LOUISIANA'S CHIEF MAGISTRATE LOSES IMPEACHMENT FIGHT

House of Representatives Votes 58 to 40 to Send Youngest Governor Before Senate to Answer Charges

By The Associated Press. BATON ROUGE, April 6.—The web of impeachment today was wound about Governor Huey P. Long, the youngest state governor in the Louisiana house of representatives which by a vote of 58 to 40 ordered him to the bar of the senate to answer charges of high crime and misdemeanors.

With Chief Justice Charles A. O'Neill presiding, the senate in high court impeachment, voted to convene Thursday at noon to adopt rules of procedure for the appearance in person of the chief executive.

Almost simultaneously, the house adjourned until Tuesday night to resume consideration of 18 other charges of the 19 in the impeachment resolution.

Charges With Threats. The governor was impeached on a charge of accepting a bribe of $100,000, publisher of the Baton Rouge newspapers, in the state house and threatening to make public the presence of a state insane asylum of Mr. Menphis's brother if the publisher did not halt an editorial campaign against a bonded oil well.

Three weeks ago the governor, a dominating and impulsive personality, held the balance of power in state politics and was able to get the legislature to do his bidding. Tonight the same body was making an accusing ring against the 36-year-old executive, who kept out of sight in his office directly under the legislative hall.

ELEVEN-STORE ORGANIZATION

Making Available to You the Manifold Advantages of Group
Buying, Large Scale Distribution and Unit Operation

FOR sixty-one years the name FALK'S has stood as a monument to progressive merchandising in Idaho. Throughout the years this institution has been the hub of merchandising activity in this great intermountain country. The people of Idaho have traveled millions of miles in their journeys to trade at Falk's. In wagons and freight wagons, with pack teams and in surreys, by train and automobile they have come to fill their needs at this time-honored institution. The fathers and mothers and grandfathers and grandmothers of many of our present day customers have been loyal patrons of Falk's from the very beginning.

Since 1868 Falk's has faithfully served the inhabitants of Idaho through the original store at Boise and since 1888 through the Nampa Department Store at Nampa. These two progressive stores have kept well abreast of the times and are looked upon as the foremost mercantile organizations in their separate communities.

Today, as ever, alert to the modern trend of business and the tendency to even better the facilities and methods for service, this organization is again blazing the trail of progress.

Now we have implanted the name of Falk's and all that it stands for in eleven communities in Idaho and Eastern Oregon in order that the Falk type of service may be made available to the people living in each of these communities. Eleven progressive, modern stores dedicated to the idea of supplying dependable merchandise at the lowest prices consistent with good quality, are ready to serve you.

It is the policy of the Falk Organization to give each community in which it operates the outstanding store in that section—a store outstanding in its facilities for service, outstanding in size and variety of stocks, outstanding in its ability to supply standard merchandise at the lowest possible prices.

These eleven department stores will be operated as a unit and each one will offer the same advantages as every other store in the group.

The operation of these stores under one management with one centralized overhead expense, the tremendous advantage of an eleven-store purchasing power and the economies to be made in large scale distribution will result in marked savings which will be passed on to our customers. These advantages will mean lower prices for Falk patrons or better quality at the same price.

There is a Falk Department Store in your community, ready to serve you. You are cordially invited to make this store your shopping headquarters. Every facility and courtesy will be extended to make your transactions satisfactory in every way. Visit this store, see how well we are prepared to serve you and view the splendid stocks of new spring merchandise assembled for your selection.

A Sermon For The Week

One Effect of Reading The Bible... Pastor of Plymouth Congregational Church, Minneapolis) READING the Bible leaves an impression that is somewhat vague and subtle, defying analysis and description, but it is quite perceptible and distinctly helpful. It is for more potent, it may be likened to the mood that lays hold upon us when answering chords of the heart vibrate to the strains of deeply emotional music, and hallowed memories waken and pure aspirations are given wing. Often as we read, searchingly and prayerfully, through certain portions of the Bible we are sensible of a peculiarly spiritual atmosphere, and the pages seem inter-penetrated with a living spirit. The reading of certain passages slowly, quietly, and thoughtfully, tends upon us and exhilarates the soul. Are you saying in body or mind because of your toil? There is a renewal of vigor for you when you read, for you rest, yet that labor and matter-of-factness and monotony of the daily grind, breathe the air of the fields, hear the song of brooks, and the pulsing of your faith will be quickened, and the Bible inspired? It is the most human book ever written, and we come to it in our weakness, and even as we read it imparts strength. We come to it in our doubts and uncertainties, and even as we read it dispels the mists. We come to it polluted by our selfishness and sin, and even as we read the cleansing begins. Its authority is the authority of its convincing truth; and we know that it is inspired, for as is no other book, because it helps us to live to the more abounding life.

AUTO VS. LOCOMOTIVE

A recent dispatch from Shanikim, Pennsylvania, told of a notable triumph in combat. An automobile, braced and reinforced, running into a locomotive at a railroad crossing, suffered no harm except a bent bumper. The locomotive, on the other hand, was so badly damaged that it needed extensive repairs. It may be taken for granted that the "respectable citizen" piloting that auto is proud of his exploit. Likewise the manufacturer who made the victorious car. Public sympathy, however, must not be taken to the railroad. No wonder rail transportation languishes. It is enough to get the heart out of any man to have his rolling stock banged up that way. For the sake of a great industry, it is to be hoped that adequate damages will be collected from the motorist.

A FRIENDLY WARSHIP

The French government, for the first time, pays full military honors to a foreign citizen, sending the mortal remains of Anthonioz, a French bomber, to America on the finest cruiser of her fleet. Anthonioz, appearing with Frenchmen that their ambassador is worthy of such honor, are none the less appreciative of the high tribute paid. Here is a new bond of understanding and sympathy between the two countries. And here, it may be added, is an admirable use for cruisers. Warships turned to peaceful and friendly purposes make all the enemies debate about naval armament look cheap and false. And the nations are coming to use their warships more and more for such purposes.

SPRING STORMS

A belated planting season in the Twin Falls country is just another one of those many variable factors that distinguish agriculture from other forms of industry. It is not really a very important factor here, because of a wide variety of crops that may be produced, and because the farmers in this region are well organized for an intensive campaign in a short season. Beans, beets, potatoes and so on of the spring are crops that may be depended upon to mature even if the planting season were delayed for a fortnight or even thirty days; and, with respect to preparation for a short season, it is notable that purchases of tractors by the Twin Falls country for this season's work have set a new high mark.

INTERNATIONAL SNIVING

Taking his farewell of England, Ambassador Houghton said some sensible things at a mutual conference of the two Great English speaking nations. To be sure, there are many persons in each country who dislike the other, and who do not hesitate to say so. But what of it? The world has become astonishingly safe for those who, he remarks, "it is one of the luxuries of security." He noted differences of opinion may be taken in a mutual conference of the two Great English speaking nations. To be sure, there are many persons in each country who dislike the other, and who do not hesitate to say so. But what of it? The world has become astonishingly safe for those who, he remarks, "it is one of the luxuries of security."

Curious are the ways of the law. "Seneca" A. Capone, Chicago gang leader and "big" bootlegger, wound up a criminal career and returned to a palace at Miami, Florida. Somewhat of other Chicago authorities were never able to "get" him, though it was universally agreed that he was directly or indirectly guilty of many crimes, from moonshining to murder. In his subterranean retreat he seemed safe. He had got away with everything, and could now end his days in virtue and serenity. Then the hand of federal justice reached out hesitantly and went so far as to beckon Capone to come back to Chicago and testify before a grand jury concerning certain things he might know about. He was duly subpoenaed, but it was understood that he was doing it as a favor, and would be guarded from molestation. Capone came, but not until after long postponement, arranged him on his resignation that he had been very sick with bronchial pneumonia for many weeks, and was unable to leave his home. Then after his appearance in Chicago, as he was leaving the grand jury room, he was arrested on a charge of contempt of court. He had lied about his illness. Investigators say and instead of being confined to a sick room had been attending doctors, and giving parties in his sumptuous home. So Capone may go to jail for a year or so for a comparatively petty offense. And that the officers of justice think will be so much to the good. Getting a criminal indirectly may serve the same purpose as getting him directly, just as in the case of Earl Carroll, the New York theatrical producer, who was punished for false testimony instead of the real offense of which that was a mere detail.

SUNSET ON PUGET SOUND

THE tide is high, the ripples blowing free; The sun is setting o'er the azure sea; Ships are passing far out upon the blue; Mists are settling low, and shining white; A distant island's lighthouse, gleaming white, Stands sentinel, to guide the ships at night. Islands of deepest blue float on the mist; Clouds of pure gold and rose, and amethyst Adorn the sun, a fiery monarch crowned; Flinging a glorious patch across the Sound; Or, when reflecting clouds sweep o'er the skies, A lovely tint o'er all the vision lies. Sometimes, the scene's o' richest violet hue; Sometimes, a rosy flush upon the blue; And all aglow, each level island's crest; That lies, a jewel upon the ocean's breast. The crimson sun descends his regal way; As o'er the Sound the lights and shadows play. Long, the splendors linger on wave and sky; On islands fair, and mists that softly lie. The rich hues fade, till ceased the rainbows' play; And graying mists proclaim the end of day. The sun long set, the moon beams fair and bright; The mists are silver now, and it is night.

LIBRARY REGISTRATION FOR MONTH INCREASES

There have been 3146 persons registered in the Twin Falls public library since the re-registration started February 1, it was reported by Miss Jessie Fraser, librarian, at a meeting of the Twin Falls library board Thursday afternoon. Nearly 700 persons registered during March. There are about 8000 names on the old list, many of them names of persons who have moved away, and others, who registered for some specific purpose years ago and have not used the library since. The purpose of the re-registration is to get a list of those using the library. The statistics facts which keep a large number of students at home had an effect on the number of volumes withdrawn from the library during the month of March, Miss Fraser stated. The circulation report showed a falling off about 200 in the number of books withdrawn compared with the number taken out during March 1928. The total for March 1928 was 7599 volumes, divided as follows (Adult number first, juvenile second): General works, 7, 0; philosophy, 66; religion, 46, 36; sociology, 65, 243; science, 57, 121; useful arts, 62, 24; fine arts, 60, 15; literature (poetry, plays), 178, 141; history, 51, 93; travel, 60, 151; biography, 46, 35; fiction, 218, 1030; day sheet, 329; magazines, 446.

games, from tables centered with bowls of beautiful snapper. The silver services were provided over by the executive board, Mrs. E. M. Sweeley, Mrs. H. L. Walter, Mrs. C. A. Bailey and Mrs. T. F. The Red Knights entertained with a beautifully arranged dinner dance Friday evening at the Hotel Rogerson complimentary to their new members, Charles Colner, Henry Colner, Burdette Thompson, Roy Gray and Bill Scott. A spring time idea was featured in the decorations which were in yellow, green and lavender. Lighted candles in these colors were placed at intervals down the center of the table and the girls were presented with bouquets of favors. An artistic lava rockery adorned with green and yellow flowers and trailing vines marked off the orchestra pit. Jack Gray, president of the club, presided as toastmaster; Paris Kall welcomed the pledges and Henry Colner responded. Leavitt Craven gave a toast to the girls and Vivian Wilson responded. W. T. Seltley, club sponsor, also spoke. Miss Margaret Seltley was a guest. A piano number was given by Bert Wood. John Milner played a selection on the xylophone during the dinner hour. Twenty-five couples were in attendance and Gene Ahren and his orchestra furnished music for dancing.

Oklahoma, were present at the meeting of the Past Matrons Club Friday evening at the home of Mrs. F. W. McRoberts with Mrs. H. D. Bend and Mrs. F. S. Lloyd of California, hostesses. A pink carnation was presented each one present from Mrs. Lloyd who was hostess by proxy. Attached to each flower was a card bearing Mrs. Lloyd's address. A social hour, and delectable refreshments closed a very pleasant evening. An invitation was accepted from the Pler chapter to attend a meeting the first of May.

The Peavey home on Seventh Avenue North was the scene of a pretty dancing party Saturday evening when the Misses Betty Peavey, Ruth Taylor and Harriet Duval entertained with a dancing party from seven-thirty to ten o'clock for twenty-two guests. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

Mrs. Walter Quinn gave a prettily arranged surprise luncheon on Saturday at one o'clock complimentary to her daughter, Mary Jane, celebrating her seventh birthday. The guests in addition to the honoree were members of the original girl scout troop and their captain, Mrs. B. H. Atkinson, and included Betty Mark, Beth Ritchie, Frances Thompson, Ruth Perrine, Marie Jenkins, Virginia Atkinson, Marjorie Stevens and Mabel Walker. A scheme of yellow and orchid was used to adorn the table, the centerpiece being a crystal tree bearing orchid flowers. The nut cups and other decorative details were in harmonizing shades. The afternoon following luncheon was spent with games. Alice and Ann Peavey, Edna Richards and Betty Ann Quinn assisted Mrs. Quinn in leaving.

Members of the T. S. S. Club enjoyed a "pot luck" luncheon Friday at the home of Mrs. John Kimes on Fourth Avenue East. The afternoon was spent with music and conversation; Mrs. Thomas Rosberry, a former member, was a guest.

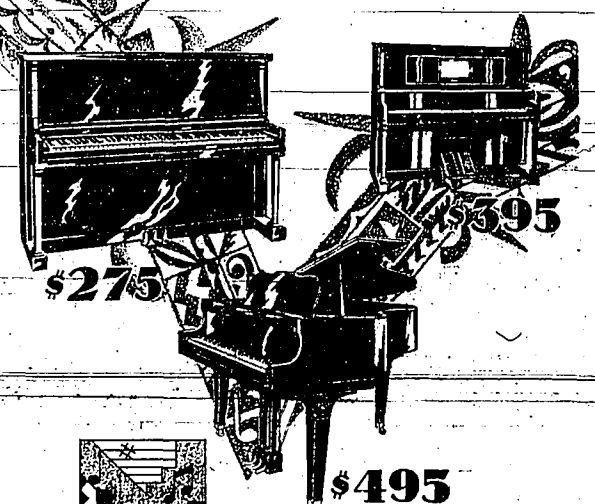

Knowing that every woman is instinctively a gardener, the Latter Day Saints Relief Society has invited R. E. Broadard and Ben Elder to speak at their meeting Tuesday and help in their gardening problems. Women love their gardens for the sentiments they express and the thoughts they symbolize and so nature poems and music have been planned as part of the program. At the conclusion of the program members will exchange address, seed or bulb with a written statement expressing the meaning it is intended to convey in her neighbor's garden.

GEORGE JESSEL is one of the most talented actors of the theatre. He is a star of the legitimate drama, of vaudeville and of the screen. HE is famed for his wit, his singing, his writing, his impersonations and his personality.

HE wrote all the dialogue and titles, so that the lines he speaks are not only his own, but spoken with the expression that only Jessel can give them.

JESSEL introduces songs: "My Mother's Eyes," by L. Wolfe Gilbert, who wrote the lyrics of "Rhapsody," and Axel Baer, composer of many song hits, "Old Man Sunshine," "My Bluebirds Are Bluebirds Now," "My Real Sweetheart" and "Boquet of Memories."

FAMOUS for his imitations, Jessel impersonates several amusing characters and also the late "stage stars," Sam Bernard, Eddie Foy and Robert Mantell.

Big Texas Team Wins National Basketball Championship

Towering Five From Athens Fights Way To Highest Honors

Fast Classen High School Captains From Oklahoma City Fall Before Attack of Quint From Southwest

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, April 6.—A band of giants from Athens, Texas, tonight won the eleventh annual University of Chicago's National interscholastic basketball tournament by defeating Classen of Oklahoma City, 25 to 21, in the final contest.

The winning of the national championship, the first time the feat has ever been accomplished by a team from the Southwest, was accomplished after five days of grueling play in which the Texans bowled over five teams from every section of the country.

Towering over their opponents the six-foot-plus athletes from the little farming community of Northeastern Texas went out in front early in the second period and stayed there. But it was no easy matter to remain in the lead.

Battling the Texas five was a great team from Oklahoma which came to the tournament with the enviable record of winning the state title and then proceeding to turn back four of the nation's best, including Ashland, Kentucky, the defending titleholders.

On the flashy Oklahoma team was a guard named Andy Beck, all-tournament selection. Beck had played brilliantly before but he never played more sensationally than he did tonight. Everything he did was right.

Five times the five-foot-eleven-inch guard came through with mid-court shots that failed to touch the rim or as they swished through the net or one-handed two-pointers from far down the side.

Classen's hopes for victory received a severe setback as the first quarter ended when Tom Merrick, a black haired sharpshooting forward, injured his knee and was taken from the game.

The Oklahoma team had pulled away to a 6-to-5 lead in that first period and

Legion Completing Next Boxing Card

Matchmaker Has Only One Participant's Opponent Left to Name For Event

Except for signing of an opponent for Ernie Woolley, Twin Falls, in the semi-final bout, the card is complete for Twin Falls American Legion post's next boxing carnival Monday evening, April 15.

With four minutes to play they were trailing 21 to 18. Johnnie Tompkins and Sumner broke through for two baskets in quick succession and the game was in the bag for the Texas team, although Classen kept up its insistent long distance plugging at the goal.

Third place in the tournament went to the former team from Jeek, Colorado, who defeated Jackson, Michikan, 21 to 17. The consolation tournament was won by Brockton, Massachusetts, defeating Morton of Cicero, Illinois, 17 to 10.

The box score:

	FG.	FT.	TP.
J. Tompkins, f.	1	2	1

to win with his aggressive, boring tactics. If he succeeds in eluding Steele's persistent efforts to land a sleep producing punch.

Ben Beckstedt and Tuffy Ford, both Twin Falls boys, weighing 90 pounds each, have been matched for the first preliminary and Ted Kopp, Hansen, 140, and Swede Nelson, Twin Falls, 140, will do battle in the second.

Plans for matching Woolley with Del Ray, Eagle, Idaho, were abandoned, the matchmaker stated, when it was ascertained that Ray's true weight is 137 pounds, while the Twin Falls boy enters the ring at 149 pounds.

Bud Travis, Twin Falls, and Ernie Steele, Salt Lake City, will headline the card in a 10-round main go. Both here are outstanding in this region, and Rocky Moore, Twin Falls, claimant of the light-weight boxing championship of Utah and Idaho, who has met both Travis and Steele in the ring, expresses the opinion that the match will be well worth witnessing.

Travis, according to Rocky, is likely

Salo Continues to Lead in C. C. Pyle's East-to-West Race

FREDERICK, Md., April 6.—Johnny Salo, the Passaic, New Jersey, policeman, kept his hold on the leadership in elapsed time in C. C. Pyle's transcontinental race as the first week of the contest ended today, although he did not win the day's lap.

Peter Gavuzzi, England, was the lap winner, making the 46 miles from Baltimore to Frederick, in 6 hours 52 minutes 16 seconds, and this victory, together with that he registered the previous day in the lap from Havre de Grace to Baltimore, raised him from fifth to third place.

Salo tied for second place in the day's run with Ed Gardner, Seattle, their time for the seventh lap being 7:03:45. Today's lap crossed many hills under a boiling sun, temperatures running somewhere between 80 and 90 degrees.

DEATH CALLS PIONEER TWIN FALLS CITIZEN

Charles E. Knull, Farmer and Teacher, Dies Suddenly at Country Home

Charles E. Knull, one of the Twin Falls county's first settlers, and one of its largest landowners, for whom the Knull town and district southwest of Twin Falls was named, died at 3 A. M. Saturday at his residence four miles west and a half mile south of Twin Falls. He was 64 years old.

Death was attributed to a sudden heart attack following threatened pneumonia ten weeks ago from which he was apparently recovering.

The body was taken to the Greenwood funeral parlor.

Arrangements for funeral services awaited last evening the arrival of word from relatives elsewhere.

Mr. Knull, with his family, came to Twin Falls from La Grande, Oregon, in the spring of 1865, and took up land at that time on which the family resided for many years.

Born in Indiana, Mr. Knull was born January 23, 1865, in Indiana, and as a young man came west, making his home for years in Oregon. During part of that time he was engaged as a teacher in public schools, and after coming to Idaho he resumed that work for a time, serving for three terms as teacher in Twin Falls schools in 1897 and 1902.

Besides his widow, Mr. Knull is survived by three sons, Horton Knull, Twin Falls; Clyde Knull, Los Angeles; and Mark Knull, Clatskanie, Oregon. One son, Oral Knull, died in 1922, and Mr. Knull will be laid to rest beside his son's grave in the family plot in Twin Falls cemetery.

Word received late last evening from Clyde Knull in Los Angeles, stated that he would arrive here Monday.

CHILDREN'S MILK FUND FOR YEAR SATISFACTORY

The milk fund report of the Parent-Teacher-association of the Washington school, presented at the meeting held in the high school auditorium Thursday afternoon, showed a total expenditure of $121.85 for the 11-week period, with only $46.75 for free milk. It was pointed out that this indicated great interest in parents in building up under-nourished children.

It was voted to take up a silver offering at the last meeting of the year, which will be held on the evening of May 15, and to which fathers are invited.

The second grade pupils of Miss Jean Wentz' room gave a folk dance and program during the meeting. This occasion was awarded the banner for the largest attendance of parents.

Miss Jessie Prager, librarian of the Twin Falls public library, gave a short address on the subject, "Books." Mrs. W. O. Smith spoke on the subject, "Theater" and led the open discussion. Mr. Walter Bruce was elected chairman for the coming year to succeed Mrs. R. A. Sutcliffe. The program for the day was arranged by Mrs. R. L. Roberts.

100 WOMEN MEET TO FORM ORGANIZATION

Gathering Launches District Young Women's Christian Association

Nearly 100 women representing committees of the Young Women's Christian association from the cities and towns of Bluff, Twin Falls, Kimberly, Elgin, Hazelton and Hansen adopted a constitution for the formation of a district organization yesterday at a luncheon meeting held at the Ingersoll hotel.

In the absence of Mrs. T. F. Warner, Twin Falls, president of the tentative organization, who is in Palo Alto, California, Mrs. J. C. Knott, Elgin, then presided, preceded Mrs. Warner was elected president of the new organization. Mrs. Grover Davis, Filer, vice president; Mrs. P. E. Alquist, Bluff, secretary; and Mrs. Willis Sampson, Hansen, treasurer. It was voted to call the new organization the Magic Valley District Young Women's Christian association.

Work Progresses With the Young Women's Christian association has been in progress in the towns affiliated with the district for several years and has grown to an extent where formal affiliation is deemed proper. Approval of the organization was signed yesterday by Miss Blissa Foster, San Francisco, national secretary for the San Francisco district, and Mrs. Will Gibson, Boise, Idaho, national committee woman. It will probably require two months to complete affiliation, but Miss Foster was confident that it would be speedily effected.

Local Committee Ready to Receive More Than 300 Visitors at Convention

Arrangements for entertainment of between 300 and 400 persons who are expected to attend two days sessions of the third annual meeting of the Idaho Retail Coal Dealers' association opening here on Monday, April 15, are well under way. Committee members reported last evening.

Sessions will be presided over by Stewart Worthington, Boise, president of the association, and A. B. C. Dawson, Boise, will be in attendance as the association's secretary.

Dance on Program The entertainment program provided for a dance to be given at Danceland pavilion on Monday evening following the American Legion boxing card at which several sections of music seats have been reserved for convention visitors.

On Friday evening the visiting coal dealers and operators will assemble at a banquet to be served in Danceland pavilion, which has been reserved for this purpose because it is the only available hall large enough to accommodate the anticipated number of guests.

Women visitors during the meeting are to be guests at a number of affairs that are being arranged.

Agriculture Committees Finish Task of Taking Testimony

HYDE APPEARS TO BE HOOVER SPOKESMAN ON RELIEF PROBLEM

Administration's Designs Apparently Along Lines of Bill Last Introduced by Senator McNary, Oregon

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 6.—A week in advance of the convening of the special session the two agriculture committees of congress tonight had completed the tedious task of taking testimony on the farm relief question and one committee, that of the house, already had a start on the actual framing of a farm aid measure.

The house group had placed in the hands of a sub-committee the job of framing a preliminary draft and the senate committee the first of the week is expected to turn its attention to the same undertaking. So far the senate committee has not appointed a sub-committee to handle the work and it is probable that the full membership will devote its time to the work.

Depend On Own Knowledge Except for the testimony of Secretary Hyde, both committees will depend largely on their own knowledge of the agricultural situation and upon the expressed views of President Hoover in writing the measure as the hearings developed few new ideas regarding the problems involved.

Secretary Hyde furnished what many committee members believe to be a clear statement of what the administration wants. This is now generally accepted to be a measure along the lines of the bill introduced last session by Senator McNary, Oregon, and which would provide for a federal farm board, community councils and stabilization agencies to regulate the surplus and at the same time leave the business of agriculture in the hands of the farmer as much as possible.

It is the plan of leaders at both sides of the capital to have the farm bill in shape for presentation to congress as soon as it convenes and it is their hope that the measure will be enacted into law by June 1.

Hockey to Blame for Schoolgirls' "Curve"

DUBLIN, April 6 (AP)—Many Irish schoolgirls are developing a "hockey curve," and some sports mistresses are seriously considering pinning a ban on hockey.

A speaker at a meeting of the Irish Hockey association at schoolmistresses said: "Too much hockey produces in school girls a bend to the right side. Quite a number of my girls who have played a 'hockey curve' through constant playing have had to take up gymnastics to counteract it." Another sports mistress said girls thus afflicted seemed to swerve along the street instead of walking. This, she thought, could be cured by exercise. She added, "I am seriously thinking of stopping hockey altogether and replacing it with lacrosse."

Bird Continues to Be Best Conqueror of Air

PARIS, April 6 (AP)—Birds still fly better than men for all science and airplanes can do. A single swallow is three times as swift and economical a flyer as the very best pursuit plane in the French army. Such are the conclusions placed before the French academy of sciences by a group of distinguished scientists.

Three savants, Hueneard, Magnan and Sainte-Lague, have used a new "infinite-range" movie camera, with a double objective, to develop a method for testing the "fineness" on real airplanes in actual flight and on birds in the air. The camera gives simultaneously on the same strip of film clear images of a gullling-mark on the ground six feet from its lens and of an airplane flying far away, as well as a clear image of a man placed 100 feet away.

Using it, the scientists discovered a new pursuit plane gave a "fineness" inferior to six. The "fineness" of a swallow was found to be at least 19.

BURLEY CITIZENS WILL NAME CITY CANDIDATES

BURLEY, April 6 (Special to The News)—For the purpose of nominating a citizens ticket to be balloted on at the coming city election April 22, a mass meeting has been called to meet in Burley Monday evening.

Candidates for councilmen are also scarce, and it is said that all six of the present council are likely to be nominated at the mass meeting. For city clerk it is different. There are at least six aspirants for this position. And there is also a mild contest on for the position of treasurer.

The present councilmen are Probate Judge E. M. Wright, H. D. Mix, L. V. Ferguson, Irel Goddard, William Schick and Dr. G. H. Tolson. George Peacock is clerk and Mrs. Alice Steene is treasurer.

NEW LINGERIE SHOWS INFLUENCE OF SPORT

Exclusive Shoppers Report Average Woman Client Demands Simpler Clothing

By BARBARA BEAUFORT
*Special Dress Fashion Editor
PARIS, April 6.—Exclusive lingerie shops report that the average woman client, especially if she be a sports enthusiast, wants simpler lingerie these days.

Her nightgowns now are made almost as short as her day clothes. They get more orders, they say, for short nightgowns with long sleeves than they do for the old-fashioned ankle length gown trimmed with lace and handwork.

Some of the newest night dresses look more like sport clothes than sleeping garments. They are about the same length as tennis dresses, and in a pinch some of them could be worn on the courts without anyone being the wiser. Most of them are belted, or have loose yokes around the hips. Insets of fullness, in the form of godets and pleats form the uneven hemline seen on afternoon and evening clothes.

Combine Unusual Materials
Some of the new "chemises de nuit" combine unusual materials like satin and crepe de chine dress, or crepe de chine with rick-rack braid.

Beige is much in demand for underwear under evening dresses. Houses are specializing in beige silk models with dark brown or black lace trimming.

Plain batiste and fine linen also are having a considerable vogue. Most of it is made on strictly untripped lines, for sport wear and colors match the sport frock it is worn with.

In contrast with the lingerie for sport wear the few and fragile garments worn under evening dresses are more elaborately lace trimmed than ever.

GINGHAM BREAKS INTO TENNIS.
PARIS, April 6.—Gingham gowns are just about the snappiest thing this year's tennis girl can wear.

At least the due to his dressmaker who claims to have the longest list of titled and socially important clients in Paris, says that gingham gowns are the newest thing in sport wear, and shows several of them at prices that gingham gowns have never attained before.

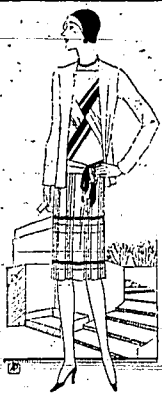

They are sleeveless frocks of the blue and white "plaid school," silk used, with the plaits attached down around the hips.

Women Control Papers Of City in Connecticut

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., April 6.—Women now control the newspaper field here, at least nominally, as a result of the death of James L. Doyle, veteran publisher of The New Britain Record.

He was succeeded by Mrs. Doyle as president of the New Britain Record company. The only other New Britain newspaper has Mrs. Matilda Vance, widow of its founder, as president.

Straight From Paris

PARIS, April 6.—Cardigan jackets are a little shorter and plainer in their spring version. They are now definitely lifted out of the sports category and frequently form the wrap of simple street suits. Redfern puts a perfectly plain cardigan with a beige crepe de chine dress. Except for a small inverted pleat in the center back the jacket is guileless of elaboration of cut or finish.

Jefferson Davis' Niece, At 101, Defends Moderns

SAN ANTONIO, April 6.—A niece of Jefferson Davis looks back over 101 years of life and concludes the so-called "flappers" of today are no different from girls of yesterday.

Mrs. Nancy Davis Fluth, daughter of Davis' oldest brother Thomas, gives piped smoking as one reason for her longevity. She had her hair bobbed after her one hundredth birthday.

Mrs. Fluth calls "civvies," women smokers and bobbed hair an old story. She herself was divorced from her first husband before the civil war. Four of her brothers fought for the north, four for the south. Three of them, with her second husband, were killed in battle.

"The girl of 1929 who thinks she's getting doesn't know the meaning of the word," the centenarian says.

Skirts Are Fuller in New Spring Fashions

STRIKING IN CHARM and style are these spring frocks which reflect the present mode of skirts slightly more ample than before. Moire, embroidered batiste and white fox are used in the ensemble at the left. The dinner gown (center) is of beige satin and mouseline voile. The daytime frock (right) is of navy crepe and embroidered batiste. M. delys by Stein and Blaine.

Horizontal stripes appear in many forms in the spring collection of the house of Worth. One of the outstanding models of Worth's collection is a flag stripe chiffon. It has wide bands of red, and a dull blue on a white ground, with red, white and blue jewel trimming.

Railway Names Woman For Executive Position

KANSAS CITY, April 6.—A talent for executive work has brought Miss Tillie Levy a secretaryship in a railway corporation.

It was handy for H. F. Taylor, secretary of the Kansas City Terminal railway company, to pass papers across his desk to Miss Levy, who originally was secretary to the company president. Gradually she attended to all of Taylor's duties while he worked as purchasing agent.

ELLA A. BOOLE'S IDEA IN ADVERTISING PLAN

Bill Board Shouting Evil of Alcohol Development of Easterner's Suggestion

EVANSTON, April 6.—Billboards and newspaper advertising shouting the evil effects of alcohol developed from a suggestion of Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the Women's Christian Temperance union.

For several years the head of an organization of 600,000 women, prohibition pioneers, she urged an educational and advertising campaign in behalf of the dry laws. None of the other "dry" organizations heeded her, planning their hopes for success on legislation. This year, however, Mrs. Boole's idea fit in with the survey advanced by President Hoover. Other prohibition leaders seized upon the plan and succeeded in inducing congress to approve an appropriation for a prohibition advertising campaign.

Terriletta Futuro

Mrs. Boole sees a thoroughly "dry" United States not so far away. She believes the liquor laws will be strictly enforced under Hoover, and she relies upon his example to give strength to local law enforcement in cities now called "wet."

There are years of work ahead in cities like New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and San Francisco, but eventually they will be without speakeasies, beer flats, bootleggers and saloons, she is confident.

"The foreign element will learn to do without beer and wine," she continued. "Home-made alcoholic beverages will lose their kick and making it at home will become more and more dangerous. Just recently I have some recipes for grape juice drinks to a woman of foreign extraction who had been accustomed to wine. After using them she quit making wine."

Mrs. Boole has been a foe of alcohol since she began settlement work in her husband's Brooklyn congregation more than a quarter of a century ago.

Gypsy Groom Wins in Bride Price Dispute

LINDAU, Germany, April 6.—The high price of the bride very nearly prevented the celebration of a large gypsy wedding held recently in an encampment near here.

Vigilant and prolonged allegations arose over the figure of $1500 demanded of the bridegroom by the girl's father. Peace was restored and the ceremony proceeded only when the suitor bent down the price to $500, reserving an extra thousand for investment in the household horse and wagon.

ACTORS LOSE SUBSIDY IN JUGO-SLAVIAN THEATRES

BELOGRADE, April 6.—Tragedians, clowns, stout singers and slender dancers of provincial theatres, who have all been civil servants with regular pay increases and a government pension for old age, are to lose these guarantees of comfort.

The new regime will continue to subsidize theatres in Belgrade, Zagreb and Ljubljana, but those of the provincial towns must be supported by district funds or pass into private hands.

Private ownership of theatres is to be not only allowed, but encouraged. The theatre school in Zagreb will be developed into a national institution for training all kinds of theatrical performers, and a plan will be developed for exchanging stars between the principal Jugo-Slavian houses and the best of foreign countries.

FEATURE FLASHES FROM FAR-FLUNG FOREIGN FIELDS

TRADITION CAUSE OF FRENCH PROVINCE'S POPULATION DECLINE

Number of Residents Decreases Rapidly in Few Generations Because of Ideas Held By Residents

AUVILLAR, France, April 6 (AP)—Buildings may be had rent free here, although there is a housing crisis in the rest of France. This is almost a deserted town. The population has diminished by three-fourths in a few generations. It now totals only 500 and vacant houses and business blocks are falling into ruin.

Along with that stubborn worship of property, say the sociologists, there is a similar stubborn adherence to old traditions, making it difficult for new ideas of hygiene to spread.

A remedy distasteful to the French is in sight. Italian families, young, vigorous and prolific, are coming in, renting or farming on shares the land that many others are unable to work.

TENNISON'S LIFE AT HOME TO BE SECRET

Intimate Details of Noted Writer's Private Existence, Covered in Will

LONDON, April 6 (AP)—Intimate details of the home life of Alfred Lord Tennyson, England's famous poet laureate, will remain unrevealed if the terms of the will of his son, Lord Tennyson, who died in December, are fulfilled.

FOREIGN CAPITAL ENTERS INDUSTRIES IN GERMANY

BERLIN, April 6 (AP)—Foreign capital, foreign goods and foreign industries are invading Germany to such an extent that many economic and business leaders are becoming alarmed.

The nationalist newspaper Berliner Lokal Anzeiger recently voiced these fears. It said that the invasion started when the German mark was so depreciated that German possessions could be obtained for only a fraction of their true gold value.

CARTER AT GASPE The French were the last of the great European people to take an interest in American civilization. In 1534, Cartier, an explorer and navigator, arrived with his crew near Cape Race, Newfoundland, setting up a cross at Gaspe. He took formal possession of the territory in the name of the king.

Belgian Sponsors Aviation in Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE, Belgian Congo, April 6 (AP)—Aviation is developing in the Belgian Congo and the time is nearing when this means of transportation will rank first in this African colony whose territory is 80 times that of the mother country.

The Belgian Congo, besides its geographical situation in Central Africa and its immense mineral and agricultural riches, has important natural advantages for becoming a center of air transport in Africa.

The Belgian government is aiding in the development of aviation in the colony by guaranteeing eight-tenths of all freight carried by plane.

ITALIAN MOUNTAIN GIVES UP EVIDENCE OF OLD CITY

PERUGIA, Italy, April 6 (AP)—Excavations carried on by authorities of the Province of Perugia are bringing to light a prehistoric cave city on top of Mount Cetona, near here.

The ancient people, called Belverdians from Belverdis, name of the territory occupied by the mountain, dug their homes out of solid stone on the eastern side of the summit. They were hunters, but left many cups, bowls and vases expressing a good taste.

The mountain-dwellers also had a curious kind of wall decoration. It was all geometrical, consisting of triangles, parallelograms, rhomboids, spirals and circles.

The mountain-dwellers also had a primitive grade schools. There were nothing but rather primitive grade schools.

FRIGID DONKEY BURNS Because of Town Burns Because of Frigid Donkey Burns

KARS, Turkey, April 6 (AP)—This bleak town of northern Asia Minor has sent a petition to Mustafa Kemal for help in becoming modern.

The petition was prompted by the recent destruction of the town by fire. With the temperature away below zero, the sole piece of apparatus of the Kars fire brigade, embodied in the person of one small gray donkey carrying water buckets on his back, balked.

The townspeople have begged the Chari to help them replace the donkey with an up-to-date motor fire-engine.

French Population in 1928 Increases 70,000

PARIS, April 6 (AP)—It will take France 20 or 25 years to make up the loss in native born population sustained through war casualties.

Last year there were slight increases in marriages and births. The excess of births over deaths was only 70,000. The war death list was 1,500,000.

Correspondence Courses Now Popular in France

PARIS, April 6 (AP)—Correspondence schools, once frowned upon in France as a makeshift by-product of America's machine age, have grown until they serve 100,000 pupils.

This system is found to be well adapted to French education because there are more than 30,000 towns and villages where there are nothing but rather primitive grade schools.

Motorboat Trip from Pacific to Yellowstone Park Via Snake River Possibility

GEM STATE OFFICIAL TELLS EDITOR ABOUT NAVIGATING STREAM

Myron Swendsen, Assistant Reclamation Commissioner, Draws Graphic Picture of Scenic Route

(By The Associated Press) BOISE, April 6—A good substantial boat with a strong motor could traverse the Columbia and Snake rivers and eventually make its way into the Yellowstone park—provided the occupants were prepared for a number of stiff portages. Myron Swendsen, assistant Idaho reclamation commissioner said in a letter answering a query of the Bozeman editor of Outdoor Life.

Columbia and Snake rivers are navigable as far as Lewiston, he said. From Lewiston upstream Snake river forms the boundary between Idaho and Washington and Idaho and Oregon. From Lewiston the first 100 miles upstream would present no particular difficulty but from that point the next 125 miles would be rather difficult going, due to the fact that the river is confined in a deep rocky gorge ending in large boulder talus to the water line with practically no beach. In addition to this the river has many rapids and several waterfalls.

Interesting Features "This stretch should present some very interesting features. The Seven Devils canyon is recognized as one of the wonder gorges in this western country. From the upper end of this canyon a point about 10 miles below Weiser and proceeding upstream, the river would present no particular hazards except a very short rapid and low water falls but open beaches on either side would permit portage.

"This condition prevails as far as Shoshone falls, which is near Twin Falls, Idaho. Portage over all of the numerous falls in the Twin Falls territory would be comparatively simple as the territory to the river is thickly populated.

"The Shoshone falls, higher than Niagara and in my opinion much more beautiful, should present an interesting feature to the boatman approaching it from below.

From Shoshone Falls to Milner dam, 60 miles, no difficulty would be encountered except low water during summer months. A portage would be necessary over Milner dam, which is about 50 feet high. From Milner dam to American Falls no difficulty should be encountered as a major portion of this distance would be backwater from the Minidoka dam. A few rapids immediately below American Falls may require portage. A short portage would be necessary over American Falls dam from whence the next 30 miles upstream would be across the backwater of the American Falls reservoir.

From this point to Ashton, Idaho, the stream should be navigable with a few portages. From Ashton to Lower Mesa falls on the north fork of Snake river the going should be easy, encountered with a few portages slightly longer than those in the lower reaches. Both the Upper and Lower Mesa Falls may present some rather difficult going but during the summer months help would be available from any of the numerous summer resorts in this territory.

Chore Boy Becomes President of Firm
NEW YORK, March 27 (AP)—Harry A. Cronk, new president of Borden's Farm Products company, was a chore boy in a rural dairy 30 years ago. In Binghamton, New York, where he was born, he began his "milk career" by helping a local dealer after school hours. He went to high school for two years and then worked for a butter company. From that point by natural stages he joined the Borden company and served in many important executive positions.

"Once over the upper Mesa falls no further serious difficulty should be encountered to the extreme headwaters of Outlet creek, a tributary of Snake river which heads in Henry's lake. This lake is about 15 miles due west of West Yellowstone. A portage of approximately five miles would put you over the continental divide and into the Madison river, from whence you could proceed by way of Fire Hole river with numerous portages to Old Faithful Inn."

POSTS LAST MANY YEARS AS RESULT OF DIPPING

ITHACA, N. Y. April 4 (AP)—Ninety-three fence posts standing in a row at the edge of a pasture near Cornell university this spring are giving farmers an object lesson in conservation. They really are laboratory posts, products of Cornell research, but their laboratory is the great outdoors in all weathers. They are of woods that once no canny farmer used for fence posts, varieties known to rot after about three years' service. But these Cornell posts were set out more than 10 years ago and this spring still are sound. C. H. Guise, assistant professor of forest management in the state department of agriculture, says they appear to be good for about another decade.

Cubans Revive Legends of $6,000,000 in Gold Buried 120 Years Ago by Pirates

SPECTACULAR FINGER OF LATROBE POINTS WAY TO ADVENTURERS

Hunters of Treasure Pondering Over Omens in Grim Reminders of Bloodier Times at Cayo Largo

(By The Associated Press) HAVANA, Cuba, April 6—Bridging a gap of 120 years, the spectral finger of Latrobe, the pirate, points vaguely the way adventurers must follow to solve the mystery of several ancient cannon recently discovered in the waters off Cayo Largo.

Those whose blood has been fired by the hint of treasure trove ask if Cayo Largo might be the treasure island described by Robert Louis Stevenson. Others ponder whether the secret cache of Latrobe, lieutenant of Jean Lafitte, might lie near these grim reminders of bloody times.

Somewhere, Lafitte buried $6,000,000 in gold—History recounts the looting of two Spanish galleons. History also recounts the death of Lafitte before the money could be spent. Legend tells of a mysterious map drawn by Lafitte while that genial soul was sketching his last and contrived to a cabin boy for delivery to Latrobe. The map never reached its destination, it passed from hand into oblivion. But the gold, $6,000,000 in gold, lies somewhere near Cuba.

Once Pirates' Haven The myriad islands and shallow waters of the Cayo Largo were once hunting grounds for pirate swiftness with bloodshed and pillage—this much is known. Early in the eighteenth century English and Dutch slave galleons, bringing their trade in "black ivory," abandoned the northern route to the Carolinas for the Caribbean and Mexican channel approach to the gulf states. They were wont to stop off in Jamaica and on the Cuban coast to fatten their cargo before making the New Orleans market, until Lafitte and Latrobe found them and began to scour the Caribbean.

What became of Latrobe's $6,000,000 is a traditional question on the Isle of Pines and other isles off Cuba's south coast. Just prior to his execution Latrobe is said to have passed a slip of paper to one of his ship's boys with instructions for him to deliver it to Lafitte. Lafitte met death soon after, and the note is supposed to have passed from hand to hand, its cryptic message stating merely that the treasure was buried "90 feet from the head of a boiling spring."

An interesting theory advanced in Havana holds that papers found in the ruins of a Key West building in September, 1823, should give a clue to the location of Latrobe's cache.

The papers were found by Charles and William Pent at 628 Caroline street and are reproduced from their description by Havana artists, as they were lost by the Pent family. One of them bore the drawing of a hand holding a dagger horizontal to the left from which the hand emerged and bearing under Collmar. Acting on this, several search parties have combed the northern coast of Cayo Largo, but "have failed to find anything so like the old cannon of Cayo Largo, which lies due south of Key West. But while the flurry of excitement has brought long and somewhat secret search into the lives of fishermen of Cayo Largo, the Cuban government maintains a rather torpid attitude toward the affair.

A map (right) found in Key West, Florida, in 1925, has been resurrected in support of a theory that pirate gold is hidden near a cache of ancient cannon found off the Cuban coast. The map at left was found at the same time. The maps are reproductions of the originals, which were lost by the finders.

Admiral Von Zenker Thinks Naval Disarmament Fiction

By MARY BAINBRIDGE HAYDEN (Associated Press Staff Writer) BERLIN, April 6 (AP)—British-American naval equality is an accepted principle, but naval disarmament scarcely more than a fiction, in the opinion of Admiral von Zenker, a former German naval chief of staff and commander of the cruiser "Von der Tann" at the Battle of Jutland.

Within two years England's position has changed to one of opposition to America and agreement with France on the naval question, the admiral said at a recent Berlin lecture.

"But England will never let it come to war with America," he added. "The most important feature of the Washington disarmament conference," he said, "was that the two Anglo-Saxon powers stood together, at least in their decision to share world dominion over the sea. England conceded naval equality to America."

Since then, the speaker felt, there have been changes in the situation, but Great Britain's construction policy has been largely dictated by action on the part of France. The British cruiser-building program, for example, was in answer to France's increased air fleet.

France, in turn, resenting being held to equality with Italy by the Washington agreement and fearing Mussolini's expansion policy, pushed the construction of smaller naval craft, which were at once duplicated by Italy. This, the admiral declared, led to an immediate strengthening of England's Mediterranean fleet and her command of the Suez route to India.

"Even the smallest nations today," he argued, "are trying to establish and maintain their sea power, for the war showed conclusively how decisive a factor control of the sea is in the history of nations."

"If the efforts to abolish our national defense, and particularly our German navy, be successful, it must mean for our sons and grandsons new losses and new sacrifices of blood and wealth."

The "WORLD'S GREATEST TIRES" and this PROVES IT!

Two main parts—(1) THE TREAD and (2) THE CARCASS—govern the life and value of any tire. In BOTH Tread and Carcass, Goodyear Tires are demonstrably superior—in fact as well as name, "The World's Greatest Tires."

Come in, and let the tire itself PROVE it—by these two easy tests—so simple a child can understand.

TEST No. 1

Press down your palm on the tread of a Goodyear Tire. Feel how the deep, thick, sharp-edged diamond-shaped blocks of the famous All-Weather Tread pinch, grip and hang on. That is the way the Goodyear All-Weather Tread grips and holds the road. SAFETY! in all weather—full center tread traction with every turn of the wheels. LONGER, SLOWER TREAD WEAR! Easy steering and quiet running.

TEST No. 2

This machine will show you why Goodyear Tires—made with SUPERTWIST—are stronger, longer-lived, and more elastic. Right before your eyes it will prove that SUPERTWIST Cord stretches 60% farther, recovers surer, and resists breaking more stubbornly than any other cord.

THE PROOF of these demonstrated superiorities of the Goodyear Tire is: MORE PEOPLE RIDE ON GOODYEAR TIRES THAN ON ANY OTHER KIND

The complete Goodyear line provides the right Goodyear Tire for every car, for every purpose, and for every purse. We carry the complete Goodyear line, and give standard Goodyear Service.

The proved superiorities of Goodyear Tires enable Goodyear to offer you the broadest possible guarantee. This guarantee is based on the miles built into Goodyear Tires, miles that cannot be written into any tire. "There are no miles in a bottle of ink."

We will be glad to help you make these tests at any time. No obligation—thank YOU for the opportunity. Come in today whether or not you need a tire now.

IT DOES NOT COST MORE TO BUY A GOODYEAR TIRE
