PARACHUTE USELESS IN GIANT AIRPLANE SAYS VETERAN FLYER Charles Dickinson, 71, Removes Spectacles 2000 Feet Feet Up—Waits For Crash—Escapes Unhurt

By ALLEN DALRYMPLE (Associated Press Staff Writer) CHICAGO, July 16—Two thousand feet up in an airplane and no where to go but "down" was the fate of Charles Dickinson, 71, a former aviator, who today took off his glasses and waited quietly for the crash.

Mr. Dickinson was with him and landed without more serious injury than a severe shaking up, but the flight, one of the many in the 19 years of flying done by "Dad" Dickinson, the "father of aerobatics" is characteristic of the fiery little gray-eyed man.

He was flustered, amid his maps, compass, charts, newspapers and books—all on aviation—regarding development of safety devices for passengers in times of emergency.

The passengers were in mental, endurance and non-stop flights through the front pages of newspapers, brought up the subject. Ships have their life preservers and life boats, railroads their safety blocks, brakes and devices, but when a big passenger airplane is hopelessly broken in mid-air—what then?

Mr. Dickinson never bothers with thoughts of accidents, for he believes firmly he will not die until his time comes. A wealthy seed merchant, retired since 1910, he has spent his money in aviation as he did with automobiles, taking machines and all the newer inventions in the seed business.

With more than 7000 commercial and civil airplanes in use in the United States, the question of what to do in the event of an emergency is a question of the greatest importance.

In smaller open cockpit planes, the use of the parachute is admittedly one of the best, but in the larger, more modern, closed cabin plane a parachute is virtually worthless, with present design of the emergency parachute, the last stage of the game the safety of passengers.

GOODING TAXATION CASE BEFORE COURT Constitutional Limitation Placed On Legislature, Enters Into Arguments BOISE, July 17 (AP)—A claim that the constitutionality of a tax on the inheritance of real estate was not intended to go so far as to permit the legislature to exempt from taxation the value of the property used for agricultural purposes was made in district court today in the hearing of the Gooding court application to have the court reverse the board of equalization from making such exemptions.

Mail Carrier Displays Legs to Encourage Use Of Stockings by Women

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., July 16 (AP)—If the bare-legged flappers could see themselves as others see them, hosiery manufacturers would not be depressed by the "flapper" craze. S. E. Hooper, a mail carrier at Walnut Grove, Missouri, near here.

Hooper today appeared in Springfield police court and was arrested if he appeared on the streets with his trousers legs rolled to his knees.

"You might get arrested," the judge said. "But I promise you to fine you. But why do you want to go around displaying your bare legs?"

As he rolled his trousers, Hooper replied: "You see, Judge, I want to show the flappers how doggone ridiculous they look."

POINCARÉ TRIUMPHS IN DEBT SETTLEMENT Premier With Brilliant Assistance of Briand Repulses Organized Attacks

PARIS, July 16 (AP)—Friends and foes alike were agreed tonight that Poincaré has ratified of the bill safely stowed away after two victories in the chamber of deputies. Political opponents repulse indefinitely the bill through the chamber with unconditional ratification on his own terms next Friday.

Mr. Poincaré, with the brilliant and unforeseen assistance of Foreign Minister Briand, repulsed the best organized attacks which could be made against his bill for the first time.

If the glory of the first victory today, when the government defeated a motion to postpone indefinitely the ratification, belonged to the premier, the credit for the second was due entirely to the eloquence of his minister.

The achievement of M. Briand may even be said to be greater, since he talked the opposition into accepting without a fight while M. Poincaré had to carry his point by a vote of 304 against 200.

Mr. Briand's confidence had been placed in both cases, and the fate of the government hung in the balance.

DeBots Leads Assault The first move was led by Louis DeBots, a former cabinet minister and the man who replaced Premier Poincaré as president of the republication in the chamber, assisted by Louis Marin and Charles Heibel, both former ministers in Poincaré's cabinet.

M. Franklin Bouillon, moderate deputy, who has been the sturdiest defender of the bill, was the chief offensive, with a motion to postpone ratification until the Young plan had been officially accepted and put into operation.

M. Briand intervened at this moment taking up the battle for the government in the place of the premier, wearied by hours of speaking, and M. Franklin Bouillon speedily succumbed to the eloquence of the foreign minister.

M. Briand brought the house down with his stout-hearted defense of the bill. (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

Breaking Liquor Law Not Moral Turpitude NEW YORK, July 16 (AP)—The United States circuit court of appeals today ruled that a man who violates the prohibition law is not necessarily guilty of moral turpitude.

The court ordered the release from jail of the defendant, who had been held for deportation to Italy on grounds of moral turpitude based partly on the fact that he had been convicted of violation of the prohibition law.

WICKERSHAM OFFERS VIEW ON ENFORCING LAW ON PROHIBITION Chairman of President Hoover's Special Commission Suggests Division of Authority to Get Results

(By The Associated Press) NEW LONDON, July 16—George W. Wickersham, head of President Hoover's law enforcement commission, in a letter read today by Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, at the governors' conference here, availed that it would be one of the chief national problems in prohibition enforcement the prohibition laws "might be modified so as to become reasonably enforceable."

Characterizing prohibition as "a most serious subject," Mr. Wickersham in his letter to Governor Roosevelt said it should be one of the chief national problems to be investigated by his commission.

He suggested a division of authority, the federal government to prevent importation and transportation in violation of inter-state commerce regulations, and the states to handle their own internal enforcement.

If the national government, he wrote, "were to attend to preventing importation, manufacture, and shipment of interstate commerce of intoxicants, the states undertaking internal police regulations to prevent sale, saloons, speakeasies, and so forth, the national and state laws might be modified so as to become reasonably enforceable, and one great source of demoralizing and pecuniarily profitable crime removed."

Tension Lessens in Dispute Between Russia and Chinese Over Great Eastern Railway

DEL RIO, Texas, July 16 (AP)—Foster father of 47 boys and girls dies Nationalist Government at Midnight Within Three Days Allotted For Answer Replied to Soviet Demand

(By The Associated Press) NANKING, China, July 16—The Nationalist government at midnight, just within the three days allotted by Soviet Russia, replied to the latter's demands in the Chinese Eastern railway of Manchuria dispute.

The Chinese made two demands, although emphasizing that they were not counter-demands to those of the Russian note. The first was that the Soviet should release all Chinese imprisoned in Russia, which were estimated in an earlier statement at 1000.

Moscow was informed a Chinese plenipotentiary was leaving Nanking for that capital to discuss all pending matters between the governments. At the same time it was learned tonight that 15,000 Manchurian troops have been mobilized in the last two days to re-inforce patrols on the border, mainly at Manchuli.

The plea was made that the action of the Chinese government in dismissing Russian officials on the railway and taking over various concessions was "justified" because Soviet railroad officials had not carried out faithfully the terms of the 1924 agreement.

Socialist Leader Hurt in Milwaukee Accident MILWAUKEE, July 16 (AP)—Victor L. Berger, former representative from this district, was injured in the only socialist in the national congress, was declared to be in a grave condition tonight after having been struck by a street car early this evening.

The accident occurred as Mr. Berger was walking from the office of the Milwaukee Leader of which he is editor, to his home. Witnesses said that he dodged a number of automobiles and failed to notice the approaching street car.

Although the trolley was not moving swiftly, Mr. Berger was violently hurled to the pavement.

Old Steamboats in Race Sport Mississippi Reverses Up of Many Years Ago

CINCINNATI, July 16 (AP)—Steamboat Bill, steaming down the Mississippi, left a generation ago, "The Boat" the record for the Robert E. Lee, never ran a closer race than was run today as old time pocket boat racing was revived on the Ohio river.

For 20 miles the old paddle wheeler left the Betty Ann and Tom Greene fought it out from Cincinnati upstream to New Richmond; and when they finished, the Tom Greene was sensationally ahead.

WHEAT PRICES SOAR WITHOUT BOARD AID Operations of Moment Lift Serious Pressure From Agricultural Commission

(Associated Press Financial Writer) WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—Perennially low wheat prices in the world market have soared to place on that grain a figure 40 to 45 cents a bushel higher than the average of the season and are appearing for the moment to lift the most serious pressure of emergency off the just organized federal farm board.

Congress passed the farm bill, and its widely advertised $500,000,000 appropriation for farm aid in the middle of a market period when wheat was selling under 40¢ a bushel, and almost of the political agitation for farm aid has come from the cereal growing regions. It became a general expectation that this commodity would get the board's first attention.

But as the situation now stands, it is not possible that the wheat market will rise to a level which would justify its first season without doing very much about grain. Indeed, there is plenty of argument before the farm board, and production of wheat, cotton and other crops for the time being.

The milling industry is not likely to take any position, and some of the producers, though these are independent stabilization corporations in the offing, which were created simply for the purpose of absorbing some of the $500,000,000, and carrying wheat. How the board views the matter cannot yet be said, but it seems to be a sharp controversy between the wheat growers and those who operate through cooperative agencies and the elevators.

In addition to the Baton Rouge meeting, the board announced it also hopes (Continued on Page 5, Column 6)

FARM BOARD MOVES TO ASSIST INDUSTRY THROUGH MARKETING Commission Announces Intention to Work With Established Agricultural Groups of Nation By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON (Associated Press Staff Writer) WASHINGTON, July 16—In its first announcement, the farm board declared today the approach to better prices for the farmer lies through improved organization of marketing facilities.

To that end, the board announced it will work with and through established farm groups of farmers who are organized or who may be organized on a basis of specific commodities. It is looking ahead to a "permanent structure" and said it was probable the board will move deliberately in its action.

Tension Lessening In Dispute Between China and Soviet Government

ment pending for joint operations. The note termed it unfortunate that evidence of Russian agents in Chinese territory spreading propaganda to encourage the Chinese government and its social system had been discovered. The National government will always welcome Soviet subjects and merchants in China, but the recent arrest of Russian agents is only just being treated as a propaganda and intelligence matter.

Despite the official statement this evening that "the Nationalist government considers the alleged crisis comparatively easy settlement," it was learned tonight that at least 15,000 troops taken up in Manchuria at strategic Manchurian points, and unofficial reports indicated that a still larger number were moving toward the frontier.

TENSION LESSENS

MOSCOW, July 16.—Diplomatic tension over the Chinese Eastern railway dispute in Manchuria lessened tonight as reports were received of a conciliatory communique from the Nanking government. This stated that Ambassador Chu Zao Yang would soon return to his post here and indicated the Chinese belief that matters could be thrashed out in conference.

Tension in the controversy between Russia and China over the Chinese Eastern railway steadily increasing, reports of troop movements on both sides of the Siberian-Manchurian frontier tonight were received. Dispatches from Nanking state that 15,000 Manchurian troops have been mobilized along the frontier, while heavy concentrations of Russian forces are reported.

Although unverified Chinese dispatches from Peking indicate that troops crossing the frontier, Tokyo advices declare the border has not been crossed.

Officially the Chinese government contends that the controversy will be adjusted amicably, but a stiffening of attitude both in Nanking and Moscow was apparent.

Mass demonstrations against the "China Pact" were renewed in Moscow, while the government decided not to dispatch its representative to Manchuria until a reply is received from China on Russia's three-day ultimatum.

Just before expiration of the three-day limit set by Russia, China sent its reply demanding release of all Chinese imprisoned in Russia and protection for Chinese nationals. It stated a plenipotentiary would leave soon for Moscow, with powers to discuss all questions pending between the two countries.

Tokyo, Paris and London official quarters still are optimistic about an amicable solution of the controversy but are watching the situation closely.

United States.

"I had the formidable honor of being head of the government when the Americans entered the war. I know whereof I speak," Mr. Briand shouted dramatically.

"The crisis was in the suburbs of Verdun. Those were hours of anguish. No one then believed that victory would perch upon our flags."

The chamber listened in stunned silence as his eloquence rose to a climax.

"In that desperate moment we called upon the men of the United States for our just cause. However bitter may be our internal debates in this painful discussion, I can hear the heart of France beating in gratitude to America."

"I am saying these words so that the people across the seas will know that there are some moments Frenchmen will never forget."

The entire chamber rose to its feet and cheered, while the emotional Franklin Bouillon shouted, "I withdraw my motion."

Tribute Impressive at Rites for Mrs. Dunaway

An impressive tribute to the memory of Mrs. Edna Dunaway, wife of James H. Dunaway, was paid at funeral services held Wednesday afternoon at the family residence, two miles west of Twin Falls. Neighbors and friends, many of whom had known Mrs. Dunaway throughout the course of her life, lived here assembled in numbers to pay their final respects, and there was presented a large and beautiful floral tribute.

In connection with the funeral sermon, the Rev. E. Temple Starkey of the Baptist church, read the Twenty-third Psalm, making fitting application to the comforting words to the life and work of Mrs. Dunaway. Kenneth Henderson sang two numbers, "One Fleeting Hour," and "Beauty is of Earthly Things," with accompaniment at the piano by Miss Helen Dowd.

Wheat Prices Soar Without Board Aid

ed Sidney Anderson, president of the national millers' federation. "We are likely to see some soaring values, and a price that may go as far beyond the economically justified level as it went under it this spring. The milling industry, it can be said as a general thing, is not so much in a position to handle the same stocks they had last year, and operate to avoid taking heavy price fluctuations. Roughly, the price of wheat is said to have advanced."

Wickersham Offers View On Enforcing Law On Prohibition

Governor Roosevelt as the first public expression of Mr. Wickersham as chairman of the law-enforcement commission, and the national attitude toward crime reduction and law enforcement, and cited the "evident disrespect for the Volstead act" as an example.

"Another subject we are inquiring into," Mr. Wickersham wrote, "is the cost of extra legal prosecution against crime by the police, insured cars, burglary, robbery and theft insurance."

"A survey of conditions in Boston, nearly completed, indicates that crime in that city actually has diminished in the last decade.

Refers to Boston

"The fact that that city has a larger police force in proportion to its population than any other city in the world, do with the favorable conditions mentioned, but the challenging fact is in the greater number of prosecutions which never come to trial. The number of cases settled by pleas of guilty to a lesser offense than charged, the great delay in hearing appeals, and the abuse of executive bail on appeal.

"Justice, so to be effective, should be speedy. It is freely charged that much of the delay is the result of political influence with the police, the prosecutors, and even the courts, these are difficult matters to investigate.

"The governor, the judges, the judges, and the police, were guests at a buffet supper on Fishers Island tonight."

GOVERNORS COMMENT

NEW LONDON, July 16 (AP)—Comments by governors on the letter by George W. Wickersham, head of President Hoover's law enforcement commission, which was read to the conference of governors today by Governor Roosevelt of New York, follows:

Governor Coker, North Carolina: "I think the letter expresses the law enforcement clearly."

Governor Case, Rhode Island: "The subject is one on which I have no opinion to offer."

Governor Roosevelt: "The proposal and the discussion of it by Mr. Wickersham are purely speculative. Beyond that I don't want to say anything."

Governor Hammill, Iowa: "The suggested division of authority is a forward stepping move. The mention of modification denotes weakness. We should educate and build sentiment among our citizens so that all will cooperate in the enforcement of all our laws. Modification then would not be necessary."

Governor George Derr, Utah: "The suggestion of division of authority sounds logical. It will be of great aid in doing away with the passivity of the law enforcement buck. In my opinion there never will be modification in Utah. If so-called public spirited citizens obey the law there can be no difficulty in enforcing it."

Landscape Artist of Detroit Deplores Lack of Water at Great Shoshone Falls

"Considering the surroundings, with this, but it occurs to me that some means could be devised by which the water could be permitted to flow freely. Then this fact could be advertised and in the course of time equestrians would run here and overland tourists would wait over to see the impressive spectacle. I do not know that this suggestion would be the right one to adopt, but I believe that something should be done to preserve this wonderful cataract. I feel that aside from the artistic standpoint it could be made a great commercial asset."

Mr. Schipple and I had seen a number of pictures of great Shoshone falls and came here from Yellowstone park to see the great sight. We were greatly disappointed to find there was very little water running over the rim.

"Some way I feel that the people here do not fully realize the possibilities of advertising this great cataract and the opportunity of drawing people here to see it. I know, of course, the value of water for irrigation and would not suggest anything that would interfere gets depends largely on the skill of the pilot and the condition of the ship."

Parachute Useless In Giant Airplane, Says Veteran Flier

Leads Means Suicide

Dickinson's voter rose. "It would be suicide for passengers to try to leap from cabin planes with parachutes. I have not used one in 11 years. Wind pressure makes getting out of a plane almost impossible, and then there's the difficulty of a novice opening a chute properly."

One of the newer inventions to make ships safer, explained Mr. Dickinson, is the "slit," a small auxiliary wing placed at the forward edge of the main wing to prevent uneven flow of the air and hence control at low speed. Another is the "autogiro," invented by a Spaniard. It is unlike the normal airplane in that instead of the usual fixed wings it has wings which revolve freely around a shaft coming from the body of the plane, the wings move quickly even though the plane is moving slowly, keeping it suspended and insuring no loss of control at low speed.

Major E. L. Hoffman of the United States army corps, says that for commercial planes the release of passenger must be in the hands of one person, the pilot," continued Mr. Dickinson.

"For instance, there is nothing in Switzerland in the way of a waterfall, but can begin to compare with it, but the Swiss advertise what they have with great posters. I have seen all the falls in Switzerland, France and Germany, and nearly all the famous ones in America, and with the water flowing over I am sure that the falls here will compare favorably with any of them and would draw tourists far and near to see them. If they knew they could view their beauty on arrival."

"Individual parachutes concealed in the seats or elsewhere, releasable when the pilot opens the floor.

"Detaching the cabin and carrying it down by parachute, either with or without parts of the plane.

"Bringing the entire plane down with one or more chutes.

"The last plan, the major believes is the best for many things depend on the success of the other two."

Mr. Dickinson has had his share of light squeezes and cracksups and his motto is, "no landing is a bad landing if you can walk away from it."

"The soap I recommend is Palmolive" says Albert Leblanc of Nice

Famous Beauty Specialist of the fashionable Hotel Negresco at Nice, on the French Riviera, frequented by many of the world's smartest women.

ERRONEOUS ideas on complexion care," according to Albert Leblanc, of Nice, "are very hard to correct. I am still occasionally asked: 'Should I use soap on my face?' My answer is always a decided affirmative. It is quite wrong to suppose the skin can be thoroughly cleansed by other methods. . . . And the soap I recommend is Palmolive!" So says Monsieur Leblanc, head of the Hotel Negresco Beauty Salon.

Monsieur Leblanc studied the art of cosmetics in Paris and practiced his profession there until 1912. He then came to Nice, where he has gained an excellent reputation in this smart Riviera resort.

All the experts agree

Leblanc is joined by an international group of authorities on skin care, all of whom advocate Palmolive as the best way to keep the skin healthfully radiant, glowing with under-the-surface color and life. Do this, they say: massage Palmolive lather tenderly into the skin for two minutes. Rinse, first with warm water, then with cold. And you're ready for make-up!

Enjoy it for the bath as well, since it costs no more than ordinary soap. Just one bar will assure you of its superiority. Use it tonight!

"I know of no other soap which meets all the requirements of complexion care, acting at once as a cleanser and a valuable and soothing emollient."

A. Leblanc
Nice

Think of it! 16,108 leading beauty experts all over America—in big cities, small towns, smart resorts—advise the twice-daily use of Palmolive Soap! No single product ever had such tremendous professional endorsement.

Yankee Stadium Crowd to See Battle For Championship

Loughran to Fight Braddock for Light Heavyweight Title

Argentine Slugger to Meet Italian Night Before Big Show in New York in Initial Appearance

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, July 16.—With a world's light heavyweight championship belt killed for Thursday at the Yankee stadium and a giant Stou American candidate for heavyweight honors making his debut tomorrow night at Ebbets field, boxing followers today found plenty of prospective entertainment.

While the six-foot-seven-and-one-half-inch Victorio Campolo, Argentine slugger, will be argued with considerable interest in his 10-round encounter with Arthur Ebbets, Italy—the battle of the left jab and the right hand sock between Champion Tommy Loughran and Jersey Jimmy Braddock finds a wider division of opinion as to the probable result.

Many astute followers of the boxing game prefer to stick along with the champion's masterful boxing ability in the 15-round defense of his crown under the auspices of Madison Square Garden, but Braddock's punching ability, as demonstrated against Pete Latzo, Tuffy Griffith and Jimmy Stacey, has won a host of backers for the challenger.

Both wound-up, hard-training today, Loughran working out at his Hooper-Rails training camp, garbed in a heavy sweat-shirt and long jeans.

May Not Make Weight

From the baroque quarters of Braddock came a message from Joe Gould, his manager, implying a belief Loughran would have trouble making the weight and notifying the state athletic commission that if such proved to be the case and the fight should lose its championship status thereby, he would demand more than the challenger's 12-2 per cent of the purse. Loughran's handlers, however, seem to believe that he would put the scales at more than the 175-pound limit when they weigh in Thursday afternoon at the Yankee stadium.

Campolo and DeKun, on the other hand, are the scales tomorrow afternoon not at the scene of their battle, but at the offices of the commission. Campolo is out for a knockout in the hope of building up a reputation like that established by his countryman, Luis Firpo, and getting into the big money of the first light-heavyweight scramble. Humbert Fuzay is putting on the show.

Congressman Smith Says Resources Must Be Developed in Gem State

PIERCE, July 16 (Special to the News)—There is but one way to permanent and material increase in national wealth, and that is to increase our taxable wealth, and that is to increase our lands in cultivation as demand requires.

"We have water enough for all present needs and the surplus and storage waters of the Snake river," he said, "but when the time comes that we need to expand the agricultural area of the state, there is a location at Swan Lake in eastern Idaho where as much flood water can be stored as can be impounded at American Falls at the present time."

O.G. accepts Challenge at stronghold of its rivals

Show-down test . . . at Roosevelt Field, New York, reveals the true cigarette preference of Aviators.

The question is often asked: "Does OLD GOLD pick out its strongholds, the places where it outsells its three rivals, when it makes its 'Concealed Name Tests'?" The answer is "No!" OLD GOLD doesn't seek "set-ups" but "show-downs."

As a two-year-old youngster, "O. G." couldn't be expected to match "sales totals" with the three veteran brands, each from 12 to 16 years old. Give a young fellow time! But when it comes to comparing quality . . . that's "O. G.s."

For example, look what happened at Roosevelt Field, New York's greatest airport. Here, "O. G.s." rank third in sales. But when 68 Roosevelt aviators and their mechanics took the "Concealed Name Test," OLD GOLD won, hands down, as the most appealing cigarette. The score, as audited by certified public accountants, was: OLD GOLD 23 first choices . . . Brand "X", 13 . . . Brand "Y", 17 . . . Brand "Z", 15.

On your next . . . OLD GOLD—EAT, WRITERSMAN HOUR—Paul Thibault, KING of LAISSEZ-FAIRE, complete system, shows the OLD GOLD advantage. F. H. Kessler, National Selling Agent, one of the oldest and largest of cigarette manufacturing agencies.

LEGION WOULD MARK TWIN FALLS AIRPORT

Veterans Favor Use of Celebration Fund Surplus For Improvement

Twin Falls American Legion post is in favor of spending approximately $100 remaining in the Twin Falls Celebration fund for marking of Twin Falls municipal airport to qualify for federal approval. The World War veterans organization declared a resolution adopted at a meeting in the probate court rooms last evening.

The Legion post cooperated this year with the chamber of commerce, Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce and general chairman of the celebration committee, in planning the marking of the airport, and making a white circle, 100 feet in diameter and four feet wide in the center of the landing field, and marking regular spots on smaller circles. Marking will complete Twin Falls airport except for runways, which will be done with concrete and garage operators.

INDEPENDENT MEAT MART APPEALS TO CONSTITUTION

The action instituted by the Independent Meat Market, Twin Falls, against Governor H. C. Baldrige and other state officials, in which the constitutionality of the meat inspection law enacted in the 1928 legislature is challenged as violative of the Constitution of the United States, will come up in the United States district court at Boise today.

The Independent Meat market in the complaint asserts that the act which requires all butchers to call on a sheriff or other officer to inspect the hides and carcass of all animals butchered and sent to the inspection office 30 cents a head for all cattle inspected and ten cents a head on all sheep is in violation of the fourteenth amendment of the federal constitution. The act exempts all butchers who are registered under the United States Packers and Stockyards Act of 1923.

The state contends that the act is valid for the benefit of cattle and sheep growers, especially those in the northern part of the state, as it is designed to keep people from stealing cattle and sheep.

The Independent Meat market insists that there is a law already on the statute books which requires all butchers to keep hides for 30 days, together with the brand, so that if anyone has cattle stolen he may go to the slaughterhouse to examine the hides to see if his animal has been purchased there within the preceding 30 days.

Turner K. Hackman represents the Independent Meat market. Two other cases involving constitutionality of statutes passed by the last legislature.

GUARDSMEN PUT OUT BLAZE AT KIMBERLY

Glimpses of a life that failed to meet demands of modern economic standards were revealed in testimony of about 10 witnesses at hearing in the case of Pearl A. Thomas against Alvin F. Thomas, a divorce action, in district court here Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Thomas had sought the divorce on grounds of non-support. She told at the hearing of her own efforts to support the family during 20 years of married life, and her story in this respect was not controverted. It developed at the hearing that both Mrs. Thomas and Thomas wanted the divorce, and it was Judge W. A. Babcock's decision at the close of the trial that the decree should be granted to Mrs. Thomas. Custody of the two sons, 15 and 16 years old, was awarded to the mother, and Thomas was ordered to pay monthly support for the support of the boys. It is stipulated that he should visit the boys occasionally.

DELEGATION AT MILNER SEES RECORD BEET CROP

A field of 340 acres of sugar beets was grown by an individual farmer on his farm two miles west of Milner. The Milner-Lowville irrigation district, which is believed to be the largest field in the entire Utah and Idaho districts, was inspected Tuesday by a delegation of Twin Falls county farmers and business men who made the trip in seven automobiles.

The visitors saw a fine crop of beets with vigorous and thrifty plants covering the ground, and without exception they expressed amazement over the splendid promise of an excellent harvest. Much of the crop is being grown on new land, which according to Warren G. Swenson, manager for the Amalgamated Sugar company, has always been considered of questionable value for production of beets.

Mr. Jensen's crop, Mr. Swenson stated, is the biggest being grown by an individual farmer in southern Idaho, and he added, he believed it to be the largest in Utah and Idaho being handled by one man.

An Oregon Short Line engineer Tuesday made definite location for a new side track that is to be built two miles west of Milner for handling beets grown by the Milner district.

Boole, New York, is expected to be present, will be considered.
