New Premier Of Japan Sets Forth Conditions For Manchurian Peace

CITIZENS OF TOWN JOIN IN CORNERING BIG ELK

PORT ANGELES, Wash., Dec. 14.—A magnificent bull elk, bull elk several hundred pounds, was cornered by a three-hour chase through back alleys and streets of this town today.

The animal was cornered after he had torn up several gardens and fences and fell exhausted.

Fearing the elk would become enraged and attack citizens, deputy game wardens shot him. The meat will be distributed to needy families.

It was believed he was lost from his herd or had been chased out of the woods by dogs.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE QUILTS HELM OF NATIONALISTS

NANKING, (Tuesday—Morning) Dec. 15.—A statement credited as emanating from the foreign office of the Nationalist government today said President Chiang Kai-Shek had resigned, although a portion of the government itself was ignorant of the resignation.

Informed persons believed it was only a matter of time when he would be ousted and it was considered that T. V. Soong would relinquish the finance ministry. Several other cabinet members were expected to resign.

Feeling against Chiang has been strong since the League of Nations failed to demand that the Japanese evacuate Manchuria by a specified time.

JURY AT RENO ACQUITS IDAHO WOMAN'S SLAYER

RENO, Nev., Dec. 14.—William Conrad, an acquittal of a murder charge here tonight by a jury which deliberated less than an hour.

Conrad, accused of killing his wife, was sentenced to life in prison after a jury verdict in Reno.

The defense contended Conrad shot the woman accidentally while defending himself.

STORM SOUTH ENDS SIX LIVES

Tornadoic Winds and Rainfall Resembling Cloudburst Also Cause Heavy Damage

LITTLE ROCK, Dec. 14.—Tornadoic winds and rainfall that resembled a cloudburst have caused six deaths, injuries to a score or more and extensive property damage and the inundation of wide areas in southern Arkansas and northern Louisiana.

Meauville, streams in the northern part of Mississippi were rising tonight from heavy rains of the past 36 hours. Flood conditions likely prevailed in a limited area of North Georgia today, but waters there were receding to night.

Camden and Waldo, Arkansas, were hit by winds of unknown force striking intermittently in this state and Louisiana Saturday night and Sunday. A small lake was killed under the wreckage of her home at Camden, two negroes perished near Camden, and a negro girl was killed in the vicinity of the nearby town of Corton Valley.

Waters were injured in the vicinity of Camden, but all were expected to recover. Two were hurt at Waldo.

Most of the business houses and a great number of dwellings at Camden were badly damaged. The structures escaped the wind force at Waldo.

Tell for more than 50 homeless families and the work of clearing away the wreckage in both towns was expected today.

High water remained to some extent in the stricken areas of Arkansas and Louisiana, and the rains have caused and the floods are subsiding. Sections of highways and railroad tracks connecting the two states are still closed, however, because of inundation and water.

The more serious flood aspects were presented in northern Mississippi and in March, when a cotton field, was under water tonight.

Material For Book Sends Woman Into Remote Northland

SEATTLE, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Edw. M. Biddle, prominent society woman of Philadelphia and New York, arrived here today en route to the country where she is to write a book. She will tomorrow visit the Steamship Admiral Evans.

Member of one of the oldest Philadelphia families, wife of one of its wealthiest men and mother of three children, Mrs. Biddle is on her way alone to the Northern lands to write a book. She will sail tomorrow on the Steamship Admiral Evans.

She has two photographs, a sleeping bag, two duffs bags a camera and photographic equipment. She will study the lives of White women traveling to Menzies by train, and then to the Northland. She has arranged for Mr. C. M. Biddle, her husband, to accompany her, but she has decided to go alone.

EPISCOPAL RECTOR PRAYS FOR MEN TO HEAR CALL OF GOD

Rev. E. R. Allman Delivers
Sermon Upon Theme of Christian Ministry in Work of Redemption

Taking for his text, I. Timothy 4:14, "Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery," Rev. E. R. Allman, rector of Assumption Episcopal church Sunday spoke on the theme, "The Christian Ministry," and voiced the prayer that some might heed the call to the pulpit, in substance and in part he said:

"I do not believe that any man ever stepped forth for the ministry in the church of the living God without first having had a vision of God, and because he believes so, he feels that in this calling he may find the largest possible opportunity to serve God and humanity. He feels that he must have, humility, and insufficiency of self which he feels that 'Whom shall he call, and who will go for him?' His response is 'Here am I, send me.'"

Ambassadors Authority
"Considering the extension of the kingdom St. Paul asks the question, 'How shall they hear without a preacher, and how shall they preach except they be sent?' And the church now as in St. Paul's day answers, that they are sent forth on the work of the ministry under duly constituted authority. In the words of the apostle, 'The ordinance is that which is ordained of God.' It is stated thus: 'It is evident unto all men, diligently reading Holy Scripture and giving heed to the apostles time there have been orders of ministers in Christ's church—bishops, priests, and deacons.' Which offices were evermore had in this favored estimation, that no man might presume to execute any of them, except he were first, called, tried, examined, and known to have such qualities as are requisite for the same; and also by public prayer, with imposition of hands, were approved and admitted thereto by lawful authority. Thus we see the church's view of the Christian ministry in her formularies and practices as they have come across the centuries to us."

Work of Ministry
"The work of the ministry is exceedingly varied as it is carried out by the orders alluded to, and it is evident that the salvation of mankind cannot be carried out by a mere preacherhood. Perhaps the whole matter is as comprehensively stated and summarized in the rubric to the Epistle as it could in any brief space. He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ; till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ. Thus the work of the ministry today is like that of St. John the Baptist to make ready a people prepared for the Lord. The challenge of this great work has been answered by choice and illustrious men in every age who have consecrated their lives to Christian service whereby they have glorified God and blessed mankind."

Friendship of Laity
"Not only have our leaders in the official ministry of the church received grace to carry out their work or witness through the spirit of our God, but you who have received the laying on of hands through God's gift pastor, the bishop, have also received a gift which you must not neglect to use for His honor and glory and the spread of His kingdom. By your confirmation you were ordained to the priesthood of the laity, and you too, are to share with the priest of Him who hath called us all to be fellow heirs to the crown of divine truth. All noble life in ministry. 'They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength. They shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.'"

"In church work as in all other service in the world, while we live in the present we must work and plan for the future. We must present the claims of the ministry to the youth of today in order that some of them may desire this sphere of service when our working day is over. We are desiring to make this most blessed service for which a man may offer his life something that may appeal to the boy in our home, and our parish. If we are honest we must admit that we do not generally invest the work of the kingdom with such life and spirit as will fire his imagination or make him crave the task. Yet we could. Not many people encourage a young man to look out upon this the greatest opportunity of service for God and man as they do other callings and professions in the world. God grant that some may hear the call, and not neglect the gifts that we must present the claims of the ministry to

Girl Earns Highest Honor Of Soviet By Driving Factory To Record Output

Lidia Isakovna Kovarskaya, at the age of 23, has reached the name in Russian distinction by winning the Order of Lenin for her work in the stocking factories of Moscow.

MOSCOW, Dec. 14 (AP)—A 23-year-old girl who first managed successfully a large hosiery knitting factory and then assisted in directing a whole group of them has received the Order of Lenin, highest honor bestowed by the Soviet government. The decoration was awarded Lidia Isakovna Kovarskaya for her work as a factory executive and as an instructor of knitting workers. Kovarskaya is typical of the more serious members of her generation. A member of the Komsomol, the Communist party's branch for youth, she holds the title of "shock-brigadier," which designates the best workers in the proletarian state. At the age of 16 she entered the training school of the Moscow factory as a pupil. It was not long before she became a teacher. In 1929 she was promoted to the management of the factory, which employs 1500 workers, and a few months ago became a director of the Moscow knitting factory combine, embracing several mills.

Under her leadership the combine produced 125 per cent of its program for the first half of the year. At present she is engaged in social work outside of Moscow.

BURLEY WELFARE UNIT DISCUSSES ACTIVITIES
BURLEY, Dec. 14 (Special to The News)—Meeting Friday evening members of the Burley Welfare Association passed on a number of bills and discussed methods of distribution of supplies to the needy and suggestions for helping the unemployed situation. Chairman H. L. Harpster presided.

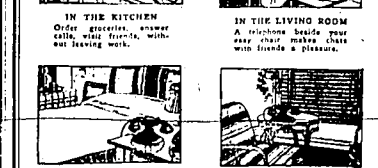

Mrs. C. A. Bauer, in charge of the welfare office, told of the card index system in use to check requests for supplies. The distribution of food and other supplies is carefully recorded so that waste can be kept to the minimum and funds and other articles turned over to none but deserving families.

Various suggestions were made as to furnishing work to deserving persons. Mayor Barlow suggested that gravel could be hauled during the winter months so that curbing could be placed entirely around the city park. It was also suggested that applicants be allowed 25 cents an hour for working cutting trees and fuel, as is applied on supplies furnished. No action was taken on the labor situation.

Mrs. Bauer reported that 64 families are now being assisted. Last winter, she said, the number was about 90, and it is expected that more will have to be cared for later this winter. Several donations were reported, including a large amount of sugar by the Burley factory. Also, it was pointed out, considerable donations of coal had been received from Utah sources.

MINISTERS' WIVES ACT AS HOSTESSES IN FILER

FILED, Dec. 14 (Special to The News)—Ministers' wives were afforded an opportunity of bringing home to their husbands how it feels to be taken to a public meeting, at a program given at the session of the Southern Idaho Ministerial association held in the Filer Methodist church today, following a luncheon served by the women's organization of the church. The program was put on by the wives of the ministers.

Following the luncheon, the association met in regular session presided over by Rev. Victor Phillips, pastor of the Rupert Methodist church. It was announced that the January meeting would be held in the Park Hotel, Twin Falls, with O. E. Cook, St. Anthony, superintendent of the Idaho State Industrial Board as speaker. Rev. J. J. Fleming, Twin Falls, former pastor of the Blackfoot Methodist church, led community singing at this session.

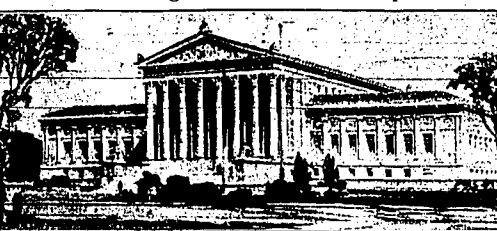

The women then put on a program under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Hill Lombrake, wife of the pastor of the First Methodist church, Twin Falls, who read a paper entitled "Hands," following a prayer of dedication by Mrs. E. H. Metcalf, wife of the pastor of the Menominee church, Filer.

Mrs. Fleming then led group singing, initiating and the vocal efforts of the women in a manner that provoked much merriment. The women's quarters of the Filer Methodist church then gave two numbers, Mrs. Chris J. Brady, wife of the pastor of the First Methodist church, gave a reading, "A Minister's Proposal," and the "Pickaninny's Lullaby." Mrs. L. W. Hutton, wife of the pastor of the First Christian church, Twin Falls, sang two songs of her own composition, "An Ode to the Ministry," and "My Love Is a Fisherman."

At the close of the meeting it was agreed that Rev. Longbrake and Rev. E. H. Allman, pastor of the Assumption Episcopal church, Twin Falls, should organize a ministerial choir to sing Christmas carols.

BURLEY PLANS FOR HOSPITAL SERVICE

Chamber of Commerce Studies
Scheme to Provide County
With Proper Facilities

BURLEY, Dec. 14 (Special to The News)—Directors of Burley chamber of commerce are taking steps to provide a plan whereby Camia county may have the benefit of proper hospital service. Jesse W. Brandt, president of the chamber, has addressed notices to the various churches, lodges and associations interested in welfare work, asking for representatives to attend a general meeting to be held at the courthouse, December 18, when discussion and proposals will be entered into concerning the establishment of a general hospital, and its financing. It is pointed out in President Brandt's letter that the community faces the prospect of being left without hospital service. Dr. Joseph Fremstad has announced that his hospital is to be closed, giving as his reasons that a private hospital cannot be profitably run and care for all cases including patients with insufficient funds and charity cases.

Pending consideration of ways and means for continuing hospital service, the chamber has advanced funds to carry on the present hospital and keep it open for service for another month.

The Fremstad hospital was erected especially for the purpose, many years ago, and is pronounced exceptionally well appointed. It is now being operated by two women who have been hospital operatives for many years. They assert that they cannot carry on the institution longer, without outside financial aid, and have announced that they will close the place.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified crocodine that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a powerful remedy with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, crocodine is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agents for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat trouble. Creomulsion contains, in addition to crocodine, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the crocodine goes to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the cause of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is a guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, whooping cough, and other forms of respiratory disease, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

CITY REQUESTS ALL EMPLOYEES TO GIVE TO CHARITY FUNDS

Takes Step in Accordance With Movement to Get Employers to Ask All Workers to Donate

All employees of the city of Twin Falls who receive $75 a month or more will be requested to contribute 3 per cent of their wages or salaries toward relief of the needy through the Associated Charities during the months of January, February and March. It was decided at a meeting of the Twin Falls city council last night.

This action was taken in accordance with a plan worked out last evening at a meeting held in the city hall, after business hours, at which a committee composed of Asher B. Wilson, chairman, John W. Graham, Elmer E. Hollingsworth and Mayor R. B. Foster, was selected to present a similar proposal to all employers of the city, asking them to request employees to agree to donate three per cent of their salaries to the relief fund.

It was stated that facts presented by E. J. Finch, member of the board of county commissioners showed that a condition exists in this city requiring some action of this kind. Mr. Finch told the committee, it was stated, that money so raised would be spent only in and around Twin Falls. But, he said, raised more than $1000 to take care of the situation there and the east end of the county is being provided for.

The council then passed a resolution requesting the county auditor to take steps toward collecting $50,000 deposited in the First National bank, which bonds are held by the auditor.

Report of R. E. Leighton, chief of police, for the month of November showed 28 arrests of which 22 were for violations of various ordinances, 32 for traffic violations, 15 for intoxication and nine for violations of state laws.

There were 180 meals furnished at the city jail and $738 in fines assessed. Ten cars were stolen and recovered, four bicycles were stolen and three recovered.

TRIAL OF $20,000 LAW ACTION BEGINS

Mrs. Alice Anson Alleges Negligence of City Results in Grave Injury

Trial of an action of $20,000 instituted by Mrs. Alice Anson and N. O. Anson, her husband, against the city of Twin Falls, on account of injuries received February 26, 1931, when she caught her foot on a pipe hydrant of the old water system, in front of number 118 Main avenue north, near the lamp post at the intersection of Main avenue and Shoshone, and fell on the sidewalk, started here yesterday in district court.

Plaintiffs claim that Mrs. Anson was walking along the sidewalk at the point named and saw two friends with whom she desired to converse, in an auto parked at the sidewalk; that she stepped off the curb and talked with these friends for a few minutes, and then turned to go on her way; that as she stepped up on the curb, one of her friends spoke to her and she turned and replied and then turned her face in the direction in which she had decided to proceed and took a step forward at which her foot caught on the old hydrant and she was thrown down.

Mrs. Anson, plaintiffs allege, sustained a broken left wrist, injuries about the head, and bruises on the left hip which made her permanently lame and permanently impaired her health otherwise, for which the sum of $15,000 is claimed. Injury to earning capacity in the sum of $5000 is alleged, and costs for surgical aid in the sum of $75 is claimed.

Plaintiffs allege that the city was negligent in leaving the old pipe standing; that it was nearly the col-

COMPTROLLER NAMES RECEIVER FOR BANK

G. D. Thompson has been appointed receiver of the First National bank here. It was reported yesterday by R. E. A. Palmer, bank examiner. Mr. Palmer said that he expected the arrival of Mr. Thompson at any time, but that he did not know where the receiver was coming from, as his information consisted only of a telegram from J. W. Fols, Washington, comptroller of currency, that the appointment had been made.

He stated that he had been authorized, in the event legal advice was found necessary, to retain John W. Graham, Twin Falls lawyer, provided that this met with approval of the board of directors of the bank. Such issue had since arisen, he stated. Mr. Graham said that he had heard a report of the authorization but had not received any official confirmation of the report.

Asked whether any legal adviser had been appointed or selected for the Twin Falls National bank, as reported on the street, R. E. Haase, receiver, said that he had received no instructions on the matter. He had heard the report, he said, but had no confirmation.

or of the curbing, and that when autos were parked close to the curbing as required by ordinance it was hard to discern the city denies that the pipe was hard to discern, alleging that it was nearly black, saying that it was left originally as a utility post and that there was no municipal neglect involved. The testimony indicated that the pipe was about two feet high.

Attorney J. H. Barnes represents plaintiff and Captain E. M. Sweeley, city attorney, the defense.

NOTICE TO ORGANIZATIONS

Santa Claus Outfits Loaned Free of Charge

The Idaho Department Store has a number of Santa Claus suits and masks which they keep for the special purpose of loaning free of charge to any organization on the Twin Falls Tract who hold group Christmas tree ceremonies. Just leave your name and address and name of organization you represent with Mrs. Turner in the Ready-to-Wear Dept. Suits will be loaned in the order in which requests are received.
