

Jack Sharkey Looms As Next Opponent Of Max Schmeling

Officials of Garden Announce Terms of Contract With Boxer

Sponsor of Winter Show in South Holds Option on Bostonian's Services For Bout in Florida Arena

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 23—Jack Sharkey will be free to box Max Schmeling in Atlantic City in March after headlining the second annual heavyweight show in Miami February 27 as far as his present contract with Madison Square Garden is concerned.

The Garden, sponsor of the winter show in the South, has only an option on the Boston heavyweight's services for the new bout. Frank Brown, general manager, said today that Sharkey is willing to box again within a month as he will be free to oppose Max Schmeling for the rival promoting syndicate, headed by Herman Taylor and Bobby Higgins-McMahon, that is seeking to stage a fight attraction in the mammoth convention hall at Atlantic City.

The garden recently purchased the only contract under which the New York state athletic commission will permit Schmeling to box in this state. The German heavyweight, now residing in his homeland, already has agreed to meet the best available opponent in the New Jersey resort on March 29.

GRANDERITA, Hollywood, California, has arranged in eight rounds.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 23—Tommy Liberty, Vio, Pennsylvania, and Billy Wallace, Cleveland, fought to a draw in a feature eight round bout here tonight.

GROVE VICTORIES
SAVANNAH, Dec. 23—Lepo Grov, New York middleweight, had two knockouts for Eddie Dempsey, San Jose, and won a 15-round decision in National hall tonight.

Butler Hoopsters Defeat Montanans

Bulldogs Lead at Half in Hot Contest by Score of 21-16 But Slacken Pace

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 23—Butler university won its fourth consecutive basketball game, of the season here, by comfortably trouncing the Montana State Bobcats, 40 to 22. It was the first game of a 26-day invasion on the Middle West and East by the Bobcats.

The Montana team, Rocky mountain conference champions, opened up with a brilliant offensive and led for a large part of the first half. They were unable to maintain this speed, however, and the Bulldogs led at the half 21 to 16.

TITLE ASPIRANTS WIN
ROCHESTER, Dec. 23—Jimmy Sittler and Lou Sozzo, both of Buffalo, and named by the New York state athletic commission to fight in the light heavyweight championship of the world, scored knockout victories on an all-star card of four-round bouts here tonight. Sittler stopped Eddie Connors, Boston, in the second round while Sozzo was declared winner over Almedo Duquesne, Cuba, in the first. Both bouts were stopped by Referee Lou Magnolia, New York City.

GODFREY WINS
BOASBO, Dec. 23—Frank Godfrey, heavy weight, knocked out "Long Tom" Hawkins, Akron, Ohio, here tonight, in the third round of a scheduled 10-round bout. Godfrey, although apparently out of condition, proved too much for his angular opponent and sent Hawkins down for the count after winning the first two rounds by a wide margin.

WALLACE WINS BATTLE
INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 23—Ray Wallace, Indianapolis, middleweight, knocked out Chester Bush, Chicago, in the second round of a scheduled 10-round boxing contest here tonight. Bush was no match for the local pugilist.

HESS WINS EASILY
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 23—Goidie Hess, Ocean Park, California, featherweight, won easily over Billy Bar, San Bernardino, in a 10-round match here tonight. Hess was credited with six rounds, while Bario took only one.

MOORE GETS DECISION
CHICAGO, Dec. 23—Pal Moore, veteran Memphis featherweight, received the referee's decision over Jackie Stewart, Louisville, in the eighth round here tonight. In the semi-final, Irish "Mickey" Gill outpointed Frankie

Anderson Resigns To Assist Phelan

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 23—Heartily "Thank" Anderson will not return to a third year as new football coach at St. Louis university. It was indicated today when the football 124 with his family to go back the holidays in South Bend, Indiana. He conferred with Jimmy Phelan, Purdue coach, who gave to the University of Washington in a similar capacity next season. Anderson has been tendered a contract to coach the line at Washington by Phelan.

Phelan's offer nearly cost me my job," Anderson said before leaving. "It was so much better than I expected. I can coach the line at Washington for more money than I can get here as head coach, and without the responsibility and worry that was attached to it."

He said he was offered $5000 to remain here next year.

West Point Cadets Practice in Big Stadium in Preparation for Next Classic

PALO ALTO, Dec. 23—A campus line dormant since the close of final examinations last week hummed with renewed activity today as three football teams went through intensive workouts in stadium and practice fields.

Buckets of the three was the West Point Army eleven, which arrived here last night for its contest with Stanford Saturday, and was comfortably instructed in Brunner hall today. The cadets, granted the use of the Cardinal stadium for their practices, went through a light setting-up drill and posed for photographers before noon, and then returned for a scrimmage session in the afternoon. Coach Lawrence (Bill) Jones announced that the team would hold two practices daily for the remainder of the week.

Jones indicated that his starting lineup for Saturday's contest would be the same that started against Notre Dame. This eleven was composed of Carmark and Messenger, ends; Price and Perry, tackles; Hillinger and Humber, guards; Miller, center; Carver, fullback; and... captain

Christmas Preparations Lay Claim On Hands and Hearts in Twin Falls

A group of interested men in the Elks lodge rooms last night worked late transferring into hundreds of paper bags more than half a ton of candy and nuts, and oranges that the lodge has provided for Twin Falls boys and girls under 12 years of age who are looking to the future at annual Christmas parties in the Elks lodge rooms at 1 P. M. next Wednesday.

That was one of the many evidences of preparation for Christmas that occupied hands and hearts throughout Twin Falls yesterday.

Christmas shopping had been in progress here for weeks, but streets and shops yesterday were through all day and until late in the evening, and it was announced, most stores have arranged a train open late again tonight for the accommodation of eleventh hour shoppers and to play their full part in preventing disappointment due to procrastination.

Activities of churches, lodges and other organizations cooperating in Christmas relief work resulted a climax yesterday when dozens of baskets filled with provisions and Christmas delicacies and toys and dolls for the little folk found their way into homes where otherwise, Christmas would have been but a dreary occasion. Reports indicated that there is greater help and assistance among needy families here this season than for a number of seasons past. Direction of the cooperative Christmas relief activities devolves upon M. C. Ware as chairman, and W. J. Young, secretary—a central organization. Lists of names were taken and distributed with lights last night as they were conveyed into Christmas trees, while other hundreds of Christmas trees made their appearance in Twin Falls homes. An element of competition has been injected into the decoration of Christmas trees both indoors and out by offer of prizes to be awarded by the Red Knights of the high school and women of the Twentieth Century club.

At the same time, the same Santa Claus who is to take part in the Elks Christmas party Wednesday afternoon, extended his visit through Twin Falls thoroughfares, it was announced last evening. Boys and girls attending the Elks Christmas party are expected to be in the corridors in the Elks building at 1 P. M. on Christmas day.

In a number of Twin Falls churches children's Christmas exercises will be given this evening, while in American Episcopal church a candle light service, with a number of Twin Falls best known musicians taking part, is to begin at 10:30 P. M. with singing of carols following an organ prelude.

CONSTRUCTION COMPANY PLATS KIMBERLY LANDS

Utah Construction company filed in the office of the county recorder here yesterday two plats showing sub-division of lands owned by the company in three sections south of Kimberly, together with dedication for public use of roads along the boundaries of the lots.

The lands have been sub-divided, the company's affidavit stated, for the purpose of establishing boundaries and promoting irrigation from canals, laterals and ditches now constructed.

There was dedicated also to the owners of these lots and water rights the right to use these canals to the extent necessary for irrigation.

The affidavits were signed by W. H. Watts, president, and L. S. Corey, secretary of the Utah Construction company.

The plats were drawn from notes made by W. N. Gibb, civil engineer, last October and November.

was a Christmas tree, from which Santa Claus issued out candies and cookies. The following program was given: Piano and violin duet, Neva Sartwell and Paul Sartwell; song, "Joy to the World," by all present; singing, Grace Tate; song, Edwin Perennette; reading, Harold Higgenbotham; song, Betty Jean Swaley; reading, Merl Blum; piano solo, Neva Sartwell; song, Wilma Parker; play by five children; song, Neva Sartwell; song, Marie Auguste; recitation of P. E. Drake, Ellis Bjorling, J. W. Goertzen, A. D. Bjorling and H. C. Ericson; pantomime, "The Wizard of Oz," by Mrs. Perennette and Mrs. Sartwell and acting by Mrs. Clyde Tate and baby Neva Sartwell; Wilma Parker, Roy and Edwin Perennette and Vergil Perennette. Refreshments were served after the program.

BROTHER OF J. F. ORR SUCQUIMS IN ACCIDENT

Robert L. Orr, 32, Clatsop, Wisnau, was accidentally burned to death Sunday, according to a telegram received yesterday morning by his brother, J. F. Orr, Twin Falls engineer on the Washington branch of the Oregon Short Line railroad. The telegram was sent by a brother, Thomas Orr, and contained the particulars beyond the statement that the fatal burning was accidental. Robert, who was unmarried, was overseer of the night shift of the Plaster Manufacturing company of Clatsop, which manufactured beaver board, cement, lime and other products of the Works. It is not known whether the burning was the result of a fire in the factory or not.

With Compliments of the Season to All

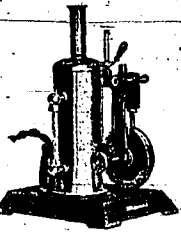

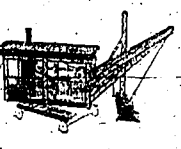

The Value of a Smile at Christmas

It costs nothing, but creates much.
It enriches those who receive without impoverishing those who give.
It happens in a flash and the memory of it sometimes lasts forever.
None are so rich they can get along without it and none so poor but are richer for its benefits.

It creates happiness in the home, fosters good will in business and is the counter-sin of friends.
It is rest to the weary, daylight to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad, and Nature's best antidote for trouble.

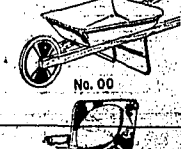

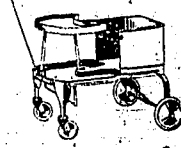

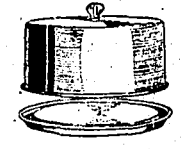

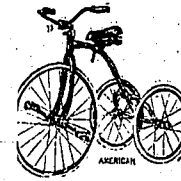

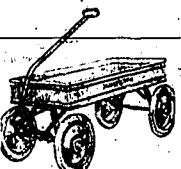

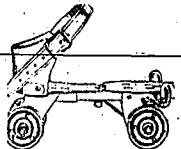

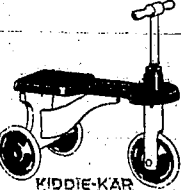

Yet it cannot be bought, begged, borrowed, or stolen, for it is something that is no earthly good to anybody till it is given away!

WE WISH YOU A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS!

THE GUMPS UNCLE BIM AT BAT

LOVE SHY Barbara Webb

"No, I suppose you couldn't but after all if I'm going to manage the business some day I want to know just from the ground up. And nothing that lets me meet a girl like Janet is utterly foolish, now is it?"

When they parted at the shabby Lane home Jimmy said: "Did you really like me that much?"

"What is his sister like?" was the question that greeted her. "She's a really pretty and the cleverest girl you ever saw. She paints pictures and she must get fabulous prices for them, for she has a mait, and the most perfect hair."

"I know, but there's not much future in it for a young man," Janet asserted— "they said she had her father's face, as feelings."

VERDICT OF JURORS HOLDS ACCUSED GIRL GUILTY OF FORGERY

Miss Viola Lowe, Ex-Clerk in Superintendent's Office, Faces Prison Term as Result of Decision

Found guilty of forgery of a Denver school district order for $100 warrant last August 29, Miss Viola Lowe, 25, former clerk in the office of Twin Falls county superintendent of public instruction, will enter next Friday in the district court room here, where she was on trial all last week, to hear judgment pronounced on the verdict.

The jury which found Miss Lowe guilty of the forgery charge returned its verdict a little after 8 A. M. Sunday, after 12 hours' deliberations.

There was no serious dissent among members of the jury at any time during the deliberations, according to one of the jurors. There was no dissent that all jurors were impressed with the gravity of the case and were careful to check individual evidence with all of the evidence, and particularly the specimens of handwriting introduced as exhibits that they took with them to the jury room. There was no dissent among the jury, and any attempt on the part of any juror to persuade another to his own view of the case on the early Sunday morning the jury had the verdict ready. It required some time to assemble the court and attorneys and the reading of the verdict. She was accompanied by her parents and older sister, who had sat at her side throughout the trial.

There was no evidence of emotion on the face of the accused girl as she listened to the reading of the verdict that pronounced her guilty.

Thereafter Judge Hugh A. Baker announced that she would be admitted to a $1000 bond until the time of pronouncing judgment, next Friday, listing the amount of the bond at $2000. This was $1500 more than the $1000 bond, which had been furnished when she was arraigned before preliminary hearing and which continued in effect until the verdict was returned in district court. The new bond was stored.

The new bond was stored by her father, Charles H. Lowe, and by T. J. Lloyd, Twin Falls.

Attorneys for Miss Lowe indicated yesterday that steps would be taken to appeal to the supreme court from judgment on the conviction in the court here.

The day set for pronouncement of judgment in the case of Miss Lowe is the day appointed also for sentencing of Owen Martin Caxton, 29, convicted of involuntary manslaughter in connection with the death of William M. Shocrock, Twin Falls, who was fatally injured in an automobile collision near Murtham last May 2.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS RETURN FOR HOLIDAYS

Most of the Twin Falls students attending the University of Idaho, are here for Christmas. A large number arrived on the special train Sunday and were met by relatives at the city station, although some came by railroad in some instances before and in other cases later than those on the special.

Among those who returned are Miss Nina Newman, Miss Helen Newman, Miss Helen Parrott, Miss Cora Jones, Miss Betty Wilson, Miss Vivian Wilson, Miss Jean Sweeley, Miss Violet Adams, Miss Margaret Owen, Miss Blanche Bettelger, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Hunt, William Babcock, Robert Nixon, Herbert Owen, Owen Buchanan, Ralph Ormsby, Paris Kent, Charles Hesthoff, Harold Taylor, James Finch, Louis Hahn, Charles Walker, Ralph Olmstead, Lawrence Hollenbeck, Ray Assendrup and Edward Wellpouss.

Miss Marjorie Wynn, Miss Peggy Wall and Lloyd Perry, students of Whitman college, Walla Walla, are home for the holidays.

FIRESTONE COMPANY WOULD ENTER FIELD

Council Receives Plans for $40,000 Service Station and Request to Cut Curb

The Firestone-Hubber company has under consideration the construction of a $30,000 service station in Twin Falls, members of the city council learned last evening when Harold William Meier, city engineer, submitted for the Firestone company the blue prints of its plans for the building 100 by 125 feet, and request for permission to remove the curb in on property at the corner of Main avenue and Fourth street west, that is considered as the site for the structure.

The Firestone company also requested permission to install a 700-gallon gasoline tank under the sidewalk.

Councilmen seemed disposed to welcome the advent of the new entry into the business field here, but they renewed their objection to unnecessary removal of curbs, and discussed this problem at considerable length before voting finally in favor of approval of an application submitted by F. C. Sharpe, 540 Fourth avenue east, for municipal builder's permit to construct a 3175 garage, 14 by 20 feet, at his residence.

Plans for the Christmas holidays include Miss Marjorie Caxton, Miss Helen Parrott, Miss Cora Jones, Miss Betty Wilson, Miss Vivian Wilson, Miss Jean Sweeley, Miss Violet Adams, Miss Margaret Owen, Miss Blanche Bettelger, Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Hunt, William Babcock, Robert Nixon, Herbert Owen, Owen Buchanan, Ralph Ormsby, Paris Kent, Charles Hesthoff, Harold Taylor, James Finch, Louis Hahn, Charles Walker, Ralph Olmstead, Lawrence Hollenbeck, Ray Assendrup and Edward Wellpouss.

John Hayes, student in the University of Colorado, Boulder, arrived Sunday, accompanied by his sister, Miss Winifred Hayes, instructor of physical education in the Denver public school, to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hayes.

WATER RATES RISE TO SUPPLY FUND TO REPLACE WOOD PIPE

Council Approves Advance in Minimum Charge of $2 Net Per Month to Meet Emergency Requirement

Twin Falls city council voted last evening to increase the water rate approximately 25 per cent to provide funds for replacement of wooden water pipes and to rehabilitate the municipal waterworks.

The council also approved a minimum charge of $2 net per month for customers within the city limits, to expedite to augment the waterworks' revenues to the extent of approximately $12,000 a year.

With this increased revenue for two years, it is estimated, additional funds will be collected to complete all required replacements in the delivery system.

The council's vote was recorded last evening in approval of a measure that was presented by T. Sanderson, commissioner of streets and sidewalks, two weeks ago. It was then placed on its first reading and came on for final action last evening.

No protest against the proposed increase was registered during the time the measure was under consideration.

Members of the council said last evening that they had heard very little criticism of the proposal and that objection was removed favorably when the purpose was explained—to raise money needed for replacements that are imperative.

Preliminary to the vote, T. J. Dou-

D. MORGAN HACKMAN WINS AIRPLANE RACE

Word has just been received that Lieutenant D. Morgan Hackman, graduate of the Twin Falls high school, of the West Point Military academy, and of the Mitchell field and the Kelly field in army aviation, won the first race, and won second place in the second race, in a contest put on by leading manufacturers of airplanes, at an airplane show in Mexico City.

After graduating from Kelly aviation field, Hackman was assigned to the Mitchell field, Virginia, for duty. Later he resigned to enter the service of The Fairchild Aviation company at Farmingdale, New York. He is engaged by his company in establishment of sales agencies and the sale of airplanes. Lieutenant Hackman with a Fairchild plane entered a race several months ago from New York to Ontario, Canada. He won the race and secured a $2000 prize, which he refused to accept for himself, but turned over to his company. Each year Ford and other large manufacturers of airplane engines in the good-will tour for the purpose of taking out the various makes of airplanes and to arouse interest in aviation. A short time ago 27 airplanes from different factories started on an annual tour which extended from Detroit to Ontario, Canada, two other points in Canada, thence to Fortland, Maine, down to Florida, thence to Wichita, Kansas, and back to Detroit, a trip of 5000 miles.

Just before reaching Wichita, Lieutenant Hackman in making a landing on some rough ground broke a wheel on his plane. Under the rules of the contest this eliminated him from the contest. He was then hired from the lead.

A telephone wire from West Point, New York, to Twin Falls last Saturday night brought word to Captain James W. Porter, Twin Falls attorney and World War veteran, that his son, Gwinn Porter, had passed examinations at the end of his first semester as a cadet at the United States Military academy. The examination, which is an important one in the life of a West Point cadet, is the first taken by Gwinn Porter since his admission to the military academy last July. He was graduated from Twin Falls high school last spring, and was a member of the Twin Falls unit of Idaho national guard engineers.

City looks to ditch the... The biggest part, in any event, it was asserted, would not permit interest longer than two years.

Under the new schedule, patrons outside the city will pay $2.75 a month net for minimum water delivery.

The rates for water ordered in excess of the minimum of 5000 gallons, as they have been and will continue under the new schedule, are as follows: 5000 to 10,000 gallons, 8 cents per 1000 gallons; 10,000 to 20,000 gallons, 7 cents per 1000 gallons; over 20,000 gallons, 6 cents per 1000 gallons.

As a means of relieving the situation during periods of peak consumption of water in summer months, Commissioner Douglas said last evening, plans are being considered for diverting water from the Eighth avenue lateral for irrigation of the city park.

Within limits of pumping and transportation costs involved, it was pointed out also, water might be taken from irrigation ditches for street sprinkling.
