

WRECK THIRTS EIGHT PERSONS NEAR DUBL

Mishap Caused by Snow and Icy Road Involves Two Autos and Farm Wagon

DUBL, Dec. 2 (Special to The News)—Thirty-eight persons were seriously injured at the edge of the city limits here this morning in a car wreck caused by blinding snow and slick road, involving two automobiles and a farm wagon.

According to witnesses, R. O. Cole, Boise, manager of the Idaho State Automobile association, driving a large sedan, and accompanied by two other Boise men who did not give their names, was driving toward Dubl from Twin Falls when he suddenly encountered a farm-wagon loaded with corn and driven by Mike Hambrich, Dubl. Mr. Cole was unable to stop on account of the slick road, he said, and crashed into the wagon.

The force of the impact threw Mr. Hambrich from the seat of the wagon and one of the wheels of the vehicle passed over his body. The team of horses was away.

On account of the sudden blocking of the road, Earl Dunbar, Dubl, who was driving a light sedan from Dubl toward Twin Falls, was unable to stop, his machine striking and crushing into the wagon.

Crushed into the wagon were Mrs. I. E. Roberts, who suffered a fracture of her neck, Mrs. L. C. Oleson, who was killed, Mrs. L. O. Oleson, who was killed, Mrs. L. O. Oleson, who was killed, Mrs. L. O. Oleson, who was killed.

FEAR-RUNS-HIGH IN BRITAIN AS STRIKE MENACE INCREASES

He expressed the opinion that before a national general strike could be called a vote would have to be taken of all mine workers in the British coal fields.

The principal point of issue is the hours of work, the miners objecting to the proposition of the owners that a 40-hour fortnight be introduced. They demand a flat seven-and-a-half-hour day. This owners contend the only realistic way is the hour, "spread-over" system, is a reduction in wages.

SOLONS PUT RELIEF BILLS INTO HOPPER IN VARIOUS FORMS

$150,000,000 emergency funds requested by the president to be used in speeding public buildings construction and inland waterways improvements.

But the outbreak of Democratic opposition in the senate which followed announcement of Mr. Hoover's program assured stormy days ahead on the shaping of unemployment legislation. In statements, the Democrats generally condemned the president for not going farther in his recommendations.

On through relief they appeared to be some record. Both Senator Robinson, Arkansas, the Democratic leader, and Senator McNary, Republican, Oregon, offered bills to provide a $50,000,000 loan fund for farmers in the drought stricken areas to be used in the purchase of seed and fertilizer. As chairman of the agriculture committee, Senator McNary said he would call the group together later in the week to look into the shaping of unemployment legislation. The quick disposition of the controversy over the right of Senator McNary to his seat was cleared the way in the senate for work and it lacked his last immediate step upon leaving the presidential message.

The house bill for regulation of motor bus traffic was taken up under the direction of Senator Coughlin, Republican, Michigan. Several days of debate are ahead on this.

Andy A. Caffey Names Mythical State Elevens As 1930's Gridiron Season Comes To Conclusion In Idaho High Schools

Former Star on Utah Aggie Grid Team and Outstanding Official Offers Selections

Well-Known Figure in Intermountain Athletic Circles Chooses Brilliant Performers with Aid of Coaches and Others and Gives Reasons for Naming Boys on Two Squads

By ANDY A. CAFFEY
(Former Utah Aggie Star and Prominent Sports Official)

Selections for the all-Idaho mythical eleven are those of the writer who has been assisted by the coaches of the high schools of the state and athletic officials who have worked most of the football state played by several of the best during the past season. The writer has expressed the belief that he is offering what he thinks is the best—based on most successful first and second teams that could be selected from the material at hand.—Editor.

FIRST TEAM	POSITION	SECOND TEAM
Reid, Twin Falls	Center	Ellis, Boise
Penry, Parma	Left guard	Moore, Rupert
McKinnin, Boise	Left tackle	Silger, Nampa
Thompson, Nampa	Left end	Elliot, Boise
Wright, Boise	Right end	Walters, Pocatello
Rice, Idaho Falls	Right tackle	Witting, Rupert
Herr, Piler	Right guard	Walters, Pocatello
Boyd, Boise	Right end	Baker, Burley
Holmes, Twin Falls	Halfback	Bremington, Nampa
Holmes, Twin Falls	Halfback	Holmes, Twin Falls
Toran, Twin Falls	Halfback	Wagner, Blackfoot

HONORABLE MENTION

Grant and Porter, Elmer; Hensley, Weaver and Orr, Twin Falls; Elliott, Oakley; McCoy and Kirk, Rupert; Uranga and Blaine, Boise; Beckwith, Fruitland.

By ANDY CAFFEY
The 1930 football season for Idaho schools is all over and Nampa was the crowned victor of state championship. Coach Ellers of Nampa was a fast-charging, lightning electric that never quit and in the last three minutes of play against Idaho scored two touchdowns in a game that Twin Falls had apparently won.

The selections of an all-state team is always a difficult problem but this selection is based on the judgment of coaches, officials and the writer. I know that we are offering as mythical elevens a group of boys who are and who are truly representative of the state.

The Twin Falls was a unanimous choice for the center position. He was the shining light in every game that Twin Falls played. He is an accurate passer, a fast runner, a fast-charging, lightning electric and then there is his great ability to call and break up the offense and you have an ideal center. Smith, Boise, was the unanimous choice because of his all-around play during the season and he is no very fast of feet. Green, Idaho Falls, Parrish, Burley, were also excellent centers but lacked some of the qualities that Reid and Smith possessed.

FIRECRACKERS ECHO IN DISTRICT COURT SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Tom Galley, Hansen, Seeks $5000 From Justice of Peace Who Issued Jail Sentence For Contempt

Firecrackers fired on the street at Hansen on Sunday afternoon, June 23, reentered in district court here yesterday when Tom Galley, 22, Hansen, brought his claim for $5000 damages to trial.

Galley sought damages from Elmo Kerr, Hansen justice of the peace, who sentenced him to forty-five days jail term for contempt of court when he refused to pay $250 fine and costs for violation of Hansen village council's order against shooting firecrackers. Galley, after pleading guilty, denied violation of the council's order.

The justice and his bondsmen, E. M. Pettigrew, state representative, and Peter Loh, remained as defendants, after Hansen village complaint was relieved of possibility of liability by court order based on the ruling that Galley was not liable for acts of his agents.

Seeks Compensation Galley sought $5000 compensatory damages for mental suffering and injury to his reputation, caused by the justice's order. He asked also for $1500 paid to secure release from jail and for fees of his attorney, J. H. Barnes, Twin Falls attorney.

Hansen, Twin Falls attorney, attorney for defendants, filed the motion, according to instructions given and jail term could not have occurred unless Galley's reputation in his own community.

Attorneys clashed frequently and with evidence of Galley's mental suffering last evening. Trial occupied the entire day. The jury, in the absence of reaching an agreement last night, was to return a sealed verdict this morning, according to instructions given by Judge W. A. Babcock, presiding.

SCHOOL GIRL'S CLAIM FOR DAMAGES ON TRIAL

Mary Elizabeth Buckmaster, 10-year-old daughter of W. C. Buckmaster, who was hurt in a fall down an open coal hole at Twin Falls high school building during construction of the new high school gymnasium, filed suit here today when her claim for $5000 damages from J. O. Brennan company, framers of tractors, and builders of the structure, is to be brought to trial.

In her complaint, filed by her father as guardian ad litem, the girl asserts that the coal hole that was left open and unguarded during the noon hour when her accident occurred was two feet in diameter and 15 feet deep. In the fall, she says, her left arm was broken, her right arm sprained, her left jawbone shattered and three teeth knocked out and her face and mouth lacerated. Claim is made for $5000 besides $1500 for medical and $150 for nursing.

The construction company, represented by Frank L. Stephan and John Wilson, Pauling and Stierberger, denies any liability for the girl's mishap, asserting that she came on the premises without invitation and without authorization.

The girl is to be represented by J. W. Jordan and O. W. Williams.

B. Sloan, past grand orator. O. D. Lindsey has served as master of the lodge during the past year, with A. S. Miller as secretary. Work in the second degree of the order is to be recapitulated at a special meeting of the lodge on Friday evening.

DEEP SNOW MAKES HIGHWAY SLIPPERY

Roads Over Southern Idaho Remain Open and Passable Despite Heavy Fall

The white mantle of snow which covered southern Idaho yesterday has so far interfered with traffic only insofar as it rendered highways unusually slippery. The snow was damp and packed rapidly, and as there was no wind, no drifting accompanied or followed the storm.

If A. Sanders, Shoshone, office engineer of the state bureau of highways said at 10:30 o'clock last night that he had heard no reports of road trouble anywhere within the district, which extends from the Nevada state line to Salmon, as a result of the storm yesterday. He said that if the highway had been blocked during the day yesterday, information to that effect would have been received at the office. He said that, while possible, the road between Arco and Mackay was probably not packed because of rough condition. Only about half an inch of snow fell at Shoshone yesterday, Mr. Sanders said.

Lewis Coeckner, maintenance foreman for the section of the Oregon trail from the Cassia county line to a point 10 miles west of Buhl, and the state highway from Buhl to Castford, said that conditions all the way were similar to those around Twin Falls. The highways were slippery but there was no drifting.

J. D. Gilmore, district engineer of the Twin Falls highway district, said under the jurisdiction of the district were all passable, though slippery. There was less snow in the Hollister district than in Twin Falls when he visited there yesterday, he said, but the snowfall there might have been heavier later, he declared. Stages east and west were running again yesterday on both the Nevada and the Idaho routes. The stage on the Twin Falls

Wells left yesterday at 8:30 A. M. in charge of J. L. Perumala. A telegram to the office here said that he had arrived on time and that the road was good, but that it was snowing. The Twin Falls-Shoshone stage arrived about two hours late, due to slippery roads.

INTERTEMPERANCE FIGURES IN ACTION FOR DIVORCE

Intemperance and cruelty are alleged by Mrs. Helen Ramsey in a suit started in district court here yesterday for divorce from Robert F. Ramsey, to whom she was married at Virginia City, Montana, August 27, 1917. Ramsey, now a resident of Elko, Nevada, has agreed to share the custody of their two-year-old and look after him until he attains his majority. Mrs. Ramsey made in her petition for divorce, his reputation in this section by E. W. Larson, Twin Falls attorney.
