SOCIAL LIFE MOVES RAPIDLY AT BURLEY

Session of Women's Club Proves One of Outstanding Meetings of Week

BURLEY, May 8 (Special to The News)—Social affairs of the busy vicinity are moving rapidly with the warm weather. The Burley Women's Club, which met last Wednesday afternoon, May 6, at the home of Mrs. L. A. Wright, had a very successful session. Mrs. Sam B. Smith presided during the business session when reports were made for advertising local industries and manufacturing plants at the state convention to be held at Idaho Falls next week. Mrs. J. M. Wickles set forth the plan decided upon and it was voted to have a painted card for the Burley Women's Club. The convention delegates will be named later as no one present was able to attend.

The Burley Women's Club was "Africa" which was ably handled by Mrs. E. M. Thomas who spoke of the club which helped open the vast continent. Mrs. J. M. Wickles set forth the plan decided upon and it was voted to have a painted card for the Burley Women's Club. The convention delegates will be named later as no one present was able to attend.

By JOHN L. COOLEY
(Associated Press Financial Writer)

NEW YORK, May 8 (AP)—The stock market today was characterized by a general upward movement, with most of the advance in the price of bonds.

Only in the case of bonds could the gain be traced directly to the fact that the Federal Reserve bank, although this fact may have been lurking in the background of the advance, which came in the last hour.

Bonds were moved upward in expectation that credit was to be made cheaper, more further on the actual announcement that the Federal Reserve bank had decided to reduce the discount rate.

There was another early rally in United States Steel and American Steel, sending the former to the new high of 105 1/2. The latter was at the lower end of the range.

There was a general decline in the price of stocks, with the exception of a few, which were held steady. The market was quiet, with a few exceptions.

Not a gain of 2 to 3 points embraced most of the more active stocks. United States Steel closed at 114, up 1 point.

Summaries of the week's development in the stock market, according to the aid of the weather, had been made. According to Duna, evidence showed that the market was in a decline in general business activity.

The meeting of railway executives at Chicago attracted considerable attention, especially as it had been

1931 CLASS SCORES WITH CLEVER LIGHT COMEDY PRODUCTION

"It Won't Be Long Now, In Three Acts Gives Capable Talent Chance to Exhibit Artistic Ability"

A clever light comedy in three acts, "It Won't Be Long Now," by a group of very capable young men and women, and supplemented by the high school orchestra, presented a thoroughly enjoyable evening for an appreciative audience in the high school auditorium last night when the Twin Falls high school class staged its play.

One man's reaction under conviction that he has only 24 hours to live, is the play's central theme. The play is a comedy of the Swift-moving, clean and full of fun. It makes the most of opportunity for musical lines and dancing, while the back of the laughter lies an idea and a lesson in generosity that gives the play a certain value.

As presented by the young men and women players here last evening, the performance made it most delightful. It is, at times, a student play, but it is to be recalled as such, the main part of the story, as a production of the class play.

Of the 12 players were supposed to be feigning.

So admirably was the cast selected, that the play's performance, that there might have been, but it was not.

The play was unique among student dramatic offerings in that it was a comedy of the Swift-moving, clean and full of fun. It makes the most of opportunity for musical lines and dancing, while the back of the laughter lies an idea and a lesson in generosity that gives the play a certain value.

W. W. Palsipher, Victim of Hit-and-Run Driver, Dies From Effects of Injury

W. W. Palsipher, 30, former resident of Twin Falls for three years, who was struck by a hit-and-run driver, died Friday afternoon at the county general hospital here from wounds including a fractured skull, without receiving comfort from the accident.

The death car, which, the dead man's brother said, was a large sedan, approached without warning and did not pause after striking the man, 31, disappeared into a line of evidence leading to possible apprehension.

The fatal accident occurred about 8:30 O'Clock, Wednesday evening, when the car, which was driven by a man, struck Palsipher on a lawn and a mile and a half south of South Park, had walked a mile from their home on the way to the hospital.

W. W. Palsipher and his family were living in a small house on the corner of 10th and 10th streets, where he was a member of the local church.

The body of the man, who was a member of the local church, was found by the police.
