CHURCHES IN DUHL PLAN FOR EVENTS

Arrangements For Conference and Young Folks' Party Claim Attention

DUHL, July 20 (Special to The News)—Churches of Duhl are planning a number of activities during the coming week.

The annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church to be held here August 19 to 23 with a number of noted speakers listed on the program will bring an attendance of more than 100 ministers and laymen from all parts of the state. An anti-prohibitionist will speak during the service. The plan is to hold most of the evening sessions in the city park to accommodate large audiences. Amplifiers will be installed in order to carry the message to the largest possible number of persons and the public is cordially invited to attend the services. Rev. H. Lines requests that persons having spare rooms or accommodations be made available kindly notify him before the opening date of the conference.

Rev. W. B. Smith, Oregon, a retired Methodist minister, filed the pulpit of the Methodist church last Sunday. At the meeting of the Evening League Sunday evening, Professor Chrysler, Gooding college, spoke to the young people on "The Value of Youth in the Church."

Rev. H. Lines will fill the pulpit at the union services in the city park next Sunday evening in the absence of Rev. Gayley W. Halsey, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Finch and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Finch, will leave Thursday morning to attend sessions of the Idaho district camp meeting of the Nazarene church conducted at Nampa, July 21 to August 2. Dr. C. E. Hardy, Tennessee, and Rev. A. E. Bolander, superintendents of the Kansas district, will conduct the meetings and music has been arranged by Miss Arvina Long and the Johnette quartet, a group from the Nazarene college, Nampa. Mrs. Oliver Burnett will be in charge of the service during Rev. Finch's absence.

Rev. Chris J. Denny, pastor of the Christian church will speak on "Organized Religion Versus Unorganized Religion" at the morning service next Sunday. Sunday school classes will assemble in the park for regular work and the morning session will also be preached in the open air. A basket dinner will follow. Many of the members will join with the former residents of Missoula who will picnic in the park on Sunday.

An enjoyable social affair of the last week in the Christian church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Broyles near Buhi, where a group of young people of the Happy Hunters class and the high school class gathered for a slaw party. The early part of the evening was spent with "kick-out" and other lawn games. Refreshments were served at a late hour to Lydia Whitman, Myra Lee Whitman, Fred Gault, Esther Gault, Genevieve Gault, Miss Norma Killa, Nampa, Lucille Gault, Patricia Neyer, Omaha, Nebraska, LaVern Gault, Arubella, Southwick, Lancia Broyles, Arthur Konach, Fred Whitner, Cliff Max Riger, Merle Ouff, Eddie Neyer, Eddie Young, Aubrey Max Riger, Fred Thomas, Lavette, Dyer, Glen Denny, Rev. and Mrs. Benny, Richard and Elizabeth and Mr. and Mrs. Broyles.

Rev. Denny, accompanied by Ethel Brown, Conrad, Montana, and Mrs. In-law, spent the early part of the week in Boise and Nampa on pleasure and business.

Rev. George F. Barlow, pastor of the Baptist church, will speak on "The Purpose of the Church" at the Sunday morning service. The congregation will join with other churches in the union service in the city park.

INSTRUCTORS REPORT ON HOLLISTER BIBLE STUDY

HOLLISTER, July 20 (Special to The News)—Records of the Hollister Bible study school, which closed last week were announced by instructors here today.

Total enrollment was 20 children, of which 11 had perfect attendance. Pupils from Hager, Haggard, Springville, Amsterdam, Iperoon and Hollister attended in four divisions, primary, junior, intermediate and senior.

Regular sessions closed Friday with a basket lunch in the church basement and a program to which the public was invited Sunday evening. An unusually large audience was present.

In addition to general study of the Bible, interesting hand work was accomplished and a primary rhythm band was organized.

AMSTERDAM GETS LAST IRRIGATION OF SEASON

AMSTERDAM, July 20 (Special to The News)—Water for irrigation, which was turned into the ditches in this locality on Tuesday evening will be the last available for irrigation purposes this season. Storage supply is sufficient for a few days run.

It is estimated that this supply will give the bean field sufficient moisture to bring maturity. Intense heat and winds of the last month have been discouraging factors. Ranchers have met the conditions by keeping the soil stirred.

This vicinity witnessed somewhat cooler weather Wednesday, and a shower of rain fell early in the morning.

The mercury has been climbing to maximum between 100 and 110 degrees for the last two weeks. Nights were somewhat cooler.

FILER KIWANIS HEAR
BOSTON FOLKS' MUSIC

FILER, July 20 (Special to The News)—Pier Kwan at 14 Tuesday luncheon was delightfully entertained by musical numbers given by Mr. and Mrs. Halsey Drake, Boston, Massachusetts. Mr. Drake is an accomplished cellist and Mrs. Drake played special piano numbers.

An additional interesting part of the program was a talk by Mr. Drake, who spent the past two years in London. He compared economic conditions in Europe and this country.

Sunday evening, 1931
Members of the church met at the home of Mrs. Halsey Drake Thursday evening and all members are urged to attend.

RUPERT BOY'S BODY GOES TO LAST REST

Impressive Rites Honor Jim Ed McPike, 22, Victim of Drowning in Snake River

RUPERT, July 20 (Special to The News)—Assembling at 9 o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of the mother, Mrs. Anna McPike, friends numbered into the hundreds paid a last solemn tribute at the funeral service conducted for her only son, Jim Ed McPike, who lost his life in the waters of Snake river while swimming Sunday evening.

In an impressive funeral address, Dr. Oren Oranold, of the First Christian church offered words of comfort and consolation to the bereaved family and to the young friends whose companionship was so unexpectedly taken from them. The subject of the short address was "Retrieving Human Life."

Jim Ed, whose birthday was last April was 22 years of age. His birthplace was Hocking, Oregon, Missouri. For 13 years he lived here, having come with his parents to Rupert in 1918. He received his education in the Rupert schools. When 12 years of age he united with the First Christian church of Rupert.

Music for the service was contributed by A. J. French in a solo number and two hymns were sung by the Christian church quartet: Mrs. Anna McPike, Mrs. Oren Oranold, L. V. Carpenter and Dr. A. E. Johnson, with Mrs. Carl Olson accompanying.

Pall bearers were J. B. Hopkins, Frank Forman, M. F. Andrews, H. D. Reynolds, M. K. Jensen and R. L. Willis. Frank Dunn, Loren Hendricks, Ross Terrill, Stanley Gelling, Stirling

Johnson and Danette Daniels served as honorary pall bearers, in recognition of the profession of beautiful florists.

Interment was in Rupert cemetery. The Goodwin Mortuary was in charge.

Surviving in addition to the mother and sister, Mary Anna, who with Jim Ed made their home in Rupert, there is the father, Country McPike, residing in California, who was unable to be present.

The eternal program was completed by music contributed by Gustav Frechter and daughter, Mildred, accompanied by Wanda Olla at the piano, as well as interesting addresses by several guests.

Mr. John E. Hayes, Twin Falls gave the principal talk of the evening, urging as he termed, "The Children's clatter." Mrs. Hayes brought to the attention of members the 10 young ladies by the children's clatter, of these points include the right of every child to spiritual training, a August 2nd. Ask local agent for food home, an education, moral community life, and good birth. Mrs. M. J. Bridgman followed Mrs. Hayes' address with a talk in which she showed the need in America for the children's clatter.

R. E. Shepherd concluded the subject given by Mrs. Hayes, by a vision, at future citizens, the children of the land are the best investments and by advancing the ideas of the children's clatter, communities would be making good their investments. Besides Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. Bridgman the other guests of the evening were Palmer H. Cushman, Harry Sims, Mr. Hayes and Mrs. Sam Sak-

PRICES DOWN DOWN DOWN

PRICES ON MOST COMMODITIES ARE DOWN, WHY NOT MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS?

No, the factories are not reducing prices; but we feel when wheat, apples, beans and other crops are down, why shouldn't trumpets, trombones, saxophones and other musical instruments also be reduced?

You can now buy a new trumpet, silver gold bell, with case for $35.00, a clarinet for $40.00, an alto sax for $45.00, tenor for $50.00, all silver plated with gold bell, and case.

Pan American trombones, brass finish for $48.50, trumpet for $48.50, 7 silver plated flutes for $72.00, piccolo for $44.00.

We have a few used instruments on which prices drop. Several sets of drums $25.00, $35.00, and $45.00. Trombones $25.00 to $50.00. Saxophones $40.00 to $75.00. Banjos also $10.00 to $25.00. You can buy any instrument on the easy payment plan, and remember we don't add any tax, or delivery, carrying charges.

ST. LOUIS, July 20—

Ed Brandt, southpaw ace of the Boston Braves held the St. Louis Cardinals to five scattered hits here today, to whitewash the champions, 3

to 0, to win the first

split the four-game series with the Cardinals.

Only 29 men faced Brandt and of the five who garnered hits were victims in double plays and only two were stranded on base.

Brandt went the route for the first.
