Changes In Actors And Music Break Passion Play Traditions

Text, Scenery and Characters of Famous Drama Present Contrasts

Active Preparations for Oberammergau's Celebrated Production Involve Weeks of Strenuous Rehearsals

New characters in the Passion Play include An El Rutz (left), as the Virgin Mary, and Alois Lang (above), succeeding Antero as the role of Christ. Mr. Magdalen is played by Hans Fiesinger (lower right), shown in informal pose between rehearsals. New costumes are being designed (lower right).

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
OBERAMMERGAU, March 22—This year's Passion Play, beginning in May, will break tradition in more ways than one.
Two of the leading roles, the virgin Mary and the Christ, will be portrayed by actors whose appearance and style are in marked contrast to that of their predecessors.
For the first time in the Passion Play's history the mother of Christ will be a blond. The new Mary, played by Ann Rutz, also is more girlish than usual. She has a gentle dignity and a melodious contralto speaking voice.
Alois Lang's presentation of the Christ probably will be in marked contrast to Anton Lang's interpretation, which has come to be almost traditional.

Alois, with dark hair and beard, is expected to give a more logical impression than his father's.
Even the old text and music of the play have been completely revised. The stage is to be thoroughly modernized.
A large staff, exclusively from Oberammergau's populace has been recruited to make costumes and properties.
Active preparations for the play have been in full-swing for weeks. Principals have been reading their parts regularly in private rehearsals.

Six-hundred players in the cast will be augmented by a chorus of 50 and an orchestra of 50. Large dressing rooms have been built with such designations as "Roman Room," "Room for Traders," and "Room of the Priests."
George Lann, the stage manager who stands almost seven feet in his stockings, is designing the vast assortment of costumes and properties.

HIGH COURT RULES IN TWIN FALLS LITIGATION

BOISE, April 3 (AP)—The state supreme court decided today that because Ralph Roloff, rock driller and powder man, was killed by the Twin Falls Canal company, that organization must pay him damages for an injury even though he received it while doing work for the Lake syndicate.
The state insurance fund, surety for the canal company, appealed for a decision by the Twin Falls district court but the action of the lower court was upheld on the ground that the canal company was acting in the way of a contractor doing work for the syndicate.

Ralph Roloff was engaged in farming on the North Side, just south of the city and had let the syndicate drill a well for him. A blast about three years ago, for which the state supreme court holds the Twin Falls Canal company's surety must pay him damages.
Damages amounting to some $500 or $550 already had been paid to Roloff and the dispute in the supreme court ruled was to which insurance concerns as to which ultimately should pay the bill.
Modlin, when the accident occurred, was doing work for the Clear Lake syndicate, which had been organized to develop hydro-electric power at Clear Lake for the city of Buhl.
The blast occurred when the drill which he was working encountered a charge of dynamite that had failed to explode.

Dredging of the harbor was completed after three years' work. Acres of new land were built from sand sucked up by dredges.
Protected by concrete seawalls, Port Everglades is only three miles from the north-south ship lanes.
The first trans-ocean vessel to enter required only 17 minutes to pass through the harbor.
The harbor is the largest in the world.

SUPREME COURT RULES IN DISPUTE OVER NOTE

Idaho's supreme court has decided that E. N. Flory and other directors of the Idaho Auto Supply company, are liable for payment to John Shaver, Twin Falls, of something between $800 and $1000 on account of a conditional sales contract assigned to him some 10 years ago. Judgment entered in the district court here in favor of Flory was reversed and the supreme court ordered a new trial. Copy of the court's opinion was received at the office of the clerk of the court here yesterday.
Flory, who was the only one of the corporation's trustees to contest Shaver's suit, contended that Shaver had obtained possession of the truck covered by the sales contract and that he had permitted the corporation to use the truck after that time, thereby relieving the corporation of its guarantee of payment of the truck. Shaver appealed through T. K. Hackman, Twin Falls, attorney.

RAILS AT 15 BRIDGES IRK CHICAGO TRAFFIC

CHICAGO, April 3 (AP)—Harried by gangsters and worrying over the bills, Chicago's most pernicious irritation is the fact that when it goes to the river it sometimes can't get across.
Fifteen bridges, spanning the Chicago river, connect almost all the main arteries of traffic to the loop. Every time a boat, sometimes even little tugs, goes up or down the river, bridges have to open and close.
This operation closing costs about a million dollars a year for help and machinery.
Statisticians have figured out how many weeks it takes of citizens' time, out of each year. The auto clubs estimate that the delays to passengers on trolleys and buses, and to operators of loaded trucks, cost $1,500,000 a year.

OVERPRODUCTION HURTS MARY FOR GUINEA PIGS

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)—The guinea pig is suffering from overproduction.
It became so valuable that too many breeders went into the business. The little fellow is used as a remedy for three major human ailments: diphtheria, antitoxin, detecting tuberculosis and in the Wasserman test.
Mary McCullough, Flushing, Long Island, who raises animals for scientific and medical research, says: "Guinea pigs are bred by individuals around the states of New York and Pennsylvania for the most part. The last few years guinea pigs have been a drug on the market because of overproduction, and many small breeders have gone out of business."

MAGIC CITY WOMAN ENDS WORLD TOUR

Mrs. John F. Coughlin Returns After Four-Month Circumnavigation of Globe

Mrs. J. P. Coughlin returned to Twin Falls Thursday night after a trip around the world, during which she traveled 49,000 miles in a period of exactly four months. She landed in San Francisco Sunday, and was met at Wells, Nevada, Thursday evening by Dr. Coughlin, during her trip, Mrs. Coughlin visited Madeira, Algeria, Italy, Greece, Palestine, Egypt, India, Ceylon, Sumatra, Java, Formosa, the Philippines, Guam, China, Japan and the Hawaiian Islands.
"It was a wonderful trip," Mrs. Coughlin said last night. "The whole world moved before one like a great motion picture. I have seen enough things and places to keep me studying them for a long time after my return."
Nature furnished but one real thrill, Mrs. Coughlin indicated. We saw a water "spout" near the Spanish coast," she said. "There was no earthquake or storm to disturb us and the famous volcano of the Hawaiian Islands was nothing but a mud-bath, which was there."
Mrs. Coughlin said that the atmosphere in China was warlike and piratical. The train on which she traveled in Peking was made so heavily guarded by soldiers. The same condition existed on the train which carried the excursionists from Kowloon to Canton. It was planned to make this trip by water, but the river pirates were so numerous and dangerous that the trip was made on an armed train instead.
Christmas day was spent in Jerusalem and New Year's day in Cairo, said to be the gayest city in the world, and especially gay and gorgeous on the first day of the year.
Mrs. Coughlin declared that the trip was one of enjoyment from beginning to end.

CENSUS ENUMERATORS OF DISTRICT WORKING

All of the census enumerators in seven of the eight counties of the South Central Idaho district are busy and sending in reports of work daily, it was stated by Judge O. P. Duval, supervisor, yesterday. The work is being done satisfactorily, with only a few errors, Judge Duval stated. In case of any error or oversight, however, slight, the work is sent back for completion. Cameo county enumerators will not begin work until April 15, it has been determined, on account of high-water conditions in that county. It is felt certain that the copy of schedules in that county will enable complete their enumeration there within the time required.

BASKETBALL ARTISTS FROM SOUTH TRIUMPH BY PAUL MICKELSON

(Associated Press Sports Writer) CHICAGO, April 3.—Basketball from the South inched on in the quick time today in the big push for the national high school basketball championship by placing five crack teams in the quarter-final bracket.

They came from obscure hamlets, towns and cities scattered throughout Georgia, Texas, Louisiana, and Kentucky, and so successfully that three were from scattered regions of the East, West and Middle West.

Atlanta, Texas, the defending champion, which slaughtered the Young Men's Christian Association, day school, Chicago, tonight.

Levinson, a player recruited from a student body of 210 students and which drilled outdoors on muddy grounds under the scrutiny of their 20-year-old coach.

Savannah, Georgia, a band of veritable bulldozers for hanging on and coming back to win.

Corinth, a Kentucky country estate of 240 acres near Braggton, Georgia, a small village.

Standing out from the entire field, however, were the defending champions, the big Athens, Texas, Hornets. They gained the quarter-final round tonight by submitting the Young Men's Christian Association day school, Chicago, 38 to 15, and used mostly their second string line-up.

Averaging six feet two inches in height, the champions employ a long overhead pass that many here deem unworkable last year and promise to make them formidable again this year.

Uncle Robbie Rises To Speak

MANAGER UNCLE ROBBIE in plus-fours has a few words to say to his star pitcher, Dazzy Vance, at the Brooklyn Robins' training camp in Clearwater, Florida. (AP Photo.)

ON THE SIDELINES by BRIAN BELL

A DAY with Babe Ruth in the spring training camp of the New York Yankees is a succession of autographs and photographs. From the time he comes out until he retires to the clubhouse after the close of the practice period, the Babe is posing or writing his name almost every minute he is not actually playing ball.

"Mr. Ruth will you sign this ball for me?" is a question asked scores of times the course of a morning. Always the answer is approximately the same, "Sure" or "Certainly."

Before he can return the pen, a man or woman with a camera is on the scene. "Mr. Ruth, will you stand still just one minute?" The unflinching good humor of the big fellow remains. "You bet" he says and smiles into the camera.

Some town in Maine is going to have a rare collection of Ruthiana this summer. A gray-haired man with a cane presented himself near the Yankee bench at the beginning of practice, one morning, and as soon as Babe came out, he presented Ruth's autograph on a ball. A friend, unidentified except by the name "Otto" was supporting him with a camera, and the Babe, who snarped awfully hard at a pitch and reaching into the dirt for a few throws at first base.

"The Maine man went into his act again. 'How Otto' he yelled. 'Come quick.' Otto came and quickly did his stuff and sometime soon on a Maine plantier placed an enlarged photograph will rest showing the head of the household with his cane on his arm, nonchalantly looking at his shoulder.

"Dan Howley has no rule against golf in the camp of the Cincinnati Reds but he will be very much surprised if there is much golf played after the practice swings into its full stride.

"We plan to work so hard out here on the ball field," said Dan, "that I doubt very much if the boys will feel like walking four or five miles about a golf course after we have finished."

Some of the ardent golfers on the club agreed. One of the most enthusiastic said at the close of the first practice, "Golf will play well on our off-day tomorrow. If the first week is only warming up, Dan says, the real hard work will not leave much time for inclination for golf and this may be the last chance."

Levinson Beats Maier With Technical Kayo

MILWAUKEE, April 3 (AP)—King Levinson, Chicago boxer, won a technical knockout over Dave Maier, Milwaukee, tonight in the first round of a scheduled 10-round fight at the Milwaukee auditorium. Maier weighed 171 pounds and Levinson 175.

Chicago Cubs Win Over Los Angeles Ball Club, 5 to 1

Revision of National League Champions' Infield Falls To Slow Down Windy City Aggregation's Activities

(By The Associated Press) LOS ANGELES, April 3.—Another revision in the Chicago Cub infield lineup failed to slow down the National league champions today and they beat the Los Angeles Pacific coast leaguers, by a score of 5 to 1.

Under Egan's back at third base, but Rogers Hornsby's heel was too painful to permit him to work, and Johnny Clarke's averted eyes prevented him from hitting the full line lineup, Chicago, and was his hand. He was good in the pinches, however, fanning five men to ball rallies. Hines Stephenson, continued his great falling with a home run and a double.

WICHITA FALLS 9, YANKS 0 BIRMINGHAM 10, REDS 3 April 3 (AP)—Babe Ruth hit his fifth and sixth home runs of the spring training season, but the New York Yankees were defeated by Wichita Falls of the Texas league, 9 to 0, today. The defeat broke the Yankee streak of winning at least one game in a row since the arrival of Dickey also made a circuit drive as a pinch hitter in the ninth.

PIRATES 8, HOUSTON 7 HOUSTON, Texas, April 3 (AP)—Two home runs by Gus Suhr, Pittsburgh's first baseman, were too much for the Houston Buffaloes who boxed 8 to 7, today to the National league in the first of a four-game exhibition series.

CLEVELAND 6, NEW ORLEANS 1 NEW ORLEANS, April 3 (AP)—Walker Simmons, young brother of Connie Mack's Al Simmons, was the star here today with the Cleveland Indians were defeating the New Orleans regulars, 6 to 4, Simmons' hit accounted for four of Cleveland's runs.

BOSTON 10, LOUISVILLE 15 LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 3 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox and the Louisville association team opened the local baseball season in a card game hitting today, the Colonels winning 15 to 10, Simmons for Louisville and Rhyno, Sox manager, his honor.

BIRMINGHAM 3, REDS 5 BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 3 (AP)—The six-game winning streak of the Cincinnati Reds was shattered by the Birmingham Hoopsters here today, when they plastered the National leaguers with a 3-0 defeat. It was the first straight victory of the Hoopsters over a major league club.

ATLANTA 3, DETROIT 4 ATLANTA, April 3 (AP)—Errors by Alexander and Rogell enabled the Atlanta southern association club to defeat the Detroit Tigers, 3 to 4, in an exhibition game here today, although the home team was out 9 to 4. The Tigers had 10 men left on base.

BROWN 1, MEMPHIS 0 MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 3 (AP)—"General" A Crocker held Memphis to four hits and the St. Louis Browns won today, 1 to 0, although they made only five hits, all singles, by Walter Peck, former St. Louis Brown pitcher.

DODGERS 1, BRAVES 4 MACON, Ga., April 3 (AP)—Timely hitting of Johnny Cooney in the early innings gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a 4-0 victory over the Boston Braves today.

WHITE SOX 10, FORT WORTH 4 FORT WORTH, Texas, April 3 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox wound up their stay in Texas today with a 10-to-4 victory over the Fort Worth Texas league team.

Dick Hentz, former New York club coach, worked six innings for the Sox and was batted hard but received good support.

Johnson Hopes To Fight Rosenbloom

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)—If the New York State athletic commission is willing, Larry Johnson, crouching Negro light heavyweight from Chicago, will have his chance for revenge on Maxie Rosenbloom in Madison Square Garden April 30.

Johnson was suspended for 30 days for fouling Maxie in their first meeting in the Garden three weeks ago. Unless Johnson hears further penalties, the rematch will feature the Knights of Columbus charity card, reopening the Garden April 30 after the departure of the circus, which sets in next Monday.

Yellow Stripe Guides Motorists in Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 3 (AP)—The yellow stripe, motorists passing through Alabama are told, visitors find the "yellow stripe" system of road marking in Alabama. The stripe is painted on the road surface at intervals indicating the route number.

The Alabama state highway department has announced that all state roads under paved streets in cities and towns are marked with a yellow line down the center of the pavement.

Hope Fades for Open Net Frays

PARIS, April 3 (AP)—Despite agitation, not much hope is held out for any future lifting of the International Tennis federation's ban on open tournaments. The United States and England alone voted in favor of allowing amateurs to compete with professionals at the federation assembly which overwhelmingly rejected the American proposal.

Pioneer Airmail Pilot FLYS FOR 3300 HOURS

SEATTLE, April 3 (AP)—John Egan, pioneer airmail pilot, talks little and writes less.

On the record form given him to fill out when he joined the Boeing system as a cross-country pilot were three questions: "Any unusual experience or achievement?" "Participation in outstanding flights?" "Any further data of interest?"

The word "none" was written after each question. But four figures standing after the question: "Hours in the air" told the story. They were 3300.

Large sharks, weighing almost a ton each, have been caught in British Columbia waters.

Amateurs Launch Baseball Program

Gathering of Players and Other Enthusiasts Here Proposes League Schedule

Twin Falls Athletic club was organized at a meeting here last evening of 25 amateur baseball players and other persons interested in putting a winning Twin Falls team in the field during the coming season.

George E. South was elected president of the new organization with W. W. Francis, secretary and treasurer, and George Paulson, Dale Cogswell and Frank Williams, directors.

The meeting declared enthusiastically in favor of the formation of a league to be composed of clubs representing towns adjacent to Twin Falls, and directed W. W. Francis, secretary, to communicate with interested persons in the other towns to that end.

The season for the national pastime in the Twin Falls country will open as soon as the league is formed. It was decided.

Twin Falls ball park is to be the scene of plenty of action next Tuesday when 30 men with already have qualified their readiness to help, will go to work putting the grounds in condition to play ball. Prospective players and other friends of the

Tilden Triumphs Thrice in France

SAINT RAPHAEL, France, April 3 (AP)—Bill Tilden meted down three opponents in short order today to reach the fourth round of the tennis tournament here. All three of his victims were players of purely local fame.

In the first round, the American champion defeated Tilling, 6-1, 6-2. Thoroughly warmed-up, he then proceeded to win his second and third round matches in five sets at the expense of Trierster and Nicolades, respectively. At that point play was stopped by rain.

American Fight Promoters Allow Sport To Sink Into Doldrums

Matchmaker Over South Line Signs Women for Event

Maria, 130 Pounds, Mauls And Makes Faces at Miss Arizona's of Large Promotions and Two Steal Show

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND (Associated Press Sports Writer) SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—American fight promoters who are not doing any too well because the game is in the doldrums might take a tip from the matchmaker over in Agua Prieta, Mexico, across the border from Douglas, Arizona. To a recent card he added a special bout between two women.

Maria, 130-pounds ringside, and "Miss Arizona" of more Amazonian proportions, loaded punches and made faces at each other for three rounds. The bout was called a draw and stole the show.

An account of it, in the Buben, Arizona, Daily Review, is worth repeating: "In the first round Maria squared off, bobbed and weaved about like an old timer, feinted with her left and then walked to the corner of the ring for instructions from her promoter. "In the center of the ring and was met with a terrific right from Miss Arizona—a blow that might have landed in a wet piece of tissue paper. "Alarmed, Maria walked back for more instructions and returned back at her opponent and landed lefts and rights that would have broken a window pane in her hands. From then on it was nip and tuck, with the pair slugging furiously and with reckless abandon. By the end of the third round, Miss Arizona's hair was slightly mussed and Maria's shoulder strap slightly "sloppy."

The reporter neglected to state whether the seconds worked feverishly between rounds applying lipsticks and face powder to the combatants. "Those who wonder why West coast football usually is superior to the Eastern variety will find their answer in late March news items that "the annual intercollegiate football games are under way at the University of California." Westerners who play football, think football is come another turnout.

DALLAS LITTLE THEATER PREPARES FOR CONTEST

DALLAS, Tex., April 3 (AP)—The Dallas Little Theater, like Alexander of old, is looking for new worlds to conquer. The Dallas amateur actors, now housed in an elaborate $100,000 theater, won the national competition for the Belsaco cup in New York in 1924, 1925 and 1926, who last year turning back a pair of British rivals. The winning became monotonous and the Texas dramatic community turned to the organization of a state tournament as an outlet for their energies. In 1927, 1928 and 1929, they were hosts to the tournament and therefore did not enter. Last year the competition was conducted at Houston and the Dallas players walked away with first honors in a field of seven. Now they wonder if they still are the cream of the national field and are contemplating taking part in the Theater Arts managers tournament at New York in May.

FUR SEAL PROSPECTS CHEER COAST INDIANS

FORT ANGELES, Wash., April 3 (AP)—Discovery of a fur seal on the beach near here for the first time in years has brought cheer to the Indians of this region. The natives believe that this year they will not have to risk their lives traveling by canoe more than 40 miles offshore to get within harpooning distance of the seals. They assert that the seal herd has attained such great numbers now that many will come ashore for a sunning and braves are planning to organize beach patrols.

CHINESE PLAN FIRST SCHOOL OF AVIATION

SHANGHAI, April 3 (AP)—A scheme for the establishment of a civil aviation school in Shanghai for instruction of Chinese pilots, has been presented to the aviation department of the air ministry. The school, which would include the first-class flight instructor—Chinese—Department—the fact that the Chinese have, during the last few months, made considerable progress in the way of developing aviation, no attempt has been made to teach the Chinese civilian youth how to fly. In this respect the Shanghai school will fill a long-felt want.

Tom Blankenburg Wins Tank Title

CHICAGO, April 3 (AP)—Tom Blankenburg, representing the Hollywood, California, Athletic club, who barely qualified for the finals of his event, tonight became national Amateur Athletic Union indoor 200-yard breast stroke swimming champion. Blankenburg managed to qualify in this afternoon's trials at the Lakeshore Athletic club, by turning in the best third place time of the two preliminary heats. In the final, in a sensational battle, he conquered the field in 2:52 3/8. Art Hoon, a Chicago high school youth, staged a desperate finish and took second place from Leonard Spencer, New York Athletic club, the favorite, by inches.

BIG DIRIGIBLE'S FRAME BEGINS TO TAKE SHAPE

AKRON, April 3 (AP)—The mastering and two intermediate rings of the ZENITH, new dirigible for the navy under construction in the Goodyear-Zeppelin hanger here, are nearing completion. They soon will be raised in position for the building of the rest of the dirigible around them.—The master ring is 12 feet in diameter and its hoisting will be an engineering feat. Each day it becomes easier to visualize the great size of the air liner, which will have a gas capacity of 2,000,000 cubic feet. At one end of the hanger is a

Idaho Angler Wins By Perseverance

BOISE, April 3 (AP)—Black Bass and A. W. Klotz, assistant state chemist, should adopt the slogan: "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." Klotz was fishing in a small slough near Weiser, using a borrowed wooden minnow. Although heastants about "looking a gift horse in the mouth," he noted that the eye of the defunct was sprung so that there was danger of the line slipping off. Yet the fish bit. On the first cast he got a heavy strike and began drawing in a large bass. He could see him through the water. But in a moment of inattention the line slackened and the bass escaped—with the wooden minnow. In no time at all, however, the bass spat out the barb and the minnow floated to the surface. Klotz dragged it in and again attached his line. Again he got a strike in the same hole, but this time he landed the bass. It weighed seven pounds.

Bears and Huskies Vie in First Meet

SEATTLE, April 3 (AP)—Two great teams, Washington and California, will open the Pacific northwest track season this year with a night indoor dual meet here April 6. It will be the second such event ever held in the Northwest. Last year Stanford and Washington clashed in the Washington pavilion with the Cardinals winning, 75 to 56. Washington will pit a fancy band of athletes against the strong Bear combination, including two national champions, to rate the favorite, Steve Anderson, Husky captain, winner of the national collegiate and National Amateur Athletic Union high and low hurdles last year, and Ed Gering, national collegiate mile title holder, will lead against the Bears.

CAR STRIKES BOY AND SPEEDS AWAY

City And County Officers Seek Interview With Driver of Runaway Machine

Officers here want to interview the driver of a new Ford sedan carrying an Oklahoma license that struck and dragged Fatless Greig, inflicting two scalp wounds and bruising his body and wrecking his bicycle, on the street in front of his home on Washington street, south last evening.

The car struck only long enough to occupy a man and two women, to ascertain that the boy had not been killed outright and then, when H. Wassmer, a neighbor, asked for the license number, the man and one woman who had gotten out, climbed back into the car and sped away to the south. Wassmer, however, obtained the license number, which he reported to the officers, was Oklahoma license No. 32521.

The injured boy was taken to the police station, and his mother, Mrs. Stella Greig, was summoned. There a physician was called, who dressed the head wounds and stated in his opinion the injuries were not serious.

Inspects Bicycle

The boy seemed most concerned over the damage to his bicycle, which he had purchased with his own earnings.

Wassmer, who, with William Latmond, witnessed the mishap, stated that the boy had turned at the safe to his home and was on the left side of the road when the car that was following swung to that side of the road and struck the boy, hurling him off his bicycle and dragging him several feet before it halted.

He said the driver told him he had not seen the boy and could not have stopped his car sooner.

One of the women in the car, it was reported, was carrying a baby in her arms.

The sheriff's force and police officers in the search for the runaway driver, and the search was continued until late last night, without result.

The injured boy returned to his home after his wounds were dressed.

Covered Wagon Centennial Early, Observes Idaho Official

TREK OF WHITMAN IN 1836, DECLARES BYRON DEFENBACH

Records Show First Wheeled Vehicle Arrived in Gem State Borders Near Montpellier About 94 Years Ago

By The Associated Press
BURLINGAME, April 3.—The Covered Wagon Centennial seems to catch Idaho just a little bit early.

The fact is, according to Byron Defenbach, state treasurer and authority on Oregon historical matters, the first wagon to bump and chuckle across what is now the Idaho-Oregon border was brought about in the Whitman party in 1836, some 28 years after the wagon party honored by the centennial celebration which begins April 10.

The wagons of the centennial started from St. Louis on April 10, 1830 but came only about as far as Cooper under command of William Sublette, fur trader, Captain Bonneville published the wagon trail a little farther to the westward in 1832. In fact to the Green river, but even this trail "came into touch" with a wagon.

Utah acquired a wheeled vehicle when a two-wheeled cannon was trailed into Ogden in 1827, some time, by the way, before there was a trail.

Used Improved Wheels
Lewis and Clark used some improved "wheeled" wagons in 1806, Mr. Defenbach says, the explorers rigging up some sort of device from the ends of axed logs. Yet the state's wheeled history begins, he said, with the crossing of the border by the Whitman party, July 22, 1836.

They brought a wagon as far as Fort Boise, at the junction of the Snake and Boise rivers near the Idaho-Oregon line, but there it was abandoned and the party continued on foot.

The trail of that wagon across southern Idaho—along the Old Oregon trail—is an epic, as detailed in the accounts of Marcus Whitman and his wife. After bumping across washes, boulders and sage brush deserts and through forests of heavy timber, the wagon crossed the border into Idaho near the junction of the Deer river and Smith's fork, not far from the present town of Montpellier, Idaho.

On July 18, 1830, near the border, Mrs. Whitman wrote: "It (the wagon) got stuck in the creek this morning and the (Whitman) was obliged to wade considerably in getting it out. After that, in going between the mountains, on a steep and difficult for horses to pass, the wagon was upset twice; did not wonder that at this all; it was a greater wonder that it was not turning overboard continually."

Break Wagon Trail
The party worried along with the wagon, desirous of breaking a wagon trail, but the vehicle, weary of the long trek, broke down continuously.

To save its strength, it was stripped to the running gears early in August, as the party reached Pugin Springs, 15 miles southeast of Glenn Ferry. Mrs. Whitman's truck was abandoned at that time and she embarked in her diary a bit of poetry to the truck's memory.

August 17 the party reached what is now the site of Boise and two days later reached Fort Boise, a Hudson's Bay company trading post.

There the wagon was abandoned. But troubled though it was with all manner of ailments to which aged wagons are subject, Mr. Defenbach said it was known to be in existence in 1860.

FRIENDS PAY TRIBUTE TO BURLEY RESIDENT

BURLEY, April 3.—Funeral services for the late John C. Brashers, Burley, who died Saturday of last week at the Rupert general hospital, were held Tuesday afternoon in the Goodman undertaking chapel here. Rev. V. Deich, M. E. pastor, officiated.

A prolonged illness of several months preceded Mr. Brashers' death. He fought hard to prevent his condition to become such as to force him to bed, but despite his efforts he became gradually weaker until some two months ago he was found to be in a very serious condition and virtually helpless. His sister, Mrs. W. S. Lander, California, was notified, who came at once to his assistance, remaining by his side doing all she could to restore his health until the time of his death. His size and weakened condition proved too much to overcome.

Mr. Brashers' first years in Idaho were spent in the teaching profession. Later he engaged in the wire business in Burley. He continued in such business until his last illness. Surviving relatives are a daughter, Mrs. Neldene Brashers, Seaside, Missouri; Mrs. W. B. Lander, his sister, California, and a brother, who

FARMERS OF IDAHO PLAN TO INCREASE OUTSTANDING CROPS

Federal Survey Discloses Probability of Greater Acreages of Corn, Oats And Beets in Gem State

(By The Associated Press)
BOISE, April 3.—Idaho farmers have their minds set this year on bigger acreage in most of their main crops, the annual "intention-to-plant" survey made by the federal crop statistician disclosed today. This survey, Jacobson pointed out, is not a forecast of 1930 acreage, but merely reveals what farmers had in mind on March 4 regarding crop plans when they sent in their reports.

Increase in Wheat

Farmers throughout the United States, Jacobson reported, intended a 15 per cent decrease in durum wheat acreage but practically no change in acreage of other spring wheat acreage.

United States Potato Acreage

The United States potato acreage may be increased 24 per cent if March 1 intentions are carried out, he said.

Producers of dry edible beans had a mind to plant 15 per cent more than was harvested last fall. Idaho, Montana and Wyoming, producing mainly the Great Northern variety, planned together an increase of about 10 per cent.

ONE-TIME CLERK IN BANK ATTAINS PEAK

J. H. Case Began Career in Small Town and Rises to Federal Reserve Position

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)—One self-educated man has succeeded another as chairman of the Federal Reserve bank of New York, largest in the federal reserve system.

Both J. Herbert Case and his predecessor, Gates W. McCarrah, started as clerks in small town banks in their teens with only a high school education. Both were pressed into service by the Federal Reserve bank.

Mr. Case stepped from the deputy governorship to the chairmanship after a banking career of more than 40 years that began in a clerkship in the City National bank of Plainfield, New Jersey.

He joined the Federal Reserve bank as deputy governor in 1919. Before that he had been president of the Farmers Loan and Trust company, New York.

Born in Elizabeth, New Jersey, in 1872, Case quit school at 10 on his father's death to enter the Plainfield bank. A clerkship in a New York bank followed. Later he returned to Plainfield as vice president of the Plainfield Trust company.

Becoming vice president in 1910 of the Franklin Trust company, owned by the Farmers Loan and Trust company, he was named vice president of the latter bank two years later.

Mr. Case is considered an authority on commercial credit. His study of the British system of issuing treasury bills influenced adoption of that plan in the United States.

GRADE CROSSING DEATHS SHOW SLIGHT DECREASE

WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—Highway grade crossings claimed 1922 lives for the first 10 months of 1929, according to railroad reports filed with the Interstate Commerce commission.

This is a reduction of 56 per cent from 1928 figures for the same period, though the total number of accidents increased from 4555 to 4712.

There was an increase of 13 per cent in deaths resulting from automobile accidents on all highways in the country.

BANKS REPORT HUGE DEMAND FOR FARMS

CHICAGO, April 3 (AP)—Demand for farms exceed the supply in many parts of the West and Southwest.

This was revealed in replies to a questionnaire sent by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad to 340 bankers in Nebraska, Wyoming, Colorado, Montana, South Dakota and Kansas.

"Farms here at high premium for rent. We could rent 100 additional," reported the First National bank of Holyoke, Colorado.

"As soon as there is a farm for rent there are about a dozen men wanting it," said the bank of Astell, Nebraska.

"No farms for rent in this vicinity," observed the First State bank, Norton, Kansas.

SUBSOIL DETERMINES QUALITY OF HIGHWAY

WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—Roads have been found to wear from the bottom more often than at the top.

Influence of the subgrade soil is so great that a pavement properly based and selected may last up to 20 years longer than the same road improperly based.

Detailed knowledge indicating that highway improvement must often start with the ground has been stated in a survey of roads in half the states of the country by James S. Burch, Jr., engineer for the American Road Builders' association.

Treatment of undesirable soils include drainage, mixing of soils to obtain more suitable combinations, use of sand and gravel "finish blankets," bituminous applications, and tar paper coatings.

At least three American county artists draw salaries exceeding that paid the president of the United States.

NEW RULES SAFEGUARD PASSENGERS IN PLANES

WASHINGTON, April 3 (Special to The News).—A further step has been taken by the Department of Commerce to safeguard lives of passengers and pilots.

Plans with limited commercial and transport licenses must qualify for a new "pilot's rating authority" before they will be permitted to carry passengers for hire.

The authority, secured after years of departmental investigation of the department, is given as evidence that the holder is qualified to pilot passengers in a type or type of aircraft with which he may have had little experience.

Pilots may stand test on any number of 12 classes of planes, open or closed and single or multi-motor types. Examinations include flight tests and demonstrations of knowledge of fuel, ignition and starting systems.

NEW YORK, April 3 (Special to The News).—A metal rarer than gold is about to become the latest industrial commonplace in the United States.

This forecast is made by the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers by Professor George W. Sears, University of Nevada.

A tough, white metal, tantalum already is used, says Professor Sears, in pen points, surgical tools, hypodermic needles, vacuum tubes, wires, rayon making tools and artificial sausage machinery. He says there actually is less tantalum than gold in the earth's crust.

BURLEY MAN AWAITS ARRIVAL OF FAMILY VISITING IN FRANCE

BURLEY, April 3 (Special to The News).—"I can hardly await the day of their return," said Paul G. Mueller, local manager of the Leonard, Crossed and Riley Produce corporation, Wednesday evening, as he proudly displayed a picture of his little daughter. Evelyn, which he had just received in the mail. Mrs. Mueller and the three Mueller children embarked June 1 to visit Mrs. Mueller's parents. They will leave Cherbourg, France," explained Mr. Mueller, "on May 17 and will arrive on May 26 at New York City aboard the S. S. Albert Ballin of the Hamburg-American line."

During the time the Muellers have attended school at Strasburg, the capital of Alsace Lorraine, near which City Mrs. Mueller's parents reside. They have also visited several other of the European countries during their stay.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Mueller are natives of Alsace Lorraine. Mr. Mueller emigrated to the United States in 1913 and Mrs. Mueller, then Hannah Schneider, arrived in America a year later, coming directly to Idaho, where she and Mr. Mueller were married in Cassin county. They resided in the Rati River section for several years and were engaged in farming, thereafter removing to Burley; thence to the state of Wisconsin in which state, during the year 1924 to 1927 inclusive, Mr. Mueller was in the employ of the Leonard, Crossed and Riley Produce corporation, the company whose branch establishment he now serves as manager at Burley.

Mr. Mueller became a citizen of the United States in the district court of the eleventh judicial district in Cassin county at Burley, November 11, 1920. Judge William A. Babcock

Money—Left to—Immigrants By Eccontrio Bachelor Lost to Use in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, April 3 (Special to The News).—A million dollars without an owner is the subject of a court suit in St. Louis.

Lost to use, the money is left, it can't even be given away or otherwise disposed of in its present state.

All this happened because the West grew up.

The money was left by Bryan Mulvanphy, a rich, eccentric bachelor who was mayor of St. Louis during the floodtide of the westward movement.

Himself the son of a pioneer, Mulvanphy watched travelers trek westward through St. Louis, Noling suffering and privation in their ranks, he bought supplies for them and repaired their shoes.

Die Fortune to Will

One-third of his fortune, according to the will he left at his death in 1881, was left to the city of St. Louis, "to constitute a fund to assist relief to poor immigrants and travelers coming to St. Louis on their way; bona fide, to settle in the West."

"The bequest then consisted of real estate valued at $500,000. It has been tangled in litigation for 40 years since then. The fund fell into disuse when immigration laws stemmed the flow of penniless settlers.

With the late fund now totalling more than $1,000,000, a group of Mulvanphy heirs, representing descendants from his five sisters, seek to dis-

PLANES LINK ATLANTA AND CHICAGO AT NIGHT

MICHIGAN GROUP PLANS COLT-RAISING CONTEST

CHICAGO, April 3 (Special to The News).—Flying in darkness over country made hazardous by the Civil War, air mail planes will connect Chicago and Atlanta overnight.

The loss of a business day between the cities through daylight schedules will be eliminated with the completion this spring of lighting installations, enabling pilots to leave here at 9:30 P. M. and arrive at 8 A. M. in Atlanta.

Development of the 52-mile lighting system has been a major project and a straight-line course the ideal. Pilots and radio engineers were abandoned because of the rugged country.

DeLours were held around Kenesaw mountain, a noted landmark with an unpleasant neighbor for a pilot speeding through darkness, and through passes in wooded mountain ridges.

Pilots could not be found and had to be built for regular and intermediate landings. Improbable roads forced one engineer to travel 112 miles to get by automobile from one beason site to the next—107 miles in all.

LOCATION OF CONGRESS VEXES CAPITOL VISITORS

WASHINGTON, April 3 (Special to The News).—Nine out of 10 persons who visit the United States capitol want to know why President Hoover does not have his office there.

The 27 guides have to explain a dozen times a day that the President has his working office adjoining the White House. Another thing many cannot understand is "where congress sits."

After being shown the senate chamber and the house of representatives, many inquire: "Yes, but where does congress sit?"

Palm sugar has 80 excellent sweeteners.

During great cholera epidemics those who smoked clay pipes proved immune to the disease.

PILOTS FLY HIGH OVER SOUTH-AMERICAN-PASS

NEW YORK, April 3 (Special to The News).—The highest mountain peak in the United States, Mount Whitney, is 14,500 feet high, yet Yankee fliers are forced to a higher altitude in South America to work their way through a pass in the Andes.

Unusually high, 80 miles north of Santiago, is the only available opening in the Andes. Pilots of the Santiago-Buenos Aires leg of the New York, Rio, and Buenos Aires line hurdle it at 18,000 feet.

The pass itself is 15,000 feet high but treacherous air currents force aviators to an additional 400 feet. Captain John K. Montgomery, in flying the route, dropped 3000 feet on one occasion, only to be atop up the same distance a moment later.

Ortisy bears are becoming rare in Alaska.

Boats engaged in salmon fishing on the Fraser river were catching on high as 140 fish a day.

SATURDAY, APRIL 5th, we celebrate the fourth anniversary of the opening of the first O. P. Skaggs System store. From the small beginning of one store in April, 1926, the System has grown and expanded throughout eleven states. We are celebrating this event tomorrow by offering several items at prices so extremely low that you will want to celebrate the event with us by securing some of the following unusual bargains. Other items will be specially priced for this occasion, too. Come early, and spend all the time you like.

One of the many reasons the O. P. Skaggs System has grown faster than most concerns is each store is locally owned and the proprietor of almost every store serves his patrons personally. Each O. P. Skaggs System store has all of the advantages enjoyed by the big chain concerns, but employs none of the objectionable policies. Money spent in our store remains in the community. Attend our Anniversary celebration tomorrow, Saturday, April 5th, and get better acquainted with Twin Falls O. P. Skaggs System store and its policies.

THE STRANGE DISAPPEARANCE OF MARY YOUNG

By MILTON M. PROPPER

The first shock caused by Rankin's words over, and the story of the crime and the ensuing investigation, as far as was applicable to the present situation, narrated, Driscoll capitulated completely. Indeed, his surrender had the characteristics of a collapse: he found himself clinging to the detective for moral support.

When they had covered the same ground that Mrs. Herman had just covered, the detective turned to the subject upon which, he believed, the entire case hinged. It was the question that elicited the remark from Mr. Driscoll.

"But I believed that last Sunday," the lawyer went on, "and Mr. Yeager passed away but two days ago, it means then, I'm supposed to follow in the footsteps of his footsteps—that young Girard inherits the entire fortune."

"No, it is a very strange will," Rankin commented, "and it is very recent. The date is May 15th. Surely that is not the original will."

"The lawyer permitted himself a slight smile. That is correct. It was made four days after the foolish girl had taken flight. Naturally,
