Senator Borah In Address At Nampa Pleads Cause of Amity Among All People

World Renowned Idaho Statesman Points to Falling Off of American Foreign Trade, Sees Russia and China as Fields of Future and Demands That United States Insist Silver Be Given Rightful Place in Economic Scheme

(By The Associated Press) NAMP, Idaho, June 18.—Senator William E. Borah, calling attention to the falling off of American foreign trade and pointing to Russia and China with their 600,000,000 people as the great field for future development, demanded today that the United States "insist, through international agreement, that silver be given its rightful place in economic affairs."

Addressing the Southwest Idaho Bar association, he declared little can be expected from development of present European markets and added "if we cannot hold our own in the markets-of-the-world it is more and more will be the effect of our low price levels at home."

"An ill-advised, if not selfish, policy with reference to the use of silver in China has retarded the purchasing power of China by half within the last few years. In fact this policy has retarded the purchasing power of China by nearly one half the purchasing power of the United States."

"There isn't anything more imperative at this time to the restoration of the purchasing power of China and the Orient than the restoration of silver to its rightful place in the monetary world, and this was taken by sheer governmental action, destructive and brutal in its effect."

He said the depression came to the world "by reason of extraordinary things done, and it will be restored because of extraordinary things to be done."

"If we have any initiative, any leadership, in this country, let us take hold of this problem and insist, through international agreement, that silver be given its rightful place in economic affairs."

He said a "world of suspicion, of intolerance, of hate," had followed the World war and continued to have its effect in interfering with trade and commerce.

He pointed to European denunciation of the Anglo-German trade agreement as "only an illustration of the after-the-fact policies being interfered with."

"There are millions of people today unemployed by reason of the policy of the United States," he said. "There are hundreds of thousands who are dying of hunger and want by reason of the policy of the United States, short-sighted, selfish, brutal policies. I fought against this policy from the day it was first introduced and I will continue to fight until it is removed."

He pleaded forgiveness among people and nations.

"Yesterday, the president of the United States addressed the world where rests the ashes of the soldiers of Lincoln. What a blessing it is if he who is the world, in spirit if not in fact, could visit that sacred shrine and receive a baptism of patience and tolerance and breadth of vision, which were the distinguishing traits of his marvelous career."

"If I were asked what is the fundamental principle of the world's recovery, I would say: unity and friendship and trade and commerce between all nations and all people just as rapidly and effectively"

DEBT PAYMENT AND TAX RETURNS HELP TO LOWER DEFICIT

Federal Finances Flounder In Red Ink—To-Extent of More Than $1,000,000,000 As Fiscal Year Nears End

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, June 18.—Federal finances still flounder in red ink today to the extent of more than $1,000,000,000, although the total had dropped sharply from yesterday's high figure.

Income tax collections, which were expected to bring the deficit $2,000,000,000 nearer to zero, fell short of $400,000,000, a figure treasury officials now believe will prove excessive when the books close June 30.

Reports on the second quarter of the fiscal year in 1930 show that the deficit stood at $1,027,471,471, as compared with $1,027,471,471 the preceding day, tax receipts for July 1, available tomorrow, are expected to reach a high point of $232,215,152 brought in by the month of July.

Foreign debt payments exceeding $11,000,000 of which $3,000,000 was applied to operating expenses, were expected to bring the deficit to $1,027,471,471.

Belgian Visions Aviation Future Far Above Earth in Stratosphere

(By The Associated Press) BRUSSELS, Belgium, June 18 (AP)—The Belgian government today announced that it had authorized the construction of a stratospheric dirigible for commercial purposes.

The dirigible, which is to be built by the Belgian government, is to be used for the purpose of exploring the stratosphere and for the purpose of carrying out scientific research.

"One positive result of our experience, in fact, was attained," Professor Picaud said, "namely, it proved that traveling in a high altitude, where 4000 meters an hour can be maintained, is not only possible but also very comfortable."

South Idaho Officers Seek Five Prisoners Following Jail Break In Twin Falls

Early Morning Hours Find Armed Men Patrolling Highways On Alert For Quintet in Car Stolen After Removal of Bars and Descend From Fourth Floor of Courthouse 60 Feet to Ground on Rope Made Out of 15 Blankets

SHERIFF'S officers of South Idaho were patrolling highways early this morning on the lookout for five federal prisoners who escaped from the Twin Falls county jail between 10 and 11 o'clock last night after they had sawed the bars in their cell on the fourth floor of the courthouse and descended to the ground through a window by means of a 60-foot blanket rope.

All of the prisoners were recently arrested for violation of the liquor laws and the Dyer automobile theft act and were awaiting their trials in federal court.

The fugitives were: George E. Gordon, 33, Gooding, alleged liquor law violator; C. J. Carmichael, 20, Gooding, alleged liquor law violator; John D. Brown, 21, William Reitor, 21, and William Reitor, 20, all of Twin Falls. The last three were in their cell on the fourth floor of the courthouse in their possession of a car alleged to have been stolen in Colorado.

PRESIDENT HOOVER RETURNS TO WORK IN CHEERFUL MOOD

Prospects For Bumper Crops Visible Throughout Trip Apparently Contribute to Chief Executive's Optimism

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, June 10.—President Hoover came back to the White House tonight cheerful and optimistic over the conditions he observed on his day-long tour of the Central states. His views were expressed informally to members of the party as the special train traveled through fertile, well-harvested country in West Virginia and Virginia today.

The prospects for bumper crops visible throughout the trip apparently contributed to the hopes entertained by the president. Today's route led across a stretch of last year's bumper crop country. Reaching the capital from Springfield, Illinois, at 3:25 P. M., Mr. Hoover motored to the White House and a few minutes later the president was at his desk, putting in some work on the accumulation of mail that had piled up since his departure Sunday night. A conference with Secretary Stimson followed.

His official call to Washington determined to stand on the policies he outlined in his speech at Lincoln, Ill., and he made it clear he planned no other extended trips away from the capital.

Some concern was expressed in the presidential party that the trip was being interpreted as a political move. The president, however, regarded himself as president of all the people and not just of Republicans.

Republican leaders who joined the presidential special at various points were frank in their expressions of hope of a favorable election to Mr. Hoover's utterances in this territory where Democrats scored gains in the last congressional election. In Chicago, Illinois, returned here with him.

The president at Indianapolis before the Indiana Republican Editorial association named the business depression as the "dominant" problem of the day upon which he has apparently determined to face next year's campaign.

The trip into Ohio, Indiana and Illinois was the first since he has gone since entering "the White House" and he took advantage of opportunities to appear before the people from the rear platform of his train at all stops.

SENATOR BORAH IN ADDRESS AT NAMPA PLEADS FOR AMITY

As can possibly be brought about," Mr. Borah said. "The people of this state must be a part for more efficient judicial organization in the state, outlining six needs he considered necessary to remedy the present situation. These were:

First: A division of the state into not more than four districts and not less than three judges in each district.

Second: Abolition of probate courts, giving the district courts the probate courts' business.

Third: Appointment of clerks for probate courts by judges, and abolishing the powers of clerks to issue necessary orders to uncontested probate matters.

Fourth: Creation of a county judge of the peace in each county.

Fifth: Non-partisan nomination and election of judges.

Sixth: Increase in salaries of supreme court justices and district judges.

Opposition to the plan was voiced by several attorneys from rural localities of the state. They were led by Frank Ryan, Weiser attorney, who said the plan would give Boise undue proportion of judges.

S. D. (Red Sam) Burton, head coach at West Texas State Teachers' college, will give coaching instruction at Texas Tech this summer.

SEARCHERS AWAIT RELATIVES' COMING

Storm Drives Men in Boats Off Salmon River Reservoir After 20 Hours' Draggings

The next step in the search for the body of Alvin Karpis, 31, Buick car owner, drowned in Salmon River reservoir last Monday is to be determined following the arrival of relatives on their way here from Ohio. It was stated at the sheriff's office here last evening.

Men in boats, who had dragged the reservoir for 20 hours in two days since the accident, in unsuccessful search for the body, were driven from their task early yesterday afternoon when wind again whipped waves on the reservoir to a wild fury. Water where the body is believed to have gone down is about 45 feet deep, and the waters depth in that part of the reservoir, six miles above the dam, ranged from 10 to 60 feet. Searchers yesterday raised with their grapnels large logs, branches of willows, and stumps.

It was drowned when the boat in which he and two other men were fishing, capsized at it rounded a point and encountered the storm. Monday afternoon the other men clinging to the boat and drifted to shore.

Possibility that a deep-water diver might be brought here to continue the search for the body was indicated in the statement at the sheriff's office last evening.

GUARANTORS PLAN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

Meeting Arranges For Active Work in Cooperation With Agent Here

Enthusiastic campaign to make a success of the forthcoming chautauqua, which opens here next Thursday, was launched at a large meeting of guarantors in the office of O. W. Witham, Twin Falls county prosecuting attorney, last night.

Miss Gladys Cook, advance agent, was expected here from Mesquite, to attend the meeting and remain until the opening night, but was unable to arrive until today. However, the guarantors felt that their organization was in condition to begin the campaign at once and to rally to the agent on her arrival.

It was stated that since they had purchased the show outright, they would take advantage of the liberty thus afforded and make a reduction in prices of tickets.

The first show, Thursday night is "The Big Push," a modern comedy, the next day, "The Landlords," with sparkling music in the afternoon and a comedy program at night will have the boards. Also at night, John Aubrey, soprano, on "Conducting Aerobics," Jean MacDonald, Canadian entertainer, has the appointment for the afternoon of the third day, on which, "KIDDER," a Broadway success, is slated at night.

On the afternoon of the fourth day, the Devlin Concert company, opens the program followed by a talk by Morris Anderson, football player, attorney and former mayor of Mark Twain's home town.

The local Junior Town and the Francis Entertainers fill in the last afternoon. The Entertainers give the closing programs at night.

main statements were in London. The trip of Brinsford and Curtis to London, like that of Mr. Mellon, was characterized officially as a "friendly visit," but out of it grew talk, now current in European capitals, that the entire question of reparations and war debts may be regarded somewhat sympathetically by the government.

Just as the time of the Brinsford-Curtis visit, the greatest secrecy has been observed in all quarters as to the character of the conversations between the prime minister and his American visitor, Mr. Mellon today even went so far as to say nothing he was doing in London had the slightest official importance.

He added that he wished any information regarding his conversations with Mr. MacDonald would come from the prime minister himself.

It is widely remarked in Great Britain that the visits of Mr. Mellon, Chancellor Brinsford and Dr. Curtis, the forthcoming visit of Secretary of State Stimson and the visit of Mr. MacDonald and Mr. Henderson to Berlin, afforded the most excellent opportunity to cover questions of vital interest in the current European and world economic situation.

RARE COFFEE WINS COUNTLESS NEW USERS BY FLAVOR

Amazing Popularity of Hills Bros. Coffee Tribute to Roasting Process

Years of experiment by Hills Bros. have resulted in the origination and perfection of the only Controlled Roasting process in use today.

By Hills Bros.' patented process, the degree of roast is automatically controlled. The quantity of coffee passing into the roaster—about three pounds at a time—varies. The speed of the flow and the temperature remains the same, with the result that Hills Bros. Coffee is absolutely uniform. This roasting method is so large and so accurate that it has become a question, "Why is Hills Bros. Coffee always the same?"

Compare now that Hills Bros. Coffee has a flavor no other coffee has. The ordinary method of roasting bulk cannot feature a uniform roast because there is a lack of control.

The vacuum can, in which Hills Bros. Coffee is packed, keeps the coffee fresh. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is completely removed from the can and kept out. Coffee does not stay fresh in ordinary cans, even if airtight. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arab—The trade-mark of the can. Sold by grocery everywhere.

SYRINGA, June 18 (Special to The News)—Mrs. A. W. Johnson entertained at a party Tuesday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Helen, who is leaving Saturday for Portland to continue her studies at the Portland Sanatorium after spending three weeks' vacation with her parents here. After much merriment over games and conversation in the house, a game of croquet was enjoyed on the lawn.

At the close of the afternoon the hostess served a delicious lunch to the following guests: Irene and Gertrude Crum, Mrs. Thackeray, Margaret and Edna Ninger, Helen Gomer, Margaret and Belle Furniss, Irene and Melvin Iohn, Elsie and Edna Johnson, Joyce Woody, Helen, Alice and Blanche Johnson, and Mrs. Joe Ninger.

SHOSHONE'S CIVIC PARK RECEIVES IMPROVEMENT

SHOSHONE, June 18 (Special to The News)—Through the efforts of civic organizations and the Shoshone village board, several additions are nearing completion in the Mary F. Gooding park here.

Earlier in the spring the Business and Professional Women's club planned and financed a girls' dressing room. A miniature replica of the Shoshone style with peaked roof, flower-filled window boxes and bird-sounds and attending the cottages, is admirably fitted to its surroundings. A similar construction for the use of the boys being erected on the opposite side of the plunge is being financed by the village board.

Mothers' Circle has presented the park with an attractive above drinking fountain which has been built facing the north and is directly in front of the swimming pool.

This fountain is made of lava rock with a cement basin. On the cement block at the top of the fountain will be placed a bronze table bearing the inscription "Baby Morton Fountain," so named in honor of the oldest member of the organization. The dedication ceremony took place the first of the week when the Mothers' Circle held its meeting at the park.

The P. O. school board's contribution to the beautifying of the park is a set of wrought-iron lighting fixtures which with rough white glass, the local Idaho Power company has offered its assistance in placing the lights at the gate posts at the turn-of-the-entrance and wiring them for use.

The swimming pool has been opened and the children are greatly enjoying it while the older folks seek shade of the large trees. Shrubbery was donated and put out on Arbor day.

Swimming school will be conducted here starting June 23 and lasting until the evening of July 2.

TEN-YEAR PLAN

It is fully for so great and intelligent a country as the United States to drift planlessly through the present depression, trusting to slow, blind economic forces to restore prosperity, drifting into new excesses of inflation and then plunging into another business bog, according to the familiar cycle. Courage and common sense demand intelligent planning.

A "ten-year plan" had already been suggested before it was proposed the other day jointly by James W. Gerard and Matthew W. Hill in behalf of the National Civic Federation, but their appeal to the firm to command general attention. It is now a plan representing the industrial, commercial and civil life of the nation were to meet in a great American Industrial Congress, as those two leaders suggest, something surely would come of it.

FILER FOLKS VISIT WITH FRIENDS AND RELATIVES

FILER, June 18 (Special to The News).—Arrivals and departures have been numerous here during the week. Mr. and Mrs. George Anthony returned Thursday morning by auto from Pocatello where they were called Saturday on account of an accident to Mrs. Anthony's sister, Mrs. Anthony. It was first reported that Mrs. Wright was hurt in an auto accident, which later was found to be accidental shooting. Mrs. Wright was about to leave for town and in picking up some clothing from the back room portion of the garment pulled the trigger of a .22 calibre rifle. The accident was not as serious as first thought. Mrs. Wright is making satisfactory recovery.

Mrs. Walter McGuire, Jr., has as guests her sister, Mrs. Charles Owen, daughter, Alice, and son, Tom, who arrived Tuesday by auto from Denver.

Harry Wilson, who has been attending the junior college at Pasadena, California, returned home Tuesday to spend the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wilson.

Mrs. M. J. Goodie left Thursday by auto to spend a few days at Boise visiting her husband, who is a patient at the veterans' hospital there. Miss Thelma Keenan, a former pilot resident, who has been visiting friends, returned to Boise on Thursday.

Miss Grace Deane left Monday for a visit in Glendale, California. The Deane family left Tuesday for Idaho Falls where he will be employed for a construction company.

TROUBLED NAUTILUS

It seems that they can't put the submarine Nautilus and its crew aboard a ship whaling vessel and deliver them safe and sound at the Arctic Circle. Then the submarine would have merely to submerge, do its underwater and under-ice investigating and return to the waiting whaler.

As it is, the Nautilus seems to be having a hard time getting started on the Arctic explorations. Stripped on its way across the Atlantic, it had to appeal to surface ships to tow it and to stand by for emergency. Finally a whaling had to come to the rescue. The submarine is in a precarious position, says Mr. Robert Wilkins, commander of the expedition, as it will doubtless be repaired and continue its trip. The Nautilus may make better speed when towed than when travelling under its own power. But it seems unfortunate that it should be so thoroughly tested before it leaves America, should suffer any mishap so early in its career. It suggests too strongly the need of improvements against which the Do-X, giant German submarine, has struggled for the last six or seven months.

COURT RULES OUT CORPORATION CLAIM

Distriet Judge A. B. Barclay Holds Failure to Record Articles Fatal to Suit

A contract taken in the name of a corporation that failed to comply with provisions of state law relating to corporations may not be enforced, District Judge Adam B. Barclay, Jerome, held in a memorandum decision filed in district court here yesterday in an action started by the Peoples-Pittsburgh Trust company to foreclose a mortgage covering an 80-acre Salmon River project farm that was executed by J. H. Diebolt in March, 1926.

Confession of counsel for Diebolt, which the court sustained, was that the corporation in this case had failed to file its articles of incorporation and otherwise submit itself to Idaho law.

In the event the district court's judgment in this case is affirmed by the supreme court, Ray H. Agee, counsel for Diebolt and his estate, the mortgage claim will be effectively wiped out.

A number of other Salmon River project landholders executed mortgages under similar circumstances.

Evidence at trial before Judge Barclay in the district court here last month showed that the mortgage was executed by Diebolt in a settlement with the Salmon River Bondholders' Protective committee, following reduction in the area of the Salmon River project.

The Peoples-Pittsburgh Trust company, plaintiff in this action, was successor to the Peoples Savings and Trust company of Pittsburgh.

In the memorandum decision filed yesterday, Judge Barclay held that "it was clear that the Peoples Savings and Trust company, after the trust agreement was concluded, acted only as trustee for the bondholders' committee, and had no other interest in the transactions. The corporation was not the agent of the committee, the court held."

Note and mortgage involved in this action were given for a sufficient consideration, Judge Barclay held.

Attorneys for Diebolt were E. M. Wolfe, Burley; Ray D. Agee and E. L. Rayburn, Twin Falls; Harry Bennett, Twin Falls, and Richards and Hays, Boise; represented the Pittsburgh corporation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

There will be a meeting of the Twin Falls Federation Saturday afternoon in the Business Women's Club rooms.

THEATRES

"QUICK MILLIONS" APPEARS AT IDAHO

Spencer Tracy again made an unusual debut in taking pictures a short time ago in John Ford's comedy of prison life, "Up the River," is starred in "Quick Millions," playing at the Idaho Theatre. "Up the River" is a comedy, extra-trick driver and regatta racketeer, he is naive, humorous and hard-boiled by turns, mounting the ladder of crime and social prominence with disconcerting ease. Sally Eilers does an excellent bit of characterization as the girl who follows his career with loyalty until his ambitions include a charming society girl, Margaret Churchill.

William Haines in "Just a Gigolet" the classic comedy stage success finally showing today.

JAIL DOORS OPEN FOR ASSAULT OF GIRL

Arrested of battery involving daughter Logan, 15-year-old daughter of Captain Chester C. Captain Logan signed the complaint. The alleged offense occurred Tuesday of last week.

COUNTIES MAY BUILD BRIDGE AT MILNER

MILNER, June 18 (Special to The News).—Representatives of the boards of county commissioners of Twin Falls, Jerome, Gooding and Cassia counties met with the boards of directors of the Twin Falls Canal company and the North Idaho Canal company here this afternoon to consider possible steps to be taken to replace the old bridge across the Snake river. The old bridge was constructed at the time that the Milner dam was built, and which was condemned as unsafe and removed a year ago.

Resolutions were expressed in favor of rebuilding the structure, and it was determined to take the matter up at regular meetings of the county commissioners of the counties represented, with a view of getting estimates on cost of putting in the proposed new bridge.

"DONOVAN'S KID" NOW APPEARS AT ORPHEUM

Richard Dix, star of Radio Pictures' thrill-drama, "Young Donovan's Kid," at the Orpheum Theatre, Jay, comes down as "the most typical American actor."

He has every right to that title. Not only does he look the part, but he has the ancestry to the boot which followed the Mayflower to America. John Brimmer and Elizabeth Manichew, ancestors on the "May" later married and became the heads of Dix's family.

Life can't get away from typical American characteristics—and he doesn't want to. He reached his greatest pin points in such roles as "The Vanishing American," "Hedra," and the glamorous Vanety Grant in Radio Pictures' "Cimarron."

In "Young Donovan's Kid," a typically American role, Dix is supported by Jackie Cooper, star of "Skippy," and a notable cast.

Jolt Looms For American "Superiority" In Golf Classic

English and Yanks Seek Ryder Cup in Columbus Contest

Despite Previous Victories Of England's Professionals, Feeling of Inferiority Appears as Hazard

By LOREN DISNEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, June 10.—There is going to be an international golf affair on the Soloto Country club course at Columbus, Ohio, June 26-27, and merely because half of the contestants are "Americans" is no assurance that they're going to win.

There seems to be a common impression that when one speaks of the best in golf, American golfers and methods are meant. This impression doubtless has been created

WALTER HAGEN ARCHIE COMPSTON
JOHNNY FARRELL

Ryder Cup Rivals

Members of the American and British "pro" golf teams which will meet in a series of matches for the Ryder cup, June 26-27, on the Soloto Country club course, Columbus, Ohio, follow:

ENGLISH—Walter Hagen, captain; Leo Diegel, Johnny Farrell, Gene Sarazen, Horton Smith and Al Espinosa.

Each team is to be made up of eight players and two alternates. The two remaining places on the American team and the two alternate roles will be filled from among 13 candidates on the basis of their showing in 72 holes of play, June 22-23, at Scioto.

Largely through the American representation of Uncle Sam have had in the British open during the last decade.

Ten times in the last 11 years they have won the most important title of the country in which golf was full-grown when there was a game large enough to afford the best of the world.

But in the coming international series between the "pros" of America and England for the Ryder Cup, the Americans have had no such success.

Statistics
In fact, since the matches were informally started in 1921 in England, due to the presence of a large number of American "pros" there for the open tournament, the Americans have won just one of the four series that have been played. In two Americans' best "pros" were literally overwhelmed.

All of which would indicate that the illusion of the superiority of American golf over that played in England was brought about through the individual brilliance of one or two strong, follow-up players through a nation-wide super-experience.

Charles Whitcombe, captain of this year's British team, said shortly after this year's British open which again fell to American hands: "The American 'Black Scott'—that is the chief problem facing the British was that of losing a 'feeling of inferiority' in regard to American golfers."

A mystery
Just why his team should feel "inferior" is something of a mystery. It is made up largely of the players who toured the Americas in the 1920 matches at Moorstown, England. And indeed the personnel of the American team is formed in the main by the "pros" who dropped that last series of matches, 7 to 5.

Whitcombe, who defeated Johnny Farrell, George Duncan, who trounced Walter Hagen by the astounding count 10 and 8, and Archie Compston, who liked Gene Sarazen, all will be back.

In fact, the only participants in that winning effort who won't appear this year are Henry Cotton, brilliant young "pro" who ran afloat of the ride governing the English team, and Aubrey Dwyer, ruled ineligible due to a permanent residence in France.

It would seem that if the Americans want to return the cup put up by Samuel Ryder, British exposure to this country had better depend more on getting off straight drives down those narrow fairways on the Soloto course than on any inherent "superiority" of their golf.

In a bull fight at Rosanos, Mexico, it was agreed no horses would be killed because the bull was a spectator from the United States.

Hagen Triumphs On Miami Links

One of Golf's Immortals Shells Course For Recording Smashing Score

By PAUL MICHELSOHN
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
DAYTON, Ohio, June 10.—Walter Hagen found the range of the rolling fairways of the Miami Valley course today and shelled 74 with a record smashing 88 that showed him one shot in front of a closely bunched field in the Western open golf championship fight.

Flashing the same form that made him one of the golf's immortals a decade ago, the Hain just about made the first 18-hole round of the 72-hole struggle a one-man show until Ed Dodge, Wilmington, Delaware, came in late with a 97 to do some crowding.

Sir Walter, who promised his friends that he won't go through another year like he did in 1935 without winning a major golf title, had just about everything in golf's calendar today. He had brilliancy and hard luck as he circled the first nine with a 38, one over par, and he had nothing but his old-time genius on the way back as he ripped the course apart with a 32.

Dodge, almost overlooked by the heavy weight men went around that Hagen was tearing up the course, slipped in with rounds of 35-34, one of the most consistent of the day.

Old-time Dwyer, the Spanish caballero from Long Beach, California, and Charles Gurney, Indianapolis, landed third with 76, the only other par-shattering performance turned in by the field of more than 100 players.

Gene Sarazen scored 35-35, while Gene March, one of the darlings of the dark horse contingent, landed 37-37. Sir Walter closed up in the running, with 74. They were J. E. Rooney, Columbus; Clem Welch-man, Evanslough, Ohio; George von Elm, Detroit, who blew up with a 39 after burning up the course with a 23 prior out; Bob MacDonald, Chicago; Emmett French, Southern Pines, North Carolina; and Deane Smith, Hudson, Ohio; Charles (Chuck) Evans, Chicago, had a 72, as did Mortie Dutra, Long Beach.

Harvard and Yale Await Next Clash
NEW LONDON, Conn., June 10.—A confident Harvard variety crew and a determined Yale eight today roared almost nine months of preliminary toil and retired to their neighboring quarters to await the word that will start their sixty-ninth dual regatta.

Harvard will come down to the Thames river, stake post tomorrow night as the western only undefeated crew and the favorite to defeat a Yale eight that has made a gallop recovery after being humiliated by Columbia and Cornell. The Crimson has not had a rowing victory since 1927.

Nothing much is known about either crew's ability to weather four miles of racing. Harvard's only test came when it defeated Navy, this week's victors at Poughkeepsie, in a short race last month at Philadelphia. Coach Charlie Whitledge's eight, however, has proved that it possesses power, speed and drive, and, furthermore, it enjoys the advantage of being kept intact all season. Yale, which seems to be as highly polished and skillful as most leader-coupled crews, has been shaken up frequently.

HARVARD TEAM WINS
WOODBURY, N. Y., June 10.—Harvard's polo team reached the final round of the intercollegiate handball tournament today by overwhelming Pennsylvania military college, 3 to 2. The victory qualified the Crimson to meet Army in the tournament final.

Singer Defeats Low Massey in 10-Round Bout

King of Lightweights Last Year Treks Down Comeback Road by Winning Easily in New York Ring

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 10.—Al Singer, king of the lightweights for a few months last year, started out on the comeback road tonight by pounding out a 10-round decision over Low Massey, Philadelphia, at Madison Square Garden.

Singer, who won the lightweight crown in less than one round from Sammy Mandel, last summer, only to lose it in the same length of time a few months later to Tony Canzoneri, was easily the master of the chunky little fighter from the Quaker city. He punched and jabbed almost at will, winning eight of the 10 rounds, according to The Associated Press score sheet. Massey, 115, the former champion in the seventh while the third was even.

Unlike the Singer of a year ago, he stood up under Massey's hard hitting, giving up one as the Philadelphia ripped across an occasional punting right or a left hook. Singer had a two-pound gull in the weights, entering the ring at 131½, compared with Massey's weight of 129½.

A crowd of 633 paid $10.00 to see the two little fellows swap blows. There were no knockdowns.

In the eight-round semi-final, Jack Roseberg, a lanky middleweight from New York, won a close decision over Paulie Walker from Trenton, New Jersey. Roseberg weighed 157½ and Walker 148½. In the other "first-round" bout, Andy Davis, New York, 140½, outpointed Billy Schwartz, England, who weighed one-half pound less.

BEAN GROWERS OF IDAHO TRIUMPH IN FIGHT FOR RATES

Buhl Chamber of Commerce Urges Interstate Commission to Take Early Favorable Action on Report

Resolution of freight rates on Idaho dried beans and peas is recommended by an interstate commission action following hearing at Portland last fall, will mean a saving of from 25 to 30 cents per hundred pounds on shipments into market centers as far east as Louisville, Kentucky, it was stated here yesterday.

Buhl Chamber of Commerce, on learning of the examiner's recommendation, yesterday wired the interstate commerce commission saying: "This matter is vitally important to Idaho bean growers and we hope your commission will grant the request without delay."

Southern Idaho Bean Growers' association, Grange organization of this region and Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce participated with other interested groups in the hearing on Idaho public utilities commission's report on existing bean rates before the interstate commerce commission's examiner at Portland last fall. Nevill B. Wright, secretary of Twin Falls chamber, said last evening.

See Victory
"It is a practical certainty that the commission will render a favorable decision on the examiner's recommendations, and an important victory has been virtually won by the Idaho bean industry," Mr. Wright said.

In his report, according to press dispatches from Washington, Examiner Robert B. Simons finds that east-bound rates from points on the Oregon short line as far east as Indiana are unduly preferential to Idaho growers at a distinct disadvantage as compared with their principal competitors in Colorado.

Examiner Simons finds that existing rates from Idaho to the east are prejudicial to the extent that they exceed rates from Colorado origins to the same destinations by more than the amount that the rates on potatoes from Idaho origins exceed rates on potatoes from Colorado origins to the same destinations.

This is understood to mean that dried beans and peas from Idaho should take the same rates as potatoes, something that is true in Colorado today.

Quoted Statistics
The examiner quotes Idaho statistics to show the bean-pea rate from Twin Falls to St. Louis at $1.00 per hundred, compared with a 72-cent potato rate, whereas the rate from Grand Junction, Colorado, is 63 cents on both beans and potatoes. The Idaho bean rate is 148 per cent of the Idaho potato rate.

Similar discrepancies are shown in rates to a great number of mid-west markets. Idaho ships upwards of 3000 carloads of dried beans and peas annually, and carriers, in fighting the petition, maintained

KIWANIS HEAR TALK OF ITALIAN SITUATION

Declaring in substance that while distance and relative lack of understanding of all conditions renders full realization of the situation in Italy difficult, it is quite apparent that the attitude of Premier Benito Mussolini in regard to government generally is diametrically opposed to the democratic ideal and to the American conception of government.

Monaghan Keyser quoted from the Associated Press dispatch of the suspected interview with Mussolini, which appeared in a morning newspaper yesterday, and said that the statements attributed to him were in keeping with his general attitude and utterances. He declared in effect that if there was evidently a superior, that instead of the American principle that government was for the people, Mussolini believed for the people, Mussolini believed for the government, and the government for the people, a principle at once violative of the principle of democracy and the doctrines of the Catholic church.

the reduction sought would mean a loss in revenue of from $300,000 to $500,000.

Idaho potato rates to the east are based on the Colorado rates with an added differential.

With Colorado enjoying the same rate on beans and peas as on potatoes, the examiner finds Idaho is entitled to the same parity; that on any other basis the Idaho industry would be at a disadvantage.

CHRISTIANS BEGIN FOUR-DAY SESSION IN LOCAL CHURCH

300 Persons Gather For Opening Meeting of Southern Idaho Missionary Society And Hear Inspiring Talks

About 300 persons attended the opening session of thirty-second annual convention of the Southern Idaho Christian Missionary society, which is convened in four-day session at the First Christian church here at 8 o'clock last night. The total number of regular delegates will amount to about 200, some of whom will not arrive until this morning.

The meeting was called to order by Rev. Chris J. Henry, Buhl, president of the association. Following a song service led by Rev. Ernest Threlinger, pastor of the Burley Christian church and brother of J. R. Trolinger, Twin Falls district, and prayer by Rev. Cleo W. Hutton, Twin Falls, convocation pastor, J. W. Taylor, Twin Falls attorney, welcomed the delegates and visitors.

Mr. Taylor said in part: "Yesterday I happened to read a short pamphlet which declared that the twentieth century was born without a memory and ends without a soul. It took pride in the fact, as it said, that life today is an affair of tomorrow and trip-hammers, not power-saws and steel axes; that we live in an age in which terrific pressure and high tension of existence are pounding down the weak and unprepared, and grinding them to dust; that mankind is being displaced by machinery and spiritual existence is an exploded myth."

Points to Challenge
"This," said Mr. Taylor, "is the challenge which modern industrialized and blinded science have thrown down to the Christian church, and which the spiritual forces of the world are called upon to answer. Our presence here is an answer to that challenge."

Following a brief argument based on the idea that nature reveals the creative hand of God, Mr. Taylor in a happy vein welcomed the delegates and their friends to Twin Falls.

Rev. William Gibbs, Jerome, responded in behalf of the visiting delegations. Following special music by the Twin Falls choir, Rev. H.

A. Abbott, D. D. St. Louis, delivered the address of the evening.

Dr. Abbott declared that the present time has witnessed a new enthusiasm for the new testament. He stated that this is easily understood when we realize that it has been translated in whole or in part into 516 languages of dialects. The day is fast approaching when every person who can read at all will have an opportunity to read the new testament in his own language. "If we have read the written message of Christ," Dr. Abbott said, "we have received the only authoritative message which gives us an understanding of Jesus. The new testament presents him in all aspects. We learn from the book what he taught, and in his teaching we have a safe way under his leadership to take us out of present confusion."

The new testament is a book of every day life. If we read it well we will have no doubt as to what is good and what is not good. It is a creative book. Out of its inspiration has grown churches, benevolent movements and even states. The greatest statement we have had read the new testament daily."

Blessed Pastor Speaks
This morning there will be opening devotions conducted by Rev. C. P. Burgess, Boise, pastor of the First Christian church, Boise, and president of the Idaho State board. This will be followed by a local church program conducted by Rev. H. J. Reynolds, Kimberly. Participants in this program include: Rev. Roy L. Tins, Weiser, on the subject of "Obedience"; Rev. P. L. Cook, Twin Falls, temporary pastor at Gooding, on "Worship and Shale"; Rev. Chris J. Henry, Buhl, of "Prayer Service"; Rev. Mortimer A. Hawk, pastor of the Second Christian church, Boise, on "Evangelism"; and Rev. Cleo W. Hutton, Twin Falls, on "Organization." At 10 o'clock, Rev. A. Reid, Caldwell, Indianapolis, of the United Christian Missionary society, will speak. The morning service will close with congregational singing, followed by an address by Rev. Abbott.

The afternoon and evening session will consist of meetings of the missionary society of which Mrs. M. C. Jenson, Rupert, is president. Election of officers will take place during the afternoon. After reports are received and acted on there will be special music by a quartet of women from Rupert, an address by Miss Jay Taylor, Indianapolis and an address by Mrs. Hugh J. Williams, missionary to Paraguay. There will be a banquet at 6:15 P. M. at the Park hotel in charge of the Buhl Women's organization. In the evening Mrs. J. S. Beam, pastor in Payette, Mrs. Williams and Dr. Abbott will speak, with musical numbers between addresses. Saturday morning there will be an address by Dr. Abbott, and consideration of the Christian Endeavor and Religious Education movements, led by Rev. Tins.

STAGE RETURNS TO FORMER SCHEDULE

Abandonment of a plan to extend the operation of the Twin Falls-theatre stage line to Ketchikan by way of Bellevue and Hailley, was announced last night by C. Lyon Price, manager, after a trial of three days.

Mr. Price said that patronage has been insufficient, and that repairs on roads make travel difficult. He will return to the old schedule, leaving here at 8 A. M. and 2 P. M., and returning at 10:20 A. M. and 4 P. M. He plans to run Saturday excursions later to Ketchikan.

EIGHTH-GRADERS TAKE EXAMINATIONS HERE

Twenty-seven eighth-grade students at the office of Twin Falls county superintendent of public instruction yesterday, wrote their answers to questions propounded by a board of examiners given for students who failed in the examinations last month, or were unable because of illness or other causes to take the examinations at that time. The examination will continue today in four subjects, arithmetic, history, civics and physiology.

Subjects for the first day of the examination yesterday were grammar, spelling, reading and geography.
