"SIDE SHOW" HOLDS WEALTH OF COMEDY

Film Starring Winnie Lightner and New Comedy Opens at Orpheum Theatre

"Side Show," uproarious comedy-romance, starring Winnie Lightner and Charles Butterworth, opened a three-day engagement at the Orpheum theatre today. There have been too many picture palaces, some devoted to dramatic themes, others to comedy, but this is the first film combining romance and comedy with the colorful background of the side show.

Winnie Lightner naturally dominates the entire film. Her brand of hard-hitting comedy first set the movie world agog in "Gold Diggers of Broadway." Butterworth, now famous on Broadway, who made his name as a comedian in "The Life of the Party," has since appeared in "Illlicit," "The Bargain" and other films. His mechanics and unbroken solemnity contrasted with Winnie's strenuous clowning, makes a comic-combination unequalled on stage or screen.

Written by Wells

"Side Show," which was written by William K. Wells, gives the two a grand and glorious vehicle, not only for comedy but for tense drama and humanity. Miss Lightner appears as Pat—a right-hand man to Colonel County circus owner, who manages a ring of robbers, adding to her usefulness by underestimating in all sorts of ways from sword-swallowing to bearded lady. Butterworth, believe it or not, is Sidney, the scallie trainer, difficult in love with Winnie.

The end of "Side Show" is a happy if ludicrous one. The two are happily and splendidly acquit themselves in their picture roles. Lightner and Butterworth are aided by Evelyn Knapp, Donald Cook, Guy Kibbee, Louise Carver, Mathew Betz, Ann MacGregor, Luis Alvarado, Edward Moran, Tom Ricketts and Otto Hoffman. Roy Del Ruth, who directed Miss Lightner in "Gold Diggers of Broadway," directs "Side Show." Here is the picture which will entertain the whole family. It is inside "dope" on the circus, near "Side Show" is uproarious, tender, thrilling, different and altogether delightful. Take 'em all.

NEW THEME APPEARS IN PICTURE AT IDAHO

Where do our successful authors get the plot material and the realistic color which makes their books best sellers? Some time back the newspapers, others study their friends and acquaintances, but Miss Lightner in "The Brat," the picture which opens its local engagement of three days at the Idaho theatre this afternoon, has a different idea, and one which all writers, might do well to follow.

He dropped in to see his friend, Judge O'Flaherty, of the night court, and while there he was introduced to a "Bowerly" femininity, whom he nicknamed "The Brat," and who appeared with him in a picture for an entire lifetime. "The Brat," which features Sally O'Neill in the title role is the screen version of Maude Fulton's famous stage play and was directed by John Ford who made such outstanding film hits as "Four Sons," "Men Without Women" and "Up the River." All the characters in the picture are the novelists. The other featured players are Frank Albertson, Virginia Cherrill, June Collyer and William Collier, who also staged the production.

CHEVALIER STARS IN "ONE HOUR WITH YOU"

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 19 (Special to The News)—"One Hour With You," a film of the Continental picture company, will be shown at the Idaho theatre. The film is a story of a man's life, and is a very interesting picture. It is a story of a man's life, and is a very interesting picture. ## BROADWAY STAGE

(Associated Press Feature Writer)

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The war of racketeers in the streets of New York has found its echo in the theatre.

Owen Davis, new drama, "Just to Remember You," is a bitter, satirical, and cynical, crying out against the dictatorship that dominates the small business man. Davis takes the case of a young man, about to be married, who launches a small laundry business for himself on his opening day, an agent of racketeers suggested that he pay $100,000 to the racketeers.

The young man indignantly refuses and war is on. His plan is to go to the racketeers and demand that they stop their racketeering. He decides to fight on, carries his case to the police commissioner. This is going too far to be comfortable for the gangsters, so they murder him.

Demonstrations—Racketeers—Davis not only tells his story, but also interpolates a denunciation of racketeers and their subordination.

MOST FILM LEADERS HAIL FROM NEW YORK

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 19 (Special to The News)—Motion picture industry came to New York and California than any other states or nations in the world, an analysis of 150 contract players reveals.

New York was the birthplace of 31; California 18; Pennsylvania and Massachusetts nine each; Illinois, six; Iowa, England and Russia five; Indiana and Germany four; Missouri, District of Columbia, Kansas, France and Austria, three each. The rest are widely scattered.

Of the 31 from New York only 10 are players.

They are all four of the Marx Brothers, Nancy Carroll, Ruth Chatterton, Lilyan Tashman, Sylvia Sydney, William Boyd and Mimi Rogers. Most of the New Yorkers are writers with executives and directors also represented.

Edmond Lowe claims that the cook and the tailor are the two people most important to a movie star. One cooks the calories and the other makes the clothes—and Eddie says it's the utmost importance in the movies that both be done right.

"Kiss Waits" and "Hullabaloo" the two songs which play a prominent part in "Dancing Sweeties" the Warner Brothers and Vitaphone picture featuring Grant Withers and Sue Carol, which is now playing at the Roxy theatre.

The picture features two separate teams of comedians, which represent the best in comedy. Al Dubin and Joe Burke, veteran song writers and teammates for 15 years, are responsible for the picture's success.

"Kiss Waits" is a comedy picture, which is destined to take its place among the best of the genre. It is a comedy picture, which is destined to take its place among the best of the genre. It is a comedy picture, which is destined to take its place among the best of the genre.

Cohan's sermon is digested at modern youth. There is little content of ego left in them when he launches his harsh observations. He especially resents their lack of courage to stand up for their ideals.

He also decries the desire of the older generation to uphold certain traditions of good behavior which young people are content to ignore. "Friendship" is not a great play, it is not even a strong play. But it is amusing enough, and is worth enough for an entertaining evening.

Besides, when Cohan walks on, he is a "must" to see. He is a "must" to see. He is a "must" to see.

Joe E. Brown, stage and screen comedian, laughs himself into the stellar comedy picture, "The Lottery Bride," at the Roxy theatre next Thursday.

Screen Life in Hollywood

By HUBBARD KCAVY

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 19.—This side of the camera: William Collier, my favorite loat-

matter, used this one at a recent banquet. "I'm not here to bore you with alleged funny jokes or a series of long-winded anecdotes. My job is to introduce those who will."

She and her husband, Hoot Gibson, both fly planes. Sally likes all outdoor sports, and is fond of animals.

Everyone was surprised when she was elected to the "Miss Hollywood" title. She is a star with a long term contract.

CRAZY OVER HORSES

I have it to report that Clark Gable's only hobby is horseracing. And a year ago he was afraid of horses. But his first movie part demanded that he know something about it. Clark was bandaged from head to toe during and long after he completed his course in horsemanship.

And what did he get for his pains? The most rapid rise in popularity ever seen in Hollywood. Two New York chorus girls, vacationing here, said they wouldn't leave until they saw Gable in the flesh. "The nearest crush of the feminine-faun of the nation being out of town, the girls compromised on Larry Libby."

And "after talking to him," they went home pleased.

Ronald Coleman, not unmindful of the compliment implied by such a remark, will, when he comes to town, have his own paper and jewels when they approach him. He is a friend, have neither, and he must go rummaging through his pockets for a scrap of envelope or the like.

Open Scramble Looms in Pacific Coast Grid Conference

Washington State Loses 19 Players On Titular Eleven

Southern California and Stanford—Boost—Man-Power—and Washington, Oregon, and Corvallis Look Good

(This is the fourth of a number of articles giving prospects in the coming football conferences throughout the country.—Editor.)

By R. S. NEWLAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—Present prospects point to an open scramble for 1931 coast conference football honors.

Washington State, last year's champion, lost 19 regulars through graduation and replacements have been so few that its status of the team is very uncertain. But if Washington State moves into the campaign as an unknown quantity, at least five other conference members have their paths marked out for them.

Southern California and Stanford have great man-power, while in the northern section, Washington, Oregon, and Oregon State look as first rank contenders.

California, as usual, has a stable line of candidates, but whether its new coach, William Ingram, of naval academy fame, can make his system work in the first season is open to debate.

The other three conference schools, Stanford, Idaho, and University of California, all of which have had no indication of the potential of their new coaches, are in the old time rival fight. Stanford has sufficient seasoned material to warrant the optimism.

Twenty letter men returned to Troy, including Erny Pinkert, whom many critics believe is the Southern California destined to become the ball-carrying star of the coast this season to do duty for Russell Saunders who was graduated.

Coch. Warner, master strategist, will build his attack around star halfback, Harold Edwards, and guard Harry Williams, quarter-back, who of these combinations in Stanford's victory over Dartmouth the previous year.

With one season of pioneering back in the fall, under Coach Jimmy Phelan of Washington and Clarence (Pat) Spears, Oregon, will have a well rounded eleven and the drive for high conference rating.

Phelan's mainstays include Kerle Hultford and Bill Marsh, experienced fullback runners. Coach Spears' newcomers will be augmented by Joe Lillard, speedy Negro halfback up from the freshman squad.

Oregon State, never a "pioneer," will offer an eleven selected from 19 members of last year's varsity and the outlook is described as "the best in years." Frank Little, 200-pound fullback will be one of the mainstays.

Oakley Bows to American Falls

30-Yard-Pass, Zemo to Ring In Second Period, Decides Game in Visitors' Favor

OAKLEY, Sept. 19 (Special to The News)—Oakley high school football team opened its 1931 football season today, losing an exciting game to the American Falls eleven, 10 to 0. Throughout the entire four periods, despite early season roughness which made itself evident from time to time, the two aggregations battled on an equal basis with both teams exchanging frequently.

Oakley opened up in the first quarter to threaten a touchdown when a fumble and an incomplete pass after working the ball down to the center's feet, gave the strength of the Oakley team to its line which time and again stopped American's who might have been disastrous occasions.

During the second frame, the visiting eleven completed a 30-yard pass, Zemo to Ring, and then away from Coach J. V. Thompson's boys for the remaining 10 yards for the touchdown. They threatened twice in the last quarter but were unable to punch over the center line of the local team's line held firm.

BING MILLER

"Bing" Miller is "Dark Folks" to the Athletics due to his brown complexion. His first big league assignment was to keep a president's car from being hit by a foul fly. Now one of the most valuable players on a world's champion club.

By EDWARD J. NEIL
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—The first big league club "Bing" Miller ever played with was Detroit, as camp as an outfielder in 1919 and Hughes Jennings used him to pitch to.

His first major league assignment was in Washington, guarding the at the opening game of the season to see that it wasn't by "any fly ball."

"Bing" is the oldest player on the world's champion Athletics—37 last August 30—and he's having one of his greatest years in right field. He's a farm-boy from Union, Iowa, and the sons of the East and West have landed his round, joyful face a deep brown.

When he plays in the South in the spring and the blackbirds are pecked with Negroes, an excited boom passes through the Jim Crow section as he gallops out to right field. He's their pet, and they cheer him lustily. He waves back. "Looks like black boy playin' with them white fellas—hey, hey, hey, ain't he sumptin'?"

Silks of Whitney Stables Fly High

Three Champions Account For $115,000 Futurity In Belmont Park Classic

BELMONT PARK, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Sweeping America's richest thoroughbred racing program, the silks of the Whitney plan flew high today at Belmont park as three champions from the family barna accounted for the $115,000 futurity, the $22,000 grand national steeple-chase and the $10,000 yearling club roid cup.

Top flight, unbeaten fly flying the famous blue and brown-capped colors of C. V. Whitney, led a display field of two-year-olds home in the futurity. Dr. John Hay Whitney's Green Chicks out-gamed a smart band of jumpers in the national and—Erny Pinkert—Twenty Grand again won a galloping victory in the gold cup.

Twelve of the leading two-year-olds in the training opened Top flight in the rich seven-furlong race. The "Whitney" was the favorite, but at the judges stand was back in third place as Walter J. Belmont made puntum fast to two lengths back of the winner.

In accounting for her sixth straight victory, Top flight—winner of her right to rule the juvenile division—netted $9,780, sent her total earnings soaring to $122,330, only about $12,000 short of the record set by the late, undefeated American money-winner, her sex.

Santa Paula Polo Players Win Title By 11-to-8 Score

WESTPORT, N. Y., Sept. 19 (UP)—On the crest of an inspired, unbreakable surge, the battered four horsemen of Argentina, carrying the banner of Santa Paula, upset the vaunted Anglo-American Hurricanes, three-time titlholders, and captured the United States open polo championship today in spectacular fashion. The final score was 11 to 8.

Crippled and conceded no more than a slim outside chance against one of the most powerful international polo four teams together four years, Santa Paula's riders shattered the hope and the Hurricane's winning streak at the Santa Paula polo grounds. Manual Andrade, curly captain and back of the Argentine, who played only because one of his teammates was more seriously injured, proved the outstanding star. Andrade, his right hand taped and his left shoulder bandaged, was not only a stones wall on defense, but delivered the goals that both started and closed the whitewash attack.

"A Decade Of Football At Idaho"

By STANLEY WILSON

The Vandals with a 30-yard run for a touchdown after the final gun had been fired.

Two great lines found themselves matched against each other when the Vandals met Oregon and the game ended in a scoreless tie. Idaho pounded her way to the 1-yard line in the second quarter and the end of the game found Oregon on Idaho's 2-yard line.

The Whitman contest proved to be little more than a practice game for the Vandals. Idaho snatched across six touchdowns mostly on straight football, with Kershank scoring half of them. The situation was not too bright for Idaho's 2-yard line once it could not buck the ball across.

Idaho won her first conference game from Montana, 42 to 6. The Vandals rolled up a 28-10 score in the first three quarters and seemed content to let matters pass there, but the Grizzlies surprised them with long pass that went 60 yards for a touchdown. Idaho then set about scoring two more touchdowns.

Playing in Kearsar stadium, San Francisco, with a strong wind coming in from the ocean, Idaho battled the Mary's college to a 3-0 tie. The Saints took the lead with a field goal in the second quarter, but a difficult kick from the side of the field in the fourth quarter by "Pat" Sumpter tied the score.

A bad break kept Idaho from scoring her fourth victory in five years over Washington state college. The Vandals took the opening kickoff and marched to straight down the field for a touchdown in seven minutes of play and then set down to their customary defensive tactics playing the California "percentage system." Barrett, Idaho quarter, dropped a Washington state college punt behind his goal line in the third quarter and a cougar ran on it for the tying touchdown.

A faked punt forward pass, that had worked so wonderfully against Washington state college almost brought defeat to Idaho in the Oregon state college game. The Vandals received the kickoff and Burgher

LAUNDRY OWNERS NAME MAGIC CITY MAN PRESIDENT

George E. Sandholtz Goes to Helm of Association for Next Year and Nampa Gets
Annual 1932 Meeting

George E. Sandholtz, Twin Falls, was elected president of the Southern Idaho Laundry Owners' association here yesterday to succeed Arch M. Wackerell, Idaho Falls, at the closing business session of the annual meeting held in Nampa, Sept. 19. The June session was also held.

Officers elected were Arthur Johnson, Payette, vice president, and Fergus Briggs, Gooding, secretary-at-large. E. A. McKay, Nampa, permanent secretary, held over. President Wackerell becomes ex-officio, delegate to the meeting.

The committee on nominations, composed of Mr. Johnson, Henry Allen, Boise, and Mr. McKay, who as secretary is ex-officio member of all committees, made recommendations only regarding the election of president. In presenting the report Mr. Johnson paid an eloquent tribute to Mr. Sandholtz, who, he said, was always willing to devote time and work to upbuilding the organization.

The legislative committee, composed of Mr. Sandholtz, L. J. Gray, Nampa, and William Branger, Boise, was continued. It was suggested by Bruce Johnson, Twin Falls, that the association make a plan for an eight-hour law, which would meet the conditions of the laundrymen.

The next meeting of the legislature, in order to avoid legislation, which would be a violation of the law, the situation might work injurious. The idea of keeping a man at Boise during the legislative session in the interest of securing improved sanitary regulations was urged by Mr. McKay. Efforts to secure registration of the association within the association, failed to secure approval.

The committee on resolutions, composed of Mr. Gray, Mr. Briggs, Nampa, and Mr. McKay, reported the books of the association correct in all particulars.

"Give the public first consideration," was the theme of the address both the morning and afternoon sessions by President Huesch. "Next to the home and family, cleanliness and correct sanitation are the most important considerations for the housewife," he declared.

"We should endeavor to give the same care to our sanitation as we give to the care of meat and vegetables. If this causes those outside the association to follow our example it will be better for the people. If we educate the people on this point, and those outside do not come up to our standard they will go out of business, just as unsanitary slaughterhouses have done."

Mr. Wheeler, led the discussion in the afternoon.

There was a stag luncheon yesterday at the Park hotel with Mr. Johnson as toastmaster and a banquet at the same hotel last night with Mr. Gray toastmaster. Special dances closed the affair, with the "Pied Piper" orchestra furnishing music.

Those engaged in the laundry business or in lines affiliated therewith who attended and registered included Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Nelson, Idaho Falls; D. Ray Shurtliff, M. T. Large, S. M. Watson, Salt Lake

RURAL FEDERATION PLANS RECEPTION

Discussion of the proposition to use only Idaho products where possible was followed by postponement of action at the regular meeting of the organization, which is the Women's club in the former home of the business and professional women club, yesterday afternoon, attended by representatives of a majority of the 13 clubs of the county. It was decided to delay definite action on the proposition, pending receipt of further information.

"It was planned to hold a reception Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Park hotel for Mrs. Carrie Harpster White, Leavenworth, first president of the organization, who is now on her way here, accompanied by her husband, Dr. John E. White. The reception committee will comprise the following: Mrs. C. H. Eldred, Mrs. R. J. Evans, Twin Falls; Mrs. Roy G. Chase, Pocatello; Mrs. P. J. Lock, Nampa; Mrs. and Mr. White will arrive here Tuesday and will be at the Park hotel between noon and 2 P. M."

It was voted to submit a proposal for the creation of the committee of the organization to the annual meeting in April. Report was received on the scholarship fund.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. J. Lock, 438 Main street north, in October.

COUNTY ISSUES NOTES FOR LOAN OF $75,000

A few series of Twin Falls county tax auction notices were signed yesterday by J. L. Barnes, chairman of the board of county commissioners, and Mrs. Cona E. Stevens, county treasurer, to be delivered to a Salt Lake City bank as security for a loan of $75,000 that the county is to pay next July.

With this loan, the county will have borrowed $125,000 against an estimated yield of $350,716 from the current year's county tax levies. The earlier series of tax auction notices totaled $120,000. It was issued last May, and is to be paid out of 1931 tax revenues next January 15.

The commissioners' resolution that authorized the new issue states that there were "now no funds to meet necessary current expenses and other lawful corporate obligations during the current year and until late in the current year shall be collected."

Detailed figures showing annually increasing margins between need department's receipts and its expenditures during the four year period ending with 1930, were given out.

AUDITOR ARGUES AGAINST TAX FOR COUNTY WEED WAR

Analysis Indicates Rising
Cost of Department's Administration Causes Heavy
Drain on Public's Funds

Twin Falls county's war on noxious weeds annual expense of from $41,304 to $71,018, has cost the county's taxpayers over and above payments made by landholders for weed-fighting complete materials, an aggregate of $70,779, according to Harry G. Parsons, Twin Falls county auditor, who stated last evening he would recommend to the county commissioners that no tax levy be made for the county's noxious weed department next year.

The weed department's $71,018 expenditures last year, Mr. Parsons stated, was equivalent to 33.3 per cent of the county's total $213,000 current expense fund.

Other departments of the county government drawing funds from the current expense fund, Mr. Parsons said, have generally kept their expenditures within the limit of their appropriations, but the weed department has shown a steadily increasing margin between its receipts and its disbursements.

Collectors Hold Up
The records show, Mr. Parsons said, that collections of the weed department's assessments against individual landholders for labor and materials used in combating weeds have been generally satisfactory, and that the department's increasing deficits have been caused almost entirely by increasing cost of administration—overhead expenses.

Inducement of direct payment of automobile and warehouse expense which have not been distributed in the county deficit at the end of each year in the county's current expense fund.

In explanation of his recommendation that no tax levy be made for the weed department next year, Mr. Parsons voiced his opinion that individual landowners can save money by fighting weeds without the department's assistance.

"Twin Falls county has been fighting noxious weeds for seven or eight years," Mr. Parsons said. "When the fight began a great deal of investigation and experimental work was necessary, because there was little information available on the subject. A well defined line of action has since been developed, so that most owners of infested lands know as well as the weed department what to do to get rid of noxious weeds. There is an evident general appreciation of the desirability of eradicating noxious weeds, and most owners of infested lands will voluntarily take action necessary to get rid of them. I believe that they can do this work themselves as effectively and more economically than will the weed department's assistance."

ASSOCIATION CARRIES OVER FUND CAMPAIGN

Owing to the fact that members of the committee in some instances have up to the present been unable to cover their territory completely, and because in some instances people were not at home when the committee called, it was determined to carry the campaign for funds for the Young Women's Christian association over into next week, to cover the ground thoroughly, it was announced last evening.

Committee members stated that so far, the results had been satisfactory considering conditions.

PETITION FOR LENIENCY GETS STURGEON PAROLE

Thirty-two Twin Falls business and professional men, including the management of the National Laundry from which he was alleged to have embezzled $18,425, signed a petition for leniency for Walter E. Sturgeon, who had pleaded guilty to the charge. The petition was presented by Vaughn Price, Twin Falls attorney, when Sturgeon appeared for sentence in district court here yesterday. District Judge W. A. Babcock sentenced Sturgeon to serve 14 years in the state prison, and then suspended sentence for one year and admitted Sturgeon to parole, requiring him to report in person and in writing to the court at the May and September terms next year.

Plainly Marked Prices

Much favorable comment has been aroused by the Twin Falls Mortuary's policy of displaying costs openly, so that no discrimination is possible. It protects families of simple means, because it assures them that they will not be taxed according to their ability to pay. For every expenditure, definite value is guaranteed. On the other hand, plain prices are a wonderful boon to families who have very little to spend, because they are enabled to select a fitting service well within their means.

Regardless of costs our technical and professional service never varies.
