ROOSEVELT ORDER STARTS PROBE OF WALKER'S RULE

Inquiry Into Efficiency of Work of Thomas Crain Leads to Further Action.

Gotham Mayor Soon Returns From Vacation in California, to Face Charges

By MARK BARRON
AMERICAN HERALD CORRESPONDENT
NEW YORK, April 4.—The dictatorial tiger of Tammany hall, for the first time since 1892, stands desperately fighting for the power which has always given it a vice-like grip upon the political destinies of New York City.

Following a revelation of irregularities in the records of vice companies in the records of vice company, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt ordered an inquiry to determine the effect of the new administration by legislative mandate.

Chances of Revolt Against Mayor Walker's administration had been gathering for months, but a California resort. A CHICAGO committee presented a petition to Governor Roosevelt asking an investigation of the work of the Crain-Crane-Crane.

While the governor was withholding action on the charges, the legislature went ahead and passed a bill to send him to trial. Led by Senator John Knight, the majority leader, a measure was passed calling for experimental legislation.

Tammany is calling together its leaders to see what can be done.

Not since the Jerry Altschuler-Tammany era has the subject of such a fearful and malignant attack. The circumstances surrounding the proposal are of New York politics today oddly coincided with the details of that 1892 debacle.

As a result, the Rev. Peter Parker, who led the fight upon Rich and Cranes and his Tammany cohorts. And today it is two members—John J. Quinn and James E. Tammie, both Stephen G. Wise—who are carrying the fight to Mayor Walker.

In both cases, when the charges were made, the Cranes had been excluded. Cranes, claiming ill health, hurriedly called for treatment. Quinn, Mayor Walker also claimed he had to leave his private car for the sun-drenched sands of California.

There is another parallel between 1892 and 1931 which may offer some moral. In both years there happened to be a financial depression and unemployment and distress among the poor and child problems facing the municipal government.

The Rev. Parker was determined to overthrow Tammany—and he did, too—because New York was then a "wid-open" town.

The Rev. Quinn, like Walker, claims that he has been incompetent, inefficient and futile. They say that he has been wasteful of the public money and that he has been guilty of corruption in officials subject to removal by him, and that he has permitted investigations to Jade him.

Walker answers them with "unquestionably my administration is a

James J. Walker (right), Tammany mayor of New York City, will return from his California vacation to find Tammany hall facing the first real threat to its power in 39 years, as Samuel Siebury (left), circuit judge, begins a searching investigation into the Walker administration by legislative mandate.

THREE CHILDREN DROWN WHILE WADING IN POND

MARYSVILLE, Calif., April 4 (AP)—Three children drowned while wading in a pond near here yesterday.

The children, who did not know how to swim, were Marie, 4, and her brother Howard Nutt, aged 11, and a 6-year-old girl, Jeanie.

They were swimming in a pond near their home when they got into trouble.

Stephen J. Richards, a member of the Twelve, declared his faith in the Twelve's declaration of faith.

He chose to go to jail.

SHOCHEONE CHAMBER SETS JUBILEE DATE

Event Commemorates Completion of Canal and Railroad Anniversary Program

SHOCHEONE. April 4 (Special to The News)—The date, July 18, has been set as the date for starting Idaho's "Reclamation Jubilee." This date was determined at the local chamber meeting held last week.

Two features are to be included—Dedication of the 44-mile canal reaching from Minidoka dam to the Wood River, and the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the coming of the railroad to Wood River valley. The committee on finances includes Dr. W. C. Charles, U. Aliy and W. H. Murphy.

Band concerts and similar features will probably be staged. A speaking program, featuring speakers, discourses, and athletic contests will be some of the headline features.

RUPERT CHURCHES HOLD GOOD-FRIDAY SERVICES

RUPERT. April 4 (Special to The News)—Union Good-Friday services at the Trinity Episcopal church last evening were attended by members of all congregations of the city. Pastors

Russets On April Deal

CHICAGO, April 4 (Special to The News)—Trading in potato futures on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange reached a new record yesterday with a volume record of 711 cars, this figure bringing the total trading for the year to 18,200 cars.

April trade showed a considerably steeper toward the close of the month, although a slight upward development in the last week was evident due to the return of warm weather and cold weather during the equinoctial period.

Chicago prices showed a 10 cent advance compared to the close of February.

There was a return price bulge last week, however, which carried the price up to $1.75. Buying activity in heavy form was aroused by reports that a considerable shortage of russets had developed.

Trading was at a standstill.

The body lies at the Grosvenor funeral parlor in Twin Falls where funeral services will probably be held next Tuesday.

Tiger Manager Tests and Approves Schang, Veteran Catcher

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND
(Associated Press Writer)
ACRAMENTO, Calif., April 4. — The scene is more like spring training time of the Detroit Tigers.

Crack of fungo bat; the swish of cleats cutting turf and the shouts of players blend into a din that's practically the melody of baseball.

The gray-haired older is Wally Schang, catcher with close to two decades of service behind him. Of the Detroit Tigers, he's the oldest, whip of the Tigers, referee.

"To me there is a man who is one of the marvels of baseball. He's 39 years old and he's still playing ball—and 20 years—Look at him go!—He's that perky type. Not a bad team to see. He's anxious for his turn at bat, at anybody on the team. Every day he works like a horse. He wants to get a medal for running but he still has a smile on his face."

Wally Schang is a good player, even on a pop-up. He runs the young pitchers along as if that was his special job.

Ligid Test

There is an interesting story connected with Schang joining our club. The Philadelphia Athletics manager, Harry C. Karcher, who had come out to see him, sat up on a bench. You know, the same system a worn-out user when she has had a dozen years of service behind him. Our agreement with Schang was that if we were satisfied with his work, he would get a job with us.

Well, Wally Schang is enough to make me quit writing about our catching staff. I figure on Schang to split up the work behind the plate.

Two youngsters who happen to be brothers, Hubby and Gerald Wahl, also have caught the eye of the Athletics manager. They are members of the League club. Hubby is a center fielder and Gerald plays in right.

They came up from Evansville, Indiana, League club, controlled by the Tigers.

Believe it or not, performances of the Walkers brought the manager to tears.

"I couldn't bear to see them kept out of the regular lineup."

Neither has had previous major league experience, but both appear to be natural baseball men.

JACKET ENSEMBLE WINS FAVOR FOR DAY AND EVENING

Women Wear Long or Short Models, Fitted or Straight, During Spring for Every Occasion, Sports or Balls

By BARBARA BEAUFORT
 Associated Press Fashion Editor
PARIS, April 4 — The jacket ensemble is back again this spring for both casual and moregulf styles.

Jackets here are short, fitted or straight, matching or contrasting with the frock in color, will be worn by smart women this spring for every occasion from sport to ball.

In Paris, the jacket is the first warm day's emblem, plaid, prints and checks with plain colors.

brown cotton dress has sleeveless bodice and a cinched waist with black crepe skirt and pink and black figure-hugging blouse is finished with a three-quarter coat of matching black lace.

Casual jackets, like those for petite ensembles a favorite in the fashion parade. A brown and white shadow jacket with wide front is shown here.

The combination of white jacket with black skirts or frocks is one of the smartest in the mode. White blouses and jackets are worn with dark skirts; grey and scarlet neckties are worn with black broadcloth skirts, while waist-length jackets of white satin or angel's skin are paired with dark slacks.

Sleeveless jackets are also in fashion, finished with both afternoon and evening frocks.

The sports mode displays numberless variations of the jacket, worn with brown and white plaid jackets, leaf-green jersey frocks flecked with dark green leaves and cardigan sweaters, and with dark blue and dark blue-grey and scarlet neckties. The worsted are finished with red or dark blue jackets.

SPRING BRING WRAPS OF QUILTED LAME

PARIS, April 4 — Quilted lame coats of quilted lame are a new evening wrap for early spring. They are made of both gold and silver lame, striped from collar to hem like the plaid jacket above. They are knee-length, designed with flared standing collars and flounces, allover.

QUEEN'S EARRINGS HOLD TINY PAINTINGS

LONDON, April 4 — Queen Mary's new earrings may start a trend in jewelry. Each earring encloses a tiny miniature of Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret. They are set with aquamarines.

PATENT LEATHER SHOES

PARIS, April 4 — Patent leather boots are smart Parisian's contribution to rainy days. French women, who are noted for their high-heeled leather shoes, are turning to Italian style in bad weather.

BROWN — APPROVED

FOR Formal GOVNS

PARIS, April 4 — Brown is the "demi-tasse" for both afternoon and evening wear. The Queen Mother of Spain is appearing at formal afternoon tea parties in a brown lace frock designed with a taffeta belt.

Queen Victoria of Spain has joined the brown brigade with an evening frock of brown crepe, ornate with a belt and a ruffled hemline, designed with little ornamentation, relying on their unusual color for their distinction.

GREEN AND WHITE

FOR BRIDAL PARTY

WASHINGTON, April 4 — Green and white are the colors chosen for the bridal party of Miss Mary Elizabeth Franklin of Lexington, Virginia, while the bride, bride of Joseph C. Gifford, wears a green and white brocade gown.

Brocade was worn by Mrs. Gifford, who was a maid of honor in her own wedding.

BROWN — APPROVED

FOR Formal GOVNS

PARIS, April 4 — Brown is the "demi-tasse" for both afternoon and evening wear. The Queen Mother of Spain is appearing at formal afternoon tea parties in a brown lace frock designed with a taffeta belt.

During rehearsals Siegel, who was born in Austria, had to sleep in a hospital bed because he was not able to get into his own apartment in New York. He demanded to be allowed to play for Miss Merman, but she refused.

Doctors, fearing a nervous relapse, placed him in an ambulance and carried him to the theater. Siegel, however, insisted that the orchestra pit and so thrilling were his plays and Miss Merman's singing that the audience should "cheer" and stopped the show.

Miss Merman began to sing an overnight sensation as a "blowzy" singer on the night when her partner and tutor collapsed over his piano in the theater orchestra pit. Her pay-check has grown and grown, but half of it still goes to the partner, Al Siegel, III, in a hospital.

Girl Sings For Partner Ill In Hospital

(AP) — The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 4 — Ethel Merman, in her solo "blues" voice, about a song about the infidelities of Delilah and the audience applauds.

One night the unkindness of the new blithé crowds are fighting to get into the theatre to hear her.

Ethel Merman isn't singing only for herself: she's singing for a young pianist who lies dangerously ill in a New York hospital.

Al Siegel played his last concert, the night his partner achieved her great triumph; then he collapsed.

Only a couple of years ago Miss Merman was a newspaper in New York. She was a recognized vaudeville artist, and she became a nightingale in one-night-heard-her-sing-a-party. He persuaded her to become a singer, trained her and wrote songs that were liked by her unusual voice.

They appeared in a few plays together — musical comedy, etc.

During rehearsals Siegel, who was born in Austria, had to sleep in a hospital bed because he was not able to get into his own apartment in New York. He demanded to be allowed to play for Miss Merman, but she refused.

Doctors, fearing a nervous relapse, placed him in an ambulance and carried him to the theater. Siegel, however, insisted that the orchestra pit and so thrilling were his plays and Miss Merman's singing that the audience should "cheer" and stopped the show.

Room For Man Avoids Cluttered Frills

In addition to serving its essential purpose of encouraging deep, re-

Dentist Aids Pauper Heirs In Fight to Get Sultan's Fortune of $1,000,000,000

Mixed Tribunals of Istanbul Refuse to Take Case Involving Wealth of Richest Monarch of World, but Jewish Dental Surgeon "Feels Duty" to Defend Destitute House

By PRISCILLA KING
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

ISTANBUL, April 4—One of the biggest money contests in history, the claim of 21 heirs of Sultan Abdul Hamid the Red for his colossal fortune, is returning to the limelight through the efforts of one man.

After 12 years, three sultans, one collapse, and to-day the Khalifatul Islam, the spiritual leader of the now Turkey, is preparing a fresh campaign as representative of the heirs.

The mixed tribunals of Istanbul have refused to handle the case, which involved wealth of the richest monarch of the world.

His property—swapping through Mesopotamia, the oil fields of Mosul, Palestine, Syria, Tripoli, and Greece, was estimated at $1,000,000,000.

These properties brought the sultan a private revenue of $400,000 gold lire, or $20,000,000 annually. Fifty thousand men in the sultan's time were employed in state service.

In this fight to regain the estate, nine penurious heirs, six widows, nine daughters, and six sons are up against the Khalifatul Islam, who controls lands that were a part of the Ottoman Empire before the World War.

The one government, that of Kemal, is at war on the side of the sultans, while Turkish citizenship it recognizes.

One man, a Jewish dentist of Istanbul, Dr. Samy Gunzberg, has come to the rescue of the heirs. He is representative of the heirs, and representative in Turkey of an American group which includes the U.S. claims, the Ottoman Empire, and the Balkan Monarchs, whose headquarters are in Richmond, Virginia, and whose capital is $5,000,000. This man is Dr. Gunzberg.

"It was an imperial dream," he said, "that I felt my duty to undertake the defense of the destitute Ottoman house."

He has appealed to the royal families of Europe and Italy, and the royal families of England, France, and Italy, to help him in the fight. He is representative of the heirs, and representative in Turkey of an American group which includes the U.S. claims, the Ottoman Empire, and the Balkan Monarchs, whose headquarters are in Richmond, Virginia, and whose capital is $5,000,000. But the dynamic dentist-layman, Dr. Samy Gunzberg, who heads the diplomatic machinery of the Turkish, France, and Italy to defend the sultans' rights, has come to the rescue.

The mixed tribunals established here by the Treaty of Lausanne declared themselves incompetent to decide the case, and the sultans will carry the claims before the courts of England, France, and Italy. If they fail, the sultans will take the case to the Hague with the support of Turkey."

FRENCH DEPUTY EXTOLLS LIFE IN SOVIET PRISONS

PARIS, April 4.—Soviet jails are preferred to French jails, the Communist deputy told the chamber of deputies.

Prisoners in Russia, he said, were paid for their work, could buy foodstuffs and had the right to elect delegates to treat with the temporary officials, but no such delights are known in France.

The chamber scraped its testimony as expert, seeing it recently accredited for inciting soldiers to disloyalty.

BARCELONA, Spain, April 4—A bitter field is being waged here in the political campaign preceding the general elections set for April 12.

Its outcome is watched as a probable index of what may be the future of the Spanish Republic.

The National Assembly of Catalonia, the result of the revolution of 1931, has continued its efforts to reform the country as a protest against the throne.

Unless every German family raises its present average of children from four to four, the nation will die out, the German government says.

For a family to have a son, they say, is absolutely necessary to maintain Germany's present level of population.

In 1929 only seven percent women in Berlin, and every eleventh woman in the country became a mother, while in 1930, it was only seven in 100.

One of the reasons for diminishing birthrate is the lack of wives, particularly Slavic people who are also forced to emigrate.

As signs to check the birth-rate decline, the association urges a program for the religious and moral regeneration of the nation, and municipal training courses for housewives tending to stimulate interest in domesticity.

Cousins, Scions Of Last French King, Arrange For Wedding Soon In Sicily Amid Pomp Of Royalty

(By The Associated Press)

VERSAILLES, April 4—Days when Versailles glittered with the pomp of royalty will be returning to the limelight.

Prince Henri, only son of the Duke of Gloucester, and his wife, Louise Philippe, will wed, it is reported, in the throne room of Palermo May 10.

The two are the Duke of Gloucester's first cousins, and the prince kept her under guard.

The Prince of 1833, who died after a long illness, was succeeded by his son, Prince Louis Philippe.

He was the last king of France, a descendant of that branch of the royal family.

While the prince traces back to the Duke of Normandy, ancestor of the French royal line.

TWIN FALLS NEARS DAY FOR ELECTION OF CITY OFFICIALS

Registrar Lists 40 Voters On Closing Day of Period; Candidates for Re-election Have No Opponents

Twin Falls city clerk's office was open until 5 P.M. last evening to complete the day's registration of approximately 40 voters in next Twin Falls election of city officials.

During the registration period that closed last night—nearly 150 voters were registered.

Permanent regularization date, however, the names of some 6000 Twin Falls electors who may take part in next Twin Falls voting.

For the first time in Twin Falls municipal annals are running without opposition.

R. E. Butler, mayor for nearly four years past, is candidate for a third term, while Councilmen J. E. White and L. C. Chapman, who are candidates for re-election, have no opponents.

Hold-over members of the council are T. J. Douglas and Thomas Sammons.

Voting places in Tuesday's election will open at 9 A.M. and close at 5 P.M.

Voters of the First ward, mostly women, will vote at the First ward polling place, 21 and south of Shoshone street, will vote at Danceland on corner of Second avenue and Second street east.

Offices, withheld, the young men who were arrested for their attempt to break into the industrial school, they said.

He was arrested at his home here yesterday, following an investigation which had taken him to the county prosecutor's office and he had cooperated with the county prosecution officer.

Debris Laundry Raided—Outfit of the laundry, the accused, was not robbery, the two women but denied having had any part in robbery at the "Lewy Laundry," Second and Main west, where as they had been taken to the laundry to make a masked robbery, which an hour after Mrs. Lewis M. Jain, 24, Beverly Avenue east, was shot and killed outside her home. She had snatched her purse from her as she was walking home. There was only a small sum of money in it.

On Saturday evening two weeks earlier, two women, reported with in five-minute interval, that their purses had been taken by a man.

The man, Mrs. Mary M. Jones, 21 Blue Lake boulevard, said that she was, "WHD" on Third street east, near the White Star laundry.

Her purse contained about $15.

Mrs. J. C. Finch, 411 Fifth avenue, reported having stopped on Main Street, between 24 and 26th, and that she had snatched her purse from a man who matched her purse.
