IDAHO FALLS GETS 1930 REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

Central Committee in Session at Boise—Selects Ralph B. Scatterday, Caldwell, as Presiding Officer

(By The Associated Press) BOISE, March 8.—The Republican state central committee today elected Ralph B. Scatterday, Caldwell, as state chairman and selected Idaho Falls for the next state convention, to be held August 26.

At the same time the committee recommended E. Z. R. Whitt, Coeur d'Alene, for national committee to succeed Governor John Thomas, who has submitted his resignation to the national committee. The recommendation of Whitt is considered tantamount to his election to the post.

Election of Scatterday to succeed Ralph B. Scatterday resigned to run for the governorship, came only after Byron Defenbach, himself a candidate for the governorship, declared he could see no reason why Scatterday should not continue in office. Scatterday is a member of the central committee from Clearwater county.

Selection Unanimous After the resignation of Defenbach was accepted, however, Defenbach nominated Mark Means, Lewiston, for the place as a man who has not committed himself for any candidate for state office. Means withdrew his name and the election went to Scatterday unanimously.

A resolution introduced by A. P. Bremer, Minidoka county, asking that the state chairman and national committee devote themselves primarily to "cleaning rural areas" was defeated by a vote of 20 to 10. The resolution was introduced by H. R. Rogers, Rich, Cassia county representative, brandies it "undesirable" and "reflects on the officials in whom we have placed our trust."

The drive to make Idaho Falls the convention city got under way shortly after noon today and caught supporters of Boise almost unawares. The mayor, Douglas G. Hunsley, extended Boise's invitation for the convention and stated that it would be glad to have the convention party to convene here because there is great possibility that the next Democratic candidate for governor will be from this city.

Millions Of Citizens Tender Affections Abide With Taft Through Triumph and Defeat

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP)—Millions of citizens tendered their affection for the generous qualities of his radiant personality, William Howard Taft, who died tonight in New York, after a long illness.

He did not carry the dignity of his robes of office while he mixed with his fellowmen on the sidewalk. On one occasion, passing a painter on which a painter was painting the painter dropped his brush and he said to Taft: "If you say, 'Thank you,' I will drop my brush and go home."

He was an enthusiastic follower of sports, especially football, and he watched with keenest interest the progress of the team of Yale, where he graduated and afterward became a member of the faculty.

When he was secretary of war, a reporter asked Mr. Taft one day, "How much do you weigh, Mr. Secretary?" "I don't know," he replied with a roaring laugh.

Decline in Condition of One Time Chief Magistrate of Nation, First Apparent in 1921, Ends in Break-Down

Borglum Progresses In Work On Mount Rushmore Memorial

Workmen Complete One Face And Commission Plans For Dedication

Colossal Monumental Project Includes Figures of Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln And Roosevelt

Two figures of the Mount Rushmore memorial, Washington and Jefferson, will be dedicated July 4. Washington's head already has been outlined (above), and Workmen (lower left) are shown climbing to drill on mountain. Model of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln figures (lower right) has been prepared by Gutzon Borglum (inset).

By WALTER BROWN (Associated Press Staff Writer)
KEYSSTONE, S. D., March 8.—With winter's departure from the Black hills, workmen will return to their job of hacking George Washington's features from the granite wall of Mount Rushmore.
Blasting and chiseling will be resumed whenever weather permits lowering the men over the side of the 1000-foot escarpment.
The Mount Rushmore commission plans to dedicate two figures of the colossal memorial, Washington and Jefferson, next July 4. Other figures will depict Lincoln and Roosevelt.
A brief historical outline of the United States, to be written by Calvin Coolidge, will be carved adjacent to the figures. The huge letters will be spaced to readable three miles away.

Gutzon Borglum, sculptor and designer, estimates the memorial will be completed in four years. It will cost $500,000, half of which is to be appropriated by congress. Mount Rushmore will be the first ever reserved.
The Black hills memorial was inspired by Doane Robinson, South Dakota state historian. Mount Rushmore was selected for the enduring quality of its stone, and because it is visible from a distance.
After completing his city design, Borglum first projected a picture of Washington onto the face of the cliff. This was sketched, then chiseled on the rock. Blasting gave a rough contour, and electric drills and chisels rounded out the sculpturing. All the figures will be in full relief. Washington's figure is to be shown to his belt buckle, a figure 50 feet tall. Jefferson's bust, Lincoln's shoulders and Roosevelt's head are to follow in that order over the shoulder of Washington.

The Coolidge eagle will be carved farther back on the mountain. It will mention eight events considered the most epochal in the country's history: 1776, declaration of independence; 1803, Louisiana purchase; 1846, admission of Texas; 1858, Oregon boundary settlement; 1869, admission of California; 1869, end of civil war, and 1907, completion of Panama canal.

THEATRES

SMART COMEDY COMES TO ORPHEUM THEATRE

The success "This Thing Called Love" attained on the speaking stage should insure a brilliant success for this smart comedy in dialogue picture form which comes to the Orpheum theatre. Edmund Lowe and Constance Bennett are featured.
As a stage play it was one of the season's big successes. The amusing situations that have been worked out in this picture by the author, attention on the idea of a modern marriage in which the wife stipulates that she is to receive a salary that neither wife nor husband is to be denied other lovers, provides a great deal of entertainment and much amusement.
In addition to Edmund Lowe and Constance Bennett, who are featured in this production include Zasu Pitts, Carmelita Geraghty, Ruth Taylor, Roscoe Karns, Stuart Erwin, John Roche and others.

"SEVEN DAYS LEAVE" FEATURES AT IDAHO

"Seven Days Leave" Gary Cooper's latest starring picture, is perhaps one of the most unusual and at the same time the most interesting, amusing and distinctive pictures of the new year. The theme, simple yet strangely exciting, and the realistic manner in which it has been directed, combine to make of it, a picture of importance. The story itself is unique insofar as screen entertainment is concerned for it possesses features that the conventional beginning neglects.
One other element contributes importantly to the success of "Seven Days Leave." And that is the splendid acting of the cast, notably the performances of Gary Cooper and Beryl Mercer, the famous character actress.
And Gary Cooper too, continues the excellent work which has distinguished all of his recent pictures "The Virginian" and that earlier effort, "The Sheik" and "The Sheik Again".
"Seven Days Leave" is a might be of interest to the film goer, not only for its excellent acting, but for its all-talking dramatization of Sir James M. Barrie's well known stage success, "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" written with great sympathy and understanding, Barrie's play of an old woman's love for her son. In this case the "son" being a product of her own imagination until unusual circumstances actually do bring a mother's boy to her arms; a boy on seven days leave in London after spending months in the trenches. Her love for her boy is a "restoring" agent as is the suspicion in his mind that she is just a queer old lady trying to use him for her own purposes.
The development of a genuine love between this poor man and this little old woman is the most touching and beautiful story to come to the screen in ever so long.
"Seven Days Leave" which was directed by Richard Wallace, will be presented at the Idaho theatre for ten days only starting this afternoon.

Why don't the heads of the big chains assailed and accused by Mr. Henderson of Shreveport, deny his charges? They can't. They are gully, otherwise they would have him in jail for slander. Victory came having won the final contest of the tournament from Gooding's fine team here tonight, 38 to 23. Oakley is the first team to take the title away from Buhl more than two years, but had no easy winning from Gooding, for the game was much closer than the score reads, until the Gooding team weary from their third game against Buhl—found that pieces of the court makes more than they could sustain.

Wisconsin Triumphs In Conference Meet

World-Record in High Hurdle for 70 Yards Tumbles

Badgers, scoring in 6 of 7 events, amass 21 points with Illinois placing next and Indiana third with 17

MINNAPOLIS, March 8.—A world's record was eclipsed, another was equalled and a record for the meet was smashed as Wisconsin won the Western conference—indoor track and field championship in the University of Minnesota field house tonight.

The Badgers, scoring in 6 of the 7 events, amass 21 points, with Illinois second with 18, and Indiana third with 17.

Michigan was fourth with 12 1/2 points, and Purdue fifth with 10 points. Northwestern scored with 9 points, Iowa, returning to Western conference competition, was seventh with eight points. Chicago and Ohio State wound up eighth with seven apiece. Minnesota failed to break into the scoring.

Lee Sentman, spindle-legged hurdler from Illinois, crashed through with a world's record when he won the 70-yard high hurdle event in 17 1/2 seconds. Sentman, who is the former record holder of the 100-yard hurdle, was defeated by Charles H. Moore, New York, in 1923.

Basketball Shots

WHAT might be called the "shooting average" in basketball has made a marked advance in the last few years, particularly among the amateurs.

A close study of a number of games played by college teams this season shows that the players are trying fewer and fewer shots at the basket, and making good a larger and larger proportion of the total.

Frank Troeh Wins Trosphoot Honors

DEL MONTE, Cal., March 8 (AP)—Forced to draw for the money after losing in a shoot-out with E. H. Sherman, Salt Lake City, Frank Troeh, Portland, won the Grand Del Monte trophy today's feature event of the Grand Del Monte trophy tournament at Pebble Beach Gun club.

Troeh and Sherman tied in the exciting, breaking 100 consecutive target game. In a spirited shoot-out they again tied with 89. The draw gave Troeh the victory but left plenty of prize for the Salt Lake City man. Sherman is vice president of the American Professional League Association.

The champion Cleveland, Ohio, boys practiced a bit with Fordham's great team of last year and while the brushes were entirely informal no doubt was left of the professionals' superiority.

PRETTY floorwork and guarding ability are not enough to get a player up in professional company. He must get his share of baskets whether he plays guard, center or forward.

IN this regard, the principal criticism against Able Booth, of Yale as a basketball performer has been that he is not long on the floor. In action he looks like a million dollars. Every move in poetry. He has the indefinable class that stamps the natural athlete. But his ability does not show to full advantage in the scoring column although his one-half of the game did avail to beat Columbia in the closing minutes of an upset at New Haven the other night.

ON THE SIDELINES by BRIAN BELL

WILLIAM G. (BILL) EVANS, general manager of the Cleveland Indians does not believe in exhibition games during the season. The Cleveland club has played only one exhibition game in three seasons and that at Frederick, Maryland, its Blue Ridge league farm. "Exhibition games never make any money to speak of," said the former great umpire, "and they keep the ball players in a bad humor. We don't think they are worth while, so after the season opens we play the schedule and let it go at that."

The Indians, too, are bearish on exhibition games during the spring training period. They play only 10 games and 12 of them are at New Orleans, their home grounds during spring training. Two others are at Shreveport and two at Birmingham with other stops at Cincinnati and Toledo on the way home to open the American league season.

"We should finish as good as fourth in the American league race," he said. "We had a lot of good breaks last year in slipping into third place, and if we can do as well again, everything will be fine. Fourth would not be all that bad for us."

The business head of the Cleveland said that the Athletics and Yankees regarded his team as one to be reckoned with in the coming campaign.

"I hope they are right," was his reply. "I certainly do."

OLD JACK QUINN, who is saving the announcement of his real age until after the season, is planning to show the young fellows how to get in shape for a hard baseball season. When the first practices were ordered at Fort Myers and the Athletics ran out, the first pitcher to look a ball was John Pius Quinn. He will take his turn straight through the training grind and if any sore arms are developed in the camp, they will pass Jack by. He doesn't believe in sore arms.

LEROY MAHAFFEY, once recruit pitcher with the Athletics, is only a few hits better than he is credited with one fast in the book of baseball free-players here. When he was with Columbia, South Carolina, in the South Atlantic association he hit three home runs in successive times at bat, each ball sailing in a line over the left-field fence. Connie Mack has not seen enough of Mahaffey's ability to hazard a guess as to his ultimate success with the Athletics, but the manager of the world champions is known to have been impressed with the early showing of the big fellow from Portland, Oregon.

Although he is only 25 years old, Mahaffey has been pitching for several years and as ball players say "he knows what it is all about." The Athletics will graduate another starting pitcher this year and Mahaffey has a chance to win the signal honor if Bill Shores is promoted, he may pick up where Bill left off in the bullpen.

Veteran Tells of Good Old Days in Baseball Affairs

Mike Fisher Says "Pennant Team of 1904 Could Show Up Present Day League Like Nobody's Business"

By HUSKEL J. NEWLAND—(Associated Press Sports Writer) SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—Ye old time baseball player is reluctant to concede that baseball and its cohorts today have anything on the game and its intimates of that rousing period just following the birth of this century.

Read what Mike Fisher, one of the greatest, has to say: "My old 'Carmen team, that won the pennant in 1904, would dust off the present-day league teams like nobody's business. In those days to play baseball meant to fight from the first inning till the last. Nowadays the boys are hitting too much of next pay day."

"I paid Hap Hodan only $5 a month and he figured it was such a good salary he wanted to catch every game in a truck."

"The Par West is in the throes of an intensive search for heavyweights. Any fellow of 200 pound proportions is likely to be approached these days and asked if he would like to become a fighter."

In southern California, two former champions are developing prospect James J. Jeffries is working on a prospect by the name of Al Moro while Al McCoy, former middleweight title holder, is instructing a youngster whose true name is Jesse James South. South is 6 feet 2 inches, weighs 220 pounds and is 22 years old. He has been in training for seven months and hasn't had a regular fight yet.

Fisher had the following players on his payroll: Pitcher, Orvie Overton, Bobby Secie, Harry Walters, seven months.

Husky Five Drubs Trojans, 36 to 31

Washington Hoopsters Even Series With Californians In Titular Coast Contest

LOS ANGELES, March 8 (AP)—In a complete reversal of form, Washington university's hoopsters tonight evened the University of Southern California's quintet before them to take an impressive 36-31 victory, and even the Pacific coast conference championship series. The third and deciding game for the conference title will be played Monday.

The Trojans battled the Huskies on even terms during the first 10 minutes of play, but from that point Washington forged to the front to take a 21-10 lead at half time.

The Trojans came back strong in the second period to outscore the Huskies, 22 points to 16. The Trojans carried the fight to the northwestern throughout the period but their scoring attack lacked the necessary punch to overcome the lead of the Huskies.

Drad Hill Goes For The Ball was about as dazed as a chunk of wood then, but the way he hit them you'd think he was batting in golf ball. If he was playing today he'd beat them farther than Babe Ruth. Show me a better catch league thanp them I had and I'll quit talking baseball."

Yale's Swimmers Set World Marks

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 8 (AP)—Yale's varsity relay team broke the world's record in the 500 yard relay in 27:47.5, setting a new world mark.

Thomas, Elmer Stretchett, "Lefty" St. Vrain, John Fitzgerald; catcher, Alan Hesse; Charles Green; first base, Lou Nordy; second base, Pearl Case; shortstop, Truck Egan, third base Tony Sheehan, outfielders, George Hillierford, Alce Lorenz, Charley Doyle, George McLaughlin.

Three of these players, Overall, Sherman and Graham, were drafted to the big league for $750 each. Today the draft price is $7500. Walter sold Keele and Walters to the New York Yankees for $1600 apiece and got $1200 for Nordyke from the Boston Americans. At which were considered "rewards" prizes then. Fisher disposed of three stars for a total of $4500. Today the stars would bring close to $144,000.

One-punch knockouts (among prominent fighters) are as rare in San Francisco's boxing history as one-round kayos are common. Twenty years back, Tommy Burns and Sam Langford each leveled their opponent with the first wallop. Burns dropped "Donner Bill" Equines and Langford turned out the lights for Jim Flynn.

Stanford University Olympic Club In Athletic Contest

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., March 8 (AP)—Stanford's powerful track and field squad defeated the strong San Francisco Olympic club team, 70 to 50, 1-3 here today. Stanford edged the meet by taking the final event of the day, the 100-yard relay.

A 300-yard lowered times in sprint and distance but several possible performances were made despite the handicap. Eric Erens, Stanford captain, won the shot put with a toss of 57 feet 7 inches, while his teammate, Harlow Roether, took second with 50 feet 9 inches.

Recruits Confront Trials of Proving Ability in Majors

Scores of Freshmen in Far West and South Prepare For Crucial Tests to Determine Future Positions

By JAY VESSELS
Sports Editor, Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 8.—All of this complimentary talk about the way freshmen "flashes" performed in 1929 has been great stuff.

It gave the recruits a good send-off in their departure for the big leagues and it also made pleasant reading.

But from now on the boys will be in the "hats" and it is to be expected that they will have to prove that they deserve to keep company with the stars of the "big league."

Some of the freshmen appear to be certain successes. They include: First baseman Gus Suhr, Pirates; Third baseman Tony Cuccinello, Braves; Pitcher Lynn Nelson, Cubs; Third baseman Ben Chapman, Yankees; Outfielder Tripp Sigman, Phillies; and Infielder Smead Jolley, White Sox.

Others in the "sure-shot" class, include: First baseman Bruce Caldwell, Athletics; Second baseman Eddie MacInnis, Giants; Pitcher Harry Smythe, Phillies; Infielders Elma and Pudge Hefflinger, Boston; Outfielder Elva Plunk, Braves; and Shortstop Eric McFarland, Philadelphia Athletics.

Long Trials
The odds are that these lads will stick, at least all but a few of them. Most of them cost big money, so they have to be given a long trial unless a glaring fundamental weakness disqualifies them.

Scores of others are up for "try-outs." Some will stay long enough to collect a few meals and transportation expenses. A few will be carried over to next year. The remainder will be farmed out.

Among the other recruits of various grades are:

PHILADELPHIA—Pitchers, Collard and Nichols; catchers, Cooper and McCurdy; and Infielder, Sherrick.

BRAVES—Pitcher, Alonso Smith, and outfielders, Boyle, Brecher, Dunlap and Randolph Moore.

CINCINNATI—Pitcher, Campbell, First, Sims Johnson; outfielder, Webb.

BROOKLYN—Pitchers, Dretton, Phelan, Richardson; outfielders, West, Parham, Joseph Vance.

CARDINALS—Pitchers, Foster, Lindsay; catcher, Morrow; Infielders, Hunt, Decker.

CUBS—Pitchers, Moss, Lautner; Infielders, Jones, Burgess; Outfielder, Taylor.

DETROIT—Pitchers, Chigman, Erickson; Infielders, King, Young; Sankey; Catchers, Dool, O'Connell; outfielders, Cox, Moore, Starnes, Miller.

CLEVELAND—Pitchers, Brush, Judd, Ray, Lucas, Lamotte, Brazil, Trent; catchers, Healey, Lavigne; Infielders, Allen, Hallway; outfielders, Fisher, Fitzgerald, Leslie, Vellman.

INDIANS—Pitchers, Staley, Caldwell, Holshouser; Infielder, Infielder; catcher, Hurling; outfielder, Bennett.

PHOENIX—Pitchers, Barnes, Herling, M. V. Nelson, Samuels, Sullivan; Infielders, Akers, Walton, Gregory; catchers, Steinkne, Rens; outfielder, Harris.

RED SOX—Pitchers, Bushey, Harmon; catcher, Bennett; catcher, Penney; Infielders, Holman, Bonner, Sweeney; outfielders, Cetero, Oliver, Winsler.

YANKEES—Pitchers, Andrews, Asbeck, Edwards, Omer, Henderson, McBoy, Poli; Infielder, Reese; catcher, Barton.

SENATORS—Pitchers, Freeman, Moore, Pyles, Winecup; catcher, Nelson; Infielder, McCool; outfielder, Cery.

WHITE SOX—Pitchers, Prader, Caraway, Garland; Infielders, Jovitz, Zink, Slieth; outfielders, Dave Harris, Moore.

INDIANS—Pitchers, Barnhart, Beane, Brown, Harder, Macdonald; catcher, Frank; Infielder, Bonner, Nurell, Delore, Goldman, Hooks, Piel, Stewart; outfielders, Dorman, Oll, Powers, Sted.

ATHLETICS—Pitchers, McCree, Mahon; catcher, Matos; Infielders, Graham, Hesser, Parr, Williams; outfielder, Oliver.

On battle grounds in the South and Far West, scores of recruits are preparing for the crucial test that will decide whether they stay in the majors or go back to the minors. The new men above are among the favored few. Jolley (White Sox), Berger (Braves) and Sigman (Phillies) are outfielders; Nelson (Cubs) is a pitcher; and Chapman (Yankees), Cuccinello (Reds) and Suhr (Pirates) are infielders.

Sir Thomas Enters Shamrock V In Fifth Trial for Supremacy

All England is wishing the Irish yachtsman luck in his fifth and possibly last America Cup race with crack yachts of the United States of New York, Rhode Island, September 12.

Clout King Signs With Yankees for $80,000 Annually

Babe Ruth's Contract Calls For $170,000 in Salary In Two-Year Period and 'I'm Worth It,' Says Sulton

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Sports Editor)

ST. PETERSBURG, March 8.—Babe Ruth will receive the record smashing sum of $170,000 for playing baseball with the New York Yankees for the next two years.

After turning his back, figuratively, on this staggering offer yesterday, the home run monarch did a right-about face today, hustled to St. Petersburg from his jungle club retreat and quickly accepted the terms offered him by Colonel Jacob Ruppert, owner of the Yanks.

On Monday following a series of ceremonies presided over by the culmination of so many months of pro-cessing, formal contracts will be signed, in which the Babe's salary, at $80,000 per year, will be paid in two installments.

The settlement enabled Ruth to jump into the first exhibition game of the season, with the Boston Braves, without the fear of an injury with his contract still in the air.

Ruth's reconsideration, overnight, in addition to strong advice from his friends, a conviction that Colonel Ruppert had "gone the limit" and, finally, he admitted himself, a command from the "head of the house"—Mrs. Ruth.

Takes Gold Pen Along
Before he jumped into a car with two newsgamen at the airport club this morning, Mrs. Ruth demanded to know whether the Babe had his new gold fountain pen with him, and they gave him a parting injunction to get that over with.

Puffing away on a briar pipe and with a growl of sincere relief, the Babe handed this statement to newspaper men after the colonel announced a settlement.

Babe and Wife On Outing

"Being persuaded it is for the best interests of the Yankees and being eager to step right in and give every possible help to our new manager and my old pal, Bob Shawkey, I have conceded my point and accepted terms for a two-year contract at $80,000 a season.

"I am confident that my play will more than justify this contract." Asked what he would do with his record salary, Ruth replied: "I'm going to put most, if not all of it right in the old sock. We've got enough to get along on, anyway, and we will stick the old pay checks in that trust fund to keep the family in bread and butter when I'm old and gray-headed."

Entomologist Believes Insects Build Resistance To Poisons

PESTS APPARENTLY ACQUIRE IMMUNITY FROM INSECTICIDE

Dr. R. C. Roark Presents Evidence That Codling Moth Has Developed Ability to Withstand Lead Arsenate

By FRANK I. WELLER, Farm Editor (Associated Press Feature Service) WASHINGTON, March 1.—Indication that by a process of evolution insects may be building up a physical resistance to poisons now used to combat them is seen by Dr. R. C. Roark of the insecticide division, bureau of chemistry and soils.

Probably the most outstanding evidence, he says, is presented by the codling moth, insect enemy of apples and pears. It was revealed in a test application of arsenate of lead to the orchards of Washington and Virginia.

The former, obtained from a regular white arsenic compound, have been applied more frequently and in heavier dosage than in Virginia, showed less effect there.

Dr. Roark believes elimination in the primal law of the survival of the fittest, each successive generation of moths in Colorado inheriting the resistant qualities of those withstanding the poison.

Evidence apparently does not stop there, he says, adding that in California certain kinds of scale insects on citrus trees are not controlled as easily as they formerly were by fumigation under tents with hydrocyanic acid gas.

Insects causing San Jose scale in the middle west do not respond to lime-sulphur solution sprays in the same way they did 30 years ago.

Science has met the situation by inventing oil emulsion sprays to be used instead of lime-sulphur against scale insects. To some extent, although not wholly satisfactory, oil emulsions have been substituted for hydrocyanic acid gas in treating citrus scale. No commercial substitute for lead arsenate for use against the codling moth is known.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Amosa class of the Baptist Sunday school will meet at the residence of Mrs. A. D. Dobler at 361 Fifth avenue north Monday evening.

The Salmon Social club will meet at the home of Mrs. C. N. Gates Thursday-Afternoon, March 12.

The Twin Falls chapter of the Eastern Star will meet Tuesday evening at the Masonic temple. Past masters, past patrons and charter members of the order will be guests of honor-guests at a dinner, which will be served at 6:30 P. M.

The growing immunity to customary poisons of the codling moth (lower right) leads Dr. R. C. Roark (lower left) to urge new insecticides. Dusting by airplane (above) is one method of combating pests.

Here's Why Firestone Tires Hold All Records

THE pick of the long staple cotton crop is bought by Firestone experts in the primary cotton markets. It is shipped to Firestone's own cord fabric mills—the largest in the world—where it is first twisted into tiny threads. These threads are then tightly twisted into ply yarns, and three of these are twisted in the reverse direction into cords of fish-line strength. Exactly the right number of twists are carefully determined to secure the greatest strength and elasticity.

Not satisfied with cords of superior strength and elasticity, each individual cord is Gum-Dipped—a patented Firestone process in which every cord is submerged in a vat of pure liquid rubber gum—where every single fiber of every cord is saturated and completely covered with rubber. That's why Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires give most miles per dollar and hold all world records for speed, safety and economy. You see it in our stock—come in. We save you money and serve you better.

Fear Of Dictatorship Brews Revolt In Dominican Republic

ISLAND RESIDENTS SEE EVIL IN LONG PRESIDENTIAL TERM

Back of Drama of Revolution Lies Long Tales of Bankruptcy and Unrest

BEHIND CONDITION BULKS SPIRIT OF GENERATIONS

Opposition-Leaders Demand Present Executive's Refusal to Run For Post

By CHARLES E. HARNER (Associated Press Staff Writer)

WASHINGTON, March 8

Behind the drama of revolution in the Dominican Republic lies a long tale of bankruptcy, government revolts, constitutional changes and unrest.

And behind all that, bulks the fundamental problem of a people whose ancestry embraces the courageous fighters of the perils of the new world.

The life is a gem of the Caribbean, but Christopher Columbus brought exactly the opposite to paradise—where the great adventurer asked to be buried, where the republics of the Western Hemisphere proposed to erect a great memorial lighthouse to Columbus and peace.

Constant Turmoil

There, the world has always seen turned to such turmoil that the United States, excepted, has for 23 years collected its customs, apportioned the revenue to the government and nations who have lost the republic and have threatened anarchy if not assured that some day they would get it back.

Present revolutionary differences superficially are concerned with how many years any one man should be president.

Throughout Latin America is a fear that whenever a man holds two presidencies in succession he aspires to be a dictator.

Some republics have varied their constitutions to provide one term of six years. Such a course was taken in the Dominican constitution in 1926.

Follow Precept

This precept was followed for several years, then the republic reverted to the United States' plan of a four-year term. It was under such a provision that Horacio Vasquez was elected president in March, 1927. By July, legislative action had extended the presidential term back to six years, and Vasquez was elected re-elected.

Consequently, President Vasquez's second term would have ended in 1928, but he died in 1927. This year, opposition leaders demanded that he should not run in March to succeed himself and they accused their demands by insisting that the president should not be re-elected.

At the time of the regular meeting of the Eden-Eden club, Vasquez was at the home of Mrs. R. F. Henry was not well attended as the previous meeting of the club, but the interest proved July was great. The program was in line with Bl. Patrick's day. Music and readings furnished a greater part of the program. During the business session the club members voted to accept an invitation to visit the Hazel-

IDAHO By D. R. CHURCHILL

When spring clothes the "Crem of the Mountains" to her treatment of earth's green, And unrolls her resene panorama With a magical mystical rhapsody: And the waters flow to their glad tune, Their heart overflows, as their music Floats away in the twilight of June.

When her snow covered peaks catch the skyline, And a silver thread dangles the moon In a pendulum June in the jagged, Wratched around with a zephyr-festoon: When her hillides are garnished with blizzards And the wind softly sibilant through her pines, I am lulled into dreams of enchantment As Nature around me etherealizes.

Then enraptured I gaze on her grandeur Like a dreamer whose dream has come true, And I crown her fair bosom with garlands And proclaim my sincere awe: As I stand at her shrine in the moonlight, And drink in the aurorean glow, I feel like a king in his realm, And my queen is the fair Idaho.

DEBATERS READY TO BEGIN DISCUSSIONS

Question of Abolishment of Jury System Will be Considered by Teams

The first of a series of high school debates on the subject, "Resolved: That the system of trial by jury should be abolished," will be held Monday evening. It was announced yesterday by John Bates, high school debate coach here.

The debate here will be judged by H. E. Wilson, Albion, professor of English of the Idaho State Normal school. The three judge system will be used at Piler. The names of the Piler judges had not been selected yesterday.

The Twin Falls debate with Piler and the debates of Gooding versus Jerome and Burley versus Buhl, were originally set for March 26, but owing to the fact that this would throw the time for holding the contest too late for the district winner to take part in the state debates, the date was changed to March 10, which is the first of the series.

On March 13 Piler will debate Jerome and Burley will debate Gooding. On March 14, Piler will debate Gooding; Burley will debate Jerome, and Twin Falls will debate Buhl. On March 15 Piler will debate Buhl and Twin Falls will debate Jerome. Burley and Gooding will not debate on this date. On March 21 Piler will debate Burley; Gooding will debate Twin Falls and Jerome will debate Buhl, closing the series.

of Western bankers. They expressed themselves as pleased with the conference, which they stated was attended by 80 per cent of the bankers in six Western states, and held for its principal object improved banking methods. The meeting was attended by the American Bankers' association but has no formal organization. H. E. Hamilton, cashier of the Farmington State bank, also attended the conference.

Aged Mother in France Nears Satisfaction in Contest For Savings of Idaho Sheepherder

The final case is about to be written in probate court here in the story of three years of litigation that will give to Madame Marie Uhalde Gastambide, 89 years old, resident of the commune of Babourcy, France, between $2000 and $3000 constituting the residue of the estate of her natural son, Ernest Uhalde, a sheepherder in the United States for many years, who died in Twin Falls on March 23, 1926.

In support of Madame Gastambide's claim of succession, that is to be the basis for the court order directing the administrator to turn the money over to her, there were filed in the probate court here yesterday three foreign documents. They were certified copies, written in English and in French, of the residue of the will of Ernest Uhalde, who died on February 22, 1918, when his mother, then 23 years old was a cook and housemaid in France; a copy of the record of her marriage to Jerome Gastambide, farmer, in February, 1883, and an affidavit stating that she was in lieu of her signature reproduced on this affidavit. All three documents are filed together with a bright red ribbon and carry a number of stamps and seals. Records of the Idaho courts show that Madame Gastambide, after learning by word of mouth of the death of her son in this country, authorized her agents to file demand upon C. D. Bacon, administrator, to reopen judgment entered in district court here in September, 1926, that awarded Uhalde's property to his former employer, D. F. Sweet, since deceased.

It was shown at hearing on the mother's demand that Uhalde during his final illness had indicated his desire that his property be given to his employees.

After the litigation had been carried to the state supreme court settlement was reached, whereby the mother was given $4000.

The estate has never been out of the hands of the administrators, first Mr. Bacon who resigned when the mother's demand was presented, and then H. R. Grant who was appointed as his successor.

In final stages of the action which were instituted in the probate court here yesterday, the aged mother asks for an order by the court directing the administrator to pay to her the small fortune that is her share in her son's estate.

Throughout the proceedings Madame Gastambide has been represented by Walter, Pary and the man, Twin Falls.

PARIS POWDERS ON PROBLEM INVOLVING PROPER WAISTLINE

Dressmakers of French Capital Show Variety of Models in Spring and Summer Collections of Wear

By BARBARA BEAUFORT (Associated Press Fashion Editor) PARIS, March 8 — Wavering waistlines are the big trend here of spring styles for women who have waded their minds how long they want to wear their skirts.

Dressmakers here show a variety of waists in their spring and summer collections. Hardly a noted designer insists upon one type and forsakes all others.

The nearly normal beltline, hovering one to two inches below the normal waistline is the average. Placement depends upon the proportion of the woman, the length of her legs and torso and her general build.

Women who wish to wear short skirts with new styles will place waistlines as high as possible and increase the length of their skirts. Puffed in waistlines are reserved for skirts and blouses or sport clothes for the office.

Belt should never be pulled in uncomfortably or unaturally. For the ordinary figure, the length of the figure should be one's guide.

Waistlines must be raised in such a way that should not be forced into an hour-glass waist under any circumstances, according to Paris.

Hips should be as restricted and slender as possible. Placement of waistline naturally depends on size and proportion of the hips.

Too narrow shoulder effects make the waist and hips look larger and courtiers generally employ supplementary cape-sleeve effects and small shoulder caps to balance up proportions.

Old-style pinking. FINEST HEMLINES. PARIS, March 8 (AP)—Old-fashioned pink grandmotherly way of pinking an edge by beating it into minute points or scallops, is a new and favored way of finishing the hemline of printed silk spring dresses.

Collars, capes and aprons are also placed and pinned collars and cuffs of white muslin are prominent features of morning dresses of tweed and wool crepe.

BRIGHT COLORED HORN. SMART FOR SPORT WEAR. PARIS, March 8 (AP)—Bright colors and stiff patterns of sport wear are showing in the stores. A new social in outdoor sport.

SILK CUT-OUTS TRIM. SPRING PINKY DRESSES. PARIS, March 8 (AP)—Silks play an important part in springtime. The hemline for some of the new printed silk dresses.

Cutouts designs applied to silk of the same material are being used on hemlines and summer dresses about. The cutouts may be only partially attached to the edge of the hem.

Dark suede gloves. CHIC FINGER WEAR. PARIS, March 8 (AP)—Dark colored gloves of suede may supersede light beige and tan shades for spring. Suede is an imported commodity.

Artificial flowers. BACK FOR EVENING WEAR. PARIS, March 8 (AP)—Artificial flowers, bunched or single, reappear on spring evening dresses. Most of the flowers used are in the form of sprays and match the dress in color.

RACING ACE OF BRITAIN PILOTS SILVER-BULLET

Coatlen, One Time Instructor of Irving, Hopes To Better Latter's Achievement

By T. R. GILL
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., March 8.—Kaye Don's attempt to shatter the world's land speed record here in March may decide a keen rivalry between two leading European automobile engineers.

It is the old story of teacher versus pupil. Don's 2500-horse-power Silver Bullet has been designed by Louis Costelen, 20 years a master builder of European racing cars.

If this car surpasses the mark of 231.36 miles an hour set last year by Major Sir Harry Segrave in the Golden Arrow it will be a triumph for Costelen. The Golden Arrow was designed by Captain Jack Irving, Costelen's former pupil.

Designer Views Trial
A 31-year-old millionaire, Costelen will accompany Don in the "twenty-seventh anniversary" speed trials March 10 to 12. The car, whose estimated speed is 250 miles an hour, was built at an approximate cost of $125,000.

For months Costelen has worked to develop a super-vehicle with power to exceed the Golden Arrow's record-breaking performance. Much of his time was spent in seclusion on an island.

Rivalry between Costelen and Irving had its beginning with the success of Segrave's Sunbeam car of 1927, the first automobile to travel more than 200 miles an hour. Costelen designed the engine and the perpendicular-axle body, while Irving then set it under the super-vised details of construction.

Men Worked Together
Segrave was a novice under Costelen after the war, working without pay at first. Following the death of Irving Costelen and Irving left the Sunbeam company. After the late New York engineer's death Costelen designed a 28-cylinder car to a new record in 1928, Irving designed the Golden Arrow for Segrave to set another mark.

Immediately after last year's record-breaking success Irving designed still another super-car. He is now Don, British racing champion of 1928 and 1929 and another of his proteges, to drive it. Costelen also designed many airplane motors used by English forces in the World war.

LIGHTNING UNBATEN
NEW YORK (AP)—Eleven power engineers report to the American Institute of Electrical Engineers that lightning is the only serious remaining obstacle to maintaining continuous electrical service.

If Kaye Don (lower) sets a new speed mark with the Silver Bullet in Florida speed trials, it will be a victory for Louis Costelen (left), veteran designer. His former pupil, Jack Irving, (right), built the Golden Arrow, which set the present record last year.

MURTAUGH RESIDENTS MOVE TO EAST IDAHO

MURTAUGH, March 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Gladys of the Gem State Lumber company here have been transferred to the company's yard at Pritch, Idaho. Charles Morris, Twin Falls, succeeded Mr. Gladys as manager here. Mr. and Mrs. Gladys left for Pritch on Tuesday.

David Moses, field man of the Amalgamated Sugar company, here expressed the opinion that the best acreage here will equal that of 1929. H. B. Lewis and family moved during the fore part of the week from the Tracy farm to the South-north ranch on the Moorman tract, 121520.

Walker Taylor returned last week from Toronto, Canada, where he had been called by the illness of his sister. She had passed away before he arrived there.

The cited roads through this territory stood the spring break-up fairly well. A few sink holes appeared in soft ground but the constant work of the highway repair crew did not permit much delay in traffic.

Snow fences erected along exposed stretches of the highway served to keep the way open most of the winter.

A great deal of snow and rain has served to put plenty of moisture in the ground for spring crops in this vicinity.

V. Houston is able to take his place in the school room again after several days of influenza. Elyon Olmstead is again in school after a brief illness.

The Ladies Aid society of the Murtaugh church gave a banquet in honor of husbands of members at the Methodist church on Friday, evening.

George Terry and family who have lived in this vicinity for several years, have moved to the North Side tract, where they will continue to farm.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP REGULATIONS CHANGE

MOSCOW, March 8.—(Special to The News)—Beginning this year Idaho will enter two candidates for a Rhodes scholarship every year, or six candidates in three years, instead of having two scholars appointed every three years, announces Dr. Eugene Taylor, professor of mathematics at the university, recently appointed to promote interest in Rhodes scholarships in Idaho.

Under the new system of selection announced by the Rhodes trustees each state elects two candidates annually. The nation has been divided into eight districts of six states each. From the states assembled in each district four scholars will be chosen annually. This new system gives a state a chance to have two Rhodes scholars each year.

Another significant change in Rhodes scholarship procedure, announces Professor Taylor, is that a Rhodes scholar may be allowed either to postpone the third year at Oxford, returning for it after a period of work in his own country, or may spend the third year in post graduate work at any university of Great Britain, and in special cases at any university on the continent of Europe, the overseas dominions, or in the United States, other than the country of his origin.

Under the existing plan of selecting Rhodes scholars Idaho was not eligible for the third year at Oxford, returning for it after a period of work in his own country, or may spend the third year in post graduate work at any university of Great Britain, and in special cases at any university on the continent of Europe, the overseas dominions, or in the United States, other than the country of his origin.

SPRING

Let's Honor the Occasion!

THIS IS

"CLEAN-UP" "PAINT-UP"
"PLANT-UP" "FIX-UP"
"DRESS-UP"

WEEK IN Twin Falls

"Clean-Up"

"Most of us become lax in the matter of keeping dirt, rubbish, garbage and ashes properly picked up during the winter months. Yards and alleys in some instances right now are in such a disreputable state as to actually constitute public nuisances and a menace to public health. Every Twin Falls Citizen should clean up on this occasion of CLEAN-UP WEEK. The City Department will do its part, you may be assured."

Thos. Sanderson,
City Street Commissioner.

"Paint-Up"

"The season for outdoor as well as indoor refinishing is at hand. Paint is a cheap investment compared with the benefits that are derived in the form of longer life for materials that are exposed to the elements of weather and domestic wear. And besides this, personal pride in the appearance of buildings, fences and other improvements as well as interior decorations which are clean and well painted, encourages the more careful usage and preservation of the appearance and of the structures themselves. 'Save the Surface and You Save All.' Let's join whole-heartedly in this movement to Paint Up. It pays to Paint!"

J. T. Roberts, Chairman
Paint-Up Committee,
C. W. & M. Co.

"Plant-Up"

"If you really love your home you will want to beautify its surroundings. The appearance of the yard reveals the inner character of the home. There are plenty of residences in Twin Falls that are landscaped and planted with shrubs, evergreens and assortments of flowers which demonstrate conclusively that Twin Falls is favored with unlimited opportunities for beautification through increased plantings of appropriate ornamentals. 'Say It With Flowers.' Both Civic Pride and personal contentment are enhanced by home-flower gardens."

Orlo Williams, Chairman
Plant-Up Committee
Twin Falls Floral Company

"Fix-Up"

"If there should ever come a time when you will wish to dispose of your residence or business holdings then you will appreciate the real value of the appearance of your property. A lot of things are overlooked if the premises are clean, tidy and in a good state of repairs. Our members feel so keenly this situation that we have decided to make a full inspection of the city and take photographs of unsightly buildings and premises and to work continuously for their removal or betterment. These Community Eyes Spring lesson the value of all property in their vicinity. We are pledged to a continuous program of securing the removal or fixing up of unsightly nuisances. Will your property pass inspection?"

Twin Falls Rentors.
