Kester, last week put into operation a thoroughly modern packing plant which has been in course of construction since last September at the company's feed lots near the Amalgamated Sugar plant, three miles southwest of Twin Falls.

The Sunset company is engaged exclusively in the wholesale trade, and is distributing its products to retailers in Twin Falls and other towns throughout southern Idaho. It receives livestock at yards in connection with the new packing plant, and also at yards at Kimberly which members of the new concern have operated for a number of years.

4. In requesting reciprocal trade agreements, under a policy of mutual tariff concessions, it would violate the American tariff policy of uniform and equal treatment of all nations.

The president said that if the United States should enter upon reciprocal negotiations with any other nation it would mean the complete abandonment of the principle of uniform and equal treatment of all nations.

"That is the very breeding ground for trade wars," he said. "This type of preferential tariff agreement which exists abroad today is one of the primary causes of trade wars between our countries at the present moment."

Further, he asserted, the struggle for special privileges by reciprocity agreements has become the basis of political concessions and alliances which led to international entanglements of the first order.

HERE'S THE QUALITY TIRE PRICED within reach of all!

Of course you want quality when you buy tires. You want all the safety, all the sturdy strength, all the long life and trouble-free mileage a dollar can buy.

And you get quality in Goodyear Pathfinders—millions of people like yourself know that from happy experience. Because it has always been "the quality tire within the reach of all"—Goodyear Pathfinder is one of the big reasons for Goodyear popularity.

Now look what these tires cost today. There's no need to tell you that quality has never been so low-priced—the figures shown here make you ask yourself: Why be satisfied with second-choice tires when first-choice tires cost no more?

SIX PLYES?
You can count six layers of cord fabric here, but the first two under the tread do not run from head to head—some tire makers count these as "plies," but they are really "breaker-crips," so we call them that.

What Matters: On what basis are candidates to be nominated at the coming primary election?

Handling of most State and County offices calls only for integrity and ability to perform tasks that are pretty closely defined by law.

Members of Congress and of the State Legislature, the situation is somewhat different. These bodies make their own rules and they outline policies and lay down the rules for the rest of us.

Candidates for both parties' nominations for Congress have made use of many and various opportunities to declare the reasons that impel them to enter and continue in the running.

Some will say these ideas of most of them are too radical. Others may say they are sensible, but impracticable. Anyway, we might as well occupy our minds with some big headline politics, discussion, contract bridge and baseball scores.

EVERYWOMAN'S CLUB IN CASTLEFORD CONVENES: CASTLEFORD, May 11 (Special to The News)—The regular meeting was chairman of the program presented by Everywoman's club in the city Tuesday afternoon. Her topic was "Club News."

Government Principles: Senator and representatives at Washington, especially the latter, are probably in no mood at present to pay much attention to the following passage in the President's special message to Congress.

when he suggests that recent action in Congress reflects local and group attitudes rather than the will of the country.

The welfare of local communities, class groups and public interests depends in the long run, on such broadness of vision. Congress should be made to understand that the situation is in as critical a situation as it ever was in the world war, and that the only cooperation is as much needed now as it was then.

NATIONAL PLANS: Possibly by this time a good many people in the United States are ready to open their minds to, and do some serious thinking about, the following suggestions made in a little volume entitled "A Program for America," by Will Durkin.

1. Teach co-operation as now the first necessity of competition. 2. Restrict immigration—not by race but by the actual quality of the immigrants.

3. Establish an independent industry through boards of control for each industry, these subject to a National Economic Board, and subject to the Department of Commerce, sufficiently to prevent foreign competition.

4. Control unemployment by the progressive reduction of the working day. 5. Establish in every major university a School of Government, and at Washington a United States Civic Academy.

DO YOU INHALE?

Here goes the last "sacred cow" in cigarette advertising!

Lucky Strike Cigarettes advertisement featuring the 'Lucky Strike' logo and the slogan 'It's toasted'. Text includes: 'Inhaling has long been an "untouchable" subject taboo in the tobacco trade... Because in every tobacco leaf—even the finest, the mildest—nature hides certain impurities which, when not removed, are unkind to delicate membranes. And since, knowingly or unknowingly, we all inhale some part of the smoke from our cigarette—Lucky Strike developed that great scientific process which removes certain impurities. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it! Do you inhale? Remember—more than 20,000 physicians after Luckies had been furnished them for tests, basing their opinions on their smoking experience, stated that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes. "It's toasted" Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough.' Also includes 'TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE—60 modern winners with the world's finest taste embossed, and famous Lucky Strike now featuring, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening with Mr. G. C. Gurnea.'

Brooklyn, May 11 (AP)—After pitching 10 good innings and one sharp one that carried the game over time in a 6-3 tie, Wild Bill Hallahan justified his nickname in the twelfth inning by leading out a standing burst of wildness that gave the Brooklyn Dodgers three runs and a 6-3 victory over the Cardinals.

Going into the twelfth, Hallahan had given only eight hits and had tossed a round dozen Brooklyn batsmen. But Frank O'Doul opened the final inning with a double and as he tried to "breeze down," Hallahan made three wild pitches, equalling the major league record, which a man intentionally and allowed three more hits.

Three major league pitchers previously had made three wild pitches in an inning. They were Jacob deGrom of the Cubs, in 1903, Charles Sullivan, Detroit, in 1920, and Milton Gaston, of the Browns, in 1927. Hallahan's first wild pitch sent O'Doul down to third. Danny Taylor was passed and took second on another wild pitch. Then Tony Cucinello beat out a hit and O'Doul came home with the bases loaded. Wright's single brought in the second tally of the inning and after Kelly's hit had filled the bases, Hallahan sent three on high and wild and let Cucinello come home.

The Cards scored all their runs off Van Murrain.

valued disapproval at the verdict, however, and the two judges were advised: "Judge Tom Kelly, who officiated at the first Dempsey-Tunney battle in 1935, decided in favor of Hamas.

Loughran, former light-heavyweight champion, had more or less staked his future on tonight's bout and had sought to avenge the two-round knockout which his 23-year-old opponent scored over him in New York last January.

But the one-time phantom of the ring, hearing his thirtieth birthday, and with 14 years of flaccid activity behind him, began to puff badly after being driven from pin to post by Hamas' cool and methodical body attack, varied with telling left-beat to the jaw.

Loughran had to play a defensive role through the entire way for 10 rounds. He could not retreat, as Hamas in clinches frequently, but failing to elude his clever retreats and slaps often caught up with wild rights to the jaw.

Hamas began to tire himself in the eighth round, but the first time, it was Hamas whose back was against the ropes, and the final punch, a right to the jaw, was shot by Loughran.

Ralph Pennington, Brooklyn, was the seconds' semi-final, with four swings to the jaw of James J. Taylor of the United States marines in the second round.

A total of 122,254 books were checked by the Twin Falls public library during the year ending May 1, according to the report of Miss Jessie Prater, librarian. This compares yesterday; an increase of 20,319 volumes, or 18 per cent over the previous year. The circulation for the year is 11 per capita, or more than twice as much as the standard established by the Wisconsin Association for the year ending May 1, 1930.

The Wisconsin standard set 30 per cent of the population as the proportion of borrowers. The population of the Twin Falls independent district, the territory served by the library, at 12,000, the proportion of borrowers during the year three years constitutes 10 per cent of the population.

Necessary minimum expense for a library is estimated at per capita, the report says, and this is approximately the amount raised by the two mill levy. It is stated, however, that owing to the unusually large circulation in the city and district, this is insufficient to keep up the book stock and building for growth. There has been no increase in overhead, or for extra staff or equipment during the year.

The following students have been on the honor roll four times this year. They will receive a shield if they are on the honor roll the last year of their course.

DAIRY REPRESENTATIVE PRAISES EXHIBITS HERE

High praise was conferred yesterday by Mrs. Eva Lee Rooder, Boise, representative of the Idaho State Dairyman's association, on the exhibit of the home economics department of the Twin Falls high school. There was also a dairy exhibit of the same department in the junior high school. Miss Juanita Sultaire is instructor in the high school and Miss Helen Reese in the junior high school. The principal exhibit for the high school department consisted in a table showing an economical meal of maximum nutrition, and minimum cost for a family of five, consisting of parents and three growing children. There were also tables set for serving of meals, and for children and for confectionery.

Mrs. Rooder has been here this week speaking in the public schools. She will speak in a number of rural schools in a few days before returning to Boise.
