928. Observers were agreed that his own will was the controlling factor. If he desired the republican nomination that upon him. On public matters he was almost arrant at times.

This haze of mystery about the personal thoughts, emotions and actions of the man continued to the last. He gave no hint whatever, up to the very eve of his retirement to private life, as to what he would do for recreation or for gainful occupation.

Only one possible clue as to his plans existed. That lay in the increasing fondness for hunting, which followed his own discovery that he had an uncanny knack of marksmanship that was very inherent.

That was a piece with the curious, boyish interest he showed for tales of adventure and the out-of-doors. And that, presumably, underlay the affection he had for the huge cowboy hat presented to him in the Black Hills during his 1927 vacation. He wore it invariably thereafter when a chance visit to the out-of-doors gave occasion.

Roumania Land Where Ancient Custom Mixes With Modern Trend

Superstition Common Among Peasant Women and Gypsies

Wierdest of All Practices of Old Survive in Self-Flagellation in Belief Effort Will Rid Body of All Evil Spirits

BY JAMES A. MILLS
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

By ignorant "babas," or midwives, or by soothsayers. The cheapest thing in the world—water and food—the Roumanian seldom avails himself of. Windows are kept hermetically sealed for fear of letting in "an evil wind," and water is used only as an adjunct in cooking.

The Roumanian peasants tell in the fields from daybreak to midnight, like beasts of burden. The women look for their age, and die prematurely from overwork and exhaustion. Nowhere in the world are the rural classes more industrious, honest or unspelled.

JAPANESE PRINCES LIKE ARMY AND NAVY CAREERS

TOKYO, Feb. 23 (AP)—Princes of the imperial family of Japan continue to find in the army and navy almost the only careers deemed fitting for their lofty rank. In spite of the decline of militarism in the nation as a whole.

There are periodic reminders of this in the official lists of promotions and assignments in which names of princes of the blood figure prominently, as in that just published. The crown prince, the heir of the House of Fushimi, is promoted to lieutenant-commander and given command of a destroyer, being the first imperial prince to hold such a post. While Aza-akira, heir of the House of Kuni and brother of the emperor, is promoted in the navy, transferred from duty aboard the superdreadnaught Mutsu to the naval general staff.

The imperial family of Japan is considered to embrace far more than the immediate household of the sovereign. It includes several collateral branches varying in number as old

MEXICO MAY ACHIEVE BLOODLESS ELECTION

Portes Gil Assures Political Leaders Government Will Only Insure Rights of Parties

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 23 (AP)—Provisional President Portes Gil of Mexico promised a group of political leaders who interviewed him that the presidential elections this year would be conducted in "civilized" fashion. The president assured his visitors that the government would play no part whatsoever in the electioneering other than to guarantee equal rights to all contending parties. The election will be by majority vote of the people, and extreme precautions will be taken to make sure of a fair count.

The big national conventions will be held within the next two months, the National Revolutionary party and the Anti-Revolutionist party being the two principal political organizations in the field. There are numerous other smaller groups.

But despite the president's promise of "civilized" national elections many fear that the alarming occurrences in connection with some of the recent state elections are an augury of what will happen on a large scale when the presidential campaign gets

AMERICAN CAR BUILDERS ENTER BRAZILIAN FIELD

SAO PAULO, Brazil, Feb. 23 (AP)—North American motor car manufacturers who have set up assembling plants in Sao Paulo, to supply the great demand caused by road improvements, have found the labor market in Brazil singularly undeveloped.

Piece work is unknown and there is no information on which they may proceed in speeding up production by paying employees according to their output. Investigators have been put to work and within another year American factories will probably operate much as they do in the United States.

The Contented Rube

By D. R. Chittell
 There's none of us responsible, Concerning where we're born; So consequently I grew up, Between two rows of corn.
 If I had been a pumpkin seed, I might have won a prize; If some one hadn't captured me, And made some pumpkin pie.
 I'm introduced as country rube, From stage to story book; While movie stars have gone their bit, To show folks how I look.
 Suspenders made of binding twine, Or milk pail in my hand; A hound-dog trailing at my heels, A wreck of bones and skin.
 With that proverbial pitch-fork, I might be pleading at the bar; And hunkered down beside a cow, So poor she scarce can stand.
 As farmer I am thus portrayed; This custom seldom falls; And yet, who reached a higher plane, Than he who split the rails?
 If I had joined the rank and file, And mastered some degree; And started on the road to fame, I wonder where I'd be?
 I might be peeping through the bars, Or some bank's little den; I might have got my figures mixed, And now be in the pen.
 I might be playing politics, Had I possessed more skill; And now be feeding with the herd, From out the public crib.
 I might have been a priest or pope, If such had been my lot; I might become an angel yet, Just now I'd rather not.
 While I have failed to win applause, I'm happy in the loss; I'm neither huntin' for a job, Nor workin' for a boss.
 Divine Right
 Darrell, great prime minister of Britain, said: "The divine right of kings has been a plea for despotism, but the divine right of government is the keystone of human progress, and without it governments sink into police, and a nation is degraded into a mob."—Exchange.
