RABBIT GROWERS' OUTLOOK IMPROVES

Twin Falls County Association Enters Fifth Year in Envious Position

Members of the Twin Falls County Rabbit Breeders' association representing one of southern Idaho's most flourishing industries met in Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce offices last evening to elect their fifth set of officers and to discuss a plan for forming an incorporated cooperative marketing organization, dealing in rabbit meat.

R. J. Taylor was elected president of the association for the ensuing year; with H. B. Wagner, vice president, and L. C. Walker, secretary. Erwin Schreiber, retiring president; A. M. Jones and L. T. Turner were elected members of the board of directors.

Discussion of the plan for incorporation of a cooperative marketing agency led to a vote authorizing appointment of a committee to work out details and report to a special meeting of the association to be held the evening of Tuesday, October 18.

Members of this committee are J. H. Turner, Erwin Schreiber, William Knudsen, H. N. Wagner and R. J. Taylor.

A Jerome county delegation, including Tom Spadsky, Jerome county agent, in attendance at last evening's meeting, expressed desire to work with the Twin Falls organization in furthering the interests of the rabbit industry in this region.

In Envious Position
"The rabbit industry," L. C. Walker, secretary of the association, said last evening, "is in an envious position now where it seems necessary to expand and increase production in order to meet the market demand."

"We have recently secured a new market which offers a better price and which has demonstrated a demand greater than the supply," Mr. Walker said. "With this market, it is possible for the rabbit grower in this district to sell his rabbit for twice the cost of the feed he puts into his rabbits. I don't know of another livestock feeding enterprise that can approach that record at the present time."

Rabbit growers at last evening's meeting heard with interest reports of increased activity in the fur market. Eastern buyers, they were told, are in the market for all sorts of fur, indicating a demand that promises an early advance in the price of rabbit furs. During the past several months rabbit growers here have depended entirely on the market for their meat, and have accumulated considerable stores of furs for which there has been no profitable market.

Burley Receives Two Markers For Old Oregon Trail

BURLEY, Oct. 4 (Special to The News)—Two monuments to be placed at historic points on the Old Oregon trail in Cassia county, have been delivered at the Idaho state highway department equipment warehouse here. The monuments, which were presented by William H. Thompson, Burley, to the state highway department, were held subject to call, for erection near the old "Emigrant trail" at the East Rock creek crossing, and at the lower crossing of Hart river.

The latter point, where the new highway bridge crosses Hart river, is a mile north of the historic camping spot where the "California trail" led the original Oregon trail to lead emigrants to the California gold fields. It passes the cut-off trail "left the City of Rocks," through Junction valley into Nevada. Thence over the Sierras into the Sacramento valley of California, passing Donner lake, where the Donner party perished from among the lodge members and included: A. L. Pyle,

Water Johnson Takes Helm Of Washington Nationals

Senators Owner Releases Idaho's Hero of Diamond

One of Greatest Pitchers of Baseball History, Long With Capital Club, Comes To End-of-Days As Pilot

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Walter Johnson, out as manager of the Washington American league club.

Clark Griffith, owner of the Senators announced today that he had decided to make a change. He said he had no one in mind as Johnson's successor.

Johnson, one of the greatest pitchers that the game has ever known, had managed the Washington club since 1919. His major league career has been spent with the Washington club. He served as manager of the team in 1928 in the international league in 1929 in his only departure from his big time.

From Idaho

A tall gauntling lad of 19, he came direct from a raw semi-professional team in 1915 to the big time in 1917. His first game was against the hard hitting Detroit team August 2. The best him, 2 to 2, but such slugs as Ty Cobb and Sam Crawford had trouble with the youngster's burning fast ball. From that day on, whatever pitcher mentioned, the name of Walter Johnson was heard.

Johnson, who the club finished sixth, Washington has been in upper ranks of the first division since Johnson took over management of the club. The club finished second in 1930; third in 1931 and after flourishing in the mid-season, finished in 1932. Johnson has been named for second place by Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics.

Johnson's record in baseball, his records show Johnson's preeminence as a player. In 12 seasons he led the American league pitchers in strike-outs. Approximately 3500 batters faced him during his long career with him striking more than a foot off his delivery. It is probable that his strike-out record will never be exceeded. So fast was his ball that it was the plate by his right arm in his prime. It was a standing job across the league. The number of hitters who tried to get out of the lineup for one reason or another was not small.

This speed had dwindled somewhat before he ever played in a world series. Johnson's last world series was in 1924 against the New York National league club. He entered the final game of the series with a record of 12-1. Johnson and his manager, Walter McGraw, and his team to win a 12-inning game and the series. The next year he faced Pittsburgh but was out of the lineup for a couple of weeks. Coolidge once pointed him out as a model for youth.

At his home, just outside Washington, it was said Johnson was away and probably would not return for some time.

Griffith declined to discuss the change, saying only that Johnson's contract had expired and that he would not be renewed.

Newark's Bears Seem Favorites

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 4.—Newark's Bears who started the little world series strongly favored to win by the end of the season. Newark won the second and third games, were reinstated as favorites tonight.

Gold weather caused postponement of the sixth game today. After the postponement didn't help the American association champion Newark.

Griffith declined to discuss the change, saying only that Johnson's contract had expired and that he would not be renewed.

Ruth and McGraw Figure in Rumors In Sports World

Bambino's Future and Talk Of Ex-Skipper's Return To Diamond Occupy Attention in Gossip Rings

By ALAN GOULD (Associated Press Staff Editor) NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Close of the 1932 major league baseball campaign today was followed by a movement of the sports world. The figures of the most famous players and the most famous manager were in the center of the sports world.

They had no connection with each other. Babe Ruth, before leaving out of a golf course, declared he saw no reason why he should not play again in the fall. Babe Ruth, before leaving out of a golf course, declared he saw no reason why he should not play again in the fall.

McGraw Clarified Stand And McGraw, whose name has been linked with the effort of Montreal sportsmen to buy a major league franchise, made it known that he would not play again in the fall.

Carideo And Hardage Carry Rockne And Vanderbilt Styles To Big Six

Exponents of Famous Systems Make Bows in Mid-West Football Skirmishes

By CHARLES A. CHUMWICK (Associated Press Staff Writer) KANSAS CITY, Oct. 4.—Rockne's football as expounded by Frank Cardo and Vanderburgh, learned and refined by Lewie Hardage will be thrust into the Big Six gridiron championship race of the fall.

With only one year's experience as backfield coach at Purdue, the youthful Cardo chief of the Vanderburgh stars, Elmer N. (Doc) Bleight and Paul Calvert, both equally inexperienced in coaching business, as his lieutenants.

They have 14 letter men of the Big Six squad for the first place. Cardo succeeds Quinn Henry, who coached after nine years of service at Iowa.

Lewie Hardage, who once ran 110 yards in a touchdown, has taken over the head management at Oklahoma, which was relinquished by Adolph (Slim) Snyder, who coached at Oklahoma for the last 10 years, is an exponent of a combination Wallace Wade Vanderbilt style.

GOVERNOR DEALS WITH COMMUNITIES

Initial Allotment of Federal Relief Funds Goes To Four Named Towns

In distribution of federal relief funds in Twin Falls county, Governor Ben Ross will deal directly with Duhl, Filer, Kimberly and Hansen, but will make funds available through Twin Falls Associated Charities for use in Twin Falls, Murtaugh, Hollister and Rogerson. It was learned here yesterday.

It was understood that the first allotment of $1000 which the governor turned over to Twin Falls county committee in Boise last Sunday, is to be distributed through Twin Falls Associated Charities, and that the other communities, Duhl, Filer, Kimberly and Hansen, are to make their own contacts with the executive office.

Personnel of a committee to handle relief funds in the governor's name, announced by E. J. Finch, chairman of Twin Falls Associated Charities, yesterday, members are: Fred Perkins, William Lindau, Henry Reese, W. R. Siskatuf, Oliver Johnson and Paul Hinrich.

Details of a plan have yet to be worked out, Mr. Finch said to provide opportunities for destitute persons to exchange their labor for food and other necessities.

Declining that information has been reached that federal relief funds received through the governor's office are to be used to supplement local contributions for relief work, and that in so far as possible the federal relief funds shall be used to pay wages in employment of destitute persons, Mr. Finch said.

The committee named at a meeting here last Friday to represent the whole county in negotiations with the governor at Boise Sunday was composed of T. J. Lloyd, Captain C. H. Kregel, Twin Falls; R. K. Dillingham, Filer; H. W. Herman, Duhl; Carl Ridgeway, Kimberly; M. R. Kenworthy, Hansen; W. R. Siskatuf, Murtaugh.

THEATRE MANAGERSHIP CHANGES IN TWIN FALLS

Dick Older, Twin Falls Public theater manager who came here from Hollywood several months ago, has been promoted to the managership of the Victory theatre in Lake City and H. H. Hedstrom, pioneer Twin Falls theatre man, has succeeded Mr. Older here, it was announced last night.

Mr. Older for several years was a press representative for Public Theaters, occupying positions in several cities including Hollywood and New York City.

Mr. Older will leave today for their new home.

LOCAL LABORERS ASSERT CLAIMS

Petition Addressed to County's Employers Urges Jobs For Bona Fide Residents

A petition addressed to Twin Falls county's employers of labor and signed by 110 Twin Falls business men and citizens, urging employment of bona fide residents and taxpayers of the county was laid before E. J. Finch, member of the board of county commissioners and chairman of Twin Falls Associated Charities, yesterday.

"I don't know why this petition was brought to me," Mr. Finch said last evening, "but I will say that I am thoroughly sympathetic with its purposes, and will do all I can to advance them."

"Our records show that a good many people, residents and taxpayers of the county, who have had to seek for assistance in the past, are still unemployed, while it is a matter of common knowledge that a great many non-residents are finding employment here. The number of foreign licenses on cars parked where men are employed is conclusive evidence that non-residents are sharing in the distribution of seasonal payrolls in this county."

"We have not drawn the lines in favor of our own people, as many other states and districts have done, and are doing in this matter of employment, and I believe our policy in this respect will work to our own disadvantage. It is only reasonable to suppose that federal relief funds which are made available to the county at large will be distributed as generously in the communities from which these non-resident workers in home and that if they were compelled to return to their homes, thereby relieving the labor situation here, they would not lack for relief measures in their home communities."

The petition to the county's employers was as follows:

"We, the undersigned residents and business men of Twin Falls county, earnestly recommend to all employers that they employ bona fide residents and taxpayers in the performance of whatever labor they may require."

"We are opposed to the employment of Mexicans and other itinerant labor who come here and attempt to underbid local labor and thus receive employment."

JURY REACHES ACCORD IN SUIT AGAINST CITY

A jury in the district court here reached an agreement on its verdict at 10 o'clock last night after five-hour deliberations in the suit of L. M. Hendrix and his wife, Mrs. Ladina Hendrix, for $1000 damages from the city of Twin Falls on account of the city's alleged negligence in maintaining a bridge and fence about the Hendrix house in which their three-year-old son, Ralph Monroe Hendrix, fell and was drowned on April 18, 1931.

The jury received the case at 4 p. m. yesterday, the second day of the trial, and under the court's instructions, and its verdict, which will be returned to the court this morning.

The city called two witnesses in presentation of its case. It is Maybom, superintendent of streets, who testified in general to maintenance work on the lateral, and the employee of the street department, who testified to the condition of the bridge.

In rebuttal of their testimony, J. F. James, attorney for Mr. Hendrix, called to the witness stand yesterday Mrs. Hendrix and three other women who live in the vicinity of the lateral. Mrs. Florence Bainter, Mrs. W. W. Frank and Mrs. R. C. Stinson.

The city attorney's motion for a directed verdict to enter judgment was overruled in latter stages of the proceedings and the jury received the case after hearing arguments of the city and the court's instructions.

MAN SEEKS DIVORCE FROM FIVE-DAY WIFE

A story of a wife abandoning her husband five days after their marriage was told in a suit which Victor A. DeVal, Duhl, started in district court here yesterday for divorce from Mattie S. DeVal. The marriage, according to the complaint, took place in Ada county, Idaho, November 27, 1932. There are no children of the marriage. Community property is involved in the action.

W. Taylor, Duhl attorney, is attorney for DeVal.

FILER GETS OWN RED CROSS BRANCH

Relief Organization's Activities Claim Attention With Field Agent's Visit

First steps toward organization at Filer—a branch of Twin Falls American Red Cross chapter have been taken since the arrival here this week of Miss F. Bernadette Rainford, San Francisco, Red Cross field representative, Captain O. H. Kregel, chairman of the Twin Falls chapter, announced yesterday.

Filer organization is to have direct charge of Red Cross activities in that area.

Miss Rainford was guest speaker at an informal meeting of American Legion members at luncheon here yesterday.

Out of 10234 barrels of flour the Red Cross has distributed in this country, she said, 123 barrels of flour have come to Twin Falls county, along with 18 carloads of stock feed, and, recently, 12,000 yards of cotton fabric for use in supplying requirements of needy persons. The Red Cross, she said, has borne all the expense of transportation and distribution of these materials, exceeding that amount some $450,000. It has contributed several thousand dollars also to relief in this country.

Miss Rainford told a group of about 40 persons in the probate court room last evening, how it happened that potatoes and apples sent from Idaho through the Red Cross for relief in Arkansas thought-stricken area two years ago came into the hands of people who reported they had purchased these products. She said, while at the same time there was a shortage of medicines and of fats to provide a balanced ration. Accordingly, she said, some surplus products were exchanged for other needed articles, and persons receiving them in the exchange had placed them on the market.

Directors of the Twin Falls chapter have invited a number of other interested persons to meet with them this evening at the residence of C. P. Fowler, 1429 Poplar avenue, to work out plans for the Red Cross annual membership roll call beginning on Armistice Day, November 11, and continuing to Thanksgiving Day. Captain Kregel held yesterday four organizations, Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, Masons and the American Legion, would be requested to assist with the roll call.

GRAVESIDE SERVICES FOR WILLIAM WOLFE

A man who didn't want his folks to be buried with funeral services at the graveyard in the Filer cemetery at 3 P. M. today. This man, William Wolfe, 68, Twin Falls county resident and farm worker for a number of years, died at the county general hospital here last Saturday, following several days illness. Six years ago his wife died here and the body was taken to Oklahoma for burial. During his illness, Wolfe told a friend who visited him at the hospital he did not want his folks to know. Attempt made after his death to communicate with relatives was unsuccessful, it was stated last evening. Six former associates, five residents of Filer and one of Kimberly, will be pall bearers. The body rests now at the Evans and Johnson funeral home in Twin Falls.
