REBEL AND FEDERAL HOSTS MANEUVERING TO DECIDE CONFLICT

Reports at Nogales Tell of Movement of 27 Troop Trains of Loyal Forces to West Coast of Mexico

(By The Associated Press) AGUA PRIETA, Sonora, April 15—Rebel and federal troops, deserting old battle fields, maneuvered again today in what appeared were efforts to decide the fate of the Mexican revolution.

Reports to Nogales, Arizona, told of the movement of 27 federal troop trains northward from Guadalupe, Saltillo, eventually en route up the west coast of Mexico to further battle up the rebels in Sonora.

There, 1800 soldiers of the brach Chihuahua army of General J. O. Escobar rested after a long march over Pulpito pass, the one rocky route through the Sierra Madre mountains from Chihuahua to Sonora.

The arrivals here joined the command of General Ramon Yucupitlan, Indian chief, left in full charge of the war situation in northeastern Sonora for the rebels since the capture last week of General Escobar and Faust Topete for the west coast. Yucupitlan's nearest enemy encampment is the federal garrison at Naco, Sonora, 30 miles westward.

ADDRESSES AT COAL DEALERS' MEETING SCORE UNFAIR TRADE

Honesty and Good Faith in Dealing With Consumer and One Another Win Approval of 150 Delegates

Complete cooperation of coal dealers of Idaho with a view of eliminating unfair trade practices and stabilizing the industry was the keynote of the speeches made yesterday at the third annual convention of the Idaho Coal Dealers' association which convened in the Elks hall at 10 A. M. A fair price throughout the year and square dealing with customers were among one another were points emphasized.

There were about 150 members and visitors in the hall when the meeting was called to order by President W. Worthington, Boise, following registration at the Regester hotel. The Leo Logan orchestra gave a musical selection which was followed by the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce, delivered the address of welcome, to which Dick Wells, Pocatello, former president of the Pocatello Chamber of Commerce, responded. President Worthington then delivered the annual address. Secretary B. B. Poulter, Boise, read the annual report. There were two addresses during the morning session. Paul Van Patten, Ontario, Oregon, spoke on "Why Organization Is Essential to Business," pointing out industrial development as a factor in modern trade. "Margin of Profit" was discussed by W. I. Poulter, general sales manager of the Perrier's Coal company, Salt Lake City, Mr. Poulter called attention to small items of expense incident to the business which cut down the apparent margin.

Nominations Approved When the meeting came to order at 1 P. M. following the noon luncheon, the Leo Logan orchestra played a selection. The committee for the next convention composed of C. W. Gamble, Boise; J. C. Jensen, vice president; Ed. Dick, Wells, Pocatello, made a report which was accepted unanimously. The "order" were read by W. Worthington, president; W. Worthington, vice president; Archie W. Lake, Boise; vice president; Frank W. Lutz, Idaho Falls; secretary; A. B. C. Dawson, Boise; treasurer; Bert B. Stone, Boise.

Members board of control were re-elected except W. H. Ellis, Baker, Oregon, who was succeeded by Paul Van Patten, Ontario, Oregon. Other members board are: J. McCoslin, Boise; A. B. Cooper, Caldwell; (Continued On Page 5, Column 1)

CHURCHILL ACTS TO REMOVE TAX ON TEA

Chancellor of Exchequer Indicates Surest Way to Win Electorate's Hearts

LONDON, April 15 (AP)—Winston Churchill, chancellor of the exchequer, indicating his belief that the surest way with the help of the British men and women and perhaps their votes, is through their teapots, today announced the abolishment of a 300-year-old tax on tea in unfolding his 1929 budget to parliament. The chancellor thereby lifted the national financial statement to the level of a fighting announcement for the forthcoming general election.

Chills and Thrills Will Mingle During Initial Encounters

Throng of 230,000 Fans Will Turn Out to See 16 Diamond Nine Open Race For Two Circuit Pennants

(By The Associated Press)

The major league opening day scheduled together with probable battles and weather prospects:

American League

BOSTON AT NEW YORK—Cool, cloudy; Hitting and Gaston; Plogras and Grabowski.

PHILADELPHIA AT WASHINGTON—Cloudy; Grove and Cochran; Jones and Ruel.

CLEVELAND AT ST. LOUIS—Cloudy, warmer; Thomas and Anthony; Gray and Schanz.

PITTSBURGH AT CHICAGO—Cloudy; Hanning and Harp; Breyer, Reed and Gonzalez.

ST. LOUIS AT CINCINNATI—Clear, warmer; Alexander and Wilson; Lines and Salsinger.

DOPE SHEETS WRAPPED UP
BY ALAN J. GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, April 15.—The dope sheets can now be wrapped up and it will be just as well if old man fan and his youthful companion wrap themselves up comfortably too.

The prospect is there will be as many chills as there are thrills when the 16 major league baseball clubs swing into action today for the grand and gala opening of the 1929 baseball season.

In the opening day, at least ten times as many spectators, approximately 230,000 in all, probably will turn out.

The largest crowds of the day, close to 200,000 each are expected to witness two of the outstanding openers—one in the East and one in the West.

The world champion Yankees in conflict with the Boston Red Sox at the Yankee stadium, and the West heading the first appearance of Rogers Hornsby with the Chicago Cubs as they start the nation's first game.

Hornsby is expected to be among the 25,000 who will see the Washington Senators, managed for the first time by their old favorite Walter Johnson, in the opening encounter with Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics.

Commissioner Landis will help celebrate the inaugural for the Yankees by presenting weekly championship emblems to the New Yorkers while President Hedges of the National league, will act as the game between the Giants and Phillies at Philadelphia.

In a mid-afternoon here are how the contenders size up for the big show:

American League

YANKEES—No question as to terrific hitting power but questionable pitching strength and a problem at short, with Durocher at catcher and Larry for the getaway, and Keene at third.

ATHLETICS—Handled by all elements of such stars as Simmons, Grose, Ewing and Egan but lacking plenty and reserve power and pitching strength.

BROWNS—Third place club of 1928, improved and complete with fine pitching prospects, and strong outfield.

SENATORS—In brilliant form, on basis of spring training, with fine pitching but prospects looking on success of the center.

TIGERS—Prospects doubtful, as re-

THE GOLDEN BEARS of California, (above) Olympic and Poughkeepsie champions, defend their title in the season's first major rowing event, against Washington's Huskies (below) on the Oakland estuary.

Giant Second Team Wins Over West Pointers, 6-1

WEST POINT, N. Y., April 15.—A 6-1 lineup made almost entirely of second string players, the New York Giants defeated the Army today, 6 to 1, to close their exhibition season.

Score by innings: R H E. New York 1st: 202 009 031-6 0 1. Army: 639 023 031-1 5 6.

Batters: Henry, Kelly and Cunningham; Hendon, Evans, Cook and Egan.

Boston Braves Trounce Holy Cross College, 6-1

WORCESTER, Mass., April 15.—The Boston Braves garnered six hits from the offerings of the Holy Cross pitchers to beat the college team, 6 to 1, in the Crusaders' opening home game.

Score by innings: R H E. Boston 1st: 000 100 002-6 6 4. Holy Cross: 010 035 002-1 4 2.

Batters: James, Leveritt, Cowley, Collins and Spitzer;

Babe Ruth and Actress Of New York to Marry

NEW YORK, April 15.—George Herman (Babe) Ruth today obtained a license to marry Mrs. Cluippe Hudson, 26, New York actress and a widow.

Clerk Michael J. Crane, who issued the license shortly before the bureau closed, asked Ruth when he would marry. The baseball star replied: "Some day this year." Then he added: "The season opens tomorrow."

Ball Clubs of Southern Association Start Season

ATLANTA, April 15.—Final regular season were taken today by eight Southern association ball clubs and tomorrow the battle for the 1929 pennant will get under way on four fronts.

Atlanta opens at Chattanooga, Birmingham at Nashville, Memphis at Little Rock and New Orleans at Mobile.

The same four clubs, that have been fighting it out for the flag in the past season assured of first division berths this year. They are New Orleans, Memphis, Birmingham and Atlanta.

White Sox Improved but Not Yet Dangerous

NATIONAL LEAGUE

CHICAGO—Great attack, with Hornsby getting pace, and pitching program good enough to keep club in fight all day.

GIANTS—Better than team that finished close second in 1928, particularly in pitching and middle of the infield.

CARDINALS—Another club hoping for success of 1928 effort. Also good in pitching and veteran approach to the field.

PIRATES—Water set up again and better pitching, promising pitchers added to Keener, Grimes, but attitude unchanged.

REDS—Battered at close of season, improved, but not out of danger in respect to their year ahead.

ROBINSONS—Believe on bulldog manager in baseball, Dazzy Vance, to keep club out of rock which it may find in service because of injuries and erratic defense.

PHILLIES—Hard hit by loss of Theonor, star shortstop, but nevertheless improved.

BRVES—Interesting as an experiment, but not in the pennant calculation.

Dempsey, Promoter, Enthusiastic Over Fistic Conditions

After Being Roughly Handled by Newspaperman on Return to New York, Former Champion Tells Plans

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 15.—A good-natured, friendly, wrestling match gave Jack Dempsey a private, but brusque workout today and gave a host of newspapermen all ready heartily for his opponent, an insight into the former heavyweight king's physical condition.

Dempsey returned to New York from a routine trip to Chicago and Detroit so enthused over the fistic situation in general that he decided on a gymnasium workout "just to keep the fat off." He became so excited that he got the workout without ever leaving the office of his partner in promotion, Humbert J. Fahey.

After stalling off all efforts to determine whether he would fight again, Dempsey tackled a big newspaperman who was twisting, needles flew out and clothes were generally ruffled and soiled in the fracas that ended with the old man madder wadded into a corner, pitiful and all but conquered. He therefore decided to forego the first of campaigning examinations drills he had planned for this afternoon.

THE COMING OF ARBOR DAY

The observance of Arbor Day is a beautiful custom. A community is greatly indebted to nature for the beauty of the trees and shrubs which add so much to its attractiveness.

The people of Twin Falls can adopt no better plan for making their city beautiful than to observe Arbor Day, and arrange to put out some trees or shrubbery which will grow in beauty each year.

A New Yorker at Large G. D. SEYMOUR

NEW YORK, April 15.—A minor crisis arose in the offices of the Columbia Broadcasting System today when G. D. Seymour, a member of the board of directors, was called to the city to attend to the funeral of a friend.

The only thing to do, says flying fluff, was to have a very definite distance for any involvement with the number 13, seemed to be to postpone the christening rites until the end of the month.

But was it proper to hold a christening on Sunday? Precedents were sought and experts consulted. The best minds of the Columbia Broadcasting System were called into conference. Had they ever heard of a Sunday christening?

They looked up the records and emerged from their researches to report: "Sunday christenings were entirely proper. So far as ocean liners were concerned there was no objection to christening one on the thirteenth of the month. But one precaution was always taken in the case of ocean liners: No such ceremony was ever held on a Friday, for Friday is regarded by sailors as the ill-omened day, much more so than the thirteenth of the month."

So the ceremonial of giving to the baby the Alphabet names Newton, Nacomas and Nodabum was set for Sunday.

Fast Riders for Bankers The New York Boston line, exclusively operated by the Pullman and express company will travel in separate Pullman and White Star cars.

The belief that there is a place for a profitable passenger air line between the two cities is based upon the fact that a dozen or more St. Louis and Chicago banks and bond houses and mercantile firms have station reservations every day on the extra trains between the two cities, which they use only about half the time. But pay for daily, in order that their representatives may go back and forth quickly and with no loss of business errands.

Such commercial houses can buy communication tickets at a reduced rate, and can use the tickets at any time.

An aluminum plate service has been turned out for the air liners, and a stewardess will be aboard to attend to the bouillon for travelers midway of the morning trip and coffee or tea on the afternoon voyage.

However, will come out of thermos bottles.

326-Quart Plane Speaking of airplanes, the story is credited in New York aviation circles that orders were taken surreptitiously for a new type of airplane to be built for the use of a special machine designed for the use of a special machine.

The plane, was known as a 326-Quart, and was built in a rear compartment of what appeared to be a regular airplane. It was, of course, exhibited publicly, but those who manifested an authentic interest in it were directed, the story goes, to the "observation room" where it was on display.

A Washington Bystander By Kirke L. Simpson

WASHINGTON, April 15.—When Hugh Gibson finally set out for Geneva and the arms party, it must have been ironic to him that, but for lack of a sufficient private income he would have been going to become American ambassador in Paris.

Gibson's system was the diplomatic service for more than 21 years is impressive. It might be noted, also, that this Los Angeles boy was headed for France with a new set of clothes before he joined up with Uncle Sam's diplomatic regulars in 1908. He is a graduate of Ecole Libre des Sciences Politiques, Paris.

That background, coupled with his extraordinary experience in diversified financial matters in many countries, seemed to mark him distinctively as a man for the Paris embassy post.

But the question of dollars stands on so, with varying conditions as to expenses depending on whether the government wishes to pay for them or they have to rent one for themselves. Paris is among the most expensive.

Paris is among the most expensive. Paris is among the most expensive. Paris is among the most expensive.

Paris is among the most expensive. Paris is among the most expensive. Paris is among the most expensive.

Legislators Await Hoover's Message On Vital Question

(Continued From Page One) day in the senate loomed the prospect of administration for the limited administration program. The ever present prohibition problem, immigration, the financial dispute between the federal reserve board and Wall street are among the subjects listed for discussion, if not for investigation.

The heavy Republican majorities in each branch hardly were installed today before the administration machinery had put the new $500,000,000 farm relief measure before the house.

Before the end of the week, both the senate and house expect to be at work on this controversial agricultural problem.

In another week the complex tariff bill will be brought forth. While the senate is working over this, Senator Watson, Indiana, the new Republican leader, expects the senate to dispose of farm relief before the house.

There is a tentative plan in the minds of administration leaders for the recess after the house passes the tariff measure as the senate must wait for its own committee to go over the measure.

Today was the first time the house elected last November had assembled since the 42nd members were present. As in the senate, the Democratic strength had shrunk considerably.

The senate previously was organized and received its new members on the day after inauguration but another new one, Henry Allen, Kansas, came forward today before the house was organized by his old political rival, Charles Curtis, the new vice president.

Mr. Curtis administered the oath to Mr. Allen and also to Bronson Cutting, Republican, New Mexico, and Robert LaFollette, Republican, Wisconsin, who were elected again last November and who were unable to be present on March 5.

The appearance of Oscar DePriest, a negro, who was elected by Chicago Republicans to fill the seat of the late Mrs. DePriest, was the first time in 25 years a member of his race has been in the house. He took a seat near the rear of the chamber with the Republicans.

Four other members of the house who still face charges over their seats, were elected again last November and who were unable to be present on March 5.

Ambassador's Body Rests in Cleveland

Long before the hour of the services at 10:30 o'clock, the church was crowded around the church to pay silent respect to the memory of the ambassador and most of them stood in a steady drizzle for half an hour more to see the funeral procession start.

As the steep notes of the organ filled the cathedral, the men and other activities were halted. The city was dressed in mourning.

Rebel and Federal Hosts Manoeuvring To Decide Conflict

Airplanes and inspectors who completed a survey of the railroad today reported that the federal army here could move to the entrance to the pass without delay. At least 5000 federals, and probably more, including cavalry, artillery and machine gun companies with a complement of airplanes will move toward the pass from here.

No opposition is expected until the army starts the difficult march across the mountains.

ADDRESSES OF COAL MEN SCORE UNFAIR PRACTICES

Declaring for self-regulation, "supported and enforced by sanction of law," to obviate "evils of secret and destructive practices," a code of ethics and trade practices adopted by the coal producers' association was outlined and suggested for adoption by Idaho coal dealers by C. B. Hotchkiss, Salt Lake City, general sales manager Utah Fuel company.

Mr. Hotchkiss said that all coal producers in Utah, except one, here, were in the code. This company would be liable to the regulation set forth in the code so far as its provisions were stipulated in the law and would be bound by regulations which it is anticipated will be made by the federal trade commission for Utah producers of bituminous coal.

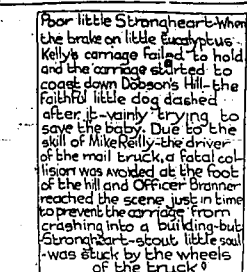

The address of Bert S. Stone of the State Lumber company, who presided over the talk of Mr. Hotchkiss during summer storage in lieu of sales of the law and would be bound by regulations which it is anticipated will be made by the federal trade commission for Utah producers of bituminous coal.

Following adjournment the visitors left the Elks hall on a sight seeing trip to Sheehane Falls and the Twin Falls-Jerome, Inter-county, rim-to-rim bridge. During the afternoon women who accompanied the delegates were given five matinees presented by the Idaho and the Oregon theatres. They later joined the delegates on sight-seeing trip to the American Legion boxing contest held to the coal dealers' dance in Dancland.

There was a stoker and furnace exhibit during the day in the Addison T. Smith building, the corner of Third avenue and Sheehane street south in which stokers were put on display by the Detweiler Coal company, Twin Falls, and R. C. Brown, Boise, and furnaces by the Brice Metal works, the Consolidated Wagon and Machine company, and the Ballantyne Heating and Plumbing company, Twin Falls. This exhibit will be open again today.

The program for today follows: 8:00 A. M.—Breakfast meeting for operators, sales managers, salesmen, officers and directors of the Idaho Coal floor little Strongheart—When the brake on little Kelly's car Kelly's carriage failed to hold and the carriage started to coast down Dobson's Hill—the little Kelly's car dashed after it vainly trying to save the baby. Due to the skill of Mike Reilly, the driver of the mail truck, a fatal collision was avoided at the foot of the hill and Officer Branner reached the scene just in time to prevent the carriage from crashing into a building—but Strongheart's little soul was stuck by the wheels of the truck!

Flood Waters Renew Cataract's Grandeur

With Snake river in flood stage, great Shoshone Falls, five miles north, has been restored for a few days to its pristine grandeur. Hundreds of persons are taking advantage of the opportunity to view the mighty cataract, which at night is illuminated by flood lights installed by the Idaho Power company a year ago.

During the irrigation season almost all water is diverted from Snake river channel, and it is only during a few days in the spring when melting snows and rains of the stream release flood waters that Shoshone Falls resumes its original magnificence.

TWO PERSONS HURT WHEN SPEEDING CAR OVERTURNS

Parker Brannin, associate editor, and Pat Brannin, advertising solicitor for the Idaho Times, are under treatment at the county general hospital here for injuries received when the speeding automobile in which they were riding toward Bull Sunday evening hurtled off the highway at the corner two miles north of Piler.

Mr. Brannin, who with Mrs. Parker Brannin, was riding in a rumble seat, received severe bruises across the abdomen with possible internal injuries. Pat Brannin, who was driving, was cut about the face and throat by broken glass from the windshield. A gash across the throat laid bare the Adam's apple, but did not scratch the jugular.

The accident victims were brought to the hospital by Dr. J. H. Murphy, Buhl, who was passing when the car left the road.

Masonry in Early Day Topic of Address Here

An illustrated lecture dealing with the early history of Masonry in the Inter-Mountain country is to be delivered by J. A. Harrington, Idaho Falls, at a special communication of Twin Falls Chapter, No. 10, of the Order of the Masons, at the Elks club here, Tuesday evening, April 16.

CITY COFFERS WILL HAVE FAIR SURPLUS WHEN YEAR CLOSES

Figures Show Balance of Over $4400 Up to End of Fiscal Period; Council Considers Buying Grader

The present city administration has spent $109,800.37 of the $124,500 appropriation for the year ending May 1, 1929. It was shown by a report filed at a meeting of the city council by G. M. Hall, city clerk. Estimated expenditures for April are $10,324.32, leaving a net balance of $4,421 for the year. In view of this showing the council decided to investigate the cost of a one-man road grader, which the members believe was much needed.

It was reported that Mrs. Maud Burton and M. F. Burton, owners of the Taylor building at the intersection of Main avenue south with Missidoka street had failed to comply with a notice to remove certain projections said to extend too far over Missidoka street. The city attorney was ordered to take such steps as may be required to secure compliance.

Pass Resolution
A resolution was passed standardizing procedure required to secure sewer connections by people living outside the city limits. The Idaho Power company was authorized to receive domestic water service for its power station north of the city limits. In accordance with regulations governing such extensions.

Complaints alleging that certain buildings on lot 19, block 2, Golden Rule addition, held in the name of B. H. Gibson and on lot 12, block 5 in the Jones addition, in the name of Albert Eastman, might become a menace because of fire risk, the building and fire inspectors were ordered to examine the property and the owners were cited to appear before the council April 29 at its regular meeting for hearing on the subject.

The Claude Brown music company was granted a permit to build an addition in the rear of its place of business at 143 Main avenue east, at a cost of $200.

A report was received from Harry Parsons, county auditor, showing that Twin Falls banks have ample securities deposited as required by law. Augusta Runyon received a permit to conduct the Twin Falls rooms, over Tom's cafe, as a rooming house. Bills aggregating $320 for water pipe and for labor on streets and water works were allowed.

DAIRYMEN PROTEST AGENT'S FUND CUT

Association Secretary Asks Commission to Approve Total Estimated Expense

Twin Falls County Cooperative Dairy-men's association, through its secretary, J. Angelo Dahl, has registered with the county commissioners a protest against reported reduction in the budget appropriation for maintenance of the county agricultural agent's office during the coming year. The reduction complained of, according to the records, is a cut of $375 from an estimate of $75 for purchase of a new automobile, leaving $500 appropriated for that purpose. Total of the appropriation for the county agent's office this year is $3250 against $3100 last year.

Text of Protest
The protest of the dairymen's association is as follows:
"It has come to our attention that there is some criticism in regard to the budget allowed for the extension division of the university. We feel that if a cut is made in that division, it will greatly paralyze that particular office, which we feel is one of the greatest benefits that the agricultural interests can have, and we therefore recommend to our commissioners not to decrease the allowance for the county agent's office."

SMITH HOLDS POST THREE MORE YEARS

Twin Falls Superintendent of School Signs Contract After Two Years' Service

William B. Smith, who is completing his second year as superintendent of Twin Falls schools, will continue in that position for three more years under terms of a contract signed at the last meeting of Twin Falls school trustees. It was announced last evening. Mr. Smith was called to the superintendent of schools here from Clarkston, Washington, to succeed E. D. Bloom.

Most of the teachers in Twin Falls schools this year are on new contracts to return next year. The board has been advised, indicating prospect for small turnover in the teaching staff for the coming year. All of the teachers employed this year have been re-elected. Survey of buildings and grounds, preliminary to advertising for bids for repair and redecoration of buildings where necessary, will be made by the board's committee on buildings and grounds; this week.

Solemn Final Tribute For Funeral For Youth

Paying tribute of sorrow and sympathy, an assemblage of neighbors and friends that overflowed the White military chapel gathered here Sunday afternoon to attend funeral services for Wayne Williams Miller, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, Curry, and a pupil of Curry Union school. An impressive service was conducted by the Rev. C. Curry of the Christian church. Pallbearers chosen from among intimate friends of the family were George W. Rettig, Frank Thompson, Harry Capps and M. Kenworthy.

Annual Inspection For National Guard Unit

Company E, 16th Engineers, Twin Falls unit of the Idaho National Guard, mustered 44 called men at an assembly with Captain J. L. Hodgins, First Lieutenant J. P. Thomas and Second Lieutenant J. H. Seaver for an annual inspection conducted last evening by Captain Aubrey H. Bond, Sixth United States Engineers.

The inspecting officer was accompanied by Colonel F. C. Hummel, Boise, commanding 16th Engineers, and Colonel M. G. McConnell, Boise, Idaho adjutant general.

Idaho Experiment Stations Seek New Spray to Kill Weeds

AGRICULTURE SCHOOL PARTY MAKING STUDY OF CONTROL METHOD

Present Indications Show South Part of State Preparing for Campaign of Greater Scope For 1929

(By The Associated Press)
BOISE, April 14—Idaho agricultural experiment stations are now engaged in the business of trying to find a weed spray that will kill the weeds but not burn up the sprayers.

Sodium chlorate, which has been found to be about the best weed eradicator, has a tendency to catch fire after it has been mixed with water and dried on the weeds. Last year there were a number of accidents in southern Idaho counties which were conducting campaigns against weeds.

As an assistance to this year's campaign, a party from the college of agriculture is making a survey of the weed districts of South Idaho to study further weed control methods as well as to discover the effects of the work of last year.

The party consists of J. D. Remberg, field agronomist and state seed commissioner with the University of Idaho agricultural experiment station, W. Hubert, agronomist with the experiment station, O. A. Fitzgerald, agricultural editor with the college of agriculture and E. A. Field, field agronomist and state seed commissioner.

Preliminary to beginning this year's campaign, Remberg advised farmers who are contemplating weed eradication by use of chemicals to leave weed infested areas untouched until time for application of the chemicals.

Experience in Idaho in combatting weeds with chemicals has demonstrated that eradication is more effective when the patches have not been cultivated or disturbed in any way. The object of leaving the ground unmolested until time for application of the chemical, Remberg explained, is to allow all sprouts from underground root stalks plenty time to appear above the ground.

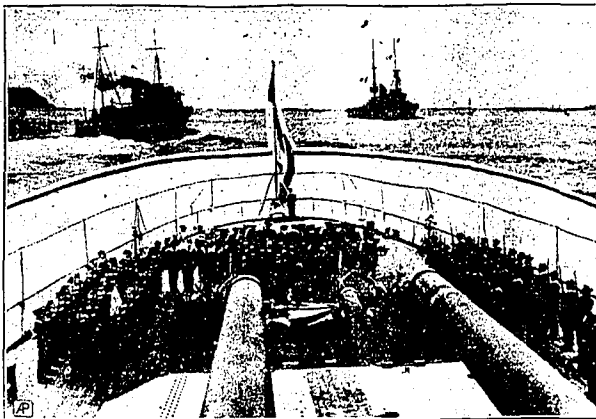

In Idaho's weed eradication campaign sodium chlorate has proved the most effective killing agent. The Idaho agricultural experiment station, however, now is investigating several other chemicals which show promise of being as effective as sodium chlorate in killing the noxious perennials which infest many farms.

Weed infested areas in various parts of the Snake River valley were treated with these chemicals last summer. The experiment station now is studying results of the experimental program from a view of recommending the most efficient chemical in time for the information to be used during the 1929 weed campaign which will open in July.

Last year weed districts were organized in nine southern and southeastern Idaho counties. From present indications Idaho is preparing for a 1929 weed campaign of considerably greater scope. Legislation passed at the last session gave county commissions greater leeway in conducting the campaigns.

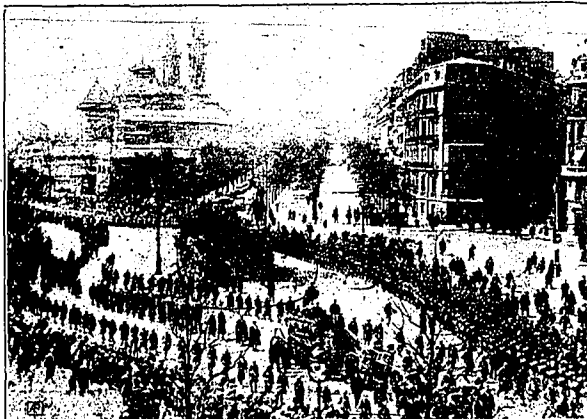

ABANDONED ACREAGE OF WINTER WHEAT WILL BE SMALL
BOISE, April 12 (AP)—Unless weather during April is very abnormal, the abandoned acreage of winter wheat will be very small. H. Jacobson, United States Crop statistician, said today in his monthly crop report.

When Paris Paid Tribute to Myron T. Herrick

GENERAL VIEW of funeral cortege of United States Ambassador Myron T. Herrick on its way from American Embassy to American cathedral where funeral services were held.

Wheat in Idaho had a condition of 90 per cent of normal on April 1, he said. On the same date it was 89 per cent in 1928; 92 per cent in 1927 and 92 per cent the 10-year average. Snow cover was generally ample during the winter in the three main sections—northern, eastern and southwestern counties. In fact, winter wheat fields in eastern counties were still snow blanketed April 1. In northern counties fields were generally bare the last week in March, and some damage is reported from alternate thawing and freezing of the soil. This condition was not general, however.

The first report of damage from winter killing will be issued as of May 1, and will indicate the acreage remaining for harvest. There were 518,000 acres of winter wheat planted last fall. The crop went into the winter with a condition of 86 of normal, and as indicated above, reached April 1 with a condition of 80 per cent.

The United States winter wheat crop had a condition of 82.7 per cent on April 1 in comparison with 68.8 per cent a year ago; 84.5 per cent two years ago and 81.9 per cent the 10-year average. There were 43,228,000 acres planted last fall, or 8.6 per cent less than was planted in the fall of 1927. Last December the nation's winter wheat crop had a condition of 84.4 per cent, which indicates that there was a loss of nearly two points in condition during the winter.

31 CITIES IN IDAHO ADVANCING AVIATION

List, According to Federal Aeronautics Advisor, Represents Entire State

BOISE, April 15 (AP)—Thirty-one cities and towns in Idaho will take the forefront in the state's aviation program as the result of airports and landing fields already laid out, or well considered by the communities.

The list announced today by George Carter Miller, federal aeronautics advisor for Idaho, included cities and towns in all sections of the state, both in the valley sections and in the mountains. In one instance, that of Wallace, the city is so located in a canyon that an airport is not easily available. Yet aviation enthusiasts have already taken up the problem with state and federal authorities to devise means of setting a port.

Special Opportunities
Legislation passed by the last legislature gave at least three cities, Lewiston, Pocatello and Idaho Falls, special opportunities to purchase and equip airports, the city of Lewiston in particular, being permitted to acquire a port outside the state boundary in Washington.

Cities and towns already having ports or landing fields included Idaho Falls, Dubois, Pocatello, Burley, Twin Falls, Tupper, Caldwell, Nampa, Boise, Lewiston, Moscow, Coeur d'Alene, Kelliston, Salmon City and Spencer.

In addition, federally operated landing fields are maintained at Jerome, King Hill, Strevell, Mountain Home, Idahoone, Emmett and Weiser. These latter being in the vicinity of the route followed by the Salt Lake-Boise-Pasco air mail route.

Equipment Projected
Airway equipment is also projected at Blackfoot, Malad, McCall, Arco, Sandpoint, Bonanza Ferry, Wallace and Grandville, according to the list announced.

With the exception of the federal fields, these will all come under supervision of the department of public works which will have authority to require airports to furnish adequate protection and facilities for airmen. Every encouragement will be given municipalities building airports. It was announced, but the safety of aviators using the fields will be paramount.

Two Idaho Farmers Spend $400 to Prove Ownership Of Another's $30 Animal

LEWISTON, April 13 (AP)—Two Nez Perce county farmers spent $400 to prove that a 400-pound hog belonged to them, and then lost the calf, in probate court here.

John W. Painter, another farmer, said that a calf in the pens of O. F. Cromer and Willis Cromer, father and son, disappeared from his ranch, after he had "hand-fed" it for three months. The Cromers denied the truth of Painter's claim, and the matter went into the courts. Thirty witnesses were called by both sides. A jury returned a verdict for Painter and assessed the costs on the father and son after 10 minutes' deliberation.

Rabbit Growers Arrange For Marketing of Meat

BURLEY, April 15 (Special to The News)—Meeting in Burley, Thursday evening, members of the Mini-Castia Rabbit Growers' association took action which provides an outlet for all their future meat product. A local cold storage company agreed to purchase all dressed rabbits, and pack them, and forward to the best coast markets.

The forwarding company also agreed to finance the purchase of breeding rabbits for members of the association.

GEM STATE SCHOOLS TO OBSERVE HEALTH WEEK

BOISE, April 15 (AP)—A proclamation by Governor H. C. Baldrige today announced the inauguration, May 1, of a health week that will affect in some degree every school student in the state.

The proclamation followed one by President Herbert Hoover which in turn was authorized by congressional resolution. The president's proclamation "invited the people of the nation to participate in this endeavor to advance the health and welfare of American children."

The governor's proclamation "in hearty accord with the purposes of this act, earnestly urged the cooperation of health officials, parent-teacher associations, social service organizations, and the general public in observance of the occasion as a means to promote the physical well-being of our children, developing in them future citizens of full health and strength."

Mrs. Dorothy Even, director of the bureau of child hygiene, said every county superintendent had pledged cooperation in bringing the idea of health week before the children of the state and that programs would feature daily lessons in many of the schools of the state.

Herman Welker Youngest Prosecutor in Gem State

MOSCOW, April 15 (AP)—In Herman Welker, Washington county, has one of the youngest prosecuting attorneys in the state.

Welker, a senior in the law college at the University of Idaho, was called to Welker, his "home town," to take over the prosecutor's office for the spring term of district court. May 15 he will return to the university where he will complete work for his degree. Before leaving Moscow he passed an examination given by the local board, but he must be passed yet by the state board at Boise before he becomes a full fledged attorney.

He is the son of "Pat" Welker, widely known throughout the state as a deputy warden and later traveling guard for the Idaho state penitentiary.

HIGH MONEY RATES NO LURE IN IDAHO

Agricultural Interests of Gem State Benefit From Condition, Says Porter

BOISE, April 15 (AP)—The abnormally high rates of call money in New York have not drawn as much money out of the state as might have been expected and agricultural interests have benefited accordingly. Commissioner of Finance, E. W. Porter said today in a statement based on the condition of state banks as of March 27, the date of the last call.

An analysis of the report does not show as much of a depression in footings and balances as might have been expected, he said. The date of the call represents the low level of the year in banking figures, he pointed out, citing demands of early farm work as the reason for the usual drain.

Deposits Gain
"On December 31, last, deposits were shown to be $47,865,620, a gain during the period of $7,478,721. Figures as of March 27, the date of the last call, show deposits of $47,217,255. This total, however, has been considerably augmented by the addition thereto of the deposits of national banks which have become state banks during the interim. Deducting $4,140,000 obtained from that source, there remains about $43,069,000, showing a decrease since December 31 of approximately ten per cent."

Level Will Not Be Lower
This level will probably not be lowered, much he said, pointing out that the sale of wool and lambs, and grain held over should maintain the figures here shown at a fairly steady level until the larger production from agricultural sources later in the year will have had an opportunity to restore these figures to a higher level.

"As a general thing, the banks have been able to take care of the recession here shown without resorting to borrowing from other institutions and still occupy strong positions that indicate entire capability of taking care of industrial needs until new money from production during the coming season shall have been accumulated."

INDUSTRIAL OUTLOOK IN IDAHO IMPROVING

Continuation of Wintry Weather Retards Activity Throughout Gem State

DENVER, April 15 (AP)—Industrial and employment activities, in Idaho, retarded by the continuation of wintry weather during March, will show a material improvement by the end of April, it is shown by the report made public today by Quince Record, district director, employment service, United States department of labor.

Agricultural, railroad and building lines are gradually picking up momentum, with the surplus of labor noted during the winter months diminishing with the approach of favorable weather. An increased planted acreage of sugar beets will be noted in the southern and southeastern sections of the state, but a decrease in potato acreage is indicated, the report states. Metal mining will show an increase in activity by the end of the month, it is expected, with the labor supply and demand fairly balanced.

Telephone construction is in progress at Boise, Buhl, Burley, Jerome, Montpelier, Twin Falls, Weiser, Idaho Falls, Blackfoot, and Hazelton, with a copper circuit toll line under way between Boise and Emmett. An absorption of the majority of those heretofore temporarily unemployed in the Boise and Pocatello districts will be noted within the next few weeks, especially in agricultural, building, lumbering and miscellaneous activities.

Considerable building construction is programmed for Pocatello and Idaho Falls, with other Idaho cities expected to show increased activity in this line with the advent of favorable weather. An extensive program of highway reconstruction and re-surfacing is planned to commence in the near future, with resident labor indicated to be adequate to the demand, the report states.

A further increase in railroad and maintenance-of-way forces has been noted during April.

"Give and Take" Scores Hit at Orpheum Theatre

"Give and Take," the comedy special now playing at the Orpheum theatre to enthusiastic audiences, is considered one of the best fun films exhibited in years. Not only is the story replete with laughs but the cast is outstanding, headed by Jean Hersholt and George Sidney in the starring roles, and supported by George Lewis, Sharon Lynn, Sam Hardy, Rhoda M. Cross and Charles Hill Mattie. The director has made of this a delightful film.

There are chuckles and laughs for every inch of "Give and Take." The very mention of George Sidney and Jean Hersholt is sufficient to arouse anticipations of a merry time. And in the case of "Give and Take" there is no disappointment.

IDAHO WINTER WHEAT 90 PER CENT NORMAL

Department of Agriculture Report Shows Increase in Condition Over Last Year

BOISE, April 15 (Special to The News)—Winter wheat in Idaho had a condition of 90 per cent of normal on April 1, according to the crop bulletin for the month issued by Julius H. Jacobson, statistician of the United States department of agriculture, division of crop and livestock estimates. On the same date winter wheat was 89 per cent of normal in 1928, 92 per cent in 1927 and 82 per cent the 10 year average. Snow cover was generally ample all during the winter in the three main areas—northern, eastern and south-eastern counties. In fact, winter wheat fields in eastern counties were still snow blanketed April 1. In northern counties, fields were generally bare the last week in March, and some damage is reported from alternate thawing and freezing of the soil. This condition was not general however.

Abandoned Acreage Small. The first report on damage from winter-killing will be issued as of May 1 and will indicate the acreage remaining for harvest. There were 610,000 acres of winter wheat planted last fall. The crop went into the winter with a condition of 86 per cent of normal, and as indicated above, reached April 1 with a condition of 90 per cent. Unless winter during April is very abnormal, the abandoned acreage should be very small. In the fall of 1927, 480,000 acres were planted, of which only 456,000 acres remained for harvest in the fall of 1928.

The United States winter wheat crop had a condition of 82.7 per cent on April 1, in comparison with 80.3 per cent a year ago, 84.5 per cent two years ago, and 81.9 per cent the 10 year average. There were 12,228,000 acres planted last fall, or 8.6 per cent less than was planted in the fall of 1927. Last December the nation's winter wheat crop had a condition of 84.4 per cent, which indicates that there was a loss of nearly two points in condition during the winter.

COUNT LUCKNER THE Sea Devil

Copyright by Doubleday, Doran & Co.

I saw through the storm a twenty-three thousand ton auxiliary cruiser. Only men who have been to sea in winter cover of the sun, when it is to set sail in a hurricane. The canvas whipped as though a devil had taken hold of it. The mast bent under the force of the wind as it blasted against the sails. The ship and its rigging cracked and groaned as though trying out against the sudden strain.

So, with the combined force of the gale and our one-thousand-horse power motor, we scudded southward. Suddenly a flooding rain broke over us, a providential squall if there ever was one. It was like a gift of heaven. It blotted us out from the cruiser.

"It is the hand of God," I thought. "Only men who have been to sea in winter cover of the sun, when it is to set sail in a hurricane. The canvas whipped as though a devil had taken hold of it. The mast bent under the force of the wind as it blasted against the sails. The ship and its rigging cracked and groaned as though trying out against the sudden strain."
