Is Railroad Competition Subsidized? TAXES

In Comparison to Freight Hauled

Trucks Railroads

Taxes as assessed under the existing laws in the State of Idaho, license fees, gasoline tax, gross revenue fees, property tax, per million ton miles of freight hauled—

$4,035.00 $2,598.00

Percentage of Taxes to Investment

14.96% 2.29%

It has been asserted that truck lines do not pay taxes. If the railroads were taxed on the same ton miles basis as trucks during 1930 they would have paid to the State of Idaho an additional $2,635,748.00 or an increase of more than 100%.

Also for your information, truck lines in Idaho are regulated. In this state they report to and are regulated by the same commission as the railroads.

Do these facts indicate that trucks are an unfair, unregulated, subsidized form of competition?

Trucks do employ more men. During 1930 the railroads employed 2.8 men per million ton miles of freight moved, in comparison with which trucks employed 26.9 men.

Also, it might be well to bear in mind that out of every dollar paid the railroad for freight 33.5% goes to Wall Street in the form of interest and dividends.

Baseball With Average of .388 Leads Cochrane and Ruth by 3-Point Margin

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, June 20.—Eddie Morgan, Cleveland's young first baseman, who couldn't decide to remain in the baseball business until the season was well under way, swooped to the top of the American league individual batting race during the ninth week of the championship campaign.

Official figures, which include Wednesday's games, showed Morgan with an average of .388, 3 points better than Mickey Cochrane of the Athletics, and Babe Ruth, who were tied for second place. Morgan's mark represented an improvement of 10 points and boosted him from fifth position into the lead. Cochrane's average remained the same as last week, while the great "Babe" dropped 14 points.

Joe Cronin, Washington's shortstop, continued to monopolize the individual leadership. He had 82 hits in 243 at bats, for a .333 average, eight triples, and had knocked home 64 runs.

Jimmy Fox of the Athletics, headed the home run hitters with 20 runs scored in 100 at bats. Earl Webb, Boston, retained the leadership in two-base hits with 26. At Simmons led the scorers with 61 runs and Ben Chapman of the Yankees, was the leading base stealer with 20 thefts.

Vicinity of Burley Plants Bull Frogs

BURLEY, June 20 (Special to The News)—Bull frogs are to be planted in the vicinity of some of the marshy grounds that slope into Snake river near Burley, Dept. Park, Idaho, during game warden, has received word from Claude C. Drake, Idaho fish commissioner, that a shipment of the French frogs is about ready to go forward.

It is believed that the frogs will flourish here. A sort of dwarf bull frog, identical in appearance with the large French variety, is frequently seen in streams in that river valley, and in the Burley district, where the French variety are said to be edible.

A few of the larger species were captured near Caldwell by Roy Painter, and released in Snake river waters. They seemed to feel quite at home, and Painter believes that transplanted frogs will multiply there, as the surroundings appear similar to their Caldwell homes.

Giants and Cubs Tie in Hitting in National Circuit

Bill Terry, With Mark of .361, Heads List of Regulars in Batting Averages at Middle of Week

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, June 20.—After having passed the National league batting leadership back and forth for several weeks, the New York Giants and Chicago Cubs settled into a very definite tie for the honor through Wednesday's games.

It was impossible to separate them even after going into the ten thousandth decimal place, up with exactly .361. The Giants had made 12 more hits than their rivals, but had been at bat 41 more times. The Cubs have been shut out only once since the race began, the Giants three times.

Although Harvey Hendrix, Cincinnati veteran, continued to lead the hitters with a mark of .404, Bill Terry of the Giants, headed the list of playing-through regulars with .361.

A pair of Cubs, Ragsie Ripstein and Hazen Cuyler, led third and fourth places, with .355 and .351, respectively. Other leaders were: Phil Phillips, 348; Roegner, B. L. 341; Washington, Boston, 341; Chicago, 332; and Hogan, New York, 323.

Chuck Klein, Philadelphia slugger, led the home run race in three departments with 17 runs scored, 31 runs scored and 49 runs batted in. He was second in runs scored in the American league with 44 runs and had produced the most safe hits—14.

Adams Leads in Doubles "Spray" Adams, B. L. 10, led the field in two-baggers, with 20. He was followed by Virgil Davis of the Phillies, with 18. (See Washington Post) had the most triples—eight, followed by Watkins of the Cardinals, with seven. Adam, Comorosky, Pittsburgh, led in stolen bases with eight. Cuyler of the Cards had pilfered seven.

Clayton Kershaw, St. Louis rookie, and Lester Breeland of the Cubs continued to share pitching honors in the minor circuit, each with 4½ victories and one shut out. Ed Brainerd, Boston Braves' southpaw, had won one and lost two and Clarence Mitchell of the Phillies, each with 4½ victories and one shut out.

Lettermen Boost Vandal Football Squad Prospects

MOSCOW, June 20 (Special to The News)—Tribunal football is getting a new impetus, the rumblings of the prophets are beginning to be heard on the campus of the University of Idaho. With 12 lettermen as a nucleus for his 1931 Vandalas, and a host of freshmen numerical team for fight for places on the squad, Coach Leo Calland is better prepared for the fall campaign than at any time since his advent here two years ago.

On paper, only two positions are open, left guard and right end, lettermen being available for—every other post on the team. Dick Calland doesn't build his teams on paper, and a mere guess for nearly every berth in the line-ups is foretold. If several of the fresh stars of last season come through as expected, it is quite possible that a few 1930 Vandalas will rise to the level of the Vandalas open against William county last September 26.

Only three lettermen were lost by graduation this year. Art Norby, Russell, end; Dan Lopez, guard; and John Buerger, tackle. Fullback Harold Carlson, end; George Hight, guard; and Jeffery Owens, tackle. Fullback Harold Carlson, end; George Hight, guard; and Jeffery Owens, tackle.

Two fullbacks, quarter, are also gone. The three were veterans and 1929 letter winners who failed to make the grade as regulars last season.

The best assortment of linemen and backs in three seasons will be on hand when first practice is called September 10.

CHICAGO, June 20 (AP)—Mate, which conquered Twenty Grand in the Kentucky, galloped to victory in the $50,000 American Derby at Washington park today.

The chestnut three-year-old, owned by J. B. Dwyer, Philadelphia, won in a thrilling, driving finish with Pittsburgh, gaining the victory by a nose.

Joe Bidd, a sensational allowance race performer in the West, furnished a surprise by finishing third, three lengths ahead of Memphis, the third outsider to share in the rich purse.

Mate finished the mile and a quarter 2:04 1/5, equalling the track record. A crowd of 40,000 saw the race. Mate, outstanding favorite, was owned by backers with $150 to win, $330 to place, and $510 to show. Pittsburgh paid $192.50 to win and $125.00 to show. See slow play on July 30th was $11.50.

Dakota Sprinter Awaits Test For Olympics Tryout

KANITON, S. D., June 20 (AP)—South Dakota's fastest human may try for the 1932 Olympic team.

"Smoky" Joe Mendel of Yankton college, who has qualified Edw. Tolm's world record of 2.8 in the 100-yard dash, will give himself a final test soon to determine whether he'll try for a berth.

He will enter the national American Athletic Union meet at Lincoln, Nebraska, July 2 to 4, and his performance then will decide.

"Smoky" Joe is almost a track man by himself, having won four different events in each of 10 track meets during the season. He is a high school athlete and college competitor. His specialties are the 100, 200 and 400 yard dashes and the broad jump.

Competing for Omaha high school in 1928, he won the state championship in the 100-yard dash by gathering 20 points. He holds state high school records in the 100, 200 and 400-yard dashes and the broad jump.

His coach has enabled Kanitton college to win the state conference title the past two years, and his college record is 100, 200 and 400-yard dashes and the broad jump.

Mendel ended his college career this spring by winning his fourth 100-yard dash in 2.8 seconds. He has won three letters in football and one in basketball.

TO ASK FOR ADDITION DULUTH, Minn. (AP)—The National Forest commission staff will be asked to acquire 150,000 additional acres for the Superior National Forest, extending it between Lake Superior and the Canadian border. The tract is a triangle in the eastern extremity of the north end of the lake.

Orator Cleveland Alexander, former big leaguer, is planning a new book on the life of the late pitcher. The book is in the hands of David Kent who is managing.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 20 (AP)—The nearly perfect golf which gave him victory over earlier opponents, brought Johnny Goodman, Omaha, the trans-Mississippi championship here today.

FEATURE FLASHES FROM FAR-FLUNG FOREIGN FIELDS

Chilean Advises Customs Union Between Americas To Remedy Economic Ills

Antonio Planet, Chile's Minister of Foreign Affairs, Believes Dangers Greater Than in Old World

ANTONIO PLANET

By HAROLD T. DEANAN
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
SANTIAGO, Chile, June 20.—"The Americas are faced by a danger to their economic structure greater than that which confronts the Old World, Chile's 35-year-old minister of foreign affairs and customs union believes to be the logical solution.

"Europe, knowing its own peril, is trying to solve it before it is too late," he said. "The Americas are not so far from the economic and industrial structure of the Old World as it is today."

"But," said the minister, "there is a greater menace for the Americas than for Europe, and there yet are no signs of a definite movement to start action before the common peril is full-blown."

"On this basis," he said, "I believe the Americas should form an economic union, but he said that the United States and Canada should be vitally interested."

"It would have interlocking agreements," he said, "which would permit them to exchange commodities freely. Tariffs would not necessarily be abolished, but they would be minimized."

"Chile's youthful statesman," he said, "does not pretend to be suggesting something new. Rather he is reiterating proposals made in numerous forms of Pan-American gatherings."

"What he does emphasize is that the present is the time for action. 'America' must be established, but he said that the United States and Canada should be vitally interested."

"I am considering the social order, which is the base of nations. It cannot be denied that the economic chaos in the Americas is a danger to the future of the world."

"This danger can be averted through an active free circulation of goods across the frontiers. The present circumstances seem adequate for thinking over the economic implications of inter-American economic cooperation on the basis of using to mutual advantage our own productive forces."

"The world-wide business depression acts in a destructive manner on our vitality, because we lack the means of collective defense and because we aggravate the general loss of local employment which our frontiersmen classified as a danger to the future welfare of America."

"Though he has made no specific reference to it, he said that the Pan-American conference, which is now being held in Washington, is a step in the right direction."

"Australia's prohibition of criminals conversing is a step in the right direction."

"SINCE, Australia, June 20 (AP)—A man may not speak to his brother here if they both have criminal records."

"This is a new ruling under the new law which prohibits criminals from meeting in public places."

"The act provides that criminals must not consort in saloons, in the street, in a house, or in a public place, and that any person failing to do so is automatically sentenced to 6 months imprisonment."

"But it is not the intention of the law that a man should be prevented from talking to his own brother," declared a lawyer in a recent case.

"If any are criminals," the judge replied, "they must keep away from one another or go to jail."

"The failure of the law to take into account the fact that a man may be prevented from talking to his own brother," declared a lawyer in a recent case.

CHAMBER ELECTION OF 1932 ENLIVEN FRANCE'S POLITICS

Presidential Changes—Hold Little Significance But Selection of Deputies Presages Political Tilts

By ARNOLD SCHWARTZ
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
PARIS, June 20.—The United States is not the only country where regularly recurrent elections keep the political pot boiling. In France the big news came every four years as in America, but instead of being "presidential year," it is "chamber year."

The next chamber of deputies is to be elected in 1932, and politicians are already looking around for signs of the times.

The presidential change which has just taken place is no help. All France wants in a president is a wise and cautious middle-of-the-road. The president is not expected to do anything politically, but keep his ear to the ground and, whenever parliament in its sovereignty throws over a premier, to feel around cautiously for the next one.

The left, or radical side of the chamber, expects to have things its own way in 1932, so it is enjoying the luxury of having a political fight of its own.

Plans For Marriage Of Swedish Maid And Prince Move Forward

Excitement Caused by Announcement of Betrothal Of Royalty Ends in Sweden

By SUELIN SACHS
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
STOCKHOLM, June 20.—Not since the time of Karl Mandorff, in the fifteenth century, has a member of Swedish royalty married a commoner.

That was some 400 years ago and so plenty of excitement was caused in Sweden by the engagement of Prince Lennart, nephew of King Gustav, to another King, named Nissavand.

This sensation was quickly followed by another. King Gustav refused to give his consent.

This situation was only called forth a declaration from Lennart that he intended to marry Miss Nissavand anyway.

A formal breach with his royal relatives seemed unavoidable until King Gustav explained that his opposition was only because he thought the young couple should wait another year. The prince was only 22 on May 8 and Miss Nissavand was only 20 on July 7.

No history was all right. Gustav meant. So the wedding is set for May 1932.

Prince Lennart met with death and warm understanding from his parents. Prince Wilhelm and Princess Maria of Russia, his bride, are living in New York. Prince Wilhelm toured the United States in 1928 lecturing on adventures in Africa.

It may be that the law will deprive Lennart of his right to inherit the Swedish throne, but he will be a prince in front of him, and a throne is no more attractive than a girl.

There is nothing like love at first sight in this story. The young prince knew each other as children when Prince Wilhelm had a cousin, "Gisela," and was a neighbor of the Karin family.

The young prince was a playmate and for years they preferred each other's company. The "pair-boys" were called years ago—mostly scanning criminal records for "The Police Journal." His discovery of these crimes of violence against persons decreased compared to the pre-war period.

"Robberies," particularly in the urban areas, and various types of fraud increased. His conclusion is: "If the younger generation, brought up in the best of ways and more accustomed to drink during the war, are on the track of factors more important than those of the court."

As the Conservative vote stands pat, the ball of the smaller groups of moderates are built on the personalities of the deputies. The fight for control of the next chamber lies between Herrick and Blum.

It is rather a queer quarrel, however, and it will not go either party any good to win unless it can make up with the other afterward. The radicals, who will undoubtedly maintain their supremacy over the moderates, believe they can get the country on what they consider the normal radical basis—as in the years before the war.

Prince Lennart of Sweden and Karin Nissavand, daughter of a commoner, were childhood sweethearts, but announcement of their betrothal almost caused a rift in the Swedish royal family. That has been smoothed out and they will wed next year.

By people who had little idea of the real truth in the world. Prince Lennart's mother, Princess Maria of Russia, left Sweden when her son was only five years old. His father was absent for long periods of service in the navy and he was without a real home. But his grandmother, the late Queen Victoria, took a fancy to the young prince and became a true foster mother.

From her he inherited by will the old castle on an island in the Bodensee to which he will take Karin as his bride. It is called "Mainau" and is about 400 years old. It contains a gallery of rare art and much valuable furniture.

An estate of several thousand acres surrounds the castle and it was in view of his future position as king that the young prince was sent to the Bodensee for the past two years.

The personal jewelry of Queen Victoria, which he would also have inherited if he had married a princess, will go to other members of the royal family.

But friends of Karin Nissavand say she probably will not miss the diamonds and pearls when she gets her prince.

"Money Bootleggers" of Spain Add New Worry to Treasury Department

(By The Associated Press)
MADRID, June 20 (AP)—Spain's currency now has its own bootleggers, and their new worries are added by the republic's treasury department.

Smuggling—keeping—illegal—imports from coming into the country, the border patrol has been the strain of the country's economy.

Soon after the establishment of the republic, Indalecio Prieto, minister of finance, decreed that no Spaniard could take more than 5000 pesetas, about $80 in American money, out of the country.

His purpose was to stop a financial stampede of persons, whose nerves could not stand the strain of governmental transition.

Hence the money bootleggers. Many of them are people of high social standing and dukes, counting on their money to buy power.

Customs vigilance then was doubled, and money running now shows more subtlety.

One prominent banker remarked that everybody in Spain seemed to be going into the "crash" business—an export business offering easy and legitimate transfer of funds to other countries.

Also, in commercial circles it is said many invoices accompanying imported wares have shown surprising increases in purchase prices.

power in January under the leadership of President Ricardo J. Alfaro has recognized the importance of tourist trade, and is planning to make the lulltime more attractive to the thousands of travelers who each year pass through the canal.

HEALTH CAMP ASKS DOLLAR DONATIONS FOR 30 CHILDREN

Fund of $600 Will Enable
Boys and Girls to Spend
Summer Rebuilding Bodies
At McClusky Memorial

Six hundred persons, each giving $1 to make up a fund of $600, will enable 30 children to spend the summer season at the McClusky Memorial health camp at Buhl, which is to be open for public inspection at an open house today, beginning at 10 A. M.

Backers of the camp are appealing to public generosity for the money that will bring to these boys and girls the benefits of restored health and strength that the camp was founded to give them. If 600 persons will give one dollar each, the thing will be done. Contributions may be sent to Mrs. A. P. McClusky, secretary, Buhl, or The News will receive and deliver contributions for this purpose.

Though financed in large part by proceeds of the sale of Tuberculosis Christmas "cards" McClusky health camp is not a tuberculosis sanitarium. On the contrary, children suffering from tuberculosis cannot be admitted. Its purpose is entirely preventive. It will give children between 10 and 15 years old who are underweight, or who are recovering from illness and are susceptible to tuberculosis, and endeavor by means of rest and proper diet to build up little bodies and demonstrate the necessity for proper living habits in prevention of disease.

Twenty on list
Children admitted to the camp must be free from communicable disease, immunized against smallpox and diphtheria, and must have tonsils removed where necessary.

Already there are 20 applicants who have passed examinations for admission to the camp this season which opens July 1 and continues for two months. Among applicants already approved girls outnumber boys three-to-one. Some are from Twin Falls, four from Buhl, two each from Castleford, Hansen and Deep Creek, and one each from Piler, Merax and Bland.

Cost of maintaining one child at the camp during the two-month season is $40. A number of organizations have donated in excess of $200. The camp is to be operated under supervision of a trained staff composed of a medical specialist, playground director and the camp mother.

TWIN FALLS SOLDIERS RETURN FROM CAPITAL

Company E, Twin Falls unit, and Company D, Buhl unit, 116th engineers, Idaho National guard, and the Kimberly medical unit returned last evening from Boise. Many came overland.

The health of the soldiers was reported excellent. The Twin Falls unit went with full complement of men to Boise, and had only one case of illness. The men for railroad men was better than ever before it was stated, and all, it was said, returned heavier than when they went, except Buhl unit the cook, who weighed out 15 pounds lighter. The company won all contests in which it was allowed to enter.

It is not known who will go from Idaho to the national rifle matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, but confidence is expressed that several from Twin Falls will accompany Private Lieutenant J. H. Beaver, who won highest individual score at Boise.

Jack Walter will keep the track captaincy of Marquette university in the family. He succeeds his father, Joe. They are from Latah, Ontario.

DIVER ENCOUNTERS HANDICAP TO HUNT

Dense Growth of Willows on Reservoir Floor Impedes
Search for Drowned Man

Dense growth of willows, submerged for 20 years under more than 40 feet of water, is handicapping the efforts of Dr. G. E. Kimble, Buhl, deep-water diver, who yesterday was lowered into Salmon River reservoir to search for the body of Alvin Hise, 45, Buhl farm owner, trapped in a storm that caught a fishing boat there last Tuesday.

The diver's search, following 20 hours of dragging the reservoir with hooks, continued throughout yesterday afternoon, without avail, and is to be resumed today.

Though prices at Salmon dam, six miles below where the search is being made, were opened Friday to release water into the Salmon River irrigation system, there is no perceptible current where the diver is working. Dr. Kimble said here last evening. There is a slight movement of the water about 15 feet below the surface, he said.

Assisting in the diver's search yesterday was Hise, Toledo, Ohio, brother of the drowned man, who arrived Friday and anticipated employment of the diver.

Dave Baggett, Buhl, attendant at Dr. Kimble in his diving expeditions in this region during the past five years, including his part in the search for the Magic dam nearly two years ago, is a member of the searching party, and so also are Deputy Sheriff W. B. Dobson and C. A. Schwartz, Twin Falls, who led the search with drag hooks earlier in the week.

The diver works from a pontoon raft on which are mounted an air pump and hoist.

A systematic campaign for locating the reservoir floor was mapped out last evening, when the initial efforts disclosed some of the difficulties to be dealt with.

Dr. Kimble had worked as a diver on the Pacific coast from Alaska to South America, before coming to Idaho five years ago, he said here last evening.

SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE

AT THE
IDAHO DEPARTMENT STORE

Judging from the opening two days ago this sale bids fair to be the largest summer sale we have ever given. This is especially remarkable in the face of the fact that commodity prices are down about 20% from a year ago. To us this reflects as never before the result of our policies of fair and honest dealings to every one. There is no time or room for tricky merchandising methods in this establishment. Price juggling is unheard of here.
