Ruth Hits Homers Twice to Feature Contest New York

On First Trip to Batter's Box "Babe" Ruth, Clouts For Circuit and Repeats Performance in Third Chance

By HUGH S. FULLERTON (Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, April 12.—"Babe" Ruth, blew the lid off the baseball season today as a dozen major league clubs staged their grand opening before an estimated attendance of slightly over 100,000.

The first time Ruth came to bat against George Earnshaw, produced seven home runs. Philadelphia Athletics, he drove the ball far over the fence for a home-run on his third appearance. He did it again.

Profiting by the "Babe" example and a three-run start on his first home run, the Yankees aligned out to a 12-6 victory over the American League champions in a game which produced seven home runs. Babe, recently became a regular for the Yanks, also hit two other bangers and led off the Yankees' offense with a home run on each.

Despite the prodigious hitting of the Yanks, several other clubs also produced seven home runs. Philadelphia Athletics, he drove the ball far over the fence for a home-run on his third appearance. He did it again.

Stars Set Pace On Dixie Course

PINEHURST, N. C., April 12.—National ranking and sectional stars had easy talking in reaching the fourth round of the Dixie Open tournament today.

Edward King, New York, took the first three holes in the first set with Frank X. Shields, New York, but the latter soon got the measure of his opponent's game and lightening up, won 6-4, 6-1.

Gregory Manning, Newark, New Jersey, extended to win from Lucas Abel, High Point, North Carolina, 6-3, 6-1.

Two easy victories enabled John Van Ryan, Philadelphia, defending champion, to advance to the fourth round. Van Ryan, who has been a regular for the Yanks, also hit two other bangers and led off the Yankees' offense with a home run on each.

ST. LOUIS, April 12.—Champion Pirates were taken today by the St. Louis Cardinals as they decisively outplayed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 10 to 2, in the opening game of the season.

The 1931 National League pennant won by the Cardinals was raised with ceremonies just before the game which attracted 5937 paying customers. Cold weather cut attendance considerably.

Phil Rizzuto, who had pitched the Cardinals to victory in the opening games of pennant winning years in 1926, 1928, 1930 and 1931, justified his selection as opening pitcher for St. Louis, scoring his first triumph as a hurler for the season's first game.

NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERAMEN

INVESTIGATION OF THE Lindbergh baby kidnaping halted for a few hours at Hopewell, New Jersey, as police, firemen, newspaper men and Colonel Lindbergh himself battled a brush fire that briefly threatened the home, shown in the distance in the top photo. The origin of the blaze was not determined.—(P) Photo.

IT'S NO TRICK for Tony Freitas, pitcher for the Sacramento Senators, to hold seven regulation baseballs in one hand. Count them.—(P) Photo.

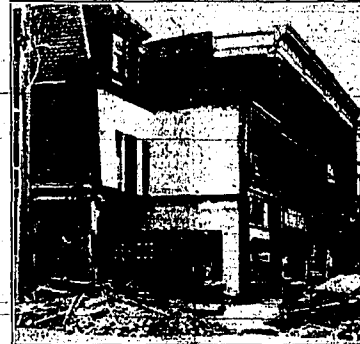

A SERIES OF CLASHES and fist fights broke out on the Columbia university campus when a group of students called a strike in protest against the expulsion of Reed Harris, former editor of the university paper. Athletics, aroused by Harris' editorials hitting the school's athletics, led the fight against the strikers. The picture above shows a striker in the hands of a group of football huskies.—(P) Photo.

JAMES J. MEAHER, 40, was killed when he lost control of his automobile and it plunged into the supporting pillar of a Philadelphia drug store causing the entire front of the store to fall in on the car.—(P) Photo.

MARJORIE DOBSON-PEACOCK, daughter of the Rev. Peacock of Norfolk, Virginia, has been aiding her father since he announced negotiations for the return of the Lindbergh baby.—(P) Photo.

ENDEAVORING TO CONVINCING reporters and photographers that his airplane "retreat" with his two sons after an argument with his wife, Natalie Talmadge, was all in fun, Buster Keaton of the films struck this "dead pan" Napoleonic pose when grounded at San Diego. The boys are Joseph, 11 (left), and Robert, 10. "I just wanted to see who's boss," said Keaton.—(P) Photo.

LED BY Mrs. Ella A. WAREHOUSE STATES CLAIM UTILITIES BOARD ATTENTION Public Hearing in Twin Falls Brings Out Information Many Operators Ignorant of Schedule Set in 1920

Idaho's public utilities commission, holding a series of public hearings throughout the state, heard here yesterday that warehouse operators in this district did not know the commission issued an order in 1920 fixing rates for handling and storage of beans, wheat and other grains.

Commissioners during the day interrogated a number of warehouse operators and dealers, and learned that bean warehouse charges in this district were in some cases more than exceeding the 1920 maximum of one-half-cent per 100-pound bag per month.

Commissioners came here from Pocatello and Blackfoot, having previously held similar hearings in northern Idaho. They will complete their series of hearings at Caldwell and Weiser.

LOCAL GENEALOGISTS RECEIVE HIGH HONORS Two Twin Falls genealogists, William Henry Edridge, pioneer business man and former Twin Falls mayor, and Mrs. Granville G. Allen, whose work in genealogy and historical research have won them high recognition have been honored by inclusion of "Who's Who in Idaho" in the 1932 edition of "Who's Who in America," a directory recently issued by the Institute of American Genealogy, Chicago.

Recognition in this field affords an excellent incentive to the members of the National Clearing House for Genealogical Information, as well as professional contact with genealogists in fifty countries throughout the United States and in 18 foreign countries, which will enable them to broaden the scope of their work very materially.

FORMATION by residents here of three international hereditary-parietic societies to make possible the necessary genealogical research to qualify for membership without outside aid, it is stated.

DEATH COMES TO BUHL MAN ON HIS BIRTHDAY William Ramsey, 53, threatening machine operator at Buhl for nearly 20 years, died at the county general hospital here early Tuesday morning following a paralytic attack with which he was stricken at Buhl two days previously.
