GENERAL ELECTRIC REPORTS EARNINGS

Both Net and Gross Income Decline, However, But Cover Reduced Dividends

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., July 19 (AP)—General Electric company, in its report for the first half of this year, issued today, discloses that while both gross and net earnings declined substantially from the corresponding period of 1932, the organization more than earned its recently reduced dividends.

The company's statement shows profits available for dividends on the common stock for the six months amounted to $7,859,167, equal to 27 cents a share, compared with $21,823,722, or 75 cents a share, for the similar period last year.

Sales billed totaled $50,048,668 against $41,180,091 in the 1932 period, a decrease of 43 per cent. There are 28,267,000 shares of General Electric common shares outstanding. The dividend on this stock is now 40 cents per share annually, to be paid quarterly beginning July 23.

Gerard Swope, president of the company, pointed out that reports published by the department of commerce relative to the electrical manufacturing industry in the United States for 1932 showed the company's orders had decreased at approximately the same rate as orders received by the industry as a whole.

The statement showed that sales and expenses of operating have been reduced drastically, but attention was called to the fact that the "worldwide" new developments are being unduly curtailed, and engineering and research work, which will give new fields for the company in the future, is being continued.

Present Swope stated the company has no debts payable or any obligations bearing its endorsement outstanding, and that none of the companies in which General Electric has a majority interest has any funded debt or any loans owing to banks or the public.

ASHES OF TEXAN SOON SETTLE ON FAR NORTH

SEATTLE, July 19 (AP)—W. H. (Doc) Holmes, Texas oil man and old-time Alaska prospector, never lost his love of the North and as he was dying four months ago in Texas he asked that his ashes be scattered over majestic Mount McKinley, the highest peak of the North American continent, near Fairbanks, Alaska.

Today Walter Holmes, a brother, arrived from Amarillo, Texas, en route to Alaska to fulfill that last request.

Holmes will leave here tonight by airplane for the North. An Alaskan plane will transfer to a plane piloted by Frank Dorbandt, veteran pilotman of Alaska, who will pilot the ship over the mountain as the ashes of another veteran of the North are brought home to rest.

But I'm here so don't go calling these reunions off Heck, Charlie, we're the two best men of B and H, and I'm a good for nothing." The argument won Lockwood, and they parted with "I'll see you next year." The reunion precedes the last man observance by the Company B survivor, which is to be held Thursday.

NEGRO ADMITS KILLING RELATIVES IN KENTUCKY

Sisco said the three were operating a bootlegging establishment and while arguing over the business and shot at his brother, but the sister stepped between them and was killed. He said he later killed his brother.

Sisco, who was held pending information from Louisville, said the shooting occurred at 519 South Ninth street.

BLAST KILLS SEVEN MEN ON DRILL BOAT

ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y., July 19 (AP)—Seven men were killed and nine were injured late today when a dynamite explosion destroyed the drill boat Astoria and shook the St. Lawrence valley.

A ton and a half of dynamite which had just been placed in a drill hole on the rocky bottom of the St. Lawrence river exploded prematurely, burning for several minutes and splintered remains of the 160-foot drill boat high into the air.

An oil tanker three miles upstream overboard, witnesses said, and proceeded on her way, leaving the work of rescue to a fleet of motor-boats.

Sixteen men were at the scene of drilling operations in the American channel, about two miles from the American shore at Chippewa, when the explosion occurred.

Those for whose names a diver was seeking as darkness fell tonight were: Arnold Freeman, Jimmy Priority, Ivan Rahn, Joe Kusarack, William Aikin, Jr., Harry Barr, 34, and Willard Chase, 22.

The nine injured were hospitalized at Ogdensburg and Brockville, Ontario, most of them with leg injuries.

The America, owned by the R. D. Huffman Construction company, Cleveland, was towed from the federal channel less than 10 miles from the spot where a Canadian government tug, the S. S. Canaduck, with the loss of 31 lives, the Canadian boat had been engaged in similar work when lightning exploded her dynamite stores.

JOHN CAPONE AWAITING GRAND JURY HEARING

CHICAGO, July 19 (AP)—John Capone, member of Chicago's notorious gangster family, was ordered today to appear before a federal grand jury considering evidence against the Capone liquor syndicate.

Arrested with $4300 in cash in his pockets, Capone has been held by Chicago police on disorderly conduct charges, assuming an uncommunicative air often used by his older brothers, Al and Ralph, the younger Capone said he had just returned from Florida and that he had been in the automobile business until four years ago, but refused to answer questions about his present business.

Reports were current the government had mapped a program to put out of business the $10,000,000-a-year liquor syndicate, conducted by the prominent gangster, Al Capone, and Ralph Capone went to prison for income tax violation.

Their Income Cut

OTTAWA, Ontario, July 19 (AP)—Sir Henry Thornton resigned today as president of the Canadian National Railways with the explanation he was withdrawing because of public criticism.

Sir Henry, who was born in Logansport, Indiana, in 1871 and served the Pennsylvania and Long Island railroads before becoming general manager of the Great Eastern railroad in England in 1914, had been president of the Canadian National since 1922.

About a year ago his administration of the road, was investigated by a committee of the house of commons.

This investigation went into charges that he had received salaries, in addition to the sum paid him as president, for serving as chairman of companies regarded as subsidiaries of the National system.

Sir Henry answered by already voluntarily surrendered some of his additional salaries and that every one of them was covered by authority vested in England in 1914, had been president of the Canadian National since 1922.

It is understood the resignation became effective August 1. S. J. Rungtger, a vice president, will serve as acting president until a successor is appointed.

Rumors circulated that American roads were seeking Sir Henry's services. One such report was that a rail-

LOYAL TROOPS TAKE CITY IN SAO PAULO

OTTAWA, Ontario, July 19 (AP)—Provisional government of Getulio Vargas announced today loyal federal troops had taken the city of Itarare in southern Sao Paulo near the Paraná state border.

The communists said the Sao Paulo rebels retreated into their own state after a brief bayonet battle. No casualties were given.

The government previously announced loyal Paraná troops had taken Itarare. On the basis of today's statement this appeared inaccurate.

A Porto Alegre dispatch said the intervenor (governor) there had received a telegram from General Goes Monteiro, the chief of the federal command at Recife, that the rebels had raised a white flag that turned their machine guns on federal troops from the state of Minas Geraes.

Later, the dispatch said, the rebels, fired on strikers. General Monteiro said federal troops had occupied the railway tunnel south of Passo Cuatro, in northern Sao Paulo, behind an artillery battery.

way of the Western states had made him an offer, but it was officially said at Montreal that no offer had been accepted.

What must a young girl know before marriage?

There is a true story told of an ingenious Budapest bookseller, who—faced with hard times—advertised that he had for sale a volume of information indispensable to a young girl contemplating matrimony. He said that in this book would be found—not what every young girl is told before marriage—but what she will find it indispensable to know.

Thousands sent their mail-orders. Then—complaints began to pour in. Finally an outraged man brought the bookseller into court. He stated that he had sent for one of these compendia of indispensable information . . . and that he received by mail a 19th Century Cook-book—"Lazy Little Lulu Learns Cookery." He wanted the bookseller found guilty of obtaining money under false pretenses. . .

But the judge acquitted him, saying that he was in thorough accord with the bookseller's view that a knowledge of cooking was of primary importance to the prospective bride.

The modern newspaper could be advertised truthfully in very much the same way. The most indispensable knowledge to a young wife is knowing where and what to buy . . . how to get the most for her money . . . how—on a limited budget—to keep her home fresh, new, attractive . . . how to dress herself and her children, inexpensively yet in the very latest styles . . . how to serve on her table foods of the most dependable quality.

In other words—the advertising that appears every day in your local newspaper contains information of real value . . . News! Announcements of the latest and best in the shopping world. This is indispensable information to every woman, especially to those with families. It helps them run their homes successfully. Surely that is what every woman must know.

FACE POWDER

The old Greeks not only had a word for it, but knew how to make it. An American archeological expedition has dug up in ancient Corinth a terra cotta mold containing the formula for the beautiful women of ancient Greece.

The stuff is a combination of lead, and the ancient method of manufacture, as described by Pliny, the Roman naturalist, said to have been basically the method used today. It consisted of subjecting thin shavings of lead to the corrosive action of vinegar and vapor, then reducing the product to a fine powder. Our laboratories merely do it more effectively and cheaply.

There is a little new about cosmetics, or about other matters of feminine adornment. The latest trend of civilization shows mirrors and vanity cases. The heightening of facial beauty is the oldest of the arts.

Employment, Not Wages, Appears Vital Issue Before Nation Today In Opinion of Roger W. Babson

"Prosperity Can Return Only As Purchasing Power Grows; So Payrolls of Country Must Be Built Up," Declares Bay State Statistician "In Behalf of Laboring Classes"

By ROGER W. BABSON. BABSON PARK, Mass., July 19.—Prosperity can return only as purchasing power is increased. The total wages of the country must be built up. It will pick up only as more men go to work, the wage rate will automatically be raised. Because of the present situation, labor will need more than men need jobs.

MAVERICKS and STRAYS

By LEW SWEETSER, Burley. The other day, four men sat at a table in a pool hall, playing cards. I watched them. It seemed to me they played a listless game. Some of them were about 40, and watched me curiously.

I thought of the half-wit boy in front of me, who watched a poker game at old-time Idaho. He stood at attention, a 50-pound sack of flour 70 inches high. He watched the other player, to get a rest. He was earnest. "I thought, 'In those old times,' I seemed to me we all enjoyed ourselves more than we do now. I seemed to talk to my inner self. 'Man and woman; girls and boys; were different than now. They seemed a restless spirit that was manifest in everything they did. They seemed to have a purpose and played so very earnestly.' Those were frontier people; or had come from frontier. They were toughened through long days of riding on rough-gaited broncos, through the stinging darts of the drag-end of trailed cattle, and when they gathered to enjoy themselves they didn't do the trick by drinking. They had a purpose and plenty of it; chewed raw tobacco; played poker; raced hogs; danced. PITTSBURGH, July 19.—League-leading Pittsburgh Pirates lost a half game in the pennant race today by splitting a double-header with the Phillies, while the Chicago Cubs were downing the New York Giants.

Bill Swift won the first game, a 5-2, his tenth victory of the season and his seventh in a row.
Pitcher "Rip" Collins tripled on the seventh and scored on Bartlett's single to take the second game, 6 to 5.

CHICAGO'S NEW YORK 4
CHICAGO, July 19.—New York Giants scored a run in the ninth inning today to tie the Cubs at 4-4 but Chicago came back to win, 6-5, and to present Lon Warneke with his fourth consecutive victory of the season and his eighth in a row.
Warneke pitched a fine game when he got off to a bad start when Mel Ott clouded his seventh-inning home run of the season with two on base in the first.

Fred Pittsblum was not quite steady enough to hold the lead off the mound. He worked in the third and the Cubs scored twice on hits by Hack, English and Cuyler.

BOSTON'S CINCINNATI 6
CINCINNATI, July 19.—A last-minute flurry by the Cincinnati Reds swung away the heat of a sun today and Bryan Mitchell pitched Boston to another victory, 6 to 1, over the National league's last place team.
Doughit and Morrisey singled in the last half of the ninth but Mitchell was strong, making the heat pop out to win. Lucas, meanwhile had dropped enough to allow the Reds to be built into a two-run margin.

BY RUBY M. AYRES

SYNOPSIS: Sondra Kent, at the theater with her brother-in-law, was the two men who figure most importantly in her life. She is in love with Mark Merriman, but is determined not to marry him since he has neither money nor hope of riches. Her father, John Anderson, but Anderson is found to be an unhappy marriage and has never admitted that he loved more than friendship for Sondra. Sondra attitudes toward marriage is strongly influenced by the advice her father gave her long ago, to marry for money and not for love. His further attitude that Sondra and her sister, Flora, were good looking but could not make themselves useful. Sondra knows to love. Flora has married a rich man, Lemax, who bore and a young Flora. As the three go to the theater, Sondra finds that John Anderson is beside her.

Chapter 3

"NOW FOR PURGATORY"

"Are you going to the Gaspar's?" Anderson asked.

Sondra met his eyes unsmilingly. "I suppose so," she said and he suddenly. "He'd make such a splendid husband for you, I hate these women who have you by the side of the theatre; she had only bowed frigidity to Sondra, and the girl looked as she looked after her. "How that woman hates me," she said.

"That woman?" Flora asked.

"John Anderson's sister,"

"Moss women are cats," Flora said briefly.

"You drew a little to one side, away from the crowd while Lemax fought his way to the cloakroom. The woman who had been so eagerly searching for Mark Merriman.

Would he come and speak to her? As far as she could see he had been alone in the theatre.

He did not see her hand; he just looked at her steadily with the only eyes that had ever made her heart turn over, over made her so happy that she felt that she could cry.

"Her father had always said that love was merely an artificial kind of illness.

"The very well thanks," she said. Her father was quite composed when she met his eyes steadily, betraying nothing of what she felt.

"Please don't," she said with a look of enthusiasm.

"Very good."

"You're not a couple of years," he said. "He was always pleased with her and everything it offered him in the way of enjoyment."

"Yes, I should think it ought," Sondra agreed.

"Has your dealer gone?"

"No; she's talking to some people over there. We're waiting for her. There were going on to the Gaspar's."

"I see— His eyes were a little wider now. "Well, I'll say good night."

"Good night,"

He took him turn up the collar of his coat before he stepped out into the street, and his sister had driven away in John's big limousine, but Sondra knew that all probability, Mark would walk with her hands out to a bus at the corner.

OUTLOOK CLEARS FOR IMPROVEMENT OF HIGHWAY GAP

Washington Advises Say Federal Funds Available for Route 93 at Contact When Nevada Makes Application

Money for reuniting and filling of an 18-mile gap in United States highway 93 between the Idaho-Nevada state line and a point south of Contact, will be made available from an emergency federal appropriation, if Nevada will evidence a desire to have it done, according to advice from Washington received here yesterday.

Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce was advised at the same time that Senator John Thomas and Representative Addison T. Smith are seeking the cooperation of Senator Odgers and Representative Arentz, Nevada, and are asked them to have the request made for this work.

Congressman Smith's telegram to the chamber of commerce reads: "Senator Thomas and I made another appeal to Director of Public Roads MacDonald for surfacing and filling of an 18-mile gap in highway 93 from the Idaho-Nevada boundary line to a point south of Contact. Assurance were given that matter would be given favorable consideration. We are also seeking cooperation of Senator Odgers and Representative Arentz, Nevada, and are asked them to have the request made for this work."

Construction of this 18-mile gap will afford an improved highway connection between the Old Oregon road in Twin Falls and the Victory highway at Wells, materially reducing the distance over improved roads to northern Idaho, to the terminus at Yellowstone park, and providing a year-round road between southern Idaho and northern Nevada.

Chamber at Work
Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce highway bureau has been endeavoring for some time to secure favorable consideration for improvement of the highway between the terminus at Wells and the terminus at Yellowstone park, and providing a year-round road between southern Idaho and northern Nevada.

Travel between Yellowstone park and northern California is heavy and the natural sequence of this route which is the most direct federal highway line between San Francisco and Yellowstone, and the only practical route from Idaho to northern California.

It is respectfully urged earliest consideration of this missing link; and if you could only hear personally, as we do every day, the situation of the route respecting improvement, we would be convinced of its necessity."

COUNTY'S CLAIMS IN FEDERAL COURT

Bank Receiver Carries Suit For Dividend on Officials' Deposits to Boise Bench

Litigation wherein Twin Falls county demands payment of a dividend is now pending in the United States district court in Boise, Idaho. The suit was filed by the receiver of the Twin Falls National bank, Twin Falls, when it was closed on December 1, 1931, and transferred to the federal district court from the district court here on July 15, 1932.

The county claims the 18 per cent dividend on $10,000 deposits of officials to the bank. The receiver, for the bank, is J. H. Thompson, receiver for the bank.

County funds involved in the action were deposited to the credit of county officials in the name of the Twin Falls National bank, Twin Falls, Idaho, and collected by Harry O. Parsons, auditor and recorder, Boise, Idaho. Guy L. Kinney, probate judge, 883-235; E. F. Prater, sheriff, 818-29; B. C. Stewart, assessor, 818-29.

Bonds furnished by the bank as security for the deposit of the treasurer and tax collector, and the application of George D. Thompson, receiver for the bank, and the proceeds applied to the redemption of that amount, leaving a balance in that account of $174.40.

MAJOR GENERAL BUTLER ADVISES BONUS SEEKERS TO INSIST ON PAYMENT

Washington by automobile after notifying Waters he was coming by train. While scores of veterans here seeking the bonus were in line today at the veterans' administration awaiting transportation home, Major Butler was seen to be talking to a few minutes later a group, about 20 members of the left wing of the bonus army, was dispersed without incident as they neared the executive mansion.

Police were uncertain tonight whether Butler had stopped a demonstration or delayed the bonus day. "But it is an end I believe any city can attain by careful planning, and the ownership of its utilities."

Chanute's maximum gas rate of 50 cents a thousand, maximum electric rate of 6 cents a kilowatt-hour, maximum water rate of 25 cents a hundred cubic feet, will compare favorably with the rates in any other town in the United States, Mayor Lyle declared. The town had the natural advantage of owning the water works.

Frank T. Hines, administrator of veterans' claims, in answer to this letter reported that veterans were drawing their money for the trip home and then staying in the city, and had found little abuse of the privileges extended the bonus marchers under the law.

The issued his statement as official, working in emergency quarters in the corridors of the building, hastened the slow process of checking the record of the men applying for transportation.

RULES SIMPLE FOR AVOIDING ACCIDENTS

Power Company Tells Causes Of Mishaps in Moving Derricks Under Lines

Principles of safety in moving a derrick in the vicinity of electric lines are simple, according to a statement recently given out by John D. Orr, Twin Falls district manager for the Idaho Power company, last evening.

Hay derricks operated in sections where electric lines are strung, the power manager said, have been contributing factors in a large number of serious accidents.

Many of the accidents were due to error in judgment of the space of clearance—between the derrick boom or mast and the wires; others to an unexpected sagging of the boom when turning a corner or rounding a curve; still others to tilting of the boom—an upswing—caused by a sudden jerk of some kind, perhaps, to an unevenness of road or level surface over which the derrick was being hauled.

Both the hay derrick and the electric line, each in its way, are necessary to the material welfare of the interested public, and in many sections of the country they must exist together. Neither one can be eliminated, and both should be operated so as not to interfere with the purpose of either. It is to the interest of the public that there be a common ground of understanding of the proper situation in respect to the principles of safe operation when moving a derrick in the vicinity of electric lines.

Be sure the mast of the derrick is not too high to go under the electric lines, and that there will be ample clearance. Do not let the boom swing. First level the boom and then let it down to both ends.

Do not touch or touch either the chain or cable and keep away from the derrick when it is being moved. Do not, under any circumstances, attempt to raise or move the electric lines.

Where there is any doubt of safety in moving a derrick near electric lines, if there is any question or apprehension as to the clearance of contact with the line, call the power company for assistance. Time and again the company will express its willingness to help and declares itself ready to respond as promptly as possible to a call, free of charge.

Occur them not to climb poles, and to keep away from all electric lines, no matter where they are. Do not attach radio aerial to electric poles nor run it near electric wires.

PANCA CITY JOINS OTHERS TO TROW OFF YOKE OF TAX

As well when its plant was established. They since have been re-housed. Chanute reduced salaries of its employees approximately 7 per cent as an additional safeguard against the necessity of a tax levy.

Colby has found the profits of his light and gas plants sufficient to have his 3000 dollars from municipal taxes for three years, and is expected to repay a budget which will provide a levy for the fourth year.

John recently reduced its levy to 7 mills on a dollar, approximately half the average of towns of its class in Kansas. With the annexment of the city, the lowest in 73 years, the city commission predicted the town would be tax free to 1935.

Mayor Harmon Hobart said the reduction had been accomplished with the aid of water, light and gas from the municipally owned plants remaining at the 1930 level. The application of private business commissions, said explained simple profits at rates which met with council approval as to reasonable rates.

Among other Kansas towns which have materially reduced their levies through profits of municipal utilities, despite shrinking values of taxable property, are Belleville, and Winfield.

CAUSES DAMAGE BUTTE, Mont., July 19 (AP)—Thousands of dollars damage was caused by a terrific hail and wind storm which swept over Butte late today.

Several hundred windows were broken by the icy pellets, which in many cases measured an inch in diameter. Electric signs were ruined, automobiles were wrecked, flowers and gardens were broken down and hundreds of shade trees were stripped of their foliage.

The storm broke with little warning, sending pedestrians scrambling for shelter. Motorists abandoned their cars when the hail stones came through the tops and street-car passengers huddled in the aisles to escape hail and flying glass.

Every building in the main business district reported heavy loss.

SOUND PICTURES BRING MOTOR INDUSTRY STORY

Nearly 1000 persons witnessed five showings in Twin Falls yesterday of the $100 sound and motion picture production which Chevrolet Motors is contributing toward defeat of the depression.

Opening with a comedy production, "The Fourth Necessity," which went back to the beginnings of the automobile industry with its "wheel-less carriage" and the objections that were raised against it, the performance continues with another sound and motion picture offering, "The Triumph of America," which not only follows through the various processes of manufacture of a modern motor car, but brings into clear relief the dependence of modern industry upon the motor vehicle, and the vast contributions the motor industry makes to other industry with its enormous consumption of steel and iron, hardwood, cotton, rubber, lead, copper and other minerals.

The production was shown once yesterday morning at the Fox theatre and four times at the home of Nelson-Jenkins, Incorporated, Chevrolet distributors, once in the afternoon and three times last night.

D. S. Glendinning, Detroit, who thought the production here, said that at least 1000 persons saw four showings of the production at a Buhl theatre Monday.

Mr. Glendinning has been on the road with the production since April 27, and will complete his part in its presentation at Los Angeles next October 1, he was accompanied here by Robert Erick, Buhl Lake City, Chevrolet zone manager. Nine other men are engaged in presenting the unit production in other parts of the country, Mr. Glendinning said.

Members of the Deep Creek corn club and their leader, Mr. Sheridan, discussed corn growing at a meeting attended by six of the club's members last July 8. Each member spoke on some phase of the subject, such as selection of seed corn, preparation of seed bed, depth of planting, time of planting, irrigation and harvesting. Members of the club are to report on material taken in a farmers' bulletin at the next meeting August 12 at the Deep Creek schoolhouse.

DEEP CREEK CORN CLUB REPORTS ON PROJECTS OF CHILD TO MOTHER

A young mother was given sole custody of her three-year-old boy when Judge W. A. Babcock in district court here yesterday granted her request for modification of a divorce decree that she received here a year ago. The court revised terms of the decree to eliminate provisions under which the child was to visit at least once each week and over night with the father at his parents' home, and to let the mother, Mrs. Helen Sterner, have sole custody of the child without any limiting restrictions. The father, Paul Sterner, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sterner, had requested the application for modification of the decree. Sterner said his former wife had violated terms of the decree by taking the child out of the court's jurisdiction on two occasions following the club meeting. All 14 of the club's members were in attendance. The next meeting was to be held July 13 at the home of Cornelia Kersinger. Mrs. Browning is the club leader.
