GANDHI REACHES ROME BUT DOESN'T SEE POPE

ROME, Dec. 12 (AP)—Mahatma Gandhi came to Rome today to see the pope, but he might have seen an audience with Pope Pius, but the meeting did not occur because the Indian nationalist leader consistently refuses to wear any costume except his loincloth and shawl.

Other pressing engagements already made by the pope were declared by Vatican authorities to have been the reason for the cancellation of the Mahatma's audience.

But it was learned the Vatican considered Mr. Gandhi's raiment scarcely proper and at the same time considered it would be a bit too delicate to suggest that he garb himself differently.

Although Mr. Gandhi did not see the pope, he spent more than an hour at the Vatican, viewing its priceless art treasures.

At the evening the nationalist leader was received by Premier Mussolini. What they talked about was not divulged.

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 12 (AP)—An explosion that killed a bed near through the roof killed Mrs. Marie Callaway Baker, young wife of a wealthy California and Ohio oil man, early today as she slept, after a mysterious fire had been traced to a bomb which had been the trained eyes of bomb experts.

W. A. Baker, the husband, whose summer home is at Home Lake, although he escaped without a scratch, was taken to a hospital in a hysterical condition after he was released. He was deafened momentarily.

Baker, although reluctant to discuss the possibility of a plot, said he had been involved in arguments in Pasadena transactions and indicated revenge might have been attempted.

Educator Trisects Angle—Gains Goal Of 2000 Years Ago

SMOOTH DRAWS BILL ALLOWING DEBTORS TO PAY IN SILVER

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 12 (AP)—The President of Duquesne University, today offered proof that he has trisected an angle, a problem that has stumped mathematicians 2000 years ago.

He announced several months ago that he had split an angle into three equal parts by plane geometry. Scottish experts at the angle were "imposed on." Now Father Callahan comes forward with a figure and explanation of his method, which he describes as "quite simple." Here is his method:

"Let AC and DP be two parallel lines at any given distance apart.

"On one parallel line take a certain distance DP.

"With D as a center and DP as a radius, intersect AC at C, making DC equal DP.

"With F as a center and a radius equal to DP intersect AC at A, making AF equal to DP.

"Join AF and DC. On DC as a base construct the angle DCF equal to the angle ACD. From D draw DB parallel to EC and DE parallel to AF.

"Then DC and DP trisect the angle BDF."

John AF and DC. On DC as a base construct the angle DCF equal to the angle ACD. From D draw DB parallel to EC and DE parallel to AF.

The Thomas bill, as it now is planned, would permit the secretary of the interior to grant relief to individual water users and irrigation districts of the West instead of the moratorium most of the projects have sought.

INQUIRY STARTS AT LEAVENWORTH

Warden of Federal Prison Annex Criticizes Guards For Not Opening Fire

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Dec. 12 (AP)—As guards at Leavenworth federal prison were criticized for withholding the gun fire while seven convicts secured to freedom, the wife of Warden T. B. White tonight said the prison had ordered the main gate opened in an effort to save the building from destruction by dynamite.

The statement was issued by Mrs. White for her husband, who is receiving hospital treatment for severe wounds received at the hands of the convicts, who kidnapped the warden in making their escape.

Three of the convicts were killed, three others captured.

While Mrs. White talked prison guards were being rushed to the hospital. Kansas, where Earl Thayer, 65, the only one of the desperate convicts who was not killed, was reported reliable, but officers at Winchester protested to know nothing of the matter.

Dramatic Story

In his story of the dramatic moments of the Leavenworth break, Mrs. White said the warden ordered the main gate opened only when one of his kidnappers held a lighted match near a stick of dynamite and threatened to "blow up the prison" if he denied the truth.

The dynamite was found later in the warden's automobile, which the convicts vainly sought to use in the escape.

While Thayer, who also is warden of the penitentiary annex, directed the escape.

CULBERTSONS GAIN 810 POINTS DURING SESSION AT BRIDGE

After 33 Rubbers of Series Lenx and Jacoby Lead in Test of Rival Systems By Total of 4840 Points

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 12 (AP)—Doubles and re-doubles of Mr. and Mrs. Ely Culbertson tonight and they gained 810 points, although losing three of five rubbers to Sidney S. Lenx and Oswald Winick.

At one time during the night's play the Culbertsons' deficit was only 2100 as they made a gain of 1670 during the second rubber of the night. It was during that rubber, the thirtieth of the series, that doubles and re-doubles were made.

Culbertsons tried three little slams tonight; made one, were set one in Lenx, re-doubled and went down one in the third without a double. Lenx tried one little slam, was doubled and went down four.

Lenx was pleased at holding down the Culbertsons' gain.

"Count the aces and kings tonight and see," he remarked. "We finished pretty well. I liked his play of the hat hand of the session, hand 183 of the series, when he tried to fulfill a contract of three hearts to wind up the night's competition and made it only by play of which a ace and king."

Rail And Labor Chiefs Look Forward To Quiet Settlement of Dispute

Executive, In Letter to Union, Terms Workers' Move "Very Finest Type of Industrial Statesmanship"

CHICAGO, Dec. 12 (AP)—Railroad labor leaders tonight expressed confidence that wage adjustments and the allied problem of unemployment would be amicably settled through compromise.

Replying to the proposal of the union heads for further negotiations between the two groups, Daniel Willard, president of the National Railroad Laborers' association, and Ohio railroad, in a letter to D. B. Robertson, chairman of the Railway Labor Executive association, said the laborers' action "The very finest type of industrial statesmanship."

He added that he had no doubt but that the railroad would select a committee to negotiate with the labor union chairman here last night.

Robertson, who has said he was positive full authority for the labor union, expressed the belief that the railroad would be able to meet the laborers' demands in January, if the road consent.

But as Eastern presidents prepared for a meeting on the matter in New York Monday and Western presidents for one in Chicago Tuesday, all eyes were turned to the property of the Chicago and North-western railroad which recently announced what labor termed a 25 percent cut for maintenance of way men.

Waves of Strike

Fred H. Fitzgerald, Detroit, president of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees, announced tonight the brotherhood was supporting its forces to gain the support of "a strike of a major caliber" unless the railroad submitted to the demands of the laborers.

More than 30,000 people were received in favor of the plan and 80 in opposition. The result of the company stated after the meeting that the favorable vote probably would make unnecessary the receivership action which had been threatened and scheduled to be argued here this month.

The plan for the financing plan provides for the issuance of $1,500,000 of 6 percent debentures to meet maturing obligations of the railroad. The plan is titled to the debentures and 1,740,000 shares of common stock upon the surrender of three fourths of their shares.

The Radio Corporation of America has agreed to underwrite the debentures and take up all debentures not subscribed by other stockholders.

IDAHO TAX EXPERTS STUDY PLANS FOR REACHING INCOMES

Week Finds Lukens Out of Machinery Contract Battle and Governor Ross Nearing Middle of Active Term

By Preston L. Grover
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
BOISE, Dec. 12.—While congressmen are deliberating on the proposed broadening of the federal income tax, Idaho tax experts are going ahead steadily to put into effect this state's own income tax. During the past week Ben Diefendorf, state commissioner of finance and tax commission, has been working on a form of income tax which he hopes will not be too onerous to the taxpayer.

The new tax calls for a first return on March 1st for earnings for the last half of 1931. Meantime Attorney General Babcock is also studying the tax law, and is confident that it will be tested in the courts before another year has passed.

WITHDRAWS FROM SCUFFLE
The attorney general and Secretary of State Fred F. Lukens have withdrawn at least for the time being from the scuffle involving the machinery contract which resulted in the removal of Alvin Harbison as commissioner of public works. Harbison, who was appointed to the position by Governor Ross, was removed solely into the hands of the governor and his special assistant, J. P. Martin, who has been acting as the court for the governor, but at the expense of the attorney general's appropriation.

Attorney General Babcock has refused to approve the contract which he branded as seriously disadvantageous to the state. He declined to comment on whether he would attempt to show fraud had entered into the drawing of the contract, but he said further investigation would be made before the case was finally tried in the courts. He was advised by the attorney general that only upon a showing of fraud could he get the court to set on the case.

This matter, the governor said, is now up to Mr. Martin.

NEW FACES
Term of office on the Idaho supreme court is interrupted by the constitution to be longer than 10 years—six years—yet there have been several new faces appear on the bench in little more than two years. Herman H. Taylor of Sandpoint died suddenly, and was succeeded by J. D. Vail from Moscow. He remains on the bench. William E. Lee was barely a year on his second term when he resigned to accept an appointment to the interstate commerce commission. Succeeded him was W. P. McCallister, of Coeur d'Alene. He has resigned and in his place will be R. D. Leeper, of Lewiston.

The court how stands: Four from the south Idaho and one from the north. Justice Vail could be considered from the north because of his home in the first congressional district.

NEAR MID-TERM
Governor Ross is drawing to the mid-way mark of his term as governor. No one can deny it has been an active year. There have been many new men to office and new policies go into effect.

The governor will arrive at January 1st with his friends confident he has made headway. Naturally there will be opposing opinions. It will be almost another year, however, before the people express their opinions on the matter at a general election.

This concern is the heaviest holder of the present shares. J. Cookman Boyd, Baltimore attorney and holder of 100 shares of the corporation's stock, brought the receivership action against the company and charged that a $600,000 credit, due for liquidation of the proposed debtors' lease, had cost the corporation a bonus of $300,000 in addition to 6 per cent interest.

BABCOCK WARNS COURTS

BOISE, Dec. 12 (AP)—Justices of the peace who attempt to let men who violate orders of the court go free will find themselves liable on the minimum fine are liable on the bonds to make up the difference. Attorney General Fred Babcock says today. Moreover, he said, they may not remit any of the fines.

SMOOT DRAWS BILL ALLOWING DEBTORS TO PAY IN SILVER

Senator King, his Democratic colleague from Utah, held, however, it was not an "effective way to deal with this problem," and "would be a violation of the United States a large quantity of silver without giving it monetary status."

The congressional chiefsman said it plain through the day that the session must act on its own responsibility regarding debt payments due America on Tuesday. The session was prepared to inform the foreign governments they could not be held in criticism for the failure of congress to ratify the agreement.

Previously house leaders had refused to sign any letter to this effect. In addition they informed the session they would accept responsibility for any statement respecting the $100,000 in debt payments due the United States on Tuesday.

Later Chairman Borah of the senate foreign relations committee, who is supporting the moratorium, took the administration to task for not having called a special session of congress to ratify the moratorium.

"I am opposed to this convoluted creation of the law," he said. "It ought to have been here and transacted this business. We can't make the law by conference and let the foreign nations wait. It is Tuesday they are technically in default so far as I am concerned."

He said he thought the "technical default" would have any effect on the credit of the foreign nations nor on ratification of the moratorium.

Frederic B. Smith, John J. Raskob, John W. Davis, Joseph P. Kamp and Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, was shown about the Empire building in New York.

Everything went fairly well until the ghost of Thomas Jefferson appeared. A rock crowd. The speaker hailed it as the Democratic rooster but warned: "Don't let the rooster turn into a snake or the snake become a jackass."

"What a nerve!" Raskob exclaimed as the speaker disappeared. "Nobody invited him."

Among the guests were outstanding figures in every line. The majority of the cabinet were there as were many senators, representatives and army and navy leaders.

Among others were Gene Tunney, Leon Gordon, the artist; Gerard Swope of the General Electric Company, Governor White of Ohio, Governor Olson of Minnesota, Governor Moore of New Jersey, John J. Raskob, Richard Whitney, president of the New York stock exchange; Vincent Astor and Frank B. Rowes, president of the Associated Press.

C. BEN ROSS FINDS ROAD CONTRACT VOID

Boise Attorney Declares Agreement Unlawful and State Not Bound

BOISE, Dec. 12 (AP)—Governor C. Ben Ross declared today that he would not take the disputed highway equipment contract into court, and cited an opinion of his attorney declaring the contract was already void and the state was not bound.

"The contract is so flagrantly in favor of the lesser," the governor said, "that no court would ever consider it. There is no need to take it to court."

The opinion was entered into by the department of public works with the Idaho Equipment company under its terms. $400,000 worth of machinery was rented with an option to purchase it at the end of a year, all rental to apply on the purchase price.

The opinion was written by J. P. Martin, who was hired by the governor through agreement with the attorney general. The latter agreed that the contract was void in the view of the fact he and the other Republican member of the board of examiners had already approved the contract when it was submitted to them in the absence of the governor by Alvin Harbison, subsequently named as commissioner of public works.

The attorney assailed the clause in the contract by which the company is entitled to fix the price of the equipment at the end of the rental period without any knowledge of the state as to the value of the price to be fixed.

He concluded by stating that the commissioner of public works had no authority to enter into the contract in the first place, thus rendering void upon the state purchasing agent.

Criticism at the several guards on duty during the escape, no action has been taken by the state. The guards expressed the belief they would be exonerated when the inquiry was completed. It was said, however, that they had not displayed any lack of courage.

Hubert Gray, the guard who was in a lower command position, was taken to task by Zerk for not shooting when the escaping convicts marched out of the main gate.

Prison officials are paid for the maintenance of the prison. "Despite the presence of the warden and the other hostages, the guard should have attempted to drop one of the prisoners. I believe such a course would have ended the break."

George Harvey of the Kansas City headquarters of the department of justice, who was completing preliminary investigation of the daring break, said he probably would have been within 24 hours.

Among the questions to be answered were the source of four revolvers, the shotgun and rifle used in the abduction of the warden; where the prisoners obtained nitroglycerin found on the three captured; the origin of passes by which the prisoners were through the inspection with the warden's office and the extent to which others outside as well as inside the prison might be involved in the plot.

SEANCHENERS INCREASE

WINCHESTER, Kan. Dec. 12 (AP)—Officers here said guards were acting tonight in increasing numbers from the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth. Earl Thayer, the only one of seven men who escaped from the prison yesterday, is still at large.

Spinster Claiming Wendel Estate Dreams of Restoring "Old South"

Rosa Dew Stansbury Visions Return of Gentry to Make "Leisurely Living An Art"

(By The Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 12.—Julia Rosa Dew Stansbury smiles when she dreams of sharing in the Wendel millions. Who wouldn't?

The 58-year-old Victorian Miss Stansbury, spinster, isn't thinking of yachts, expensive motors or other show-off connected with "lots of money."

Instead she dreams of the rehabilitation—in part, at least—of the Southern aristocracy dating back to the times of the landed gentry that made leisurely living an art.

Miss Stansbury is spending the winter here while her attorneys conduct a fight on the part of Miss Stansbury, the late Mr. Wendel estate, who died last March, leaving an estate valued by some estimates at $50,000,000 or more.

It is the attorney's claim that Miss Stansbury, a cousin, is the only heir. The contestant, a slight, blue-eyed, brown-haired woman, smiled at the prospect of coming into so much money.

"I don't do," she said, "I would like to place some of the members of distinguished families dear to me on their feet again."

Miss Stansbury, who made her debut here a half-century ago, wearing an Empire dress, and a high collar, is the South of great plantations, brilliant fox hunts, sparkling river entertainments, and a life of leisurely living.

"I am an old maid in that I am single at 58, but that is the only characteristic I share with spinsters," she said.

"My religion is not a burden to me," she said. "I am like a woman who would like to smoke a cigarette, except I know it would make me sick."

TRIO FACES CHARGES OF MURDER AFTER LYNCHING

LEWISBURG, W. Va., Dec. 12 (AP)—Three men were charged with murder here today for the lynching of two Negroes taken from the Greenbrier county jail by a mob of 50 masked men Thursday. The men, Earl Lewis, Peter Legg and Jack Legg, brothers, Quinwood, waived a preliminary hearing and were held without bond.

They were arrested by state police a few hours after the mob took the Negroes, Tom Jackson, 46, and George Banks, 26, from the jail, hanged them from the cross-arm of a telephone pole and ridged their bodies with bullets.

CHARGE FOLLOWS DEATH

BOISE, Dec. 12 (AP)—Lloyd Blaylock, sheepherder, today was charged with first-degree murder in connection with the death of Clarence DeWalt, November 18, as the result of a stab wound.

DeWalt was stabbed during the progress of a liquor party in their sheep camp near here.

LAMBING SEASON IN IDAHO BEGINS SOON

Sheepmen Prepare Sheds and Erect Wind-Breaks For Young Lambs' Protection

BOISE, Dec. 12 (AP)—Sheepmen have already begun preparation for the early start lambing that begins the Snake river and the vicinity of Glenns Ferry and Marsing as early as January 1, and are hoping that this beginning of the new year in the industry will be the beginning of a better year.

Sheds are being prepared, wind breaks erected and other provisions made for protection of the lambs which come into a world of hardships and low temperatures in the early spring, in order that they may be ready at an early date to go to market.

Further up the Snake river, from Blackfoot north, lambing is rarely started so early in the season. In that section, however, one condition is a snow while wheat, peas and other grain is being fed.

"Farm Out" Lamb

Some sheepmen are "farming out" their unwanted lambs to feeders, paying so much for every pound of fat placed on the flock. It is a system designed necessary by refusal of the market to absorb large supplies of feeder lambs. Fat lambs are marketable, although the price has not been an encouraging factor this year.

Sheepmen report considerable benefit from "wool week" held in November when all merchants in the state were urged to display woolen goods and customers were urged to buy them. Sid Smith, Shoshone, president of the Idaho Woolgrowers association, reported many merchants in smaller towns had wool sales during the week that left their shelves bare of blankets and similar articles.

Sheepmen secured a reduction in taxes from the state board of equalization in addition to reductions already granted by the county assessors. Many of them complained of the impossibility of continuing in business without assistance from all sources. Wages were reduced by many operators, although several refused to pay them. The pay scale, Wool prices brought barely a third or fourth of the price prevailing a few years ago, but many sheepmen declined to be demoralized. Smith

IDDINGS TELLS OF RECLAMATION FOES

MOSCOW Agricultural Dean Declares East and Midwest Oppose Idaho Plans

MOSCOW, Dec. 12 (Special to The News)—Widespread opposition to Western reclamation development, based at least partly on misunderstandings, exists in the East and Midwest West, reports Dean E. J. Idings of the University of Idaho college of agriculture.

This surprising attitude, Dean Idings said, was especially noticeable at the United States department of agriculture land utilization conference which he recently attended in Chicago. The notion has been abroad east of the Rockies that Western reclamation projects are being paid for out of a federal tax levied throughout the nation.

That idea is harmful to the West and decidedly contrary to fact, Dean Idings explained, as the cost of reclamation projects in the West is met from sale of public lands, royalties and payments from established reclamation districts. The only exceptions are occasional loans made by congress.

More favorable to the West was a resolution passed by the land utilization conference dealing with rehabilitation of existing reclamation projects needing more water. Dean Idings explained. Delegates expressed themselves in favor of development to place established projects on a paying basis, but against any program creating irrigated areas in new regions.

Several projects in southern Idaho come under the rehabilitation clause of the resolution, said Dean Idings. The new canal which brings water from American Falls to the Gooding project, and increased water output projects are steps in that direction, but more remains to be done. Idaho's attitude he described as follows: That the state and nation are duty bound to strengthen Idaho projects at the earliest possible time; that the people who have located on them in good faith may be assured of an adequate water supply.

Dean Idings sees the need of organized educational effort on the part of Western states to place reclamation in its proper light before the people of the country, and to correct prevailing notions are corrected, the rightful cause of Western reclamation will suffer, he believes.

Application of the Northern Pacific to close its station at Kootenai will be heard on December 17 and the application to close the station at Granite on the same line will be held December 18. Both hearings will be held in the affected towns.

ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES IDAHO DEBATE CONTESTS

HEART BEATS SET OFF NEW BURGULAR ALARM

SPOKANE, Dec. 12 (U)—Burglars with fast beating hearts will be doomed if claims of two Spokane men, inventors of an ingenious electric alarm, are justified.

The device starts going to ringing when a burglar touches a light bulb and calls the police by vibration set off by heart beats. If the intruder's heart does not beat rapidly, a photo-electric cell, a part of the alarm, reacts to his presence and does the same thing.

A wire connected with a sensitive electric coil and whatever object is being grabbed picks up the heart beats and magnifies them. The magnified vibrations are transmitted to a switch that sets the noise making and other instruments in motion.

J. A. and Roy A. Morrison, father and son, the inventors, said a nervous woman whose heart beat abnormally fast set off the alarm when she approached within five feet and a dog started it a few inches away. If the wire was cut or broken, the inventors claim, reaction of the coil is the same.

OLD-AGE PENSIONS CLAIM ATTENTION

Twin Falls County Commissioners—Receive 60 Applications Under New Law

Among 60 applications for old-age pensions, whose applications were received by Twin Falls county commissioners, sitting here yesterday as an old-age pension commission, 25 already are being supported in whole or in part by county funds. James L. Barnes, chairman of the board, stated last evening. The terms of the old-age pension law which was passed at the last session of the state legislature, the court has the right to provide for old-age pensioners either in their own homes, or at a county institution.

The maximum old-age pension is $25 a month. Old-age pensioners, Mr. Barnes said, are not entitled to any other payments from public funds, except for medical attention. Applicants for the pension under the new state law's provisions must be not less than 65 years old, and must have lived in the United States for 15 years, in Idaho for 10 years, and in the county for three years immediately preceding the date of application.

Applications for the pension are being received by the probate court. Applications approved before the close of the fiscal year, January 1, will receive pension payments beginning with the first of the new fiscal year. Pension payments are to be made each month, and the certificate issued upon approval of application for old-age pension continues effective for one year.

The committee named to arrange for the Elks' Christmas party is composed of R. E. Bohler, L. A. Chapin, H. G. Lauterbach and John O. Rasmussen.

Reveries from the Elks annual charity ball last Thursday made possible a large part of the cost of the Christmas party for the boys and girls, the exalted ruler said.

DOG'S BESIEGE WOMAN AND CHILD IN HOUSE

Police officers were summoned yesterday to drive away dogs holding a woman and her little daughter in a state of siege at their home on Van Buren street.

The woman said that the dogs first attacked the child when she left the house to get a bucket of coal, and that she herself then attempted to go to the coalhouse, and was driven back by the canine attack.

A police officer who answered the call found three dogs in the yard. One was returned to its owner, who promised to keep the animal in leash, and the other two were turned over to the poundmaster.

DISTRICT COURT JURY FAVORS POTATO BUYER

A jury in district court here yesterday, concluding a three-day trial in an involved dispute over a 1930 potato deal, adopted in toto the conclusions reached by counsel for one of the litigants and returned a verdict awarding judgment for $10,000 to Gerald G. Ryan, Minneapolis produce dealer, from Marvin B. Grimes, Jerome grower. Ryan was defendant in the suit which Grimes started a year ago to recover five claims totaling $8000 from Ryan on account of alleged over-payment of a promissory note and commissions for purchase of potatoes.

The jury received the case at 2:45 P. M. yesterday, and announced two hours later that it had reached agreement on a verdict. The verdict, however, was not received at that time, and the jury was sent back to answer four or five special interrogatories propounded by the court. Shortly after 5 P. M. attorneys stated they would waive the jury's answers to the court's questions, and the verdict was received.

Jury was excused until Monday morning.

Frank L. Stephan, Twin Falls, was Ryan's attorney in this action.

VETERANS' EXAMINER FACES BRIBE CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12 (AP)—Martin L. Schriver, for 12 years an examiner of the United States Veterans bureau, was arrested today on a charge of soliciting and accepting a bribe.

Police and federal agents said they concealed themselves in his office of Dr. W. A. Glaser, whom they alleged Schriver attempted to bribe for $250 to "fix" a complaint.

When Schriver appeared, officers said he talked freely concerning the bribe. He was arrested as he accepted $100 from Dr. Glaser as part payment, police said. His bail was fixed at $500.

BILLS OF SCHOOL HEAD FIGURE IN BOISE STRIFE

BOISE, Dec. 12 (AP)—Conflicts over more bills accumulated by Mrs. Myrtle H. Davis, state superintendent of public instruction, appeared likely to be threatened on Monday at a meeting of the public schools committee of the state board of education.

The bills, estimated at the department of education, amounted to $419 in her account besides salary for herself and stenographer.

Mrs. G. H. Gravel, president of the board of education, said the board would have to pass on the bills as she felt she could not approve them, leaving the superintendent in the superintendent's account.

The conflict between Mrs. Davis and the board, which has continued since the last legislature, was brought to a head several weeks ago when the board discovered Mrs. Davis had $2500 for printing the public school courses of study when previous courses had cost about a third that. Payment of the bill wiped out all appropriations allotted to the superintendent and required more than $2500 from other sources.

Mrs. Davis charged the board had not allowed her sufficient money with which to operate her office.

JURY CONVICTS THIRD OF TRIO AT LEWISTON

LEWISTON, Idaho, Dec. 12 (AP)—Frank Lakaria, third member of a trio accused of slaying two senators, was convicted of slaying Senator Charles Greenhatch, an attendant, when they released. A few days later, Greenhatch's garage was robbed again, and he was taken captive a second time. While one robber held him in the back seat, two others robbed another garage, escaping under gunfire.

Blair and Burns were arrested at Spokane four days later, and Lakaria was arrested at Aberdeen, Washington.

The trio made an unsuccessful attempt to escape from the county jail last Saturday night. A deputy sheriff was wounded in the struggle.

BERLIN, Dec. 12 (AP)—This year of grace promises to run second only to 1922 in the number of persons killed in political clashes.

In the last nine years 467 persons have been slain and 154 seriously wounded.

Officials blame the death roll on the pistol trotting habits of extremists.

The high point of the nine years' strife was in 1923, when 230 persons were slain. So far this year 56 have been killed.

Southern California Overwhelms Georgia by 60-0 Score

Powerful Trojans Entertain 75,000 Los Angeles Fans

Vernon (Catfish) Smith's Playing Stands Out as Most Brilliant of All in Southerners' Line-up

By BRIAN BELL
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
LYMPIC STADIUM, LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—Southern California, by defeating Georgia, 60 to 0, showed again today that a good, big team will beat a good, little team every time. A crowd in excess of 75,000 saw the Southerners suffer their first real rout in many years.

The powerful Trojans, off to a flying start with a touchdown in the first three minutes of play and another before the game was 10 minutes old, pushed the fast but light players from Dixie all around the field and seemed to be able to score almost anytime they chose.

Georgia fought courageously, but the Bulldogs had no chance from the first to the last.

Southern California seemed at the peak of condition, instead of coming out of a hard 10-game schedule while the visitors appeared to be a bit stale. On the basis of today's play, Southern California deserves to rate with the great football teams of all time.

One Georgia player, however, stood out. Playing for an obviously lost cause, did not dampen the enthusiasm of Vernon (Catfish) Smith, the great Georgia end.

Southern California displayed an unbeatable exhibition of team play. Everything the Trojans did seemed to be just about the right thing to do at the time. The bewildered Bulldogs from Dixie Athens much of the time did not seem to be able to locate the ball as Coach Howard Jones' students executed intricate lateral passes, reverses and spinner plays.

To the amazement of the big crowd, Southern California put on a football set in which the players did most of the tricks in the bag. A magic touch had been fitted perfectly into the lineup.

They tossed lateral passes about the place and did not bother to keep the ball in the air. They caught laterals on the ground just as well and as times dribbled the football, which has a strange shape and takes strange bounds, as though it had been a football. On the other hand, on one long run, dropped the ball along the way but picked it up without a break in stride and kept going.

The Southern California line demonstrated in the first few minutes of play that the Georgia line would have no chance to cope with it and with this demonstration the football game was over.

Georgia backs had lots of speed but little chance to use it on offense and when the Dixie coach conference champions had the ball they got so much interference in front of the runner, the Georgians could not fight their way through.

Bailey Requests Feeding of Birds

BOISE, Nov. 12 (AP)—Idaho's state game department wants to be sure there are no hungry birds this winter.

M. P. Bailey, state game warden, broadcast a request for sportsmen to watch carefully for coveys of quail or other birds which sometimes get "snowbound" or hungry and need care. Snow covers up much of the feed and frequently causes heavy loss.

The warden has no worry about the big game, particularly in North Idaho. Returning after a week's pack into the wilderness in the Clearwater, Lochs and Selway districts, and again in the Priest Lake territory, he said big game was very plentiful and feed conditions good.

Former Foe Calls Neviers Leader in Modern Football

SEATTLE, Dec. 12 (AP)—George Wilson, former University of Washington All-American halfback, from his experience in both college and professional football, called Neviers, ex-Stanford fullback, as the greatest player of recent years.

In a general discussion of grid wars, coaches and the game itself, here recently Wilson named his Pacific Coast conference foe of a few years ago as the best he had ever seen.

Other pointed comment made by Wilson on football included:

"Orv Mohler, Southern California quarterback, is the Pacific Coast's greatest present day ball carrier. 'East football' is far superior to Eastern and Southern football and a little better than Mid-West football."

"Professional football is as much better than college football as professional baseball is better than college baseball."

"There is more fun playing the 'grid' game after the college season is over than after the professional season."

"I would rather play under Coach 'Pop' Warner of Stanford than any other coach in the game today because Warner thinks as much of his players as he does about winning games."

Alabama Team Wins And Ties

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12 (AP)—Alabama's Crimson Tide stars after years won one abbreviated game today and tied two others, but in doing so they proved the age-old sports axiom, "they don't come back."

Catholic university lost by a 7-to-0 count in the second of the charity contests. A bulky Washington eleven battled to a 0-to-0 tie in the matinee performance, and Georgetown ran over the Johns Hopkins Tide warriors but failed to score at this game also went scoreless.

Each was 20 minutes, divided into two halves.

Hunters Get 1000 Idaho Elk in Year

BOISE, Dec. 11 (AP)—One thousand elk were taken by hunters in the Selway, Kootenai and Clearwater watersheds this year. M. P. Bailey, state game warden, reported here after an extensive trip through the area.

Bailey said the number taken did not appear to have damaged the prospects for continued good hunting in the Selway area, as large numbers of elk were seen after the hunting closed.

BAILEY WANTS BLAINE COUNTY'S BIRDS FED

BOISE, Dec. 12 (AP)—State Game Warden M. P. Bailey is trying this year to prevent any birds' going hungry.

He has authorized the game warden in Blaine county to purchase feed for pheasants and other birds, and the same authorization is being extended to wardens both north and south, where the demand is felt for feed to keep birds from becoming weakened by snow cutting off their natural food supply.

Late Short Covering Reduces Losses But Final Values Appear Generally Off

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

NEW YORK, Dec. 12 (U.P.)—Stocks: Irregular; steel issues in low ground. Bonds: Weak; Japanese issues heavy. Foreign exchange: Irregular; Japanese yen breaks. Cotton: Easy; low stock market. Sugar: Firm; steady spot market.

Coffee: Lower; steady selling. Chicago: Wheat: Firm; good export trade. Corn: Easy; disappointing cash trade; bearish weekly weather forecast. Cattle: Irregular. Hogs: Higher.

By JOHN L. COOLEY (Associated Press Financial Writer) NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Active selling of steel issues probably those in the steel group, varied the stock market lower in the week-end trading.

Late short covering cut down the losses, but final prices were generally lower than the average of the week. The market for the fourth time in as many days—liquidation—permeated the bond market.

Disappointing reports from Tokyo reported that the successor to the Wakasugi government was expected to suspend the gold embargo and suspend the gold standard. The yen broke more than 7 cents, response to the new reports.

United States steel shares were comparatively weak. The common broke 2 1/2 points to 4 1/2 while the preferred, touching par, sold at the lowest since 1929. Steel of other steel producers were likewise soft.

The fourth quarter bringing little or no recognition, earnings, it is being coming increasingly apparent to market circles that further curtailment of dividend is inevitable.

Rail Stocks Firm. Railroad stocks were firm in the first hour and a few issues, including New York Central, Union Pacific and Southern Railway, were higher. It was assumed here that the carriers were prepared to file formal notices of wage cuts, meanwhile continuing negotiations for a voluntary 10 per cent reduction.

Steel was off 1 1/2 at the finish but Bethlehem fully recovered. Allied Chemical, Lambert, Liggett and Myers B. Wrigley, Macy, United Oil, Improvement, American Paper and Light and Corn Products were down. The New York, Westinghouse, Missouri Pacific preferred stock 2 and 3, respectively, American Telephone, General Electric, Westinghouse, American Gas and Eastman closed firm. Transactions for the two days totaled 1,237,213 shares.

Wheat was heavy for a time but eventually rallied, closing unchanged. Corn was a little higher. Corn was off fractionally.

The pound sterling was strong in the market, demand for it reached the best level of the week.

BAR SILVER. NEW YORK, Dec. 12 (U.P.)—Bar silver easier at 3-56 lower at 29 5/8.

GASOLINE ALLEY—THERE'S NOTHING LIKE PUBLICITY

WHEAT QUOTATIONS CLOSE IRREGULARLY

Active Buying Swings Into Market After Downturns and Causes Brisk Rally

By JOHN R. DOUGHAN (Associated Press Market Editor) CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Active buying swung into the wheat market after early downturns and brought about a brisk rally that in some cases more than offset losses.

Reports of a wheat harvest in Argentina tended to overcome untimely effects of fresh breaks in Wall Street accounts. There were also further indications that Germany would take another lot of farm board wheat from the United States.

At first, the wheat pit showed itself sensitive area to stock market setbacks, as well as to other disturbing financial influences. Relative weakness of wheat quotations was also a temporary barrier to the factor, together with reports of increased Argentine wheat exports to Europe.

Selling dried up in the wheat market, however, when price downturns amounted to about 1 1/2 cents a bushel. It was at the stage that buyers became in a majority and that indications of a new harvest for Argentina began to operate as a counterpoise against earlier messages from Liverpool that a flood of Argentine wheat was pending for future delivery shipment on a low-price basis.

Prices of corn and oats dropped slightly, but wheat rallied. The market rallied after the wheat market rallied. Receipts of corn continued to be neglected.

Provisions were neglected. TWIN FALLS GETS IDAHO DAIRYMEN'S ANNUAL MEETING

State Association's Committee Accepts Invitation to Bring Scores of Convention Delegates

Idaho state dairy association will hold its 11th annual meeting January 8 in Twin Falls. It was decided at a meeting here yesterday of a committee appointed by the association's executive committee in session at Boise last Thursday.

The Boise meeting received Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce invitation and voted to hold the meeting in this county.

Several hundred dairymen are expected to attend the state association's meeting, which will be held in Twin Falls for the first time next month. Three years ago more than 800 persons attended the association's annual meeting at Jerome.

Subsequent annual meetings have been held at Caldwell and Payette. P. W. Atkinson, Moscow, head of the University of Idaho dairy department and secretary of the Idaho State Dairy association, has charge of arrangements for the program which will include, in addition to business sessions, discussion of a number of topics of interest to the Idaho dairy industry. Herbert Meyer, Boise, is president of the association.

The committee which met here yesterday to select the association's meeting place was composed of A. H. Japela, Buhl; Roy D. Smith, Jerome; S. H. Kaylor, Twin Falls; and Harvey S. Hale, Twin Falls county agent.

The meeting here of the state dairy association will follow annual meetings of the state Idaho association to be held at Caldwell January 4, and of the South Central Idaho Dairymen's association to be held in Twin Falls, January 5. A. H. Japela, Buhl, is president, and Tom Speedy, Jerome, secretary of the South Central Idaho Dairymen's association.

CHAIRMAN SETS FORTH ASSOCIATION PURPOSES

That funds raised from disposal of Christmas seals of the Anti-Tuberculosis association are, among other things, used to provide rough and inadequate and hospital beds to accommodate every consumptive needing care and to see that as possible, establish open air homes and schools for children needing care was pointed out by Mrs. W. C. Chapman, chairman of the Twin Falls county organization.

Mrs. Chapman pointed out that the share of the fund allotted to this county will again be used in the maintenance of the Dr. P. M. Cluskey summer camp at Buhl. Only five per cent of the money raised from Christmas stamps goes outside the state, it is pointed out. The organization also supports movements for physical examination of school children and for the organization to promote education in regard to the treatment and prevention of tuberculosis.

The association announces that it will seek to further organize community effort to control tuberculosis by securing adequate legislation and all other provisions needed. It will seek to follow up cases discharged from sanatoria to prevent relapses and provide suitable occupation for arrested cases.

"Will provide where possible diagnostic and consulting experts, assist physicians in the discovery of early and suspected cases of tuberculosis."

"Will endeavor to persuade employers of labor and working men and women to have periodic medical examination as a means of health conservation."

CITY PARENT-TEACHER COUNCIL PLANS SESSION

The chairman of each school within the Twin Falls district is on the committee with Mrs. Hayes.

Standing committees comprise the committee on hospitalities, membership, publicity, finance, literature and publications, the chairman of each local Parent-Teacher association, the chairman of each local school, the superintendent of each school, and a representative from the school board.

LIBRARY ASKS FOR DONATION OF BOOKS

Appeal to the public to "Make a Christmas gift to the library" in the form of a volume on biography, travel, fiction, or children's books was made public yesterday by the library board of the Twin Falls public library, by Mrs. E. M. Seeley, chairman.

It is pointed out that there has been an unusual growth in the number of volumes this year, and that while people are donating money to the care of the needy, the donation of a spare volume may add to the supply of readable books and to the gratification of the reading public, without any financial sacrifice. The appeal reads:

"At the beginning of this library year the library had 12,208 volumes. This last month the circulation was 2,229, about as many as the total number of volumes on the shelves January 1, an average daily circulation of 322. Some of the books in the library are reference books and do not circulate, hence this means that some books go out several times during the month, and even with the best of care there is a necessary depreciation.

"The public is asked to 'make a Christmas gift to the library,' either of popular fiction or standard children's books, which are not new, cannot be used as we must have these up to date. Some books on biography or travel would be used.

"There are many demands in these days for money, food and clothing. In many cases these are given as the Christmas gift to some one in need. But the gift of a book to the library will involve no material sacrifice, and will help to supply the too limited number at the library."

RAILROAD ANNOUNCES RATES FOR HOLIDAYS

Word was received yesterday by the local office of the Oregon Short Line Railroad company that special holiday rates will be in effect between all Oregon Short Line points and points in Oregon, Washington, Northern Idaho and California. A rate of one fare for the round trip will be in effect December 18, 19, 20 and 21, with a return limit of January 7. Rate on a basis of approximately one cent a mile will be in effect December 22 to January 1, inclusive, return limit January 5.

GIRL RESERVES PLAN CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Girl Reserve organizations in several communities in Twin Falls county have made plans for programs during Christmas week. The first of these is the program of the Girl Reserve club, December 24, following singing of Christmas carols throughout the city.

In Kimberly a party will be given Monday December 21 in the Kimberly high school, to which each girl has been requested to bring a gift.

In Pier it has been decided to hold a program the nature of which has not been completely worked out just before the beginning of the Christmas vacation. Mrs. Langland said:

SUGAR COMPANY'S CHECKS SOON GO TO COUNTY'S GROWERS

Producers of Last Season's Short Beet Crop Share In Distribution of $87,750 Payment For Product

The Amalgamated Sugar company will next Tuesday distribute approximately $87,750 among growers of 1500 acres of sugar beets in Twin Falls county this year. A. R. Hagar, district manager for the Amalgamated company, announced last evening.

"The sugar beet acreage in this county this year was only about one-third the normal acreage, Mr. Hagar said. Prediction made early last spring that conditions for the crop were unfavorable on account of the white fly menace, was regarded as an important factor making for reduction of the crop acreage. Another deterrent factor was a record of high prices for beans and other crops produced in this region.

The sugar beet crop yield in Twin Falls county this year ranged from 4 to 20 tons per acre, the average being 9 tons per acre. Higher yields were obtained on well-fertilized, carefully-cultivated fields. The white fly threat tended to reduce yields, according to the Amalgamated company's field man, who said that many growers did not expect to harvest profitably the best crops and neglected cultivation.

"The Amalgamated company released all growers who desired to be released from their contracts following issuance of the federal department of agriculture's emergency special investigator's forecast last spring, indicating prevalence of the white fly."

The contract price for sugar beets produced this year was $5.50 per ton.

MRS. D. L. ALEXANDER PREPARES PROGRAM

Next to last of the 1931 programs of the programs of the Big Brothers and Sisters Christmas Cheer club will start this afternoon at 12:30 and run until 2 o'clock. It was announced last night. The program for today will be in charge of Mrs. D. L. Alexander who has, it is stated, arranged a fine radio entertainment. Some of the best talent of Twin Falls and surrounding country have promised to be on hand, it is announced.

According to Joe K. Koehler, who organized the club, there now are over 250 members with their initiation fee paid in the form of making a donation of a bundle to the Associated Charities.

Koehler said: "It is easy to have to become a member of the club, all that you have to do is to tune in on the radio to some one who says that you have a bundle of either clothing, bedding, provisions or toys, and help to supply the too limited number at the library."

WAR MOTHERS VOICE REGRET OVER DEATH

Twin Falls War Mothers' chapter yesterday announced the following resolutions adopted voting regret at the passing away December 2 of Mrs. Frances Walker, who was an active member of the organization, junior vice president of the Idaho department of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic; president of Ladies Militant auxiliary of Colfax Canton; and active member of the Redwood lodge, the Post Noble Grand club and the Royal Neighbors lodge, the Music Valley organization.

It is decided to have a breakfast of the Girl Reserve club, December 24, following singing of Christmas carols throughout the city.

In Kimberly a party will be given Monday December 21 in the Kimberly high school, to which each girl has been requested to bring a gift.
