KING OF SIAM QUILTS THRONE GRACIOUSLY

BANGKOK, Siam, (Sunday Morning) June 25 (AP)—King Prajadhipok cordially accepted today the resignation of his throne.

The king who was a royal bodyguard with his consent when his abdication monarchy was organized, said he had recognized the desirability of a governmental change for Siam.

The revolution was attributed by the Siamese to the fact that the king was largely composed of peasants to sell rice and rubber. The king of Siam was willing, he said, to act as head of the new government.

Other officers named were: Earl McKay, Emmet, secretary.

The king's message is from my heart, said the king, who had received the news that he must accept the throne under a limited form of monarchy or republic.

Leaders of the People's party objected to the use of the word revolution in connection with their movement against the government.

The king's acceptance of the ultimatum's terms had been expected, as he was known to favor the franchise plan.

The capital was peaceful after the military coup, the royal prince being kept in a room on the top floor of the palace.

Legislators were informed by the government that the franchise plan was to be kept and that the franchise of all foreign residents was to be maintained.

The prince of Nagar Svarga, who was a member of the supreme council and head of the police, and other members of the royal family were settled before dawn near the throne hall, where they were heavily guarded.

COMMUNISTIC ELEMENT IN RANKS OF BONUS SEEKERS ACCOMPLISHES OBJECTIVE WHEN COMMANDER QUILTS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Re-dragged army of bonus seekers tonight police redoubled their vigilance because of increasing factional disputes in the ranks.

Walter W. Waters, the Portland, Oregon, war veteran who organized the bonus army movement, resigned today as commander-in-chief and left behind him a surprised group of advisers and a downcast rank and file of men.

In giving his resignation to his executive committee, he referred to "considerable feeling in the ranks" that all had not had a voice in his selection.

It was the second time he had quitted the post. He retained several hundred men.

When his successor, George Altmann, was elected, he was unseated because of what were described as radical political statements.

WON PAPAN AROUSES PRESS OF GERMANY

BERLIN, June 25 (AP)—Chancellor Franz von Papan ran into a storm of criticism today on his return from the Lausanne reparations conference for a talk with President Paul von Hindenburg and members of the cabinet.

Editorial critics declared that assuming he had been misunderstood, he emphasized, he said, that the recovery of the world's economy demands cooperative effort especially between Germany and France.

The chancellor said that he would obtain better and more evident advantages than by a continuance of reparations payments.

"A man who has gone through the pains that Papan has to make here is not going to be dragged back here to complete his term," Governor Ralph said.

"A man has been rehabilitated through his own efforts I cannot see where the price can further stress the importance of advising as the best means of recovery and blamed the lack of business on the fact that the laundry owners have failed to acquire housewives with the effectiveness of the laundry."

NOTED STUNT-FLIER PERISHES IN CRASH WHILE MAKING FILM

VICTORVILLE, Calif., June 25 (AP)—A motor that "croaked" at the crucial moment carried Wiley Post, well-known stunt flier and a veteran in Hollywood air thrillers, to his death today while he was making the cameraman an extra bit for their money.

Wilson, engaged in "strafing" a truckload of soldiers in a film called "War Correspondent," went into an intentional spin at 3000 feet, flattened out accidentally, careened over the truck load of men with his machine-gun spitting imaginary bullets, and somersaulted upward.

At that second his motor cut out and his ship, out of control, dived drunkenly to the ground, exploded and he suffered a fractured skull and three body fractures.

He died a short time later.

Wilson had participated in 50 of the 80 sky pictures made in Hollywood in the last few years, including "Hell's Angels."

Democratic Faction Plans Stamped For Roosevelt In Nearing National Conclave

Majority of Platform Committee Agrees on Tentative Prohibition Plank Calling for Showdown

By D. HAROLD UTINGER (Associated Press Staff Writer)

CHICAGO, June 25.—A majority of the Democratic platform committee was in agreement to-night on a tentative prohibition plank calling for a decision by the people on the question of repeal after a stormy session punctuated by cheers and boos for orators pleading the "wet" and "dry" causes.

Roosevelt leaders, dominating the sub-committee of nine appointed to draft the platform, were confident of beating down all attempts to water the plank to repeal. The tentative plank reads as follows:

"We favor immediate submission to state conventions of an amendment repealing the eighteenth amendment submitted to the people in such form as to be approved by a majority of the people of the state and the return to the states of the power and responsibility to prohibit intoxicating liquors, prevent the return of the saloon and sale to minors, and prohibit the manufacture of such liquors."

CHICAGO, June 25 (AP)—Melvin A. Traylor, considered by many Democratic presidential timbers, was today named as the Democratic nominee for the Illinois gubernatorial race.

Taylor, who is president of both banks—among the three largest in the city—declared a well-planned plot for a demonstration against the lawless conduct of the banks and said the banks had taken steps to put themselves in a more liquid condition than they were before.

Both banking floors were crowded with customers, a large number of whom apparently intended withdrawal of deposits as a protest against the banks' action.

Four Chicagoans today, one of them a woman, were arrested for protesting against the banks' action.

ROSS PROTESTS ON REFUSAL OF LOAN

GOVERNOR CALLS ATTENTION TO GRANT TO WASHINGTON ORCHARDISTS' ORGANIZATION

BOISE, June 25 (AP)—Idaho fruit growers' marketing plan is based on the Washington plan and the reason there is no justification for the Reconstruction Finance corporation retaining a loan to Idaho that was granted Washington growers.

Governor C. Ben Ross declared today in a telegram to Reconstruction Finance Administrator Smith, arguing that the loan be expedited.

It was the second protest sent by the growers in an effort to secure the loan, the refusal of which was communicated to growers here this week by the Reconstruction Finance corporation that the Washington fruit growers' organization had received a loan request.

In his telegram to Representative Smith the governor said:

"The Reconstruction Finance corporation called today to state they must have financial assistance if the growing fruit crop is to be saved. Our marketing system was completely destroyed by the state of Washington. Crop loan can be definitely ascertained by the amount of the money depends entirely on the price."

He was advised in a telegram from Senator John T. McCarty today that the fruit loan was held up because of dissatisfaction of the Reconstruction Finance corporation with the Idaho marketing set-up and both he and Representative Smith promised to investigate the matter with a view to securing the loan.

Smith's reply today said: "I had advised the Reconstruction Finance corporation regarding the loan requested by the Idaho fruit growers. The Reconstruction Finance corporation representative of the corporation at Spokane was received last evening and he will be given immediate consideration."

Summer Playground Paradise In Wood River Highlands

SHORT DRIVE PUTS RECREATIONSEEKER INTO SCENIC REGION

Lakes, Streams, Wooded Hills And Valleys Hold Lure Beyond Commercialism's Grasp in Natural Garden

By NEWELL S. WIGHT
around valley and Ketchum within two to four hours auto driving one of the low Snake River valleys. A network of the finest summer highways to be found anywhere in the Rocky Mountain region, where one who is far in search of choice outdoor recreational places throughout the United States, is invited to visit one of the greatest of the charms of the Wood River and Salmon River mountain-lands, consists in its recent appearance due to the fact that this area has not yet come to the stage of strict commercialism which, in other "natural garden" spots has obtained.

Lakes, streams, mountains and valleys are hundreds of miles of beautiful forest roads supply an unlimited number of camping grounds. In California & Oregon, a traveler could wish for and still be within so short a distance of civilization.

Each year sees added to the list a few more cabins, camps and resort hotels along the main roads and selected locations from which the vacationer may extend his daily trips in case he prefers such accommodations rather than to camp out. Each year with the extension and construction of more-by-way, new scenic spots are made available.

All of central Idaho including this vacation land presents a striking and exceptional picture this summer and especially in contrast to last year's appearance. The heavy rains of last winter and continued rains of this year's spring season have brought forth the "best" of the area, and a wide assortment of wild flowers and native shrubbery. Sprinkled this year are gushing artesian wells, which in winter were quite unnoticeable.

Not only the Great Outdoors and Nature open their arms and welcome us but the towns and people along the way receive the visitors in an attitude that is more than ordinary. They are proud of their scenic and peculiar attractions, which they will be glad to show and to receive hospitality rather than to resent the stranger as an intruder.

The people of the region in turn appreciate the rest and peace of mind which come from even a brief outing in our summer playground paradise.

GRANGERS HEAR OF FARM SURVEY PLAN

BURLEY, June 25 (Special to The News)—Dr. Paul A. Eke, head of the farm economics department, University of Idaho, addressed members of Emerson Grange Thursday night, in explanation of a survey being conducted by him relative to farm management organization and budgeting.

Data will be made available, on the completion of the project so that farmers may lay out a system of rotation of farm crops, and of management of livestock, and may be helped in the cross-fencing of their farms, according to the best results to be gained from the type of soil on their farms.

Much confusion has resulted in the past, Dr. Eke explained, by reason of farmers using identical methods and producing the same class of crops, on soils adapted to different methods and diverse crops. He called attention to conditions existing on the Twin Falls tract which he has investigated, where livestock is adapted to the type and condition of soil in the Buhl neighborhood, while in the Kimberly district there is a scarcity of livestock and various varieties of farm crops are grown. A message was presented from the
