Confessed Slayers of Two Young Couples Receive
Life Terms in Prison
In Record-Breaking Trial

(By The Associated Press)
BY ARABOP, Mich., Aug. 13.—Two white youths and a gigantic Negro, all bearing evidence of rough handling by angry guards, tonight received Michigan's severest penalty for the brutal murder of two young couples on a lonely road last Tuesday.

The sentences, four life imprisonment terms for each man, but to run concurrently, were imposed after a trial and twenty minutes after the jury had returned the verdict which made this quiet university community life white hot.

George J. W. Sample, before passing sentence, heard the two prisoners—Frank Smith, 22, and Frank O'Neil, 19—tell how they, with their co-defendant, David E. Blackstone, 33, killed the young people, transported their bodies to a nearby house, and then set fire to the car and the house.

Robbery Motive
Robbery was the motive of the attack, the prisoners said, although the jury found that Blackstone actually was one of the two boys in the car. The two boys, Anna May Harrison and Thomas W. Harrison, were killed in the car. Blackstone, who was the driver, was killed in the car. The two boys, Anna May Harrison and Thomas W. Harrison, were killed in the car.

MURDER CHARGED LOS ANGELES MAN ADMITS KILLINGS

D. H. Clark, Former State
Prosecutor, Tells Jury He Fired in Self-Defense
in Heat of Angry Talk

(By The Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 13.—A story of a double killing committed in self defense in the heat of an angry discussion over an alleged plot to kidnap the chief of police was told by David H. Clark today in the trial of the former state prosecutor accused of slaying Herbert Spencer and Charles Crawford, political figures.

Before a crowded courtroom Clark put a revolver in the hands of his state look but own weapon and admitted to the jury of seven women and five men how he killed Crawford and shot Spencer.

The killings marked the end of the Spencer trial in the Hollywood real estate offices of Crawford the afternoon of May 26. After Clark fired the shot which killed Crawford and shot Spencer, he fled the scene.

Clark was released from the county jail after a $10,000 bail was set for him.

FALL LOSES LAST HOPE OF CLEMENCY

Former Interior Secretary
Gets No Support in Plea
For Release From Prison

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13 (Special to The News)—While the immediate outlook of most of the main steel-consuming industries is not bright, the longer term outlook is not bad. It is pointed out by the Brookmire Economic Service, Incorporated, which calls attention to the fact that production has now been substantially under normal for an unusually long period and a large potential demand is unquestionably being created.

"Considerable discussion of the probability of a recovery in the leading steel companies has recently been heard," says the Brookmire analysis. "With operations at less than a third of capacity, labor forces are not fully employed by any means and therefore a cut in wages of those employed on part time would not be a great evil."

"The logical procedure would be to delay any wage cuts until improvement in the line of operation becomes apparent so that the greater number of hours work, even at a lower rate, would give labor a living wage and at the same time result in substantial saving to the further action. This course amounts to a denial of any application."

Continues in Confinement

Thus the former cabinet officer, who was sentenced to a year and a day in prison and fined $100,000 for accepting a bribe from Edward Doherty, must continue in confinement for at least four months before a parole can be considered.

Fall entered the penitentiary of his home state on July 20. In his seventh year, and suffering from various ailments, He described the ambulance that carried him to prison as a "damned hearse."

The opinions of three men were sought upon the clemency plea submitted in Fall's behalf.

One was Justice William H. Taft, now of the District of Columbia court of appeals who sanctioned the former secretary. The others were Allen Pomeroy, Cleveland, special prosecutor for the government in the oil trials, and United States District Attorney Leo A. Rorer, Washington.

Under the same executive order that allowed their vote to close the Fall plea, another clause provided that three opinions not be made public. Only the bare announcement was made that they were adverse.

ECONOMISTS STUDY STEEL INDUSTRIES

Brookmire Service Declares
Large Firms Should Maintain Wage Scales Further

NEW YORK, Aug. 13 (Special to The News)—While the immediate outlook of most of the main steel-consuming industries is not bright, the longer term outlook is not bad. It is pointed out by the Brookmire Economic Service, Incorporated, which calls attention to the fact that production has now been substantially under normal for an unusually long period and a large potential demand is unquestionably being created.

"Considerable discussion of the probability of a recovery in the leading steel companies has recently been heard," says the Brookmire analysis. "With operations at less than a third of capacity, labor forces are not fully employed by any means and therefore a cut in wages of those employed on part time would not be a great evil."

"The logical procedure would be to delay any wage cuts until improvement in the line of operation becomes apparent so that the greater number of hours work, even at a lower rate, would give labor a living wage and at the same time result in substantial saving to the further action. This course amounts to a denial of any application."

operating company."

The situation which now prevails, according to Brookmire, is that steel operations have reached the level where virtually no profits can be realized and any further drop in business would entirely wipe out earnings. Ordinarily they say, the decline in profits are about twice as great as the decline in shipments.

The following deductions are made regarding the steel outlook.

"The present production of steel in the first six months of 1931 declined 35.2 per cent from the corresponding half of 1930. The output for the first six months of this year was the smallest for any corresponding period since 1921. Furthermore, operations continued to decline into the third quarter reaching a new low level for the current depression in the last weeks of July. This means that the first months of the third quarter will be the lowest for the present depression."

Mill's Far Below Capacity

"While the production of steel during the first half of 1931 averaged almost 50 per cent greater than the production for the corresponding half of 1921, the mills of the country were able to operate at an average of only 64.4 per cent of capacity as compared with 40 per cent in the first half of 1921. Input capacity is now estimated at 100 per cent higher than the record production reached in the first half of 1921. The large over-capacity of steel plants naturally leads to keen competition as each producer desires to keep his plant operating at the highest possible rate."

"This leads to a general weakening of the steel price structure just as a time when production costs are mounting because of the lower rate of operations. Despite several recent attempts to stabilize steel prices, they have continued to decline and according to the Iron Age composite, are now at the lowest level in the present depression. If the experience of the post-war depression is any criterion, the decline in the composite prices for finished steel products may be expected to continue long after the non-seasonal demand has begun to rise."

"With both the physical output of steel and steel prices at extremely low levels and declining, during the first half of 1931, it was not surprising that the operating results of the leading steel companies were highly unsatisfactory. Operating profits of both United States Steel and Bethlehem Steel failed to cover their preferred dividend requirements during the first half of this year."

"Results in the current quarter will probably be even more unsatisfactory than those of the first half, there is the probability, however, that some sort of improvement may be noted late in the quarter and that results for the last quarter of this year will be somewhat better than is expected for the current quarter. Developments in the meantime, of course, will determine what may be expected of the fourth quarter, but there is little chance that any improvement in the near future will be sufficient to bring the third quarter results to a favorable profit basis."

"In fact, it is our expectation that the total value of steel shipments for the third quarter of this year will show a decline of 20 per cent as compared with shipments in the second quarter, during which time the two leading steel companies failed to cover their preferred dividend requirements."

George Sharpe, 110, Columbia South Carolina, can drive a golf ball 175 yards. He plays his home course in 55.

What She Symboblizes

Empress Eugénie-Marie de Montijo was the wife of Charles Louis Napoleon Bonaparte (Napoleon III).

Empress Eugénie ruled with her husband until 1870. The second Empire, however, was short-lived and the royal pair were forced to flee to England. She lived in exile there until she died in 1920 having reached the age of 96.

Empress Eugénie was a queen of fashion as well as the Queen of France. Her original styles dominated the world's fashion centers in the late Eighteenth century. She is now considered a correct authority for a renaissance in modern style.

S.V.E. STEVENS VAN ENGELN CO STORES

NOW!

More Apparent Than Ever Before Cash Buying Pays — And CASH SELLING WINS!

Great price reductions have been taking place in all commodities during the past year—General merchandise, dry goods, clothing and shoes, are at the lowest levels in 16 years.

The merchant on a cash basis—always having the edge on supplying the greatest dollar for dollar value—now enjoys a still greater advantage.

CASH BUYING brings the best quality at the lowest possible price. CASH SELLING eliminates the high costs and intricacies that at best are so costly to a credit business. Credit risks are greater than ever before. Collections are harder, the costs of credit go up—AND THE ADDITIONAL COST MUST BE MET.

We urge the thrifty shopper to compare values—not on just a few articles but on ALL MERCHANDISE. The only conclusion is obvious—VAN ENGELN'S LEAD IN VALUE.

Nation's Mail Plane Mileage Daily Totals 75,000 Miles

180 CITIES IN 40 STATES OF UNION NOW GET SERVICE

Aerial Postal Routes Grow From 21,323 Miles to 28,000 in Six Months

DOMESTIC AIR ROUTES ALSO EXPAND RAPIDLY

Opening of New Lines and Extensions of Others Makes Air Map Larger

America's airmail routes, expanded by 8000 miles since January 1, are shown on the map prepared for The Associated Press by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce. With the exception of one route between New York and Atlantic City, all existing lines are shown as of July 1.

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Aug. 13—America's airmail operators have cut into economically adverse winds with a 30 per cent expansion of mileage since January 1.

A survey of the situation by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce for The Associated Press shows that airmail now is being carried at least 75,000 miles daily, more than three times around the world at the equator.

And the total length of airmail routes in operation has increased to 28,000 from 21,323 as of January 1.

With the opening of new lines and the extension of existing ones made in the last six months, the nation's airmail map now resembles a veritable honeycomb, with lines radiating to and from a hundred and fifty cities in 40 states and the District of Columbia now receive service.

Domestic Lines Grow
The mileage scheduled daily by the domestic lines at the first of the year was 9,410. With the opening on July 10 of a new route from New York to Atlantic City, the figure increased to 12,118.

On the average, more than 90 per cent of scheduled mileage is flown by transport companies. Mechanical failures are negligible, but the weather still causes occasional cancellations.

Since the first of the year, Eastern Air Transport has added another daily round trip flight to its Atlanta-Miami schedule, and has inaugurated a new round trip service between Richmond, Virginia, and Jacksonville, Florida.

Northwest Airways extended its service from St. Paul to Duluth, Minnesota, to Fargo, Grand Forks and Pembina, North Dakota, where connections are made with planes for Winnipeg, and from Fargo to Mandan, North Dakota.

National Air Transport added one round trip schedule from New York to Chicago, another between Cleveland and Chicago, and two between Chicago and Kansas City.

Transcontinental

Transcontinental initiated a third round trip daily between Chicago and San Francisco. An airmail letter posted in New York, now reaches San Francisco in 28 hours.

American Airways opened a new route from Kansas City to Denver, flying one round trip a day; Trans-American Air Lines added a fourth daily round trip between Detroit and Chicago, and a sixth between Cleveland and Detroit.

Colonial Western Airways extended its Albany-Nashville route to Memphis and Little Rock, Texas, and Fort Worth.

Southern Transcontinental Airways added Birmingham to its Atlanta-Los Angeles line, meanwhile installing additional service between Memphis and New Orleans via Jacksonville, Mississippi.

Planned extensions of routes were authorized recently by the government. These lines will run from St. Louis to Memphis; Chicago, Wyoming; to Denver; Fort Worth to Amarillo, Texas; Boston, New England and Bangor, Maine; St. Paul,

Texas, to Albuquerque, New Mexico; Omaha to Sioux City, Iowa; Sioux Falls and Watertown, South Dakota; New York to Kansas City, an overnight service; Pueblo to Albuquerque; Pueblo to Amarillo; Albany to Springfield and Boston, Mass.; Albany to New York; Albany to Cleveland; Philadelphia to Atlantic City and Cleveland to Nashville.

BURLEY ATTORNEY CITES PREVAILING TAX BURDEN

BUURLEY, Aug. 13 (Special to The News)—The burden in excess of the ability to pay are being thrust upon the American people, declared S. T. Love, Burley attorney, in an address before the Rotary club at luncheon, Tuesday. He cited figures to bear out his contention that gross expenditures of all governmental bodies in this country were rapidly increasing.

He said that the cost of federal government functions in the past 15 years had increased more than 375 per cent. "In the face of diminishing receipts," he asserted, "confronted at its last session appropriated the enormous sum of $10,749,819,215, the largest amount ever appropriated at a single session in peace time, either in this or any other country."

Gross expenditures of all governmental bodies in the United States, including federal, state and local, amounted to an increase in 1929 of $9,000,000,000 over the same class of expenditures in 1913, which in that year were $2,719,000,000. And since 1913 these expenditures have been steadily increasing.

Two remedies were suggested to bring about a sane administration of expenditures. One was that the citizens as a whole should be kept informed of the extent of tax levies and for what purpose the money raised was being used. The other was the election of a higher type of representative citizen to the offices of importance. Men of sound

YOUNG FISHERMEN PAY FOR SHOSHONE THEFTS

SHOSHONE, Aug. 13 (Special to The News)—Three young men who said their homes were in Twin Falls, each paid fine of $10 and costs here this morning as the result of a midnight gasoline theft, in which they picked up cars belonging to Harland D. Hodge, president of the court, and George Brown, Lincoln county sheriff, from which to drain the precious fluid.

They were on their way to the Salmon river country on a fishing trip, and needed gas to get there on, they told officers who caught them about 1 o'clock this morning. The youths paid their fines; reimbursed the persons from whom they took gasoline; bought a new rubber hose for S. T. Bates to pay for one they cut to drain gas tanks with—then went merrily on their way to the mountains.

business ability, of sane discernment and of high moral courage. And finally, the money raised should be spent for governmental purposes and not for the benefit of individuals, he said.

BUT I've noticed recently that more of my girl friends are smoking CHESTERFIELD, and I asked why.

"One of them said that CHESTERFIELDS really are milder and taste better—that there is nothing strong or sharp or bitter about them.

"Another one spoke up and said that she too liked the taste of CHESTERFIELDS; but that she was especially pleased with the package—so neat and attractive. Chesterfields—she added—are made right—properly filled—and burn evenly; and she thought possibly they were using a better cigarette paper.

"Still another one agreed with all we'd said. She'd been smoking CHESTERFIELDS for a long, long time, and had always liked them; but she also liked the way they were advertised. The advertising seemed to her to be the truth and the whole truth—it wasn't always knocking somebody or something!"

RECLAMATION PARTY VISITS AT GOODING

Congressional Group Spends Hour in County Seat and Gives Short Addresses

GOODING, Aug. 13 (Special to The News)—The United States congressional house sub-committee on interior department appropriations and several other members of a party touring Western reclamation projects spent an hour in Gooding today. Several of the group gave short addresses at the Lincoln Inn, where a group of 100 persons gathered.

Senator John Thomas introduced, Addison T. Smith, representative in congress for the Second Idaho district, who in turn introduced other members of the party.

Representative Frank Murphy, Ohio, in the principal address, declared it was regrettable all members of congress could not spend three months in Western states to learn of the agricultural problems of the district.

"This committee," he continued, "has cause for many heartaches, because the $1,000,000,000 treasury debt left behind at this time does harm for Western farmers." He further paid tribute to Senator Thomas, and Congressman Smith for their integrity and special efforts in obtaining $5,000,000 appropriation to bring water to the Gooding district. He also pointed to the importance of the positions of Senator Thomas and Congressman Smith as members of agricultural and reclamation committees in the upper and lower house.

Other members of the party were Edward T. Taylor, Colorado; Burton B. French, Idaho; Robert L. Moore, Massachusetts congressman; W. W. Hastings, Oklahoma, and the following state officials: R. W. Davis, commissioner of reclamation; J. Lee Johnson, commissioner of agriculture.

Several other persons prominently identified with reclamation work were in the group. They left about 4:45 o'clock for other South Idaho towns.

The local chamber of commerce and a committee headed by Albert Stone welcomed the visitors for Gooding.

Hydroplane Race Brings Together Renowned Pilots

Miss America and Miss England in Competition for Harnsworth Trophy in International Water Event

By DAVID J. WILKIE
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
DETROIT, Aug. 13—Just an hour before sundown Saturday, September 5, the fastest hydroplanes in the world will meet over the starting line for the Harnsworth trophy race.

Less than 30 minutes later a new world's record for the event undoubtedly will be announced.

It will be the seventh running of the famed British international trophy race for speedboats with unlimited power. Barring some unforeseen development it will bring together the Wood and Kaye Don, the world's premier speedboat pilots.

Don will bring Miss England II, which he drove to a record speed of 114.5 miles an hour in the 1929 race. Wood will have Miss America VII, and Miss England II, and possibly also Miss America, and possibly also Miss England II.

Girl Super-Athlete Hopes To Win New Honors In Golf Championship

By ROBERT J. GAVANARO
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

By ROBERT J. GAVANARO
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
NEW YORK, Aug. 13—Mildred (Babe) Dickerson, super-athlete of Dallas, Texas, has decided to go in for golf in a big way.

And when the "Babe" makes up her mind to turn the golf ball over her trophies with both hands, she has the uncanny faculty of being able to "kill her shot."

Her latest prediction is that in a year or two she will be in the thick of the fight for all major golf championships.
