23 FINANCIERS FACE JUSTICE AT COTHAM

Bank of United States Directors and State Official Tangle With Law

NEW YORK, Oct. 19 (AP)—Joseph A. Broderick, state superintendent of banking for the past 21 months and for 35 years before that, was indicted today, with 22 other directors of the Bank of United States, in connection with the closing of that $200,000,000 institution last December.

Broderick, charged in three indictments with neglect of duty and in four with conspiracy, appeared in court late in the day. There was a smile on his face as he was arraigned. He pleaded not guilty.

The 23 directors, all charged with "negligent participation in the fraudulent conduct of the bank," also were arraigned. They pleaded not guilty, were given 10 days in which to prepare their pleas, and were released in $100,000 bail each.

The directors, if convicted, face a maximum sentence of a three-year penitentiary term and a $500 fine. The maximum penalty for Broderick, if convicted, would be a 15-year term and $500 in fines.

Today's action was one more step in the turbulent aftermath of the bank's closing, which affected 400,000 depositors.

Bitter Attacks
It followed upon bitter attacks which have been made frequently in recent months by Republican leaders on Broderick, an appointee of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt. The governor has gone on record in the "communist's defense before and after today.

Today's indictments also eliminated a long feud over counsel battles between two of New York's most prominent lawyers, Max D. Fried and J. Kresel. Both came from Europe in their youth and both won unusual reputations for their legal brilliance.

Kresel was an assistant to District Attorney William Travers Jerome when the latter was winning fame for "cleaning up the roving forgers."

At the time of the bank's collapse, he was a counsel for the institution, a director, and special counsel for the Federal Reserve bank of New York.

When the bank closed, Jerome was put in charge of the investigation as special prosecutor. One of his first acts was to secure the indictment of Kresel, who promptly resigned his connection with court inquiry.

The subsequent trial of three officials of the bank, Kresel was indicted again for perjury in connection with his testimony. Today he was named in two more indictments.

Jerome has charged several times that Broderick, knowing the bank was insolvent, tried to "pull the wool" over the eyes of the public and to continue doing business and accept deposits.

Broderick issued a statement just before his arraignment in which he said he was at a loss to understand what "calumnies" were responsible for the action against him.

Governor Roosevelt, who named Broderick to the post in March, 1929, was asked at Albany if he would request the resignation of his appointee.

"Certainly not," he said. "I have every confidence in his complete integrity."

The Weather

He predicted that a few more days without hostilities would virtually assure peace.

BRIAND FORMULATES PLAN
GENEVA, Oct. 19 (AP)—Ambassador Briand is still at a deadlock for negotiation, is to be advanced in behalf of the council, with which President B. Briand is sitting as a representative of the United States.

It was understood after the private council meeting today that Mr. Briand, the chairman of the council, in talks with Dr. Alfred A. China, and Kresel, who was present, had formulated a proposal to deal with the Manchurian conflict which he will present to the council.

This proposal, which is sufficiently flexible in form, to serve as a basis for negotiation, is to be advanced in behalf of the council, with which President B. Briand is sitting as a representative of the United States.

BAD LOANS PROVE COSTLY TO IDAHO

Dealings in Blaine County Alone Involve More Than $250,000 of Public Funds

BOISE, Oct. 19 (AP)—"Bad loans" have involved an expenditure of more than $250,000 from the public endowment funds in Blaine county, the bureau of public accounts disclosed today.

The report was a continuation of the bureau's investigation of loan conditions as affecting the public endowment funds and the state insurance fund, from which the bureau has reported upwards of a million dollars in "bad loans" have been made in recent years.

The report followed one of last night's answer to a statement of former Governor C. C. Moore, declaring the administration of the endowment funds compared favorably with private agencies.

Further, Kresnan asserted that the good standing of the endowment funds, which had been given to the state by the legislature, was not to be questioned and that the state should not be held responsible for the actions of private agencies.

Of loans made in Blaine county during 1917-1924, 45 have been foreclosed compared with 11 remaining active. Of the 11 active, eight are in the hands of a delinquent six months in interest, one a year and one a half and a half.

Mentioned figures represented an investment of $149,000 in principal, and none of the was paid before foreclosure, the report said. In addition to the principal, $12,715.61 in taxes on the foreclosed property was paid, $29,066.83 in water assessments, $16,225.25 in extending abstracts, $184,777 in publication of notices in connection with foreclosures, and $1,000 for representation of the state at foreclosure sales, a total of $277,721.91.

Accrued interest represented $1,000, which together with principal and expenditures in connection with the loans aggregated $277,721.91.

Results of three years' activity and improvements brought $21,680, and no other sales were made up to today. The state had lost about $100,000, which together with principal and expenditures in connection with the loans aggregated $277,721.91.

The making of the report, the bureau said no instance had been found wherein effort had been made to secure delinquent judgments on the foreclosures as a means of protecting the endowment funds from loss.

Instead, the property was bought in by the state at the sheriff's sale at the full amount of the state's investment. Failure to get delinquent judgments was pointed out, was contrary to practice in private agencies. In commenting on the condition, the report said: "A statement of the losses incurred by the state in the handling of these loans."

"We are now giving him this picture of the endowment loans," the report said. "As representing the doctor bill for the healing process."

The writer can pick the type that will best express his mood or sentiment. There is a delicate script for love notes, a code type for secret communications, and cold type for business letters. A twist of the wrist changes from one type face to another.

Another type writer with letters as high as the letter 'A' makes each key with its own touch, but the paper twice, giving the words an extremely black appearance similar to printing.

A new cash register tells a service station operator how much gas and oil is left in his tanks at the end of the day, and a restaurant owner how much pieces of pie and roast beef ordinary methods has sold.

A new twist in inter-office lettering enables a man in one department to send a message without human assistance, for some one in another office whom he has called and found absent.

Slayers of a scale which performs mathematical wonders claim it will take an inventory in one-tenth of the time required by the human.

be sentenced immediately after his lawyers have gone through the formality of making the arguing motions Friday. Judge Wilkerson stated, soon after the jury had convicted the gang leader Saturday night, that he would deny the motion for arrest of judgment, but he later said the lawyers could argue the point if they desired. "I suppose you will move for a new trial," the court said.

What Capone's defense may be was a matter of speculation especially in the court of Judge Wilkerson, who refused to take into consideration an agreement for leniency on Capone's original plea of guilty, even though it was sanctioned by the attorney general.

The longest sentence ever handed down in a similar case was the five-year term given Jack Guzik, Capone's business manager.

Mr. Haines, whose case complained charged cruelty toward his wife unjustly accused him of being "too friendly with other women" and particularly with a woman he employed at his church office.

PATENTED PROCESS REMOVES GUESSWORK FROM ROASTING

Automatic Control of Heat Insures Exactness. Hills Bros. Coffee Has Matchless Flavor

There are many risks attached to roasting coffee by ordinary methods. For a man must guess when the roast is right. If he misses his guess, the flavor of the coffee usually suffers.

Hills Bros. eliminated guesswork when they invented and patented Controlled Roasting—an automatic process that develops the fullest flavor in every berry of the blend.

As the accuracy of the heat depends upon an even, continuous flow... a little at a time... so the unvarying flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee is produced by Controlled Roasting—the patented process that develops the fullest flavor in every berry of the blend.

To preserve this delicious flavor, Hills Bros. pack their coffee in vacuum cans. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed and kept out of these cans. Ordinary "air-tight" cans won't keep coffee fresh. But Hills Bros. Coffee can't be fresh. Order some today. Ask for it by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.

(The above standings are based entirely upon results of games played with teams of the same classification. No practice games and no games between teams of different classifications are included in the compilation, which is believed to be accurate in every detail, represents painstaking effort extended with the cooperation of the various teams in their conference.—Editor.)

ALTHOUGH there were comparatively few games played involving standings of the teams in the various conferences this week, several were of utmost importance, in that they changed completely the outlook in each of the conferences.

Pocatello, by virtue of a victory over Rupert, coupled with a triumph last week over Burley, holds the top berth in the Big-Ten conference. Filer, with a win over Boise, and American Falls, with Blackfoot's scalp to her credit, and Nampa, with a victory over Shoshone, are the other three teams making strong bids for Pocatello's position.

Both Burley and Twin Falls, which last week had 100 per cent slaps down to the 500 mark, buried loss to Pocatello and Twin Falls came out on the short end of the score with the Boise Braves.

Boise raised itself this week from the 500 mark to 666 by means of a defeat of the Twin Falls Bruins.

Bole over its position to a victory over Buhl and Twin Falls and a defeat at the hands of the Filer Wild-ones.

Blackfoot, with a defeat by Burley and American Falls Friday by a 14-0 blow, with a defeat by Buhl and Nampa, and a victory over Shoshone, has not opened its 1931 conference record.

In the Class A, non-Big Ten conference there are no percentages, as none of these teams have played games that have any bearing on the conference title. Kimberly played Jerome in what would have been a conference game, but Kimberly was barred by the state board of athletics control from competing for the title.

Shoshone Works Hard
The North Side, Class B conference, is taking definite shape with Shoshone well out in front rank. Shoshone defeated its rival for the 100 per cent mark—Haltley—last week, 53 to 19, to gain the lead of the list and now holds the middle track for the Class B title on the North Side. Haltley, although defeated by Shoshone, is tied with Hazelton and Wendell for second place. Hazelton played the game

Tommy Loughran Wins Decision In Fight With Risko

Victor Steps Away to Lead In First Round and Continues to Jab Left Into Foe's Face Until Last

(By The Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19—Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia heavyweight, jabbed his way to a 10-round decision over Johnny Risko, Cleveland rubber man, in the main event of the arena card tonight.

Risko, out-weighted his opponent 13½ pounds.

Loughran stepped away to a lead in the first round and continued to jab his left into Risko's face and body until the final gong. The Philadelphia sent his opponent's head back sharply in nearly every round, but Risko came back for more, flaying rights and lefts to the body.

Both battlers were striving to keep clean, a string of victories, Loughran, gaining his eleven straight while Risko previously had decisions over his last five opponents.

Despite an injured left hand, the Philadelphia "Downtown Adonis" kept Risko from connecting with any head blows while he looked repeatedly to the tip of the jaw, Risko sought for lightning wild punches in the last two rounds and ruled most of the way.

Stanley Jones, Shoshonean light heavyweight, scored a first-round knockout over Jack Blumberg, Philadelphia, in the first preliminary of the Tommy Loughran-Johnny Risko fight card tonight. A right hook after 1 minute 15 seconds ended the fight.

Chesler Martin, Brooklyn, 204, won a slow six-round encounter with Fred Caldwell, Philadelphia, 200, in the next bout.

In the third encounter George Pavlek, 173½, of St. Louis, of St. Louis, edged fairly fast rounds to earn a decision over "Battler" Ketchelline, 177, of New York.

The 10-round semi-final saw Billy Jones, 171½-pound Philadelphia Negro, win a decision to Joe Banovic, 175½, Birmingham, New York, recently. Jones took a battering for three rounds and began a comeback which brought him a technical knockout in the seventh.

In the seventh Jones flattened Banovic for a count of nine with his left and when Banovic arose sent him down again with a right. The referee stopped the fight.

Singer Agrees To Meet "Chocolate"

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—(AP)—The third time since he won the lightweight boxing championship from Al Singer nearly a year ago, Tony Casonetti will take his title into the ring tonight when he meets "Chocolate" in Madison Square Garden November 30.

Jimmy Johnston, making his debut as director of the Garden's boxing affairs, closed negotiations for a 10-round match between the two boxers today. Contracts will be signed Thursday.

The match, considered for some time as a "natural" brings together two of the most popular fighters in the game. The lightweight crown will be the chief prize at stake but three titles will be taken into the ring. Besides being the lightweight champion, Casonetti also holds synthetic junior welterweight title.

"Chocolate" is the junior lightweight titleholder, having won the crown from Benny Bass in July.

Canadian Vessel Wins Boat Race

HALIFAX, Nova Scotia, Oct. 19—The 10-year-old schooner Bluebonnet, Lunenburg, Nova Scotia, sailing champion of the North Atlantic sailing fleet, today humbled the United States challenger, Gertrude L. L. Louscarter, Massachusetts.

Her victory was the first in the series being sailed off this season. The Canadian crew "needs one more victory to make her crown secure for another year at least."

Although the schooner was a 30-mile open-ocean course, from there on to the finish the challenger saw the defender only beyond a widening expanse of blue water.

The victory of Bluebonnet was as much one over time as over the line. The schooner sailed her 30-mile course in 10 hours and 15 minutes, while the challenger took 11 hours and 15 minutes.

Chesler Martin, Brooklyn, 204, won a slow six-round encounter with Fred Caldwell, Philadelphia, 200, in the next bout.

Campolo Defeats Pugilist Of Italy With Kayo Blow

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—(AP)—Victorio Campolo, giant Argentine, knocked out Ralph Piccola, aqua Italian heavyweight, tonight in the eighth round of a feature 10-round bout at the Ritz-Carlton arena. Campolo weighed 225; Piccola 200.

Campolo had an edge in five of the first seven rounds, but the chunky Italian fought him bitterly all the way, holding Campolo even in the third round and winning the fourth with a volley of left hooks that brought blood from Victor's nose.

In the seventh, however, Campolo dealt out severe punishment and finally knocked him out with a right uppercut after 2 minutes 37 seconds of the eighth round.

In the semi-final, Mado Oca, Spanish heavyweight, knocked Ted Sandwina, Sioux Falls, Iowa, down seven times in 10 rounds, but got better than a draw, in between times Sandwina fought a good fight. He weighed 201½; Oca 188½.

Low Little Pays High For Winner

Columbia Coach Produces Mighty Eleven-But Gets Hurt During Scrimmage

(By EDWARD J. NEIL)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—(AP)—Low little literally broke his back to produce the Columbia varsity that made football history on Morningside heights by whipping Dartmouth Saturday.

His home for the past month has been a hospital room because his back is in a steel brace and he cannot sleep in any other than the raised position of a hospital cot. Around his back is another brace locking his head in an immovable position. Sandbags are his pillows at night.

But all this doesn't keep him off the football field and it did not prevent him from leading from the youths who took a 52-0 pating at the football field last Saturday. The eleven, that raced out Saturday, to overpower the Harvard Indians 19-0, conquer an ancient foe for the first time since 1895 and paint the brightest prospect picture modern Columbia football has ever seen.

Over a month ago, because tactics, like all other material at Columbia, were scarce, the big genial fellow who as recently as the early part of the year was a great lineman at Pennsylvania, filled in against the varsity in an early scrimmage. The youngsters tested him for a loss. But it wasn't until 10 days later, when the injury had been aggravated by neglect, that he discovered that the process of one dorsal vertebrae was fractured and the nerves were badly inflamed.

South Idahoans Compete In Net Tilt At Gooding

GOODING, Oct. 19.—(Special to The News)—In a thrilling 19-12 match, Sam Allison, Ontario, Oregon, and Wayne Brewer, Twin Falls, demonstrated the superiority over Glenn Werner, Mason City, Minnesota, and Lloyd Kimpton, Kimberly, to capture the campus doubles title for the fall tournament, in their road to the finals, the victors had overcome Titian and Woody by forfeit, Fulton and Clemens 6-3, 6-1, and Chrysler and Hiles, 6-3, 6-1. The success of the semi-finalists were equally impressive.

Teams entered in the competition were: Allison, Ontario, and Brewer, Twin Falls; Werner, Mason City, Illinois, and Kimpton, Kimberly, Hiles and Chrysler of the faculty; Ulocan, Tuttle, and Woody, Hagerman; Carled and Eshking, Gooding; Blakely, Twin Falls, and Kennedy, Jerome; and Clemens of the faculty and Fulton of Eden.

Allison had previously won the singles and Kimpton was runner-up in that round of play.

ABANDONED FLUME PRESENTS PROBLEM

City Council and Lumber Yard Manager Seek Adjustment in Sidewalk Repair Cost

A two-foot flume through which water once ran on the way to lands and gardens in the west quarter of Twin Falls is a factor in complicating repair work which the city council has ordered the owner to do on a 125-foot sidewalk in front of the Home Lumber company property, corner of Third avenue and Second street south.

Action of water in the flume, which runs under the edge of the sidewalk, is held to blame for a considerable part of the sidewalk's present state of disrepair. It was brought out in the course of discussion at last evening's regular meeting of the council. On the other hand, most of the damage was already done when the present owners purchased the property some years ago. The flume was abandoned about 1910.

Council discussed the problem last evening with W. D. Naylor, Home Lumber company manager here and there was evidence of a desire on both sides to reach an equitable agreement and division of the cost of making the needed repairs. Council referred the matter to T. Sanderson, street commissioner, and E. M. Bowley, city attorney, with power to act.

Frank H. H. H. pleaded guilty to forgery of a $10 check with intent to defraud B. Straus, Twin Falls, last October 10. He was accused of forging the name of John Elmwood. He is to receive his sentence next Thursday.

Both young men were held prisoners in the county jail for lack of bail bonds.

Rev. Howard Cannon of the North Twin Presbyterian church, Chicago, received a call from the Twin Falls Presbyterian church to succeed Rev. James Millar who retired as pastor recently to become head of the department of religious education at the College of Idaho, Caldwell.

The call to the Chicago minister was extended by a congregational meeting following church services Sunday evening.

Mr. Cannon, who had been here for two weeks, left yesterday returning to Chicago to request his release from the church there.

During his stay in Twin Falls, Mr. Cannon occupied the Presbyterian church pulpit at morning and evening services for two Sundays and also addressed a meeting of the Presbyterian Men's club last Tuesday evening.

The pupils of Miss Gurnhill, Halverson's room, of the sixth grade, showed the largest number of members so far. A prize goes to the winning room. Miss Virginia Hart's room showed the largest number of parents of pupils present. Mrs. O. T. Koster gave the report of the national president of the association, Mrs. Minnie Bradford.

Community singing was led by Mrs. U. N. Terry. Miss Ruth Darling, instructor, gave a musical reading. Mrs. Rose Montgomery North made a scholarly address on "Mental Health Versus Behavior Problems."
