FORESTRY HIGHWAY BOARD HEARS MAN FROM TWIN FALLS

Newell S. Wight, Secretary of Magic City's Chamber of Commerce, urges Building of Highway to North

(By The Associated Press) OISE, Oct. 30.—The forces trying to keep highway from being built today passed a resolution urging advance appropriation of federal funds for highway work as a solution of the unemployment problem.

The resolution was addressed to the president's unemployment relief committee, which is in charge of the national division and to the forest service and bureau of public roads. It asked that the next year's appropriations be increased, and possible appropriations for public domain roads provided under the Colton-Orr bill be increased, so that all available funds "will be more effectively used by employment through the construction of roads which are to be maintained by the state and which extend into the United States,"

Congress was asked to appropriate money for public domain roads as permitted under the Colton-Orr bill and to make available any further appropriations for road construction as may be found necessary and usable by government relief agencies.

Representative Group Pays
The resolution was placed at a meeting of representatives of counties, chambers of commerce and various organizations gathered to protest against the proposed cut of $10,000,000 from the $100,000,000 forest highway appropriation available for next year. The cut, unusually not approved until July 1, would have delayed immediate action. Allocations will be made by state and federal officers after consideration of all requests.

After hearing the case, came a series of sessions with road job awaiting completion. Keen rivalry developed between the Twin Falls and the Boise areas. Both the South Central area urged an application to complete a section of the transcontinental highway between Idaho and the South.

Both the Twin Falls chamber as well as another section north of Boise were urged as part of a proposed Northern Gorge connection to Mexico and Canada through Montana, Idaho, Nevada and Arizona.

Newell S. Wight, secretary of the Twin Falls chamber, who described the Sawtooth park highway as an important route serving the Northwest, the West and the South and the West. The increased traffic, he said, was due mainly to the opening of the Stanley strip which had remained unimproved while other roads were paved.

Boise's request was for construction of the Idaho City-Lewiston road which would give the Boise Valley a direct connection with Stanley and the South. The proposal would lead to Butte, Montana. It was urged by W. B. Oppenheim, attorney for the Pacific Interstate, that the road be a continuation of the Idaho City-Lewiston route providing a short route through Idaho to California.

He insisted this was more necessary than the transcontinental highway through the Twin Falls.

Besides these, several North Idaho and Southeast Idaho projects were presented before the board.

NEW PLYMOUTH YOUTH THINKS MORE OF COWS THAN OF AUTOMOBILE

PORLAND, Oct. 30 (AP)—A pamphlet of American youth and its work and play was planned to be distributed to the members of the committee on activities outside school and home, in a report prepared for the coming White House Conference.

West, in his daily life the national organizer of the Boy Scouts, studied many phases of the youth problem, including radio, motion pictures, sports and dance halls, stores and clubs.

He reported making arrangements, ranging from keeping the bicycles of individual members in the basement of his home to creating a national clearing house for all boys' and girls' camps to they might serve more young citizens.

"Youth up to 18 years in the United States grows 43,000,000 young people, growing, doing, learning, working, forming habits, taking standards," defined West.

"To them life is a great adventure, and they are the future, certainly to be literally in the world."

"Of them, 22,000,000 are in schools and 4,000,000 have already gone to work."

West recommended that all these boy and girl workers under 18 years of age be given full withdrawal from the labor market.

"Then there will be a great advantage to the country and the world," he said.

The report concluded that the work of oil pools and public dance halls had the report said:

"The movement for regulation and supervision is still insufficient."

Supervision of the public dance halls was requested by the press to have if public utilities were not allowed to operate without control by the interstate commerce commission.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN REFUSES TO PAY TAX FOR KEEPING CLEAN

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30 (AP)—Theodore J. Sherry, 86, retired South Dakota "steamboat" and Civil War veteran, went to the Los Angeles city hall last night to check-damned if he'll pay a tax on keeping clean.

Findings of $20 for failure to obtain a city license, Sherry declared he installed the bathtub himself and "wouldn't pay the $2000 inspection fee."

Sherry, however, refused to answer any question on "my bath tub."

The court reduced the fine to $10.

"No fine," he said, and marched indignantly to jail to stay two days.

FIRE SWEEPS OVER 30,000-ACRE AREA

Several Hundred Men Engage in Battling Flame Rag-ing in Southern California

VENTURA, Cal., Oct. 30 (AP)—Fire, burning through brush-covered water-courses, has swept across three fire fighters as victims and 30,000 acres of blackened land as its conquered domain.

Several hundred men, hunting the flames, hoped to control the large fire tonight. This hope hung on the condition an east wind continues to blow.

Three fire-scarred victims have been taken to hospital.

The last, E. P. Dunn, Santa Barbara, was expected to succumb to critical burns. Strapped by flames, he had to be carried to safety by his colleagues. He had been shouting for help when he became a flame.

COOLIDGE DEFENDS REPUBLICAN PARTY

Ex-President of Land Gives 15-Minute Radio Address to Massachusetts Voters

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 30 (UPI)—In Coolidge's absence from the obscurity of private life for 19 minutes tonight and defended in a radio address to Massachusetts voters the Coolidge administration to cope with the recent business depression. In his address, designed chiefly to help the campaign of the Republican candidates in state government and United States Senate.

In the stations WBBZ-WDZA under the auspices of the state Republican committee, the former president said he was "pleased" of the support of President G. Allen and the election of the Republican candidates in this state for governor and United States senator.

"I am doing my best for you," he said.

Commenting upon criticism of President Coolidge, he said: "If there was one action that could have been taken by the government of the United States which would have put us back on our feet again it has been all over the world, no one has convinced me."

He referred to the efforts of Franklin Roosevelt to secure unemployment compensation and declared it was the duty of all citizens and particularly all public officials to support the measure, not to do nothing but to refrain from groundless and reckless statements which can only retard the return of this country to normal conditions.

The address of the former presidential candidate of the National party was delivered over the radio last night at a Democratic rally in Boston of former Governor Alfred E. Smith, New York, South Dakota and other national leaders.

Smith declared the election of the Democratic opponents of Allen and Bulley. Mr. D. L. and Marcus Connelly.

With decision of that measure, the electorate will find how a number of state situations will turn out. Prominent among them is the gubernatorial contest in New York and Pennsylvania and delayed prohibition in several states.

INTESTINAL POISON INCREASE DEAFNESS

Dr. Mark J. Gottlieb; New York, Links Impaired Hearing With Indigestion

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
(Associated Press Science Editor)

CHINA: What could cause more than one form of deafness was made public today. The popular article from the Chinese medical journal in the new field of attack upon impaired hearing was reported to the American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology, Dr. Mark J. Gottlieb, New York.

He told also of a treatment in these cases which caused some "startling" results.

"The findings," he said, "are the result of eight years' investigation in the hard-of-hearing research clinic of the Chinese Academy of Medical Sciences."

"The specific complaints include, tinnitus, fulness for a long time, difficulty hearing and difficulty in speech," he said.

"Accompanying these are headache, blurring of vision and pain in the ear. The complaints are usually found to be associated with or absent from the heating disease."

Gottlieb said, "In China they may possibly give, would not in China serve the same function we here are commonly supposed to play."

Actual increases in money made of the Chinese currency, he said, as well as an economic effect in China. The people—priests, artisans and others made of silver and copper to have only a certain amount.

The effect, China's representative said, would be favoring the Philippines, which would greatly stimulate trade between China and Philippines.

Assuming China gets the loan and has the right to do so, he said his country would make certain demands of the powers which would include abolition of special privileges to foreign companies and a reduction of foreign imports from the Yangtze river, "equitable" tariff adjustments more favorable to China and the suspension of extra-tariff measures and commercial concessions not based on justice.

Considerable interest in the proposed loan has been expressed in the United States, notably by Bealeton

LEGAL ADVISER OF CHINA SEEKS LOAN OF $360,000,000

China believes the American government, not needing its surplus silver, could well afford to lend it to a country like China, 5 per cent. not being a heavy burden on the Chinese, which the survey asserts is inevitable without the loan, but as a means of getting customers out of the fourth of the inhabitants of the earth.

It is the opinion of Chinese economists that the loan, if made, would drive the Chinese to a new field of attack upon impaired hearing was reported to the American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology, Dr. Mark J. Gottlieb, New York.

He told also of a treatment in these cases which caused some "startling" results.

"The findings," he said, "are the result of eight years' investigation in the hard-of-hearing research clinic of the Chinese Academy of Medical Sciences."

"The specific complaints include, tinnitus, fulness for a long time, difficulty hearing and difficulty in speech," he said.

"Accompanying these are headache, blurring of vision and pain in the ear. The complaints are usually found to be associated with or absent from the heating disease."

Gottlieb said, "In China they may possibly give, would not in China serve the same function we here are commonly supposed to play."

Actual increases in money made of the Chinese currency, he said, as well as an economic effect in China. The people—priests, artisans and others made of silver and copper to have only a certain amount.

The effect, China's representative said, would be favoring the Philippines, which would greatly stimulate trade between China and Philippines.

Assuming China gets the loan and has the right to do so, he said his country would make certain demands of the powers which would include abolition of special privileges to foreign companies and a reduction of foreign imports from the Yangtze river, "equitable" tariff adjustments more favorable to China and the suspension of extra-tariff measures and commercial concessions not based on justice.

Considerable interest in the proposed loan has been expressed in the United States, notably by Bealeton

What about security China proposed to offer for such a huge loan?

Judge Linchager said:

"China's national honor would be the best security. In addition to that there would be a guarantee of increased domestic revenues and from customs duties derived from revised tariff schedules."

Navigation Interests Propose 21 Dams On Mississippi River

(By The Associated Press)
S. PAUL, Oct. 30.—A new series of lakes down the Mississippi valley, from St. Paul to St. Louis, may be one by-product of the federal government's plan to clear a nine-foot channel in the upper river for navigation.

The proposed project calls for building 21 dams at a cost of $100,000,000.

Each dam, which is the flat valley between two bluffs on either side, will create a wide, flat lake. These lakes will vary in depth from 10 to 20 feet.

The first of the series of lakes would be created above the dam at Hastings, Minn., just as the river turns northward to be half at Diamond Bluff, Wisconsin, and half below the Hastings dam. This would raise water up to the foot of the dam about 10 feet.

Others are proposed for Alma,
Alma, Fountain City, Winona, La Crosse,
Genoa, Lynville, Prairie du Chien

and Rock Island.

This map shows proposed sites for dams which would create a series of lakes in the upper Mississippi's channels.

Chicago Prepares For Annual Show

GILLIS PRAISES RULE OF REPUBLICAN PARTY

CHICAGO, Oct. 30 (Special to The News) — Chicago — Chicago is a man o' th' world, the chief port of commerce for the country, which for the last 21 years has been otherwise known as the International livestock exposition, will soon be the site of the annual show.

This year from November 20 to December 4, the big amphitheatre, adjoining buildings, and pens out of which the cattle are led, will be according to the assured prediction of the management of the exposition, be more than ever crammed with exhibits, displays, and entertainment, and amusements.

Among the many departments who will have exhibits this year will be those that were there last year.

Cliff Gillis warmly endorsed the candidacy of John McCormack for governor. "The Democrats only campaign-

WALKER DESCRIBES BATTLE OF WORDS

Gotham's Mayor Testifies
On Horning of Epithets
at Communist's Hearing

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (AP)—An exchange of words between the mayor of New York and a Communist was described today by Mayor James J. Walker, who charged that a charge of unlawful assembly against Sam Nunn, the Communist, was based on a lie.

In answer of scenes of disorder in the city hall and in the city hall park two weeks ago which followed ejection of Nunn and two fellow dissidents from a hearing of the state legislative committee on public administration, the mayor said:

Corrigan earlier dismissed charges of disorderly conduct against J.
Samuel Nunn, Communist candidate for lieutenant-governor, and two women Communists. After a policeeman had sought to restrain the Communists from leaving the park Corrigan declared the action was
"not ample" to prove the charge.

Officers to Thrash Nunn

Mayor Walker declared he had ordered to thrash Nunn after the Communist had uttered words he deemed "un-American."

"I told him that if it weren't for the gravel, laying it down about the mayor's stand as the first definite witness and testified he had responded to a warning from the mayor to imminent members of the party, I have no objection to anything you say," Then Nunn said he was rubbed about punched and thrown down stairs.

The Democrats only campaign-

ly, "Turn the rascals out," he said,

"and 'get our only reason.' We want to get in."

DEFENDABACH TELLS WHY HE FAVERS REPUBLICANS

NOTUS, Oct. 30 (UPI)—Addressing a press conference here yesterday, Bryan Defendbach, candidate for lieutenant-governor, declared that he favored the Republicans in the recent election because he believed the people of Idaho will be more contented, happier under a Republican government than under a Democratic one.

"It seems to me that my duty is clear," he said. "I look upon this question as the social and economic rather than a political one. I believe that the country is better off under the Republicans.

"The speaker reviewed the political history of our state and national elections, declaring that the various administrations have been unsatisfactory. The periods of construction of government have been periods of Republican control, he said.

Regarding Democratic popularity, Defendbach was not enthusiastic. He doubted that the party's being carried out by their leaders would be able to fulfill these promises.

"Promises for the future are only valuable if they are being carried out," he said. "Where no normal life is involved, it seems unwise to support a party which is not fit to govern. I hope to perform its duties well."

"Even the most optimistic Democrat is not hoping for victory in the next election," he said. "I hope to serve my term in self-protection."

The sun went down after the first game, and the big players and the stars swang in the second game.

REPUBLICANS HOLD RALLY AT BURLEY

Addison T. Smith and John McMurray Give Addresses
Before 600 Listeners

BURLEY, Oct. 30 (Special to The News)—Six hundred persons of Burley and surrounding districts heard Addison T. Smith, the state's candidate for reelection as a member from congress; John McMurray, gubernatorial aspirant, John G. Davis, a member of the House of Love, Burley lawyer, sing the praises of the Republican party, and score the Democrats as it is early in the last days of the campaign.

The candidates were introduced by Adelia Nelson, Burley, maiden heartily applaud.

Congressman Smith, who devoted most of his address to the tariff, said: "The last three years while the Democrats were in power they let down on the tariff, and if they do again, I will never again, there is no room in either that they would not repeat the move."

John McMurray pledged himself to an honest and efficient administration, and stated that, contrary to rumors, he had not been offered the position of attorney general, which he had made no promises and was in no way connected with any person, corporation or organization. In speaking of highway policy, he stated that the Republicans favored the construction of "feeder" roads to connect with all state highways.

He expressed himself as favorable to a bill introduced in Congress to prohibit states from levying too heavy taxes would interfere with the development of the state, which is made more of a problem, he said. By fact, however, the state is a positive factor in the state, and the development of its resources is of primary importance. In this connection he said that the state has a $15,000,000 forest tax of a group of 11 Western states of somewhat similar conditions.

John Graham complimented the Club for their work in their efforts in picking of a candidate for the governor's office, and urged their support of the Republican party.

Following the meeting, the candidates shook hands with visitors in the reception room of the church, and the crowd enjoyed refreshments.

Residents of Rupert, Burley, Twin Falls, Owyhee, Almo, Deeth, Paul, Heyburn and many other South Idaho towns attended.

Dave Kirklin, blocking back of the Alabama eleven, has played every position on the team except center.

Jerry Donovan is called one of the fairest outfielders ever to perform in the Pacific Coast League.

E. B. Barnard, president of the American Legion, is confident his district will make a sacrifice fit at its December meeting.

CLUB OF ROCK CREEK GATHERS IN KIMBERLY

Congressman HERE IN MIDST OF CAMPAIGNING

Returning from 10 days campaigning in southeastern Idaho, Congressman Addison T. Smith arrived at the platform with John McMurray, Republican candidate for governor, at a largely attended public meeting at the First Methodist Church, here to Twin Falls, to spend the night.

With Speaker John Thomas, Congressman McMurray held a meeting at Shoshone this evening.

BOISE, Oct. 30.—The last of the major inter-sectional football games that will test the relative standing of southern Idaho high school teams will be played Saturday, when Boise goes to Idaho Falls to meet the state champions.

Although this was virtualy the day of winning district championship because of early defeats at the hands of Parma and Pocatello, the two best teams in the state, beating both Twin Falls last week, 20 to 14, and Pocatello earlier, Pifer took the crown by default, since its losses however, 18 to 12.

Idaho Falls was held to a draw by Rupert last week, although four times the champions had the ball to do what they could only be held by desperate defense.

The situation within the districts remained virtually unchanged. The Pahshandis still reign supreme in the North; Lewiston and Moscow, top their respective districts, and Cen- tral Idaho has a commanding pre- dominance of 100%.

Much resting was done by secondary school warriors over the weekend, but Coeur d'Alene, Parma, Jan 14, and Pocatello, 15, and Moscow passed to a 10-0 victory over the powerful St. Marie Lumberjacks, then were the major games.

Kellogg Defeats Burns

Kendrick defeated Pocatello, 26 to 14, and Idaho Falls, 14 to 10, and in the valley conference Games score a 20-14 victory over Lapwai. Lapwai took an easy 34-0 victory over Priest River.

The Pahshandis conference now lines up like this: Wallace, Kellogg, St. Marie, Burns, Parma, Jan 14, and Central, Malad, Priest River, Burke, and Spinegoat.

The Valley group is ranged thus: Coeur d'Alene, Lewiston, Ketchum, Challis, and Payette.

Idaho Falls reigns undefeated in its own sector after the three games it has played so far. It is a team richly encouraged, because of defeat. Postoeles last week, 6 to 7. The others put the date to go out of the running in that track.

Although tied by Idaho Falls, Pifer maintained its lead by defeating Burns and Gaudium at Eugene, they beat Hornsby, 21 to 7, and their win remains one of the three unbeaten teams in the South Central district, sharing the honor with Pifer and Burns.

Their record is 3-0-1, and their victory over Oakley in a game featured mainly by the fine passing of the local team, Peyer, who won the windfall for Pifer with a 50-yard run in the first quarter. Pifer has a technical edge over the others in the district, however, having defeated Twin Falls, while Twin Falls beat Rupert in an early season practice game.

Postoeles is in its unbeaten way in the Southwestern district, tooting aside Meridian, 18 to 0, from its championship title. The next two weeks will be a hard task for it to get high school will tackle Parete which passed through last week with a victory over Meridian, 16 to 14.

Their "flying Dutchmen" have been in a tight race, the first game the Caldwell team has played since a quarrel with the coach, Mr. H. R. Parsons, who pushed Mr. Kiemler outside of the way and hoped to get him out of the team because of an outbreak of disease, since quelled.

Should the Prudell team go through with their happy record—will find itself faced with the toughest going possible when the inter-sectional state final is played at Pocatello on Nov. 10, or force into an extra game in the South-Central district, should Meridian give up.

Prudell's going is much easier, however, since the team has yet to hurdle Caldwell and Boise to end the year without a setback. Prudell's going is much easier, however, since the team has yet to hurdle Caldwell and Boise to end the year without a setback.

Pete Taylor, Twin Falls' star, more ends, can pull passes that come anywhere near his direction. Arthur Sather, the star of the team, is in a really good when it comes to receiving. If the quarterback wants to Lou Gehrig, Yankee first baseman, will have his left arm placed in a cast and straightened.

Phelan's Guidance Boosts Fans' Interest In Husky Squad

Former Coach at Purdue Elevates Washington Team

Noted Mentor Makes No Predictions, But Boasts of Fighting Aggregation and Hopes for District Title

By The Associated Press
SEATTLE, Oct. 30— Football interest flames high at the University of Washington.

It is due to the presence of Jimmy Phelan, former Purdue university coach, his new assistants from the middle west, and new football customs.

Phelan predicts nothing. He says merely that he has a fighting team. In the past, however, under his command, the new model Huskies defeated Idaho and Montana by the same score—20-0, and topped up the point scale with three Beers, in a 13-0 victory last Saturday.

Huskies followers hope the new coach will bring the same kind of victories this year. The team failed to win a conference game or an intersectional game last season.

In addition to new coaches teaching a new system of play, the Washington stadium field has been redone for the first time in its history.

The old stone wall has now been discarded in favor of plantings and good soil making.

Such changes are an old story to many schools, who aren't to blame for them. They are a result of much greater interest in football around Seattle.

Phelan's assistants are Charles Clegg, Wm. F. Ralph Pratt, Witch, from the Bellarmine schools; Dan Lanson from Loyola University, Chicago, and Edmund A. Collier of St. Paul, Minn.

The Huskies have a good line, though the absence of Paul Jenkins, top halfback, will be felt.

He was graduated this summer.

The halfback is围绕ed around Merle Hufford, all-purpose halfback of last year, and Bill Marsh, former fullback.

Gridsters of Buhl And Filer Battle

Traditional Rivals, Indians and — Look For Hard Fought Grid Encounter

BUHL, Oct. 30 (Special to The News)— Indians, with their 24-0 victory over Jerome last week, will battle the undefeated Filer Wildcats, in their annual encounter at Filer Park, firm tomorrow.

The Indians have not defeat only once this year, at the teeth of the Indians, in their 24-0 victory over Jerome. Indians victories over Boise, Kimberly, Oakley and Hansen.

The local team, coached by Forrest Johnson, has a record of 5-0. Coach Herman Ruth's aggregation a hard tussle, and the fact that the two teams are traditional rivals will make the game a whooping, snarling battle.

The return of "Poker" Manuel, quarterback, who has recovered from influenza, will add strength to the Indians.

If Buhl wins the contest, a three-place tie involving the Indians, Jerome and Filer will result.

Oklahoma-Aggie Yearlings Roast "Carnera" Back

STILLWATER, Okla., Oct. 30 (AP)— A "Carnera of the Gridiron" may be tearing up the turf with the Oklahoma Yearlings, in their annual Mechanical football team next year.

Don Conner, a member of this year's yearling team, weighs 233 pounds, stands 6 feet tall, and is 6 feet 4 inches tall, and can't get his feet into any shoes smaller than 11M. He is believed to be the biggest football player ever to come out of Oklahoma.

Conner's waist measures 38 inches, his chest, normal, 31 inches. Take it from Harold James, freshman, who has had the markings of one of the best backs in the game. Conner is an Ossage Indian.

Utahns Seek Game With Easterners

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 30 (AP)— University of Utah has been invited to meet the Pittsburg University in a post season game after December 1st, if the Pittsburg team is still in existence. The meeting will be decided upon at the next meeting of the Board of Regents on November 11th. The invitation was extended by the Lake City Chamber of Commerce.

COACH JIMMY PHELAN

Jimmy Phelan, former Purdue coach, has lifted football from the doldrums at the University of Washington with a big Mid-West trick. Merle Hufford, halfback, and Bill Marsh, quarter, furnish a lot of driving power for Phelan's team.

George Herman Ruth Becomes Legal Foster Father of Two Little Girls

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (AP)— George Herman Ruth, bitter of home runs which he brought joy into the lives of thousands of children by signing away his rights to the New York Yankees today for ten little girls to affect Ruth's own name here.

Ruth, idol of the sandlots and the batters, signed final adoption papers that made him the legal father of two boys who have been separated from their parents since they were born.

They are little girls, Mrs. Helen J. Hodges, fire-shouldered daughter of his present wife by her first marriage, and Dorothy Helen Ruth, 9, who was the ward of the first Mrs. Ruth.

The "million of swans" adopted as the twin daughters of George Herman Ruth by his family after signing the papers.

He said: "I guess back anything I can say except that I'm glad I did the right thing."

Coach Leo Calland thinks a repeat of last year's attack is the right place to mix for the Idaho Vandals when they attempt to subdue the Oregon State Beavers, in Spokane, Washington Saturday night.

His half-back sophomore line, he Calland will mix the Cougars' defense against Oregon last Saturday, and likewise during practice this week.

Coch Jacobson's Aggregation Puts On Finishing Touches For Homecoming

ALBION, Oct. 30 (Special to The News)— The three-day football season, from the three days ahead, Coach Jacobson's gridsters are putting the finishing touches on their preparation for the annual homecoming game, scheduled for this coming Saturday, is the only conference game to be played on the home field and the only game to be played on the homecoming saturday, with a victory.

This year, as in previous years, the Albion gridsters are considered as one of the strongest aggregation of the junior college class and the victory, to be expected Saturday, is to be expected Saturday, to 0, Coach Stevenson's team may be expected to put up a strong bid for an unexpected victory.

Kansas City, all-conference end of last year, is going strong this year and is a reliable passer and receiver of passes. Frances, Dodge and Kline, all return, all return, will be with the team.

Two Players Injured

Albion, still smarting under the defeat of last Saturday, will be forced to depend upon its reserves for the remainder of the game. Valentine and Anderson, first string tackle and center, respectively, are out for the season due to injuries received in the last game but they are expected to re-enter today. After the half-backs, will be relied upon for the running and passing for the Teachers with the other backfield positions having not yet returned from the Morris, Villers and Laumer, rangy backs, are expected to repeat their spectacular plays and break up the defense of the Cougars.

Good condition and by their steady playing are making strong bids for berths in the 1931 all-conference team.

Major Idaho Political Parties Appear Confident Of Victory

Gubernatorial Contest Features Hurting and Official of Charges of Frauds

DEMOCRATS AIM FOR CONTROL OF SENATE

Baldridge, Lukens, Thomas, Smith, McMurry and Ross Give Many Addresses

By PRESTON L. GROVER
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
BOISE, Oct. 30—If confident predictions of party officials are any criterion, Idaho next biennium will have two governors, a greatly enlarged Senate, and dual control in the ship of state in almost every function.

"Ben Ross will be elected and take with him a goodly portion of the state ticket," emanates from Democratic headquarters. "Then, when John McMurry will be defeated, comes from Republican headquarters.

And as the campaign moves on to the second decade, the two major parties have launched an expensive drive that contemplates not only putting across the state ticket but also a program of legislation which will permit each to effect such platform planks as call for legislative action.

Democratic Control
Particularly is the Democratic effort being waged to win control of the senate, where the margin in last session was so narrow that the party in power. An effort has been made by the Democrats to defeat John Robertson in Washington county, the only one of the four to take independent stands on several administrative and party measures in the last legislature, aiding with Democratic legislation.

Canyon county has been claimed by a narrow margin by both parties with its issues divided by localism.

Electoral Changes

Canyon county has been claimed by a narrow margin by both parties with its issues divided by localism.

McMurry Charges

New fuel was thrown on the fire when Senator John McMurry, chairman, charged in a statement made public in Boise that Senator

McMurry, Ralph Scatterday, Republican candidate for governor, and Vernon Cannon, Republican candidate for Lieutenant governor, had used a state owned car in their campaign through Twin Falls, and that the charge was the concern of the chairman that "this incident is a clear case of how far a ring will go in handling the people's money and property."

McMurry Explained

McMurry explained the trip as merely a ride in a state car which was given him by the state. In view of whether he went, "I might add," he continued, "I bought the gas."

The Democrats have a unique illustration in support of their cause in the persons of the mayors of three major Idaho cities. Mayor Max Peck of Coeur d'Alene, personally responsible for himself, James P. Pope, mayor of Boise, is standing in organization with W. H. Marion W. Clark, mayor of Idaho Falls, in support of the Ross campaign. Moreover, Marion Clark declared there is considerable likelihood that Nebrascans will vote for Ross. It was stated, W. F. Albrecht, Democratic candidate opposing Smith, is "making every effort to carry on" despite the fact that his son, Fred, a candidate for Bonneville county would send a Democratic delegation to the state election. "He is giving Ross a substantial majority." All the major snake river valley is going for Ross, he insisted.

Republican State Central Committee, in advertising circulated this week, generally over the state, chided the people of the state that they have failed to find anything of importance in the Republican party's administration of 12 years upon which to "be at home."

The Republicans can perhaps schedule calls for speakers taking the stump almost daily for the balance of the campaign. Governor Baldridge and Fred E. Lukens, secretary of state, will swing through North Idaho next week. Senator Frank J. Murphy, former STURGEON BAY COMMITTEE man, Senator McMurry will speak Saturday, October 25, in McCall and on Sunday, October 26, while the speaker will be listed in addresses at other points.

Representative Smith appears two times on the radio, once on the same day as Idaho Falls. He will be at Soda Springs, October 27, Mabel, October 29, American Falls, October 30, and Challis, October 31.

Senator John Thomas will speak from Tampa over the radio October 27, 28, and 29; October 28, and at Idaho Falls October 29.

Maya Ross schedules calls for addresses at Twin Falls, October 1, and at Idaho Falls November 2. The latter part of this week has found him in Western Idaho and tonight in Boise over the radio.

ALL STATES' PARTY LINES SEEM MIXED AS ELECTION NEARS

Diversity Rules Concerning Candidates and Issues and Voters Confront Many Odd Political Situations

EDWARD P. DUFFY

(Associated Press Staff Writer)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Many state where political parties have usually held firm have political jangles now that add uncertainty to outcome of the November 4 election.

Parties stand divided apart. Others where strange situations confront voters include Delaware, Illinois, Alabama, Ohio, Montana, Nebraska and Kansas.

The respective circumstances are as diverse as the candidates involved.

Judging from precedent, one might expect to be able to draw a straight wire of demarcation between the Republicans—Democratic Pennsylvania—and find the latter comparatively few. Such an undertaking there now, in relation to the two major parties, would result in a prickly entanglement.

Reneau Fitchel.

The reason is that all except one of the 10 states where Republicans in Philadelphia have renounced—the party nominees, Clifford Pinchot, in favor of his Democratic-Liberal opponent, Harry C. Hartman.

Thus strengthened to the point of being called a dangerous contender, Hartman in turn has been recruited by two other Democratic gubernatorial nominees.

Pinchot upholds and Hemphill opposes prohibition. The former also has the support of some adherents to the regular Republican organization at times through advocacy of government ownership of power companies.

Turned in Delaware, The tiny neighbor state of Delaware faces a comparable situation. Some prominent Republican opponents of prohibition support former Senator Thomas F. Bayard. Democratic nominating and the Prohibition candidate, Senator Daniel G. Hastings, receive boosts from Democratic politicians.

The All-American mix-up involves two widow and a man well-known for his extreme politeness as well as his antagonism toward dry laws.

Prohibition Issue. Republicans there nominated Representative John W. McCormack, who believes in prohibition. He announced intention to vote on that question, however, in accordance with wishes of the state association of reformers, the "dry" day after "This last hot" political poll.

Mrs. Letitia Holman O'Neill, to become an independent candidate, has termed herself "the only real Republican running."

The Democratic nominee, former Senator James J. Davis, has pledged that thousands of "dry" in his party who would have supported him on other issues would vote for Mrs. O'Neill.

Alabama Democrats have been sending Senator J. Thomas Heflin to Washington more than 23 years, but he is in a quandary over whether to run as an independent or with Republican encouragement.

His opposition to the presidential nomination of Alfred E. Smith in 1928 resulted in his name being ruled off the party primary ballot. John H. Bankhead was nominated but lost. Now the Democrats are backing Heflin instead.

The Democratic ticket in Ohio presents Robert J. Bulkeley, a well-known lawyer, as its candidate for governor. Several Republican newspapers have come out for Bulkeley in preference to Senator George W. Rauch, whose nomination is anti-prohibitionist.

Since the state has twice gone "wet" in referendum, the question of Dry law victory for Heflin has caused speculation.

In Nebraska Senator George W. Norris, the "dry" leader of the Congressional delegation, died in 1928. He had retired among the regular Republicans in his state, who may elect the Democratic candidate, Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock.

Massachusetts voters must choose either Senator Edward M. Kennedy or Marcus A. Coolidge for the gubernatorial election. The former is Republican and "dry" and the latter is Democrat and "wet," giving rise to the odd possibility that the electorate will split its vote on prohibition above party regularity at the polls.

EVERY WOMAN

ought to get all the help she possibly can from that faithful servant, electricity. And mostly that's a matter of making use of up-to-date electrical appliances.

Electricity and electrical appliances are fast taking over burden after burden in the home. Women are turning to the All-Electric Kitchen as the first and most important step in making their homes as modern as the age in which we live.

The All-Electric Kitchen makes the business of housekeeping simpler, easier and more convenient. It provides a clean, cool place in which to work, and it saves women countless hours of time.

In the All-Electric Kitchen electricity performs the three fundamental tasks of housekeeping: Cooking, Water Heating and Refrigeration, better than they can be accomplished by any other method.

THE ALL-ELECTRIC KITCHEN

Frees Women From the Drudgery of Yesteryears and Gives them Beauty, Efficiency, Convenience and Economy In Their Modern Kitchens

Electric Cooking

Freedom; Convenience, Accuracy, Economy and Cleanliness—these benefits and more are enjoyed by women who cook electrically.

No other method of preparing food can measure up to the standards set by electric cooking. This service is so far in advance of other forms of cooking that it has become the accepted method of modern women.

When you cook electrically you are sure of your fuel supply—the current is always there, ready at the mere snap of a switch. There are no matches to build, no matches to strike, no coal, wood or ashes to bother with. It is safe, too, because there is no flame.

Water Heating

You can have a constant supply of hot water in your home at all times if you heat it electrically. There will be ample hot water for bathing, shaving, washing dishes and laundering.

The new type installation is automatic in operation. It turns the current on and off automatically without any attention on your part, and keeps a whole tank or part of a tank of water hot, ready for instant use. All waste of current is eliminated and the cover on the tank prevents loss of heat energy through radiation.

Because of these features electric water heating is not only far superior to any heating system yet devised, but it is also surprisingly economical.

Refrigeration

No other service contributes so much to the well-being of the family as electric refrigeration. Proper refrigeration of food is vital to your health in hot weather and is necessary all the year round.

Electric refrigeration is certain and dependable. It maintains an even dry cold of any desired degree, regardless of outside conditions. It saves money, because it preserves foods perfectly for days and weeks and eliminates waste through food spoilage.

Electric refrigeration is one of the cheapest of major electrical home services. Connection may be made to any light socket and the refrigerator is all ready for operation. It is just as simple as that.

Hallowe'en

Tonight fun-loving, mischievous youth will be in the gory—or is it the skeletons, and if you're gun to go to the halloween through the underworld town and country side of four or two thousand.

Hallowe'en is one of those facts that must be faced. It is an occasion for a good deal of innocent fun and amusement, and its history down through the ages is interesting. In its revealing light on humanity's residence in successive epochs it is thoughts and things that influenced primitive man.

It is the perversion of the spirit's observance that is to be deplored. Too often it serves as an excuse for looting the spirit of vandalism and destruction. That tendency may or may not have been abated appreciably in recent years. At any rate, earnest effort has been devoted toward diversion of energies that in misguided channels cause irreparable damage to treasured possessions and property in general on Hallowe'en.

Prudence, though, still dictates a policy of preparedness. Careful householders will take care that valuable possessions are safely stored away, and that adequate guard is placed about other things likely to be damaged. The community at large demands protection, and the law responds with augmented forces of police.

Domestic, somewhere, maybe, when the signs of panic-stricken have gone for in their way, youth may yet bring the surprise by peremptorily forbidding to pass through overpasses or houses, food to be had gratis. That time may pass now, but still it will be well to be prepared for the recurrence of Hallowe'en with all its accustomed terror.

TOPSY-TURVY THINKING

There is good sense in what a director and former finance chairman of General Motors says:

"The time for pessimism was eighteen months ago. Optimism should now be the order of the day."

Some business leaders and writers were telling people that, eighteen months ago, they'd better get out of business or they'd be in deep trouble. That time has passed now, but still it will be well to be prepared for the recurrence of Hallowe'en with all its accustomed terror.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (7)—The stock market dragged through a slow and orderly decline yesterday, but was not affected by the speculative commodity, wheat, corn and cotton. Bonds, especially railroads and United States Government securities, registered advances.

To account for the heaviest declines in stocks, analysts said, was the realization that foreign tax laws were duted off, but it turned to a wide acceptance that did the short selling.

Investors had a goodly share of the news on their side and have again become moderately active, although the market has been under a heavy downward pressure for some time.

The market contained numerous weak spots in the utilities, which had been the chief leaders of the market, as well as in railroads, which are high as 11 points. Active utilities, individuals and railroads held their losses for the most part within 1 to 3 points, while the market leaders, yesterday, failed to reach 2000-000 shares. The total was 1,837,000.

Chapter 21

THE WRONG NURSE.
Next morning Lester received a letter from Leckett and Sticky regarding a visit from him at his home.

Lester had spent most of the night up and down, he would take it out of its envelope and read it over.

He had forgotten all about "his secret" last night. Almeda had told him to keep quiet. Almeda?

He thought of nothing but this blind, beastly woman who had come to his house and his appetites betrayed his agitation.

"What's his idea?" he asked curiously. "Is he going to tell me where he's been? Is he going to send me the address I'm sure?"

"I'm afraid I'm going to disappoint you, Mr. Brown." "Don't worry about her!"

"Not yet."

"I've wasted my time, it seems. I get someone else."

"I'm afraid, Mr. Brown," the detective was obviously used to this situation—but his failure is more your fault than ours. You asked us to leave him out of town. So there was nothing to do but wait and become good and quiet and helpless. I thought that he might be forever."

It did not actually go off any later than this second week. Exactly two weeks after he had left.

Mr. Lester had found him, at any cost. Mr. Leckett reported that he had found him.

Muttering an overpowering desire to leave, Lester wrote rapidly.

Leckett was evidently right.

Mr. Lester was inclined to expect congratulations.

"In a very difficult place of work," he said, "I must say, I'm very lucky. I have as little to go on as we were ever had. I told our man I thought he'd well. He smiled at Lester and said, "I'm glad you're here, Mr. Lester." "The lady is living under a third name, neither Constance nor Cordelia. She calls herself Shirley. She has a small apartment, Mr. Lester said.

Lester read it. By chance, he happened to remember whereabouts Shirley had come from. Shirley, Nurse Cary had always come to him because she wasn't on her period.

"She booked the passage."

"Indeedly, the purser admits that still, still didn't come aboard at Portland."

"She came aboard?"

"If you ask me, she never meant to. A nurse—on a nurse's income—takes very good care not to take a ship unless she has a definite place to stay in advance. It looks to me as though she'd deliberately thrown the money away, to put you off her trail."

Lester eyed Mr. Leckett and toyed with the idea of writing a small, efficient note on his face.

"Mr. Lester, is that we're dealing with a lady who is taking care not to be found. That's a very different thing from a woman who is trying to get away."

"I'm afraid, Mr. Lester, I don't know whether you want to know or not."

Lester took him seriously with his hat, stared down at the floor. He was silent for so long that Mr. Leckett thought he would never stir.

"She's a thief," Lester said.

"She's a criminal."

"She's a murderer."
