MACDONALD PILOTS COALITION CABINET TO INITIAL VICTORY

House of Commons, Convened In Special Session, Bal-lots 309 to 250 to Support Latest Government

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Sept. 8.—Ramsay MacDonald's new National government, formed to pull Great Britain out of the financial crisis, won its first battle tonight by gaining a vote of confidence from the house of commons with a majority of 59.

The house, which convened in special session today, voted 309 to 250 in support of the new MacDonald cabinet, made up of members from the Labor, Conservative and Liberal parties.

Voting with the majority were 12 Labor members, including Prime Minister MacDonald, Charles Clegg, Snowden, J. H. Thomas and four other ministers. All the Conservatives and Liberals supported the government, but three of the independent members.

Three other independents, including Oliver Baldwin, son of the Conservative leader, voted against the government. The four Liberal members supported the opposition and three Labor members abstained from voting.

The vote came after an all day debate which started with a memorable oration delivered by the prime minister and Arthur Henderson, his old Labor colleague and now leader of the opposition.

The debate was a resounding call for the house to resolve itself into a committee of ways and means on Thursday for the quick passage of economy and revenue measures designed to overcome the threatened deficit of £100,000,000.

MacDonald declared that this resolution would be taken as a test of confidence or non-confidence in his government.

Atmosphere Clear With the simple majority registered, it was believed the atmosphere was cleared for approval by the house of commons.

There were loud ministerial cheers when a government majority was indicated in the house of commons and the actual result was quickly and members departed more or less silently as the session adjourned.

JUDGE LETS CAPONE ENTER SECOND PLEA

Gangster Changes Answer to 'Not Guilty at Unexpected Hearing in Windy City'

CHICAGO, Sept. 8 (AP)—Scarface Al Capone, facing trial on charges of conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws and of evading the income tax law, was granted permission today to change his plea of guilty in the liquor case to one of not guilty by Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson.

The ruling was made in an unexpected hearing in Judge Wilkerson's chambers. The judge recently had announced that the hearing, originally scheduled for today, would not be held until September 11.

In a memorandum which the judge ordered his clerk to file, it was said that the hearing in the plea was being allowed to change because the defendant had agreed to plead guilty under a compromise agreement with the prosecution in which the court could not concur.

The gangster was allowed to withdraw his plea of guilty to the income tax charge last July 31, the day he was to have been sentenced. Wilkerson, however, announced he would hear evidence in the liquor case, apparently discrediting the agreement for leniency entered into by Capone and the prosecution.

The original agreement with the judge ordered his clerk to file, it was said that the hearing in the plea was being allowed to change because the defendant had agreed to plead guilty under a compromise agreement with the prosecution in which the court could not concur.

PET PIGEONS DIE OF POISON IN FINANCIAL DISTRICT OF GOTHAM

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (AP)—Most of the famous pigeons of St. Paul's chapel, pets of stenographers and business men in the financial district, are dead or dying, the victims of poison.

Many of them were taken from the sky—the other afternoon their skews killed.

Police officers who were picture-policing are sent because "their poor white plumage" was caught by a photographer when he was at a high ledge of the Woolworth building, during the reign of that edifice as the tallest in the world, was the first to be stricken by the poisoner's whim. She fluttered to the ground.

Then came another and another, a crowd gathered. High above could be seen other pigeons being taken down from the Woolworth building, during the reign of that edifice as the tallest in the world, was the first to be stricken by the poisoner's whim. She fluttered to the ground.

EDISON WAGES CRIM BATTLE FOR HEALTH

"The Noted Inventor Is Slowly and Definitely Failing," Observes Physician

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Sept. 8 (AP)—Dr. Robert S. Howe, personal physician of Thomas Alva Edison who is slowly and definitely failing, was observed today.

Accompanying the physician's comment was a statement by Charles Edison, son, that "father is not well as well as he was a week or two ago."

Dr. Howe said that while the features of Mr. Edison's condition have improved, the uremic poison, which is the cause of his suffering, has settled in his kidneys. It is also affecting his digestive organs.

"Mr. Edison's diabetic condition has practically cleared up," Dr. Howe said, "but the uremia is gradually becoming worse and is interfering with his gastric functions."

"When I say that Mr. Edison is slowly and definitely failing, I do so with the greatest reluctance," Dr. Howe explained, adding "he might surprise us."

An oxygen tank, used two years ago when Mr. Edison was ill with pneumonia, has been found in his bedroom in his home in Llewellyn park.

It was the oxygen used to give Mr. Edison relief during dizzy spells he has been having lately, he has been refused to take any, the physician said.

In spite of his failing condition Mr. Edison still insists on taking his daily automobile ride. Mr. Edison has an open car. Some days he has gone for rides in both the morning and the afternoon, staying out about two hours at a time.

A rumor that Mr. Edison's mind had been affected by his illness was denied by his son, Charles.

Ambulances were rushed to the scene and took 31 persons to hospitals. Witnesses said there were about 100 passengers on the car when it was traveling at high speed when it went through the switch.

The passengers were returning from Devonshire race track on the outskirts of the city, where they had attended the closing events of the field day.

SOLON BRANDS TALK OF DEFICIT EXAGGERATED

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 8 (AP)—Congressman Samuel A. Brandt, Pennsylvania, told the National Federation of Postoffice Clerks today that the reported $100,000,000 deficit in the postoffice department was "a myth existing only in the minds of some uninformed government officials."

Mr. Brandt said that the deficit of $101,148,000 is unimportant in view of the services given the United States by postal employees. He said that the department has a deficit.

FRIENDS EXPRESS FAITH IN AIRMAN ON OCEAN FLIGHT

Ships On Pacific Fail to Report Sighting Moyle and Allen But Followers Appear Optimistic

(By The Associated Press) TOKYO, Sept. 8.—Two fearless Americans, Don Moyle and C. A. Allen, although unsighted since shortly after leaving San Francisco at 5:30 A. M. yesterday were believed to be nearing the North American mainland tonight on the first non-stop Pacific flight between Japan and America.

Their menplane was thought by officials to have outraced a storm blowing down from Nome. The plane was scheduled to have passed over the Aleutian island at about midnight, and to be crossing the Gulf of Alaska.

Predictions were made the aviators would finish their 4465-mile flight at Seattle or Seattle-Tacoma field between 7 A. M. and noon Wednesday, Pacific coast time, to win the $25,000 offered by the Tokyo newspaper Asahi for the first non-stop flight between Japan and America.

Friends they made in Japan could not picture Moyle and Allen succumbing to the perils of the vast stretch of water over hung by sudden storm on Sunday. Mr. Moyle, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

400-ACRE FIRE RAGES IN YELLOWSTONE PARK

LIVINGSTON, Mont., Sept. 8 (AP)—A 400-acre forest fire in Yellowstone national park kept beyond control today.

The fire made a mile run in a dry, thickly timbered park of the forest fire. It is a burn in the northwest corner several miles from a road or building.

Officials said the fire scene tonight to reinforce the six men already there. Superintendent Roger Toll said that the fire was contained by lightning in the park since Saturday. The others caused little damage.

"WIFE-SWAPPING" MAN RE-WEDS FIRST SPOUSE

EDGEWATER, Wash., N. J., Sept. 8 (AP)—Dorothy Woodard Earl, who was married to a man who died in 1923, announced today that she was re-marrying her first husband, the former Maybelle Stinson, who was announced at the Earl estate here today.

The ceremony took place 30 miles away from the first Mrs. Earl in Tampa, Florida, two weeks ago. The Earl was leaving her second husband, Mr. Earl, in Canada.

Friends of the four here decided to be quoted as to the likelihood of her re-marrying her former wife. This is Earl's fourth marriage. He is the son of the late Mrs. Earl, who died in November, 1930, leaving him a huge fortune.

Mr. Maybelle Stinson Reinhold Earl is an artist and engraver.

Wilkins' Vessel Arrives at Port

LONGYACHT CITY, Spilbergen, Sept. 8 (AP)—The Wilkins, a 100-ton submarine Nautilus arrived today from the North bearing eagle dens and seals and a number of seals.

Members of the crew, bearded and dirty, were greeted by a crowd of men for clean baths. All of the men were thirsty because of the difficulty of acquiring a supply of water for drinking about the submarine, but otherwise they looked well.

They said that during the southward trip from Spilbergen they had not been more than 100 miles from the land since they left the United States and that some of them were seasick. While the Nautilus was actually in the ice-fields, they said, everything went well.

They described the five days of silence when the world became anxious because no radio signals had been received from the Nautilus. The radio antenna having been taken down during diving tests, they did not realize they had been silent would be cause for anxiety.

WEATHER IN IDAHO DIMINISHES BLAZES

Forest Service and Military Officials Look for End of Martial Law in 10 Days

BOISE, Sept. 8 (AP)—Low clouds and low temperatures encouraged the forest service and military authorities today to believe martial law will be lifted in the timber areas within the next 10 days.

R. H. Rutledge, intermountain regional forester, said humidity was steadily rising with cold weather and that occasional showers were assisting as well. Cold nights prevent fires getting underway, he explained.

If the cold weather continues through the next few days, he said, the forest service could combat any flames starting after that, barring unexpected hot weather late in the season.

He said only two fires had started since martial law was proclaimed more than a week ago to prevent incendiaries in the forests. Both of these fires were small and quickly controlled. One was started by lightning and another from a campfire fire which was believed to have been put out before being lit. Both were in the Payette forest.

A light rain fell in Boise and vicinity early in the morning but cleared away by noon. The weather bureau said there was no prospect of heavy rain in the next several days.

Colonel F. C. Hummel, provost marshal directing the military control of the forest area, said conditions were growing steadily better.

League of Nations Invites Mexico to Join Organization

Dino Grandi, Italian Minister, Furnishes Second Highlight of Day With Proposal of Arms Truce

(By The Associated Press) GENEVA, Sept. 8.—An invitation to Mexico to enter the League of Nations was extended today by the League's assembly, which also heard Foreign Minister Dino Grandi of Italy propose an immediate arms truce to be effective until the end of next year's disarmament conference.

The invitation to Mexico was delivered with a manifestation of friendship for that republic and in the confident expectation that the Mexican government would accept it and soon adhere to the League.

The assembly's cordial action was described by statements as a rectification of an unfortunate "error" by which the League's organizers 12 years ago omitted Mexico from the list of states invited to membership.

President Wilson was said to have played a large part in excluding Mexico from the League. Associated with him in this action, which the assembly today deplored, was Lord Cecil of England.

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL County Fair Gets Started At Filer

Governor C. Ben Ross Visits Grounds on First Day and Places Crown on Head of Queen of Exhibition, Twin Falls Girl, While 5000 Persons Witness Ceremony

(Special to The News) FILER, Sept. 8.—With a bigger livestock show, more entries in Products hall and greater emphasis on boys' and girls' activities than ever before in its history, Twin Falls county's sixteenth fair opened on the county fairgrounds here today to continue day and night, for four days, closing Friday evening.

Weather conditions during the afternoon, with bright sunshine, a breeze and hint of autumn in the air, were auspicious for the occasion and officials expected a satisfactory day with the first day attendance, which, they said, would equal that of any previous fair's opening day. Toward evening the breeze gathered strength, clouds of dust like a San Francisco fog, and the temperature declined, so that blankets and hot food and drink purveyors found their wares in increasing demand.

Governor Ross, who visited the grounds on his first day, placed a crown upon the head of Miss Louise Haight, Twin Falls, first queen of the Twin Falls county fair, who had been crowned from among seven winners in a contest conducted by 30 Twin Falls county merchants and business men in cooperation with the fair board. The coronation ceremony took place after a parade of floats and bands. The governor, in happy vein, placed the crown upon the head of the fair queen, who had been crowned from among seven winners in a contest conducted by 30 Twin Falls county merchants and business men in cooperation with the fair board.

Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—Lefty Grove turned in his twenty-eighth victory of the season in holding the Washington Senators to seven hits while his supporting cast of Athletics batted out a 10-1 triumph today.

As a contest, the game fell apart when the champions landed on "Sad Sam" Jones in the seventh inning and blasted eight runs across the platter. Previous to this, the Athletics had scored only two runs both on "Dix" Williams' homer in the second inning.

"Dixie Fox" opened the tally with a single and finished it with his twenty-sixth home run of the year with two on base.

"A DECADE OF FOOTBALL AT IDAHO"

Southern California nearly full during the course of the game. The Trojans beat Idaho, 72 to 0.

In 1928 Idaho held Stanford to a 7-to-0 score in the first half. The Indians injected a new backfield in the second quarter and immediately scored two touchdowns. Additional reserves were substituted and Idaho could not catch this coupe, having no reserve material. Stanford won the game, 14 to 0.

Idaho was the only team to hold Southern California scoreless in the first half of the 1929 season. The California who played the Trojans is scoreless tie.

Before 1929 the largest score by points in an Idaho team was 20 points. Since then, however, scores ranging from 30, 40, 50, and even 70 have been made against the Vandals. In many instances those scores have been made in the last half of the game or in the last quarters of the games.

Idaho is the smallest school in the nation, bearing a reputation naturally has fewer men from which to draw her football material. Consequently she has less facilities than training her teams. She cannot command high salaries coaches, she cannot buy high priced equipment, and she cannot attract the best school stars to the university with the degree of success attained by larger schools.

Other schools in western portion

No other game schedule for western league.

This means large gate receipts. Football at many schools is made to pay for all collegiate sports, and in some of the most successful schools a large sum is usually left over.

Idaho has never played before a home crowd of more than 10,000 spectators, and they are very few times in a decade. She does not derive the revenue from her gate receipts to pay for her athletic academy.

Idaho football teams are usually "all-around," players live in the state of Idaho, the professionals from Washington or Oregon play here, and they produce a huge net per cent home product. A mid-west school several years ago had men come from as far as 11 different states.

Not only does Idaho fail to get credit from such places, but star Idaho men are going to other colleges. The captain of the Oregon football team this year is a resident of Idaho, but he has no attractions to offer the promising high school athlete than Idaho has to offer him.

Idaho has almost been shoved off the Western grid map during the past few years. It is now wondered that Idaho has lost its place among the college football division. It is a wonder that the Vandal elevens have been able to survive. The indomitable Idaho spirit that cries, "Idaho First!" and "You can't win without us!" don't help either. She has carried the Idaho team on when there was nothing else on it to go on.
