ANCIENT ETHIOPIAN CAPITAL PLANS TO CROWN RAS TAFARI

"Inheritor of Throne of David, King of Kings and Anointed of God," Soon Rules Oldest Royal House

By JAMES A. MILLS
(Associated Press Writer)
ADDIS ABABA, Abyssinia, Oct. 27.—The ancient seat of Ethiopia's emperors today was in the midst of state and religious preparation for the coronation No. 2 of Ras Tafari as emperor.

With the arrival of several more foreign delegations, the ranks of delegates of 42 countries were swelled to 1,000, double the day before the previous year. Yesterday Japanese, Polish, English and Dutch visitors arrived.

To each was given a royal reception in which the gaily-decorated capital took part enthusiastically.

Day and night bishops and priests pray over the jeweled-encrusted gold crowns of the 14 members of the royal family. Today, the day of the coronation, 1,000 people everywhere under guard of long lines of Ethiopian cavalrymen.

When Ras Tafari ascends the golden throne of David a week hence, Emperor Haile Selassie I, the Emperor of Emperors of Ethiopia, son of Julian and Loh of Ethiopia, will according to R. E. Johnson, widely known conqueror of the world, meet his fate. The dead third-century sovereign of that empire. These authorities hold that the Ethiopian empire was founded in the year 1200 B.C., and the creation of the world, which according to the Ethiopian calendar occurred 5500 years before the birth of Christ.

Oldest Royal House

This is why by this reckoning he will be born November 3, the seventh thousand three hundred and thirty-third year of the reign of the Ethiopian dynasty, which would make him 10,000 years old.

Adam no longer is claimed by Ethiopia as the original ancestor of the king of kings. That claimant is their first king, Oti or Aswan, the son of Shem who is mentioned in the book of Genesis.

The first dynasty of Solomon, from which Belial claims descent, reigned no less than 1300 years by these authorities, while during the fall of the tower of Babel 42 different Ethiopian sovereigns ruled Africa.

As though this were not enough, the modern world condemns him as a modern ruler, he still claims himself "Inheritor of the Throne of David" of the lineage of King Solomon and the current Emperor of Ethiopia.

He sent to Addison, South Carolina, United States consul-general at Addis Ababa, today, acknowledging President Hoover's communique and the American executive's sympathetic photograph.

To make his coronation worthy of a descendant of King Solomon and the current Emperor of Ethiopia, he has prepared $100,000 of his own money for imperial crowns, coronation robes, state carriages, triumphal arches, palanquins, ceremonial standards, gifts to foreign potentates and bounties to ruling Ethiopian princes.

The government is raising another $30,000 by special levies upon the population.

THOMAS FORESEES DEPRESSION'S END

Gooding Senator in Address at Nampa Lauds Efforts of Idaho's Legislators

NAMPA, Idaho, Oct. 27 (AP)—Actor Thomas H. Ince, speaking over the radio here tonight, declared virtually everything feasible had been done to temper the financial crisis.

In an address which covered generally national and state issues, the senator lauded the efforts of his colleagues in Congress to combat the depression.

"The moral war now waging is preparatory to a military war. Calamitous inventions are an arm of destruction which we must face," said Faust.

The author of "The Affairs of the Great War," but pointed out that America was in much better condition than European nations.

"The depression is the result of the aftermath of the Great War," but pointed out that America was in much better condition than European nations.

"The depression has caused a many of the nations to face bankruptcy."

He said that the president's efforts initiating building programs and encouraging continuation of industries at high pace to avert a depression were well directed.

"After calling attention to the president's efforts to find jobs for the unemployed during the coming winter, he said:

"This is no time to rock the boat. The president should be given a free hand to do what he can to help the unemployed with the pessimist who says that we are going to have to lower the standard of living in this country, which is the highest in the world."

He described Idaho as "particularly fortunate" with her variety of industry.

Attack," Declares Il Duce

(By Associated Press)

ROME, Oct. 27.—Premier R. Mussolini sounded a vigorous call for all Italy to fight for Fascism in a speech today extolling the Fascist doctrine before his federal directors.

The duce said that throughout the world a "war of empires and of infants" had been launched against Fascism, but fascism had become a universal idea and Italy would stand alone in the struggle.

The film has its climax in a fight between a lady's admiring and her husband, and it was in this scene the dramatist personally took a hand today.

The premier said "advised" was being made constantly by Washington, in preparation for military war. He declared his speech had been directed at the "hypocrites" who talk about peace at Geneva and prepared for war elsewhere.

Some of his other statements were:

"The moral war now waging is preparatory to a military war. Calamitous inventions are an arm of destruction which we must face," said Faust.

President Hears Story Of Nation's Human Suffering

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27 (AP)—President Hoover was told today that the situation in Europe was worse than he had ever seen.

He heard the story of the starving and homeless masses who were idle in the unemployment crisis.

After the speech, he said, Allen Dulles, executive director of the National Association of Commerce and Industry, reported that nearly 500,000 men were idle in the construction field.

Dulles made his report to the president, who was leaving to prevent any freezing or starving during the rigorous winter months.

The president said that the economic situation in Europe was worse than he had ever seen.

The committee was advised that the industrial section of the forthcoming "sixth New England Manufacturers' Conference" to be held in Boston November 20, would devote its exclusively to development of

With all the points of circumstances in view, King George, accompanied by Queen Mary, will drive in state from Buckingham Palace to the parliament, where he is to preside at mid-day the historic ceremony of reading the speech from the throne.

Special significance attaches to the speech, as it presents the last chance for King George to be well received in the streets, for the occasion will mark resumption of his attendance at Westminster after his absence through illness and critical illness of his wife.

From Istanbul to southern Germany, reports have come in telling of flooded rivers, broken telephones and telephone lines and blocking of roads by impassable snowdrifts.

Austria reported the worst damage from floods in the Vienna district.

BUHL, Oct. 27 (Special to The News)—"Black Beauty" popcorn, a comparatively new crop in the West End, has been a success on a large scale by two Buhl growers, Elmer Schreeder and Anton Sustar, several trailer acreages of from two to three acres also were produced last year.

Mr. Schreeder planted 40 acres which averaged 35 bushels per acre. After harvesting, the popcorn was sold to W. B. Staggs, Peacock, and shipped from the local station to other stores of the chain, where it was sold at 15 cents a pound and shipped to Butte, Montana. The entire crop brought 3 cents a pound. Mr. Schreeder, who lives five miles south, where he planted his crop with corn stalks.

Seventy-five acres were raised by Anton Sustar, a pioneer in the business, and the crop was harvested a week ago with a small scythe, increasing each year as the demand became greater. Four carloads of his crop were shipped to the local cannery, but the price was not made public.

No estimate was made as to his production, but it had been harvested. The crop was cut with a binder and will be threshed with a bean huller. Mr. Sustar stated.

Both growers said the crop was easily grown. It is plowed and cultivated the same as field corn, and the kernels are larger.

As the smoke of last week's football battles clears away the fans of South Central Idaho find but one undefeated team in the district but several powerful eleven's fighting stubbornly for the supremacy of its particular class. As mid-season passes, the race narrows as teams less fortunate than those dropped by the wayside with too many losses to make possible their bidding for the championship, while the others prepare for the crucial test.

Note: The above rating includes all games, practice, inter-district and exhibition games played thus far for this season with the exception of Gooding-Jerome and Rupert-Idaho Falls games which were in 6-4 ties and in way off the standings.

The next two weeks should see the little race in both classes centered on one or two teams with little contact on the schedules to decide the district champion.

In Class A, Filer will be at home again, while the road to recovery easily for the Wildcats attack the powerful Indian squad of Dale. Filer has weathered the storm well, but the team which was last Friday's surprise came when Oakley's powerful aggression gave the Wildcats the scars of their lives but they are still in the lead. J. V. Thompson's lads, 14-12.

Twin Falls, heretofore undefeated, broke into the lost column this week at the hands of the visiting Boise eleven, the jinx of the Blue Devil never failing to bring the visitors running into their traps as Kinnear, their fifth victor, Wendell, smashing her fifth victory.

Rupert Beaten Once

Rupert, thus far undefeated except in a game game held the last year's state champions, Idaho Falls, reported to be just as strong as last year. The first half of the first game left the fans of the district puzzled as to whether Idaho Falls was as strong as believed to be from early reports. But the East Idaho team is holding out some tricks to spring in the contests that count for the championship.

In reality Filer, Rupert and Twin Falls are a close slate as far as district honors are concerned.

Burley was idle this week and Idaho Falls an equal number of victories and losses. The Indians broke into the win column by crushing the Foothills boys. Jerome seems destined to hold the lead for the season. They have had a very great impression upon the Bush Indians last Friday and still hold a no-win record. Idaho Falls has a record of being unbeaten five times. Their hardest defeat came this last week by the Wildcats.

Three Unbeaten Teams

In Class B, Hansen, Castleford and Albion, although widely separated on the standing record, are the only ones who have not been defeated by a team of their own class. Hansen's lone came at the hands of Kimberly, Castleford at Burley and Albion, Rupert. Both of the latter lost back to back while Dietrich's care Glenwood Perry, considered one of the strongest bidders for the title, a team of defeat and loss. The other three teams are record of no defeat by any team in this district.

Castleford rested this week as did Dele. Idaho fainted her percentage by trouncing Belvoir while Castleford beat the Indians. The hands of the Twins, Potts, Cuba, Wendell, Richfield and Hailey each failed to better themselves this week due to defeats by powerful teams.

Indiana Defies Tradition in Tilt With Southern Methodist on Texas Field

head Tactics on Gridiron

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 27.—Coach Pat Page's Indiana university gridiron defied tradition last Saturday when they tackled the Southern Methodist Mustangs here and lost, 27 to 0.

And their defiance, it appears, was more too-illuminating. In the opening half of the game, the Indiana selected Southern Methodist university only after the hardest kind of an uphill battle, while Ohio State turned the tables and won a game into a near rout, winning, 23 to 6.

The Hoosiers encountered a determined and determinedly unpredictable opposition, a master of the open-field game, and also followed in the wake of other visiting crews that have come to grief trying to defeat the Methodists on their home ground.

Even teams that were outstanding in their own sections have had no luck when they met the tricky Mustangs.

Midway Drake, West Virginia Wesleyan, the Bella, Missouri Miners and the Arkansas Appalacs are among the other teams that have faced the same fate.

Coach Ray Morrison's machinations were aimed at getting the Indiana to play Southern football, but visiting teams always find them at their best.

The University of Michigan eleven, which has been the most outstanding in recent years, was beaten by the Mustangs at a score of 32 to 0 right in the midst of one of the most dramatic games ever seen.

The 1929 Southern Methodist university machine—which finished third in the conference rate, predicted by the coach, has won the year's title.

With Indiana, the Vandal babies held the rivalry to a 10 to 10 count, as hard a game as MacLean field has seen this season and the outcome was decided by the strength of the yearlings rather than varsity weakness. Will Smith, diminutive quarterback, proved the undoing of the Hoosiers, who were unable to which the varsity could not stop and Smith, who Coach Leo Adair admits is a utility runner as he has never been safely handled as a second stringer.

The Vandal readings compare favorably with their brothers in the football field, as the team has a weight advantage of several pounds to the man when they play the Hoosiers.
