DAMAGE SUIT LEADS TO PROBE OF CRASH

Question of Liability For Mining Man's Death Turns On Accident Circumstances

A $30,000 damage suit brought by the widow and sons of Joseph H. McCoy, who was killed in a mining accident on the night of October 6, 1929, turns on the question whether the accident was unavoidable, it developed during the first day of trial in district court here yesterday.

McCoy's widow, Mrs. Florence McCoy, and his sons, Barton O. McCoy and Melvin B. McCoy, are suing for damages from Captain C. H. Krenzel, Twin Falls, in whose mine McCoy was riding when the accident occurred. Captain Krenzel was severely injured and died in the hospital. McCoy was associated in development of Nevada mining property, and was returning from a trip to Boise on business in connection with that enterprise when the accident occurred.

One of the witnesses yesterday for the McCoy was J. P. Lawrence, King Hill, driver of a truck with which the Krenzel car collided. Other witnesses included Charles Caldwell and A. E. Caldwell, Hollister, who also were interested in the Nevada mining enterprise, and were following the accident on the return trip to Boise.

Three Nevada men, Charles F. Wright, Thomas Wray and Gilbert Hull, and one of the surviving sons, Barton O. McCoy, testified concerning the elder McCoy's physical condition and earning power, and stated that his earning capacity was from $3,000 to $5,000 a year.

The case for the McCoy was read by J. R. Bodwell late yesterday afternoon, and R. P. Parry and J. Paul Thomas, attorneys for Captain Krenzel, thereafter argued for a non-suit. Judge W. A. Babcock postponed argument on this motion to this morning.

Members of the jury impaneled in trial of the damage suit are J. M. Jamerson, B. J. Diller, John W. Pringle, C. W. Strickland, R. L. Turpin, R. L. Turpin, C. T. Hampton, G. W. Rettig, S. J. Perkins, and C. G. Dyer.

FUNERAL RITES HERE FOR MURTAUGH WOMAN

With funeral services at the White chapel here Monday afternoon, a final tribute was paid to the memory of Mrs. Oella T. Barnes, 61, wife of George Barnes and mother of Mrs. Charles Samples, Murtaugh, who died last Thursday night following illness of only a few days duration from pneumonia at the farm home east of Murtaugh where she had lived a little more than a year. Services were conducted by Rev. Charles W. Ronk, Twin Falls, pastor of the Murtaugh Methodist church, and included singing of three numbers by a quartet composed of Mrs. Ed T. Barnes, Mrs. John Johnson, C. A. Bestre and John Olmstead. Accompaniment at the piano was played by Miss Ruth Brown.

Former neighbors in the vicinity of Murtaugh were pall bearers. Interment was in Twin Falls cemetery.

DEMOCRATIC WOMEN HOLD VARIED SESSION

Papers on public men and economic issues, musical numbers and discussions of current political affairs marked the program of the largely attended meeting of the Twin Falls county Democratic women's club at the home of Mrs. O. W. Williams last night.

At the business session, a resolution was adopted commending Governor Ross for his stand in opposition to retaining women employees in public offices where their husbands are regularly employed, and suggesting that this system be extended to county offices.

Following a concert solo by Hugh Joynson, with Esther Joynson as accompanist, Mrs. James D. Wheeler presided during the program, discussed the opening of congress and its effect on public affairs. Miss Mildred Smith read a paper on Newton D. Baker, after which a group of songs were given by Miss Clarice Saunders, supervisor of the Twin Falls schools, Mrs. U. N. Terry and Mrs. J. A. Dyer.

Dr. Bula Malone, president of the organization, presided at the business session. The resolution relative to the employees in public offices was in substance as follows: "Resolved, that there be much unemployment in this country as well as in the state and nation, and the number of jobs available are inadequate to furnish all employment; the club go on record as commending Governor Ross for his stand in opposition to employment in state positions of women whose husbands have regular employment and suggest that a similar position be taken by county officers."

Mrs. Williams read a letter from Mrs. Emmitt Priest, Boise, regarding activities of Democratic women there. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. Orr Chapman.

INJURED DRIVER FACES RECKLESSNESS CHARGE

A reckless driving charge was filed yesterday against Bert Curtis, Twin Falls, following an automobile collision Sunday evening on the highway a mile and a quarter west of Twin Falls in which two cars were badly damaged and Curtis received broken ribs and other injuries that put him in the hospital over night.

The complaint was signed by O. M. Winkle, Twin Falls, driver of the other car involved in the collision. Winkle said he was driving westward from Twin Falls when Curtis came coming from the west, not on the right side of the road, struck the left front wheel of Winkle's car and pushed it into the roadside ditch.

MAYOR GETS VOTES AT CANAL MEETING

Twin Falls Council Follows Precedent in Respect to Water, Stock

Under authorization voted by Twin Falls city council at a regular meeting last night, Mayor R. E. Bohler will vote as proxy for owners of 1254 acre in Twin Falls municipal limits at the annual meeting of Twin Falls Canal company stockholders next January 12. The canal company's board of five directors for the ensuing year is to be elected at the stockholders' meeting.

In authorizing the mayor to vote the canal stock which the city holds at its annual meeting followed a precedent which was established several years ago. There was no discussion when the city clerk presented the subject last evening, and all councilmen voted in the affirmative when Commissioner T. J. Douglas moved to authorize the mayor to vote the city's canal stock.

Council received last evening the November reports of the city treasurer, waterworks department, police judge, and wellmaster; authorized issuance of a building permit to L. P. Winkelman to move a 1200 dwelling house from the sugar factory to a site in the Ashton addition, and approved issuance of a license to Lillian Smith to operate the Keith rooms, Main avenue east.

The treasurer reported November collections totaling $10,874; payment of $18,266 by city and payment of $520 interest on bonded debt, and a cash balance on hand at the end of the month of $13,059. The police judge's collection of street sprinkling assessments totaled $1,664.

The waterworks department reported $5,702 November collections and $5,568 charged to be collected this month for water service. The police judge's financial report showed collection of $125 on against $526 fines assessed, and $134 against $137 costs assessed, making $200 total receipts for the month.

ELKS HOLD ANNUAL MEMORIAL RITES

Dr. E. H. Longbrake Finds Assurance of Eternal Life In Rainbow of Promise

"There is a tie that binds the hearts and lives of men, stronger than blood, steel or any material thing," Dr. E. H. Longbrake, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, said in the course of his address before the Elks' annual memorial service at the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday night, "it is the tie that makes men brothers." About 350 persons attended.

Dr. Longbrake took for his text Genesis 9:11: "I will set my bow in the cloud and it shall be for a covenant between me and the earth," also Ecclesiastical 1:28: "As the appearance of the bow in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about," and Revelations 4:3, "and there was a rainbow around the throne."

"There is," Dr. Longbrake continued, a natural tendency to give honor to those with whom we have companionship or fellowship and who have contributed to the value of life. There is in the sense of 'absence' an implication that there is a place here, after, to which they have gone. There is an implication that there must be a God who can be depended on and who is unfailing. The common vision of all ages is that there is a bow of promise or covenant with the Eternal that will be kept. Our part is to honor those who are gone with keeping the common covenant with the Eternal God on whom we depend."

The following is the program as given: Prelude, organ, and orchestra; funeral march, Chopin, organ; opening ceremonies, Leonard P. Avant, exalted ruler; and Walter H. Weaver, caquie; prayer, Chaplain H. M. Miller; anthem, Bend Obit Thy Light, Gounod; choir, roll call of absent

"If It Isn't Right Bring It Back"

"I'll stand by it!"

"I'll stand by tobacco... in good times, in hard times... all kind of times... it helps a whole lot!"

"I GREW up with tobacco. Mostly I smoke cigarettes now—but I've smoked plenty of cigars, and pipes, too. And I never got anything but good from tobacco in any form—pipe, cigar, or cigarette—and that goes for every smoker I ever heard about."

"Why, I remember as a boy, way back, how the old folks in the fall used to pick and cure tobacco from a little patch they'd raised, and save out the best for their own smoking. And my father fought all through the war, and lived to be ninety."

"He'd certainly appreciate what we get today, though. Just think about these CHESTERFIELDS of mine—fine tobaccos from all over the world, and cured and blended just so; you couldn't get anything purer or milder. Cleanest factories you ever saw, too—never a hand touching the cigarettes... everything up to date.

"A big improvement over the old ways... reckon that's why I like CHESTERFIELDS so much. Notice most of my friends get a lot of pleasure out of mine, too."

"But what I started out to say was, you can always depend on tobacco, no matter how things are going. Probably there was never anything in the world that meant so much to so many people, and cost so little, as tobacco—whatever way they smoke it."

"Yes, sir—I'll stand up for tobacco as long as I can strike a match!"

* NOTE: In the sections where tobacco grows and where people know tobacco, Chesterfield is usually the largest-selling cigarette.
