Pledges Enlist Idle Funds In Drive For Jobs, Not Charity

ROCHESTER FINDS THREE-FOLD PLAN OF READJUSTMENT

Hoarded Savings Go to Work, Joblessness Decreases and Economic Life Fade Away

RETIRED MANUFACTURER ORIGINATES NEW SCHEME

10,771 Persons Spend Total of $6,026,351 On New Project in Three Months' Time

(By The Associated Press)
ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 21.—Rochester's 3-pointed attempt to right the upset economic apple cart with a lever of $6,000,000 idle funds brought from hiding to relieve unemployment is giving evidence of success.

On the thesis that a dollar invested in employing labor does more good than a dollar in charity, more than 10,000 persons signed pledges to spend $6,000,000 in purchases that might otherwise be deferred. Here men are at work under the direction of Libanus M. Todd (below), originator of the plan, on a job originally planned for the future. Final reports indicated that the pledged rate of spending was being exceeded.

Citizens of Rochester, New York, pledged themselves to a three-month campaign in which they would invest $6,000,000 in purchases that might otherwise be deferred. Here men are at work under the direction of Libanus M. Todd (below), originator of the plan, on a job originally planned for the future. Final reports indicated that the pledged rate of spending was being exceeded.

The Weather

FORECAST FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW—Fair; freezing temperatures.
Minimum and maximum temperatures in the Twin Falls vicinity in the 24-hour period preceding 3 P. M. yesterday were 23.5 and 32.5 degrees, according to the report of D. B. Chayne, government weather observer here. The day was fair and a light westerly wind prevailed. The barometer registered 30.03 inches at 3 P. M. Humidity ranged between 78 and 85 per cent of saturation.

Winnie Ruth Judd Orders Physician Out of Courtroom

rouse, avoiding close proximity to the accused.
Mrs. Judd nervously wrapped and unwrapped a white handkerchief of a handbag about her left hand, in which there is a recently healed bullet wound, asserted by her to have been inflicted by one of her victims, as 11 witnesses gave testimony which the state hopes will hang her.
The prosecution's "star" witness, passing rapidly through Judge Howard C. Speakman's superior court, played the last known living moments on October 18 of Agnes Anne Leroi and Hedvig Samuelson, their post-mortem bodies at the Phoenix railway station in trucks, and the alleged impersonation of one of her victims by Mrs. Judd to delay disclosure of the slaying.

Mrs. Judd is being tried only for murder of Mrs. Leroi. She has been indicted for the slaying of Mrs. Samuelson in a Los Angeles railway station October 18.

J. J. Halloran, Phoenix lawyer, who has been retained in the case, timing yesterday of prospective jurors by Herman Levinson of defense counsel, and all of whose admitted acquaintances were removed from the jury by peremptory challenge.

They were then seated in the courtroom, waiting to be called by the state.

Halloran was identified early in the case as a friend of all three women.

County Attorney Andrews failed to read his name when he called the roll of his witnesses to the jury. Halloran, however, who already had registered with the court clerk, was sworn with the rest.

"I guess," said Andrews later, when the lumber dealer was called to a court ante room among witnesses soon to take the stand.

"I don't know if my witness, I'll admit that."

The story of a purported love affair between Mrs. Judd and her own son—a telephone wire at Grunow memorial clinic, where both Mrs. Judd and her son were treated, was told by Mrs. Ernest A. Smith of the clinic X-ray department.

"This is Mrs. Leroi," Mrs. Smith testified the voice said.

at Grunow clinic, friend of the slain women and of Mrs. Judd, told of playing bridge at the Leroi-Samuelson apartment on the evening of October 18 with a physician friend inquest and the trunk was so heavy to leave, Miss Nace said, at about 9:45 P. M., at which time Mrs. Leroi and Miss Samuelson were preparing for bed. Mrs. Judd had not arrived, although she had been expected to spend the evening there.

The state presented Miss Nace as the last known person to have seen Mrs. Leroi and Miss Samuelson alive.

B. H. Jurgensmeyer, street car motor-man-conductor, testified as to his knowledge of Mrs. Judd's movements on the night of October 18.

Jenny R. McGrath and Gene Cunningham, neighbors of Mrs. Leroi and Miss Samuelson on North Second street, told of hearing three shots about 10:30 P. M. on the night of October 18.

Richard Schwartz, transfer company truck driver, said he moved a large trunk from 2229 North Second street to 1130 East Brill street after 10 P. M. October 17, at Mrs. Judd's request, and the trunk was so heavy he had to call in two friends to aid him.

H. U. Grimm, owner of the cottage court, told of transporting a large trunk, a small trunk, a suitcase, hatbox and satchel from the Judd apartment to the railway station on Sunday, October 18.

Beverly Stallings and H. W. Boulche, baggage clerks, testified to handling and checking the trunks, and to their having been placed aboard the Southern Pacific doublet Santa Limited, which left Phoenix at 8:10 P. M., consigned to Los Angeles.

EXECUTIVES REFUSE TO PROMISE UNIONS WORK-FOR-JOBLESS

suggestion that employment be stepped up to the 1933 figure, an increase of 10 per cent is made.

On all other proposals made by the brotherhoods and unions, the rail executives gave little if any ground. They indicated they were unwilling to agree to labor proposals regarding the six-hour day, coordination of train crews and train lengths, the protection of labor in railroad consolidations and a $1,000,000,000 bond issue for grade-cutting elimination.

As to the necessity of the saving of about $15,000,000 which could be made in the pay reductions, Willard said rail railways failed to earn their fixed charges last year and that unless net earnings could be increased this year the number would be "much larger."

Last year, Willard said, the total net income was $794,000,000 while the fixed charges amounted to $887,000,000, leaving the total net income in excess of fixed charges only $87,000,000.

Some 600 brotherhood and union general chairmen were invited to join their executives in tomorrow's session to listen to the plea to the president's committee.

Germany and Japan will hold a track and field meet following the Olympic Games. The meet will be staged in San Francisco's Kezar Stadium.
