EDUCATOR BLAZES AWAY ON FORD'S LABOR IDEAS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (AP)—The labor policies of Henry Ford were lashed with criticism today by S. M. Levin, head of economic department of Detroit city college and a member of that city's unemployment committee.

"The policy of Ford unemployment," Levin asserted, "is being countered not by deed, but by an outpouring of words, a lurid and abundant moral exhortations and noble ideas."

"In fact," the professor said, "hosts of public soup kitchens and lodging houses, and thousands of others have been reduced to dependence on the charity of public and private charity."

Levin spoke before the American Economic association, which with 11 allied societies, assembled about 4000 political, economic, and sociological experts to survey the world's economic situation.

A group of several hundred heard the professor.

The teacher accused the Ford company of failure to cooperate with unemployment relief agencies.

SNOW BLOCKS TRAFFIC IN POCATELLO REGION

POCATELLO, Dec. 28 (AP)—Heavy wet snow partly blocked road and air travel in this section today, and small planes being down at Dillon, Idaho, and Pocatello.

The roads to the west, east and north were being traveled with difficulty. Autos reported many times were blocked.

The main arteries will be kept open, the state highway department reported.

About eight inches of snow was on the ground. The temperature averaged above when snow driven from the desert ranges.

MANUFACTURERS LOOK FOR BETTER BUSINESS

CHICAGO, Dec. 28 (AP)—The nation's manufacturers are looking for better business in 1932, it is indicated in a survey of business conditions.

The survey, which was conducted by the Chicago Association of Commerce, shows that business conditions are improving in public sentiment and lowering of credit as salient features.

His wife, Mrs. Jackson, said she was sure he was dead.

EDUCATOR ANSWERS PROFESSOR EINSTEIN

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (AP)—An assertion that he would prove Einstein's theory of relativity wrong was made today by the Very Rev. J. J. Callahan, president of Duquesne university.

Callahan had expected to present his proof in a two-volume work, "The Theory of Relativity," to be published by Duquesne.

Flowers Blossom In Western Region As Winter Fades

BPOKANE, Dec. 28 (AP)—Flowers are pushing their way up through the snow in the Northwest today. Blossoms are plentiful, the grass is green, and the snow is melting.

Today's weather report included the following paragraph: "John Arthur Cryer, Dismal, Washington, went for a walk and came home with a couple of buttercups."

Don E. Wright, Spokane, saw two blue birds frolicking in his apple tree. Mrs. W. J. Burchett, Spokane, picked a bouquet of pansies from her garden.

Bonnie Belle Smith, visiting in Spokane valley, picked an armful of buttercups.

P. R. Peirce, Spokane, is worried about moving the house for the pecky dandelions in his front yard.

The maximum temperature today approached 50 degrees, while last year it was 20 above zero, with heavy snow.

MAHATMA EXPECTS TO SPARE NOTHING IN ATTAINING GOAL

Gandhi Threatens to Sacrifice Million Lives If Necessary to Purchase Liberty For Indian People

(By The Associated Press) BOMBAY, India, Dec. 28.—Mahatma Gandhi declared today that he would not flinch in sacrificing the lives of a million people to purchase the liberty of India.

The mahatma made this statement to 50,000 white-clothed Nationalists gathered in an open field to hear his first speech since his return from the London round-table conference.

He spoke from a lofty platform made of bamboo poles, festooned with the Nationalist colors—white, red and green—and surrounded by a cheering crowd.

The crowd was considerably smaller than the audience Mr. Gandhi addressed before he left for London, and some observers said he had lost in prestige because of the failure of the round-table conference.

"The light is inevitable. I will give every son and daughter of Mother India to contribute his mite," the mahatma said.

"However, I will not abandon a terry ordeal. If on the other hand, the light is inevitable, I will give every son and daughter of Mother India to contribute his mite," the mahatma said.

IDAHO'S GOVERNOR DECLINES TO CALL SESSION ON TAXES

"They Wouldn't Know What to Do" If They Were Assembled, Says Ross In Reply to Two Legislators

(By The Associated Press) BOISE, Dec. 28.—Governor C. Ben Ross will not call a special session of the legislature to consider tax relief programs, declaring it would be a waste of taxpayers' money and a useless effort unless a definite tax relief plan was prepared in advance.

The governor's reply came in answer to a letter from two legislators, one of whom was a member of the tax committee.

GEOLOGIST REPORTS ON CASSIA COUNTY

Bulletin Written by Moscow
Teacher Reveals Possibility of Phosphates

MOSCOW, Dec. 28 (Special to The News)—Possibility that Cassia county may contain phosphate deposits similar to those in the southeastern section of the state is indicated in a recent bulletin written by Dr. Alton J. Anderson, brilliant young geologist on the staff of the University of Idaho school of mines.

From an economic viewpoint, Dr. Anderson's most striking discovery in Cassia county was the definite identification of the phosphate deposits which he found widely distributed in the Shoshone range of mountains. Phosphate is a mineral in which all the valuable high-grade phosphate rock is found in southeastern Idaho. The formation, he writes, may differ from that in the Shoshone range, but it is in the same class, and is of the same nature. The lower division, he adds, "until further investigation is made in the area, nothing can be said as to the character of the lower part of the phosphate."

Mineral deposits occur in both the Shoshone and Black Pine districts. Dr. Anderson's report shows. Lead ore predominates in the Shoshone district, with some silver. The Black Pine district, he believes, is rich in lead, but gives little promise of ever becoming a producer of base metal. The Shoshone district, he believes, is rich in lead, but gives little promise of ever becoming a producer of base metal. The Shoshone district, he believes, is rich in lead, but gives little promise of ever becoming a producer of base metal.

Building stone constitutes a large economic resource for Cassia county, Dr. Anderson believes. The district is supplied with an abundance and a large variety of rocks suitable for building materials, such as volcanic tuff, quartz, granite, basalt, quartzite, marble and limestone. The region was a rich scientific hunting ground for Dr. Anderson. His report contains no less than 14 notable new technical contributions, which add greatly to the established knowledge of geology in Idaho; information which will be of interest to geologists throughout the country.

Technical excellence of the bulletin is attested by the fact that the University of Chicago accepted it as a thesis requirement in granting Dr. Anderson a doctorate degree.

CLOWN PAYS DEARLY FOR LEAVING SICKBED

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 28 (AP)—Although so ill he was confined to his bed, Harry Robertson, aerial clown, headed an engagement to perform at a Christmas party at the Santa Anita Soldiers' Home here.

Against the advice of friends, Robertson got out of bed to go through with his act. While he was dangling by his teeth on a wire above the stage, he suffered from an internal rupture. Rather than end his act prematurely, he hung on.

Today he was waiting for arrangements to be made for him to be cared for in the government home. He is paralyzed.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified crocodine that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membrane and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs, creomulsion is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to crocodine, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membrane and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the crocodine goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchitis, asthma, whooping cough and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking creomulsion to direction. Ask your druggist.

FAIRFIELD FOLKS SUFFER

FAIRFIELD, Dec. 28 (Special to The News)—Several Fairfield residents have suffered from illness and injury during the last week. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Davison have been quite ill with influenza the past week. Frank Housman has recently suffered a severe attack of influenza. Mrs. John Housman suffered from influenza last week her hand came in contact with a wood saw. An accident occurred here near Kearney, Nebraska, on December 12, while Mr. and Mrs. Geisler were visiting in the Central Pacific train. The train was stopped near Kearney, when the fog became so thick that Mr. Geisler was thrown to stop and clear off the windows. Another car struck him, throwing him 25 feet. He suffered severe bruises and cuts, but was able to return home for Christmas.

CINCINNATI'S POLICE FAIL TO FIND SLAYER

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 28 (AP)—Chemists Saturday upset another clue in the search for the slayer of Marian McLean, 6, kidnapped child whose body was found in a cellar here Tuesday.

Dr. Otto P. Behrmer, city chemist, reported to The Associated Press that he could find no trace of blood upon a gunny sack turned up at the home of a special investigator from the sheriff's office, who found it in the cellar today.

City hospital chemists also said that articles turned over to them by Police showed no trace of blood.

Meanwhile questioning of Charles Bluchford, 46, who found the child's body, and James Devenny, his brother-in-law, was continued but without apparent result.

RUPERT WOMAN'S BODY REPOSES AT ALBION

RUPERT, Dec. 28 (Special to The News)—Funeral services for Mrs. Maria Young, 48, wife of C. N. Young, who succumbed to dropsy and heart disease here Saturday, will be held in Albion Monday afternoon, with Bishop Earl Phippen officiating.

The funeral cortege, in charge of the Goodman Mortuary, Rupert, left for Albion at noon. Interment was in the cemetery.

Mrs. Young was born in Albion. Her mother, Mrs. Lillie Powell, with Will Mahoney, an uncle of the deceased, and Mrs. Margie Parks, a niece, were in Rupert with her during her illness. Mrs. Young came to Rupert in June, from the Salmon river country, near Stanley, where her husband was employed.

Surviving besides the husband are a daughter, Mrs. Lillie Clark, Atlanta, Idaho; two sons, George Young, Atlanta, and Phineas Young, Clayton, Idaho; her mother and sister before mentioned; and four brothers, Parley Powell, Albion; Will Powell, Burley; Henry Powell, Twin Falls; and Ben Powell, Shoshone.

CLUB PLANS SESSION

HANSEN, Dec. 28 (Special to The News)—Rock Creek Whitehorse club a gunny sack turned up at the home of a special investigator from the sheriff's office, who found it in the cellar today.

The last regular session of the club was held at the home of Mrs. Carrie Crockett on December 10, when 16 members and one guest, Mrs. Faye Mirth, were present. After a short business session and play presented by the members, refreshments were served.

CASSIA COUNTY PLANS SCHOOLS' CELEBRATION

BURLEY, Dec. 28 (Special to The News)—In preparation for the George Washington Bicentennial celebration, beginning on Washington's birthday, February 22, and lasting until Thanksgiving day, 1932, Mrs. Margaret M. Buchanan, Cassia county superintendent, is making a book of outlines and suggestions for observance of this celebration by the 84 rural school teachers of the county. The booklet was mimeographed in Mrs. Buchanan's office and consists of 14 legal size pages.

In addition to the booklet, the county superintendent is also mailing acts of 14 pamphlets concerning different phases of Washington's life and achievements, a handbook of suggested programs, and a circular of tree planting, all published by the national committee for the celebration at Washington.

WITNESSES BURLEY VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

BURLEY, Dec. 28 (Special to The News)—Services were held for Calvin Cunningham, 24, at the D. E. Johnson chapel, Sunday, Elder Amos J. Chase, Salt Lake City, officiating.

Mr. Cunningham died at a Pocatello hospital following an operation for the removal of both legs a year and a half ago. Mr. Cunningham collided with a power pole which fell on his auto pinning him down and bringing him into contact with a high power wire. His legs were badly lacerated, resulting in his being confined to bed since the accident.

He is survived by his widow and a son, living near Burley, and by his parents, living in Idaho. His father, Henry Cunningham, was formerly on the Burley police force. Interment was in the Burley cemetery, where a brother is buried.

Hundreds of College Grid Mentors Assemble in New York

Lobbies of Hotels Hum With Talk of Rules in Football

"Chick" Meehan, President of National Association, Heads Steering Committee On Eve of Conference

By GAVIN TALBOT (Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—The amalgamated football master minds of America descended tonight upon the city for their annual clinic, scheduled tomorrow.

Big, overcast fellows, with the imprint of sun and wind in their faces and nothing but football on their mind, they clustered up the lobbies and private rooms and talked football. By nightfall several hundred of the nation's leading mentors, players and every incoming train was bringing more.

The steering committee, headed by "Chick" Meehan, president of the national association, spent the afternoon and early evening outlining the program for tomorrow's session. It had nothing to report, except that the 1931 pow-wow probably will extend any of recent years in volume of attendance.

Although today's preliminary convention was entirely unimportant, it was a goodly gathering of the national association, and the 1931 pow-wow probably will extend any of recent years in volume of attendance.

There doubtless will be much conversation on the subject, with ring-side spectators of the flying wedge, proposals that defensive linemen not be permitted to use their hands on the backs of the offense, and a movement to raise the limit on the kick-off, to tie the men who teach the game will not seek any radical changes.

What is more probable is that they will discuss the official rule book, which was revised last year, and the committee to make a thorough analysis of the rules and the officials' decisions in the game.

White Partridge North of Rupert Gets Attention

RUPERT, Dec. 28 (Special to The News).—A pure-white Hungarian partridge, believed to be the only one in Idaho, has attracted much attention of the residents in the section near the farm of William Morris three miles north of Rupert. The beautiful bird is in the custody of Hungarian partridges which frequents the Morris ranch. It has all the characteristics of the partridge except the color, Mr. Morris stated.

When the game department first introduced the Hungarian partridge in Minnesota county several years ago, and although they are very slow in multiplying.

Wisconsin Mentor Gives Up Position

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 28 (AP).—The Wisconsin athletic council tonight voted to resign the position of coach of the Wisconsin football team, and George Little, director of athletics of the University of Wisconsin.

The resignation of Coach Little, who was expected to resign December 14 when George Little, director of athletics, tendered his resignation to the athletic council, was expected to be a surprise. For several years he had been expected to resign, and when Mr. Little resigned it was expected that the coach would be replaced by a new coach.

RACING STARTS SOON

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 28 (AP).—J. N. Crofton, president of the Agua Caliente club, announced tonight that racing, discontinued last Wednesday, will be resumed January 1.

When Mrs. Dana's track athletes met the University of Iowa this week at Iowa City, February 13, it was the first time the two schools had met in football, basketball and baseball.

East-West Game Grid Teams Toll

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28 (AP).—For the first time in over two years the annual East-West charity game, worked out today on a dry field.

Eastern and Western coaches took advantage of the turn in weather to send their charges through heavy practice. Passing plays came in for considerable attention, with the best of the Easterners sent the ball to distances without danger of wild heaves. Andy Kerr, Colgate, led the Easterners through their paces at Palo Alto while his assistant, Dick Hanley, Northwestern, was working from a cold.

Tulane and Foes Practice Inside

Rain Keeps Two Elevens Indoors in Preparations For New Year's Day Tilt

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 28 (AP).—A heavy rain swept the Green Wave of Tulane indoors today and practice for the Rose Tournament game here New Year's day with the University of Southern California football team was held within the confines of Pasadena city auditorium.

Coach Bernie Blumhoff ordered tennis shoes for his squad and then sent the team through some dummy scrimmage in defense and a signal drill on offense. He made no bones about the fact that the precipitation greatly cramped the style of the team, and disrupted plans for a heavy drill out-of-doors.

A dozen miles away on the Trojan campus, Coach Howard Jones also kept his Southern Californians out of the rain, giving them a signal drill on offense, going over Tulane's plays and formations as well as those designed to upset the Green Wave defense.

In the meantime the section where the Rose Bowl is located is in a roaring torrent. There is no available covering for the gridiron, but pumpe and pumps are used to carry off surplus surface water.

Allegedly said the field drains were not in the best condition if the rain lets up before Thursday. The seed is now this fall and the field has not been used for several months.

Thirty-five thousand tickets have been sold and the game is expected to be one of the largest in the history of the Rose Bowl.

Plans for Fight Wait in Gotham

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (AP).—The wheels that promise to grind out a heavyweight title fight for Miami in February, featuring Max Baer and Mickey Walker, were idle today awaiting the arrival here tomorrow of Jack Kearns, manager of the challenger.

Kearns, now in Chicago, apparently has made no deal with Madison Square Garden for Walker's services. Bill Carey, president of the Garden, had no statement to make regarding the match until Kearns has agreed to terms.

Carey spent several hours this afternoon in discussion with Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's manager, who announced yesterday that the match would take place in Miami late in February. While awaiting Kearns' arrival it was said Carey and Jacobs were trying to reach an agreement for a match next summer between Schmeling and either Jack Dempsey or Jack Sharkey.

The suggestion was made by John T. (Jerry) McGovern, co-author of the contract for the fight, that Number 22, who has been making a survey of the sportsmanship of the crowd at school and college athletic events.

"To my mind this unsportsmanlike conduct from the stands is more harmful than all the subordination of the crowd at school and college athletic events," McGovern said, adding that he knew no fewer than four traditions of the crowd at school and college athletic events.

Three trustees were suggested to curb this "dangerous degeneracy of conduct." First, McGovern said, he would have the Carnegie bureau at a school instructed in what their conduct should be toward officials and visiting athletes teams. Next he would appeal to the older students at a school to set a better example and kindly he would promptly bounce out of a gymnasium or stadium the first person to raise the cry of "kill the referee" or "throw that bum out."

George Rump, Jr., New York, the defending champion, had a comparatively easy victory over John D. Chapman, director of the American United States senior champion, whom he defeated 4 and 2.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 28 (AP).—The 1931 Kentucky derby will be run May 1 during the spring racing meet at Churchill Downs, where which the Kentucky state racing commission today announced for April 30 to May 31 inclusive. This will be the first time before the running of the Pimlico Breckens.

Matt J. Winn, president of the American Turf association which controls Churchill Downs and other tracks, announced the derby date.

Ribald Criticism Of Officials Irks Leaders in Sport

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (AP).—Suggestions that ribald criticism of officials at school and college sports contests be curbed by action of their responsible was introduced in a discussion of the intangibles of sportsmanship at the annual sportsmanship brotherhood luncheon today.

The suggestion was made by John T. (Jerry) McGovern, co-author of the contract for the fight, that Number 22, who has been making a survey of the sportsmanship of the crowd at school and college athletic events.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (AP)—The stock market closed today with a heavy loss, the cancellation of the gains recorded in December.

Tax selling doubtless was the chief factor in the decline, and since investment buying of any consequence has yet to appear, the market is likely to remain weak.

The industrial complex duplicated its previous low, while utility and railroad stocks were approaching their minimums. Such leading issues as American Telephone, American Express, General Motors, and others were down.

Rails added another firm, but were mostly off at the finish. Lockman was the only one to advance.

More than half of the country's class A carriers have now reported their November earnings and the picture is not encouraging.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (AP)—Bar silver: Easy; and 1/2 lower at 30 1/2.

LUTHERAN PASTOR DELIVERS SERMON ON DISCIPLESHIP

Rev. M. H. Zegel Points to Men Who Failed to Rise to Standard of Jesus As Told in Gospel of Luke

Taking for his text Luke 9:57-62 and for his theme "Requirements of the Discipleship," Rev. M. H. Zegel, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran church, in his Sunday morning service called attention to the proximity of Christmas, and the approach of another year as a time for Christians to take stock, to determine whether they measure up to the standard required of followers of Jesus Christ. In part he said, "The discipleship of Jesus leaves in the fall show forth the ripening fruits upon the tree, so should the fading Christmas hymns of this time show forth the ripening fruits of our faith upon the tree of our Christianity. Christmas is primarily a time of spiritual moment and import. Having heard again the soul-invigorating gospel of the Saviour's lowly birth in our behalf, it behooves us now to give evidence of such invigoration."

"Of the Christlike Simon had said: 'This child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel and for a sign which shall be spoken by thee to all people.' As thoughtful Christians at this time to pause for a moment to inquire into our readiness to follow him as he is at hand. As Christians we do well to take stock of our Christianity. Is our discipleship of the right character?"

"The text will aid us in answering the question as to the requirements of the discipleship."

"Three men approached Jesus. Each of them was desirous of becoming a disciple. The first one, a Jew, said, 'Make me a strong statement of thy determination to continue as one of Christ's close followers.'"

And Jesus, however, replied that the Jewish scribe had made a hasty pledge; that he had professed discipleship because of material advantages to be gained, and he shows him that true discipleship involves willing self-denial in behalf of Christ. "The attitude of the scribe is prevalent today. Ours becomes the duty, though painful perhaps, to establish the premises of our Christianity. Have we sought social or material advantages in our church-membership? True, Jesus does not demand that we become exiles, but He does insist that there be a reconstruction of our lives on a higher plane of service to Him. Refusal to do so results in unfitness for discipleship."

"The second man in line requesting discipleship understood it, legal in part, what discipleship meant. He was willing to follow the Master. Yet before doing so he wished to serve other interests. And it appears that the man's request was widely within reason. Christ, however, answers to the contrary, teaching in forcible manner that discipleship calls for absolutely undivided loyalty. The call of God is of highest importance. It must come first."

"Here we followed the Lord wholeheartedly? A very timely question indeed as another year draws to a close. Spiritual interests and worldly interests are constantly pressing for our undivided attention. Are business and family interests hindering us from following the Lord. Are we serving self rather than God and His church? Spiritual interests are infinitely superior to material interests; no wonder that the Lord makes His demand so strong. Failure to follow the Lord with undivided loyalty will result in unfitness as disciples of Christ."

"The third man is willing to leave his home permanently with the Lord. He is ready to leave his home, his family, his possessions, yet he too begs leave of absence before beginning his discipleship."

"Jesus made plain to him the lesson that the disciple of the Lord must be a man of unflinching steadfastness. Even the tenderest ties of home must be subordinate to the call of Christ."

"As we make an analysis of our Christianity today, can we lay claim to the fact that we have met this test? What men the inconsistencies in our Christianity, these aberrant rumblings in Christian congregations, the frequent verbal explosions over trivial matters, and the like? Refusal with unflinching steadfastness to put our shoulders to the wheel of Christian progress makes us unfit for discipleship."

"Having taken stock, let us avoid the mistakes in the new year."

CHAMBER WAITS ON REPORT OF BUDGET

Definite Action of Program of Year's Activities Bears
Close Relation to Funds

Definite action on Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce program of activities for the coming year awaits the report of a budget committee, according to agreement reached by the chamber's directors at a meeting last evening, which was given over to a consideration of suggested activities.

Members of a committee named by the directors last evening to represent the chamber in connection with forthcoming annual meetings of state dairy organizations in Twin Falls, were D. J. Koenig, Frank L. Atkins, C. E. McGinnis and S. H. Kayler. This committee is to welcome the visitors and make arrangements for the meeting of the Idaho Jersey Cattle club the evening of January 8, and the annual meeting of the Idaho State Dairy association on January 6.

The chamber's program of activities for the coming year, according to the directors' decision last evening, is to be worked out definitely at a meeting January 4. The budget committee appointed last evening and composed of Curtis Turner, Carl G. Benson, Glenn Jenkins and Miles J. Browning, is expected to have its report ready for consideration at that time, and the program of activities and budget are to be worked out together.

Suggested program of activities, including suggestions made by members through a referendum ballot, includes several projects such as promotion of highway construction; effort to secure freight rate reduction.

STORM BRINGS NEW ANGLE IN DISPUTE OVER CLOCK BOARD

Gale Crumples Illuminated
Sign on Bank Building's Roof and Protesting Advertisers Renew Claims

An illuminated advertising board clock that has been involved in litigation since it was set up on the roof of the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company building here last September, blew down in a high wind yesterday afternoon, it crumpled on the roof, a steel cable and anchor lately installed at the instance of R. E. Boller, Twin Falls mayor and building inspector, preventing its fall to the street below.

Litigation involving the board was started by 20 local merchants who had contracted for advertising on the board. They are suing for cancellation of their contracts for advertising on the grounds of fraud. Before starting suit, they appealed to the city council for an inspection of the board with view to its condemnation as a nuisance and menace to safety.

Spokesmen for these merchants with their legal adviser, J. H. Barnes, attended last night's meeting of the council to discuss the effect of the board's collapse upon their earlier contention that it was unsafe. The mayor assured them that the city would insist upon more substantial construction if the board were rebuilt. The board, a big structure of galvanized iron with 1x4 timber and angle iron supports, was erected by a Chicago concern under contracts with the local merchants running for a year from last September.

tions; promotion of tourist travel; continuation of advertising and publicity program; creation of new industries and businesses not now represented in the community; cooperation in expense of free food and employment service here; securing of teachers' convention and all other possible conventions for Twin Falls; continue merchant bureau activities, community advertising events, "blue card" checking of solicitors, and celebrations; develop Twin Falls airport and air service; establish a permanent chamber taxation committee.

DEPOSITOR COMMITTEE REPORTS PROGRESS

Encouraging progress by the committee of depositors of the First National bank of Twin Falls, reported at a recent meeting, was reported by E. L. Ashton, Twin Falls lawyer and secretary of the committee last night. The committee expects to formulate definite recommendations for a report, which it will make to the depositors. Mr. Ashton's statement said:

"The statement follows: 'The committee appointed at the mass meeting of depositors of the First National bank are making encouraging progress. At today's all day session of the committee certain sub-committees brought in their reports and new work was assigned. And there is a great plenty of work to be done.'"

"Before reporting back to the body of depositors the committee desires to have recommendations as definite and concrete as can be formulated."

"We acknowledge the courtesy of G. D. Thompson, the receiver of the bank, who has cooperated with us in every respect."

NEW LAWSUIT INVOLVES PRODUCE DEALERS' BOND

A $2500 farm produce dealers' bond which the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company executed for Carl L. DeLong, Twin Falls, for the season of 1927-1928, is involved in a suit for $2398.75 which W. C. Pond, Buhl, started in district court here yesterday, alleging breach of contract.

In this action Pond asks for $1181.20 for alleged breach of contract under which he was employed by DeLong as inspector with the understanding that he was to be paid $10 for each carload of potatoes inspected by Pond and purchased by DeLong. He asks also for $2437.55 as damages for the claim of A. E. Heller, Buhl, for potatoes delivered to DeLong in the spring of 1929.

A suit which Pond started about a year ago involving DeLong's bond for the season of 1929-1930 is believed to be the first test in the courts of Idaho's produce dealers' bond law. In that action Pond was required to share the $2500 total of the bond with two other creditors on a pro rata basis.

In both actions, Pond's attorney is J. H. Barnes, Twin Falls.

SPEAKERS HONOR WILSON MEMORY

Prayer, Music and Eloquent
Tributes Mark Program
On Birthday Observance

Tributes to purposes and achievements of Woodrow Wilson in peace and war were broadcast here Sunday evening following an invocation and accompanied by musical numbers. The program was put on the eve of the auspices of the Woodrow Wilson memorial association on the eve of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the birth of the World war president.

Introduction was made by Mrs. James D. Whelan, president of the association. The invocation was offered by Rev. George H. Young, pastor of the First Baptist church. This was followed by the singing of Wilson's favorite hymn, "Abide With Me," by a quartet composed of Mrs. O. P. Duvall, Mrs. Nellie Ostrom, James Reynolds and Emory Benoit.

W. Orr Chapman, Twin Falls attorney, opened with a brief statement of the general achievements of the Wilson administration as a whole, after which he summarized the long list of legislative measures urged by the president and enacted by congress under his leadership and through his insistence. He touched on the accomplishments of the members of the cabinet during the Wilson administration, and declared that more in the line of progressive government had been achieved during the leadership of Wilson than during any other period of American history of similar length.

Captain James W. Porter, assistant prosecuting attorney of Twin Falls, who served at the front during the World war, represented the American Legion on the program, and paid an eloquent tribute to the life and purposes of the man who had been his commander in chief. Captain Porter praised Wilson for standing behind the advocacy of Pershing and Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, in successfully opposing the distribution of American troops among the forces of the allies. Above all, he lauded Wilson for insisting on the signing of the armistice at the earliest possible moment, thus averting unnecessary bloodshed, he said.

"The most outstanding contribution to civilization by Woodrow Wilson is the League of Nations," declared J. H. Masters, Pocatello. He said that "The League has done much for world peace," and criticized senators regardless of party who opposed its ratification. He advocated participation in the World court, as a step toward real cooperation in helping secure disarmament, promote international understanding and harmony and bring nearer the era of good will among men.

Mrs. T. M. Robertson spoke on the personal life and character of Wilson, and drew a beautiful and touching word portrait of the man, his surroundings and his career, from infancy until his body was laid to rest in the cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul in Washington.

The program closed with the singing of "Garry Me Back to Old Virginia," by Mrs. Ostrom.

MISHAP AT COAL YARD 'PUTS MAN IN HOSPITAL'

Leonard Alnoworth, 28, who was painfully injured about the head and face when he was struck with an iron bar while unloading a carload of coal at the Charles P. Larsen coal yard here Sunday afternoon, was reported last evening to be resting easily at the county general hospital where he was taken after the accident.

Alnoworth was said to have used the bar to pry open a windlass device for lifting the side of the car, and the bar becoming caught in the device got out of his hands and swung around, striking him on the head and hurling him to the ground. He is believed to have struck a rail as he fell.

Two other creditors on a pro rata basis.

"I'll be fair with you."

"I LIKE the way you put it up to us smokers to judge your cigarette by absolutely real things like mildness and better taste. Sounds like good common sense!"

Fair enough! That's all Chesterfield wants. That's all Chesterfield could ask for and does ask for—a trial.

"Promises fill no sack." After all, it's what you get out of a smoke that counts. And what you get out of Chesterfield, or anything else for that matter, depends on what goes in.

Better tobacco doesn't grow than the tobaccos that go into Chesterfield. Ripe. Sweet. Aged and cured for two years under the watchful care of expert chemists.

Better cigarette paper can't be bought. Tasteless. Odorless. Pure!

Sanitary factories. Cleanliness in every step of the process. A purer cigarette than Chesterfield can't be made.
