SOUTHERN IDAHO'S DAIRYMEN MEET AT MAGIC CITY SESSION

Prosperity of Industry Depends On Improvement In Feeding, Care and Management Experts Confend

Idaho's dairy industry will show a satisfactory profit under prevailing low prices for butterfat if it continues to give attention to improvement in feeding, care and management of herds, and sends for Idaho production lines in a report which members of the South Central Idaho Holstein breeders' association were told at a annual meeting at the district court room here yesterday afternoon.

The Holstein breeders' meeting was the first of three district meetings here this week. It was followed by the annual meeting of the Idaho State-Southern-Central district, and the Idaho State Dairy association is to hold a four-day session of its annual meeting here today.

The Holstein breeders' association re-elected its officers and directors. The officers are: A. H. Sigsbee, president, and Thomas E. Speedy, Jerome, secretary. The directors are: Frank W. Houston, Jerome; F. W. Hastings, Wendell; Ernest D. Johnson, A. H. Jagsle, Blaine.

Speakers who addressed the Holstein breeders here yesterday included D. L. Pount, Boise, district dairyman; H. A. Matzinger, Portland, Northwestern representative of the National Holstein breeders' association; E. T. Davis, Water, president of the Idaho State Holstein-Friesian Cattle association.

Following the lead of the state association's annual meeting at Caldwell Monday, the South Central Idaho association here yesterday voted to take $25 from its treasury for a fund to retain the services of the national association's executive representative in the Western states.

The district organization also went into a resolution adopted yesterday as condemning the practice of commercial cattle dealers putting out with farmers young bulls to be raised on the farm and then returned to the commercial dealers. This is a practice which is being discouraged by the district.

Dairymen will have higher production in 1932, it was predicted at a 20 cents a pound, Mr. Houston told the Holstein breeders here yesterday.

"The present time is not a time to curtail production," he continued. "It is a time to improve it. Improvement in dairying is largely along lines of better feeding, care and management. Further improvement must come through breeding for higher production, and the only way this can be accomplished is through records and tests."

Indicative of the difference in value and higher producing cows with low producers, Mr. Fourfold of one herd owned by those 20 cows showed an aggregate profit of $1300 for the year. Analysis showed, he said, that high producers accounted for 4100 of the total profit of the herd, 10 low-producing cows, bringing in only $100.

R. E. Davis, president of the state association, discussed Idaho dairying in general, emphasizing need for improved methods in breeding, handling cattle, and urging action to continue the national association's field representative work.

Some phases of the national association's field representative work were discussed by Mr. Matheson, who has represented the national organization in the Northwestern states for several years.

Dr. Warren, district 4-H club leader, spoke briefly regarding work of boys' vocational training clubs and expressed appreciation of the Union Pacific system's scholarship award, which, he said, provides a strong incentive for club members.

Acknowledging this expression of appreciation, W. A. Matzinger, city, Union Pacific, assistant supervisor of agriculture, said offering of these awards was an established Union Pacific policy.

SHEPHERD CONTINUES AS DISTRICT'S HEAD

R. E. Shepherd, Jerome, president of the district's service district since its organization in May, 1922, was re-elected to that position for a fifth time at a meeting here yesterday of the district's board of directors following an election of two members of the board last night.

W. H. McCloud, Wendell, was elected vice president; W. H. Spence, Kimberly, treasurer; and J. H. Barkley, Boise, secretary. E. B. Johnson, P. E. Skyr, Blaine, and A. A. Davis, Piler.

As the district's legal advisor, all members of the board were in attendance at yesterday's meeting.

MOSES ALEXANDER, Idaho war-time governor and pioneer of the state for 40 years, who died in Boise suddenly yesterday at the age of 78 years.

HAY HAULER VICTIM OF HIGHWAY MISHAP

Trouble started for Eugene Heurell, 31, Twin Falls, when the load of hay drawn by a team of horses which he was driving, added off the pavement on the highway about two miles west of Twin Falls early yesterday afternoon, and while he was down on the ground endeavoring to get the load back on the road, he was struck by an automobile driven by Joe Yragui, Shoshone, rockman.

Heurell was placed on board a passing car and taken to the county general hospital, here where examination disclosed injuries about the head and one knee. His condition was not regarded as being serious and he was expected to be resting comfortably late evening.

Heurell was delivering the load of hay to a Twin Falls buyer, and was moving eastward toward town when the rack left the road.

The collision in which Heurell was injured occurred when Yragui, also moving eastward, turned to the edge of the road to permit another west-bound car to pass.

Wilbur B. Hill, lately elected district chairman, announced at this meeting the following appointments for the coming year:

Commissioner: Stanley A. Larkin, former chairman, with adoption of appropriate resolutions at a meeting in the probate court room here last evening.

Plans for the observance here of the Boy Scout Anniversary week, February 10 to 12, were discussed and the scout executive was requested to work with the district commissioner and scoutmasters in this undertaking.

Outlining a five-year program for the 50th anniversary movement in the Boy Scout area, the scout executive asserted that two years' work already has been done in building up scout enrollment and instruction, and that emphasis should now be placed in the third year now beginning upon leadership of the district's individual boy scout membership and activities.

Last year, the executive said, there was a 40 per cent turnover in Snake River area's boy scouts.

ABANDONMENT FIGURES IN SUIT FOR DIVORCE

On grounds of alleged cruelty, culminating last November when she says her husband abandoned her at her parents' home in Kimberly, Mrs. Fanny McCoy started suit for a decree of divorce from Clara McCoy. They were married at Twin Falls, December 10, 1928. She asks for custody of their two-year-old daughter and a court order compelling McCoy to contribute reasonable payments toward the support of the child for attorneys are J. W. Parker and O. W. Wilham, Twin Falls.

LAW FOR MINING MEN SUBJECT OF PAMPHLET

A new edition of the Idaho mining law containing amendments by the legislature, has just been published by Stewart Campbell, inspector of mines. The pamphlet includes up-to-date extracts from the United States mining laws and an appendix, the latter a new feature.

The most frequent inquiries addressed to the inspector of mines, said Mr. Campbell, are questions on mining law relative to mining locations, both placer and lode, and what can and what will not count as manual labor. These questions involve the state and federal statutes, decisions of the courts, and rulings of the United States land office. Their number and frequency have proved the need of publishing a few general interpretations of the law, these including citations, constitute the appendix. Mr. Campbell stated that these questions are general in nature and the citations are not complete, because it is expected that competent legal advice will be sought on each specific question of the law. However, those included will be of much interest and assistance to the prospector and everyone interested in mining.

The pamphlet is available for free distribution and copies can be obtained upon request to the inspector's office at Boise, Idaho.

SECOND LIQUOR CHARGE MAKES CURTIS TROUBLE

A federal prohibition agent who overhauled Jovell Curtis, Twin Falls, and took a five-gallon keg containing moonshine whiskey out of his car in Twin Falls Monday evening, signed a felony complaint charging illegal possession of liquor after prior conviction, of which Curtis was arraigned in the probate court here yesterday. Curtis withheld his plea until 3 P. M. today, and was remanded to the sheriff's custody in default of $1000 bond.

FOUR-CAR WRECK ON ROAD STOPS TRAFFIC

A four-car wreck on ice-coated pavement of the highway near Hanes Monday night blocked traffic for a time until a wrecker car arrived from Twin Falls to unlash the damaged machines. Sheriff E. P. Prater said yesterday, none of the drivers was hurt, and none of the cars involved in the wreck was badly damaged.

The pile-up occurred when Robert Merrill, driver of one of the cars involved, slackened speed to turn into the driveway at his residence. The other three cars piled respectively by George Fisher, Murtagh, and Earl Schell, and Al Trench, both of Twin Falls, got out of control and piled up on the icy pavement.

N. L. Jones, 36, found in an apparently dead condition in a Pocatello apartment house last Friday evening, a week after he was abducted and robbed, he said, by three men, pleaded not guilty when he was arraigned in probate court here yesterday on a misdemeanor charge of issuing a no-tariff check for $29.40 to C. H. Perry, Twin Falls farmer. Payment for apples last December 26.

Hearing on the charge was set by Judge Guy L. Kinney for Tuesday, January 12, at 10 A. M., and Jones was remanded to the sheriff's custody in default of $200 bond.

Jones was brought back from Pocatello by Deputy Sheriff A. C. Parker and William Steen, Twin Falls police officer, Tuesday evening.

YOUNG MOTHER ADMITS PASSING BAD CHECK

A slender young woman, carrying a sturdy baby in her arms, clutched at the edge of the judge's elevated desk in the district court room here yesterday afternoon, and broke into sobs when she pleaded guilty to a felony charge of forgery of a $1250 check in Twin Falls last Saturday. Evidence showed that she had attempted to cash the check at a local department store.

"I did it to buy the things my baby needed," the young mother told Judge W. A. Babcock, who inquired the reason for her transgression. Some sort of pride prompted her young husband, to say in reply to

Judge's question, that he knew of no reason for the young mother's attempt to pass a forged check, that they "had plenty to eat." He was a laborer, he said, doing whatever he could find to do.

"While the young mother continued to weep bitterly, and did not answer when the court inquired whether she wished to waive the time for receiving sentence, Judge Babcock waited a moment and then he said, "I think the record may show that she waives the statutory time and that judgment may be pronounced now."

"The penalty for the offense to which you have pleaded guilty," Judge Babcock said, addressing the young woman, "is imprisonment for from 1 to 14 years in the state prison. The woman's clutch tightened on the judge's desk, but she lifted her face as the judge continued:

"This is the first time you have done anything like this. I don't believe you are going to do it again, and I am going to withhold sentence. You will make a report to the court every two months during the year, and you will return here next January."

The woman who pleaded guilty to the check forgery charge here yesterday was the second young mother to face the court here on a similar charge within the past 10 days.

In both instances Judge Babcock withheld sentence.

Featherweights Hold Attention Of Jack Kearns

"For Goodness Sakes" Asks Promoter, "Isn't One Championship Match to Write About Enough?"

BY EDWARD J. NEELY (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Max Schmeling and Mickey Walker have not signed for a heavyweight title match in Miami in February and no one concerned "knows" when and whether they will—but it is nothing for the faithful to worry about.

It seems there is to be a featherweight title match, with Earl Broward, who is in Miami, fighting for the title against Leo Feldman, in Madison Square Garden, New York, and as far as the heavyweight is concerned, the has said about anything else.

So Jack Kearns, manager of Walker, stayed away from the Garden today and there was much discussion concerning Battalino's ability to take off 10 pounds within a few days and be strong enough to defeat the champion, who was soundly thrashed by "Kid Chocolate" recently.

"The goodness sakes," demanded Jimmy Johnston plaintively, "isn't a featherweight championship enough to write about without trying over Schmeling and Walker?"

Obviously there is a very serious situation in the process of being arranged and concerns the remuneration to be given Walker for his title chance. Schmeling already has agreed to take 40 per cent of the receipts of a Florida match on February 25 while Walker, offered 15 per cent.

The responsibility will be a compromise before Feldman fights his title shot and it is hoped that very little will be said about it. There is also a slight suspicion that the Garden already has the contract safely tucked away in the safe.

THIRD PARTY TALK IS BACK in the political wind in Washington. Unconvinced of their ability to block Mr. Hoover's re-nomination and dubious over the outlook for an acceptable Democratic candidate, the Republican independents of the Northwest are seriously considering a third party movement. The name of Senator George W. Norris (center) is that about which third party discussions revolves mostly. Other names also heard are those of Senators William Borah (left) of Idaho and Hiram Johnson (upper right) of California and Governor Gifford Pinchot (lower right) of Pennsylvania.—(P) Photo.

HERE IS WHAT REMAINED of a railroad locomotive after it exploded near Richvale, California. The engineer and fireman were killed. The blast occurred while the train was in motion but did not injure any of the 183 passengers in the 15 coaches that remained on the rails.—(P) Photo.

FRANCES BOSWORTH, Evansville, Illinois, society girl, is engaged to marry Dr. Trevor Charles Stamp, member of the British Royal College of Surgeons, next April. Dr. Stamp is the son of Sir Josiah Stamp, leading British financier and economist.—(P) Photo.

NO, DR. W. R. BRODE is not trying to figure out how Junior's Christmas present fits together. He is working with his new "molecular models," which are designed to eliminate the use of charts in studying organic chemistry, and which Dr. Brode demonstrated before the American Chemical society meeting at Yale university.—(P) Photo.

BETTY WHIPP, a sophomore at the University of Kentucky, has been elected sponsor of the school's band. Maybe her good looks had something to do with it.—(P) Photo.

"PROHIBITION is expected to come up for a vote in congress this session. Representative J. Charles Linthicum, Maryland Democrat and leader of the house wet bloc, claims 150 votes for repeal in the house, the largest number since the advent of prohibition.—(P) Photo.
