FIRST DAYS' TALK ON TAXES CENTERS ON COURT HOUSE

Officials Outline Budget Hearing Procedure After Receiving Generous Supply of Committee Advice

Efforts to reduce Twin Falls county's $217,106 tentative budget for the current year centered upon the court house offices at a public hearing in the district court room here yesterday afternoon. A hearing was held by County Commissioner George Washington, county auditor, laid down about expenditures of county money for institutions and other public buildings which he said increased 200 per cent as compared with 1931 per cent increase in the case of all county offices for the past 10 years. Forty to 60 persons, including many office holders, attended the first hearing. County Commissioner, who had invited expression of public sentiment in regard to retrenchment, announced at the beginning of the afternoon session that attention would be directed at reducing two-thirds of the county's tax problem, beginning with the county fair and the county agent department Tuesday forenoon, and continuing with the noxious weed department Tuesday afternoon; county hospital on Wednesday forenoon, and the county health unit on Wednesday afternoon.

Fair's Friends on Hand

The opening session yesterday witnessed Parsons' barrage and skimming on the county fair. The county fair is a source of income to the relief of that institution, members of an unofficial tax commission, organized by the county's agricultural, service and agricultural organizations having recommended suspension of the fair this year. Members of the fair have come on record in favor of holding the fair this year. Mr. Cobb, fair representative, W. F. Atworth, fair, suggested continuing the fair at reduced cost. James L. Barnes, chairman of the committee of commissioners, invited Pomona Grange to take over the fair this year. The commissioners had made a provision for the fair this year, stating, frankly, they were leaving this question up to the public.

Committee Men Serve Notice

One another after during the afternoon, elective county officials were called upon to defend their budget estimates against alterations or eliminations suggested by the committee of the unofficial tax committee, and then, late in the afternoon, M. A. Strunk, Twin Falls, former county commissioner and one of the members of a three-man committee which drafted the unofficial tax committee's recommendations regarding courthouse offices, served notice that he would withdraw his endorsement from these recommendations unless a similar policy of retrenchment were carried into all other county activities.

"I'm going to back up unless this is carried to the other department," Mr. Strunk asserted. "I will sacrifice the county offices to favor other county activities."

This declaration was called forth by inquiry by County Commissioner Strunk, whether Mr. Strunk was "well enough satisfied with the way the year is without further investigation."

Other members of the three-man group, C. D. Thomas and H. Hollingsworth, both of whom were not in attendance at the hearing yesterday. The unofficial committee's recommendations in regard to all county institutions and activities except the county hospital, noxious weed department and county agent's department were submitted at the hearing yesterday.

Recommendations in regard to courthouse offices, according to the committee's estimate, would result in a budget of $187,500, expenditures by approximately $30,000.

It was proposed in the purchasing committee for all county offices in the hands of the chairman of the board of county commissioners, who would serve without extra compensation as a county purchasing agent. It was estimated a purchasing agent could save 30 per cent of the present cost of these supplies.

Committee Applies Knife

The sub-committee further recommended abolition of the county law library, for which a $1200 budget money we have to do with and then attempted to apply it to individual taxpayers. The first thing to be considered in dealing with this situation in a practical manner is the following:

"The commissioners, who are to be credited with good faith, have not given sufficient thought to the practical method of approach. We have been digging on paper bills, and the thing we have forgotten that the dollar we set down on paper becomes eventually the dollar that must come out of the taxpayers' pockets."

Quoted Figures

The county records, Captain Swetley said, show that the county has an annual budget of $217,106. The county fund, $4000 hospital fund and $200,000 treasurer's fund—and has no money to meet this obligation.

He referred also to records showing delinquent taxes in 1929 totaled $100,000 or 46 per cent of the total 1929 delinquent taxes amounted to $183,000 or 11.7 per cent, and delinquent taxes for the first eight months totaled $19,000, or 1.4 per cent.

"If delinquencies continue in June," he said, "on December's basis, the county would be almost 30 per cent short. Under these conditions, no one seriously might expect to get out of the county out of balance. If we know we are going to be short 30 per cent, what's the use of trying to do it?"

C. O. Davis, Caldwell, put the question directly to the commissioner. "Is the budget in balance?"

Chairman Strunk replied, "No."

"According to our estimates, it balances," the chairman replied. "On the other hand, it is not in balance, which can be covered, but not in income up to cover all the proposed expenditures."

Continuing Mr. Barnes asserted that it would be impossible to make a great deal of saving in the county offices.

"The question," he said, "is how far the public can, and is willing to go in the reduction of the county's expenses. The law contemplates a public hearing on the tentative budget, but with respect to other departments, this board has tried to feel out sentiment. We have been a little reluctant to cut off our own nose with respect to other departments. The public should be better informed, and have an opportunity to express their views on the matter."

Mr. Davis, commenting further, suggested, "The purpose of this meeting is to work expenditures with an income up. I don't know whether it would be proper to inquire into the causes of the situation, but it is evident that there are heavy demands on the county on congress to get the current year increased."

The county auditor used a blackboard to present his figures showing increase in county expenditures.

Showing 33.8 per cent increase in current year expenditures from 1921 to 1931, he stated that in 1921 total expenditures were $112,379 in 1931, an average of $110,388 for that period, and compared it with expenditures rising from $182,379 in 1924 to $221,850 in 1930, an average of $170,104 for that period.

10 county offices for which the constitution provides, show that they have increased expenditures 13.7 per cent during the past 10 years over the preceding decade. These expenditures in 1921 totaled $87,374 and in 1931 they amounted to $100,000, an average of $94,386. In 1921 these expenditures totaled $127,085 and in 1931 they amounted to $168,085.

County institutions and activities outside these offices, he reported, increased expenditures 200 per cent during the past 10 years, since from an annual average of $23,222 the decade ending with 1920, to $76,697 annual average for the decade ending 1930.

Comparing weed department receipts and expenditures since 1926, when the department was established, the auditor submitted these figures:

Year	Expense	Receipts
1927	$47,264	$21.43
1928	$1,919	40.36
1929	$7,919	40.24
1930	71,919	39.83
1931	61,245	39.23

The financial situation with which the county is confronted, the auditor declared, was not a new one. "Approximately one dollar out of every three dollars county taxes goes for relief of individuals outside the county's local offices."

The commissioner's chairman pointed to another heavy expense when he said, "Approximately one dollar out of every three dollars county taxes goes for relief of individuals outside the county's local offices."

T. Dan Connor, Kiler, a former county commissioner, proposed reduction in Twin Falls county offices to a second class, stating that elevation of the county to first class rating was one of the chief reasons that have been put over. The lower rating would automatically reduce salaries of commissioners and prosecuting attorney.

SCHOOL HEADS HERE RETAIN POSITIONS

Trustees Elect Superintendent and Principals With Salary Reduction

W. B. Smith, superintendent of Twin Falls schools, U. N. Terry, high school principal; J. W. O'Leary, principal of the junior high school; Mrs. Ethel R. Gray, principal of the school; Miss Edith Way, principal of the Lincoln school, and Miss Myrtle Nelson, principal of the Washington school, were all re-elected at a meeting of the Twin Falls district board of school trustees last night.

It was announced that there would be a reduction in salaries, the amount of which would be determined on the basis of further information relative to amount of funds available. It has been ascertained that the amount of money available from the state movement fund, which had been estimated at $12,500 will be between $4000 and $4500 less than that sum, owing to the fact that the total funds for the state will be, it is estimated, about $170,000 less than was anticipated. A comparison of expenses for the year ending February 28, 1932, with the year ending February 28, 1931, for the Twin Falls schools, showed a reduction of $11,378.88, it was indicated.
