GRANGE CONVENTION AT BURLEY ADOPTS MANY RESOLUTIONS

Twenty-third Annual Session Comes to Close in Wee Hours of Morning and Delegates Turn Homeward

(Special to the News) BURLEY, Jan. 30 (AP)—Contingent of resolutions, a session of more than 12 hours' duration in the wee hours of Friday morning the Idaho State Grange closed its twenty-third annual meeting in Burley, today. The 425 delegates and visitors returned to their homes in all parts of the state after four days here at the largest convention in history of the organization in Idaho.

Hours of debate and discussion on some hundred questions resulted in the passage of 18 major resolutions, State Master W. V. Peet said with the executive board the greater part of the day to wind up the quasi-affairs of the session.

Resolutions passed were:

- ROADS—that the state Grange of Idaho should take steps to encourage the formation of a road commission to develop market roads through the state; asking the legislature to appropriate $1,000,000 for completion of arterial highways now started; that a state highway commission be formed by the legislature.
- TAXES—the Grange reiterated its stand for a graduated income tax for a state-wide school tax, and for a tax on luxuries. The Dodge plan was adopted, but the bill will not be introduced until after the completion of the arterial highway now started; that a state highway commission be formed by the legislature.
- CONSOLIDATION—The Grange urged and requests the legislature to consolidate all local governments as are necessary for the consolidation of county units in the state to reduce the cost of county government.
- EDUCATION—that members of the state board of education and the state superintendent of public instruction be given the right to inspect schools and that such inspections shall be done at the request of voters of counties involved.
- EDUCATION—that members of the state board of education and the state superintendent of public instruction be given the right to inspect schools and that such inspections shall be done at the request of the state superintendent be retained; that the office of the state commissioner of education be abolished.

MOTION PICTURES—The Grange also asked that the legislature make an investigation of pictures that reflect the "Hill of Bitterness."

PRIMARY—that the state bill number 2 known as Idaho state-wide primary bill be passed without amendments.

MUNICIPAL POWER—that cities and towns which have municipally owned utilities in special fields and use the same to the full extent necessary for purchasing, maintaining and operating such power.

LAWMAKERS—The Grange favored the law which limits the length of freight train cars.

RECLAMATION—It favored the immediate action of congress authorizing the construction of the Union Pacific Canal, however, with the understanding that the irrigation districts be borne equally by the owner, the county and the state.

HIGHWAY CUT-OFF—The Idaho-Oregon highway cut-off was endorsed by the Grange, which was asked to co-operate in forwarding the project.

IRRIGATION—urged the election of irrigation districts made of property owners in said districts.

DAMAGES—they went on record in favor of the Grange's proposal persons given free transportation on highways as no right to damages in case of injury.

NOXIOUS WEEDS—The Grange urged further investigation of discrimination of gasoline prices; they opposed changes in hunting and trapping laws; they favored general freedom of speech and general freedom of press, and also oppose any increase in the cost of hunting licenses.

GIANT GERMAN PLANE PREPARES FOR FLIGHT

LAUSON, Portugal, Jan. 30 (AP)—The giant German plane which will start at daybreak tomorrow, if all goes well, on the first leg of its experimental flight to South America, has arrived in Lisbon aboard a crew of 12.

The big plane will fly over the Island of Madeira, dropping a bag of mail to the island, then cross the Canary Islands, in the afternoon.

There will remain overnight while the motors are being checked and gasoline supplies taken on.

MOOSKINS—FRATERNITY BOARD CONSIDERS RULES

MOSCOW, Idaho, Jan. 30 (AP)—This should be good news for long-suffering college fraternities: house rules are being considered.

Representatives on the University of Idaho inter-fraternity council are considering a proposal that deferred house rules until the fall semester board bills are not paid. Fred Goss, Bonners Ferry, president of the council, admitted today that he could not predict the success of the proposal.

University authorities have not given an opinion.

Senator Heflin Pounces on Change to Hear Veneration Upon Mussolini

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP)—President Coolidge, "an ardent Protestant," Major General Smedley D. Butler, Philadelphia speech tonight, said the Senate had voted to postpone consideration of the controversial bill.

WICHITA, Jan. 30 (AP)—The day of the heavy black bugger and the fair trout has gone from Idaho even from county fair.

Farm managers meeting here today reported only three fair conditions, and the possibility of a new state fair in the future.

Kirby, who has been in the state since his flight from Philadelphia, was reported to have returned to John George Phillips, friend of Vincent Mangeron, deputy United States marshal, said a man answering the door of the state fair association office.

In the Senate, Heflin, who was

He said exactly like Mussolini had lied, "I stood here three years ago and related stories of Italian Massacre before murdered members of Mussolini. There were no Italian Massacres," he said.

SEARCHERS TOIL FOR 26 HOURS IN BAD WEATHER TO BEACH PLANE WRECK AND RETURN

PORLTAND, Jan. 30 (AP)—The searchers who combed the hillsides of the rugged, rocky mountain last week, was brought out early today by a rescue party that labored for 26 hours in the bad weather to bring the wreckage of the plane down and return to Boise.

The wreckage was located at 4:30 A. M. Jan. 29 in the hills west of Portland, evidently confused by the fog. The first indication came Wednesday when Al Davis, Vandy pilot, sighted the wrecked plane.

Portland police reached the plane yesterday, but the wreckage was scattered in the cockpit. Its dashboard clock had stopped at 7:07 P. M.

Searchers said Davis' nose was broken and his left arm was severed, and he had suffered a skull fracture. Both legs were broken in several places.

All mail carried was found intact.

THREE ROBBERS DIE IN COLORADO PRISON

Trio Responsible for Death of Deputy Sheriff After Manter Hold-up Hang

CANON CITY, Colo., Jan. 20 (AP)—Three bank bandits were executed at the state prison here yesterday after serving their life spans from which pursued them from Kansas into Colorado, Texas, Oklahoma and finally Kansas, in March, 1929.

The trio was composed of John Walker, Andrew Halliday and George Wright.

Two brothers of one of the robbers after their capture near Jellico, Kan., about 24 hours ago, were held yesterday under guard in the same gaol of their fate, the three men of two of them in their early twenties when they were captured, having come to the gallows calmly.

Bar News permanent.

The state law enforcement department, which has the details of execution, "News permanent" is barred from the death chamber.

Warden Frank E. Crawford said the condemned men had been hanged between 8:40 P. M. and 9:57 P. M.

Ray was the first of the trio to die, contrary to the usual custom of having been a previous arrangement that Walker would go first. Halliday was hanged second and Walker last.

Warden Crawford announced that Ray had been subjected to the hanging machine, while in that noose he had been suspended by his feet upward from the floor—at 8:40 P. M., Halliday at 9:30 and Walker at 9:57.

The hangings were, that, the judges in time will represent in large part the views of the country, the men being responsible for the crime.

Recently the prison administration curtailed even the small amount of time allowed the condemned man to speak. Previously they had announced an hour required for a condemned man to prove his innocence.

"The condemned man is responsible for the ruling," observed Crawford. "They raised a question about how long it took up to hang a man."

Res. Admiral de St. Leger, permanent chief of staff; Capt. James C. Moore, commanding officer, coast guard cutter New York; Res. Admiral Phelps, commanding of the Portuguese naval mission; Capt. Charles H. Taylor, head of the plane division, navy department; Res. Admirals Davy and Blakesley, both men.

Report of the Board of Inspection of first training at the navy department; and Major General John H. Pendleton, commanding corps, retired, Cincinnati, Calif.

Captain William G. Wall, chief of staff of the fourth naval district, San Francisco, was promoted to rear admiral, posthumously, for his services during the war.

Friends of Butler conferred, meantime, that he was expected to be named president. They later expressed an expectation that John W. Davis, former Democratic presidential nominee, would be chosen.

Butler remained at Quanton, Virginia, where he was commandant until yesterday. He was reported to have been ill.

Officers there said he was keeping to his home and would not talk for publication.

Builder Predicts New Speed Mark For Smith's Car

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 30 (AP)—Norman (Wibard) Smith, Australia's crack racing driver, should easily break the record for the fastest speed he makes this attempt next March, believes Don Mackness, builder and designer of the machine.

Smith, 30, who has driven 1,000 miles at a stretch, is now in Sydney, Australia, and has a new car.

His machine has a 12-cylinder Napier engine of the Schneider cup type, lent under promise of return, and is built for racing in Australia. It does 1700 horsepower.

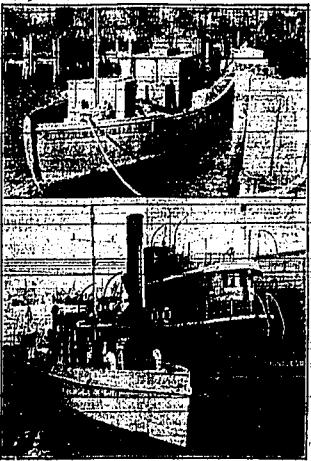

The chassis is long and low, with great rider-like facilities to assist steering and to make the car a true racing machine, the name "The Flyer" Stewart—in compliment—to the wealthy Sydney omnibus owner who made funds available for its construction.

The car is to race to travel 100 miles an hour in first gear, 1000 feet above sea level in third gear.

The streamlined machine is nearly completed now and is said to incorporate several secret mechanical innovations.

Wright's expertise is drawn out for the novel. In addition to modeling "Devil Judd" after the officer Fox is said to have named the book after, he also based the character of Governorians near Wright's home not far from Pound, Virginia.

As a young man Wright had participated in the famous Wright brothers' flight experiments, and many were killed. Whether he helped save some of them is not known.

In his last years never discarding his flying gear, Wright would sit in front of the dog with him on sunny days and try to draw out the memory of his first flight.

BURLEY RESIDENTS JOIN FOR SOCIALS

Club, Church and Card Parties Enliven Week, In Seat of Cassia County

BURLEY—Jan. 30 (Special to The News)—Burley folks enjoyed many social activities this week. Lodge, church and club events predominated.

The University Guild met Wednesday evening with Miss Martha Hansen in the Remond apartment with a splendid program. Guests were Mrs. Alice Clark and Mary Catherine Terhune. The lesson was a discussion of the work of the Red Cross. Miss Clark and Terhune were present on the awarding of the Nobel prize to Sinclair Lewis. A review of "Main Street" was given by Mrs. Alice Clark. Another of her regular books, "Mun Test," was reviewed by Mrs. Eva Smith. The next meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. M. H. King.

The Statewide War Memorial Improvement association entertained with a delightful party at the church Tuesday evening. The program was "The Making." It was presented by a well-trained cast. Following the play dancing was enjoyed in the amateur style. The old songs were given with each one playing several selections on the piano and dancing. Contemporary music was also played. These realistic renditions made much month.

Mrs. Margaret Hill conducted a recital during the week featuring her younger pupils. The mothers were invited to the concert. Refreshments and children play. A prize was given to Leroy Parikh for the best-worried mother. The program included the evening of a recital of the older pieces given when each one played several selections on the piano and danced. Contemporary music was also played. These realistic renditions made much month.

Mrs. B. F. Bartlett was honored as a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The group displayed at three with high score honor going to Mrs. Margaret Horner and Mrs. Fred Kunkel. Mrs. N. W. Clark, Mrs. C. E. Johnson and Mrs. W. R. Clark. Other guests in the club were Mrs. Pascal Adams and Mrs. S. B. Andrew. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.
