

TAX PAYMENTS IN COUNTY FLOW IN GREATER VOLUME

Treasurer's Records Show Collections Greater by $10,000 Now Than Last Year; City Lowers Levy

The money is flowing into Twin Falls county treasury in greater volume than last year, last according to figures given out last evening at the office of the county treasurer and tax collector.

Real property tax collections on account of 1930 taxes in this city total up to date $1,100,000, or $10,000 more than last year's total collections on account of 1929 taxes on the corresponding date of last year, according to records of the county auditor's office. The figure shows collection this year greater by $10,000 than last year's collections at the corresponding date.

Collection now is being made at the county treasurer's office of 1930 real property taxes in the amount of half of which will become delinquent after Saturday, December 20.

Records indicate that a greater proportion of the taxes paid in this year is paying the entire tax, instead of only the first installment at this time. The second installment may be deferred to next June.

The county treasurer has charged on his return a total of $1,400,000 to date to collection, compared with last year's $1,320,000 total, an increase this year of $80,000, included in taxes collected by the county, school districts, highway districts and school districts, together with a number of special assessments and other taxes, including extensives taxes on the sale of numerous trees and, in Twin Falls, for spraying of trees to combat pests.

The county treasurer will collect this year street sprinkling and other assessments totaling between $100,000 and $120,000, making this year's total of approximately $400,000 that included the final assessment for street paving.

The treasurer, under terms of state law adopted some six years ago, is responsible for collection of special city assessments and local assessments, including all other taxes on real property, being payable at the county treasurer's office.

PIONEER STOCKMAN'S ESTATE GOES TO WIDOW

Under terms of the will of the late Harry Jones, northeast Idaho pioneer stockman and banker, the bulk of his estate, estimated at $100,000 and livestock interests in Owyhee and Twin Falls counties, is bequeathed to his widow, Mrs. Ruth Jones, who is 80 years old. The will also provides for the payment of his son's debts.

No estimate has been put on the value of the estate. The will, which was executed by Mr. Jones in 1926, was probated for probate in circuit court here yesterday by Frank L. Stephen, attorney for the executrix. It provides for the payment of debts of his son and three daughters. Mr. Jones died last October.

R. C. Davis, attorney of Mr. Jones' widow, said the late twin Idaho pioneer, whose death occurred at Kimberly last November, had a large estate, including as administrator of his estate, included in the estate is an entire block of Black One in Kimberly that he had owned for many years, together with community interests in land and other property in Owyhee county and one-half interest in 1800 cattle. At the time of his death he had five sons and two daughters. Mr. Jones is represented by C. W. North, attorney.

Mr. Jones' widow, Mrs. J. C. Davis, of Greys Butte, college, Twin Falls, whose death occurred last December 5, included that institution in her will, together with the house she owned in the north, together with a large amount of life insurance, according to E. E. A. Anderson, attorney for the wife. Mr. Anderson said his client has filed petition in probate court for appointment as administrator of the estate. Heres besides the widow are two daughters, 8 and 10 years old.

GROWTH PLEASE SCOUT EXECUTIVE

John H. Piper Finds Increase In Snake River Area Satisfactory for Year 1930

Declaring that the Northwestern region of the Boy Scouts of America allows the largest per capita membership in the country, John H. Piper, Spokane, scout executive, who arrived here yesterday, praised the growth of the movement in the Snake River area during the first nine months of the current year.

Mr. Piper said that he hoped to see a number of scouts from the first class as the tendency is for scouts who fail to do so, drop out after a while. The regional executive said that the growth of the movement in the area is now extending in many parts of the country, especially on the coast, plains, mountains, deserts, swamps, rivers, lakes and water. If they are near a river, lake or pond. They do not enter the organization until must pass examinations in swimming and life saving before they are permitted to enter a boat to sail against the current.

Mr. Piper is proud of the value of scouting as an aid to practical work, pointing to the fine record made by the organization in national parks, which has been pronounced superior to the work of the park service bureau.

Mr. Piper will attend the annual meeting of the Snake river area council at the Rogerson hotel here tonight.

Talking Pictures Remove Necessity For Hundreds Of Extras

SOUNDS INSTEAD OF SIGHT NOW CREATE EFFECT OF CROWDS

"Off-Stage Voice" Replaces Mob, Army or Pageants in Latest Productions

THRONGS STILL GET JOBS OCCASIONALLY

CONTINUOUS UNEMPLOYMENT OF MINOR-PART PLAYERS IN HOLLYWOOD FORCES NEW LABORS

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 13.— To Hollywood's legions of extras the "talkies" are playing the role of an unemployment villain.

And this foremost reason that fewer extras are needed is that sound, with its deceptive microphone, has taken the place of sight.

The bawling voices of 200 extras at a time were made to sound like 10,000 revolutionaries charging King's castle.

So it is that the extra's lot has been reduced to off-stage voices that are not seen or heard by the eyes of silent.

Figures show what has happened:

In the first big year of the picture, 1930, there were 20,000 extras divided approximately 21,000 days work a month among them—two days apiece.

In the second year of the talkies registered extras had increased to 17,000—but there were only 22,000 job months.

And this year there are just 11,000 extras, but many calls have dropped to 5,000.

And mob, the army, the pageant, the march, the band, the cabaret, the spectacles common to silent pictures have not passed entirely.

But although the military was not ordered out, some of the most vital efforts required by the under-the-skin departmentalized an open eye to weak spots.

Twilight, however, for the first time in a long period, the studio departments declined to comment on the situation.

Stills, which were reported as being in the doldrums as before the declaration of suspension of guarantees seemed to exert an immediate pacifying effect and no longer caused any trouble.

But although the military was not ordered out, some of the most vital efforts required by the under-the-skin departmentalized an open eye to weak spots.

Twilight, however, for the first time in a long period, the studio departments declined to comment on the situation.

The president thought enough a difference to the rumors which said he would quit.

"I have not resigned," he declared, "and I am not thinking of resigning."

Dr. Richard Horner, minister of health, said he had no objection to Machado's resignation.

But these figures, not so impressive from the extra's standpoint, they only mean that a few days' work a month are available now as did three years ago.

It is the average extra, the $75-a-day worker who has been seriously affected.

Continuous unemployment has forced extras to adopt varied side-lines to make a living while awaiting the return of work.

Some are compassing salvation, and one has a supply of clothing he wants to others. And others go to locate old friends, relatives or neighbors to sell needles and thread, candy and cigarettes to fellow players.

Many girls pose for commercial artists, and others do odd jobs. A few have become domestics or clerks until they have saved enough money to tide them over between picture jobs.

One man has what is undoubtedly Hollywood's champion act in the hole—a trained alpaca that he rents to studios for $50 a day—some days.

Airplane and Farm Keep Stribling Busy Between Battles

Georgian Adds to "Air Hours" and Helps Run Estate

Heavyweight Contender and Veteran Flier Aids Father On 1500-Acre Ranch or Rides in Speedy Vehicles

(By the Associated Press)
ACON, Ga., Dec. 11.—
M Young Stribling, who fights "Tuffy" Griffith at Chicago December 12, is in the busy bee of the fight industry.

Training for his myriad hours does not take up all "Strib's" time. Among his many jobs the heavy-weight contender helps his father manage the family estate; aids in running the Stribling farm at Oacon, which covers 1500 acres; helps run his father's racing stable; flies his plane "up air hours" in his spare time.

The farm consists of 1500 acres, planted in cotton, corn and cane. There are 1000 cattle, 100 hogs and about 500 hens. "Strib" looks after the plantation.

Stribling usually drives over and over again in his car and goes riding on his horse, "Big Boy," raising up after a long workout to climb aboard the sled and do some stunts.

In addition four airplanes since he became interested in aviation several years ago.

When not flying or working on the farm, "Strib" and his wife, the former Carolyn, straddle a motorcycle and hunts for a hard road with plenty of curves. They follow the major peaks and their trails.

There's a tennis court at the house and whenever he's at his Macon home Stribling plays basketball with a city team.

He was recently elected a member in the air corps reserves.

W. L. (Young) Stribling, heavyweight contender, also a veteran flier, is shown with his son, W. L., third, tinkering with his newest plane.

Stribling Awaits Gerald Griffiths

Boxing Association Expects to Match Winner Against Max Schmeling

CHICAGO, Dec. 11 (AP)—Just how business tycoon Andrew Griffiths, the tough youth from Sioux City, Iowa, has in the heavyweight championship scheme will be determined Saturday night at the Civic Auditorium.

W. L. (Young) Stribling, Macon, Georgia, in the Celico stadium.

Stribling by his quick returns and lightning punches has built himself a real record among the heavyweights that only a good sound defeat can dent.

He has been in-and-out, going well against some good fighters and going into reverse against some others.

The National Boxing association has hinted that the winner will be chosen for a heavyweight championship fight between Stribling and both Stribling and Griffiths easier to be first in line in case of a tie.

Griffiths in turn, although usually plodding, has won his bouts by a knockout after another and today had reached a pitch of belligerency as to be unpredictable.

He has been in-and-out, going well against some good fighters and going into reverse against some others.

The fact that the Georgia has taken it easy in training has not given him a hold on the favor of the water-gentry, who have made him a 3-to-1 choice.

Chicago Man and New Yorker Win In Cue Contests

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 (AP)—Erwin Rudolph, Chicago, and Frank Taubert, Schenectady, New York, pocketed victory in the world's pocket billiards championship tournament here this afternoon.

Rudolph scored his second straight victory in the 100th annual billiards tournament, Oregon 125 to 80, in 20 innings. Rudolph had a high sum of 31; Bouquet one of 10.

Taubert, a former champion, beat Arnold Allen, Kansas City, 125 to 65 in 17 innings. Taubert closed out the tournament with a 125 to 80 win over the best cluster of the day.

Allen's best effort was a run of 12.

Taubert had won his first two games and lost his last two, but Rudolph and Taubert each had suffered three straight defeats.

The second game marked a victory over Ethan Nielsen, Danish amateur by a 24-to-20 count. D. Clemens, with 15 points, was high point man for the tournament.

The first game of the 100th pits resulted in a defeat by the score of 20 to 24. Handicapped by a sprained knee, the college team was at the short end of a 20-to-6 score at the half. Robert A. Shuler's shooting accounted for most of the damage.

The National Billiards association has hinted that the winner will be chosen for a heavyweight championship fight between Stribling and both Stribling and Griffiths easier to be first in line in case of a tie.

Griffiths in turn, although usually plodding, has won his bouts by a knockout after another and today had reached a pitch of belligerency as to be unpredictable.

Baseball Majors And Minors Split Over Draft Rule

Controversy Over Much-Disputed Question Blasts Relations Between Two Divisions of Baseball

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
(Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Relations between the majors and the minors in baseball were blasted far apart today by the controversy over the universal draft, and organized baseball faced its first open warfare since the days of the Federal League.

Bubbling over with wrath, the commissioners of minor league baseball and the Pacific coast and international leagues stormed out of a joint meeting with representatives of the National and American leagues late this afternoon, determined to continue their efforts to keep baseball "without any relation whatever with the majors."

The break came when the national and Pacific leagues agreed to a proposal to make baseball a 15-year weight champion in a 15-round bout in Madison Square Garden.

Strange rumors about the "box" have been afoot for some time. After ploughing through all opposition, which included a setback in the Senate, the bill was introduced by Rep. Fred H. Hildebrand, of Illinois, and was forced to accept the first defeat of the year.

"I came right with Fidel LaRuba, former heavyweight champion," LaRuba pointed out, "and I think he would like to see baseball go on with this type of attack, and gallantly off with the decision by the lawmakers."

"I am not longer can take a pounding about the body, it will disintegrate in short order."

The opening of baseball definitely is the responsibility of the national and international leagues, and they are allowed to select players from Class AA teams—teams in the American association, Pacific coast and international leagues.

It was agreed that the national and Pacific leagues each will have four years of experience in the leagues of lower classification. On the basis of the quality of play of the national and international leagues, the committee reached to agreement.

The major leagues offered $1000 for each drafted player, a drop of $10,000 from the original figure, and the national conference, while the minors asked for $10,000.

As a final note, the minor leagues will take part in the Class AA club, president of the San Francisco club, offered to place the organization in the lands of the Colorado Rockies.

Kearnes M. Landis, with understanding that both sides were to be satisfied, agreed to the plan. The major league committee refused to accept this offer and the minor leaguers marched out of the meeting in a whirlwind storm.

Jules Lassonde, France's crack middle distance runner, hopes to come to the United States to go after some of the underdog records.

Cochran Betters World's Record

CHICAGO, Dec. 11 (AP)—Walter Cochran bettered his own world record for high runs at 11-181 held by Jimmie Hayes, 100 to 181, in one minute, in the first block of their six block.

Cochran's recognized record, made in championship competition, is 100. Hayes won the leg and ran 15, only to have Cochran go out in an tuning.

By JOHN L. COUDLEY

(Associated Press) — The level of share prices dipped into new lower levels for the bear market yesterday, but failure of the Bullish Blockade to hold off the market's natural shoves to venture under their previous low brought a swift change in the last hour, and net losses at the finish were mostly par-

Bonds were again under pressure.

The market was still under the influence of the wave of persistent selling which has been in progress since the last market's opening.

Stocks, however, had quotations
