WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—William Howard Taft, h
long and illustrious public c courageous fight for life t night.

The former president and chief justice of the United States is dangerously ill at home with a complication of diseases which his physicians long ago gave up hope of curing. Their efforts now are to prolong life and they were not prepared to say how long this might be done.

Brought back from Asheville, North Carolina, in a bleak, gray dawn, the 72-year-old patient was taken to his residence here. A spe-

At home with him were Mrs. Taft, who had accompanied him to Ashville, and a son, Robert A. Taft, Cincinnati, who yesterday presented resignation of the chief justice.

Mrs. Taft alone rode with her husband from the station to their home on Wyoming avenue. Dr. Hagner, nurse and attendants followed in another car. Mr. Taft was helped into the house through a side door.

The newspapers today devoted themselves to eulogizing the late Perote Gil during his month in office and to commenting on the composition of the new Ortiz cabinet.

Prior to taking office, Ortiz had been a deputy governor of Michoacan, secretary of communications and public works, minister to Berlin and ambassador to Brazil. In the army he had risen to the rank of brigadier general.

His military career began in Victoriano Carranza's army, in which he served as a captain when Victoriano Huerta was forced out of power. Later he turned against Carranza and was a general in the brigade in Obregon's army.

Commissioners Acquit Primo Carnera of Conspiracy Charge

Gigantic Muscle Man for Europe Frightens Rioux

Dave Barry, Referee of Bout

In Chicago, Declares Canadian Appeared Scared Before Entering Fight Arena

By CHARLES W. DUNKLEY (Associated Press Sports Writer)
CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—Primo Carnera, the huge muscle man from Italy, was just a big bogey man and not a conspirator.

This was the consensus of the Illinois state athletic commission today after it had finished an investigation of Carnera's 47-second knockout of Elmer Rioux, the French-Canadian woodsman from Montreal, in the Chicago stadium punch bowl last Friday night. Rioux, the commission decided, was scared into a half faint at first sight of the tremendous bulk of the Italian giant and did not deliberately take a "dip."

Because of Rioux's unsatisfactory showing, however, he was fined $1000 and suspended indefinitely. No action was taken against Carnera. He was hit, however, and his purse of approximately $10,000 was ordered paid. Rioux's fine was deducted from his $2000 purse.

Question Air Principles
After questioning all principals or their representatives, the commission concluded there was no evidence of a conspiracy, fraud or collusion. Dave Barry, referee of the abbreviated match, said he was of the impression that Rioux was badly frightened, even before he entered the ring, that he had no heart to fight. He said Rioux appeared to be rigid with fear when called to the center of the ring and that his muscles would not respond when the Italian made his first furious rush at the clang of the gong.

The two judges, E. L. Cook and W. A. Barry, agreed that Rioux hit the floor five times without being punched hard enough to knock over a bantamweight. The punch that sent him to the floor, flat on his back, for the sixth and final count, was described by them as a well-directed smash to the chin. That final punch, the judges qualified, did not carry sufficient force to knock Rioux out.

Rioux, in his broken English, ex-

"NEW YORK NIGHTS" APPEARS AT IDAHO

"New York Nights," which opened at the Idaho theatre last night with Norma Talmadge showing in her first musical talking picture, is a thrilling melodramatic production, rich in romance, rich in power, and filled with entertainment values. It is an example of intriguing big time atmosphere plus a dominant and popular personality.

"The picture affords Miss Talmadge an excellent opportunity to show her interpretive genius and her emotional fire and charm.

A lavish display of sets, crowd, music, comedy and a sincere romance told in that picturesque style of New York City known as "Tin Pan Alley."

"As 'Bill,' the chorus girl wife of 'Fred Devens' (Gilbert Roland), Miss Talmadge creates an unforgettable character of delightful appeal and paradoxical moods—a character part whimsy, part pathos and thoroughly real."

Gilbert Roland, who plays opposite the star, does excellently in the difficult role of "Fred Devens," a potential star lyricist who sells his honor and the only worthwhile song he ever wrote for a drink of booze.

John Wray, the distinguished playwright, is an excellent cast of capable players.

"New York Nights" starts and finishes in a fast tempo of action, night clubs, wild party scenes, shootings and dance music by two famous recording orchestras are part and parcel of the drama.

"New York Nights" was adapted from the successful stage play "The Careless Age" by the famous dramatist, George M. Cohan.

"The Careless Age" is another big time United Artists picture.
