DRASTIC DECLINE ON MARKET FOR STOCKS CONTINUING UNABATED

Net Slumps in Active Issues On Big Board Run From $10 to $60 Per Share in Extremely Hectic Session

By STANLEY W. FRENCH, Associated Press Financial Editor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A further collapse in stock prices, exceeding in intensity last Thursday's deteriorating session, continued today as Wall street continued to weed out its weakest speculative accounts, and place its house in order after the wild orgy of speculation for the advance which has taken place in the last five years. Net declines in many of the active issues ran from $10 to $60 a share, with the market closing practically at the bottom.

There were several large declines which have exceeded only by the record-breaking total of 12,884,000 shares last Thursday.

Leading New York bankers met in the office of J. P. Morgan and company after the close of the market to canvass the situation, but no formal statement was forthcoming as a result of the conference. Unofficially, it was intimated that the conferees took a more gloomy view of the situation than anything had been brought to their attention to indicate that any stock exchange house was in trouble. Their cooperation in maintaining an orderly market was assured.

Cleaning-Up Process.

In the absence of any adverse news reports over the week-end, and in the face of the optimistic comments on business forthcoming in the closing days of last week from President Hoover and leading industrial and banking executives, Wall street's only explanation of today's decline was that a careful "cleaning-up" of accounts over the week-end disclosed numerous weak spots, which had been overlooked in the "breathtaking" advance of the week-end.

There undoubtedly was a renewal of "bear" attacks against some of the high-priced issues, judging from the demand for stocks in the loan crowd from floor to floor, and also some selling for purposes last week.

While today's decline lacked some of the hysteria which accompanied last Thursday's break, it was nevertheless even greater alarm in some quarters.

The market started to plunge downward from the opening gong and closed at a low level. The heaviest selling occurred around 1 P. M., when reports, which later proved to be founded, were spread around the floor that Morgan brokers were heavy buyers of stock, and that another conference of bankers was being held in the Morgan office.

Four Senators Heap Vituperation Upon Connecticut Solon

Norris, Nebraska, Drafts Resolution to Censure Member of Upper House First Time in 27 Years

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON, Associated Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The dire promise of a resolution proposing censure for Senator Blingham, Connecticut, killed a senatorial verbal exchange in the Senate today between the Connecticut senator and his accusers of the lobby investigating committee.

An expectant quiet came over the chamber when Senator Norris, Nebraska, one of those who came over from Blingham's camp, announced that he intended to offer a resolution tomorrow. It would be the first time in 27 years that the senate would be called upon to censure a member.

The resolution had not been drafted tonight, but it is indicated that it would ask the senate to denounce the work of Senator Blingham of a salaried employee of the Connecticut Manufacturers' association to assist him in helping frame the tariff bill.

Bingham strikes back.

Smarting under the condemnation hurled upon him last Saturday by Senator Norris, Blingham today charged that the lobby committee was "framed against any friend of the administration and had been unfair to him."

The tall senator who once taught at Yale, was white of face, as he pounded his desk in conclusion and said:

"The purpose of this committee has been to befoul me with political slanders by the twisting and turning of flimsy evidence and I resent it, and I shall reply."

Ranch of 500 Acres to Become Giant Tractor Garden and Close Shirt Factory at Penal Institution

(By The Associated Press)

BOISE, Oct. 28.—The state today bought a 500-acre prison farm on Paradise Island in the Boise river 10 miles here, and operators will begin this winter with a view of changing the industry of the prison from shirt manufacture to farming.

The farm, known as the Old Catin ranch, was one of the first places settled in the Boise valley and its history dates back even to the founding of the city of Boise.

The price paid was not announced pending clearing up of title to the place, but it was estimated to have approached the $15,000 appropriated by the legislature for its purchase. Few buildings were on the place, but considerable operating machinery was taken in on the purchase and prisoners will be started this fall in plowing in preparation for spring planting.

Pihs Truck Garden

Secretary of State Fred E. Luken, a member of the prison board, declared the farm would be converted into a gigantic truck garden with a view to using all the man power available in the prison.

The place was purchased from Karl Pichler, a local ranchman, four years ago from the Catin estate. Three hundred and sixty acres are under cultivation and about 100 additional acres can be put under cultivation with removal of timber. It has one of the earliest water rights on the river with a decreed flow of 538 liters.

For domestic supply there are a number of artesian wells which will be improved.

Senator Reed Predicts Tariff Bill Will Die in Conference

MANY FACTIONS GET BLAME FOR APPARENT DESTINY OF MEASURE

Utah Solon Assures Upper Chamber No Effort Will Be Made to Kill Legislation Upon Revision

By D. HAROLD OLIVER, (Associated Press Staff Writer) WASHINGTON, Oct. 28—A pronouncement of ultimate death was read over the tariff bill in the senate today, by one of its sponsors, Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, and the post-mortem that quickly ensued found leaders of all factions to blame for the apparent fate of the measure.

The assertion, a repetition of a statement by Senator Reed in a speech in Philadelphia over the week-end, led to a free-for-all political and independent quarrel over the attitude of President Hoover; Democrats and Republicans denouncing the president's attitude on the bill, and all finally agreeing that the senate must get down to serious business and decide whether it will let the measure pass some sort of measure.

Although Reed predicted the bill would pass, he also predicted that the senate would not pass it. He said that the senate would not pass it because of the attitude of the president and the attitude of the public.

Senator Johnson, California, started the debate by calling attention to the fact that the tariff bill was not passed by the house and that the senate was not to pass it. He said that the tariff bill was not passed by the house because of the attitude of the president and the attitude of the public.

"The hope for getting the bill through is fading," Fess said. "If we proceed at the present rate, it will take one year and five months."

Senator Simmons, North Carolina, said that action in the senate "soon disclosed" that the committee bill did not have the support of a majority of the senate.

After the tariff over party responsibility, the senate returned to consideration of rates in the chromium, oil, and paint schedule and adopted another batch of Republican committee amendments providing both increases and decreases in rates.

The drive to be made by Senator Jones, Washington, and Senator Thomas, Idaho, both by agreement for blanket increases in these rates to an ad valorem minimum of 45 per cent was postponed after Chairman Smoot urged that committee amendments be developed first.

Party and group lines split on tolls on the committee proposal to eliminate the 10 per cent duty on olive oil weighing with container less than 40 pounds. An amendment by Senator Wagner, Vermont, New York, to cut the rate to 5 cents was defeated, 97 to 8, and then a proposal by Senator Goddard, Republican, Maryland, to increase it to 9 1/2 cents carried, 43 to 34.

Senator Johnson, California, started the debate by calling attention to the fact that the tariff bill was not passed by the house and that the senate was not to pass it. He said that the tariff bill was not passed by the house because of the attitude of the president and the attitude of the public.

Lecture On Use of Voice And Body Proves Interesting

A small but appreciative audience heard Mrs. Ethel Child Walcott, Portland, give her address last night on "Expressive Use of Voice and Body" at the rooms of the Business and Professional Women's club under the auspices of that organization. Suggestions in breathing, voice culture, diction, pronunciation, standing positions, training and sitting positions and attitudes were given and illustrated by the speaker. Emphasis was laid on the proposition that clear thinking demands clean cut speech.

Snow Covers Hill Tops In Hailey Neighborhood

HAILEY, Oct. 28 (Special to the News)—A slight covering of snow on the hill tops around Hailey following the storm of Sunday night, gave a hint of the approach of the winter season. Although the storm was not severe here at any time, precipitation in the form of rain in the city amounted to .46 inch. The road over Galena summit is clear and in fine condition. There was a heavy snow on the high hills 90 miles west of here but very little this side of these mountains.

Four Senators Heap Vituperation Upon Connecticut Solon

One by one, four of the members of the lobby committee answered in language as severe. Finally Senator Robinson, Indiana, who had been referred to by Bingham as the lone friend of the administration on the committee, arose and pronounced his own condemnation upon the Connecticut senator for his relations with the Connecticut manufacturers, "born of the approval of the transaction," said Senator Robinson, "the Republican party doesn't approve it, in my judgment, nor do the American people."

Bingham, who had been sitting idly swinging one leg over the other as the members of the committee attacked him, straightened up at Robinson's vehement pronouncement.

Senator Douglass was the only member to come to him and shake hands and converse with him during the stormy session.

Burton Dies After Extended Illness

A devout wish for his recovery, a devoted wish for his final resting place at Burton, it must mean for its most colorful flourish to his untiring efforts in behalf of world peace that climaxed more than two score years of international public life.

Looks to Retirement
At the age of 68, when most men are looking forward to retirement, he returned to congress to round out a public life by seven years of service in the house and senate devoted almost entirely to the furtherance of international amity.

By his return to both houses of congress the veteran statesman established a precedent. No other American had ever served first in the house, then in the senate, returned to the house and again served in the senate.

Burton's second period of service in the house started as American troops were returning victorious from France and a war weary world was sighing for perpetual peace. He first advocated the abolition of poisonous gas in warfare, then threw his force behind a move to outlaw the aggressor nation in international affairs, and thirdly clashed with his party leaders in the house in their contest with Calvin Coolidge in 1928.

Stock Judging Team in Second Idaho Position

The Twin Falls stock judging team scored 2254 points, 50 points higher than last year, at the Portland International Livestock exposition, but stood nineteenth among the competing teams, it was stated by the team's manager yesterday from John S. Feldhusen, instructor, Twin Falls, Idaho, proved a dark horse and led all teams from this state, securing eighth place in the contest. Plier was thirty fifth in the list. The scoring was very much higher than last year.

Mr. Feldhusen and the team will return Wednesday.

An eight state is entitled to one team in the American Royal Livestock exposition in Kansas City. If Plier should fail to send its team, the Twin Falls team would have an opportunity to represent the state.

No "Instruments of the Devil" Now! AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

With the introduction of machinery man-power feared it was to be supplanted. By the force of AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE this ancient prejudice disappeared. Our modern "machine age" brings happiness and prosperity.

"toasting did it"

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE's extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's Toasted"—the phrase that describes the extra "toasting" process applied in the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—are scientifically subjected to penetrating heat at minimum, 260°—maximum, 300°, Fahrenheit. The exact, expert regulation of such high temperatures removes impurities. More than a slogan, "It's Toasted" is recognized by millions as the most modern step in cigarette manufacture.

COUNCIL MOVES TO PROHIBIT U-TURNS AT FOUR CORNERS

City Attorney Gets Instructions to Prepare Resolution-Dealing With New Development in Traffic

U-turns at each of the four intersections in a radius of a block from the intersection of Main avenue and Blue street will be prohibited under a resolution that Twin Falls city council...

In regular session last evening, members of the city council, after the first meeting a week later. Members of the council seemed to be in agreement on the proposition...

It was asserted that prohibition of left turns would necessitate amendment of the traffic ordinance, whereas elimination of U-turns would require only adoption of a resolution designating the intersections affected...

Indicated action of the council in this regard was suggested by J. E. White, commissioner of public safety. Mr. Bart, commissioner of streets, proposed instructing the attorney to draw the resolution, and the motion was seconded by T. J. Daughin, commissioner of parks.

It was his disposition on the part of the council to allow or amend the present ordinance to prohibit U-turns at the four corners at the intersection of Main avenue and Blue street...

In this regard, Captain E. M. Sweeter, chief of police, pointed out that the way it opens to citizens who deem a chance in the parking lot desirable to institute such a change in the ordinance...

Big City Problems The discussion indicated the council members' opinion that Twin Falls has an important situation in city traffic problem to deal with, because of the number of automobiles plying the streets...

There is room, Commissioner White suggested, for an educational campaign to acquaint some of the motorists with the proper use of hand signals and with use of the four-point system of directing traffic at street intersections...

The council grasped a knotty problem when it began to deal with suggestions advanced by the city attorney at last evening's session relating to marking of parking stalls in the business district and regulation by the council of cutting of curbs.

He advised marking of parking stalls in front of curb gasoline pumps, for the reason, he said, that omission of such markings might imply an acceptance by the city of the pump operators' claim of right to keep that portion of the street free from parked cars.

Curbs Cutting Under Fire Suggestion that persons who have cut curbs for any purpose be called into conference with view to working out a basis for regulation of curb cutting, followed the attorney's statement of opinion that the city would be liable for injuries growing out of unreasonable use of curbs...

He urged especially that action be taken to prohibit cutting of curbs closer than 6 to 10 feet from a sidewalk intersection.

The next evening's session the council approved, subject to the building inspector's endorsement, an application submitted by W. N. Skinner for permit to construct an addition to his garage, with his blacksmith and machine shop on second-avenue-entrance.

EVANGELIST SAYS JESUS DEMANDED FAITHFULNESS

Jesus never commended his disciples to be successful but he did commend them to be faithful, declared evangelist W. A. Moore in his sermon last night in the Christian church.

He never suggested that his disciples were to have an easy time of it. It is written: "The foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests but the son of man hath no place to lay his head."

Jesus said, "Take up your cross and follow me." A lot of church members have been expecting an easy time in winning the world to Christ, the evangelist said.

"It was never so. Jesus did not have an easy time and the servant is not greater than his lord," he said. The way his has his good time here and now, but the Christian is assured of his good time when the battle is over and the victory won.

The male quartet, composed of Reuben Wheeler, C. E. Allen, L. L. Patrick and Ed. Smith, provided the solo singing. Tonight the women's chorus will provide the special music. Mr. Moore's sermon subject will be "A Sure Way to Heaven."

HUNTERS MAKE WAY OUT FROM REGION SWEEP BY BLIZZARD

Report to Sheriff's Office Tells of Safe Return of Four Men Objects of Organized Hunt by Friends

Four hunters caught by storm in Rhoshone Basin, 45 miles west of here, Sunday afternoon, returned safely to their homes last evening, the sheriff's office was advised.

A searching party led by Deputy Sheriff A. C. Parker that left here yesterday morning, had not yet returned. Five inches of snow fell during the storm in the Basin Sunday, blocking roads and trails, and temperature dropping low enough to freeze automobile tires, reports to the sheriff's office said.

James Ellis, Piker, who became separated from his companions on the morning of Sunday, wandered throughout the night over snow-covered hills, and emerged early yesterday near Rock Creek settlement, 20 miles south of here.

Missing members of the other party, Merle Zacharias and Warren Venenion and his son, H. L. of Twin Falls, were the first hunting their car, and found it yesterday with the radiator frozen and broken.

The sheriff's office had no word of any other missing hunters in the Rhoshone Basin region.

Hunters returning Sunday evening reported that the storm during the day that made it impossible to see more than a few yards ahead. Care without tracks they said, was necessary to keep covered roads and trails, and some drivers were reluctant to move their cars for fear of encountering hidden high centers.

OFFICERS CATCH LON GIFFEN AND ERNEST VAN HOOSER FOLLOWING WILD CHASE

At the end of a 12-mile chase, pursued by a patrol of police, officers caught Lon Giffen and Ernest Van Hooser, 14, Tennessee, who were captured Sunday evening about six miles southeast of Kimberly.

The capture was effected after Giffen fell out of the speeding car and Van Hooser, a little later, crashed into roadside fence and attempted to take to the heels. Fragments of four brass pins, that officers said had lately contained poisonous whistles, were found in the car, and both men, according to the officers' report, were far from the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Charge of transportation of liquor in violation of federal laws were filed against Giffen and Van Hooser, who pleaded not guilty on arraignment before Judge John E. Davies, United States commissioner, here yesterday. They were required to furnish $1,000 bond to secure their appearance at hearing next Friday.

Bounding the street continuously, Police Officer George Empey and H. M. Coyte took up pursuit of Giffen and Van Hooser on Main avenue east at 5:30 P. M. Sunday. The officers' attention had been attracted by the erratic manner in which the car was being piloted.

Pursuing and pursuing cars passed Giffen and Van Hooser at a rate of 60 miles an hour. Kimberly said he became on the outskirts of Kimberly the firing car almost careened into the street and Empey attempted to board it. He made another attempt a little later when the pursuing car drew up alongside the fast-moving machine during the chase. Empey said, he fired seven or eight times.

Five bullet holes were counted in the car when it came to rest. Some of them punctured the gasoline tank and struck through the fenders, but they were not hit.

Giffen and Van Hooser alternately plotted the car. Empey said. They started in a wild course, plunging from one side of the road to the other and other cars, and forcing more than 20 other machines into the narrow pits.

Russians Propose Novel Calendar To Fit Five-Day Week

STANDARD MONTH OF 30 DAYS FEATURE OF LATEST SOVIET PLAN

Academy of Science Gives Approval Following Investigation People's Commissaries To Study Idea Further Scheme Will Deal Blow at Religion and Speed Up Industry

By JAMES A. MILLS (Associated Press Correspondent) MOSCOW, Oct. 28.—A new calendar with 72 weeks in the year, six weeks in the month and only five days in each week, has been drawn up here. It is designed to fit the non-stop, round-the-clock, five-day work week recently instituted in Russian industry.

The Academy of Science has given its approval following an investigation by the people's commissaries, which corresponds to the ministerial councils in other countries of Europe.

Eliminate Two Days

Saturdays and Sundays are simply done away with in the new calendar. There will be 30 days in each month and each day of the week will always fall upon the same days in each month. A bit of calculation reveals that the fixed calendar calls for only 360 days in the year. This does not agree with the sun on its course. For old 500 instants upon taking 365 days for his annual round, the fraction being enough to make an extra day every fourth year, calling for February 29 in western calendars and making leap year, the delight of epigrammers.

A thing like that, however, does not stump the Soviet government, accustomed as it is to cutting the Gordian knot of capitalism's civilizations. It simply decreed that these extra five days each year and the added 24 hours of leap years should be celebrated as holidays.

These days are off in a category by themselves, being, say, one month and are scattered through the calendar.

The day devoted to the memory of Lenin is celebrated as a national holiday. It is fixed to come at the end of January, on the 22nd of the month. In between January 30 and February 1 Lenin will be revered for 24 hours but the event will not be allowed to disturb the arrangements making January 30 fall on a Friday and February 1 on Monday, the next official day.

Similarly there will be holidays between May 1 and May 2 and between November 7 and November 8. It is pointed out that this arrangement will always make May 1 the 12th day of the year, which it happens to be in the present calendar.

In leap years the extra day will come as usual at the fall end of February, meaning that there will be an extra 24 hours every fourth year between February 29 and March 1.

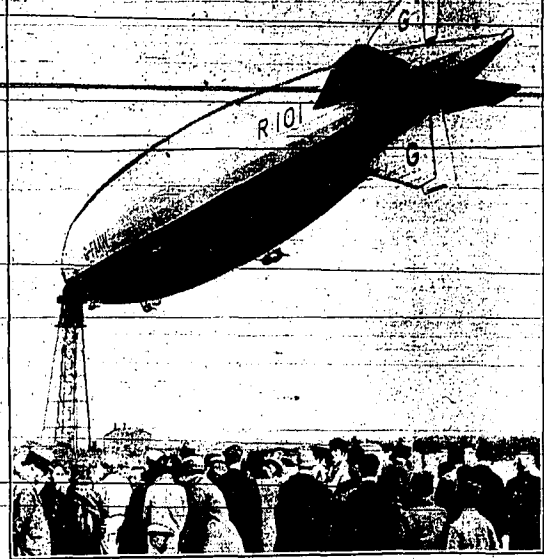

The calendar is set out to make a standard monthly calendar as follows:

Monday	1	6	11	16	21	26
Tuesday	2	7	12	17	22	27
Wednesday	3	8	13	18	23	28
Thursday	4	9	14	19	24	29
Friday	5	10	15	20	25	30

No fixed day of the week.

The five-day work week, already in force, has done away with a general day of rest. A man works five consecutive days and rests. Under the present calendar he has a regular day of the week for recreation, but under the new calendar he can rest, by skipping from the first day of one week just what days he will be off in succeeding weeks each month.

be starting the same schedule over again.

Each Month Similar

Similarly a month starting on Friday, the fifth, would have holidays regularly of Friday the tenth, Monday the twentieth, Tuesday the twenty-second, Wednesday the twenty-eighth, and Thursday the fourth, bringing him back to his Friday starting point.

Talking, Singing Film in Colors Scores at Idaho

The latest Warner brothers talking, singing and dancing extravaganza, "Gold Diggers of Broadway" played throughout in natural color, and in many ways fulfilling the promise of the earlier, though "successful" "On With the Show," made its local debut at the Idaho theatre Sunday with a distinguished cast, headed by a number of Broadway musical comedy favorites.

Lucas, best known as the "crooning troubadour" of the radio, put over it only they can.

In addition to Miss Lichtner, whose comedy antics are a scream, and Nick Lucas, other well-known stars are cast in important roles. They include the famous dancer, Ann Pennington of Ziegfeld Follies fame, George Price, another dancer widely known on Broadway, and Nancy Welford, comedy leading lady of the recently successful musical comedy "Rain or Shine."

Denny Stars at Orpheum

In All-Talking Picture

Situations naturally funny with Reginald Denny to make them funnier make "On-Heard-and-Sight" a universal all-talking comedy, showing at the Orpheum theatre, an exceptionally entertaining and amusing picture, one that will start you laughing and keep you laughing until your hilarious climax.

JUST IDAHO

Comment on Current Conditions in the Gem State.
By GUY FLENNER

It is not always true that "time is a flower upon a dead man's heart." Edison proved another version of the proverb when he died in the city of New York. It was a memorable occasion, the fiftieth anniversary of his invention of the electric light globe. Fame had come to him shortly after his death, but it had never been declared popularly until this year.

If Edison had not lived beyond the allotted time of man he would be recorded historically, could not have been so honored in the public mind. He would have been given the fame of a hero, not the fame of a saint. He would have been one of the many great men who have lived and died in the last century.

We want some Idaho man, or group of men, to acquire the same fame as Edison. Idaho has a wonderful history. It has never been properly recorded. We need a man or group of men who will do this. We need a man or group of men who will do this.

Apparently there is little hope of legislative financial aid, although our efforts would no doubt apply the stamp of official approval. We must, therefore, look to the individual. There are no men in this state whose fortunes are based upon Idaho's early progress. Any of them could endow a historical venture without distressing himself financially.

Ordinance Would Permit Work by City Prisoners

BURLEY, Oct. 28 (Special to The News).—An ordinance has been introduced in the city council here providing that city prisoners serving time for misdemeanors may be caused to perform work on the streets or city premises. At present, there are no provisions under the law which will permit labor to be done by prisoners in the city jail. Past experience has shown that the belief that the population of the city jail is likely to be very materially increased during the cold months of winter, and this is being done to utilize the men to the best advantage.
