By Cecil B. Dickson (Associated Press Staff Writer) WASHINGTON, April 9 - A national economy program estimated to save $169,000,000 to $210,000,000 in 1933 was tentatively agreed upon today by President Hoover and the house economy committee.

Other retrenchment proposals considered, if accepted, are expected by the chief executive and Chairman McPuffie to bring the total to about $300,000,000.

The program finally agreed upon at the conference was to be accomplished by the House of Representatives, following a great extent that submitted by the committee which was approved by the general lines of President Hoover's recommendations.

President Hoover proposed a five-day week for federal employees and the staggering of work for other government employees.

Mr. Hoover held out successfully the program to be accomplished through alteration of existing laws. One of the chief items was a five-day week for federal employees.

BITTER CAMPAIGN OVER PRESIDENCY ENDS IN GERMANY

Millions of Supporters of Paul von Hindenburg Feel Confident of Hitler's Defeat in Run-Off Vote

By Louis F. Lochner (Associated Press Staff Correspondent) BERLIN, April 9 - Bitter campaigning in a campaign came to an end tonight, leaving the millions of supporters of President Paul von Hindenburg confident he will win in tomorrow's voting.

The campaign in the best government forces was duplicated by the National Socialist Party.

Political commentators generally agreed that the one chance of a Nazi victory in the election was the election of Adolf Hitler.

Chancellor Brüning, who had been in office since last Sunday, tonight the chancellor acted as his usual dignified and dignified.

Observers here noted a difference between the spirit of the run-off campaign and the campaign which preceded the decisive election in March.

President von Hindenburg's support in the run-off election was estimated to be twice that of the Nazi vote.

Representative of the National Administration Republic, said on the floor:

Debate on the bill was continued Monday before the ways and means committee.

But the proposed full cash payment was approved occasionally.

Hailey Probate Judge Develops Philosophy From Long Service In Sawtooth Mountain Country

(Special to The News) HAILEY, Idaho, April 9.—It is the contention of Judge George A. McLeod, who has appeared before the public eye in this county since Sawtooth Mountain town since 1880, and who this week formally entered another political campaign.

Judge McLeod's sober philosophy springs from nearly a half century of public service—from the experience of a career that has projected him, as an official, into romance.

Were his terms of public office strung out end to end, he probably would, more than a century ago.

This veteran of office holders, who incidentally has issued 633 marriage licenses and performed 12 marriages.

His wife, Mrs. McLeod, is a native of the Old West, and a number of "depressions" have been known to him.

As part of one great plan, Judge McLeod's "share of honor" he enumerated modestly, has consisted of the following offices:

Deputy county assessor and ex-officio tax collector; chief deputy clerk of the district court; auditor and recorder and clerk of the county court.

His wife, Mrs. McLeod, is a native of the Old West, and a number of "depressions" have been known to him.

Abductors Receive $50,000 But Fail To Surrender Baby

Treasury Department, After Waiting Days to Give Kidnapers Opportunity to Fulfill Terms of Agreement, Circulates Information Regarding Ransom Currency

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, April 9.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has paid a ransom of $50,000 for his kidnapped son, but the baby has not been returned.

This was disclosed tonight in a statement issued through the New Jersey state police.

The ransom was paid, the statement said, "to the kidnappers, properly identified, as such upon their agreement to notify him as to the exact whereabouts of the baby, but the baby was not found at the point designated."

"Several days were permitted to elapse to give the kidnappers every opportunity to keep their agreement. It was not intended to take the money of the species (currency) in which the ransom was paid, but inasmuch as the kidnappers have failed to keep their agreement and have not communicated since the ransom was paid it is felt that every remaining possible means must be utilized to accomplish the return of the baby and to this end the cooperation of the federal government is being requested in tracing the bills used."

It had become known earlier in the week that regular giving details of the currency had been distributed to banks through the country by the treasury with a request for telegraphic notification if any of the bills were seen.

On Wednesday, April 6, coinciding with reliable information that the payment of the ransom was effected Monday on an airplane flight which Colonel Lindbergh and Colonel H. G. Bennett, treasury official, made in the neighborhood of Martha's Vineyard, Massachusetts.

The statement pointed out "several items of the ransom currency, and the action by the government."

The other was that clear criminal identification of themselves as the kidnappers and retention of the ransom money.

In consideration of these theories it was recalled, however, that Colonel Lindbergh had publicly pledged themselves not to try to inform those returning the baby, but to let the government know.

The dispatch of the money circular by the office of Walter C. Wood, treasury official, was known this morning, but the news was withheld by press association until the government had published it might be injurious to the search.

A serial number given in the Woods' money circular were for bills of the denomination of $100, $50, $20, $10, $5, $2, $1, $0.50, $0.25, $0.10, $0.05, $0.02, $0.01.

The best available sources said that the start of the search for the bills was made in an original ransom note left pinned to the window sill of the baby's nursery by the kidnappers.

At Norfolk, Virginia, the very Rev. Dr. Robert C. Weir, pastor of the First Baptist church, said that after the infant was kidnapped Monday, he said he did not believe there was any connection between the kidnappers and the failure of the ransom payment announced tonight.

Mr. Weir said that he had seen the infant in the hands of the kidnappers and the failure of the ransom payment announced tonight.

The date of the failure of the ransom payment of the approximate time of its delivery was not stated in the statement, which was made in the office of the New Jersey state police.

"If what has been reported tonight is true, it would be a very serious blow to the confidence of the public in the government's ability to protect its citizens."

"The police" authority has been asked during the investigation, "to continue the search for the kidnappers."

which is really astonishing. They say it is because farmers are using horses again for spring plowing instead of tractors.
One of Will Rogers' recent bulletins suggests another reason. His own farmers and ranchers are raising better horses because more riders than ever before are riding them. In horse racing and in riding for recreation has increased the demand for horses for sport as the demand for them for work in cities and on farms has dropped off.

National League Club Meet on Eve of 1932 Opening Cashes

President Hoover Plans To Assume Role On Diamond

Athletic Officials Complete Treatment of Traditional Backbone of National's Main Sports Enterprise

By ALAN GOUD (Associated Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, April 9 (AP)—Featuring the fanfare of a national holiday, the major league baseball's big show, sounds the overture next week for a prospective upturn in the big business of American sports.

As the traditional backbone of the nation's athletic enterprise, it has been carefully treated for weak spots and injected with new blood for a campaign that will put its vitality and stability to a severe test. The prospects, meanwhile, are for an auspicious as well as gala year. The nation's chief executive, Herbert Hoover, will make the first official appearance on the diamond for the prelude, to be played by Boston and Washington clubs at the capital on Monday afternoon. The tumult and roar will echo all across the major league fronts on Tuesday morning, and the scene will be set to the accompaniment of band playing, flag-holding and band playing.

All told, upwards of 350,000 fans are expected to witness the nine opening games later this week. This would compare favorably with the record turnout of 240,000 for the 1929 opening contest of 1931. The largest of Tuesday's crowds—40,000—is expected to jam Brooklyn's Polo Grounds for the opening game between the Yankees and the Boston Braves. More than 30,000 likely will see the New York Yankees fire their first challenge to the Philadelphia Phillies, while as many more watch the St. Louis Cardinals, world champions, make their first home stand against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Entertaining President Hoover from a good "break" in the weather, should witness each of the other opening games and bring his attention to entertaining the presidential party. Journey to the Hub for another ceremony, Hoover will be accompanied by American League engagements Tuesday are: Cleveland at Detroit; St. Louis at Chicago; National League, Philadelphia at New York; Chicago at Cincinnati.

Although the clubs of both leagues have been urged to conserve money and economy, with payrolls and player limits reduced, they depend for their success on better pitching, closer and more exciting pennant races.

Behind this end, the majority of teams have been radically overhauled, especially in the National League. The Philadelphia Athletics have lined up a new team from top to bottom. The Yankees, the Cubs, the Braves and the White Sox likewise have made radical changes. The Cardinals and Athletics as strong favorites to repeat, with the New York Giants and Yankees the only teams expected to contend for the pennant.

The experts are not quite so hopeful as the market in respect to the pennant outlook. The big majority, making their verdict public through the Associated Press poll, regard the Cardinals and Athletics as strong favorites to repeat, with the New York Giants and Yankees the only teams expected to contend for the pennant.

HOOPER AND COMMITTEE TENTATIVELY AGREE ON PLAN TO CUT EXPENSES

President Hoover, the cabinet members sitting with him, and the members of the committee accepted their own rate of pay should be cut.

Under the program, the heavy load of the White House will be shifted to the employees. In arguing for the five-day week and staggered employment, Hoover said that the reduction of appropriations by the Congress would result in the retention of trained and qualified employees and provide a somewhat reduced income to some of the federal staff in lieu of discharging them. The application of this principle into other services will produce effective results.

The five-day work week and the staggered employment system, as well as other changes from federal agencies, would be effective for only one year.

Two other outstanding developments...

Eighteen California oarsmen, a crew of a nine-man crew, the Southern California team, won the race in 11 minutes and 49 seconds in the three-mile variety race, the feature event of the regatta. The California line was 10 minutes fast.

The California crew went to California. The blue and gold junior-varsity anothered the Washington crew by three and one-half minutes in the 10-mile race. The winning boat was clocked in 11 minutes and 49 seconds. California was 11 seconds slower.

Experts' ducked for cover before the start of the race. They were glad another coast regatta will be held in Seattle until 1934.

A huge crowd variously estimated at 50,000 and 60,000 witnessed the spectacle. Fifteen hundred fans jammed the first open boat race in the city.

Enormous crowds carried him over the ground in almost effervescent jubilation. He held the record for 18 years and was off to a perfect start at 2:20.

The American record at this distance is 1:50.4, made by Homer Baker. "Big Ben" Eastman, former U.S. national champion, broke the record-breaking run today.
