Prices on New York Securities Markets Sink to New Low Levels in Third Successive Short Session

By STANLEY W. FRENDS... (Associated Press Financial Editor) NEW YORK, Nov. 13 — Prices on the New York securities markets sank to new low levels for the third successive session today as stock exchange authorities began an inquiry to determine if the sharp decline in the market was a result of a widespread flood of selling which has washed away many millions of dollars in quoted values in the last few weeks.

One of the most encouraging developments of the day was the announcement, not generally known until after the close of the market, that a bid for 100,000 shares of Standard Oil of New Jersey stock at $50 a share had been placed in the last few minutes of trading by the floor of the New York stock exchange.

Mellon Will Urge $160,000,000 Cut In Tax On Incomes
(Continued From Page One) While the final detailed estimates of revenues and expenditures have not been completed, it is said, the secretary of the treasury estimates that the total revenue for the fiscal year 1930 will amount to approximately $1,600,000,000. The total reduction of three to five percent of the total revenue for 1930 will amount to approximately $160,000,000. The announcement of the secretary was accepted as an indication that the treasury foresees much larger income during the next two years due to business and industrial prosperity which for the fiscal year 1929 ending last June 30, poured $4,033,250,226 into the government vaults. That it must be larger will be seen in the recent announcement of President Hoover that appropriations by congress already this year had totaled $3,900,000,000, while for the entire 1929 fiscal year, the expenditures of the government totaled only $2,844,463,180. The total government income for the present fiscal year on November 11 totaled $1,277,268, an increase of $119,088,244 over the same period last year.

Success of Federal Aid Depending Upon Farmer, Says Taber
(Continued From Page One) The federal farm board has concluded with the difficult problem of raising property to agriculture in the face of large crop surpluses, the bureau of reclamation is devoting its energies to bringing more land into production and adding to the surplus. "Since the activities of the bureau of reclamation are now entirely concerned with the development of farms, we believe that the time has come for transferring the bureau from the department of interior to the department of agriculture. Such a move would eliminate duplication of effort, antagonism and cross purposes of operation, as well as place the handling of this agriculture problem in the department where it belongs. Although reclamation and the federal farm board were classified as great aids to farmers, their aid to agriculture on all problems that are common, to speak with one voice and make it sufficiently loud as to be heard across the continent, Taber declared.

Twin Falls Cubs Defeat Kimberly Team By 12-to-8 Score

Enthusiastic Crowd Sees Bitter Battle On Lincoln Gridiron

Young Bruins make initial threat, taking pigskin within 10 yards of score but visiting team braces.

Twin Falls Cubs met the Kimberly team on Lincoln field here yesterday afternoon, and defeated them 12-to-8, before a small but most enthusiastic crowd. There was enough nip in the air by the time the game was started to send both teams off at full speed, and from the moment that Turpin had sent the first kickoff spinning into Kimberly territory there was not an idle minute. The Cubs were the first to take the field, and within 10 yards of a score, but Kimberly braced hard, and the Cubs turned back the ball.

It was then Kimberly's turn. Coming largely on a punt that rolled to the Cubs, 10-yard line, the Kimberly team got the return punt with 40 yards to go for a score. They went right after it. Bennett slipped 25 yards across his right end, and a moment later Lambing put the ball on the 11-yard mark. Kimberly reacted to split backs, and four plays were made. The Cubs then took the field, and within 10 yards of a score, but Kimberly braced hard, and the Cubs turned back the ball.

Hold Consultation. The Cubs held a consultation and agreed to a strategy in which the score was out of balance. Turpin took the kickoff on his own five-yard line, and was stopped at the 10-yard line. Colner gauged the advance, and matched Turpin's run with one of his own for 25 yards, with good interference during the way. Spin, Nye, Lyle, and short end runs were within 27 yards of Kimberly's goal, with a first down on the 10-yard line. For the time being, the Cubs were in a good position, and the field for the rest of the quarter, but the defense of both teams was working and no consistent progress could be made.

The Cubs came out for the second half with two corners in the backfield, and a good defensive line. Turpin started things by taking the kickoff back to his 40-yard line, with a good start, and the Cubs were ahead as one man, making a hole just wide enough for Parsons to squeeze through the line, and drive a touchdown to bring the Cubs' score up to 12. A drive for the extra point was good at Evans, and was stopped most convincingly.

15-Yard Penalty. Kimberly consulted. The Cub kickoff was run back to the 40-yard line, with a 15-yard penalty for holding shoved it back. The Kimberly team was ahead on the first play the Cubs fumbled, and Kimberly emerged with the ball. Bennett scooted around left-end for 20 yards, getting clear of all the Cubs, but O. Colner, Kimberly had visions of another touchdown, but too much concern drove a five-yard penalty for offside, and a punt was forced. It went out of bounds on the Cub five-yard line. Then the Cubs tried to punt. The pass was fumbled, and Kimberly had 20 points for the safety. That made it 12 for the Cubs and 8 for Kimberly.

Rockne's Line Aces Bid For Horsemen Fame

They've coined a new one out in South Bend for the benefit of Knute Rockne's crack line-men. They call them "The Five Truck Horsemen of Notre Dame."

By WALTER T. BROWN (Associated Press Feature Service Writer) SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 14.—Knute Rockne's chances for a claim to the national "championship" largely rest upon the bravery shoulders of five truck-horsemen.

Particularly stout is the center of Notre Dame's 1929 line, featuring Tim Moynihan at center and Captain Paul Law and Jack Cannon at guards. Tommy and Art McMannon are the first-string tackle.

However, outscored the opposition. Two bulky lines, the Army's on November 20, and Southern California's next Sunday, remain to test Rockne's line. Northwestern on November 23 may give the "Lucky" a battle. In the Northwestern game, Rockne's line decisively outscored Notre Dame in the first half, but the "horsemen" pulled the game out in the last half.

DUMB-BELLS

IT'S PERFECTLY SCANDALOUS TO THINK WE BEG WAITING HERE TWENTY MINUTES FOR A TRAIN THAT SHOULD HAVE LEFT A HALF AN HOUR AGO!

ON THE SIDELINES

by BRIAN BELL

It may well be a record, possibly it is not, but if football's odd incidents were placed in a Little Red book as baseball performances are listed in the Little Red book, the game between Navy and Princeton this year should rank high in "number of penalties and yardage in penalties."

Rule On Fumbles To Stand, Says Expert

Chairman of National Football Regulations Board Expects Few Changes

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (AP)—Convinced that the present football code, now fumble rule and all, is proving generally satisfactory, Edward K. Hall, chairman of the national football rules committee, reported Tuesday that a minimum of tinkering with the laws of the game can be expected for 1930.

Rockne Again Takes Up Coaching Reins Dropped While Ill

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 13 (AP)—Knute Rockne Tuesday resumed the Notre Dame coaching reins which he relinquished because of an infected leg on October 22. He was driven to Carter field in an ambulance, and from his sickle chair directed preparation of the Irish squad for its game with Southern California at Chicago Saturday.

The two teams were set back more than 200 yards during the afternoon's play, Navy feeling the heavy hand of the officials for penalties totalling 145 yards while Princeton lost 75 yards. Two occasions the loath were penalized on line plays in a row. Princeton twice for clipping, a loss of 50 yards in two fines; and Navy once for holding and on the next play for clipping, 40 good yards gone up in smoke in about the same time it takes to tell the tale.

The penalties in this one game ate up about four times as much yardage as that assessed for violations of the rule in a game the same day between Yale and Army, and was little less than the total in the combined penalties imposed in four other games in the East that afternoon.

Rockne again took up coaching reins dropped while ill. He was driven to Carter field in an ambulance, and from his sickle chair directed preparation of the Irish squad for its game with Southern California at Chicago Saturday.

The reason for the wholesale tax was not apparent so the officials must have been very strict. The players on each team took the game very seriously and hard football was the consistent order of the day but no flagrant violations could be detected from a distance. The penalties ran the scale from the conventional offside and holding to roughing the kicker and unnecessary roughness.

These backs carry the ball in football but except in very unusual cases they do not get very far without considerable assistance from their tackles in clearing out the opposition charging in to stop the runs before they start. Cough has his Perry, Booth his Vincent, Mursters his Armstrong, Stevens his Wakenan and all the rest. If a close watch is kept on the great running backs it will be found that a great tackle is not far away when most of the runners start on their way.

HOTEL MAN SLAIN

CLAMARTY FALLS, Ore., Nov. 13 (AP)—Charles Darley, owner of the Anchor hotel here, was shot and killed last night in the dining room of the hotel. Police arrested J. C. Wright, plumber of this city, after he had been held for refusal to discuss the shooting, police said.

DEFENSIVE backs, who with their brothers the interfering backs, are more or less unsung heroes will find a valuable addition to their number in Joe Clifton of the Navy. The rugged Clifton has the strength of a mule and the eyes of a hawk, as he roams about football fields seeking opposing players to devour.

On a Princeton field made famous by Mike Milos, one of the best defensive backs the Eastern game has known, the persistent Clifton did some of the best tackling seen in many a football game. He took a lot of punishment during the afternoon for the Tigers are not cream puffs in football but he was not discouraged and went straight ahead, giving an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.

Checkout Shows Ducks To Be Scarce This Season

The total number of ducks in southern Idaho are probably 25 per cent less than in ordinary years at this time in the autumn. The count was made by T. H. Brown, A. L. Holbrook and Cliff Sullivan, west Sunday and Monday making a count of the ducks on the Snake river and in other years would be more numerous, seen perhaps 200, Mr. Brown said. They saw their ducks of...

Calland Overhauling University's Eleven

Coach Trying to Find Reason for Breakdown of Machine at Pullman

MOSCOW, Nov. 13 (Special to The News)—During the few days of practice before the University of Idaho's Homecoming football game against Gonzaga university, Saturday, November 16, Coach Leo Calland will completely overhauled the team.

Offers Bright Spots. Disappointing though the Cougar team proved to be in the first half, the playing of some of the Vandal's line players was particularly good. Waldemar Peterson, quarterback, proved himself to be the guiding force of the Vandal backfield. On 21 tries he averaged a little over three yards per try. Fred Wilkie, in the lineup for the first time since he was injured in the Oregon game, made a number of plays that for a sophomore he is a fine line runner. Wilkie took the ball 21 times and averaged 2.5 yards per try.

Bruins Will Battle Eleven Of Gooding

Caine's Squad Coming to Twin Falls to Play Blue and White in Last Game

Twin Falls Bruins will play the Gooding team at Twin Falls on Friday in the last game of the season. Coach Calland has not seemed to be up to the strength of former years, but have fought brightly through their season, gaining strength from each played game, and with a good rest period in which to prepare for this game they intend to make the Bruins play all the while. The game Monday will be the Latter Day Saints team from Salt Lake City found them on edge, and they came out of that battle with the conviction that they could play good football when all 11 men on the field go into every play and defend there until the whistle blows. They like the feel of that sort of playing, and will show some more of it Friday.

This will be the last game of the season and the last chance the fans will have this season to see the Bruins play the game Coach Jones has given them as the result of steady progress throughout the fall. It has been hard work, well done, and a good crowd will be out to see it in action on Friday.

Established that all in the hearts of individuals. From then it spreads until it becomes national and international. It is not read just clearly enough that wars are inevitable, coming from forces beyond human control.

There is a vast majority of patriotic Americans who are not dependent on guns and no title in the greater force of human good will. But we are in a perilous year by year.

A New Yorker at Large. G. D. Seymour.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13. (Special to The News.)—The city of New York is a city of contrasts.

More than a few of the tenement-owners of midtown New York are 25 to 100 years old, and of the type known as "old-fashioned."

Some of these flat-rent for $2 or $3 a room monthly, while $8 a month is high rent. Yet owners hesitate to tear down the ancient flats and replace them with modern buildings.

Everywhere else in New York tenement apartments must be replaced every 12 months or longer, but in the lower East the old tenements are still standing.

The result of all this has been the removal from the region of thousands of families in recent years as the result of unattended apartments is larger now on the lower East Side than in any other section of New York.

Social workers can prove with figures that the immigrant family which has a son who has been educated generally goes to a more modern apartment with in a year after the son graduates, while if the family's eldest child is a girl, she remains in the tenement.

Every year New York's police records list hundreds of "pulling girls" who vanish from home and are never heard of again by their parents.

Guiding Your Child. Among the best play materials for children are those which are made of paper.

They meet the young child's need for manipulation and as he fits the rectangles into each other and tries to find the lids and pots that match, after eyeing the material in the practice of eye-hand coordination.

Yet splendid as such kitchen utensils are for the 2-year-old, they are open to two objections. First is that they do not really belong to him.

Second is that since they are kitchen utensils, and the child probably will have them for a long time, it is possible a corner of the kitchen in which he may play without being in the way, no matter what work is in progress.

A Washington Bystander. WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (Special to The News.)—Take the blame squarely on it. It was a party unprecedented scene.

Even the 20-year-old matter of the disciplining of "Pitchfork" Tillman, South Carolina, for taking a poke on the floor at a congressman who called him a hardy in one point.

Yet throughout the Bligham debate there has been a certain amount of the Bligham party's bantering away with his usual sarcasm.

There was not and it would take a political star-gazer of far greater skill than the bystander to cast a horoscope of the political moves, personal or party, on the scene and portents of the Bligham affair in the Senate.

It proved one thing—which needed no additional proof. That the power of a Democratic four-Republican cabinet in the Senate.

The Republican old guard, which like Napoleon's veteran guard, could die, but never surrender, could do nothing in the Senate.

The Old Guard. Most of the Republicans specified that do-hardy element, although he and probably every other man in the Senate would not agree that Bligham had been in the center since the last vote on the bill.

His face was shining, and he had a look of a man who was not to be trifled with. When it came a senator's turn to rise, the color and glow and color of his face were more than enough to show that he was one of the queer things about the Senate.

Bankers' Association Analysis of Decline in Savings Bank Deposits Reveals Exceptions to Tendency

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Pacific coast and New England states are the only two in the country to report a rising trend in savings bank deposits. The American Bankers' association's regional analysis of the decline in savings bank deposits disclosed today that two opposite regions of the United States, New England and California, were exceptions to the general downward trend. The six states of New England gained $25,000,000 in savings, and $19,700,000 in deposits. The Pacific coast states gained $20,000,000 in savings and nearly 27,000,000 in deposits. The other sections of the country, including the South, the Middle West, and the West Central, reported losses. Many individual states in these groups reported gains but these were not sufficient to overcome the steep declines in other areas.

CANAL BOARD CUTS MAINTENANCE LEVY TO $1.75 PER ACRE

Assessment and Budget For Next Year Reflect Economy and Debt Elimination; Payment Due at One Time

Twin Falls Canal company will collect next year an annual maintenance assessment of $1.75 per acre to raise to $4,544 to meet budgeted expenditures of the year, according to a budget and levy adopted by the company's directors yesterday.

The levy represents a reduction of 50 cents per acre under a last year's levy and the budget, which follows the approved budget submitted by T. M. Johnson, secretary and treasurer of the company, provides for expenditures approximately $100,000 less than last year's.

Reduction in the levy was said to have been made possible through payment last year of the company's debts totaling $103,600 and through economies. Out of $25,000 appropriated for drainage and reclamation operations this year, only $25,450 was spent, leaving a balance of $20,600 in that fund at the end of the year, while all the drainage and reclamation operations projected for the year were completed.

Surplus of approximately $50,000 remains unspent at the close of the fiscal year last September 15, will be used to meet the company's expense during the two and one-half months remaining before the beginning of the new fiscal year next January 1, date of the next year having been determined by vote of the directors yesterday.

Payment Due in January

Payment of the maintenance levy in installments was done away with by action of the directors yesterday when they voted to make the 1930 levy due and payable on January 15 next, but provided that no penalty should be charged if payment were made prior to April 1. No water for irrigation is to be delivered next season until the maintenance assessment is paid.

Heretofore maintenance assessments have been payable in two installments, one due in March and the other in October.

Directors yesterday instructed the general manager to call for bids for several tunnels of primary importance, including Orelahana and Tolbert-Holmquist projects to drain lands west of Rock creek.

TWIN FALLS WILL BE ON AIRWAY SCHEDULE

Federal and State Officials Urge Preparation of Landing Field Here

Twin Falls will be connected with Salt Lake City and Boise on a regular airway schedule by spring, if it meets requirements, as the provision voted yesterday at a luncheon of the Twin Falls Rotary club, by Ellison E. Mountain, Oakland, federal aeronautics supervisor for the Mountain and West coast, with information secretary, J. W. Hays, always engineer of the aeronautics division of the Idaho department of public works.

Mountain said that when flying from Oakland to Boise, Pocatello or Montana points, he always traveled over the route over Boise, Pocatello and Twin Falls. He declared that owing to its distance from areas cities like Denver, Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles and to its central location, it was especially important for Twin Falls to have a landing field which would secure its dedication as an airport before thoroughly preparing the landing field, it might not be designated as such point at all.

Mr. Mountain covered the work of the state department as a necessary supply of information to its central location. It was especially important for Twin Falls to have a landing field which would secure its dedication as an airport before thoroughly preparing the landing field, it might not be designated as such point at all.

Referring to the situation here he said: "Twin Falls is to be congratulated when the splendid progress made in the construction of its municipal airport and its desire to be on Idaho's airway as 'one of our terminals or semi-terminals' is done before this port can be such a terminal, especially in providing facilities for accommodations to the traveling public, such as eliminating the dust or mud conditions by use of gravel and asphalt, also the construction of hangars and buildings."

"Your city will probably be connected with Salt Lake City and Boise by scheduled passenger and service lines in the near future. It is important that this field be developed as rapidly as possible not only for the comfort of air travelers but also in inducement to operating air transport lines to include your city on their route."

RED CROSS RETAINS HOME SERVICE FUND

Figures Show Improved Financial Condition in Italy

COUNTRY RECOVERS ECONOMIC STRENGTH AFTER HARD TIMES

Progress Follows Stabilization of Lira at 5.23 Cents

Unemployment Decreasing And Living Costs Decline

Workers' Earnings in Industries of Nation Increasing

By ANDRÉ BERLING (Associated Press Staff Writer) —ROME, Nov. 13.—After two years in a financial jungle, Italy is beginning to see some light ahead. Figures confirm this turn for the better and point to a more auspicious future.

Two years ago Mussolini's government stabilized the lira at about 5.23 cents. They undoubtedly wished to secure financial stability and the result has been to be pleased. The cost of living, on the basis of 100 before the stabilization, rose to 197 this year. Italian manufacturers, however, adjust themselves rapidly to the new monetary basis; were unable to compete with other nations, particularly the French, and export fell. Economists of other countries said Mussolini had made a gesture of power which reacted against Italy.

Trade Balance Better Now, however, there are reliable signs that Italy has passed through the worst of her financial labors. Her trade balance, the relation her exports to her imports, is better. Unemployment is decreasing. Cost of living is gradually lowering. The government has announced a five-year plan of public improvements. The great manufacturing plants of northern Italy are reporting increasing conditions.

In September of 1929 Italy's importations stood at 1,438,000,000 lire, her exports at 1,231,000,000 lire, an unfavorable balance of 207,000,000. In 1928 the figures showed an unfavorable difference of 447,000,000. In one year, therefore, Italy has turned an unfavorable balance by 240,000,000 lire, equivalent to $12,552,000. Keeping up at this rate, Italy will wipe out the red side of the ledger in 1930.

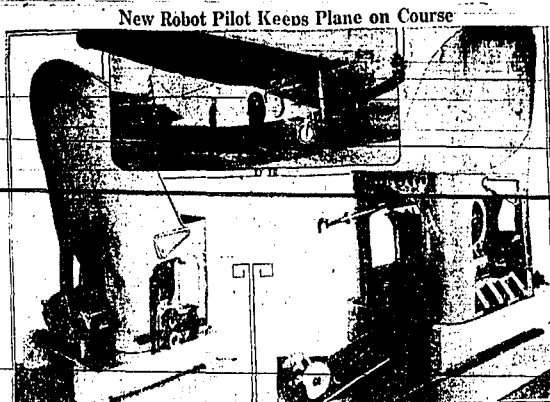

Prices Drop At the same time, prices of necessities have gone down—gradually, substantially, it is true, but with signs of continuing their decline. In September, for example, prices declined from 471.10 to 470.75, on a basis of 100 for 1913.

Wages on the other hand, have gone up. Comparing with a unit 100 in January, earnings of agricultural workers are now 125. In the metallurgical industries, employees are working 21 percent more hours than in January, and are earning between 25 and 20 percent more money.

The government is keeping down unemployment in part by a vast system of public works. Up to October 27, the public improvements in course of execution amounted to $280,000,000, employing 300,000 men. Italy's unemployment runs to about 2,000,000 men. England, which has practically the same population, has between 1,000,000 and 2,000,000 unemployed.

No Subsidized Press! AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE assures the freedom of the press—Public opinion has been freed from the tyranny which denied it the right to pass judgment on public questions.

"toasting did it" —

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's Toasted"—the phrase that describes the extra "toasting" process applied in the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—are scientifically subjected to penetrating heat at minimum, 260°—maximum, 300°, Fahrenheit. The exact, expert regulation of such high temperatures removes impurities. More than a dozen "It's Toasted" is recognized by millions as the most modern step in cigarette manufacture.
