CAMPAIGN AGAINST UNEMPLOYMENT AND MOVES AHEAD

Colonel Arthur Woods Goes to New York City to Recruit Assistants to Aid in Nation-Wide Efforts

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—With the federal and state governments, industry and the public are working together in a campaign to find jobs for the army of idle workmen.

National workers to urge industry to provide as many jobs as possible will be sought by Colonel Woods over the week-end in New York.

In the meantime, the working organization is gathering information on the location of the idle millions of jobless and where employment may be found.

"With coordination and stimulation," Colonel Woods said, "these efforts should give satisfaction to the unemployed."

The veterans bureau announced today it had issued orders to push construction on projects authorized by Congress.

Director George Z. Plana of the bureau said the projects underway were providing employment for 33,000 men and that new projects under the $100,000,000 program authorized by Congress last spring would be begun as soon as possible.

"Not only will these projects provide employment for laborers during the winter," he said, "but when they are completed they will necessitate employment of additional men during the spring and summer months."

ALFA SEED

We are in the market for high quality alfalfa seed. See us before.

THEIR POLICY

There are stores where prices are reduced so low that people may rightly become skeptical about the quality of the low-priced merchandise. These same stores in their effort to go every other store in the community a few pennies better, do this only on "Flash" items. Their general prices are not the lowest, but are a rock bottom on "Ball" items.

OUR POLICY

Although we are a "cut-rate" grocery store, we have no desire to endeavor to sell merchandise below cost. It was never intended that a business should operate at a loss. Our policy is more logical. Our policy is to have consistently low prices on every item, making a profit on each regularly, though it is a very small one. We realize that if we attempted to sell foods at a loss that in the end our customers would be the losers. We will trade this inferior quality merchandise—we would be forced to put on our prices. You are always safe when taking advantage of our regular prices.

GIRLS' CONFERENCE HEARS ADDRESS ON SUCCESS ELEMENTS

Total of 327 Representatives of Organizations in Maglo Valley District Meet at Dinner and Program

Thinking for his subject "Ten Elements in the Structure of Success," J. O. Penney, New York City, founder of the C. G. Penney store, at the banquet of the Maglo Valley Girls' Conference at the First Christian Church last night, attended by 327 persons, suggested that each girl member of the conference should be well-versed in the following ten points and then add up the results.

The points are: Have a strong body; develop power of concentration; think for yourself; remain calm in crisis; make and keep friends easily; be free from embarrassment in the presence of superior executives; know when things go wrong; find the good and bad in everything; have a vision; The address consisted of a closing number of the banquet program the theme of which was "Dream Castles."

In conformity with the theme decorations were miniature castles of red material. Genevieve Driftin, Parma, was "Queen of the castle." A "Terror Tune" consisted of a violin solo by Miss. Barma. Twin Falls' second "Prize" was a book by Virgil Ross, Twin Falls. "Prize" meant music furnished by a trio of girls from Kimberly. "Drawings" consisted of the Girl's "Prize" and was explained by Miss Johnson, Piler; Jane Mares, Hah, with a piano solo illustrating the "Prize" on the "Clay-chord." Leone Walker, Hannaschield on "My Secret, Tiger"; Hans Hansen, Chocoma; "The Queen's Chorus"; Mary Hoover, Twin Falls, spoke on "Treasure Chest"; the conference song, "The Walls We Build" was given by all; Alma Carlson, Twin Falls, spoke on "Building." Following this part of the program, Mr. Penney gave his address and the meeting closed with "Follow the Ocean," and "Tune." Group singing was in charge of Miss Clara Langland, Old Towner secretary for the Maglo Valley district.

The members of the conference will attend church services at the First Presbyterian church today.

The meeting, opened, at 9 A. M. yesterday, with a program of music and addresses. The session adjourned after the noon luncheon to see the football game.

"PARIS BOUND" PLAYS ON ORPHEUM'S SCREEN

Some of the most beautiful pictures ever filmed are to be seen in "Paris Bound," Palbe's all-star picture version of the New York stage success starring Ann Harding which will be on view at the Orpheum theatre today and tomorrow.

Scenes picturing the exterior of a country mansion were filmed at the Jewett estate, near Pasadena, which is one of the showplaces of Southern California. Not only the imposing entrance to the home, which is an architectural masterpiece, but the near-by formal gardens, were caught by the camera, but various beauty spots in the twenty-acre grounds included in the estate were filmed.

The dance numbers were conceived and directed by Richard Donnelly, who is well known both in Europe and New York for his success as a stage director. Beautiful settings for the ballet numbers were created by Edward Jewett, art director at the Palbe studio, while the dancing of the girls selected for this work was enhanced by gorgeous costumes, especially designed by Owen Wakeling, talented stylist.

Another sequence of the picture takes place on a French river, and here again the extra players selected were judged on their knowledge of language as well as their fitness in appearance.

Ann Harding plays the star role in "Paris Bound," while the remainder of the characters are portrayed by Fredric March, Juliette Cross, Vera Chase, Leslie Fenton, Carmelita Cornejo, Bill Cook, George Irving, and Charlotte Walker.

THE LIGHT OF EMERSON

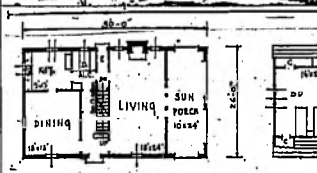

(Book Review)

One of the most worthwhile books among the best of good literature which has appeared of recent months is one entitled "Light of Emerson's Thought" by the Rev. Charles G. ...

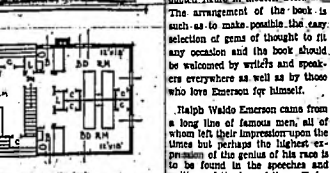

The work is a compilation of all that is best in the writings of the famous sage of Concord than whom there is perhaps no more widely studied figure in modern literature.

Halps Wald Emerson came from a long line of famous men, all of whom left their impress upon the times but perhaps the highest expression of Emerson's philosophy is to be found in the speeches and writings of the late of these.

The book in question constitutes a liberal education and should not be overlooked.

This house is the answer to the small city or suburban resident who wants a roomy type of home with a complete second floor.

Unusually large space on the first floor plan is made possible by enclosing the sun porch with glass and allowing it open to the living room.

schools of psychology thought developed with their theories and their practical aspects. Nearly everybody about the norm level has acquired by this time at least a smattering of the science. We use the words, whether we know what they mean or not.

What next? Probably economists. But a middle-aged newspaper man who himself knows a good deal about the subject of economics in a college now, I should certainly major in economics, and a course in economics wouldn't hurt an engineer, either.

It wouldn't hurt anyone to try to get a Ph.D. in a subject like this hereafter. Economics—the science of making a thing; individually and collectively—is the big thing today, growing steadily in importance. Business men find that they need some of the most important information pertaining to modern world of industry, trade and finance, which hardly any one seems to understand.

There will be plenty of room for psychology, too, in this new study. Any economist, politician or statesman who fails to take into consideration human factors and emotion an economic future will not get very far.

Economist isn't a low business law operating in a vacuum. It is a study of men and their interests, working, playing and wanting things, always somewhat by reason but mostly by feeling, thinking a little for themselves but mainly going with the crowd.

STRANGERS IN STRANGE LANDS

Mrs. Nina Lundberg, a magazine writer, donned a Swedish peasant costume and set forth to discover how an immigrant is treated in the United States. Some of her discoveries have not been very pleasant.

She has found plenty of good things which American travelers so deplore in foreign lands. One taxi driver in the metropolitan belt to make her pay one dollar and fifty cents when the motor called for only fifty-five cents.

Early Days in Southern Idaho

CHIEF BUFFALO HORN

From a Series of Historical Sketches from the Pen of a Pioneer

Buffalo Horn was chief of the southern Idaho, was born of royal blood. His father, General Howard, was the Blackfoot chief, the father of his grandfather on his mother's side. He was a brave and successful warrior of the Blackfoot tribe.

In 1877 he led a company of young warriors to fight against the Nez Perce and on return to his tribe, he was made war chief of the Blackfoot, succeeding Pocatello and about the same time, his cousin Egan, was made chief of the Flathead in Oregon.

Observance of Navy Day is of greater significance perhaps than that ever before in the ten-year period since observance of the day was first suggested by a group of patriotic men and women interested in an energetic and efficient Navy.

It is most significant this year because of steps lately taken to reduce personnel and some types of ships, under assurances given out of the London Conference that defined a fleet with many more destroyers than the strength of the United States, Great Britain and Japan, and declared a six-year holiday for battleship construction.

It behooves loyal American citizens to give some special thought to the Navy and its needs—what it has done in the past and what we may expect of it in the future. And Navy Day, to be observed next Monday, is a good time for thoughts in that direction.

IRON FIREMAN cuts fuel costs 1/3

392 users of industrial sizes report annual savings of 31.62 per cent in coal bills; 205 users of home size report average savings of 45.61 per cent

FUEL COSTS SHRINK when Iron Fireman takes over a firing job. Coal bills are reduced 15 to 30 per cent and profits mount. Iron Fireman soon pays for itself. Take the experience of 392 typical users of industrial size, and the experience of 105 users of the home size, selected at random. They report savings of more than one-third in their aggregate fuel costs.

The 392 users in the industrial group saved an average of $493 annually each, or 31.62 per cent, on their coal bills. In the home group the 105 users saved $90 annually each, or 45.61 per cent, on their coal bills.

The savings continually being reported by Iron Fireman users are made possible only by Iron Fireman's non-ignited forced underfiring. Iron Fireman burns smaller sizes of coal, which cost less per ton. And it burns less coal. Air and coal are fed to the fire from below, and volatile gases that ordinarily escape as smoke are distilled off and consumed by the flames. Application of this scientific principle produces firebox temperatures 500 to 1000 degrees hotter than through hand firing, automatically maintains even heat or boiler pressure, saves labor, and abates the smoke nuisance.

Made in a range of sizes for homes, apartments, and large commercial heating and boiler plants... sold on convenient terms. An Iron Fireman engineer will call and survey your plant, and render a report that fully and accurately contrasts your present results and costs with results and costs you may expect from an Iron Fireman. Ask us for this service. It is free.

Cards To Strive Against Third Trojan-Football Victory

88,000 Fans See Trojans Vanquish Stanford, 41-12

Southern California Team Smashes and Pounds Way to Greatest Triumph in Years Over Card Eleven

By HENSLI J. NEWLAND (Associated Press Sports Writer)

PALO ALTO, Cal., Oct. 13.—While 88,000 spectators watched Southern California's Trojans smushed and pounded to their greatest triumph over a Stanford team, the football game, 41-12 today, in what proved out to be a rout from the opening kickoff.

Never before had a Stanford eleven been the victim of a disaster setback. From start to finish, the 1930 contribution of Coach Howard Jones to coach football, both over the Cardinals and while due for a time to their—Seattle—leader, Coach Glenn Warner, the Trojans' superior in every department.

Depending almost entirely on a deception that was made of the line, the gridiron strategy looked indeed, the Trojans pulled the total of 41-yards from scrimmage, compared with Stanford's 14 yards. About three minutes after the opening kickoff the Trojans rumbled over their first touchdown, blanked scoring. Robert, Stanford fullback, tumbled. Hill, Trojan left tackle, fell on his side 22 yards from the goal line. Duffield kicked for his own left end for a 24-yard run. Muleck scored. Baker it was the try for point with a place kick.

Drive 48 Yards Well along in the first period, the Trojans took the ball for a 49-yard run. Duffield scored for the southern California team. Duffield ended the tackle for the score. Baker converted.

Duffield was hurt and Moller replaced him. But before the quarter ended Stanford fullback, Duffield, "break" to score. Baker, who had replaced Muleck at fullback, kicked the Trojan left end for a 24-yard run. Moller's play was considerably improved. In the resulting confusion many of the cars were unable to drive close to the church and their occupants were thoroughly drenched before they reached shelter.

The ceremony itself, performed by Father Flano, was brief but impressive. Because the wedding was held at a high school, the ceremony was held which had been planned to follow the ceremony was omitted at the last moment.

The priestess Irish smiled happily as her honeymoon began and she was back to her regular duties. Her mother and many brides and witnesses. She and her husband were in the royal train and headed for Bridal, where they will remain tomorrow aboard the Huntington royal yacht. One Ferdinand, this will take them through the Adriatic, Ionian, Aegean and Maelles to Bridal, where they will arrive within a week.

Almost at the same time another royal train carrying a couple who had been married less than a year—the crown prince and princess of the—started from Astoria for Bridal also. There they will go aboard the royal yacht, the Queen, for Bridal and Oronno and some distance toward Dulpar.

Priestess Mollie, stood the platform nervously in the machine. She was wearing a long, dark, flowing gown. Her hair was styled in an elaborate updo. She looked towards the altar with a mix of anticipation and nervousness.

As if as the trinity passed in a circle, she began and the royal personage got close, moving cars for his trip up the hill along streets lined with crowds.

This projected them for the moment, but as the cars pulled on to the beach of St. Francis the bride was turned to a terrible. Princess Giovanni smiled, and although nervous hands held umbrellas over, her beautiful white wedding gown was considerably dampened.

In the resulting confusion many of the cars were unable to drive close to the church and their occupants were thoroughly drenched before they reached shelter.

Victors Outrattle Stubbled Crimson-Sweatered Squad and Approach Nearer to National Gridiron Honors

By BILL KING (Associated Press Sports Writer)

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 12.—Dartmouth's Crimson—the half-way mark of the journey to national football honors here today when, as a wild north-east rainstorm raged, it out-buffed a stubborn Harvard eleven for a 7-0 victory before some 40,000 suffering and bedraggled spectators who filled the three quarters of the sold-out stadium.

The Greens' Indians continued undefeated, mainly through the offensive work of their auto-driven ball carriers. Bill Merion and Olin Porter, and the defensive play of Paul Brown and the other Crimson linemen—O'Connell, O'Connell and O'Connell—defeated every Harvard interference tactic that came anywhere near the line during the drizzly afternoon, besides making tackle too numerous to mention.

Almost 40 hours of continuous rain made the stadium turf extremely treacherous.

The Greens' ten the loss and forced Captain Ben Trotter, whose play will "below" his all-American standard, to kick against a strong northeast wind.

Gains from Punt Dartmouth tried a new play early and, when his back was to the goal, made any headway on the slippery gridiron, switched to a kicking game. Merion was booting for Dartmouth during the opening period and the favorite wind, added so many yards to the punts he exchanged with Harry Wood, Crimson triple-threat, that he was able to place his team in scoring position by punting off close in Harvard's yard line very early in the contest.

Kicking from behind the Crimson goal, Wood was only able to get the ball out for 10-30-yard line, where Merion was downed. Bill Hoover, after a pair of high-gaining line smashes, ripped off his last tackle for 20 yards but, because of a penalty, it only made a first down on Harvard's 15-yard line. After Steve Wolf placed kick the extra point.

George Gately The Crimson's pair of punts, 1-35 and 1-30, were good enough to keep their score against Dartmouth in its five games this season, came both from a safety in the second period.

When the first and only Harvard safety of the game came as 35-3 and fumbled on Dartmouth's 35-yard line, it was the end of the game. From then on, Harvard had all its five games this season, came both from a safety in the second period.

EAST LANSING, Mich., Oct. 13.—Sleepy-looking Jimmy Crowley, 25-year-old freshman, produced a successful eleven today to lead the Michigan team to a 13-0 victory over the Michigan State team.

Crowley led the team in scoring with a touchdown and two field goals. The Michigan team's defense was equally impressive, holding the State team to a field goal.

Coach Crowley was confident of his team's chances for a successful season. He praised his players for their effort and teamwork.

Perfectly Executed Forward Pass Good For 58 Yards Spells Margin of Victory

BY FRANK H. FRAWLEY (Associated Press Sports Writer) BOULDER, Colo., Oct. 13.—A perfectly executed forward pass, Middlefield's 58-yard punt, today gave the University of Colorado a 7-0 victory over Colorado Aggies. The defeat put a damper on the Aggies' mountain conference championship aspirations of the Farmers, who previously were undefeated.

The Aggie team's offense was hampered by a stiff wind and a heavy rain. The Colorado defense was solid, stopping the Aggies' drive.

Sophomore Quarterback Forward-Passes and Boots Ann Arbor Eleven to Another Big Ten Triumph

(By The Associated Press)
ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 25—A sophomore quarterback who received only passing attention in preseason reporting, but who arrived with a bang in his first game, forward-passed and kicked Michigan to another Big Ten victory over Illinois today. A crowd of 75,000 looked on.

The Wolverines under the keen guidance of Harry Newman, lron-cast master, 17 to 7, in their sixtieth annual battle, emphatically eliminated the Illini from championship consideration and kicked themselves a couple of runs higher in the title chase.

Newman, whose supple arm and accurate toe brought him instant recognition in the upset of Purdue by Michigan two weeks ago, heaved two passes today which were taken behind the goal line for Michigan touchdowns and in addition slipped a clean placekick through the bars for the first Michigan score of the kind this season.

The Illini unleashed a furious aerial attack in the last period which Michigan repel in kind, while Hudson tied a record for an additional Wolverine score. His boot was far short of the standards.

Utah Eleven Wins Over Denver Team By Score of 59-0

Coach Ike J. Armstrong's Squad Continues Triumphant March Toward Second Conference Crown

(Associated Press Staff Writer)
SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 26—Coach Ike J. Armstrong's Utes continued their triumphant march toward another Rocky Mountain conference football championship by soundly routing the big Denver university eleven on a soggy field here today.

The score, of 59 to 0 indicates Utah's vast superiority over the visitors. Reserves played most of the game for the victors but even then Denver could neither gain nor stop the non-sensational champion who are posting their third consecutive title.

Denver luffed only four first downs—three of them in the last minutes of play and the other on pass in the opening quarter.

Utes Score Early
 Utah scored its customary touchdown in the first 5 minutes of play. Davis bagging the oval 11 yards for his 100th score. Christensen kicked goal from placement. They added another marker in the opening quarter when Christensen ploughed three yards through the line to count the 6 points. He missed the goal try.

Three more touchdowns in the second quarter sewed up the game for the Utes. Price tallied the first score of the quarter by ploughing seven yards for one yard after the Utes had carried the ball into Denver territory by a series of the usual. Christensen kicked goal. Davis' 20-yard run off tackle again placed the ball in scoring distance and Christensen called the touchdown with a less over center. He also kicked the extra point. Davis again placed the ball in Denver territory just before the gun at the half. Elliott, substitute halfback, slipped a long pass to Olin, substitute quarterback, for a gain of 25 yards and Beckett, substitute fullback, ploughed through on the fourth play, Beckett, substitute halfback, kicked goal.

Denver Line Held
 Utah tallied only once in the third period as Denver's big line held the Utah second string players well in hand. The tally resulted from a blocked punt when Watkins caught the ball after blocking the extra kick and ran live yards to score.

The Utah scoring machine began finished the game with a third touchdown again in the final quarter when he tallied 20 yards to a touchdown as the reserves pushed overhead after intercepting a pass on his own 30-yard line.

Methodists Whip Indiana, 27 to 0

DALLAS, Oct. 25 (AP)—A big crowd from Indian country witnessed a crushing introduction to Southern conference football before 25,000 fans in Fair park bowl here today.

Recorded in the opening seconds of play, bedeviled by a passing attack of which they had no previous conception, and outclassed, the Hoosiers went down before Southern Methodist university's zack-like eleven, 27 to 0.

Charlie Hester, chunky little pony halfback, chilled the Hoosiers on the opening play of the game, when he received the kickoff on his own 10-yard stripe and romped an even 80 yards for a touchdown.

After that there was never a doubt of the result.

End of the period resulted from Alford's pass to Clark as the Utes second stringers completely trounced the Hoosier defense on this play. Elliott, substitute halfback, tallied the next, after the Utes had marched past the breath of the field on line backs and off tackle drives. A pass caught the ball after blocking the extra kick and ran live yards to score.

Fitzer, another reserve player, finished the game with a third touchdown when he tallied 20 yards to a touchdown after intercepting a pass on his own 30-yard line.

"Listen to that!" said Nelson, with slight upst his assembled followers. "They ought to give those boys a couple of clubs to beat each other with so that crowd would be happy."

"Hey, officer," he called to a policeman, "look in your belly to the boys."

Princeton Loses To Navy by 31-0

Losers' Playing Football Since 1869, Set Record of Three Straight Losses

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 25 (AP)—A Navy football team, which had been defeated by Notre Dame and Duke, came to Palmer Stadium today and made football history at the expense of Princeton by defeating the Tigers, 31 to 0.

Although Princeton has been playing football since 1869, today marked the first time it had lost three games in a row. Defeats were suffered in previous years at the hands of Brown and Cornell. The size of the score today also made modern history for Princeton.

No team but Yale has downed the Tigers by a score of 21 to 0 and Yale, say Princeton men, has not accomplished the feat since the early thirties.

Princeton never had a chance to win today while Navy started with a win and looked better as the game went along. The winner scored 20 first downs to three for the losers and gained in rushing plays 303 yards to 62 for Princeton.

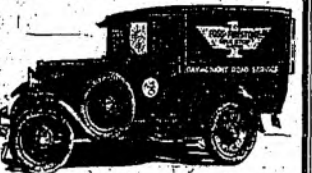

Navy scored two touchdowns before Princeton ran with the ball. The winners added two more in the third period and another in the fourth.

Dartmouth college, this year has 10 good backfield men.

TRAINS ON DRESSES PROVE UNFAVORABLE AMONG DEBUTANTES

Paris Dressmakers, With Many Trailing Evening Models on Hand, Apppear Vexed With Style Trend

By BARBARA BEAUFORT (Associated Press Fashion Editor)

PARIS, Oct. 20.—Debutantes and their contemporaries are already tired of clinging trains of cretines and are going in strong mindfully for ankle length dance dresses.

Dressmakers, with many trailing evening models in their winter collections, are not altogether pleased with young women's declaration for non-entanglement with trailing skirts.

They are delivering talks to youthful clients about dancing and dancing ways being out of date.

But their admonitions do not change the fact that the younger women, and, active womanhood in general, are choosing ankle length dresses in preference to the ground sweepers.

The continued vogue of white is believed to be responsible for some of the royal bustled trailing trimmings. One dressmaker adds a band of black velvet ribbon to the hem of a long white evening dress with the thought of presenting the ugly line of dirt which appears at the first waltzing. Bright coats of white solve the problem of quick soiling by additions of dark fur collar, and borders cuffs and hems.

Sable, mink and fox are the leading evening fur. Some black lynx is used.

Breasters with miniature ruffled peplums are a major effort at a sporty apparel about accountable for more than an innovation per year.

The peplum awakens are made of lace wool or they are hand crocheted. The crocheted models are the last word in chic here.

Paris prefers two tone effects in sweaters or knitted contrasting colors. Black and white are ultra smart.

Debutantes Make Social Bows In Rags

By SUE McNAMARA (Associated Press Writer)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Burlington silk, satin and lustrous Washington debutantes will this year open the social season in rags.

For the first time in its history the Mayflower hotel will open its doors to guests who hatter run down at the hotel, altered blouses and colorful skirts and trousers.

Trot of caftans and kees in the shapes of flower debutantes will eat with retail batters and hammers on the night of October 21 when a novel "lucky ball" will be given.

Debutantes of the several past seasons who ally themselves to the "dark on the street" will give the ball in honor of this year's "dark."

The idea has caught the fancy of the younger set. Clothes which ordinarily would be given in charity will deck the "dark" for their first soiree of the season. They are getting a tremendous "kick" out of the new idea.

Instead of expensive enlaid in millions ornamented with crests and this year were set on common brown wrapping paper.

Smart Paris frocks bought especially for "dark" their ball will hang shy in the closet.

The frocks will make their appearance on October 29 at the first formal debutante ball given by Mrs. William Lull Dunlop.

Five Pleats Revived

By VARIAN SHERBORN

PARIS, Oct. 20.—There is a heap of fine pleating in winter clothes of all types. Paris even pleats to pleat and creases by cutting them into fine cartridge pleats.

Where pleating is impractical fine turning sometimes is used.

Much of the pleating on afternoon and evening dresses is in form. Occasionally whole skirts are pleated, but the fun pleated skirt is more usual.

MATCH FISH BENEFITS

PARIS, Oct. 20.—Benets of the same material as trimming bands and cork collars, when they are flat fur, is a well developed piece of winter style.

Angora wool is a favorite fabric for the coats which are made on the head. A tunic with a trimming band of angora wool jersey makes a sport combination Paris sportswomen choose lamb, satranah and dyed mohair are used in the same way.

Even Kitchen Features Distinct Charm

A casement window adds cheer to this kitchen marbled blue linoleum as the brightest accent, which opened out to the kitchen table was of the popular treble type, finished with wicker panels. In the above a galley table was hung to a wall shelf, with electrical table appliances making possible the early service of quick hot breakfast.

Dishes of the breakfast service were of American stone china decorated with flowers in pastel shades. Flare was class of simple lines and ultra-plated flatware of graceful proportions.

For luncheon at breakfast my hostess had discovered that nothing is prettier with peach walls and blue patterned curtains than a lilac adorned of embellished chrome dress linen.

Quiet Color Rules in British Embassy

"Black Mirrors" Reflecting Soft Image Feature In New Home for Ambassador

By SUE McNAMARA (Associated Press Staff Writer)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—"Black mirrors" which emit a dulled, soft-line reflection of a blue-green pool beyond a red-walled tennis court, chairs covered with lemon colored Moroccan leather and monogrammed cushions are a few highlights which in gold-G-Roche, Rex.

stand out after an hour's steady stream through the 68 rooms of many corridors of the huge new British embassy.

Following the sturdy footfalls of Sir Ronald Lindsay, the new ambassador, one ascends and descends a busy broad red-carpeted stair where which hang oil paintings of Queen Victoria, King George, Queen Mary and the Prince of Wales.

Ornate Dressing Rooms, One enters the morning room, the drawing room, the dining room; gaze upon crystal chandeliers to hear what other people are doing.

In private life she is Mrs. Henry Barber.

Feminist Forecasts Politics for Women

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—(AP)—Women will be seen soon in the senate and even in the cabinet, predicts Maud Wood Park, well known feminist.

"She will make no pretensions, however, concerning a woman in the White House."

"But I am sure," she says, "that the percentage of public and political women office holders will be much larger in the years to come. I expect to see which none of their sex has yet been elected as senators."

"I think the time will come when there will be one or more women in the Supreme Court bench."

Women Get Choice in Canned Food Standard

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—(AP)—Housewives will have a choice of two classes of canned foods under the amendments to the federal food and drug administration of the United States department of agriculture.

Articles which are wholesome but not standard will henceforth be clearly marked.

Jefferson Caffery, American Envoy, Organizes Expedition to Ascend Nevado del Tolima for Research

By G. F. HARNETT (Associated Press Writer) BOGOTA, Colombia, Oct. 25.—With Ambassador Davis, studying the traces of prehistoric man in Spanish caves, another American diplomat has been planning to carry the world's knowledge back a few additional millions of years into the Pleistocene age.

The latter diplomat is Jefferson Caffery, United States minister to the Republic of Colombia. He will attempt in January to reach the peak of Nevado del Tolima, 16,400 feet high, where geologists believe a mile above the timberline and only 30 miles from the equator.

Jefferson Caffery, American minister to Colombia (right), is organizing an expedition to ascend Nevado del Tolima (upper left), hoping to find proof that the present equator was once in the Arctic region.

Senator William E. Borah

Senator Borah

Has an Outstanding Record of Accomplishments
Representing Idaho in Congress for 24 Years

Senator William E. Borah, the world's greatest statesman who for a score of years has served Idaho and the nation faithfully and well in the United States Senate, adding luster to the name of our state by his fearless honesty, his forensic ability, and his unswerving championship of true Americanism. He heads the Congressional delegation which has been responsible for the construction of the splendid system of irrigation works within our state. This includes the building of the magnificent American Falls, Jackson Lake, Arrowrock, Minidoka and other dams storing water for our fertile lands. As a result of these achievements our unparalleled crops make Idaho an oasis in the desert and crop failure is practically unknown.

Senator Borah is the author of the Borah licensing bill. The Chicago Packer in an article published September 6th says of this law "that it is working like greased lightning and is already beginning to have a wholesome effect. If there are any crooked operators who have not yet awakened to the new order of things it is thought it will not be long now."

Mr. J. H. Jacobson, statistician for the Department of Agriculture, says: "The impression prevails that it will be the best means of maintaining the identity and high standard of quality of Idaho produce."

John McMurray

Knows Idaho's Problems and Will Give The State
The Best There Is In Him

Hon. John McMurray

Following are extracts from John McMurray's speech delivered over Station KIDO Boise, Idaho, October 20, 1930:

PEOPLE AND CAPITAL

"The more people there are to pay taxes, the less burden will be on those who pay them.

We should turn our attention to the man with some capital, who can make a real contribution in the way of new industries, whether manufacturing or agricultural, the fellow who would complement the present production program.

A FULL WATER RIGHT FOR EVERY FARMER

Let us adopt as our slogan, "A full water right for every farmer," and go even further with our efforts at harnessing the water resources of the state for land, now under cultivation.

ROADS

Every farmer in Idaho is entitled to a road past his door, passable 365 days in the year, and while, of course, such a road program cannot be completed at once, I am sure we can make a respectable start toward its realization without plunging the state into bonded indebtedness.

FREIGHT RATES

Our present Public Utilities Commission has inaugurated a program of lower railroad rates, and I am informed that the saving in freight rates on beans and peas will be more than a half million dollars, on gasoline more than $600,000, and on grain $1,700,000, making a total of nearly $3,000,000, if the Interstate Commerce Commission grants their plea.

If elected, I will assist the Public Utilities Commission in their present plans until Idaho has secured just rates in all intermountain freight.

INCREASED TOURIST TRAFFIC

We have in this tourist line an unequalled stock of quality goods, fully as worthy of a premium as our agricultural products; we should capitalize it.

IDAHO WILD LIFE

I pledge whole-hearted co-operation with the state fish and game department and the game associations throughout the state in the preservation and propagation of fish and game.

TAXATION

I am not for any tax which will add additional burdens to the already over-burdened citizens of our state who are receiving small incomes. However, I am for a policy that will tax types of wealth now almost totally exempt.

ECONOMY

I will apply the same rigid economy in state government as I have applied during my life in the transaction of my own and public affairs.

EX-SERVICE MEN LEGISLATION

As has always been my policy, I favor legislation that will benefit the ex-service men.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

I stand for the fearless enforcement of all laws.

MINING INDUSTRY

I favor the entire co-operation of the state to the end that the mining industry may be placed upon the most profitable basis possible.

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR HARD WORK

Our political faith must rise higher than party lines. It must include faith in ourselves as individuals; faith in our government, and faith in the ability of the people to govern themselves.

I am not asking you to bestow on me an empty honor. I am asking the people to give me a chance for some of the hardest work of my life, that I may do my share toward making this Idaho of ours greater, happier and more wonderful."

The Democratic Party offers only ABUSE, MISREPRESENTATION and GLOOM as a policy upon which to build the state of Idaho
